

SUNFLOWER. W. T. Fusselman left last week for Texas in view of locating there. Richard Thompson returned last week from Colorado, over the new railroad. The doctor was called again for Mrs. V. V. Grider, who is still very ill. Mrs. John Moreland is very low with pneumonia fever. Quite a number of people rabbit hunting since the snow.	SUNFLOWER. The debate at Sunflower School House last Friday night was a success; also the box and pie supper. Proceeds of the evening $17.50 Several from here attended the Trade Day at Hooker last Monday. W. T. Fusselman who went to Texas in view of locating is not satisfied with the country. Mrs. John Moreland is still very very low, her recovery is doubtful. The snow has come and gone, seemingly spring is here. Some people intend sowing oats this week. Some have already sown onion seed.
March 14, 1913 Page: 1, Col: 3	March 28, 1913 - Page: 1, Col: 2
SUNFLOWER. The Farmers Institute at Hugoton was well attended by our farmers around here last Saturday. Some of the people are hauling their grain to Hugoton in preference to Hooker, the inducement being two cents. There will be a basket dinner at Sunflower School House Saturday March 22nd., it being the last day of school. Every one invited. Come in the morning and bring your dinner. We learn that Barto Thompson the mule man has bills struck for the largest sale, of mules and horses in the county, the date being March 27th. 1913. There is not any change in the condition of Mrs. J. Moreland the doctor was there and gave up all hopes of her recovery.	Mrs. John Moreland died at the home of her grand-daughter Mrs. Jim Cox, Saturday, March, 15th. The burial was Sunday afternoon in the cemetery at Barden, Okla. A very large crowd attended the funeral. She was loved and respected by all who knew her, ever doing a kindness where she could, had she lived until May she would have been 79 years old. One of her sons arrived here from Beaver County a few days before her death. Her suffering was intense for the past few weeks. Mr. Moreland has the sympathy of the whole community in the greatest sorrow that could befall him.