The tombstone states that William Salisbury died in 1860. His will was probated in August 1857 with son Lackey petitioning the court to be the executor as one was not named. The stone was erected by The New Salem Association in his memory, date unknown. The inscription reads: Elder William Salisbury 1783 - 1860 and his wife Lizzie (Walker) Salisbury Sleep Here He was a humble and devoted minister for over fifty Years. Moderator of the Burning Springs and New Salem Associations for many years.
