Final Version

Preface

This is a very preliminary book of the Connick Families that are descendants of Joseph Connick. The book has been divided into chapters, one for the main family and then a separate chapter for each of the children.

Since this is a very preliminary version of a book, it has many errors and missing data. Your help is requested in adding information to the book so that others who are descendants of these lines may benefit from the research done by others. The more we share the faster the tree grows.

The last chapter contains a listing of all persons with the surname of Connick and those whose parents are unknown are at the top of the listing. Anyone with information on the parents are asked to contact Arnold Krause at the address or email as shown below.

I gain no financial benefit from this effort and am just trying to make the information available at the lowest cost.

The book is password protected since it contains information on living persons and if you share this password with others who are working on the Connick lines then I ask that you notify me of the name of the person and their email address so they can be added to an active email list of those requiring updates when new versions of the book are put online and a new password is used.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Any updates and/or corrections should be sent to:

I came across the item that I have pasted in below because it provides some additional detail on Joseph Connick (b. ca. 1740) and his wife, Susannah Shackford. I hope that it will be of interest.

WILLIAM CONNICK
EARLY SETTLER of ALEXANDER

In the description of Green Hill in issue 130, we noted that Nancy Connick was the second wife of Joseph Green Brown Sr. and mother of several others who resided on Northeast Ridge of Cooper or Green Hill in the nineteenth century. Green Brown, born at Machias on May 10, 1782. He lived at first with his parents, then on his own in the parishes of St. Stephen and St. David, New Brunswick for 25 years before 1821. Soon after that he moved back across the border, first to South Princeton, then to Green Hill. He met Nancy in New Brunswick.

Nancy was a daughter of Joseph and Susanna (Shackford) Connick. Susanna was a daughter of David and Lydia (Short) Shackford. Joseph Connick and Susanna Shackford were married at Newburyport, Massachusetts in 1767. Nancy's family with Green Brown is described in issue 130, page 14, site D. Nancy was a sister of the William Shackford Connick, early settler of Alexander described below.

Joseph Conic of Newburyport, Massachusetts agreed with James Boyd to settle on LesAtten Island (now called Indian Island) in Passamaquoddy Bay for four years and salt fish. He apparently also lived on nearby Deer Island during that time. He signed up with the British Royal Fencibles and for this service was granted 500 acres at Lake Utopia near the Magaguadavic River. This lot apparently was mostly water so he applied for a better lot at Galupe Lake in St. David's Parish. This lot he traded with a Mr. Stuart for land in Moore's Mills.

Records indicate that William Shackford Connick was a son of the above Joseph. William was born on July 25, 1782. He married Sarah Hall on November 16, 1802. Sarah was born on September 16, 1784, a daughter of Stephen Hall. Stephen Hall died at William and Sarah's home in Alexander on March 24, 1834. This Connick family was in Alexander according to the 1820 and 1830 censuses. William's death is not recorded, but we know Sarah was living in 1860 in Meddybemps with her son Levi. Children of William and Sarah Connick:

- 1) Stephen was born on January 21, 1804, at St. Stephen, NB.
- 2) Maryann was born on August 4, 1805, at the same place.
- 3) Levi was born on March 16 1808, in Township #6 (Baring)
- 4) Joanna was born on May 15, 1810, in Township #6 (Baring)

Stephen Connick may have been born on January 21, 1804 at St Stephen and died on February 11, 1892 at Waltham, Maine. He is buried at Pembroke. He married Lydia Emerson (intentions November 28, 1825, Alexander, married December 29, 1825 by Warren Gilman). Their children:

- 1) Caleb K. (1828 – 1845) is buried at Meddybemps Cemetery

- 4) Sarah A. was born at Meddybemps on January 18, 1839 and died on May 25, 1919 at Waltham. She married Increase Jordan at Meddybemps in 1855. He was a son of Increase and Emma (Kingman) Jordan of Waltham. Increase (1828 – 1909) and Sarah are both buried at Hillside Cemetery in Waltham.

- 9) Lucy J. was born in 1850 and married John Bibber.

Maryann Connick was born on August 4, 1805. She married Joseph Longley on December 13, 1827. He was born on March 2, 1803 at Norridgewock, Maine. They resided in Alexander into the mid 1830s. Their Longley children:

- 1) Mary Eliza (1829 – 1830)
- 2) Rufus was born on August 24, 1830.
- 3) Eliza Ann was born on May 2, 1832.
- 4) Mary Ann Sarah was born on May 2, 1824.

Levi S. Connick was born March 16, 1808. He married Martha Hodgkins on November 26, 1846. When Asa Libby of Alexander married them, he notes “parties belong to Meddybemps.” She was born on April 6, 1828 at Hampden, Maine. This family lived in the part of Meddybemps that was set off from Cooper on the north side of the road to Cooper. Their gravestone at Evergreen Cemetery in Coopers gives his death as 1891, and hers as 1916. Their Connick children all born at Meddybemps:

- 1) Alvin P. (1847 – 1848)

- 5) Bertha A. was born October 11, 1860. She married Henry H. Hitchings of Cooper at Milltown on January 7, 1888.

Martha (Hodgkins) Connick did live in Alexander during the last years of her life. The 1900 census reports Luke Stephenson and Martha Stephenson, his wife living at 750 Cooper Road. They were married on September 24, 1892 at St. Stephen. She died across the road at the home of Lincoln and Lizzie Flood.

Levi Connick’s son Samuel A. married Harriet E. Hayward of Cooper on July 5, 1873. The E. is for Elizabeth and she was a daughter of Henry and Azubah (Higgins) Hayward. The news item about Samuel’s death gives her name as Lizzie Hayward. The record of their marriage lists them as Alvin S. Connick of Alexander and Miss Lizzie E. Hayward of Cooper. As noted above, Samuel’s older brother Alvin had died young. This family lived at the eastern edge of the village of Meddybemps. Lizzie (1848 – 1903) and Samuel (1849 – 1915) had six children of record.

- 1) Herman (1872 – 1899)
 - 2) Florence (December 25, 1873 - January 13, 1923) married William H. Tarbell.

During the war with America, Joseph served with the British in the Royal Fencible Americans. For his service, he received a land grant on the Magaguadavic. But the quality of the land was unsuitable (in fact, most of the "land" was at the bottom of Lake Utopia, as can be seen on the cadastral map of land grants for that area). In the first file attachment Joseph Connick petitions for a more suitable piece of land. In the second file attachment Joseph Connick is a resident of Deer Island and petitions for a grant of Hardwood Island. Later Joseph Connick moved to St. David parish. (See other documents at St. David Parish GenWeb) Please note that my "family group" of Joseph Connick's family (below), done in 1999, does not yet include information gleaned from the recently discovered land petitions (in the file attachments) -- I haven't taken the time to re-write it with the new data.

The Moores and The Connicks

We have included two genealogical tables, which overlap in several places showing the relationship of the Connicks with the Moores. The tables do not provide the detailed proof of the connection but further research could give the evidence. We can only state that the relationship was taken for granted and that the appearance of certain names in both "trees" would indicate the accuracy of the tradition.

In our introduction we noted that William Moore became a substantial citizen of Moores Mills. The genealogical table shows that his daughter Hannah married a Connick. These could be the parents of Joseph Connick though the connection might be through the wife of Joseph Connick whose name was Eliza Livingstone. It will be recalled that William Moore married Hannah Livingstone Sargent.

The Connicks came to Charlotte County before 1784. William Connick had come from Ireland where he was born. It is probable that he went first to the USA as he is listed as a Loyalist. Blanche thought he had lived in St. Andrews in Charlotte County. He farmed in Moores Mills area and had several sons. They are listed as William, Leonard, Hiram, Harrison and Joseph. We don't know whether that was the proper order nor do we know the name of his wife. We do know that their son Joseph was born in St. James Parish, Charlotte county in 1799, that he was a blacksmith as well as a farmer, that he married Eliza Livingstone, that he had eleven children and that he is buried in the cemetery at Moores Mills. He is the great grandfather of Marion Davies.

Charlotte was the eldest child of Joseph and Eliza. In 1851 she married George Moore, the grandson of the well-known William Moore. We have given their genealogical table that shows their children including Florence Evelyn and Eliza Matilda. These are the aunts who figure largely in Marion's childhood, Aunt Eva and Aunt Tilly. Six of the sons of Joseph and Eliza Connick crossed the line into United States and enlisted with the North in the American Civil War, James as a Winslow, Bryce, George and Albert. Bryce was captured in the war and was a prisoner in the infamous Andersonville prison, George and Albert were killed, the latter in the Battle of Bull Run. The daughter, Eliza married Peakes and they were the parents of Laura Peakes who was Marion's first teacher. Minerva was also daughter of Joseph and Eliza and our family tree shows that she married Edward Stanley Maxwell. They are the grandparents of Marion Davies.

Edward Stanley Maxwell and Minerva had four children. Bertram, their eldest child, died at the age of six. Lela and Blanche were twins, born September 14th, 1870, Lela died within her first year. There was a second son Arthur, who died at twenty-one years of age. All these children were born in Moores Mills.

Blanche Maxwell (Marion's Mother) grew up in Moores Mills surrounded by people who were in some way or another related. Almost everyone was an aunt or an uncle, and even some who were not received the title anyway. The Tibbets in Boston, and Bishop Sherman, Archbishop of Rupert's Land are fruit from this family tree and Blanche and her husband Jesse Leigh White because both were related to the Tibbets of Boston. Blanche had a happy childhood growing up among her own people. Before completing her high school course she was appointed an assistant teacher. She was sixteen years of age and the accompanying Agreement shows that she received the magnificent sum of $50 for the period of one school year. After being an assistant teacher she attended Normal School and was granted a valid license of the Second class. She returned to her former school district in 1890 and the agreement attached makes interesting reading.

· The brass candlesticks now in possession of Marion Davies belonged to Great Aunt Charlotte, her grandmother's eldest sister. They were given to her by Frank Libby, husband of Aunt Eva, who was Charlotte Moore's daughter.

Marriage Notes for William Connick and Mary Hall:

This primary source reference must be an error as the same date is shown for William Shackford Connick and Sarah Hall, married 16 Nov. 1802, Vital Records of Alexander, Maine. The microfilm from the Anglican Church records show the name as Mary Hall and he marriage date is 15 Nov 1802. Why would there be this mix up in names of the wife!!!!?? To see this reference to to the following link:

 see entry just above the lowest green marker.

This marriage is still being shown as it is based on source information but is being assumed incorrect as Mary 'Polly' Hall married Eliakim Tupper West in Machias, Washington Co., ME on 1 Mar 1795.

Marriage Notes for Hiram Connick and Susannah Doore:

Charlotte Co. Marriage Records show the name as Dow. This must be an error as further investigation and the name shown in the book "Memorial of the Loyalist Families of William Moore, Josiah Hitchings, and Robert Livingstone" by John Elliott Moore, 1898. shows the name as Door.

The 1851 census of St. David Parish has a Stephen Door(e) shown on page 17 with a son Hosea. This is the same name of one of Susanna's sons by Hiram Connick as shown on page 3 of the same census.

Notes for Jesse Leigh White:

Jesse Leigh White and Blanche

In an earlier section of this family story we left Jesse Leigh White on the train travelling to Fredericton to attend Normal School. After graduation he was engaged to teach in the town of Grand Falls, Victoria County NB. Here he began what was to be a most successful teaching career. We have already related how Blanche Maxwell had also launched on a teaching career in Charlotte County. It is possible that they were in the same class while attending Normal School. If this is so, it explains how Blanche left Charlotte County and continued her career in Grand Falls. Not long afterwards these fellow teachers talked about marriage. Many years later J.L. white told me that it was their intention to be married at the end of the school term in 1895 but they changed their minds and decided on an earlier date, the Christmas vacation period in 1894 at the home of the bride's parents in Moores Mills. The Anglican minister Rev. M. Milledge performed the ceremony. The following clipping from a local paper tells of the event. The list of guests includes names that are already familiar to us from earlier sections of this record. The listing of the various wedding gifts is interesting and amusing.

After their marriage in 1894, J.L. White and Blanche continued to teach in Grand Falls. Both are remembered by the old timers as excellent teachers who expected excellence from their pupils. Teaching was not J.L. White's only interest. He engaged in a few commercial ventures in the community opening a grocery store on the other side of the river from the main town. He also made some investment in railway shares from which he later earned substantial profits. In these years they were also busy having their family. After two still births, their daughter Leitha was born in 1899. Edward Maxwell was born in 1904. Gretchen's birth year was 1907 and Marion came in 1909. In May 1910 Constance was born and the youngest child Jay Leigh arrived in 1914.

It was in 1912 that J.L. White gave up teaching and put all his energy into his business ventures. With vision and courage he built a huge general store on the main street of the town. Almost anything could be purchased in this emporium with the sign J.L. White, General Merchant". There were departments, Groceries, dry goods, hardware. Even caskets were available and the services of Aunt Leslie Estey were called in when coffins had to be lined. Blanche said of her husband that he would tackle anything to turn a dollar. Along with the general store he built an extensive business buying and selling pulpwood. He was involved in all these ventures in 1912. It is no wonder he resigned his school teaching position. He and blanche were key figures in the business and social life of Grand Falls. In that same year he was offered the nomination of the Conservatives to represent them. He accepted this challenge and became the member of Legislature for Victoria County. For the next five years (1912 to 1917) he continued his business ventures and served as Member of the Provincial Parliament.

We have already noted his generosity toward his parents, caring for them in their old age, and doing the same for Aunt Victoria Maxwell. His brothers Bert and Charles also became established business people in Grand Falls through his support and encouragement. For his own growing family he provided every advantage. There was always hired help in the home enabling Blanche to assist her husband in the great load of necessary office work.

There were set backs as well as successes. In 1925 the family suffered a great blow. Their home next to the large store was burned to the ground and all the contents were lost except a couple of fur coats and the clothes they were wearing. Fortunately everyone got out safely, but family pictures which would be so useful in this story were lost.

The cause of the fire was attributed to the earthquake which had occurred the previous day, February 28, 1925. The stovepipes had been loosened and some were separated by the quake. This had not been noticed and when the fires were lighted the following morning, the sparks ignited the surrounding dry material and almost immediately the house was in flames. Blanche was able to rescue the youngest child as she made her way to safety. There was a heavy loss of family possessions but there was no loss of life.

Fortunately the Whites owned a second house in Grand Falls which was occupied by their son Max who has married a year earlier. It was the intention of J.L. and Blanche to make their house their home eventually. The fire hurried up the event. The house had been purchased some years earlier by Blanche. It was one of the oldest and finest houses in Grand Falls. It had been built in 1834 and occupied for a time by Sir John Campbell. Sir John had operated a large sawmill in Grand Falls in earlier years and had been the receiver general of Lower Canada. He also had considerable business connections with the American before the middle of the century. The house was located in an area overlooking the falls from which Grand Falls for its name. We have several pictures for enclosure with this story. It was generally known as the "Wade House."

Jessie Leigh White and Blanche received a serious blow with the great depression of the thirties. In his store business he had given credit very freely to his customers and continued to do so even as times got harder. He was always hoping that better times would come soon and that his customers would be able to pay their debts. As the depression continued it was evident that the business could no longer be carried on in the same way. It was impossible to collect much that was owing. It was a hard decision to make but in 1934 J. L. White gave up his store business. He had tried so hard to hang on that his health was undermined. His asthmatic condition, which had bothered him since his youth, grew worse. His doctor suggested a change of climate so he and Blanche took an extended holiday to Arizona where they visited Ruby White. This was in the winter of 1931-32. J.L. White was much better for the change and faced his business problems with courage when he returned. He realized that the store had to go and within a couple of years it happened.

J.L. White still had his pulpwood business. He bought a home in Kilburn and conducted his business from there. His sons Max and Leigh worked with him, doing most of the travelling. He died February 5, 1941.

After the death of Jessie Leigh White, Blanche White continued to live in Kilburn but her son Max was concerned that she was alone so much of the time. Max now managed the business his father had established. His home was in Andover so he arranged a suite of rooms in his home for his mother. She made her headquarters here but spent much of her time in the homes of her daughters, Leitha in Boston, Marion in Alberta and Constance in British Columbia. She was always a most welcome guest and we are grateful for the memories we have of the visits she made to us. Her grandchildren have happy and rich memories of their grandmother White.

She was a faithful member of the Anglican Church and of the I.O.D.E. She took a keen interest in the Order of the Eastern Star and occupied the top position in New Brunswick for a time. This term as "Worthy Grand" gave her the opportunity to travel throughout the province and to give her presidential addresses. She loved to talk and was a most acceptable speaker. Blanche White had many other talents. Always interested in handwork, there are many samples of her workmanship in the homes of her friends and family. In her last years, she continued to use her spare moments tating and I have yet to discover what happened to the yards and yards of lace she made. Some of her family and friends have in their possession, paintings and drawings which she did in earlier years. They are much beyond average in excellence and are prized by those who have them.

In the summer of 1957 Marion and I motored to Nova Scotia and on our way we stopped to visit Gramma White in Andover. She was 87 years of age. We suggested that she accompany us on our trip. She had never been to Nova Scotia and was most anxious to see that province. She came along and her presence added to our interest as we visited Halifax, Grand Pre, Digby as well as place in Cape Breton. She enjoyed every bit of the journey.

Blanche White died in 1957 and is buried in the cemetery at Grand Falls.

Marriage Notes for Ethel Maxwell and Jesse White:

Notice of wedding in the St. Stephen Paper

The monotony of our usually quiet little village was very pleasantly varied on Wednesday evening of last week, by a wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Maxwell. The contracting parties were their only daughter Blanche, and Mr. Leigh White of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Millidge, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. Mr. Arthur Maxwell and Miss Mabel Penkes brother and cousin of the bride, were the attendants. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of brown cloth, beautifully trimmed with silk, with ornaments and bouquet of roses. Hot tea and coffee with substantial refreshments were served immediately after the ceremony after which a few hours were spent very delightfully to social converse and in listening to the music which was finely rendered by some of the younger guests, while Miss Ann Douglas presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. white left by Saturday morning train for Mr. white's home in Centerville, where they will remain for a few days. They will then go to Grand Falls, where they will reside. Mrs. White was the recipient of many useful presents some of which I will mention.

Obituary - Mrs. Jane Weeks

Mrs. Jane Weeks passed away to her eternal rest on Thursday afternoon, November 1st. She would have been 88 years old. She was born in Moores Mills, January 3, 1841. She married William Weeks of Lawrence Station and was a faithful stepmother to the family, the three youngest all being small at the time. Twenty-one years last May her husband passed away and she and the youngest boy Charlie remained on the old homestead until 3 years ago. She was not able to do the work so the old home was sold and she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Weeks of Lynnfield.

In August she took a severe cold and never recovered. Although she had medical care in spite of all that could be done she passed peacefully away into the land of everlasting peace. During her illness she was faithfully attended by Pastor R.J.S. Gregg and enjoyed his visit very much.

Thursday afternoon, November 3, J.S. Gregg spoke some very comforting words Psalm 127-2 "He Giveth his Beloved Sleep" at the home of W.H. Weeks. The Oak hill choir rendered sweetly her favorite hymns "Safe In the Arms Of Jesus" "The Christian Good Night Sleep" and "Asleep in Jesus."

The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here. Pallbearers were Fred and Guy Russell., Fred and Burton Weeks. The children who mourn a kind and loving mother were, Mrs. Mary Russell, Oak Hill, W.H. Weeks, Lynnfield, Sadie Erskine, Ada Norton, Gardiner., Fred Weeks, Cedar Grove, Maine, Annie Weeks, Waterville, Maine, Charles Weeks, Lynnfield.

Friendly store owner will be missed in Utopia Published Wednesday July 2nd, 2008

MIKE MULLEN

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

LAKE UTOPIA - - - From a wide array of fishing and hunting supplies to automotive parts and basics like a loaf of bread, locals and cottage dwellers can still get just about anything they want at Utopia Convenience Store here.

Anything, that is, except the folksy, friendly welcome they had come to expect from Kenny Hatt.

Hatt, an avid outdoorsman, self-employed carpenter trucker who had owned and operated the store with his beloved wife Madolyn (Hannon) since 2004, lost a three-year battle with cancer last Friday. He was 62.

"Kenny was a people person who loved being in the store," Madolyn said earlier this week. "He was just one of those people who could talk to anyone. The biggest stranger in the world could come in and in a minute, Kenny could start up a conversation.

"I will always remember him as always having time to stop and talk to people," she added. "As busy as he was, he was never too busy to stop and have a little conversation, to tell a story or share a little joke."

Madolyn said he was also one to be thinking ahead, too, when it came to growing the business.

"This spring, we put in a propane exchange," she said. "He knew it was something that would go in this area."

Hatt also loved treating his smallest customers and being there for his family in tough times.

"When the children came into the store, he would give them a little bag of candy, or get them an ice cream," said Madolyn. "And if anybody needed anything, he would make sure he helped them out all he could. He used to take stuff from his garden to people, perhaps, who were too old to plant one anymore."

Born in St. Stephen on Feb. 19, 1946, Kenneth Osborne Hatt was a son of Isabella (McNichol) Hatt and her trucker husband, the late Arnold Reid Hatt, who raised their large family in the Lake Utopia area.

Besides Kerrs Ridge native Madolyn, who became his second wife on Oct. 10, 1987, at Pennfield Apostolic Church, Hatt's survivors include two sons, Joel, 17, from their union, and Daniel, of St. Stephen, from his previous marriage; six brothers; and five sisters.

Ironcially, Madolyn first met Hatt in the early 1980s at a little take-out his sister ran next to the convenience store they would one day own. Their romance blossomed after she went to work at the store, then owned by her future husband's brother, Arnold Jr.

Hatt built them a home in Kerrs Ridge, where they resided until 2001. He then constructed a large home on a big piece of land they had purchased in St. George.

The couple ended up selling that property and moving to Utopia in 2004, roughly the same time they purchased the convenience store.

In 2005, Hatt was diagnosed with cancer.

A country boy at heart, Hatt continued to enjoy hunting, fishing, gardening and woodworking right to the end.

Last year, against all the odds, he managed to bag two moose.

He had waited for years for his name to be drawn in the provincial moose draw.

He was not only successful in downing one on a hunting trip to the Miramichi, later in the year, he shot another during a hunting trip to Newfoundland and Labrador.

"Kenny and some of his buddies had dreamed of going to Newfoundland for a moose hunt," said Madolyn. "They made plans to go even after he found out the cancer had spread all through his body. His doctor said he shouldn't go, but I told him, 'Kenny, if you can go, you go.' And he went. And he was glad he did."

Many of the more than 600 people who signed the funeral home guest book also spoke of his strong Christian faith.

"He kept his faith in God through it all," said Madolyn.

"He never stopped believing that God was right there with him.

"He didn't want to die, but he wasn't afraid to die.

"He accepted the fact that he was in God's will; that God had a plan and he was just part of the plan."

Notes from WG database:

William Shackford, married 15 Nov. 1802, Mary Hall [Records of All Saints Anglican Church, St. Andrews].

William died about 1858, in Saint David [date and place in Index of Charlotte County Probate Records. This probate record has not yet been researched for further information by S. Robbins]. William owned lot 6 D in the Wentworth Division, Saint David, N.B.

By 1807, William had settled in Township No. 6 (now Baring, Maine) [Theodore Lincoln's Return of Actual Settlers on William Bingham's Lands in Washington County, June 3, 1807. This document is part of the Col. John Black Papers, kept at Black Mansion in Ellsworth, Maine; a microfilm and a handwritten extract exists at Maine State Archives in Augusta, Maine, from which this transcription was made]. The Atlas of Washington Co., Maine (Houlton, Me. : Colby & Co., 1881) shows a "Conic Lake" and "Conic Stream" in Baring, Maine. (This same Atlas shows a house inhabited by "S. Connick" in the neighboring town of Meddybemps, Maine).

Marriage Notes for William Connick and Mary Hall:

This primary source reference must be an error as the same date is shown for William Shackford Connick and Sarah Hall, married 16 Nov. 1802, Vital Records of Alexander, Maine. The microfilm from the Anglican Church records show the name as Mary Hall and he marriage date is 15 Nov 1802. Why would there be this mix up in names of the wife!!!!??? To see this reference to to the following link:

 see entry just above the lowest green marker.

This marriage is still being shown as it is based on source information but is being assumed incorrect as Mary 'Polly' Hall married Eliakim Tupper West in Machias, Washington Co., ME on 1 Mar 1795.
