Final Version

Introduction

This eBook tries to cover the different Andrews Families in Charlotte Co., NB.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Notes for Eleazer Butler II:

Raised in Conn. and Penn. by his uncle, Capt. Robert Durkee.

With all the facts available taken into consideration, it is evident that Butler was a loyal soldier under Washington, and it is significant that in 1932 the Daughters of the American Revolution entered the name of Eleazar Butler, 2nd on their rolls and thereby made eligible for membership in their organization and in the Sons of the American Revolution all his descendants who can furnish required proof of descent. This action was taken after verification and acceptance of papers submitted by Miss Jessie M. Crosby of Kansas City, Mo., who in collaboration with the writer collected the evidence.

HENRY COX.—A resume of the careers which are contributing to the best interests of Humboldt county would be incomplete without due mention of the earnest efforts of Henry Cox, one of its oldest residents and at the present time successful merchants. For thirty-eight years he has been prominently identified with its growth, contributing his share toward building up its mercantile and industrial prestige. He has conducted his affairs so energetically and wisely that at the present time he is one of the large property owners in this part of the state. In addition to his interest in the general merchandising establishment of Henry Cox & Son, he owns the blacksmith shop, the Bridgeville Hotel, the livery stable of the place, numerous residences and one hundred four acres of highly improved land, formerly known as part of the Barnum estate, and which he purchased in 1912. The store is well stocked with merchandise in demand by a cosmopolitan population, and father and son are meeting with merited success.

Like many of the best residents of Humboldt county, Henry Cox was born at St. George, New Brunswick, April 20, 1852, and it was there his father, George Cox, during his lifetime a farmer and lumberman, lived and died. His mother, formerly Mary A. McDoal, also claimed New Brunswick as her place of birth and by her marriage with George Cox became the mother of seven sons and four daughters, of whom Henry was the fifth. He remained with his parents, working as woodman, until at the age of nineteen he decided that his future prospects lay remote from home surroundings, and his first independent means of livelihood was employment in the woods of -Maine. Later he went to Minneapolis, Minn., and for two years found work in the lumber camps at the headwaters of the Mississippi. We next find him en-gaged in the silver quartz mine of Belleville, Nev., which he left seven months later, coming to Humboldt county in 1876 and working for various lumber companies around the bay. Afflicted with asthma, he was advised to go to the mountains and in order to restore his health he took up a homestead and timber claim on the south fork of the Eel river, near Garberville. He cleared the farm property of timber and brush and as the years passed instituted many improvements. Here Mr. Cox resided until his removal into Briceland, where he ran the Briceland hotel for a year. On taking up his residence at Hydesville, he became proprietor of a hotel at that place and conducted the same with profit until he became interested in Bridgeville property, where he removed in September, 1909. The seven children born to • Henry and Maria Jane (Coffron) Cox are : Clara, the wife of Robert L. Thomas, for many years city engineer of Eureka ; Minnie V., Mrs. Charles Driesbach, who makes her home in Bridgeville ; George Henry is junior member of the firm of Henry Cox & Son, and of whom mention is made elsewhere in this volume ; Gertrude E., Mrs. Martin Croghan, residing in Bridgeville ; Clarence William, who married Miss Halcyon Wigton, is assisting his father ; Anita and Harold T. Mrs. Cox was a native of Wesley, Me., and came with her uncle, Ellis Coffron, to California when she was eleven years of age (in 1877), and made her home in Eureka and Bayside until her marriage to Mr. Cox, October 24, 1881. She is the daughter of Thaddeus and Elvira (Elsmore) Coffron, natives of New Brunswick and Maine, respectively. The mother died in Wesley and the father still resides in Maine.

The surname of wife of Samuel Andrews has been assumed to be Hamilton, based on the "Father Hamilton" as shown above. This may be incorrect and it might be "Hamilton Shelton", proof required or were there two wives???!!!!!!!

Notes for Daniel McMaster:

Daniel McMaster(s) received land with the Penobscot Loyalist Grants in Charlotte Co., NB, in 1784. His lot was #185 in the sixth division. He also received Town Lot MB5 in the town of St. Andrews.

Daniel McMaster(s) name does not appear in the list of Penobscot Loyalists for 1782 or 1783 at Penobscot as well as the 1784 list of Penobscot Loyalists settled at Passamaquoddy. This would tend to indicate that he must have had the means to take care of his family and did not require assistance.
