Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

If Hanna is the daughter of Samuel Bliss then she was either married to a Mr. Gibbs prior to 1794 or was a child of Samuel Bliss and his first wife who must have either died or remarried to a Mr. Gibbs and the child of Samuel and his first wife was raised with the name of Hannah Bliss Gibbs. More research required to solve this puzzle!!!

This connection of Samuel Bliss is being made pending proof. Anyone using this information must be very careful and add the notes that indicate that it may be WRONG!! (AEK)

Notes for Alfred D. Brockway:

Alfred D. Brockway is being attached as a son of Daniel/David Brockway as this family was in the 1850 census for Calais, Washington Co., ME. They seemed to be there for only the 1850 census as all of the children were born in New Brunswick and the complete family was not in subsequent census for the Calais area. The parents were at Princeton, Washington Co., ME in the 1860 census.

The following is an email received 20 April 2009 from John V. Chaplin:

I attach a file which was sent to me by the Falkland Islands Museum Service. (Manager Leona Roberts) It refers to a grave situated on the in a fenced of area known as Town Point, which used to be part of the Packe Brothers Company, Dunnose Head Farm. I visited the grave many times during 1962 whilst living at Dunnose Head. It is known locally as "Old Brocks Grave."

The ship he sailed on was called Echo, and I believe it to have been a bark. I can find no record of it ever arriving in California. see second document that shows then names of people on the ship that went to California

Melancholy Circumstance! We have been kindly forwarded with a copy of an American journal which gives, in a letter from California, dated in April last, the particulars of a melancholy accident by which a young man who resided some time in Chatham (North. Co.) met with an untimely death: " On the 25th (Christmas Day) after casting anchor in the Chartres, we went on shore with the Captain, returned and took our dinner, and then the Captain, Alfred D. BROCKWAY, James GRAHAM, Thomas WADE, Aaron PEABODY, Warren FOSTER, Joshua BOYDEN and I, started in a boat up the river, insearch of the best chance for water. Some went on shore and walked part of the way near the bank in search of game, while the rest managed the boat. About a mile above the vessel, we saw a wolf, apparently of the prarie breed, and three of our number were following it up a high hill, when the Captain called for them to return, as it would be consuming more time than we could spare to follow it. All returned but BROCKWAY, who was in the advance of the rest, no one had seen him nor knew anything more than he was last seen ascending the hill. The Captain waited awhile and hearing nothing further from him, mustered a party and started in search. With consider- able labor they reached the top of the hill, on the northern part of which they found Mr. BROCKWAY, lying on his face, at the mouth of the wolf's den, which he had shot there - and from the appearance he had, after firing off one charge from his double-barrelled gun, inconsiderately used it to hook out the wolf; when in so doing, the second load was discharged into his body, entering on the right side near the collar bone, passing through the lungs and heart and making its exit from the left side. The party returned with the mournful intelligence, stating that it was out of their power to bring him down in the night time, weak handed as they were. About day-break, the Captain again mustered a party who armed themselves and started again for the body. On reaching the place the body was found undisturbed; but on hearing a growling in the wolf's den, although seeing nothing, the Captain fired his musket, which bursted and injured him, slightly wounding his hand and face and affecting his hearing so much that he was rather deaf on one side for a number of weeks... The body of Mr. BROCKWAY was brought down the mountain, taken on board the boat and conveyed to the vessel. Mr. BOYDEN made a good pine coffin for it and the same after noon, it was carried on shore and buried some feet above high water mark opposite to where the vessel laid at anchor.

The following is from an email received from John V. Chaplin, 21 April 2009:

What I didn't tell you was that my experience with the grave amounts to a very strange story which I shall attempt to condense for you.

During Autumn 1962( Southern hemisphere) whilst working for Packe Brothers at Dunnose Head I was detailed to guide a schoolteacher to Chartres Settlement. (There were no roads at the time and most transport was by horseback..I attach a photo of the horse I was riding) The journey was slow, and the teacher moaned continuously. The journey was about 25 miles, and during the Afternoon we arrived at a point opposite Chartres and tried to attract someones attention so that the motor boat could come and fetch the teacher. After half an hour it came, and I returned to Gun Hill Shanty with both horses, where I brewed some tea, ate a snack, and got my head down for a couple of hours. Feeling a bit refreshed I remounted and towed the spare horse by tucking its cabresto (lead) under my right thigh. (You can see the track route marked on the map). As soon as we passed through the gate I began to experience problems with the horse I was leading, it dragged badly. The sun was setting in the Nothern sky and the sunset brought the surface of the ground into sharp relief. As we neared the grave I finally passed the led horse to my left side, where it walked apparently attempting to keep me between it and the grave which was in sight ahead. The horse I was riding also became sluggish, and refused to look ahead, only to the left, away from the grave. Deciding that I was better of letting the horses take their own path, we drifted further to the left. I then became aware that there were no animal hoofmarks anywhere near the grave, and I had the experience of feeling the hairs on the back of my neck standing on end. Once past the grave, both horses picked up their pace. Eventually I found no need to lead the spare horse, and let it go. The remainder of the ride home was in almost complete darkness, and I was glad indeed when I saw the solitary light at the settlement, and rode in for a well earned night's sleep. After I found there were several stories about people's experiences with the "spirit of Old Brock." Many of these stories involve Gun Hill Shanty. ( The shanty appeared in a set of Falkland Island Stamps entitled Shepherd's Houses ... try googling that.) Other points of interest are the wolf, which was a Falkland Fox, commonly called a Warrah which is now extinct.

The list of grave finders in 1868 include Lewis Piedra-Buenos who was in fact Luis Piedrabuena, who was later honoured by the Argentine Government, and made a Commandante in the Navy. There is a town today on the Santa Cruz River named "Commandante Luis Piedrabuena."

In the 1982 war during May when the ARA General Belgrano was torpedoed by HMS Conqueror, there were two destroyers steaming in company with the Cruiser. One of these was the ARA Piedrabuena, which was an old USA destroyer of the Sumner Class. By carefully looking at all the history of this class I discovered that it was DD-730 launched in May 1944 as the USS Collett. Collett was built at Bath, Maine. There are many other co-incidences involving the both the 1868 and 1875 grave discoverers, which I am still researching.

West Falkland in 1849 was unsettled, all of that came later. When I was there it was one big sheep farm. Dunnose Head was 200 sq miles, and ran 20,000 sheep.

You could say that I am driven by the spirit of Old Brock.

May his Spirit Rest in Peace as we get his story out to the world(AEK)

Additional description of where the burial site is located:

The Chartres mentioned was the Chartres River which is the second longest river on West Falkland. Chartres the settlement had not been built in 1849. One of the best maps on line is in Wikipedia, (or use Google Earth; approx GPS co-ord 51:40:50.96S, 60:11:3.34W). This shows Dunnose Head sticking out west on the middle of West Falkland. Above it King George Bay. At the East end of the Bay there is a point of land sticking up, this is Town Point. Coming down South East from there is Christmas Harbour which ends at the mouth of Chartres River. Chartres by the way is not named after Chartres in

Bliss Families

France, but after a naval officer off, I believe, HMS Challenger. The grave is on the south side of Christmas Harbour, halfway down from Town Point to the Chartres Estuary. It would really make my day if there was a Brockway serving on the USS Collett in World War II.

That would really bring it all the way around.

Dunnose Head is now split into Three Farms; Shallow Harbour; Dunnose Head and The Narrows.

Town Point is in The Narrows.

Dunnose head has a large website run by the Wilkinsons who own the middle section of the old Packes property.

An Account of the Earliest Settlers - Rev. Charles P. BLISS, fourth rector of Sussex, was born at Fredericton on 25th day of July 1825. He was the son of George Pidgeon BLISS, late Receiver General of the Province and Sarah WETMORE, his wife. They had a large family which also included Rev. Donald M. BLISS, Westmorland; Thomas W. BLISS, formerly Registrar of Deeds for Kent Co. and George J. BLISS, late Clerk of the House of Assembly. Mr. Bliss graduated at King's College, Fredericton, as B.A. in 1845 and proceeded to the degree of M.A. in 1849. In August 1848 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Medley at the Cathedral in Fredericton in which city he remained for awhile as assistant to His Lordship in the Church of St. Ann's. He was admitted to the priesthood the following year. His first parish was that of Harvey and Hopwell in Albert Co. where he continued until 1853. His next parochial charge was in Springfield (Kings Co.) from which, in the winter of 1862, he came to Sussex. His first duty recorded in the Sussex register was a baptism on the 22nd March 1862; his last was also a baptism which took place March 19th, 1867. During his stay in Sussex he suffered considerable from throat trouble which seriously affected his voice. His increasing infirmities at last compelled his resignation and in the spring of 1867, he removed to Ottawa where he became private secretary to Hon. S.L. Tilley, C.B., Minister of Customs. This position he occupied until his death. He continued, however, to take ministerial duty and for the last two or three years before his death he was assistant priest at St. Alban's Church, Ottawa. He died at his residence there Thursday 21st November 1872 in the 47th year of his age. Mr. Bliss was married at Trinity Church, St. John, N.B. Nov. 17th, 1849 by Bishop Medley to Dorothy Ann VAUGHAN only d/o Charles VAUGHAN, Esq., formerly of the Royal Navy and a late Comptroller of Customs in that city. He had six sons and one daughter. The second son, Rev. C.V.F. BLISS is a clergyman of the Church of England, a rural dean of the Diocese of Ontario. The third son, John Murray BLISS was one of the N.W.P. appointed in 1872. Mr. Bliss was a member of the Orange Order, being for three successive terms Provincial Grand Master for N.B.. He was also a freemason and one of the early members of Zion Lodge no. 21 and also for some time Grand Chaplain N.B.

Bliss Families

The first Lodge of Freemasons which existed in Kings Co. some 40 or 50 years ago, had among its members some of the leading men of the county, but it is believed that all are long since dead. The records of that lodge were lost many years ago by fire. The first records we have are of the present Zion Lodge which was instituted in 1863 with the following brethren as charter members: Joseph H. LITTLEHALE, George RYAN, William D. AITKEN, Charles P. BLISS, S.S. LITTLEHALE, S.P. WETMORE and Clarence WARD. The first meeting of Zion Lodge No. 995 was held April 10th, 1863. (see original)

In the 1851 census, Alexander listed himself as having emigrated to New Brunswick in 1820. He lived in the Second Falls area of Charlotte County until his untimely death in 1884. While trying to save another man from a lumber campfire, he suffered critical burns. Although he managed to get on his horse, who took him home, he only lived a few days despite the best care Nancy could provide. His hands were so badly burned, Nancy had to hold his pipe for him to have a smoke.

Alexander Jr. (Sandy) Williamson was born in 1809 in Dipper Harbour, New Brunswick, and died 16 March 1884 in Second Falls, Charlotte County, N.B. He married Nancy GOSS on 08 April 1838 in Second Falls. Sandy was born in Dipper Harbour after the death of his father which occurred on 02 November 1809 by shipwreck. Newspaper accounts of the death advise he was survived by his wife and two children, (Sandy was the third). According to the 1851 Census, Sandy entered Canada in 1820. It is not known where, or for how long, he was out of the country. However, his mother Jane WILLIAMSON. (widow), married a William FRENCH on 02 January 1814 at nearby Mushquash, N.B.

Sandy settled in Second Falls, N.B. during the 1830's and worked as a lumberman and millman. He was married to Nancy Goss by Rev. Duncan Thompson on 08 April 1838 in Second Falls. Sandy and Nancy made their home at the site where Aldon Kinney Jr. lives today, (1997); and became members of the Second Falls Baptist Church.

Obituary - Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Spinney

Many relatives and friends from all parts of the county and province and from sections of Ontario attended the double funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Spinney, which was held here on Friday afternoon.

One of the largest seen here in many years, the funeral was held from the St. George Funeral Home, following prayers, to St. Mark's Anglican Church where the service was conducted by the rector, Rev. David Genge, assisting him, were Canon Alvin C. Hawkes of Nashwaaksis, Rev. Kenneth M. Hushes, pastor of the local United Baptist Church and Rev. John F. Ryan of Saint John and Pocologan.

A mixed choir of St. Mark's Anglican and the United Baptist Churches led in the singing of a favorite hymn.

Among those attending the service in a body were members of the women's Missionary Society of the United Baptist Church; members of the Charlotte County Historical Society; members of the local association of Girl guides, and of the First St. George Girl Guide Company.

Pallbearers for Mr. Spinney were Charles V. Davis of Second Falls; Alfred W. Bowden, St. Stephen; Donald E. Scott, Saint John; Frank S. Jackson, John Kernighan and Stanley B. White, St. George.

Word of the sudden death of Mr. and Mrs. Spinney came as a great shock to their family, the community and host of friends.

Their death occurred following an accident Thursday night, August 1, when their car broke through a guard rail at the west end of the Upper Bridge, near Simpson's Garage, plunged down the bank into the Magaguadavic River.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Spinney were 78 years of age. She was born at St. George and he was born at Utopia. They are survived by one daughter, Mrs. Gerald Grearson (Anita) and a granddaughter (Judy) Mrs. Charles Neathway, all of St. George.

She was a member of the United Baptist Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary society of the church. Mrs. Spinney is survived by a number of nephews and nieces.

A son of the late Douglas and Margaret (Trynor) spinney, Mr. Spinney was an active member of the St. Mark's Anglican Church and over the years has served on the Vestry Board and as a Church Warden. He was a valued member and historian of the charlotte County Historical society. Surviving are two brothers, Frank D. and Vernon K. Spinney, both of St. George. Retiring several years ago from the St. Croix Pulp and Paper Company, Woodland, Maine; earlier in life, Mr. Spinney was employed locally with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Numerous and beautiful wee the floral tributes received, all silent testimonies to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. spinney were held in the community, as were the many donations made to various memorial funds given in their memory.

Notes for Rufus Berton Goss:

Rufus Berton Goss

1926-2014

Master Warrant Officer (retired). The Corps of Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers (RCEME). Died peacefully February 10, 2014, at Saint John Regional Hospital, following a stroke.

Rufus was born in 1926 to the late Rufus E Goss and Pauline (nee Craig). He was pre-deceased by a brother Arlington Goss (Eileen) and a sister Elaine Hunter (Dudley). He is survived by a brother Byron Clinch (Jean) of Saint John, NB, and a sister Gail MacDougall (Archie) of Cornwall, Ontario.

Rufus was pre-deceased by his beloved wife Margaret Wyoma (nee Lewis) in 2004, after 56 years of devoted marriage. Rufus and Margaret are survived by their three children, William Goss (Peggy), St. Andrews, NB, Gloria Hargrove (Brian), Saint John, NB and Janet Goss, Fredericton, NB. He was extremely proud of his six grandsons, Corey and Jeffrey Taylor and Anthony, Nicholas, Alexander and Matthew Goss, and his four (soon to be five) great-grandchildren. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews.

Rufus enlisted in the Canadian Army in 1943, at the age of 17, and served with honour and distinction, in war and peace, for 26 years, including World War Two and the Korean War. He was a highly skilled and respected craftsman, practicing and teaching the “artificer” trade of weapons maintenance and repair.

Following his retirement from military service, Rufus embarked on a second career when he became employed, first in the construction and then the operation, of the Lake Utopia Paper mill near St. George, NB, shortly to be appointed to the position of Personnel Manager, from where after two decades he retired for a second, and final time, in 1989.

His pastimes included hunting and fishing and working his “farm” at Pennfield; pretty much anything that involved being outdoors. He was an incisive and enquiring mind. With limited formal education, his voracious reading habits equipped him with a knowledge of history, historical biography, political science, and multiple other specialized topics, all of which taken together would equate to a number of university degrees.

Although not a gregarious man, Rufus formed a few close friendships, particularly amongst his fellow “old soldiers”, that were invaluable to him and which he never lost track of. One could not imagine a more loyal or trustworthy man to have as a friend.

The family wants to express its deep gratitude to Dad’s friend Mrs. Marjorie Savoie who, over the last few years, has provided him with loving companionship, care and support, without which it would not have been possible for him to realize his fervent desire to live out his final years in his own home. We also appreciated the compassionate dedication and care given by various in-home health and other support professionals, made available with the assistance of support for Veterans.

As keeping with Rufus’ wishes, there will be no visitation. A Celebration of Rufus’ life including a Royal Canadian Legion Tribute Service, will be held from the Gary E. Waycott Memorial Chapel at the St. George Funeral Home & Crematorium (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB on Friday at 11:00 am. The interment will take place at the St. George Rural Cemetery in the spring. In Rufus’ memory, donations to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch #40, St. George NB or to the Saint John Regional Hospital Palliative Care Unit would be greatly appreciated by the family.

Douglas James Goss

December 05, 1945 - November 11, 2018

It is with heavy hearts that the family of Douglas James Goss wishes to share that this loving husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle and friend left us on November 11th, 2018. He is remembered by his loving wife of 51 years Elaine (Blair) Goss, son Timothy (Pam), daughter Nicki (Perry), grand daughters Jessica and Carly and their father Andrew Hamburg. He will be missed by his brothers David (Donna) Goss, George (Christine) Goss and sister Barbara (Larry) Heans as well as brother-in-law David (Priscilla) Blair and sister-in-law Amelia Blair. There are several favorite nieces and nephews who will miss him greatly. Douglas is predeceased by his parents Abram and Marion Goss and his sister Shirley.

As well as being a devoted and loving family man, Douglas was a dedicated educator, having taught at McAdam High School for 25 years. He was a caring, loving and patient man and he made it his life's work to help his fellow man, moulding the minds of all of his students. Douglas loved his family and was a dedicated member of his church and gave much of his time to his charity work. He was a town councillor for the Village of McAdam for several years.

In this past year, Douglas' greatest joys were his two grand daughters and his great grand fur baby Mason. His pride for both Jessica and Carly brightened each and every day. He loved to tease them like only Douglas could, sharing in their laughter. Douglas was an avid Saint John Sea Dogs fan, cheering the team to victory whenever he could. Please continue to cheer for our local Saint John Sea Dogs in memory of Douglas.

Douglas lived his life to the fullest, often expressing this to others in the form of the question "where is your sense of adventure?". His lifelong adventure has come to end but his memory will live on in all of those who knew and loved him.

There will be no visitation or funeral services scheduled at this time. Donations can be made to the charity of your choice. Douglas' favorite charities include the McAdam High School Scholarship Fund, 29 Lake Avenue, McAdam, NB. E6J 1N7, St. George's Anglican Church, McAdam, NB and Trinity Anglican Church, Saint John, NB.
