Preface

This eBook is an attempt to bring together all of the genealogy information on the descendants of the Loyalist William Bailey that lived in York County, NB from 1833.

The content of this book depend on you, the descendants of William, and will only continue to grow if you add new information for your line(s). Those shown as the authors are really only the editors and you are the authors as descendants.

All corrections and additions should be sent to the address shown below. When indicating corrections or additions, please do not refer to any page number in this book or any other ID number that may be associated with a person. What we need is the name of the person and birth date and that way we can find the person in the genealogy database and make any correction and/or additions. You are asked to be complete in your information giving full names, full dates of birth/marriage/death, and full location of the event. Locations should contain city/town/area, Parish/Township/, County, Province/State, Country. Just a location like Chipman, NB is not sufficient as there may be several places in NB by the name of Chipman. Old Ridge, NB is even a better example.

The purpose of this book is to make available to those searching the descendants of William Bailey of Douglas Parish, York Co., NB, what is known at the present time

The text shown below is a request for assistance by Elizabeth Bailey after the death of her husband in 1852. The text was written by Mike Bailey. The original documents are also shown in the section called "Supporting Documentation & images: Part 1 & 2"

In 1853 Elizabeth Bailie (sic) petitioned the House of assembly of the Province of New Brunswick for a sum of money to purchase land for a home.

To the Honorable (?) House of Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick in General (?) (?)

The Petition of Elizabeth Bailie of Douglas in the County of York

Humbly (?)

That your petitioner is the widow of the late William Bailie who died on the eighteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, having your petitioner with nine children (the youngest of whom was born seven months after her husband's death) in very indigent circumstances. That your petitioner came to this province with her late husband as settlers about twenty years (?). That the said William Bailie was a pensioner of Her Magestys 98th Regiment of Foot. That he commuted his pension for an allowance of Land promised to be provided him in the Province. That a tract of land Lot number in the first (?) of Little Magaguadavic Lake Settlement Parish of Kingsclear was (?) to him but in consequence of his not having his certificate of Discharge (which your petitioner supposes he did not do from it being in such a (?) state that he feared it would not satisfy the demands of the Crown lands Office) this (?) was never granted to him.

Your petitioner desires to present for your investigation a Memorandum from a Clerk in the Crown land Office to the above effect - A letter from the war office station that a Drummer William Bailie was discharged from the th Regiment in September - And the (?) Certificate of Discharge which has been promised by Military (?) to be a Discharge Certificate and no doubt authentic and which my late husband always had in his possession and preserved with much care.

Under the circumstances your petitioner Honorably (?) that your Honorable Honor will be pleased to grant to her and her children a (?) tract of land to the (?) formally located to her husband as such a sum of money as may enable her to purchase a small farm for the maintenance and support of her large family.

And your Petitioner as is duly bound will ever Pray.

Elizabeth Bailey

Parish of Douglas

This is to certify that I am acquainted with the petitioner and believe the statement in the (?) petition to be correct.

The following was received frm Mike Bailey, 13 Dec 2014:

William Bailey was born in 1796 in Tarrington Parish, Birkshire, England.

When he 16 years old in 1812 he joined the British Army as a drummer. The British Army was spread pretty thin at that point with campaigns against Napoleon in Europe and a new conflict with the United States in north America. William was assigned to the 98th Regiment of Foot Soldiers as a drummer and spent most of his time in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Logged in as Drummer Bailey he stayed with the regiment until it was disbanded in 1818, when he was discharged at Fort Pitt in Chatham, Kent County, England. He returned to his home in Tarrington Parish, Birkshire, England and about 1822 married Elizabeth Waherty.

"He commuted his pension for an allowance of Land promised to be provided him in the Province [of New Brunswick, Canada]. That a tract of land Lot number 7 in the first (?) of Little Magaguadavic Lake Settlement Parish of Kingsclear was (?) to him but in consequence of his not having his certificate of Discharge (which your petitioner supposes he did not do from it being in such a (?) state that he feared it would not satisfy the demands of the Crown lands Office) this (?) was never granted to him."

He and his wife Elizabeth immigrated to New Brunswick, Canada in 1833.

In 1851 he was listed as a 60-year old Tenant farmer in Douglas Parish, York County, New Brunswick. Tenant farmers did not own the land they worked, but paid a rent or a portion of their crop to the landlord in hopes of someday building up enough credit or capital to buy their own land. In 1851 he was living with his wife Elizabeth and their seven children, next door to his son Richard (a land owner) and wife Leticia and their baby daughter Mary Jane.

William died in July of 1852, at about 58 years old, seven months before the birth of his ninth child. As a tenant farmer in New Brunswick William had no land to pass on to his wife and children and in 1853 Elizabeth Bailie (sic) found herself "in very indigent circumstances" and officially "petitioned the House of Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick for a sum of money to purchase land for a home" in recognition of William's years of service to the Crown and his commutation of his pension for an allowance of land in the Province of New Brunswick.

The date of death of Elizabeth is unknown. She only appears in the 1851 census and her children are in the 1861 census, the youngest being only 7 years old. It would appear that Elizabeth has either died or remarried but she has abandoned her youngest children which seems strange. It is being assumed that she has died unless other evidence is found to prove otherwise.

Notes for Madlyn Elizabeth Bailey:

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Madlyn Phillips on February 10, 2021.

Descendants of William Edward Bailey I

Madlyn was born in Fredericton and is predeceased by parents Harry Scott Bailey and Violet Elizabeth Bailey (nee Turvey), brother Philip William Bailey, and husband Antony Frank Phillips.

Left to mourn are daughter Diane (Gerald Conway) of Ottawa, son Peter of Fredericton, grandchildren Scott and Sarah Conway of Ottawa, and nephew David Bailey of Sarnia.

Mischievous and fun throughout her life, Madlyn always had a twinkle in her eye. She and her brother Phil got up to so many antics as children, they were dubbed the "Bailey brats". She was a good student despite the antics and was usually at the top of her class. After her brother left for war in 1941, she started at UNB where she enjoyed the rigours of university studies and the vibrancy of academic social life. In 1947, she was awarded a Bachelor of Arts.

However, life was not easy for Madlyn as a young woman. Tragically, her fiancé passed away within a year of their engagement. In 1948, her father passed away from colon cancer. Her losses at such a young age led to a lifelong aversion to the medical profession. Madlyn's motto became: "If you don't want the answer, don't ask the question."

In 1953, she married Frank Phillips, a photoengraver from England. They met at the Daily Gleaner where they both worked and they started their married life in Fredericton. They then moved to Montréal, and shortly afterward to Boston, where Diane was born in 1956, and Peter followed in 1959. Just a month before Peter was born, Madlyn's husband Frank suffered a serious heart attack. During Frank's recuperation, Madlyn became primary caregiver to both Frank and Diane, along with delivering Peter.

After Frank's recovery, they moved to Rhode Island. As a stay at home mom, Madlyn provided many adventures for her children, including beach days, day trips, and freedom to dam brooks and build tree houses. She and Frank had many friends. There were frequent happy family times fishing, barbecuing, and summer trips home to Fredericton to visit her mother Violet Bailey and her well-known Shore Street landmark, Bailey's General Store.

Life was good. When Peter started school, Madlyn began her studies in Library Science at the University of Rhode Island. Then tragedy struck again when Frank passed away from a massive heart attack in 1966. She accepted a job at UNB at the Harriet Irving Library as a cataloguer, where she made many lifelong friends. She rekindled many of her Fredericton friendships and was an active member of the Fredericton Stamp Club.

Madlyn was a loving mother and eventually an equally loving grandmother. Bringing up two children on her own never seemed to be a burden to her, although it undoubtedly was. She encouraged Diane to pursue her professional dreams and was steadfast in her love and care for her son Peter.

Despite the many tragedies in her life, Madlyn never complained, and was a sweet and kind soul to everyone she met. She had an open and smiling face, and many strangers came up to her to tell her their life stories.

Those of you who knew her saw her unflinching courage, kindness, and willingness to help others. Madlyn was a gracious hostess and enjoyed a good party, often with her signature rye and ginger in hand. After retirement, she travelled extensively, mostly on her own. One time in Bermuda, she met a group of sailing enthusiasts who adopted her for a week and took her sailing.

She was devoted to her grandchildren, Scott and Sarah, who gave her much pride and joy. She delighted in her son-in-law Gerry, with whom she enjoyed many stories and discussions, often ending with "agreeing to disagree." Madlyn was the mother-in-law you wanted to have come to visit.

Madlyn remained stylish to the end. Up until the past few years, she toured around Fredericton in her sporty Mustang convertible, which she dubbed "Black Beauty."

As osteoporosis set in, Madlyn's later years became increasingly difficult. She faced it with dignity, never losing her spirit, her sense of fun, or that twinkle in her eye. She spent her final year at Windsor Court, and her many friends were of immense support to her.

Madlyn will be missed by many, and remembered with deep love and gratitude for the privilege of having her in their lives.

A memorial service will take place at St. Anne's Chapel of Ease on Thursday, February, 25, 2021 at 2 pm, by invitation only. For those unable to attend, this service can be watched online at the following link: <https://vimeo.com/511273096>. Interment will be held at the Fredericton Rural Cemetery at a later date.

Donations in Madlyn's memory would be greatly appreciated to Greener Village Community Food Centre or a charity of the donor's choice. Online condolences may be left at www.mcadamsfh.com

To the Honorable the House of Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick in General Session convened.

The Petition of Elizabeth Baskin of Douglas in the County of York

Humbly Sheweth

That your petitioner is the widow of the late William Baskin who died on the Eighteenth day of July in the Year of our Lord one Thousand Eight Hundred and fifty two, leaving your petitioner with three Children (the Youngest of whom was born seven Months after her husband's death) in very indigent circumstances. That your petitioner came to this Province with her late husband as Settler about twenty Years since. That the said William Baskin was a Pensioner of Her Majesty's 9th Regiment of Foot. That he commuted his Pension for an Allowance of Land promised to be provided him in this Province. That a tract of Land Lot Number 7. in the first tier of Little Inaguadavie Lake Settlement Parish of Kingsclear was located to him, but in consequence

consequence of his not having produced his Certificate of Discharge (which your petitioner believes he did not do from its being in such a mutilated state that he feared it would not satisfy the demands of the Crown Land Office) the same was soon granted to him.

Your petitioner desires to present for your investigation a Memorandum from a Clerk in the Crown Land Office to the above effect - A letter from the War Office stating that a Sergeant William Bashie was discharged from the 98th Regiment in September 1818 - and the mutilated Certificate of Discharge which has been procured by Military Order to be a Discharge Certificate and no doubt authentic and which my late husband always had in his possession and preserved with much care.

Under these circumstances your petitioner humbly prays that your Honorable House will be pleased to grant to her and her children a like tract of land to the one formerly located to her husband or such a sum of money as may

As may

as may enable me to purchase a small for the maintenance and support of large family.

And Your Petitioner as in duty
will ever pray

Parish of Douglas
7th February 1854.

Elizabeth Bailey
widow of the late William Bailey

This is to certify that I am acquainted with the Petitioner and believe the Statements in foregoing petition to be correct.
