Final Version

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Preface

This family tree on the Cornynge/Corning Family is a cooperative effort of a number of individuals that are trying to bring all the different branches together into one large file that shows the entire Cornynge/Corning lineage.

The work shown here in no way represents the work of one individual but rather the accumulation of the efforts of many. Some of the present individuals are:

A.E. Krause,
B. K. Patten,
M.A. Mitchell,
G. Arihood,
R. Fletcher,
and many others who have contributed without their knowledge.

This version of the eBook has been divided up into chapters that cover the two Corning Branches that have been found to date. Branch-One is the main Corning line and this has also been sub-divided into chapters on the two daughters of Samuel Corning, I and the four sons of Samuel Corning, II. By using this method of division, if members of any group want to print their section then they can do so without printing the complete book.

The final chapter is for Branch-Two Corning whose lineage has not been determined so far. However, a member of this branch has had a Y-Chromosome DNA analysis done and five others from Branch-One Corning have been tested and Branch-Two is not related to those from Branch-One except at a very distant point in time.

DNA results to date have been received for descendants of Joseph and Samuel, III Corning.

These results have been summarized and are available at the following link

Foreword

To aid those trying to read the contents of the genealogy reports shown in this book, the following aids are suggested.

For those who might be concerned about information on the internet about living persons, none is published. The books have info on living persons but since they are password protected then only those who are descendants of that line and are given the password have access. To check this out go to the following link for my father as shown below.

<http://worldconnect.genealogy.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=aek740a&id=I004655>>Edwin Krause Family as it appears at WorldConnect

As can be clearly seen from the page shown on WorldConnect there is nothing on any of his living children. If one of the parents is still living then nothing is shown on deceased children.

1) Look for your name in the index found at the end of the book. If there is more than one page number indicated then the first one is where you are shown as a child of your parents, the second one would be the page where you are a parent, and the remaining pages is where you are shown on the page where one of your childrens families are being given and you are shown as their parent. Additional pages may be present from special reports that are included in the book.

2) The following example of a section of a report showing my parents is being used to explain what the format is for information in the reports and how to find your way through the maze of information.

Descendants of Edwin Henry Krause

Generation No. 1

1. Edwin Henry1 Krause (Carl Gustav WilliamA, JohannB, GggfC, ?D, Branch-One-AE, Branch-OneF, Schlochau-BranchesG) was born 05 June 1911 in 34-18-2 W3 Thunder Creek P.O. , Parkbeg, Sask, and died 19 January 2003 in Moose Jaw, SK. He married Hilda Annie Andrews 01 January 1938 in 34-18-2 W3 Thunder Creek P.O. , Parkbeg, Sask, daughter of Horace Andrews and Annie Martins. She was born 28 July 1919 in 17-16-29 W2 Caron Municipality, SK.

More About Edwin Henry Krause:

Burial: 24 January 2003, Rest Haven/Sunset Memorial Cemetery, Moose Jaw, SK

Children of Edwin Krause and Hilda Andrews are:

- + 2 i. Arnold Edwin² Krause, born 18 February 1939 in Moose Jaw, SK.
- + 3 ii. Marlene Gwen Krause, born 18 September 1940 in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada.
- + 4 iii. Barbara Anne Krause, born 01 March 1946 in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada; died 16 April 1994 in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Working in reverse order if you find the number of a person and wish to follow them back you use that number and find them as a child with that same number which then shows the siblings and parents. This continues back to the beginning of the report for that family line.

The number 1 beside the persons name indicates the item number for that person in the book and is used to follow the descendency line from the first person down through the book. Each child is given a number that is one larger then the parent and each child has a number that increased in birth order. If a + sign appears previous to the number then that indicated there is a page where that number will be shown as a parent and the pattern continues.

The names shown in () after the person shown at the head of the family unit shows the descendency line from the parents of that person back in time to the earliest known ancestor or pseudo-ancestor in some cases.

If you see some special information shown in the form `<a target="_blank" href=....` then that means this information is a link to a URL where further information is available if you are on the internet and viewing the book with a PDF reader or if you are looking at that persons information in the main database at WorldConnect. This allows photographs and other genealogy information to be made available to anyone viewing the book. However, this extra information is not available in the book if you print it in hardcopy form.

Children of (00Root-Corning) are:

- 2 i. Br-01² Corning, died Unknown; Adopted child.
- 3 ii. Br-02 Corning, died Unknown; Adopted child.

Notes for Br-02 Corning:

Y-Chromosome DNA test for this line indicate Haplogroup R1b1a2 but the genetic distance seems to show that this line is not from that of Samuel Corning, I.

Go to the following link to see the DNA profiles for those tested. See kit # 126556 for Branch-02.

- 4 iii. Br-03 Corning, died Unknown; Adopted child.

Notes for Br-03 Corning:

Y-Chromosome DNA testing on an individual from this line has shown the following results:
A descendant of John Corning and the one tested for this line have two mutations that are common at 389-1 and 389-2 that all of the others tested do not have. This would tend to indicate that Br-03 Corning is a descendant of John Corning. Now to try and find the paper trail that will prove this!!

He married (2) Elizabeth Allen Kettell 13 November 1688. She was born Abt. 1620, and died Unknown.

Notes for Ensign Samuëll Corning I:

Samuel came from England and settled in Salem, MA in 1638, became freeman in 1641, Selectman in 1674 and 1678, chosen assisant in 1670, collector of rate on May 15, 1665, Ens. Massachusetts Bay Colony.(See Beverly Town Records.) Also See Hinmans Puritan Settlers. One of the Founders of the first church at Beverly, 1667.(some of this from: A Genealogical Register of the First Settlers of New England, 1620-1675, p69)

The following email segment was received from Mary Ann Mitchell on 4 April 2008:

In the family, there is a lot of dissention about the fact that we are linking Ensign Samuëll to the English line and hence the Clements. I recently found another reference to Ensign Samuëll being born in 1616 (Savage's Pioneer Families of New England). I feel quite confident that our baptism record of Samuëll born in 1616 is correct, but there are some who say until we find a record that Ensign Samuëll was the son of John, we have no case!

Additional email from Mary Ann Mitchell, 4 April 2008:

Something you could add to Samuell's record is one reason why I think we are right in tracing him back to Clement. On the Forncett St. Peter baptismal record, the baby's name is spelt 'Samuell' - the double ells are not that common in the name. The record of Samuell's signature from Beverly, (which I think is in Pope's book but don't have it in front of me), he also signed his name 'Samuell'.

Perhaps you could change that Samuell came to North America and first settled in Salem, Massachusetts and then moved the family across the harbour to Beverly, Massachusetts.

Notes for Elizabeth ???:

Date of death could be 13 Aug. 1688 Vol 6 # 4393.

This first wife of Samuel Corning is Elizabeth ???. The surname is shown by some researchers to be Huntley and some others show it as Oakes. Both may be correct as the marriage does not occur until 1635-1640 making her age in excess of 35 years when she married Samuel Corning. Highly unlikely that she had not been married previously. Other researchers don't even want to give her a name and use UNKNOWN or ???. Take your choice. More research is required and maybe someday the truth will be found.

Was the Great Granddaughter of John Goffe Sr. who was an officer and a man of note in the early French & Indian Wars. John Goffe SR. was a descendant of Major General William Goffe, whom was a man of note in England in Oliver Cromwell's time and one of the judges who sentenced King Charles the first of England to death, but the monarchy again came into power he and other supporters of Cromwell had to flee the country to save their own necks, including our very great ancestor, Ensign Samuel Corning.

The McKnight ancestors were Scotch Irish and came to America in about 1638, and were also supporters of Oliver Cromwell.

A heritage to be proud of.

Marriage to Curtis

Unknown She passed away when the children were quite young and their Grandmother Curtis adopted them and changed their last name to Curtis. They became very good actors using the stage name Sacket.

Married: Martha Amelia Graves 10 June 1866 Milton, Buffalo, WI

Our Family resided in Janesville, Wisconsin and father was a noted horseman and raised and trained fast trotting horses, and raced some in Chicago and sold some there, he also sold several to the circuses Barnum & Bailey and Ringling Bros in their winter quarters in Baraboo, Wisconsin. One of them was named Johnie Morris after my brother John and was trained as a Ring Horse and toured Europe. Another one of his horses was a fine spirited animal kept in an enclosure near the house and mother made a pet of him and could hitch him up to a buggy and drive him without any danger. I remember Dad had a medium sized matched team of horses he had trained as pacers and my older sister took me driving in a "Surry with a Fringe all around".

Of the Children-

1) William Andrew Corning , was a Painting Contractor, his first wife was Cora Dolph , whose parents were quite wealthy and in society and Cora was not always home which resulted in a divorce. They were married in Chicago in 1892 and one sone, Walter Dolph Corning, born in Chicago March 3, 1893. His second wife was Mary Hayes, a very fine young lady. Her parents were very devout Irish Roman Catholics who resented her marriage to a Protestant which resulted in her suicide. They were married about a year - no children. His third wife was Grace, a very fine woman and they lived together happily for many years until her death. No other data and no children. William A. Corning was born March 29, 1867, and died in Rochester, New York, October 25, 1959 aged 95 years.

He had a high rating as a Locomotive Engineer with the CRI&P Railroad Company and had been an Engineer on their limited trains and was with the company for 45 years, and retired in 1915 at the age of 70 years. He was able to drive a car right up to the time of his death at 90 years and 5 months.

His wife Ellen Tanner was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin November 29, 1875 and died in Palmer Lake, Colorado, January 23, 1963 at the age of 88 years. They were married in Chicago in 1897 and had a family of three children, one son and two daughters.

Letitia Corning born in Chicago, November 28, 1898 and died in Chicago, February 23, 1936. She graduated from the Chicago Teachers Normal College about 1920. She also worked as a Commercial Artist for some time. (Not married)

Martha (Fairy) Corning was born in Rock Island, Illinois, April 6, 1905 and is still living in Colorado. (not married) She attended Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois for five years and received a Bachelor's Degree. While attending college she was hit by a car and her back was seriously injured. The driver was not insured and had no property and she had to pay all her medical expenses herself, her back injury giving her trouble the remainder of her college years.

John Glen Corning was born in Silvis, Illinois, August 8, 1909, and graduated from the Moline, Illinois High School in 1928 and attended Augustana College Rock Island, Illinois for three years part time while he was working. He enlisted in the U.S. Army December 7, 1940 (exactly one year before the attack on Pearl Harbor), and was stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma near Lawton, Oklahoma for five years and was in the Band. The Band did a lot of traveling. He was also stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado 30 miles from the town of Palmer Lake, Colorado for 2 and 3/4 years. In 1949 he joined the U.S. Army Reserve and in 1956 went to work as a "Unit Aide" a Civil Service Job. He is now Intelligence Sergeant of Headquarters Detachment, 2nd Brigade, 95 Div. (Training), and is also a civilian employee. He is a member of Lawton, Oklahoma Masonic Lodge #183 AF&AM and a 32nd Degree Mason, and a member of the Guthrie, Oklahoma Consistory. October 15, 1943 he married Miss Aletha Merritt in Lawton, Oklahoma, she was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, September 15, 1914, and they have always had a happy married life. They are both members of the First Presbyterian Church of Lawton, and are part time farmers and have a small herd of Shorthorn Hereford Cattle.

3) Gertrude McGee Corning was married three times, her first husband David Hill and they had adopted a son, after he died she married John Norris and they had an adopted daughter, and after his death she was married to Samuel Black and he died. December 4, 1968 she was 96 years old and outlived her husbands, and at her age her memory is not very good hence the reason why not more data. She is a member of the Methodist Church in her locality and takes quite an interest in her church work. In her younger days she was a teacher of Elocution and did some acting and knew some nice people in Hollywood. A great friend of hers was June Mathis who was one of the officers of the old Metro Moving Picture Corporation, and was instrumental in helping Rudolph Valentino to fame. She wanted him for Ben Hur in the play that name but she was overruled in favor of Francis X. Bushman. Gertrude was well acquainted with her and her parents for years and I also had the pleasure of meeting them, both June and I were quite young at the time. My wife was also acquainted with her.

4) Virginia Effie Corning, her first marriage was to James Morrison in Chicago, Illinois in 1900, and they had two sons both born in Chicago, Illinois, Frank Morrison March 17, 1901 and Donald February 15, 1904, and they both died in Portland, Oregon. Their father died (?) and their mother May 1, 1967 and she was buried in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery with her two sons.

Her second marriage was to Mr. Otis Riedel in Portland, Oregon May 21, 1910. He was born in Canada December 23, 1879 and died in Portland, Oregon July 20, 1931. Virginia E. (Corning) Riedel was born in Janesville, Wisconsin Jun 6, 1877 and died in Forest Grove, Oregon, May 1, 1967. They had one daughter, Grace Elizabeth Riedel, born in Portland, January 4, 1911.

28, 1932. He was born in Syracuse, New York October 26, 1907 and they have one son John Throdore Harlow, Jr., born in Portland October 8, 1933.

John Theodore Harlow Jr., was married to Kay Elizabeth Panzer, June 17, 1962. She was born in Mt. Vernon, Washington, April 3, 1943, and they were divorced in October of 1967. No children.

John Theodore Harlow Sr., was the son of Roman Catholic parents and at the age of fourteen he became a member of the Syracuse, New York Chapter of the DeMolay, a boys organization sponsored by the Masonic Order, his sponsor's were Mr. John Morse and 32nd degree Mason and Mr. Henry Ritter a Knight Templar, and since then has taken a very active part in the organization and was one of it's officers up to a few years ago when he moved to Forest Grove, Oregon. He still takes a great interest in the order and is still a member and in 1952 he received the Molay Legion of Honor Degree, and hopes to become more active again when business conditions permit.

He was a member of Willamette Masonic Lodge #2 AF&AM, Portland, and became a Master Mason, January 10, 1945, he is also the 5th Past Master of Ashlar #209 AF&AM, Portland, and is a 32nd Degree Mason. He was one of the officers in the fourteenth Degree work in Scottish Rite until he moved to Forest Grove, Oregon to engage in business. He enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1925 and was stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, until he was honorably discharged.

5) I, Herbert I. Corning was born in Janesville, Wisconsin March 2, 1885, and when I was quite young my mother and us five children moved to Chicago where the opportunities for my older brothers and sisters were much better than in Janesville. Father remained in Janesville where his business was and we visited back and fourth. When I was five years old I went to Kindergarten School and at six to grammar school, and then when I was fourteen I left school to be an apprentice and studied mathematics, drawing, and electrical engineering at night and in my spare time, and after serving my time was supposed to go to college and complete my education as an Electrical Engineer and go to work with the Commonwealth Company of Chicago.

However it didn't work out that way as when I was seventeen I came to Portland, Oregon where I had relatives, times were bad, wages were low, and I couldn't get a job at my trade, so I settled for a job with the railroad company, and attended the Portland YMCA Night Schools, completing high school and as the Government Income Tax became a law, I graduated as a Certified Public Accountant, and worked up to the job as Chief Clerk in a Railroad Freight Office, later I took up a job as Chief Clerk with the General Yardmaster of the Terminal Company. My next job was that of a traveling auditor with the railroad company, and then when the first world war started and the Government took over the Railroads I was a Special Agent with the U.S. Railroad Administration.

December 31, 1913, I became a member of Columbia Masonic Lodge #114 AF&AM, Portland, Oregon. I was also a member of the Portland Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club which kept me in a good physical condition. I liked to help the Wrestling Instructor with his classes and became quite an expert, and sometimes helped the boxing instructor with his classes.

In 1920 many of my friends and acquaintances signed up for the Scottish Rite Degrees and Al Kader Shrine for the coming Shrine convention in Portland, and January 23rd and 24th, I became a 32nd degree Mason and a member of Al Kader Temple, and at the convention I was assigned to one of the uniformed bodies of Algeria Temple of Helena, Montana, and as a member of Al Kader Temple was an Honorary Member of Algeria Temple.

Florence Allie James and Herbert Irving Corning were married March 14, 1921 in Seattle, Washington at the Plymouth Congregational Church during the 1921 Shrine Convention. She was born in Moscow, Idaho, January 21, 1898 and was the daughter of Charles Gaston James and Allie E. Armstrong families were early American Pioneers who came to America before the Revolutionary War, the James settling in the Southern Carolina's. Florence is a member of the Bettina Chapter, O.E.S. #399, and Nazareth White Shrine #8 of Long Beach, California.

November 26, 1926 my wife and I moved to Long Beach, California and have lived here since. I took out a life membership in my Masonic Lodge #114 AF&AM, Portland, Oregon and demitted from the Portland Scottish Rite Consistory to that of Long Beach, and took out a life membership in the Rite as a 32nd. I also demitted from Al Kader Temple, Portland to Al Maliakah Temple, Los Angeles, and December 31, 1970 I will be a member of my Colombia Lodge for 57 years and January 24, 1970 a fifty year member of the Scottish Rite and the Shrine.

We have one son James Herbert Corning, born in Long Beach, California, March 2, 1932, he attended Lafayette Grammer School, Washington Junior High, and graduated from Polytechnic High School in 1950.

October 20, 1952 he was inducted into the U.S. Army at Fort Ord, California and attended the Army Motor School approximately between December 20 and February 14, and soon afterward was sent to Korea and assigned to Korean Military Advisory Group, 7th Korean Army as a Corporal and then promoted to Provisional Sargeant to fill a vacancy, and while in the capacity was highly commended and received seven Military Decorations for his services, including "The Commendation Ribbon with Metal Pendant". He was returned to Fort Ord, California where he received his seperation papers August 21, 1954, and then returned home.

December 2, 1955 he was married to Miss Joan Marie Grass in Christ Church, Inglewood, California, by the Reverend Joseph M. Applegate who also married her parents Mr. John Grass and Miss Nellie Barr.

Their daughter, Joan was born in Los Angeles, California, April 10, 1939 and attended the Manchester Avenue Grammer Schoo, Los Angeles, and after the family moved to Long Beach, the Frankland Junior High and graduated from Wilson High School in 1956.

They have four very fine children, Debra Lynn Corning, born November 12, 1956, Kathy Jean Corning, December 9, 1958, Lori Ann Corning, born November 21, 1959, and James Roger Corning, April 1, 1962. They are all very well behaved and receive high grades in school. Their mother's parents are also very fine people, their grandmother always helping with the children, and their grandfather, Mr. Grass is an official with the U.S. Post Office Department. Their father James Herbert Corning has a good position with the Los Angeles County Sanitary Department in charge of Concrete Drain Construction. His hobby - Desert Motorcycle Racing and he is a member of the National Motorcycle Association, and Orginazation of Motorecycle Sportsmen. (His first name "James" is his mother's maiden name so he come by it rightly.)

As a boy James was a hot rod enthusiast and built a number of Hot Rods up from scratch and he also raced them. This experience paid off as at the Army Motor School he was near the top of the class and as a Provisional Sargeant with the Korean Military Advisory Group.

Also after coming to Long Beach I served with the California Railroad Commision because of my railroad experence and as a auditor and accountant until the job was completed for the Pacific Electric Railroad. I was also with several steamship lines as a dock foreman, Steamship Agent, and Claim Agent, and from 1929-1941 I had my own electrical and import and export business, then the 2nd world war started which put an end to my business, and I became and assistant instructor in ship electrical construction, then a shipyard foreman with the IBEW Electrical Union and then Chief Electrician "Ensign" on Navy Turbo-Electric "T.2" Tankers near the end of the war and for four years, and then as a class "A" Electrician on construction, industrial and housing until I retired in 1961. Now at my age I can only do light work and have been compiling our family histories and all our ancestors were early American Pioneers who came to America before the Revolutionary War and I became a member of the Sons of the American Revolution.

NOTE:

Double date shown for birth is explained partially by the following from Wikipedia:

A mixed-style date is one written in a way designed to minimize confusion about the difference between the Julian and Gregorian calendars.

In 1752, Britain and her colonies switched over from the Julian Calendar to the Gregorian Calendar by skipping eleven days. Furthermore, the system for numbering the year itself was changed: whereas previously it had been customary to iterate the year number on 25 March (Lady Day), from 1753 onward the new year began on New Year's Day, 1 January.

As a result of this, considerable confusion can result when discussing events which occurred prior to 1753. Should we use the 'old-style' date for the occurrence (as it would have been written by a participant) or the 'new-style' (as we would write it)? As far as the month and day are concerned, there seems no point in recalculating the Gregorian equivalent, especially since some events and holidays are so intimately tied to the date. (Is there any point in saying that Christmas was celebrated on 14 December?) On the other hand, though, as far as the year is concerned, we may very well be interested in how many years ago an event occurred, for which we do need to recalculate the date according to our system.

Based on these considerations, many authors choose to present dates essentially as they would have been written by contemporaries; but if the date falls before 25 March, both possible numbers for the year are given, separated by a slash. Thus the birthday of George Washington would be written as 11 February 1731/32 where 1731 is the old-style date and 1732 the new. However, on the Gregorian calendar the date for Washington's birthday is 22 February 1732, because the Julian calendar was 11 days behind, and it had already turned to 1732 on 1 January rather than on the 25 March in the Gregorian.

N.B.— While 'old-style' and 'new-style' are widely-used and accepted terms, 'mixed-style' is not. These years are often called double-dated years.

Notes for Nehemiah Hayward, Sr.:

Email from Antony W. Knapp, 21 May 2009:

This next section explains some of the features that Tony used:

Below is my thorough update of the information you gave me. I have added a section to each of your 10 listings, telling about second marriages when I am aware of them and commenting on the rest. I have supplied references throughout, but there is a period in the late 19th century and the early 20th century for which I have to rely on information assembled by my father-in-law, Olive Stoddard Hayward Jr. in the 1980s.

Information about some second marriages and siblings is complicated enough so that I have attached four pdf files rather than transcribe it all into this message.

The quoted sources, apart from the information from my father-in-law, are the vital records series at www.archive.org for various Massachusetts towns, as well as the following books:

(1) History of the Town of Hingham, Massachusetts, volumes 2 and 3, compiled by George Lincoln. These are Google books, but about 50 pages are missing in volume 3 corresponding to the W's. These are abbreviated as "Lincoln" below.

(2) The Tower Genealogy, compiled by Charlemagne Tower, 1893, a Google book. This is abbreviated "Tower Genealogy" below.

Other abbreviations:

b = born, bp = baptized, VR = Vital Records, v = volume, p = page, pp = pages, per = "per the following source"

When a source is a town's VR and no town is listed, the inference is that the birth, marriage, or death occurred in that town.

My understanding is that in the 1600s, baptisms were often done either on the day of birth or the next day or the Sunday following the day of birth.

However, the case of Malachi Tower below is an example in the 1700s with a gap of a couple of weeks between birth and baptism.

and is common to all of the notes shown in subsequent generations but only shown here.(AEK)

1 Update.

(a) bp for Nehemiah, not b, per Beverly VR, v1, p 172.

(b) The death of Nehemiah in 1756 in Reading is claimed at the Jackson-Flint website. However, the death is not listed in the Reading VR, and I have no other source for this item.

(c) Ruth Clark (no "e") bp 10 May 1674 per Salem VR, v1, p180. There is room for parents to be listed, but a dash appears in place of names.

(d) The marriage of Ruth Clarke (with an "e" and Nehemiah Hayward is listed in both the Marblehead VR and the Beverly VR. Hayward is spelled Howard in the Marblehead case and is spelled Haward in the Beverly case.

(e) The death date of Ruth Clarke must have been between the birth of Nehemiah 2 (31 July 1709) and the second marriage date of Nehemiah 1 (6 September 1711). So I consider that it was about 1710.

(f) Bethia (Lovett) Shaw of Beverly marriage to Nehemiah: 6 September 1711 in Beverly, listed in Salem VR, v3, p523, and in Beverly VR, v2, p273. The name Lovett does not appear in either listing; the spelling is the one I chose. Bethia's baptism is recorded as for Bethia Lovet, daughter of John and Bethia, bp 4 June 1682, Beverly VR v2, p274. Her first marriage is to Peter Shaw, and her name is spelled Bethiah Lovit; the intention (marriage license) appears for 14 October 1705 on pp 200 and 274 of Beverly VR, v2.

The couple had a child listed as Bethiah Shaw, b 1 July 1709, Beverly VR v1, p291; the mother's name was spelled Bethiah. BOTTOM LINE for the scnd marriage: I'm going with the spelling Bethia Lovett, marriage date 6 September 1711, marriage place Beverly, bride bp 4 June 1682 in Beverly.

NOTE:

Double date shown for birth is explained partially by the following from Wikipedia:

A mixed-style date is one written in a way designed to minimize confusion about the difference between the Julian and Gregorian calendars.

In 1752, Britain and her colonies switched over from the Julian Calendar to the Gregorian Calendar by skipping eleven days. Furthermore, the system for numbering the year itself was changed: whereas previously it had been customary to iterate the year number on 25 March (Lady Day), from 1753 onward the new year began on New Year's Day, 1 January.

As a result of this, considerable confusion can result when discussing events which occurred prior to 1753. Should we use the 'old-style' date for the occurrence (as it would have been written by a participant) or the 'new-style' (as we would write it)? As far as the month and day are concerned, there seems no point in recalculating the Gregorian equivalent, especially since some events and holidays are so intimately tied to the date. (Is there any point in saying that Christmas was celebrated on 14 December?) On the other hand, though, as far as the year is concerned, we may very well be interested in how many years ago an event occurred, for which we do need to recalculate the date according to our system.

Based on these considerations, many authors choose to present dates essentially as they would have been written by contemporaries; but if the date falls before 25 March, both possible numbers for the year are given, separated by a slash. Thus the birthday of George Washington would be written as 11 February 1731/32 where 1731 is the old-style date and 1732 the new. However, on the Gregorian calendar the date for Washington's birthday is 22 February 1732, because the Julian calendar was 11 days behind, and it had already turned to 1732 on 1 January rather than on the 25 March in the Gregorian.

N.B.— While 'old-style' and 'new-style' are widely-used and accepted terms, 'mixed-style' is not. These years are often called double-dated years.

Email from Antony W. Knapp, 21 May 2009:

This next section explains some of the features that Tony used:

Below is my thorough update of the information you gave me. I have added a section to each of your 10 listings, telling about second marriages when I am aware of them and commenting on the rest. I have supplied references throughout, but there is a period in the late 19th century and the early 20th century for which I have to rely on information assembled by my father-in-law, Olive Stoddard Hayward Jr. in the 1980s.

Information about some second marriages and siblings is complicated enough so that I have attached four pdf files rather than transcribe it all into this message.

The quoted sources, apart from the information from my father-in-law, are the vital records series at www.archive.org for various Massachusetts towns, as well as the following books:

(1) History of the Town of Hingham, Massachusetts, volumes 2 and 3, compiled by George Lincoln. These are Google books, but about 50 pages are missing in volume 3 corresponding to the W's. These are abbreviated as "Lincoln" below.

(2) The Tower Genealogy, compiled by Charlemagne Tower, 1893, a Google book. This is abbreviated "Tower Genealogy" below.

Other abbreviations:

b = born, bp = baptized, VR = Vital Records, v = volume, p = page, pp = pages, per = "per the following source"

When a source is a town's VR and no town is listed, the inference is that the birth, marriage, or death occurred in that town.

My understanding is that in the 1600s, baptisms were often done either on the day of birth or the next day or the Sunday following the day of birth.

However, the case of Malachi Tower below is an example in the 1700s with a gap of a couple of weeks between birth and baptism.

and is common to all of the notes shown in subsequent generations but only shown here.(AEK)

1 Update.

(a) bp for Nehemiah, not b, per Beverly VR, v1, p 172.

(b) The death of Nehemiah in 1756 in Reading is claimed at the Jackson-Flint website. However, the death is not listed in the Reading VR, and I have no other source for this item.

(c) Ruth Clark (no "e") bp 10 May 1674 per Salem VR, v1, p180. There is room for parents to be listed, but a dash appears in place of names.

(d) The marriage of Ruth Clarke (with an "e" and Nehemiah Hayward is listed in both the Marblehead VR and the Beverly VR. Hayward is spelled Howard in the Marblehead case and is spelled Haward in the Beverly case.

(e) The death date of Ruth Clarke must have been between the birth of Nehemiah 2 (31 July 1709) and the second marriage date of Nehemiah 1 (6 September 1711). So I consider that it was about 1710.

(f) Bethia (Lovett) Shaw of Beverly marriage to Nehemiah: 6 September 1711 in Beverly, listed in Salem VR, v3, p523, and in Beverly VR, v2, p273. The name Lovett does not appear in either listing; the spelling is the one I chose. Bethia's baptism is recorded as for Bethia Lovet, daughter of John and Bethia, bp 4 June 1682, Beverly VR v2, p274. Her first marriage is to Peter Shaw, and her name is spelled Bethiah Lovit; the intention (marriage license) appears for 14 October 1705 on pp 200 and 274 of Beverly VR, v2.

The couple had a child listed as Bethiah Shaw, b 1 July 1709, Beverly VR v1, p291; the mother's name was spelled Bethiah. BOTTOM LINE for the scnd marriage: I'm going with the spelling Bethia Lovett, marriage date 6 September 1711, marriage place Beverly, bride bp 4 June 1682 in Beverly.

Notes for Eleazer Butler II:

Raised in Conn. and Penn. by his uncle, Capt. Robert Durkee.

With all the facts available taken into consideration, it is evident that Butler was a loyal soldier under Washington, and it is significant that in 1932 the Daughters of the American Revolution entered the name of Eleazar Butler, 2nd on their rolls and thereby made eligible for membership in their organization and in the Sons of the American Revolution all his descendants who can furnish required proof of descent. This action was taken after verification and acceptance of papers submitted by Miss Jessie M. Crosby of Kansas City, Mo., who in collaboration with the writer collected the evidence.

As a result of this data, the name of David P. Corning is being shown as David Perry Corning until further research shows that the second name should be Parry. (AEK)

Notes for George 'William' Corning:

The following post-em note was received from Susan Mulvey on 25 Nov. 2006

Name: Susan J. Mulvey

George William Corning was called William by his family. He married Jane (Jean) Smith Adair daughter of Charles Adair and Elizabeth Smith Orr born 1 May 1856 in Irvine, Ayr, Scotland. They married in New Ardrossan, Ayr, Scotland 12 December 1876. They had one child; Elizabeth Adair Corning born 21 May 1880 in New Adrossan, Ayr, Scotland.

Family rumor is that the family was lost-at-sea. I am still trying to prove this. The last date I have is the 1881 census in Ardrossan when Jane and Elizabeth are living with her parents, she is called "Captain's wife."

He was a well crafted carpenter who built many homes in the area and enjoyed keeping busy working in the woods. He was an amazing father and husband who worked many long hours to provide for his family. Truly the patriarch, his kind words and wisdom will always be cherished by his family.

Jimmy Matheson

Corning Tree

The following obituary is taken from the text of the eulogy for Jimmy Matheson delivered by his nephews, Mark Taylor on December 3.

I have attended many celebrations of people's lives and felt that sometimes they fail to truly tell the whole story. I do not pretend to know the whole story of Jimmy Matheson, but know enough that I could do it some justice.

There's a great deal I could say about the life of Jimmy Matheson, but what comes to mind first is good sport. Good sport is a term used in many ways and it can mean many things. I think the first thing that pops into most people's heads is that the person can compete in an athletic competition and win or lose, shake the opponent's hand and say "Good game". Another meaning might be that the person could take a little ribbing from friends and not get angry, but rather just laugh along and take it. "Good Sport" is certainly a term that applies to this area when the person is a good hunter or fisherman. I think most of us here today who knew Jimmy know that all three of these meanings apply to him in a big way. Many of you have got to know Jimmy through his long stint on the ball fields out hunting and fishing and enjoying the great outdoors, or working with him on local jobs. I remember going up the ball diamond in Bonny River as a youngster and watching the guys play. Jimmy was in the twilight of his career and still was mowing down batters with his curveball that was as crooked as the Beaver Harbour Road. Still into his late 30's and 40's he took his turn behind the plate, doing whatever was needed to bring victory to the home team. I've seen many times where younger guys would complain of the heat or the flies and Jimmy would snap back, "Flies you say flies! Will let me tell ya I've seen them so thick, and he would go on to spin a tale that perhaps was based in truth, but that the Jimmy Matheson marinade on it to make it easier to swallow.

As a youngster, I remember going to MacDougalls Lake to my grandmother's camp, where the whole Matheson clan would embark on some serious hunting. There were hunters from all over the states and Jimmy was one of the more avid guides on the staff. They would get their deer and Jimmy would get a few George Washington's and everybody was happy. Nobody got cheated when they went to my grandmother's camp. They came here for hunting and hunting they got.

He spent a good part of his life in the MacDougall Lake area and enjoyed going out to his camp. I understand that he and his son in law Mark and grandson Daniel had the opportunity to revisit some of his old hunting grounds shortly before Jimmy's passing. Many of us who have loved ones do not get the opportunity to do things like this because sometimes there is no warning given by our creator. This is time that I'm sure Mark and Daniel will never forget.

Jimmy was a devoted family man who would do whatever he could to provide for them. Never flashy or one to show off, Jimmy enjoyed the simple things in life. The words "Jimmy'n Joyce" just seems to roll off your tongue without thinking and will be a hard habit to break. The two spent a lot of time together going to craft fairs and flea markets. Before that, blueberries and wreaths forged their love for one another and also a practical business and marital partnership.

In the past few years, Jimmy made many a friendship with people of other lands who came to Canada on ships and docked in Bayside. They would come calling on Jimmy looking for bicycles and other items that were in short supply in the homeland. Although Jimmy didn't know them from a hole in the ground, he would welcome them in and do what he could to help out. He looked beyond the color of their skin and took them for what they were human beings like you and me. It is regrettable that more of us cannot do the same.

I was listening to a female singer named Jann Arden last night while I was writing this. There was a song called "Good Mother" and there were four lines that just jumped out at me, and I thought I would share them with you.

You could say I'm hard to hold,
But if you knew me you'd know
I've got a good father,
And his strength is what makes me cry.

I was looking for some poetry the other night after I spoke to Vicky on the phone. This may shock you, but I don't have one single poem in my house. After searching around, finally I decided that I would write one and make it my own. I call it I'm Glad we had Jim and I hope you like it.

I'm Glad we had Jim

Jimmy Matheson's motor run for three score year and one
He never took life too serious and knew how to have fun,
Picking tips and berries, or building things of wood,
When you talked to Jimmy, you knew where you stood.

Jimmy was a family man and that nobody can deny,
If there was a family problem, Jimmy was close by.
Seldom would meet him that he wouldn't make you laugh

Corning Tree

And if he had a dollar, he would give you half.

He'd tell a hunting tale with a twinkle in his eye,
Grinning from ear to ear and tell you it wasn't a lie.
Men came from the States to see Jim and try their luck
And head back home and brag about all the bucks.

I've also seen him on the diamond on a hot summer day,
Waiting for his turn to make the bad guys pay,
Swat you fool at that curveball and go and take a seat,
Jimmy's on the hill today and Bonny River won't be beat.

I'm glad we had Jim and you can be sure of that,
No longer will he be shooting or swinging the big bat
Jimmy was as good as a guy as you have ever seen,
He still's a star player, but now he's on God's team.

Donald Lord

A car crash last Thursday evening caused the death of one man, and hospitalized a second on the Ledge Road near here.

Killed in the car crash was Donald M. Lord 29 of Back Bay and in Charlotte County Hospital with a fractured skull in a second occupant of the car. Leigh Anthony's condition had been described as good by hospital officials here.

The car in which the two were occupants apparently failed to make a curve in the road, went out of control and struck a culvert.

Charlotte County Coroner Ed Williston said no inquest would be held into the back Bay man's death and the accident.

Mr. Lord is survived by his wife, the former Marsha Leavitt, one son, George, his maternal grandmother, two brothers and five sisters. He rested at the St. George funeral Home until 3 p.m. Sunday when the body was taken to the United Baptist Church for service at 3:30 p.m. Interment was made in the St. George Rural Cemetery.

Notes for John Gilman Stewart:

John Gilman Stewart

June 09, 1940 - August 15, 2017

John Gilman Stewart was born on June 9, 1940 in St. Stephen N.B. and lived most of his life on the family's homestead in Pleasant Ridge.

He enjoyed many adventures with his brother Allison throughout their lives - building tree houses in their childhood and going on drives inspecting the land and the waters near their home.

John went to agricultural school at the Experimental Farm in Lincoln.

For a while, he worked on tobacco farms in Ontario and as a miner in New Brunswick and Maine but his love of home drew him back to the family farm where he worked with his father.

Corning Tree

Eventually John took over running the business where he raised beef cattle, grew hay, harvested lumber-wood, blueberries and maple syrup.

He was an avid reader - his home office is filled with dozens of books and magazines.

He loved being in nature and spent hours walking among the hundreds of acres of his farm.

An animal lover, he had many four-legged friends, including some special dogs in his life including Ted, Laddie, Thunder, Sandy and Rufus.

He was an active member of the Loyal Orange Lodge and a past master of the Sussex Lodge #7 Free and Accepted Masons of N.B.

John was adored by his parents and siblings as well as by all of his nieces and nephews who loved tagging along with him whenever he went to the fields especially at haying and blueberry time.

Riding on the tractor was something three generations of kids loved to do with him. He was a wicked Monopoly player and took great pleasure in buying all of the real estate on the board.

He also was a genius at brain-teaser puzzles and delighted in solving them when others were left scratching their heads - baffled by how he did it.

John knew a thing or two about how to grow crops but he also was a keen stock market investor and could often be found in his office above the kitchen checking on his investments.

He will be greatly missed by his older brother, David (Ellen) and sister, Marion Clarke, nephews David (Sylvia), Phred (Roy Ramirez) and nieces Carolyn (Bruce Lohnes), Laverne Burt (Rob), Pam Ferguson (Jim), Paula Stewart-LeBlanc (Jamie), Jen MacDonald (Kurt), Ann Clarke (Paul Reed) and Gill Clarke (Steve Maddox).

Also, he leaves behind great nieces and nephews: Dhavita (Ben), Maya, Keirtan, Mary Louise, Nicolas, Alex, Jackie, Riki-Lynn, Ethan, Jenna, Clarke, Emerson, Vivienne and Elliot as well as several great-great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

He was predeceased by his parents, Gilman and Louise (Mundle) Stewart and brother Allison (Faye).

Funeral service will be held at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Friday, August 18, 2017. at 2:00 pm. A Masonic service will be held at the funeral home on Friday at 1:45 pm.

Honorary pallbearers include: Calvin Johnson, Kevon Kinney, Arnold Mundle, Robert Burt, Ann Clarke and Paula Stewart-LeBlanc.

For those who wish, donations may be made in John's memory to the Shriners Hospital or to a charity of one's choice. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Rikk Matheson

MATHESON RICHARD G. - Taken from us unexpectedly due to a heart attack on Wednesday, April 18th, 2012; Richard "Rikk" George Matheson of Campobello, NB. Born in St. Stephen, NB, he is the son of the late William Earl and Dora Louise (Matthews) Matheson. He was predeceased by an infant daughter and brother Ronnie. Rikk is survived by his companion Heather, his 2 brothers Donnie (Laurel) and Randy (Gerry), niece Christa (Denise) and nephew Jeffrey (Cali and Wyatt) all of Campobello.

Those who knew "Rikk" knew him as a man of music, spent a lot of time as a DJ, working first in the world of radio and more recently as respected web-based reviewer in the independent music world. He will be remembered for his loyalty to his favourite teams - wearing his Toronto Maple Leaf and Blue Jays Jerseys at every chance. Memories of him include how much he cared for and unconditionally supported others in the community. He had a special bond with friends that he loved and cherished and they had a supportive and kindred friendship with him as well. The phone would ring at all hours of the night for Rick and he would take the phone in to another room and talk for hours, always encouraging others and us at the same time. We had some great plans and things we were looking forward to doing with Rick. Clearly, someone else had better plans for him....

By request of the family there will be no visitation, however friends are welcomed to attend a memorial service to celebrate his life to be held on Tuesday, April 24th, 2012 at 2:00 pm at Wilson's Beach United Baptist Church with Rev. Robert Weaver officiating. A reception will immediately follow in the church hall. Donations to Wilson's Beach Cemetery would be appreciated by the family. Notes for Arnold Sydney Vail:

Arnold Sydney Vail

March 13, 1932 - October 15, 2018

Arnold Sydney Vail passed away at the Dr. Everett Chalmers Regional Hospital, Fredericton, NB, on Monday, October 15, 2018.

Born in Harvey, NB., son of the late Linton A. and Roxie A. (Messer) Vail.

Coming Tree

Today we celebrate 86 years of a life well lived and filled with joys and sorrows. Arnold described himself as a “jack of all trades and master of none”, but his workmanship both on his home, property and the community tells us a different story.

With the exception of a couple of years when he lived in Saint John, Arnold has lived his entire life in Brockway. With a stint at the dry dock in Saint John in 1958 and again in 1963 his heart was still in Brockway. After graduating from school in Lawrence Station he went to work the very next day. He and a neighbour worked in the woods for 10 years cutting hardwood for the flakeboard plant in St. Stephen. In 1969, he began driving school bus, in the Lawrence Station area, a job he loved and held for 28 years until his retirement. He never had any trouble with the kids whatsoever. “you had to let them know who was the boss”, Arnold said, but his smile told you he had the children’s safety at heart ALWAYS Fitting in nicely with his bus schedule over the years, was his love of carpentry. He built his own home in 1954 next door to his childhood home, having learned many of his carpentry skills from his grandfather Allan Messer, who at 80 years of age helped him build his first home.

Married in 1952, Arnold, and the love of his life, Gladys celebrated their 66th Anniversary on July 9th of this year. Childhood sweethearts, very seldom did you see one without the other. They were two peas in a pod and Gladys was there for every new adventure that came along. She believed, “you only get out of a marriage what you put in” and it certainly worked for them.

Arnold has been involved in many organizations over his lifetime, such as Cherry Masonic Lodge for more than 50 years and the Shriners. One activity that he found most rewarding was working with the Harvey Volunteer Fire Department as Deputy Chief.

Now retired for 21 years, Arnold delighted in keeping busy with his son Mark, working in his woodworking shop, collecting one-cylinder engines, restoring his 1928 Model A Ford to tip top shape and of course spending time with the people he loved the most, his Family.

Arnold has always risen to the occasion when asked to volunteer and often looked in on properties when home owners were away to make sure all was secure. A large stone beside the fire station attests to the influence of the Vail family since coming to the area in 1818. Arnold’s motto was “before I get out of the bed in the morning I decide what the day will bring, and I try to accomplish something good everyday.

A LIFE WELL LIVED, LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Survived by his wife, Gladys Jean (Toft) Vail, son, Mark Vail of Brockway, NB., daughter, Roselle Gowan (James) of Fredericton, NB., grandson, Matthew Gowan (Renee), great-grandchildren, Aisley, Kyren and Mya, sister, Marjorie Hovey, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be held at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Friday, October 19, 2018 at 2 PM. Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home on Thursday, October 18, 2018 from 7-9 PM and on Friday from 1-2 PM.

Masonic service will be held on Thursday evening at 6:45 PM.

Interment at Brockway Union Cemetery, Brockway, NB.

Married: Martha Amelia Graves 10 June 1866 Milton, Buffalo, WI

Our Family resided in Janesville, Wisconsin and father was a noted horseman and raised and trained fast trotting horses, and raced some in Chicago and sold some there, he also sold several to the circuses Barnum & Bailey and Ringling Bros in their winter quarters in Baraboo, Wisconsin. One of them was named Johnie Morris after my brother John and was trained as a Ring Horse and toured Europe. Another one of his horses was a fine spirited animal kept in an enclosure near the house and mother made a pet of him and could hitch him up to a buggy and drive him without any danger. I remember Dad had a medium sized matched team of horses he had trained as pacers and my older sister took me driving in a "Surry with a Fringe all around".

Of the Children-

1) William Andrew Corning , was a Painting Contractor, his first wife was Cora Dolph , whose parents were quite wealthy and in society and Cora was not always home which resulted in a divorce. They were married in Chicago in 1892 and one son, Walter Dolph Corning, born in Chicago March 3, 1893. His second wife was Mary Hayes, a very fine young lady. Her parents were very devout Irish Roman Catholics who resented her marriage to a Protestant which resulted in her suicide. They were married about a year - no children. His third wife was Grace, a very fine woman and they lived together happily for many years until her death. No other data and no children. William A. Corning was born March 29, 1867, and died in Rochester, New York, October 25, 1959 aged 95 years.

He had a high rating as a Locomotive Engineer with the CRI&P Railroad Company and had been a Engineer on their limited trains and was with the company for 45 years, and retired in 1915 at the age of 70 years. He was able to drive a car right up to the time of his death at 90 years and 5 months.

His wife Ellen Tanner was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin November 29, 1875 and died in Palmer Lake, Colorado, January 23, 1963 at the age of 88 years. They were married in Chicago in 1897 and had a family of three children, one son and two daughters.

December 4, 1968 she was 96 years old and outlived her husbands, and at her age her memory is not very good hence the reason why not more data. She is a member of the Methodist Church in her locality and takes quite an interest in her church work. In her younger days she was a teacher of Elocution and did some acting and knew some nice people in Hollywood. A great friend of hers was June Mathis who was one of the officers of the old Metro Moving Picture Corporation, and was instrumental in helping Rudolph Valentino to fame. She wanted him for Ben Hur in the play that name but she was over ruled in favor of Francis X. Bushman. Gertrude was well acquainted with her and her parents for years and I also had the pleasure of meeting them, both June and I were quite young at the time. My wife was also acquainted with her.

4) Virginia Effie Corning, her first marriage was to James Morrison in Chicago, Illinois in 1900, and they had two sons both born in Chicago, Illinois, Frank Morrison March 17, 1901 and Donald February 15, 1904, and they both died in Portland, Oregon. Their father died (?) and their mother May 1, 1967 and she was buried in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery with her two sons.

Her second marriage was to Mr. Otis Riedel in Portland, Oregon May 21, 1910. He was born in Canada December 23, 1879 and died in Portland, Oregon July 20, 1931. Virginia E. (Corning) Riedel was born in Janesville, Wisconsin Jun 6, 1877 and died in Forest Grove, Oregon, May 1, 1967. They had one daughter, Grace Elizabeth Riedel, born in Portland, January 4, 1911.

He still takes a great interest in the order and is still a member and in 1952 he received the Molay Legion of Honor Degree, and hopes to become more active again when business conditions permit.

He was a member of Willamette Masonic Lodge #2 AF&AM, Portland, and became a Master Mason, January 10, 1945, he is also the 5th Past Master of Ashlar #209 AF&AM, Portland, and is a 32nd Degree Mason. He was one of the officers in the fourteenth Degree work in Scottish Rite until he moved to Forest Grove, Oregon to engage in business. He enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1925 and was stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, until he was honorably discharged.

5) I, Herbert I. Corning was born in Janesville, Wisconsin March 2, 1885, and when I was quite young my mother and us five children moved to Chicago where the opportunities for my older brothers and sisters were much better than in Janesville. Father remained in Janesville where his business was and we visited back and fourth. When I was five years old I went to Kindergarten School and at six to grammar school, and then when I was fourteen I left school to be an apprentice and studied mathematics, drawing, and electrical engineering at night and in my spare time, and after serving my time was supposed to go to college and complete my education as an Electrical Engineer and go to work with the Commonwealth Company of Chicago.

However it didn't work out that way as when I was seventeen I came to Portland, Oregon where I had relatives, times were bad, wages were low, and I couldn't get a job at my trade, so I settled for a job with the railroad company, and attended the Portland YMCA Night Schools, completing high school and as the Government Income Tax became a law, I graduated as a Certified Public Accountant, and worked up to the job as Chief Clerk in a Railroad Freight Office, later I took up a job as Chief Clerk with the General Yardmaster of the Terminal Company. My next job was that of a traveling auditor with the railroad company, and then when the first world war started and the Government took over the Railroads I was a Special Agent with the U.S. Railroad Administration.

December 31, 1913, I became a member of Columbia Masonic Lodge #114 AF&AM, Portland, Oregon. I was also a member of the Portland Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club which kept me in a good physical condition. I liked to help the Wrestling Instructor with his classes and became quite an expert, and sometimes helped the boxing instructor with his classes.

In 1920 many of my friends and acquaintances signed up for the Scottish Rite Degrees and Al Kader Shrine for the coming Shrine convention in Portland, and January 23rd and 24th, I became a 32nd degree Mason and a member of Al Kader Temple, and at the convention I was assigned to one of the uniformed bodies of Algeria Temple of Helena, Montana, and as a member of Al Kader Temple was an Honorary Member of Algeria Temple.

Florence Allie James and Herbert Irving Corning were married March 14, 1921 in Seattle, Washington at the Plymouth Congregational Church during the 1921 Shrine Convention. She was born in Moscow, Idaho, January 21, 1898 and was the daughter of Charles Gaston James and Allie E. Armstrong families were early American Pioneers who came to America before the Revolutionary War, the James settling in the Southern Carolina's. Florence is a member of the Bettina Chapter, O.E.S. #399, and Nazareth White Shrine #8 of Long Beach, California.

November 26, 1926 my wife and I moved to Long Beach, California and have lived here since. I took out a life membership in my Masonic Lodge #114 AF&AM, Portland, Oregon and demitted from the Portland Scottish Rite Consistory to that of Long Beach, and took out a life membership in the Rite as a 32nd. I also demitted from Al Kader Temple, Portland to Al Maliakah Temple, Los Angeles, and December 31, 1970 I will be a member of my Columbia Lodge for 57 years and January 24, 1970 a fifty year member of the Scottish Rite and the Shrine.

We have one son James Herbert Corning, born in Long Beach, California, March 2, 1932, he attended Lafayette Grammar School, Washington Junior High, and graduated from Polytechnic High School in 1950.

October 20, 1952 he was inducted into the U.S. Army at Fort Ord, California and attended the Army Motor School approximately between December 20 and February 14, and soon afterward was sent to Korea and assigned to Korean Military Advisory Group, 7th Korean Army as a Corporal and then promoted to Provisional Sergeant to fill a vacancy, and while in the capacity was highly commended and received seven Military Decorations for his services, including "The Commendation Ribbon with Metal Pendant". He was returned to Fort Ord, California where he received his separation papers August 21, 1954, and then returned home.

December 2, 1955 he was married to Miss Joan Marie Grass in Christ Church, Inglewood, California, by the Reverend Joseph M. Applegate who also married her parents Mr. John Grass and Miss Nellie Barr.

Their daughter, Joan was born in Los Angeles, California, April 10, 1939 and attended the Manchester Avenue Grammar School, Los Angeles, and after the family moved to Long Beach, the Frankland Junior High and graduated from Wilson High School in 1956.

Corning Tree

They have four very fine children, Debra Lynn Corning, born November 12, 1956, Kathy Jean Corning, December 9, 1958, Lori Ann Corning, born November 21, 1959, and James Roger Corning, April 1, 1962. They are all very well behaved and receive high grades in school. Their mother's parents are also very fine people, their grandmother always helping with the children, and their grandfather, Mr. Grass is an official with the U.S. Post Office Department. Their father James Herbert Corning has a good position with the Los Angeles County Sanitary Department in charge of Concrete Drain Construction. His hobby - Desert Motorcycle Racing and he is a member of the National Motorcycle Association, and Organization of Motorcycle Sportsmen. (His first name "James" is his mother's maiden name so he come by it rightly.)

As a boy James was a hot rod enthusiast and built a number of Hot Rods up from scratch and he also raced them. This experience paid off as at the Army Motor School he was near the top of the class and as a Provisional Sargeant with the Korean Military Advisory Group.

Also after coming to Long Beach I served with the California Railroad Commision because of my railroad experience and as a auditor and accountant until the job was completed for the Pacific Electric Railroad. I was also with several steamship lines as a dock foreman, Steamship Agent, and Claim Agent, and from 1929-1941 I had my own electrical and import and export business, then the 2nd world war started which put an end to my business, and I became and assistant instructor in ship electrical construction, then a shipyard foreman with the IBEW Electrical Union and then Chief Electrician "Ensign" on Navy Turbo-Electric "T.2" Tankers near the end of the war and for four years, and then as a class "A" Electrician on construction, industrial and housing until I retired in 1961. Now at my age I can only do light work and have been compiling our family histories and all our ancestors were early American Pioneers who came to America before the Revolutionary War and I became a member of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Dear Sir,

I have a request from Mr. Herbert I. Corning, Long Beach, California, to write to you relative to his record while in the employ of this company.

I am glad of an opportunity to speak in behalf of Mr. Corning. He was in the employ of our company continuously for several years. His duties were of a clerical nature relating to the handling of cars at this terminal where the accounting of passenger equipment of several companies and also freight cars of tenant roads demand accuracy to meet the exciting demands of the users of the property. We handle approximately 400,000 cars per year. Mr. Corning served in the capacity of Chief Clerk to our General Yard Master. Subsequently he was advanced when he took charge of all car weighing work and supervising rendition of reports in connection therewith. Later he was placed in charge of all passenger train consist reports rendered daily to the using companies and reports separately prepared for our own use.

In all these positions Mr. Corning performed very good work and gave perfect satisfaction. He is quick to comprehend and pays close attention to his work. He is held in high esteem by all the officials of the company.

C. R. Randall. The home of this gentleman and his highly esteemed wife and family is most attractive to all lovers of homelikeness. The roomy old dwelling, built of stone and brick, gives the observer the impression of "four stories, all on the ground floor" and satisfies him that the builders wrought for the comfort of the occupants and the varied needs of family life. It is surrounded by well-tilled fields and an abundant supply of small fruits, together with all needful farm buildings. The seventy-two acres which comprise the estate are devoted to mixed farming, and Mr. Randall is also much interested in bee culture, which he began twenty-five years since without any previous knowledge of the business.

Mr. Randall is of highly respectable ancestry, his father being Elias Randall, a native of New York, and his mother, Mindwell, daughter of Warren Corning was a Colonel in the War of 1812. The parents of our subject resided for some time after their marriage in Mentor, Ohio, where the father was engaged as a carpenter, cabinet-maker and farmer. He built and occupied, what is now known as the Garfield homestead, which he sold to the late President for $13,000. Mr. and Mrs. Randall removed to Illinois in 1854, making their home in Peoria, where Mr. Randall laid out and platted Randall's Addition. He speculated considerably in land during his later years. He breathed his last in 1867, his wife surviving until 1884. They had seven children, one of whom is now deceased.

Our subject is the fifth in order of birth in the parental family, having opened his eyes to the light June 17, 1830, in Lake County, Ohio. His youth was spent in his native State, and his boyhood divided between attendance at the district schools and cutting cord-wood, timber and rails, pulling stumps and otherwise exerting his physical energy. He finally became a student in the High School at Kirtland, Ohio, where he well remembers seeing Joseph Smith and other prominent Mormons, whose temple was located there. After having remained with his parents until twenty-three years of age, he began his own career as a salesman of apple trees, also spending about five months in the lightning-rod business. His labors before the war were in various parts of the Southern States.

Mr. Randall next entered land in Iowa and Nebraska, but taking the gold fever started to Pike's Peak. He went only as far as Omaha, Neb., when he determined to return eastward and, making his way back to Illinois, resumed his former occupation making trips to various places. In 1863 he married and settled on section 33, Elmwood Township, Peoria County, where he has permanently remained. He owns seventy-two acres of land, the cultivation of which he still superintends. His labors have not been entirely confined to his personal affairs but he has acted for those about him as Pathmaster and School Director, having served in the latter capacity six years. He has voted the Republican ticket since the organization of the party, and in connection with his political views recalls with pleasure a call made upon Abraham Lincoln at Springfield at the time of the first election of the lamented martyr. In his youth he was identified with the Christian Church.

The wife of our subject is a lady of intelligence and generous nature, in whom he has found a faithful helpmate. She was known in her maidenhood as Miss Elvira Barstow and was born September 1, 1844, in Muskingum County, Ohio. She received but a common-school education, but has improved every opportunity to continue her mental growth, and has been all that a wise and affectionate mother can be to her children who owe much to her counsel and training. She and her husband have taught their sons and daughters to follow the guidance of conscience and to use as a foundation for their character the Golden Rule.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Randall is made up of Lottie, Nellie M., Daisy Belle, Emma, Willard C. and Happy Jim. The first-born taught four years at Wahpeton, N. Dak.; she became the wife of F. C. Bohn and the mother of a daughter, Carlotta Irene, who was left motherless when two weeks old. The dying hours of Mrs. Bohn were cheered by the faith of the Congregational Church, of which she was a consistent member. Nellie and Daisy have adopted the profession of teaching, and Emma has just been graduated from the Farmington High School. They are highly spoken of by the entire neighborhood. The nature of the younger son is fitly expressed by his name.

The parents of Mrs. Randall were born, reared and married in Muskingum County, Ohio. They removed thence to Illinois in 1846, first settling at LaHarpe, Hancock County, and then moving onto a farm, where they lived thirteen years. At the expiration of that period they came to Peoria County, settling in Elmwood Township, where the father, Warren Barstow, died in 1876. The mother, Elizabeth (Bateman) Barstow, is still living, being now sixty-eight years old. They had six sons and four daughters, one of whom is now dead. Hart Woodruff, an uncle of Mr. Barstow, was Captain of the company at LaHarpe which drove the Mormons out of Hancock County.

Conflicting evidence: Tombstone inscription shows that George was born 1885 but this has to be an error as both the 1895 and 1900 census indicate that he was born before 1895 as he is 14 in 1895 and 19 in 1900 that shows he was born Jan. 1881.

Notes for Ephraim S./W. Corning:

Based on the fact that the 1790 census shows only 3 Corning families in Beverly, Essex Co., MA with the profiles as shown below, Ephraim is being attached as a child of Peter Corning. This may change if further proof becomes available but is the best that can be done with the present information.

Peter Corning: 1 male >16; 1 male <16(assumed to be Ephriam); 3 females

Joseph Corning(son of Peter): 1 male >16; 1 male <16; 1 female

Anna Corning: 1 male>16(Jonathan); 4 females.

1840 Census, Jefferson Co., Iowa Territory

Ephraim Corning occupied by 3 males 20<30 This looks like son's of Ephraim Corning and one of the son's must be named Ephraim. This fits with subsequent census info from 1850.

Three houses away is a person with the name of Eli Bell: 1 male <5; 1 male 20<30; 1 female 20<30

From the 1840 census in Kings Co., NY, it is known that Ransford is married and not at home so another son (possibly Ephraim, Jr.) has gone to Iowa and the other two brothers are still in NY but are present in Iowa when that census was done. No dates on any of these early census to prove the time relationship between the NY and Iowa census.

1850 Census, Bloomingdale, Van Buren Co., MI, p238/119B, frame 4/4, taken 20 Aug 1850, age 68, in home of Eli Bell

In summary, Ephraim, Sr. had 4 sons and 5 daughters that lived and are shown in the census. Other may have been born after a census was taken but died prior to the time of the next census.

Notes for Margaret 'Peggy' Cooley:

These may not be the correct parents for Margaret Cooley. The 1810 census shows George Cooley living next to Ephraim Corning but in the 1800 census there is a George Cooling in Springfield, Hampshire, MA and no daughter that would fit for Margaret. However, there is a Samuel Cooling 4 houses away with a daughter age 16<26 and this fits with the age for Margaret. This lineage is being assumed for now until further evidence shows otherwise.(AEK)

Marriage Notes for Ephraim Corning and Sarah ???:

Records show that an Ephraim S. Corning married a Sarah Marie Constable on 5 March 1865. On looking in the 1860 census for a person by the name of Sarah M Constable was found but she was born 1834-1835. Highly unlikely that this is the Sarah who married Ephraim S./W. Corning who was born 1781-1782!!!

The following email was received from Ann Vibert Wuelfing, 7 Nov. 2007:

Thanks for responding so quickly. I research the Vibert, Vibbert, Vibbard (and other variations) family. In the past couple of days, since I wrote to Arnie, I have received some new information about Daniel Corning due to some great newspaper detective work by my Vib research colleague Barbara Baker. First, I want to mention that I suspect that the Mary Vibbert mentioned in the Kilbourn transaction is Elisha Sr.'s widow. I am not sure if or how Samuel Kilbourn is related to the family but he had several transactions with them after Elisha's death in 1798.

Nancy (Vibbert) Howard's husband, Nathaniel died on 16 Feb 1809 and Barbara has discovered that she married Daniel Corning in February, 1814 in NYC. His first wife, Mary (--?--) had died in Hartford in Feb 1811. Daniel and Nancy continued to live in NYC until after the 1820 census then returned to Hartford where he became the first Steward of the Retreat for the Insane (still in operation as the Institute of Living) in 1823. He died in Hartford on 15 Sep 1827.

She also found marriage announcements for three daughters, Nancy, Caroline and Harriet, of Daniel Corning. It looks like at least Nancy was a daughter of Mary but the other two are kind of iffy. Nancy (Vibbert) (Howard) Corning also had a daughter Ann Watson Howard (and two children who died in childhood). I don't have a DOD for Ann so I don't know if she is the same as the Ann you mentioned as a child of Daniel and Nancy Corning. What is your source of information on those three children you mention and for Daniel's DOB and parents' names?

Documents found in the NEHGS(Extracts from the Diary of William Watson) site as sent to me by Ann Vibert Wuelfing on 15 Nov. 2007 shows the following:

Using a perpetual calendar to arrive at the year as 1824 to fit the dates shown in the following entry.

"March 27, Saturday. We went to the Insane Retreat P.M. Mr. Daniel Corning & his Wife have the superintendence of it. Mr. Corning informed me that he had six children by his first wife that were still living and one by his last wife, about 2 years old, who was with them"

The following email was received from Ann Vibert Wuelfing, 7 Nov. 2007:

Oh, forgot to mention - Nancy Vibbert was baptized at First Church, East Hartford on 05 Jan 1777 and married Nathaniel Howard, Jr. on 30 Nov 1800 in Windsor. Nathaniel was born 26 Apr 1777 and died 15 Feb 1809 in St. Lucia, West Indies (he was a sea captain). Nathan Steele⁴ Corning (Bliss³, Nehemiah², Joseph¹, Samuel^A, Samuel^B, John^C Corninge I, Thomas^D Cornynge, Clement^E, Clement^F, ??^G, Br-01^H Corning, (00Root-Corning)^I) was born 20 May 1788 in Norwich, New London Co., Connecticut, and died 1857 in Elyria, Lorain Co., Ohio. He married Clarissa Smith 23 October 1811 in Caanan, Columbia Co, New York, daughter of Daniel Smith and Ruth Peabody. She was born 09 February 1793 in Canaan, Columbia Co., New York (Source: Richard Anson Wheeler, SSCT: History of the Town of Stonington, County of New London, CT from 1649-1900, (Published 1900 by Press of the Daypublishing company), p574.), and died 1874 in Minneapolis, Ottawa Co., Kansas.

The following email was received from Michael Farrell, 31 Oct 2012:

The last time that I wrote to you I mentioned that I was trying to identify the parents of Clarissa Smith, wife of Nathan Steele Corning. I now believe that her parents may have been Daniel Smith and Ruth Peabody, both of Stonington. My reasons for believing this are as follows:

- 1) One of the Corning/Smith children was named Smith Peabody Corning;
- 2) Assuming this somewhat unusual name might be a clue as to Clarissa's parents, I began looking for an appropriate Smith-Peabody match. The only potential match I found was that of Daniel Smith, born in Stonington, Connecticut (7 Oct 1753), son of Joseph Smith and Zipporah Branch and grandson of Daniel Smith and Thankfull Billings, and Ruth Peabody (Pebodie), also born in Stonington (7 Feb 1762) and the daughter of Thomas Peabody and Ruth Babcock. This couple is listed in the book "History of the Town of Stonington, County of New London, Connecticut", which you kindly provided me a link to in the last last email I received from you. Daniel and Ruth married April 19, 1781. The book notes two children born in Stonington, the last born in 1784 (1);
- 3) Assuming that Daniel and Ruth could be the parents of Clarissa Smith, I looked for a record of the passing of either a Daniel Smith or a Ruth Smith in Columbia County, New York. I found a Ruth Smith of the correct age who passed away on May 5, 1820. Apparently her grave marker has the following inscription: "In the 59th year of her age. Consort of Mr. Daniel Smith." (2) and the DAR has a listing for a Daniel Smith b. 7 Oct 1753 in Stonington, Connecticut d. 25 Oct 1843 in Cambria, Niagara, New York, spouse of Ruth Pebodie (3)
- 4) If my assumptions concerning the parentage of Lucinda Smith (mother of Clarissa's husband Nathan Steele Corning) and Clarissa Smith are correct, then the two are related, though not too closely. Daniel Smith and Thankfull Billings would have been Lucinda's grandparents and Clarissa's great-grandparents.

(2) <http://tinyurl.com/Ruth-Smith> (at findagrave.com)

(3) http://services.dar.org/public/dar_research/search_adb/default.cfm

Unfortunately, the DAR site would not let me provide you with a direct link to the page listing for Daniel Smith. I entered his name, spouse's first name (Ruth), birth year (1753), state of birth (Connecticut), and (potential) state of death (New York).

I'm interested in your opinion of the possibility that Daniel Smith and Ruth Peabody may have been Clarissa Smith's parents.

Again thank you for including my email to you on your site. Originally, I had thought that Oliver Smith and Zeruah Bingham might be this Lucinda's parents but I eventually became convinced that their Lucinda had married Col. Jonathan Palmer and died in Philadelphia.

The lineage as indicated above is being assumed correct until proven otherwise.[AEK]

The following email was received from Joan Partington on 22 Aug. 2011:

Judy and I have not been able to find any death records for Daniel either in NYS or ANYWHERE in the U.S. There isn't anything about him - birth, marriage, or death - on line that we can find. We THINK we may have found his wife, Agnes, in a cemetery near Yonkers, but there are only the church's records, and there is no information about her husband or anyone else but her sister, with whom she is buried.

I have been to Yonkers and found his second wife, Johanna, and Daniel's grandson, William B. Corning. There is only one other Corning in the cemetery, and her name is Abbie. We don't know how she is connected. There is another cemetery attached to this one, where George Corning is buried (Daniel's first son), but the records for that cemetery burned, and no one can help us. The only other thing I could do is walk that cemetery to find George, and perhaps Daniel is buried with him, but at 77, and 1-1/2 hours away, I'm not so sure I can get anyone to go with me again.

I will try Yonkers City Hall to see if they have anything. The Genealogical and Historical societies and libraries I contacted cannot find anything either. Every place I contact says they have "nothing".

What we DO have is an 1887-8 Yonkers City Directory with Daniel in it, 1850, 60, 70 80, and 1900 census (in which Johanna says she is a widow), and then Daniel in 1910 in the building that his son had his Pharmacy.

We DO have the newspaper story where Daniel's first son was cut in half on a railroad track in Yonkers in 1879, and we DO have George's "Coroner's Certificate of Burial". We have the NY 1905 Census of Yonkers, in which Daniel is 72 (est. birth 1833), living with Annie (Johanna), his 2nd wife and their family, proving that Johanna was NOT a widow in 1900. We have Johanna's Certificate of Death in NY on August 20, 1910 and a very short newspaper obituary that doesn't name any of her family, and I took a photo of her headstone. We also have a record from New York Marriages 1686-1980 that says Henrietta Corning (Daniel's daughter) married William B. Fink in Manhattan on 02 Sep 1898, and her parent's names were Daniel Corning and Annie Anthony.

From watching where these people went when they were ill, I feel that Daniel COULD have been in a NYC hospital when he died, (I cannot remember if I tried NYC, but I think Judy's professional genealogist did, to no avail).

The censuses all say Daniel was born in NY, but ONE census says his father was born in Ct., his mother in NJ.
