CRADOCK SENIORS PLAN PRODUCTION

The Senior Class of Cradock High School, will present the annual production, "Kicked Out of College" Friday, May 2d, in the high school auditorium.

The story revolves around a high-spirited college boy who is so busy with athletics and inventions that he attends class only twice during the year and is expelled. By taking two marriages, he attempts to placate an irate father who demands that he settle down and get married. The tactics employed by him and others in attempting to deceive the father cause many laughable situations which make of this a mirth provoking comedy.

Ed Harman and Emma Hains lead the cast of characters. They are supported by Marion Grimes, Percy Blackwell, Harry Weaver, Henry Jacobs, James Turner, Rogessan Eagles, Floyd Jordan, Elmer Litchfield, Bill Pringle, Virginia Hurdle, Shirley Still, Alice Howard, Ertle Ruth Rollins, Pasilla Hines, Madeleine Cremer, Winifred Randall and Isabelle Weston. The character roles are good, and every indication is for a successful production. Tickets may be obtained from members of the class.
