

Marriages

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., June 2.—John Kaneley, formerly of this city, and Josephine Hawkins, of Butler, were married at that place May 28. The bridegroom resided in this city before going to Kennedy, Tex., where he was a telegraph operator. He spent Decoration day here with Mr and Mrs. Steve Eganon.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., June 2.—Earl Huffman, a pressman of this city and for several years prominently identified with baseball teams returned Saturday morning from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and brought with him a bride, who was Miss Lois Applewhite, of McAllister, Okla., before their marriage at Oklahoma City on May 15. Mr Huffman entered the army at Fort Wayne in May, 1917, and was sent from Fort Thomas Ky., to the school of fire at Fort Sill. There he was attached to a staff organization, and despite efforts to be assigned to duty overseas was kept at the school of fire to train artillerymen. He saw several thousand artillery officers go through the school and helped to tutor many thousands of the rank and file. Many of the men he helped to train later saw service in France.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind. June 3—Six marriage licenses were issued on Saturday at the county clerk's office, making a record for one day.

The first one issued was that to Ward Winebrenner and Frances Egoif. They were married at Merriam, by Rev. Mr. Paiga. The bridegroom is a laborer and a son of Melvin Winebrenner, who operates a sawmill at Merriam. The bride is a well-known resident of Thornecreek township, and is a daughter of Ed Egoif, a farmer, who resides north of this city.

Marlin H. Budd, son of Thomas F. Budd, of the Farmers' state bank, of Churubusco, and Mary McClain, daughter of P. D. McClain, of Smith township, were married on Saturday. They will reside in Smith township.

The third license was issued to Donald VanTilbury and Corrine Harris, both of Union township. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock, by Rev. I. T. Lean, in the presence of a number of guests, and was one of the largest weddings witnessed here for some time. The bridegroom is a son of Frank VanTilbury and the bride was a teacher, and is a daughter of Mrs. Harris. Both young people are residents of Union township.

They will reside on a farm in Union township. Charles F. Austin son of Will Austin, of Kokomo, and Frances Smith, daughter of Robert Smith, of South Whitley, were married at that place Monday, by Rev. A. Cloud, pastor of the Baptist church in that city.

The bridegroom is a mechanic in Kokomo. They will reside in Kokomo. Frank W. Chapman, son of Oliver M. Chapman, of Noble county, and Fay Lena Western, daughter of Samuel S. Western, of Troy township, were married yesterday. The bride is a school teacher, and the groom is a farmer. They will reside in Noble county.

Donald J. Long, son of John Long, and Zella Helen Moore, daughter of Mary J. Moore, both of this city, were married Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Matthews. They will reside in this city.
