Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

The following message was received from a Paul Cook.

"I am very interested to know what you know of the parentage of Rebecca Winslow who was born in 1764 and married Paul Cook. I fear that you have picked this up from Mrs. Barto's book "Passamaquoddy" because you say, as Martha does, that Rebecca died in 1819.

She did not. She died on November 30, 1848 at the age of 84 and was buried in Ellsworth, Me. I can show you her gravestone. She is my great-great-grandmother and I haven't a clue as to her parents."

According to Martha Ford Barto in the book "Passamaquoddy Genealogies of West Isles Families", Isaac Cook went to St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. This assumption appears to be incorrect as substantiated by later research by Stephen Robins, Thomas Mowatt, and others. The Isaac that was at St. David was born 1857 which makes him from a previous generation. Maybe he was a brother to Paul Cook.

Hattie Victoria (Cooke) Russell

Hattie Victoria (Cooke) Russell The passing of Hattie Victoria (Cooke) Russell, wife of the late Reginald Garfield Cooke, occurred peacefully with her family by her side at Collingwood Rest Home, Pennfield NB on January 14, 2019. Born in Carleton County NB on June 24, 1923, she was a daughter of the late Roy and Florence (MacDonald) Stoddard. Hattie is survived by her children: Florence (Ralph) Drost of Lepreau NB, Margaret (Doug) Carr of Tay Creek NB, Rowena (Ivan) Upham of Apohaqui NB and Ross (Eva) Cooke of Utopia NB; step-children: Ellen Davis, Billy (Doreen) Russell, Doug (Sandy) Russell all of St. Stephen NB and Marjorie McLaughlin of Saint John NB; 15 grandchildren; 38 great-grandchildren; 10 great-great-grandchildren; sisters: Ruby Cooke of Norton NB, Gladys Cooke of St. Stephen NB, Nadine White of St. George NB and Geraldine (Herb) Fisher of Chamcook NB; one brother: Lewis Stoddard of Chamcook NB; many nieces, nephews and cousins. In addition to her parents and her husband Reginald, Hattie was predeceased by her second husband: William Russell; daughter: Pearl Hunter; two grandsons: Rodney Sharpe and Christopher Drost; sisters: Juanita Lloyd and Royetta Hatt; brother: Linwood Stoddard.

Hattie spent her life devoted to everyone else. Hattie held many jobs, from caring for others at a young age to being a lobster fisherman with her husband Reginald, back in the day when traps were pulled by hand. She also worked for Connor's Bros. and found herself rowing daily from Bliss' Island to Connors Bros. in Blacks Harbour and back to Bliss' Island, where she prepared the meals for her family in the evening and tended to her family. Her and her husband Reginald also operated a grocery store, "Cooke's Grocery" at Pennfield Corner for approximately eight years. Following the operation of the store and with her husband's health began to fail, Hattie had to become the sole bread winner. In the late 60's during the construction of the number one highway, she went to work as a cook for North Shore Construction of several years and then to Grove Construction. Besides being a cook, Hattie held different positions within the companies including weighing trucks. She also baked several items which were for sale at various stores throughout the area. When Collingwood Special Care Home was purchased by her grandson Danny, she went to work for several years caring for the residents. Hattie never fully retired and she always found herself doing something in her later years, such as repairing beautiful quilts for Global Textile. Faith and family was extremely important to Hattie and her caring heart and compassionate soul will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB. Resting at the funeral home chapel on Wednesday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. The service will take place at the Royal Canadian Legion Branch #40, St. George NB on Thursday at 3:00 pm. The interment will be held at the St. George Rural Cemetery in the spring. Notes for William Cook II:

Post-em from Susan Esposito

John Cook's older brother, William Cook, (born 1820-21) wished as a young boy to go to sea. In order to accomplish his dream, he hid on the wharf in Eastport, Me., behind stacked barrels, and then sneaked aboard a ship. His family thought him dead, but many years later, he returned home, with a wife he had married in Scotland (Catherine Mac Jeanette 1841-1903).

William was a shipmaster and had sailed to many of the world's ports; and yet, in 1878, after returning from Eastport, Me., to Deer Island on the northwest end of the island, a sudden squall put him on the Smith Point ledges. While his family watched helplessly, William, knowing there was no way to safety, lashed himself to the mast in order that his body would not be washed out to sea.

The family settled at Cook's Point, Deer Island, in Doyle's Passage. (Martha Barto's "Passamaquoddy")

Deaths: At Deer Island, Capt. Wm Cook of Deer Island, N.B. left Eastport in a small boat and was found dead the next morning. (Eastport Sentinel)

Peacefully at the Passamaquoddy Lodge, St. Andrews NB on August 31, 2008, Mrs. Violet Etta (Cook) Hooper, wife of the late Byron Henry Hooper, went home to be with her Lord and Saviour. Born at Back Bay NB on December 4, 1909 she was the daughter of the late Gratis P. and Emma E.(Leslie) Cook. A loving aunt to everyone, she is survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins. Violet was a life long member of the Sea View Full Gospel Church at Back Bay, where she taught Sunday School for many years and was very active in all church functions. Prior to her retirement, she spent most of her working life with Connor's Bros. at Back Bay as a Sardine Packer. She will be sadly missed by her many nieces, nephews and friends.

d. Deer Island (Charlotte Co.) April 14, Stillman G. ADAMS, age 22 years 7 mos.

Email from Karl Thomas Johnston, 10 Oct 2010:

On my maternal side, I have been told that my grandfather, John Quincy Adams's (1892-1966) father was Stillman G Adams. Through the archives I found reported in the Eastport Sentinel that he died in April of 1893. His mother, Laura Etta Laskey (1870-1925) married Robert Justason b. 1876 and in the 1901 census there is a male child named John Justason aged 10, which I beleive to be my grandfather.

John Quincy, had a fairly dark complexion, as do we who have come after. The story told through my childhood was that there was native blood in our history. I find no evidence of that, however Stillman's mother was named Jemima, and was from nova scotia. Im thinking possibly african american, but again I have found no evidence.

PENNFIELD - Well-known lighthouse keeper, wharf agent and air force veteran Raye Brown of Pennfield is being remembered as a "go-getter" who packed a lot of living into his nearly 92 years on this old sod.

"Dad was a great talker, outgoing, and loved to tell stories," Rebecca Anthony, the eldest of his two daughters, said following the funeral of the avid sportsman, outdoorsman and family man last week.

"He was interested in politics, a supporter of all health care, and he liked to know what was going on," she added. "And he liked to get into discussions about it."

Active in Liberal politics, he once offered his name unsuccessfully for the party's provincial nomination.

Brown, who died on Nov. 17, didn't just like to know what was going on. Often, he was part of it.

He was a life member of Branch No. 39 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Blacks Harbour, and district commander of the Legion's St. Croix District, and a former president of both the St. George Curling Club and the Brunswick Curling Club, in Blacks Harbour.

He liked to shoot skeet and curled right into his 80s, but he was never happier than "when he was out fishing and hunting, especially if his (first-born) grandson, Andrew Anthony, was with him."

Brown also liked to cook, garden and, in retirement, enjoyed travels to places like Florida, California and Alaska in the company of his late schoolteacher wife Olive (English), a native of Deer Island, who died in 2003.

Born at Wilsons Beach, Campobello, on Dec. 6, 1915, Edward Raye Brown was a son of the late Willie and Gertrude (Ludlow) Brown.

His survivors include Anthony, of Pennfield, and her sister, Natalie Harris of Blacks Harbour; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

During the Second World War, Brown served with the Royal Air Force's Marine Squadron in Point Doichin, Que., Halifax and Shediac, where he earned tickets as a carpenter, diesel mechanic and stationary engineer.

He was still in uniform when he and Olive were married on Sept. 2, 1945, at the Baptist Church in Lambertville, Deer Island. Anthony recalled her mother, who had gone to Campobello to teach elementary school, telling her how her father was wearing a red wool sweater when she first laid eyes on him on the basketball court.

After starting married life in Shediac, Brown moved to the Blacks Harbour area, where he was to serve as head keeper of the Pea Point Light for 21 years. He and Olive started their family at the light. But once his eldest girl reached school age he purchased a big house at neaby Wallace Cove which, in the 1960s, became the mainland terminal for the Grand Manan ferry service. Brown finished out his working life as the wharf agent for Coastal Transport, the ferry operator, retiring around 1980. Shortly before retirement, the Browns also relocated to 225 Blacks Harbour Rd. in Pennfield.

"When Dad moved there, he became an avid gardener and had a big vegetable garden and raspberry canes and they were right into jam-making and pickling," said Anthony. "When we moved to the (Wallace) Cove and he was still on the lighthouse, he had to cook for himself. He made excellent stews and fish chowders. So, when Mom developed osteoporosis in later years, Dad was the one who made the pickles."

Brown's love of sports of all kinds, especially curling, continued long after his body kept him from taking part.

"It was nothing for him to stay up and watch the Scott Tournament of Hearts on TV until 3 a.m.," Anthony said of the onetime skip. "Dad still liked to call the shots."

Michael Harry Wilcox

Michael Harry Wilcox On Tuesday, January 8th, 2019, Michael Harry Wilcox passed away unexpectedly at his home. Born in Blacks Harbour, NB in 1951, he is the son of the late George and Bessie (Cook) Wilcox and the beloved husband of Anne (Svantesson) Wilcox.

Michael worked for NB Power in the Service & Maintenance Department at the Point Lepreau Nuclear Generating Station for 29 years, retiring in 2009. The brotherhood was very important to him and over those years he rarely missed a union meeting, which was quite apparent by the number of door prizes he managed to bring home.

He was also a member of the Faith Baptist Church for a number of years and had previously served as a trustee with the church. Michael's discovery of his faith led him to his most recent passion, the Tay Valley Bible Camp and he treasured the moments spent there with his grandchildren and his dear friends Don and Doug, as well as, the opportunities to fellowship and grow with other Christians.

Anyone who knew Michael, knew of his love and total dedication to the Boston Red Sox, evidenced in his basement "Man Cave" where, if you played your cards right, you may have been honored to visit. There was an annual migration with the boys from work to a ballgame where serious adventures were had and one particular year where Anne got to tag along.

Michael loved his truck and he loved his dogs. He was often seen and came to be well recognized, driving through town or going through the drive-thru with his dogs by his side.

Michael was full of life with a witty, sarcastic, sense of humor that could light up a room and keep you in stitches. He will be greatly missed and forever remembered by those who knew and loved him.

Along with his adored wife Anne, Michael is survived by their loving children. His son Brent of Fredericton and grandchildren Abby and Charlotte Wilcox of Mactaquac; his daughter Meaghan Wilcox and grandchildren Kristjan Wilcox and Anexcee Haitisma of Winnipeg, MB; Anne's boys; David Whittaker (Jessica Yawnghe) of Edmonton, AB., and Steven and Thomas Whittaker, both of Yellowknife; Anne's "chosen daughter" Shannon Boos (Curtis) of Edmonton, AB; 3 brothers and 4 sisters; 3 grandchildren on Anne's side of the family, many nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends and his much loved and very loyal four legged companion, Kooper.

In addition to his parents, Michael was predeceased by his 3 brothers and 2 sisters and his beautiful dog Maggie.

In keeping with Michael's wishes, an opportunity to visit with his family will take place Friday at Faith Baptist Church in New Maryland from 4-8 pm. A service of remembrance and celebration will be held at 2 pm on Saturday, January 12th, 2019 from Faith Baptist Church, 525 New Maryland Hwy, New Maryland, NB (506) 459-8756 followed by a time of fellowship.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the professional care of McAdam's Funeral Home. (506) 458-9170. Memorial donations made in Honor of Michael to the Tay Valley Bible Camp would certainly be appreciated by the family.

Marriage Notes for Ruth McMorran and James Clark:

MARRIAGE - Clark - McMorran

Kirk McColl United Church of St. Stephen was the scene of a pretty wedding at 2 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, August 1, 1948, when Rev. B.D. Earle united in marriage Ruth Helen, daughter of Mrs. Theodore McMorran and the late Mr. McMorran of St. Stephen, and James Vincent, son of Mrs. Emmon Clark and the late Mr. Clark of St. George. The church was attractively decorated with cut flowers. The guest pews were marked with white flowers tied with blue satin ribbon.

Miss Joyce Boles played the wedding march and nuptial music. Miss Arlyn Hoyt was guest soloist and during the signing of the register sang "Oh Promise Me". The ushers were Leland McGaw, nephew of the bride and Alexander Clark, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother who gave her in marriage. She was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned with tight fitting bodice with seed pearl embroidery and sweetheart neckline. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands. Her bridal veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms into a long train with embroidered border. Her only ornament was a four strand necklace of pearls, an heirloom of the family. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli mixed with fern and baby's breath, tied with long satin streamers.

Miss Velma McMorrان, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a floor length gown of pale blue net with satin embroidered tight fitting bodice. Her veil was elbow length falling from a coronet of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's gift to the bridemaid was a set of earrings and pin to match and to the organist and soloist, earrings. The groom's gift to the best man and the ushers were automatic pencils.

Ellison Clark, brother of the bridegroom was groomsman.

The bride's mother wore a gown of royal blue brepe with black hat and black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of black crepe with white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was red roses.

Approximately 125 guests attended a reception immediately after the ceremony held at the home of the bride's mother. The bride's table was covered with an ecru lace cloth, centered with a beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake, flanked by yellow candles in crystal holders and yellow and blue streamers extending from a group of white bells on the ceiling to the corners of the table.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. B.D. Earle, to which the bridegroom responded.

Miss Margaret Smith, a close friend of the bride, and Miss Mary Clark, sister of the bridegroom, served the bride's table. Mrs. Theodore Sabine presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Albion Cook served the ice cream. Mrs. Leland McGaw had charge of the guest book, Mrs. Ralph McMorrان and Mrs. Walter McGaw had charge of the gifts and assisted in looking after the guests. Mrs. William Smith, a cousin of the bride, cut and served the bride's cake. Others assisting were the Misses Sybil Bannister, Evelyn Bateman, Jaon and Sylvia McMorrان, Lille Clark, Eunice Hyslop, Mrs. Millidge Caldwell, Mrs. Clifford McGaw, Mrs. Lloyd McNutt and Mrs. Philip Caldwell. Mrs. Angus Campbell and Mrs. Edward Black were in charge of the kitchen.

Notes for Leland Watson McGaw:
Leland Watson McGaw
July 27, 1927 - March 26, 2017

Leland Watson McGaw

We are sad to announce the passing of Leland Watson McGaw, peacefully in his sleep at Windsor Court, Fredericton, his home of the last two years, on March 26, 2017.

Born in Oak Hill, N.B. on July 27, 1927, he was the only son of Walter and Margaret (McMorran) McGaw. He was predeceased by his wife of 66 years, Eileen. He is survived by his son Richard McGaw (Gail Storr); grandsons Ryan (Tamarisk) and Peter; step-grandchildren Peter Storr (MJ) and Karen Storr (Benoit); great-grandson Ryker; and step-great-grandsons Nicolas, Phillipe and Felix.

Leland spent his early years working in the woods, running a lumber camp while still a teenager. In the 1950s he was a heavy equipment operator and in the 1960s he was co-owner of a clothing store in St. Stephen. In 1967 he was elected as one of four MLAs for Charlotte County, and was subsequently was reelected to Charlotte West, serving 20 years in the Legislature. While in the Legislature, he served as Deputy Speaker, Minister of Tourism and Chair of the N.B. Power. He was devoted to his constituents, whether they voted for him or not. He found employment for many, and interceded with government when people had problems that he could fix. It was difficult to have an evening meal without a phone call or someone showing up in the driveway looking for help, and he always gave it. It is fair to say that he left politics with his respect and integrity intact, and continued to help when he could even out of office. Through everything, and right to the end, his sense of humour never left him.

Leland loved his family and was as devoted to it as he was to politics, never letting one take over the other.

Cook Families

After politics, he returned to his love of the woods. He loved to hunt and fish. In 1989, with help from a friend, he cut the wood and built his camp "Esoonac" where he spent many happy hours with Eileen, often entertaining large numbers of family and friends. He also started a Christmas tree farm, working it into his 80s. For many years, he brought the Grade 5 children from McAdam Elementary for a day of orientation in Christmas tree production and a meal at Esoonac.

The family extends appreciation to the staff of Windsor Court, who provided care and compassion during his time there. He became one of their family.

Funeral service will be held from The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Ltd. 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Thursday March 30, 2017 at 3:30PM. with Archdeacon John Matheson officiating. Family will receive friends at the funeral home on Thursday from 12 Noon until time of service.

Notes for Jeremy Floyd Barrett:

Jeremy Floyd Barrett

1973-2018

Jeremy Floyd Barrett It is with broken hearts that we announce that our special angel went to his heavenly home on April 23, 2018; he was surrounded at home by his Dad and Mom, Tommy and Janice, his favourite sister, Terri Leigh Hooper (Jamie); and his special brother, B.J. Barrett.

Jeremy has two nephews Jaycobb (Kahli) and Hunter Hooper, aunts, uncles, friends and too many cousins to mention.

He also formed a special love and unbreakable bond for which his family will be eternal grateful, that is his care giver Heather Wright (and her dog Remi, Jeremy's best buddy).

His second family that he loved dearly was his friends at the Community Living at St. George. His longest and truest friends were Tommy King and Rosie.

Jeremy loved simple things: sports, movies, food, balloons, his drives, shopping, Christmas and Birthdays. Jeremy was a gift straight from Heaven. He taught us so many lessons, especially unconditional love. Sometimes we make life so complicated; to Jeremy it was a smile or a laugh, a song, dance or hug.

He will always be our sunshine and will never be forgotten. Though you are now gone, you proved that God does not make mistakes. He knew you would be the one to fight this battle on your own terms and won. We are proud to call you son and brother. Thank you Jeremy.

Jeremy was predeceased by his maternal grandparents June and Floyd Shaw; paternal grandparents Carmina and Russell Barrett; and special cousin Candy Jill Cook; aunt Peggy Barrett; uncle Murray Barrett.
