This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Preface

The collection of information about our ancestors and their neighbors is a very important and worthwhile endeavor. As time passes it becomes harder and harder to put all the pieces together into the correct framework. The reason this book of genealogy trees is being published electronically is to allow others to be aided by the data, to add, and correct any errors that may be detected in the information(I am sure there are many). This document will never be finished as more and more information will be found and new data will always be added.

Much of the information in this document has been obtained from the community history books that were published in the early 1980's for the areas of Saskatchewan , Canada. These books are an invaluable source of material on our ancestors and their early lives. After reading this information it quickly became evident that much of the data was missing or to be found in other places in the same book or in adjacent community books. It was for this reason, if the family was related by blood or marriage to my original family tree of the Krause/Andrews line they would be included in the database. Using this criterion, with a mature community where marriages are mainly between person living in the same or adjacent communities, the data on families living in the Mortlach, Eskbank, Parkbeg, Caron, Boharm, Rowletta, Lake Valley, and adjacent areas, has been entered into this database.

A large portion of the data is from my wife's side of the family. Since her lineage is from the Charlotte County area of New Brunswick, Canada, and of United Empire Loyalist stock, this took the lineage back into the New England States. Using the criteria stated above, and the information available from the WFT CDRom disks, data has been brought together from many different trees to make a more complete picture of the early families of the eastern USA.

Many of the families, as part of the original database, were part of larger groups and massive trees of these single names are presently being developed. This has been the case with the Hodgins and Corning trees. More detail on the reason for including this data is given in the Introduction.

I would like to give credit to all of the people, to many to mention in detail, who have sent information to me. Their work and dedication to the advancement of genealogical information is gratefully acknowledged. I claim no copyright to this material. The only copyright is that no person or group shall take this complete document or any portion and use it exclusively for purposes of creating their own book that is for sale for profit. If the book and the information is to be shared free of charge to the public then all that is asked is an acknowledgement as to the source.

I would especially like to thank the many individuals that have worked to bring together the information on the Hodgins and Corning trees. Their names are included in the information at the start of the respective trees.

Remember that the trees in this document are under development and much of the data has not been proven. You use it at your own risk. However, most data, obtained from the WFT CDRom's, has been checked with other entries. If the data agreed then it was used, if there was a discrepancy then a range of dates was used or notes were added to indicate the conflict.

Any errors or additions should be sent to:

Introduction

The description shown below was for the original version of "Forest of Trees", however, several of the chapters have been removed and are now separate eBooks available in this privatized eBook library.

The chapters in this book consist of family trees for the respective families that appear as the second or third generation of the tree. The first entry is a Branch entry if multiple branches are used, or a 00Root-NAME. The 00Root-name method is used when a single name tree is developed and there are several sub-trees with the same surname but the lineage back to the main tree is unknown. Care must be taken when using these trees as the lineage may not be correct. Notes have been added to indicate that a person is being attached temporarily until the proper lineage is determined.

The first trees are from the 00Root-Krause line. The individual branches are from different family groups with the surname of Krause/Kraus/Krauss/Kruse/and other variations of spelling of the surname Krause. These families are not related by blood or marriage to the other individuals in the database. The main purpose of including them is to try and determine their lineage as far back as possible and see if they do connect to a common root. If this helps others to determine their lineage then that is the main purpose for including them in this document.

The next trees are arranged alphabetically and are:

June 20, 1922 - June 13, 2016

Born: June 20, 1922

Death: June 13, 2016

Biography

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Everette on June 13, 2016 at the age of 93. Everette was born on June 20, 1922 in Kincaid, SK and grew up on the family farm near Trossachs, SK. A typical farm boy of the thirties, he worked hard on the farm but learned a love of the land that he carried throughout his life. When the War broke out, he joined the army, then transferred to the airforce. He spent the War years overseas in Holland and Belgium. Everette had many memories, both good and bad, of the War and enjoyed sharing the good memories and stories with his family. After the War ended he left the military and returned to Sask. To become a heavy duty mechanic, attaining his journeyman standing. He worked in Moose Jaw, then Verwood, SK, returning to Moose Jaw to complete his working career. After his retirement, Everette returned to his first love, the land, and farmed until his late 80's. He enjoyed people and belonged to several groups: Army, Navy & Airforce Vets, 601 Wing RCAFA, the Minus One Club, and the Canadian Diabetes Association. He was on the executive in many of these groups throughout the years. Predeceased by his life partners, Rosamond Dann Dykstra and Iva Dupéron; his parents Sidney and Irene Dykstra; brothers Richard and Carl, and sister Ellen. Left behind to miss his smile and his joy for life are his family: daughter Helen (Lloyd) Andrews – High River, AB; and his step-son D'Arcy (Sheila) Dann of Moose Jaw; his pride and joy, his grandchildren: Tracy, Christopher, Kelly, Colleen, Jeremy, and Travis; as well as twelve great-grandchildren. Everette also leaves his step-son, Robert (Mary) Dann and children Rob, Tracy, Karen, and Cheryl; step-daughters Linda Schniekart and children Tammy, Angela, Karissa, and Natasha; Ruth (Cy) Monsees and children Cory, MacKenzie, and Shauna, and their families; his brothers Robert and Harvey, and sister Marian to mourn his loss. A special thank you to the staff of St. Anthony's Wing at Providence Place for their care and compassion during Everette's final months. At Everette's request a private family service will be held. For those so wishing, donations may be made to the Canadian Diabetes Association, 917 Albert Street, Regina, S4R 2P6. In living memory of Everette, a memorial planting will be made by W. J. Jones & Son Funeral Home.

NOTE: Downeast Genealogy shows the place of birth for Eliza M. Black as Lelittle, NB. This looks like an error as the name LeTete sounds something like this. Also the letter "l" should be a "t" and this could be from poor penmanship or a transcription error.

Email from Deborah Nelson, 20 Oct 2009 shows the following:

She is buried on the Fickett/Kennedy lot in Evergreen Cemetery

Cemetery, Tombstone info:

185 1 Pinkham, Eliza A w/o Richard Pinkham; former w/o Thomas Francis; d Dec 19, 1901
age 105yr 11mo 20da

Same source but Death records:

Eliza A. Pinkham 19 Dec 1901 105 11 12 d/o John Black St Andrews NB

Abigail Black St Andrews NB b. 7 Jan 1796 St Andrews NB

NOTE: See the difference in age at death, one shows 20 days, the other 12 days.

Article in Boston Globe indicates her date of birth as 7 Jan 1796 when she would have been 105 years old so her age at death would have been 104 yrs, 11 months, 12 days. This is an error as she would have been 106.

NOTE: This article in the Boston Globe has many errors that only become apparent when one has done an exhaustive search on the life of Eliza Ann (Black)(Francis) Pinkham.  View the Article. The most glaring of these errors is in the last paragraph where it is stated "She was married in 1820 and raised a large family of children all of whom are now dead, excepting the youngest son, Paul, who has been blind for 40 years." Paul was not the son of Eliza but a step-son and according to the 1900 census Eliza had a total of 10 children 5 of whom were still living, one of which was the wife of Paul and she did not die until 1927. Looks like someone got the information for Paul's birth mother mixed up with that of Eliza (Black)(Francis) Pinkham!!

Mrs. Lena Nixon

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Lena Priscilla Nixon 33, widow of George J. Nixon, were saddened to hear of her death which occurred suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Orville Mann, Baillie, last Sunday.

Born at Lynnfield, July 10, 1871, she was the daughter of the late William John and Lucy Davidson and had been a life long resident of Lynnfield and vicinity except for winters which she spent with daughters and sons at Oakfield, Me. for all who had the pleasure of meeting her, she will be greatly missed by old and young alike. Beautiful floral tributes marked the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Nixon was united in marriage to Thomas Brisley in May 1889, of which union, one son Guy Brisley, of Smyrna, Me. survives. Two sons predeceased her, Earl Brisley of Lynnfield and Roy Brisley of Oakfield, Me. Mrs. Brisley was united in marriage the second time to George J. Nixon, July 1903. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. W. Orville Mann, (Katherine) Baillie and Mrs. H.D. Clark, Oakfield, Me., 11 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews; one sister, Mrs. Ben Norris (Sarah) of Grand forks, BC and a brother Edward Davidson, Lynnfield.

The largely attended funeral was held Tuesday at the United Church at Lynnfield conducted by Rev. N. H. Mair, assisted by Malcolm Stairs. Mrs. Fred Lever sang two solos, Sometime We'll Understand and Its Good Night Here and Good Morning Up there.

Pallbearers were Lewis Getchell, Wilmot Mundie, Edwin Trafton, Henry Trafton, Gordon Dinsmore and Gordon Hasty. Interment was in the family lot at Moores Mills.

Notes for Margaret Joyce Marie Johnson:
McARTHUR, Margaret Joyce Marie

Joyce passed away August 24, 2016. She was one of eight children born to Wilbert and Ethel (Cleghorn) Johnson, August 4, 1931, at Lawrence Station, NB.

Her family home remained one of her favourite places to visit, and spending time with her there was always one filled with stories of the people who passed through its doors and lived under its roof. To say it held a piece of her heart is an understatement. She loved to laugh and to have her children with her for all the special occasions of the year. The travel adventures she took with Jocelyn, Alison and Gart were fertile ground for all sorts of tales, tall and otherwise! Gart provided the support she needed as her physical limitations increased, and nothing could brighten up her day more than Richard's appearance at the door. She loved her life, and although it held many challenges, such as the raising of a young family by herself, she was always able to keep her sense of humour.

Joyce was predeceased by her young son James, in 1959, her husband, Alexander Andrew McArthur, in 1965 and her dear companion Frank Wilson in 1987. She is survived by her children Alison McArthur (Gart Bishop) of Apohaqui, Jocelyn Searle (Ron) of Bloomfield, Gart McArthur of Saint John and Richard McArthur of Bloomfield, her beloved granddaughter Halie, two of her siblings, Wilberta Topple of Fredericton and Jean Patterson of Harvey Station, and many nieces and nephews.

The family wishes to express its heartfelt thanks to Joyce's doctors, and the staff and volunteers at Bobby's Hospice. At her request, there will not be visitation or a funeral. Internment at Brockway Cemetery will occur at a later date.

Family came first for Higgins

Published Friday December 5th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - Walter Higgins was a man who was always there for his family. Walter Higgins And that included taking his grandchildren to their hockey games, standing at the side of a racetrack cheering on his family, sitting in so his daughter could have a nap and getting on the floor to play dinky cars with his great-grandson.

"He was the greatest," daughter Judy Fahey said. "Everybody thinks their father is. But he was really kind and gentle and family was really important to him."

On Nov. 30, Walter Harold Higgins, of St. Stephen, died at the age of 75, at the Charlotte County Hospital with his family by his side.

He is survived by his wife, Edna Higgin; his children, Judy Fahey, Douglas Higgins and Danny Higgins; 10 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and his siblings, Joseph Higgins, Steve Higgins and Aldena Morrisy. He was predeceased by siblings Leslie Higgins, Bernard Higgins, Donald Higgins and Richard Higgins, and a grandson Jeffrey Higgins.

Fahey said her dad was a quiet man who was not the centre of attention at family get-togethers or the outspoken voice among the many. But he was always present, listening and supporting his family.

"My mother was the dominant one, she was the enforcer," Fahey said. "Anything I wanted, I went to my father and he always gave it to me. I was the only girl, so I was really spoiled."

Although Walter Higgins was quiet, he was also funny.

Fahey said he was always playing funny little pranks on people, such as when her friends used to come over to their house when she was in high school and her father sometimes filled their purses with rocks so they would be shocked when they picked them up to leave.

Fahey said her father was a mechanic by trade and was always a "Mr. Fix-It."

"He could fix anything," Fahey said. "Anytime I wanted something fixed, I would call him and he would do it. He was always there for all of us. We could call him in the middle of the night and he would come."

Fahey said when her father was in the nursing home, one of the nurses gave him a chair to fix and despite his illness he spent hours fixing that chair until it was as good as new.

In his home he was the housekeeper, cleaning and doing the chores and he was the family gardener, always making sure the lawn was immaculate and there was not a rock to be found.

Douglas Higgins said his dad was a hard worker who put in countless hours every week and did everything he could for the sake of his family.

Douglas Higgins said his father taught him the difference between right and wrong, and to be the kind of man who earns everything he has.

"He taught me what life was about," Douglas Higgins said. "You don't give up, you struggle, and sooner or later you will come out of it."

Fahey said it is her father's caring heart, which wanted to help people and make life better for his family, that she carries in her own heart.

"You always knew he was going to be there. You may not have heard him, but you knew he was there," Fahey said. "He lived mostly for his family and his main goal in life was to make our lives better."

The funeral for Walter Higgins was held on Thursday.

Notes for Joseph 'Joe' Eugene Higgins:
Joseph "Joe" Eugene Higgins
1938-2015

It is with great sadness, the family of Joseph Eugene Higgins, 1938-2015, announce his passing at the Saint John Regional Hospital on March 28, 2015. Born at St. Stephen NB on August 5, 1938 he was a son of the late James and Marion (Richardson) Higgins.

Joe is survived by his wife Mary Evangeline (Legacy), Children Susan Hall (Roswell), Maggie Hanley, Cathy McKinley (Danny), Jim Higgins (Marci), Marilyn Blanchard (Rickey), and Aldena Higgins-Harris (Dennis), Grandchildren Tammy, Patti, Bryan, Aimee, Joel, Joey, and Dawna; Great Grandchildren Dustin, Zack, Tori, Makayla, Sarah, Karma, Brooklynn, and Kain; one Brother Stephen (Carol), and many sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, numerous nieces and nephews. Besides his parents James and Marion (Richardson), Joseph is predeceased by siblings Walter, Aldena, Les, Bernard, Richard, and son-in-law Farren Hanley.

Joe knew from an early age what his career path would be. His love for numbers resulted in him starting his career at the Bank of Nova Scotia and then onto Connors Brother Limited where he spent 38 years as Paymaster. He often said the best part of the job was the people he worked with and meeting the many employees on his visits through the factories. He enjoyed being outside taking long walks through his property, clearing woodland, gardening, or checking on his blueberries. Each year he could hardly wait for the berries, with his son at his side. Even though work took most of his time he would always find time for his family. He was also involved in church activities at Christ Church Pennfield, early on as Sunday school superintendent, a church warden, Treasurer and a choir member. He did a term as a member of a Board of Directors for the Fundy Health Center. During his spare time, he was active in the Pennfield Volunteer Fire Department as one of the original members, a level II fire fighter, a Fire Marshall, and also took on the role of Treasurer. He enjoyed the sport of curling as well and socializing at the Brunswick Curling Club in which he was a lifetime honorary member and the Club Treasurer.

A special thank you to Extra-Mural support from Sheri and the staff on the Palliative Care Unit at the Saint John Regional Hospital. Also, a huge thank you to the many family and friends who visited and showed support in the last six months; all of this support truly meant a lot to the family.

Jeremiah (Jerry)

Brownrigg lived on same side (left) near foot of hill, brother to Nicholas in the next house. Father was Thomas Brownrigg. Their parents owned a house farther back of this place. Three sons of Nicholas— George, Howard and Nicholas Jr. went to Montana to live in the early days of the "wild west". Others in the family were Emma married a Jamieson and lived at Red Beach, Maine: Elizabeth (Bannie) married Solomon Merchant Sr. of Maine, who after a few years residence in Chamcook and Bocabec, bought the Short property in Chamcook and lived there always after. Mrs. Percy Merchant now owns that home: Alice, wife of Harry Wilson, Oak Bay: Amy, Mrs. Walter McFarlane, Milltown, Maine: Albert, always at the home (wife, Annie Storr of St. Stephen) and John, wife Susan Young of Oak Bay, built a home farther up the road. Next to Albert's is a cottage known now as "Spear Cottage", built by John McMullin formerly of Calais: wife, Julia Dawson. John's daughter was May Spear, Wellesley Hills, Mass. Albert Brownrigg's only child, Mildred, first teacher, then nurse, is Mrs. Herbert Haughn, whose husband is a plumber, and lives in Albert's home.

Almost across from Jerry Brownrigg's at shore is a cabin recently built by Leslie Brownrigg of St. Andrews, and following easterly on that siteside is the site of a large house owned by John Dawson, Sr. It was burned, so was the large Taggart house. Some of the Dawson family were Lucinda, Mrs. Woodworth, first of Calais: John of Chicago: Gilbert of Vanceboro, and James of St. Andrews who for some years lived in John McMullin house (Spear cottage). Another daughter, Eliza Ann, married Isaac Hanson, who died young, leaving six young daughters. In after years Mrs. Hanson (Eliza Ann) married Daniel Cameron. Lucinda Dawson (Mrs. Woodworth) in Jamaica Plains, Mass. came with daughter, also son Jack and built a cottage in Bocabec Cove. A few years ago that was sold to Mr. & Mrs. Earl McCullough of Mass. who dismantled the house and built a nice bungalow down by the shore. Next to her on the hill, Chester Brownrigg, son of John B. built a cozy home with a two story cabin nearer to shore to rent to summer people. He died suddenly several years ago and his wife, Margaret Cunningham, is now Mrs. Reginald Clarke. Jack Woodworth became an Army doctor in West Indies and Pacific Coast Stations, retiring in Boston. His wife, a wealthy Curtis of Boston, had bought Hardwood Island, where his only son Fayette lived for some years. Dr. Jack had purchased almost all the property of other Dawson heirs. On the death of the Doctor, his wife gave Hardwood Island, Woodworth Cottage and almost all the property to Fayette. He sold Hardwood Island to John Campbell, the cottage to Mr. & Mrs. Earl McCullough and moved to Ontario. His sister and mother live in Mass. Julia Dawson, another daughter, married John McMullin and lived in the big Dawson house many years, with May, eldest daughter, then moved to Jamaica Plains, Mass. where sister Mrs. Woodworth lived. Misfortune overtook them. One of the younger boys became too venturesome and crossed a railroad track after the gates had been let down and was killed. Then came an epidemic of diptheria, which took all the family but May and Norman, next to her. This included Oliver (Ollie) oldest of family, Wilbert about twelve and two little girls I went to school with. Mr. McMullin, a fine ship carpenter, came out of the illness with a badly disabled arm, but later came back to Bocabec and built the McMullin cottage, now owned by grandson, Roger Spear. Both Mr. & Mrs. McMullin died there. Directly across the road from Chester's is the home his father John Brownrigg built, now owned by one of his sons, Dr. Leslie Brownrigg, St. Stephen, oldest of family. Leslie died in 1967. Wilbert, retired schoolteacher in Woodstock, where he was principal for some time. Hill of the Biological Staff, St. Andrews. Chester--dead. Three daughters, Mrs. Roop (Hazel) Charlottetown, P.E.I. Thelma, Mrs. Joseph Flewelling, St. Stephen. Helen, Hairdresser in St. Stephen.

Notes for Hill Young Brownrigg:

RETIREMENT - Hill Y. Brownrigg April 1969

Hill Y. Brownrigg retired on March 31, after nearly forty years of service, a veteran administrator at the Fisheries Research Board of Canada's Biological Station at St. Andrews.

A native of Bocabec, he is known throughout the province and beyond. He joined the then small staff at the St. Andrews Station in the autumn of 1929. In the early days when a man had to be a "jack of all trades", he had an opportunity to learn them all- mechanic, shipwright, plumber, biological technician, purchasing agent, carpenter and manager. It was this experience he brought to the position of Superintendent of Physical Properties to which he was appointed following the retirement of Captain Elmer Rigby in 1951.

Mr. Brownrigg's service spanned the local careers of five directors; Drs. A.G. Huntsman, the late A. H. Liem, A.W.H. Needler, John L. Hart and the present incumbent John M. Anderson. He relates many amusing tales of the early days when snowshoes or skis were the normal means of winter travel between town and laboratory, and pay days were as unpredictable as the next assignment.

In 1967 he was awarded the Centennial Medal in recognition of the valuable technical support he had provided to the scientific programs conducted at the research centre over the years and a year later he was presented with the Fisheries Research Board of Canada's "Long Service Award".

In the town of St. Andrews, Mr. Brownrigg has been active in many organizations; ten years a member of the Town Council and still active on the Planning Commission; a long time member of the Board of Stewards of Wesley United Church; Past Master of St. Mark's Lodge, No. 5, Free and Accepted Masons; a member of the Board of Management of the Sir James Dunn Arena; past president of the Heather Curling Club and of the Algonquin Golf Club as well as being active in the affairs of the Fire Department.

Asked about his future plans, he says "I expect to keep busy and I hope to find time for a short visit to the British Isles and Europe".

Thelma Gladys (Brownrigg) Flewelling of St. Stephen passed away peacefully at her residence on Friday, April 6, 2018.

Born in Bocabec, NB on September 18, 1917, she was the daughter of the late John and Susan (Young) Brownrigg. She was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Survived by her three daughters: Jane Wood (David) of Amherst, NS; Ann Flewelling of Fredericton, NB; and Joan Flewelling of St. Stephen, NB; two grandsons, Dr. Jeffrey Wood of Columbia, Missouri and Andrew Wood (Kristy DeDuck) of Montreal, Quebec as well as several nieces and nephews.

Thelma was predeceased by her husband, Joseph MacVay Flewelling, and six brothers and sisters.

Thelma worked for several years in her brother, Dr. Leslie Brownrigg's office prior to becoming a stay-at-home mother, a job she cherished.

Over the years, Thelma enjoyed knitting, gardening, bowling, and playing Bridge. As well, she was an avid golfer, retiring from the game in her mid 80's. She was especially pleased with her hole-in-one at the St. Croix Country Club! Thelma regularly baked until she was 96 and was famous in several circles for her pies (making her first at the age of 10) and chocolate chip cookies. She kept her "pickle room" well-stocked with jams, jellies and pickles well into her 90's.

Thelma was very proud of her two grandsons and their achievements. She was extremely grateful for the dedicated care received from her three daughters which allowed her to remain in her home. Family was her number one priority and she was thankful for the countless times full of fun and laughter.

Thelma very much enjoyed the open house last fall to celebrate her 100th birthday.

In keeping with her wishes, there will be no visitation or funeral service; however, the family will receive friends to share memories of Mum for a long life well-lived at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB, on Wednesday, April 11, 2018 between 2:00 and 4:00 pm.

A private graveside service will take place at a later date.

For those who wish, in lieu of flowers, remembrances to the Charlotte County Hospital Auxiliary, the Charlotte County Hospital Foundation or a charity of one's choice would be appreciated by the family. On line condolences may be sent to the family at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

At this time, the family would like to extend a special thank you to Dr. Norman Lister who provided excellent care for many years. Also, although only required for a short time, a heartfelt thank you is extended to the staff of the Extra-Mural Program. Their kindness and compassion will never be forgotten.

Notes for William Carson:

NOTE:: More research needs to be done on the children shown for this family as there were other Carson families in Saint John and there may be errors in the children shown. Notes have been included as much as possible to show what proof was available for those shown. No 1851 census is available for this section of Saint John, NB as that would have helped to show the children in the home in 1851.(AEK)

Notes for Kenneth Colin 'KC' Irving:

Bangor Daily News (ME) - December 14, 1992

Irving dead at 93

K.C. Irving

A spokesman said Irving had recently arrived in Saint John from his Bermuda home for a Christmas visit with family.

He became ill and died Sunday morning at the Saint John Regional Hospital, Ralph Costello said in a statement. There were no other details, although Irving was known to suffer from heart problems.

A memorial service was set for Wednesday.

Kenneth Colin Irving -- K.C. to New Brunswickers -- leaves behind an industrial empire that is one of the largest in Canada and an enigmatic life so private he was often called a recluse.

The Irving Industrial Group is the largest employer in New Brunswick and is the biggest private conglomerate in North America. Estimates of the Irving family's wealth have ranged up to $5.8 billion. Forbes magazine this year listed the family as Canada's second wealthiest -- after Ken Thomson -- with more than $5 billion in assets. The Irvings were also listed as the 18th richest family in the world.

In recent years, Irving gas stations and convenience stores have spread en masse beyond Eastern Canada to Maine and New Hampshire. Irving, one of the largest landowners in Maine, is also a major player in the U.S. trucking industry.

The Irving move into New England has made some Americans nervous -- a reversal of the old foreign-domination scenario.

"You can't beat them," grumbled Dean Brown, manager of a rival Exxon station in Calais. "They've got too much money."

Irving holdings are vast and varied, but the center of the corporate web is Irving Oil Ltd.

K.C. began the oil company as a young man in his home town of Buctouche on New Brunswick's east coast. It grew to include a world-scale refinery in this port city, hundreds of gas stations across Eastern Canada and New England and a fleet of tankers that plies the sea lanes to oil-producing countries around the world.

The Irving empire includes the Saint John Shipyard, lead builder of the patrol frigates for the Canadian Navy; a tug company in Saint John and many other smaller enterprises.

In his final years, Irving stood six feet tall with deep-set grey eyes, a freckled, bald pate and a long, thin nose that gave him a hawklike appearance.

And although taxes and cold weather prompted him to forsake New Brunswick for an estate in Bermuda, he returned to the family compound in Buctouche every summer.

"This was my first home," he said in 1988 when honored by the Buctouche Rotary club. "It was my home all through my growing up years. I now live in Bermuda but my heart is still here, here in New Brunswick, here in Buctouche."

Irving was the Paul Bunyan of the forest industry in New Brunswick.

His company's giant strides in this critical sector of the province's economy led the Irving family into ownership of two pulp mills and several sawmills. The family owns about a quarter of New Brunswick's timberlands.

Irving's other holdings include all the English-language daily newspapers in New Brunswick; radio and television stations; a bus line; major truck lines and Cavendish Farms, a rapidly growing food processing business.

Throughout the development of his enormous empire, K.C. Irving remained alone at the helm.

He was determined to retain his independence and, to this end, he permitted no public stock offerings in any of his companies. That was the way he liked to run things: in control and in secret.

Although he subscribed to the idea of picking the best man for the job and giving him his head, the Irving empire remained a family enterprise.

Notes for Cyrus Hill Acheson:

Obituary - Cyrus Acheson

Word has been received here of the death of Cyrus Hill Acheson at his home in Transvaal, South Africa.

Mr. Acheson was a native of Elmsville, having been born there October 1, 1872, a son of John Harris and Jane (Hill) Acheson. He received his early education in St. Andrews, and later attended Normal school at Fredericton and University of New Brunswick, where he completed the four-year course in two years. He taught for a brief period in Moncton and other centres in New Brunswick, and at the close of the Boer War was selected to accompany FR Mullen, principal of the Normal School at that time, to South Africa where they reorganized the system of education and patterned it after the Canadian School system. Mr. Acheson was recognized throughout his life as a brilliant scholar and noted educationist. He remained in South Africa until retired a few years ago at which time he came to Canada and spent some time in St. Stephen, later going to Toronto and Calgary, returning to his home in Transvaal about two years ago.

He was married in 1893[8] to Miss Martha Herbison of Bocabec. His death occurred on July 7, 1949, their 51st anniversary. His widow survives, with three sons, Kenneth and Wilfred in the Transvaal, and Harold in South America. A fourth son died in infancy. The late Harry Acheson of Elmsville whose death occurred two years ago, was a brother.

Besides her parents, Brenda was predeceased by her stepfather: Charles N. Gillespie; one brother: David Gillespie.

Brenda was a selfless soul who took great pleasure in taking care of others. She enjoyed being a stay at home mom until her daughters were old enough and then she took on a career in mostly the retail sector, including with Eaton's and Sears when the family lived in Ontario. While in Ontario, Brenda kept active in her community. She often attended her daughters baseball games and was always keeping busy with some sort of activity. She enjoyed traveling with Reece and they took many winter vacations to Florida. Upon returning to New Brunswick to help care for her family, Brenda enjoyed cooking, tending her garden and keeping her family in line. She always put family first and was a hard worker up until the end. A true matriarch, her love, guidance and friendship will be truly missed by her family.

Resting at the St. George Funeral Home (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB on Wednesday from 6-9 pm. The service will be held from the Funeral Home Chapel on Thursday at 2:00 pm with Rev. Notes for Hugh Chisholm:

The following is a reference to the earliest settler with the name of Chisholm in St. James Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. Name is John Chisholm:

"In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell."

This is from the following article shown on the St. James webpage:

OAK HILL

Oak Hill was given this name because of a large oak tree on the top of Buchanan Hill now called Grimmer's Mountain.

The early settlers came from England, Scotland, Ireland and the United States. Most of them farmed or lumbered. Others were blacksmiths, tailors, shoemakers, school teachers, post masters, mail drivers and Justices of the Peace.

Through the years, some of the jobs held by the people living on Oak Hill have included: a surveyor, doctors, nurses, bookkeepers, a cabinet minister, veterinarian, transport drivers, a forest ranger, welders and machinists.

In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell.

The first industry was cutting ton timber or English deal which was 40 feet long and 12 inches square. This was large pine logs roughly hewn. It was shipped to England.

The first post office was at James Buchanan's. Mail was carried once a week from St.Stephen. William McCann was Post Master for more than forty years in his home. The last post office was at Frank Cook's. Mail was brought from Moore's Mills three times a week.

Through the years, Oak Hill has had the Herb Fraser Blacksmith Shop, the Allen Parker Store, the Arthur Armstrong store which was later owned by Gaston Rideout, Philip Haley and Arden Johnston and the Theo Sabine store. The community also had the Walter McGaw Gas Station, Philip Haley Sawmill, Harry Christie Dairy Farm, now owned by his son Fred Christie. Fred Russell Dairy Farm later owned by his son Melvin Russell: Steven and Jeffrey Smith Welding and Machine Shop and Ron and Donnie Cook Ski-Doo Snowmobile Shop.

There is a dam on Green Brown Brook built by Duck's Unlimited. This is on land once owned by Edward Russell and now owned by Layton Russell. Ski slopes have been cleared and a lift put in place. This is on land once owned by Samuel Parker and Peter McGaw.

(Editors Note: The ski hill has now been replaced by a church organization which holds summer camps among other events).

9. ?³ Chisholm (Br-04², (00Root-Chisholm)¹) died Unknown.

- + 13 i. Henry⁴ Chisholm, died Unknown.

Generation No. 4

10. Hugh⁴ Chisholm (?³, Br-01², (00Root-Chisholm)¹) was born Abt. 1740 in Scotland, and died Bef. 1812 in Salmon Falls, Schoodic(St. Stephen), Charlotte Co., NB. He married ? ????. She died Unknown.

Notes for Hugh Chisholm:

Information on Hugh Chisholm is found on  Caren

Secords webpages.  Three items are: [NOTE: the text of the article was transcribed by Caren from the Newspapers as indicated: Saint Croix Courier, St. Stephen, NB, 16 Nov. 1893]

1) "Hugh Chisholm was a native of the Highlands of Scotland. He was drowned while fishing at the Salmon falls, some time later than 1790."

2) "Garden lot No. 54, (running westward from the public landing and including the land on which the post office and the Queen hotel now stand,) had been granted to Capt. Marks; but several of the refugees, Alexander McBean, William Grant, Thomas Mitchell, Neal McBean, William Kennedy, William McLellan, Evan McPherson, Hugh Chisholm, Noah Brown, Daniel Campbell and Thomas Grimmer, seem to have remained upon it or to have occupied it in some way; for Capt. Marks, by his attorney Joseph Garnett, brought suit of ejection against them in 1786. "

3) "At the time of the regrant in 1812, Capt. Marks, Alex. McDonald, Hugh Chisholm, John Robinson and Josiah Fowler were dead; and lands were granted to their heirs."

4) "Allan Kennedy is also said to have been drowned at the Salmon falls."

Item #4 may possibly be husband of one of the daughters of Hugh Chisholm as both William Kennedy & Peter Kennedy had lots adjacent to Hugh Chisholm. The lots were Hugh Chisholm, lot# 40; William Kennedy, lot#41; Peter Kennedy, lot#42. Since these lots were issued in 1812 after Hugh Chisholm, Sr. was dead then they must have been for his descendants. More research is required on this.

Possible information on the Chisholm line that was in Charlotte Co., NB can be found in the document that is a petition to the  Honourable Sir John Johnson, Lieutenant-Colonel Commander

Notes for John Chisholm, Sr.:

NOTE: John could possibly had more than one wife as one researcher shows the name of Hugh Chisholm (1800-1880) with a wife of Jane Veasie/Veasey(1805-1885) as the parents of John Franklin Chisholm, Sr.(1831-1920). Some of this info seems to fit but no sources are shown and nobody by the name of Jane Chisholm is found in any of the census as John/Hugh Chisholm is a widower in the 1851 and subsequent census. This line is shown as Chisholm, Br-02 to keep the info on the line.

Index to Land Grant Petitions: Original Series. 1783-1918

Microfilm F4191

Names on petition(1821) are: John Chisholm, James Grimmer, Thomas Grimmer, Denis Post, and James Post

The following is a reference to the earliest settler with the name of Chisholm in St. James Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. Name is John Chisholm:

"In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell."

This is from the following article shown on the St. James webpage:

OAK HILL

Oak Hill was given this name because of a large oak tree on the top of Buchanan Hill now called Grimmer's Mountain.

The early settlers came from England, Scotland, Ireland and the United States. Most of them farmed or lumbered. Others were blacksmiths, tailors, shoemakers, school teachers, post masters, mail drivers and Justices of the Peace.

Through the years, some of the jobs held by the people living on Oak Hill have included: a surveyor, doctors, nurses, bookkeepers, a cabinet minister, veterinarian, transport drivers, a forest ranger, welders and machinists.

In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell.

The first industry was cutting ton timber or English deal which was 40 feet long and 12 inches square. This was large pine logs roughly hewn. It was shipped to England.

The first post office was at James Buchanan's. Mail was carried once a week from St.Stephen. William McCann was Post Master for more than forty years in his home. The last post office was at Frank Cook's. Mail was brought from Moore's Mills three times a week.

Through the years, Oak Hill has had the Herb Fraser Blacksmith Shop, the Allen Parker Store, the Arthur Armstrong store which was later owned by Gaston Rideout, Philip Haley and Arden Johnston and the Theo Sabine store. The community also had the Walter McGaw Gas Station, Philip Haley Sawmill, Harry Christie Dairy Farm, now owned by his son Fred Christie. Fred Russell Dairy Farm later owned by his son Melvin Russell: Steven and Jeffrey Smith Welding and Machine Shop and Ron and Donnie Cook Ski-Doo Snowmobile Shop.

There is a dam on Green Brown Brook built by Duck's Unlimited. This is on land once owned by Edward Russell and now owned by Layton Russell. Ski slopes have been cleared and a lift put in place. This is on land once owned by Samuel Parker and Peter McGaw.

(Editors Note: The ski hill has now been replaced by a church organization which holds summer camps among other events).

Notes for Leland Watson McGaw:

Leland Watson McGaw

July 27, 1927 - March 26, 2017

Leland Watson McGaw

We are sad to announce the passing of Leland Watson McGaw, peacefully in his sleep at Windsor Court, Fredericton, his home of the last two years, on March 26, 2017.

Born in Oak Hill, N.B. on July 27, 1927, he was the only son of Walter and Margaret (McMorran) McGaw. He was predeceased by his wife of 66 years, Eileen. He is survived by his son Richard McGaw (Gail Storr); grandsons Ryan (Tamarisk) and Peter; step-grandchildren Peter Storr (MJ) and Karen Storr (Benoit); great-grandson Ryker; and step-great-grandsons Nicolas, Phillippe and Felix.

Leland spent his early years working in the woods, running a lumber camp while still a teenager. In the 1950s he was a heavy equipment operator and in the 1960s he was co-owner of a clothing store in St. Stephen. In 1967 he was elected as one of four MLAs for Charlotte County, and was subsequently was reelected to Charlotte West, serving 20 years in the Legislature. While in the Legislature, he served as Deputy Speaker, Minister of Tourism and Chair of the N.B. Power. He was devoted to his constituents, whether they voted for him or not. He found employment for many, and interceded with government when people had problems that he could fix. It was difficult to have an evening meal without a phone call or someone showing up in the driveway looking for help, and he always gave it. It is fair to say that he left politics with his respect and integrity intact, and continued to help when he could even out of office. Through everything, and right to the end, his sense of humour never left him.

Leland loved his family and was as devoted to it as he was to politics, never letting one take over the other. After politics, he returned to his love of the woods. He loved to hunt and fish. In 1989, with help from a friend, he cut the wood and built his camp "Esoonac" where he spent many happy hours with Eileen, often entertaining large numbers of family and friends. He also started a Christmas tree farm, working it into his 80s. For many years, he brought the Grade 5 children from McAdam Elementary for a day of orientation in Christmas tree production and a meal at Esoonac.

The family extends appreciation to the staff of Windsor Court, who provided care and compassion during his time there. He became one of their family.

Funeral service will be held from The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Ltd. 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Thursday March 30, 2017 at 3:30PM. with Archdeacon John Matheson officiating. Family will receive friends at the funeral home on Thursday from 12 Noon until time of service.

For those who wish in lieu of flowers, remembrances to the charity of ones choice would be appreciated by the family. On-line condolences for the family may be sent to www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

I have just received copies of 2 land petitions that include John Clendinin.

One in 1821, Where it states Andrew Clindinin was born in NH, has a wife and 10 children and that he is 53 years old...(makes him born c 1768 in NH) and he has lived in St David 35 (since 1786) years. This would make him Capt Andrew Clendenin ? 10 Children by 1821.. There must be more we haven't discovered.....!

"John Clendinin, born in St David, lived there his entire life. is married and has two children". Has bought property and has never received land from the Crown.. (John married to Catherine Hannah had two children by this date..!.)

The second petition... Apr 19 1825 John Clindinnin, of St David is married with five children, and 33 years old (thus born c 1792) and never received property from the Crown.. In 1817 (John's marriage year Jul 31, 1817) he purchased land from James Brown in St David..., who had purchased it from Robert Hitchings, who purchased it from one of the persons allotted ... Which is now part of the reserve # 2 and contains about 2 hundred acres,

He has been unable to obtain a grant of vacant Crown land in the vicinity of his family who were all settled on said reserve.....

By 1825 John Clendenin (married to Catherine Hannah b. 1799,) had 5 children...! It still fits.....!!!

Notes for Ann Thompson:

Parents of Ann Thompson are unknown. Might possibly be the John Thompson shown here. This connection is based on the fact that William and Alexander Thompson were both named as bondsmen in the Will of Andrew Clendennen, h/o Ann (Thompson) Clindennen. Very poor proof(AEK)

Note: Reuben Smith is shown as the father of James. This information is based on the families in the Cape Ann Association, one of which was Reuben Smith and his wife and 8 children that arrived in 1785. Info received from Nancy Smith, 20 July 2010

The following was received from Nancy Smith, 25 Jul 2010: Note: some of the info is fact and some may be speculation!!

James Smith mar. Mary/Polly Clininden in June 1794. There are 6 children in the baptismal registers of Kirk McColl from 1794-1812. Mary/Polly was about 40 years old by 1812. Some gaps between children recorded but unless later children were baptized elsewhere, am assuming this is essentially the extent of his surviving offspring. Sons were John 1794, Jane Vance 1797, Moses 1799, Polly 1804, Anne 1809, & James Orine Smith 1812. James resided in the Moores Mill area near the St. James/St David parish line. In Jan 1815 James sold land on Humphrey Ridge St. David to his son John. In 1825 John was married and had 2 children and applying for land at Herring Island.

CONFLICTING EVIDENCE::

The following email was received on 25 July 2011, from Cindy Johnstone:

Just returned from a trip to Canada for vacation. (Anything to get out of the incredible heat down here in Texas!) I went to the New Brunswick archives and have news on Reuben Smith. He is not the father of James Smith Sr. This I know for sure from a land record for James. Reuben was part of the Cape Anne Association. James Smith's land that he worked with his father was part of the Penobscot Association. James Smith's father bought the land from a Colin Campbell that had quite a bit of land. The bad news is that this must have been a gentleman's agreement deal because no record can be found for it. James refers to it when he goes to claim the property later in the 1820s. He also claimed to work the land with his father. We know that Reuben left Charlotte Co for York Co. There is a Joseph Smith that was part of the Penobscot Association, so that is a possibility for James Smith's father. Don't have a name still. Frustrating! But it is not Reuben.

Reuben Smith did have a son named Reuben Smith Jr. that did stay in Charlotte Co. I have a land deed that Reuben Jr. names Boston as his place of birth. That refers to New Boston as I have a collection of info that the Cape Ann Association were settlers from New Boston, New Hampshire. So yes Nancy, I am quite sure Reuben Sr. is the Reuben from New Boston.

Arnie, I'm quite interested in David Clenendin. I need to prove that Mary/Polly was the daughter of David and Jane Clenendin. Do you have any proof of this relation? I have a copy of David's will and of course he does not name many of his children. Mary/Polly was most probably born in Londonderry, NH since David signed an oath to the United States at the beginning of the Revolutionary War. Since Mary was probably born around 1772 ish then he would have still been living in Londonderry at that time. I could not find a record of his moving to New Boston but in a book written about the Cape Ann Association. I could find no record of David and Jane Clenendin's children in Londonderry, NH when I was at the New England Genealogy Society in Boston. Can you help me here?

Conflicting Evidences RESOLVED!!

Nancy and Arnie,

Please disregard my earlier statements about Reuben Smith not being the father of James Smith Sr. of St David, NB. I found the smoking gun in all my documents I'm still trying to sort. I found the land record that Reuben Smith bought land from Colin Campbell in 1788. This document was hidden in the info I copied for Reuben Smith Jr. This coupled with the document I have for James Smith saying his father bought the land from Colin Campbell in 1788 clinches the deal. I can say with certainty by these two land records put together that Reuben Smith is the father of James Smith Sr. Yay! Both land documents put the land being originally in the Penobscot Association. Why the archivist and I could not find this document the second day is beyond me. I had actually copied it the first day!!!!

Nancy, I never would have gone down this avenue without your guidance. Thank you so much! Now I'll have to work on the Clenendin line!

d. St. David parish (Charlotte Co.) 31st, John CLENDENIN froze to death.

I have just received copies of 2 land petitions that include John Clendinin.

One in 1821, Where it states Andrew Clindinin was born in NH, has a wife and 10 children and that he is 53 years old...(makes him born c 1768 in NH) and he has lived in St David 35 (since 1786) years. This would make him Capt Andrew Clendenin ? 10 Children by 1821.. There must be more we haven't discovered.....!

"John Clendinin, born in St David, lived there his entire life. is married and has two children". Has bought property and has never received land from the Crown.. (John married to Catherine Hannah had two children by this date..!.)

The second petition... Apr 19 1825 John Clindinnin, of St David is married with five children, and 33 years old (thus born c 1792) and never received property from the Crown.. In 1817 (John's marriage year Jul 31, 1817) he purchased land from James Brown in St David..., who had purchased it from Robert Hitchings, who purchased it from one of the persons allotted ... Which is now part of the reserve # 2 and contains about 2 hundred acres,
He has been unable to obtain a grant of vacant Crown land in the vicinity of his family who were all settled on said reserve.....
By 1825 John Clendenin (married to Catherine Hannah b. 1799,) had 5 children...! It still fits.....!!!

The Clindinins lived in St. David on the Clindinin Ridge, as it was then called. The ridge is made up of lands in the Reserve lying west of the lots in the Penobscot grant fronting on the westerly shore of Oak Bay. Here was the homestead. There were four sons, John CLINDININ, Andrew CLINDININ, William CLINDININ and Alexander CLINDININ. (I do not remember the father's name) and two daughters. One married ELLIOTT and the other her cousin, David V. CLINDININ. Andrew, William and Alexander lived on the Riage, married, and to them were born sisters and daughters. On the road from Moores Mills to Oak Bay, passing the Cook distract, tends generally in a southerly direction to the McKnight farm. Here it bends southeasterly for some half a mile, then again resumed the southerly direction. Here on the northern side of the road lived John CLINDININ sixty years ago. Next along the lot adjoining resided Patrick MURPHY; still further, some two or three lots intervening, was, and is to this day the James SMITH homestead. Here also, was a parting of the ways, one southerly, continuing to Oak Bay, the other southerly over the Clindinin Ridge to the road from St. Stephen to Oak Bay. John Clindinin married a Miss HANNAH from the Ledge and to them were born seven children: Matthew CLINDININ, Maria CLINDININ, Mary Ann CLINDININ, Andrew CLINDININ, Robert CLINDININ, Bathalina CLINDININ and Alexander CLINDININ. John Clindinin had a quarrel with a neighbor and the danger real or fancied so impressed him that he always carried a pistol. One short winter day he went to St. Stephen, then almost entirely called 'Schoodiac' on business and it was far spent before he was ready to take the road for home. Then he missed his pistol - he had probably left it at home. He dared not go back by the usually travelled road - that from St. Stephen to Oak Bay partly, thence by Clindinin Ridge - he might meet his enemy or be waylaid, so he took another more circuitous road to Tourtlotte's, thence by the road as now travelled to the residence of Wm G. Maxwell, then owned by John Burns and afterwards by John McAdam. Here he stopped and had some talk with Johnnie. A very wild and severe snow storm having begun and the dusk of evening day fast approachig, Johnnie tried to persuade him to stop till morning, not to attempt the dangers of the storm and the way. But he made light of these conditions and went on into the blinding storm and approaching darkness. From Burns the road continued north through fields and pasture lands, some third of a mile and through a young growth of soft and hard woods with ever present alder swamps at every brook crossing, on the westerly side of the Dana stream, about 2 1/2 miles to the crossing of the stream on an old cordoroy bridge opposite the side hill road from the then John Hitchings farm, afterwards Abram H. Marks and passing the Billie Allen log house, that being then and now the only home on the whole way of between three and four miles. The next day Clindin had not reached home. Search was organized. He was traced to Burns and was eventually found within sight of the house, three or four rods from the road, lying beside a large fallen hemlock, the place being lng pointed out afterwards. Bewildered in the storm and darkness, he probably wandered round and round till far into the night, for he was of healthy, strong and vigorous constitution and long held in the battle for life, but here he lay cold in death. Of the family of John Clindinin, Matthew CLINDININ followed the sea. He was in the West India trade out of St. Stephen as first mate. He resided at the Ledge and had a high character as a capable and able seaman. Another followed the sea, sailing as skipper in the coasting trade out of Calais. With the other sons I was not acquainted after their boyhood. Maria and Bathalina married two men, brothers of the name of ALBEE in Machias, Me. and resided there and Mary Ann married John MILBERRY of Old Ridge, St. James. - John E. MOORE, Lewiston, Me., May 1896

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in all phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Number Four School, 1844, shows Sarah J. Atwood, age 13. This webpage is at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nbstdavi/mid1840sschools.html> Schools, St. David Parish. This same school has two children, Susan Doore age 18, and Sarah A. Doore age 9. Based on the maiden name of the wife of William B. Atwood of Calais, NE whose name was Mary Regan, it sure looks like Sarah Jane might have been staying with her Aunt and Uncle Stephen and Jane Door(e) in St. David Parish. The following is a segment of an email received from Cindy <historycindy@comcast.net> on 31 Oct. 2006: The first time I see my Sarah Atwood in St David records is in 1840. She is 10 years old and attending St David #4 school. I see her name there for age 10-age 14. So my Sarah was there for sure by 1840

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - A single rose lay in the last seat in the last pew of the Milltown Baptist Church on Sunday, marking the seat Carmen Virginia Godsoe occupied every Sunday.

Carmen Virginia Godsoe Godsoe, of St. Stephen, died at the Saint John Regional Hospital last Thursday after a short battle with cancer.

"I didn't want anyone to sit there on Sunday, where she hadn't had her funeral, so I bought her a rose and sat it where she usually sits," said Beverley Dempsey. "We still sat in the pew, but her seat was still there for her."

Dempsey used to see Godsoe, who was very shy, sitting with another elderly woman in the back of the church and decided to start sitting between them to keep them company.

Even though Dempsey prefers to sit in the front of the church, she sat next to Godsoe every Sunday after that. She said Godsoe saved her a seat every Sunday, whether she was there or not.

Dempsey said her close friend welcomed her into her family, never said a bad word about anyone and made everyone near her feel like a good person.

"As much as she loved her family, God was her most important thing," said Dempsey.

"The pastor would tease her about who would be the first to church because she was there waiting, no matter how early they got there."

Godsoe is survived by her husband, Bud Godsoe; one son, Frank Godsoe, and three daughters, Debbie Gullison-Lord, Iona Densmore, and Penny Ann Smith.

Gullison-Lord said her mother's faith was the most important thing in her life and every day she would take the phone off the hook, stop everything she was doing, and read the Bible and pray.

"I know she's in heaven," said Gullison-Lord. "She wasn't afraid to die. She always said, 'I know where I'm going. Do you know where you are going?'"

Gullison-Lord said she thinks her mother's beliefs comforted her.

Densmore said her mother was a faithful woman: faithful to God, faithful to her husband and faithful to her children.

Although she was a small woman in height and weight, Dempsey said she could see that Godsoe was the glue that held her family together. She said she took every opportunity to talk about her family and to pray for them.

"She gave everything to us and never kept anything for herself," said Gullison-Lord.

"She was my best friend. I never even looked at her as a mom.

"I called her for everything, I called her every day. You could confide in her for everything; she would never repeat anything."

Densmore said even though her mother, who worked as a cleaning woman at the Charlotte County Hospital, didn't have much money, she would spend what she had on her loved ones just to see a smile on their faces.

"She didn't want for much, all she needed was God," said Densmore. "She gave me a love that no one else could ever give. She had a heart of gold."

Gullison-Lord said her parents were married for more than 50 years. Every day, she said, her mother and father went for a drive from 1 to 3 p.m. just to enjoy the ride and look at the countryside. Godsoe's funeral was held Monday.

The following email segment was received from Joy Fife, on 17 Dec. 2006:

Well, I don't have proof yet and may never have. However, the Daughters of the American Revolution have an expression that they use when you can't find proof and that is the "preponderance of evidence." We know she was born in St. Patricks, NB. We know she was born in 1823. We know her father was born in Scotland and her mother was born in Maine. Since there are no other Cockburns, but John and Mary who fit that description living in St. Patricks, I would call that "preponderance of evidence." Mary also named her one and only daughter Mary. I also read on the St. Patricks website some remembrances of an old timer (can't remember the name just now) and she mentioned that a John Cockburn moved to Minneapolis and became a doctor. Well, a Dr. John C. Cockburn, attended Nancy's husband, Daniel Smith, and signed his death certificate in Minneapolis in 1880. However at the time he was living in another town about 40 miles southeast of Minneapolis. He must have been a relative since he had to travel so far to attend a patient in horse and buggy days. That doesn't really prove anything except that they were both from St. Patricks. But I find it interesting.

So based on the above "preponderance of evidence" I thought I would research John Cockburn's ancestry. Getting back to his birthplace of Ayroline--there is a county of Ayr. I think it is also called also Ayrshire. However I can't find Ayroline anywhere. I will check the Scottish Records in the LDS Family History Center tomorrow and let you know. It may be just an area within another town. Unfortunately the name of John Cockburn is so common that it may be hard to distinguish one from the other. Do you have any idea what documentation the name Ayroline came from or where his birth year was obtained. The notes for a Nancy Cockburn who married Daniel Smith are reproduced here as she appears to fit the profile for a daughter of John Cockburn & Mary Lindsay!!!

Notes for Robert Manning Coe II:

There is some confusion as to who the parents of Robert Manning Coe are. One group has him as shown in the following report segment:

Descendants of Robert Coe

Robert Coe (RobertA, John WoodbineB) was born Bet. 1844 - 1845 in Lynn, Norfolk Co., England.

The second group shows him as the son of Jemima Coe who was a housekeeper for Robert Manning. This Robert Coe(carried his mothers maiden name as she never married Robert Manning). This Robert was born in Massingham, Norfolk Co., England. This matches his census record data as shown below. The other factor that points to his father as being a Manning is that his middle name is also Manning as several of his siblings have this middle name as well.

Notes for Henry A. M. Coulter:

The following note appears for William Coulter and the Henry shown here is not the Henry shown in the tax records.

St. David Parish Tax records for 1823 show the names of Henry and William Coulter present in the area. William was the only one who paid 2 shillings of tax. By 1844 only the name of William Coulter appears indicating that Henry has either moved away or died. It is being assumed that Henry is the husband of Mary Ann in the 1851 census and not the Henry who was the teacher in the 1851 census.

10. Matthew⁴ Coulter (?-01³, Br-01², (00Root-Coulter)¹) died Bef. 1844. He married Mary 'Ann' ??? Bef. 1829 in Ireland. She was born Bet. 1797 - 1798 in Ireland, and died 25 February 1878 in Tower Hill, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: "The Saint Croix Courier," 7 Mar. 1878.).

Notes for Matthew Coulter:

St. David Parish Tax records for 1823 show the names of Henry and William Coulter present in the area. William was the only one who paid 2 shillings of tax. By 1844 only the name of William Coulter appears indicating that Henry has either moved away or died. It is being assumed that Henry is the husband of Mary Ann in the 1851 census and not the Henry who was the teacher in the 1851 census. However, this is complicated by the fact that the husband of Ann is Matthew according to the baptism records of their son William Henry Coulter. Full name of Matthew might possibly include Henry and he went by that name according to the tax records. More research required to clarify this. A Will for either a Matthew or Henry Coulter who died before 1851 should clarify this.

He married Eleanor Ann Randall 1819 in Charlotte Co., NB (Source: "CCMR:Charlotte County Marriage Registers, Charlotte Co., NB," p42.). She was born Bet. 1799 - 1800 in NB, and died 18 December 1879.

Notes for Dr. William Coulter:

St. David Parish Tax records for 1823 show the names of Henry and William Coulter present in the area. William was the only one who paid 2 shillings of tax. By 1844 only the name of William Coulter appears indicating that Henry has either moved away or died. It is being assumed that Henry is the husband of Mary Ann in the 1851 census and not the Henry who was the teacher in the 1851 census.

The following email was received from Nancy Perry on 11 Oct. 2008:

I don't have anything on Patrick's family except I discovered today a sister I believe.I noticed on Patrick and Harriet's marriage record that a Sarah Dogerty stood up for them or Harriet as she was baptized.that day .

Also a Henry Corry.Well in my records I have Henry Corry marrying Sarah Dogerty on 14 June,1828 both of(St John) city.They married before Patrick and Harriet and Patrick is one of their witiness.

Looked at their marriage record and it states she is the daughter of Patrick Dogerty and Jane Meehan (they had Meehan spelled Mighan) from Co Donegal,Ireland.

Sarah used her maiden name at Patrick's wedding.

Children of Patrick Doherty and Jane Meehan are:

St. Andrews (Charlotte Co.) April 11 - Patrick DOHERTY, whose death occurred 6th inst. at the residence of his son-in-law, John LOUGHRAN, at the age of 88 years, having entered the 89th last St. Patrick's day, was a native of County Donegal, Ireland from where he emigrated to St. John in 1821. For three years after his arrival there he was employed as mail carrier between that city and Sussex, performing the service on horseback, as the road in those days was a mere bridle track through the forest. Subsequently he was employed as man servant to Rev. Father McMAHON and in the same position by Rev. Father CARROLL, both long deceased. In 1826 he married Harriet Jane HOUSTON, who, in the following year, came with him to St. Andrews. He rented a farm in Chamcook, parish of St. Andrews, which he afterwards bought and on which he resided and cultivated. He had a family of three sons and five daughters, all of whom survive him. His wife died in 1883. Two years ago he retired and boarded with his daughter. He was a man of fine physique, retaining all his faculties to the last. He was in every respect a good citizen, respected by a large circle of friends and neighbors.

Civil War Service of Pvt. James B. Walker,

Belmont, Maine

4th Maine & 38th New York Regiments

On a Sunday afternoon in the late fall, soon after moving to Central Pennsylvania, I found myself driving through Gettysburg National Military Park. That particular day had seen the season's first dusting of snow and I immediately fell in love with the tranquil beauty of the park. That first impression, coupled with my lifelong interest in history was the beginning of my avid interest in this segment of American history.

Having grown up living adjacent to Bowdoin College[Brunswick, Maine], it was quite natural that I put an emphasis on the 20th Maine and Col. Joshua Chamberlain. This interest grew deeper as our children grew and we all spent numerous weekends exploring the typical haunts of Devil's Den, Little Round Top, etc

This interest took an unusual turn a few years ago. Soon after the passing of my brother and mother, I was updating the family bible and noticed a paper that I had seen many times but obviously had never read with interest. It was a copy of the discharge papers for a Pvt. James B. Walker from the 4th Maine. As I started research it became apparent that James Walker was my father's grandfather.

I then started to research James Walker through the National Archives and various historical societies in Maine and Canada. As a result I was able to tract Pvt. James B. Walker's three-year service.

At the age of 23, he enlisted in Captain Cunningham's, Company "A", 4th Maine Volunteers on April 26, 1861, and left Rockland, Maine on June 20 1861. They camped on Meridian Hill for the Defenses of Washington, until July 16, 1861. He advanced on Manassas, Va., July 16-21. Battle of Bull Run July 21. Duty in the Defenses of Washington, D.C., until transferred to the 38th New York on September 23, 1861. Duty in the Defenses of Washington, D.C., until March 1862. Advance on Manassas, Va., March 10-15, 1862. Ordered to the Peninsula, Va., March 17. Peninsula Campaign April to August. Siege of Yorktown April 5-May 4. Battle of Williamsburg May 5. Battle of Seven Pines or Fair Oaks May 31-June 1. Seven days before Richmond June 25-July 1. Battles of Oak Grove near Seven Pines June 25. White Oak Swamp and Glendale June 30. Malvern Hill July 1. At Harrison's Landing until August 16. Movement to Fortress Monroe, thence to Centreville August 16-26. Pope's Campaign in Northern Virginia August 27-September 2. Battles of Groveton August 29; Bull Run August 30; Chantilly September 1. Duty in the Defenses of Washington, D.C., until October. Movement to Falmouth, Va., October and November. Battle of Fredericksburg, Va., December 12-15. "Mud March" January

20-24, 1863. At Falmouth until April. Chancellorsville Campaign April 27-May 6. Battle of Chancellorsville May 1-5. Transferred back to the 4th Maine on June 4, 1863. Gettysburg (Pa.) Campaign June 13-July 24. Battle of Gettysburg July 1-3. Pursuit of Lee July 5-23. Wapping Heights, Va., July 23. Bristoe Campaign October 9-22. Advance to line of the Rappahannock November 7-8. Kelly's Ford November 7. Mine Run Campaign November 26-December 2. Payne's Farm November 27. Demonstration on the Rapidan February 6-7, 1864. Campaign from the Rapidan to the James River May 3-June 15. Battles of the Wilderness May 5-7. Wounded during the Battle of the Wilderness on June 5 1864(among the casualties was Andrew Walker, also of Belmont Maine) Laurel Hill May 8. Spotsylvania May 8-12. Po River May 10. Spotsylvania C. H. May 12-21. "Bloody Angle," Assault on the Salient, May 12. Harris Farm, Fredericksburg Road, May 19. North Anna River May 23-26. On line of the Pamunkey May 26-28. Totopotomoy May 28-31. Cold Harbor June 1-12. Before Petersburg June 15. Ordered to the rear June 15. Mustered out July 19, 1864, expiration of term. \par \par During the Civil War the 4th Maine regiment had 14 Officers and 156 Enlisted men killed and mortally wounded, and 2 Officers and 135 Enlisted men died from disease, for a total 307 of casualties. While the 38th New York regiment had 3 Officers and 72 Enlisted men killed and mortally wounded and 3 Officers and 39 Enlisted men lost to disease for a total 117 casualties

This has far from answered my questions. It has only produced more, such as:

Where was James B. Walker born?

Who were his parents?

Where did they come from?

Who was Andrew Walker? Brother? It was common for relatives to enlist together.

Was James related to Col. Elijah Walker, the commander of the 4th Maine?

I will be continuing the research as time permits, and hope to spend some time in the historical archives in both Maine and New Brunswick to get additional answers (or questions).

If anyone has any recommendations for paths to follow I would appreciate your input.

So when you see a member of Park Watch sitting in Devil's Den at the 4th Maine monument staring into space have a little respect. I am not asleep I am in deep thought.

Notes for Cecelia Sarah Sweeney:

Obit:

Cecilia Sarah (Sweeney) Purcell

A kind and gentle woman, a happy spirit, and a Christian in the truest sense of the word. This was Cecilia Sarah Sweeney Purcell, widow of George Andrew Purcell, who died on July 2, 1999 at the Charlotte County Hospital, two weeks after undergoing a triple bypass heart operation at the Saint John Regional Hospital.

Cecilia was born in Milltown, on March 31, 1918, the daughter of Harry Sweeney and Gertrude Eagan, and was buried on July 5, 1999 from St. Stephen's Church, Milltown where she was baptized 81 years ago. Cecilia was the last of her immediate family, being predeceased by six sisters and five brothers. She is survived by her two daughters, Judy Reitano, wife of Guy, of Billerica, Mass., and Patty Horne of Milltown Heights. Also surviving are five grandchildren, Ryan and Jennifer Reitano and Chris, Katie and Julie Horne. Celia had great faith. She went to church often and she wore out a lot of rosary beads praying for everyone. She was a great believer in the power of prayer. With her sisters, Theresa and Bertha, she supported their widowed brother, Joe and brought up his three small motherless children, Joseph Jr., Paul and Nancy. All her life she did good works and was a great comfort, support and joy to many.

Cecil devoted herself to her family, her parish and her community. She was a lifelong member of the Catholic Women's League, taking an active part, in that organization. She nursed her husband, George, during a long illness and as a widow of four years was an inspiration of great faith in God and of courage and determination.

The excerpt from the Book of Proverbs can be applied to Cecilia: "When one finds a valiant wife her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, trusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. Her children rise up and praise her."

Father Peter Bagley celebrated her funeral Mass at the Parish Church of St. Stephen, Milltown, on Monday, July 5, 1999. Her nephew, Joseph Sweeney and her niece Ruth Eagan, did the two readings and another nephew, Paul Sweeney gave the eulogy. His praise was for Celia's devotion to duty and her love of family. At the Mass, Carol Ann Turner was the soloist and sang several of Celia's favorite hymns.

The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and relatives from California, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maine, Nova Scotia, Ontario and parts of New Brunswick. The Catholic Women's League formed an Honor Guard and pallbearers were James Sweeney, Halifax, Joey Sweeney, Saint John, Frank Murray, Wilmot Station, NS., Guy Reitano, Billerica, Mass., and Gerald McCrossin and Paul Donahue, neighbors and friends from Milltown.

A reception to celebrate Celia's life was held at the home of her daughter, Patty Horne, at 33 Riverside Drive, after the interment. The numerous friends and relatives present at the funeral and celebration attested to the love and respect for Celia, the beauty of her life and her valued contribution to the community.

Speed believed factor in snowmobile fatality

Published Tuesday February 10th, 2009

FLUME RIDGE - The RCMP believes that excessive speed after dark caused a fatal snowmobile accident in Charlotte County Saturday night.

Searchers found the body of David Morrow, 48, on the groomed snowmobile trail near Flume Ridge Sunday morning.

The search began after Morrow did not return to his home in St. David's Ridge following an all-day snowmobile expedition on Saturday.

Morrow's 1,000-cubic-centimetre Yamaha machine "left the trail and struck some trees," the RCMP said in a news release.

He left from his home Saturday morning, taking the groomed snowmobile trail to McAdam, a popular one-day run in southwest New Brunswick.

Morrow normally travelled with his brother Doug and friend Stephen McGibbon - but not on this day.

"His brother's machine was broken and I was working that day," McGibbon said Monday. So, he set out alone, meeting with others along the way. He ate in McAdam, then started home. "We know there were some people that saw him at 8:30," said Cpl. Bob MacKnight of the St.

Stephen RCMP.

He did not arrive home as expected Saturday night, so Morrow's wife called his brother early on Sunday, and he called McGibbon.

They found his body about 30 kilometres from home, and only five or six kilometres from a camp belonging to the Morrows, close to the groomed trail.

"We were hoping that's where he was going to be " at the camp out of gas," McGibbon said. Instead, their worst fears came true. The RCMP responded to the emergency call at 9 or 10 a.m. Sunday, MacKnight said.

The autopsy on Monday indicated no signs of foul play, and alcohol did not play a significant role in the crash, he said.

For experienced traffic investigators, the evidence showed all too clearly what happened.

"As far as we know, the significant contributing factor was speed," MacKnight said - that and the dangerous practice of "driving beyond your headlights" after dark.

He could not say if Morrow died instantly. "The impact would have been significant."

It was the second snowmobile fatality in New Brunswick this year. Travis Tower, 41, of Germantown died when his snowmobile struck a moose on a groomed trail in Albert County on Jan. 31.

Ross Antworth in Woodstock, general manager of the New Brunswick Federation of Snowmobile Clubs, declined to comment specifically on this accident without knowing more details.

However, he said the organization's safety program stresses speed, alcohol and riding off groomed trails as factors in accidents. The federation frowns on riding alone.

In an average year two or three people die in snowmobiling accidents in New Brunswick, a number that organized snowmobile clubs want to reduce, Antworth said.

More than 7,000 kilometres of groomed snowmobile trails criss-cross New Brunswick.

The federation sold about 10,000 trail passes last winter, but the final figures for this season will not become available until April.

Funeral arrangements for Morrow are pending.

Walter Flynn, a native of Pennsylvania, and a sergeant in one of the disbanded Loyalist corps, received a grant of the land now occupied by his grandson of the same name. After coming to Digdeguash he married Anne Brown, a niece of the wife of Esquire Curry. Ten children were born to them, one of whom, also named Walter Flynn, was the father of the present owner of the place. He was drowned by the upsetting of a boat in St. Andrews Bay. Sergt. Flynn died at about ninety years of age, and his wife when nearly one hundred. They were buried on their own farm.

One of the soldiers to whom was granted land on Deer Island (Charlotte Co.) was Patrick FLINN whose wife died in 1844 from the effects of a fall at the great age of 100 years. She was present, a girl of 15 years of age, in sight of the battle of the Plains of Abraham and saw the funeral obsequies of Wolf and Montcalm. Her father was one of the dauntless few that scaled the heights from Wolf's cove and fought the sternly contested battle that wrested Canada from the French masters.

NOTE:: The date of death of 1844 appears to be in error as Mary is still alive in 1849 according to the following documents.  Old Soldiers Widows document from 1849.

The Battle of the Plains of Abraham, 13 Sept 1759, would make the date of birth of Mary, if she was 15 yrs old at that time, 1743-1744. Looks like someone was doing some calculations based on limited information and that is where all the incorrect dates are coming from!!!! The 100 years seems to be correct as she is 98 yrs old in 1849 so if she died at age 100 and is not shown in the 1851 census then she died 1851 and not 1844!!!!

The mother of Patrick BROWN, Summerside, P.E.I., lives with him and will on Christmas Day have reached the age of 99 years. She was born at a place called Digdeguash on St. Andrew's Bay, N.B., her father being a U.E. Loyalist who fought on the British side of the American war of Independence and who afterwards was given a grant of land on St. Andrew's Bay. Mrs. Brown is in the best of health and to all appearance will live a number of years yet. - Summerside 'Pioneer'

Notes for Nicholas Brown:

"I have received Land Petition copies from PANB regarding Nicholas Brown (1787-1852) who married Pheobe Flynn. Nicholas states in his memorials that he is a native of Ireland, that he first came to the Island of Newfoundland in 1813, then to New Brunswick in 1815. He did live in Lincoln, Sunbury Co. but obtained Lot 30 in Gagetown Parish, Queens Co. east of "Old Nerepis Road". He settled there sometime after 1820 and received the improved land as a grant in 1831."

The following information was found on a database at Ancestry. Since there are no sources, it is difficult to determine where the original data for baptisms came from but is being shown here to substantiate the family unit that appears to be obtained from baptism records probably at Lincoln, York Co., or Oromocto Sunbury Co., NB[AEK]

Notes for John Brown:

The following email segment was received from Heather Brenneman, 6 Feb 2013:

One thing that I need to mention is that the son of Nicholas Brown and Pheobe Flynn named John Brown may be a fiction. He may have been part of a story fabricated by Elizabeth Josephine "Brown". There are no records of a John Brown married to a Mary Curtis. Elizabeth Josephine "Brown" claimed to be a niece of William Seward Brown and to have been raised by him. Elizabeth claimed this while negotiating to become David Harrison Russell's second wife by mail order. He did become her third husband. There are no indications of her being William's niece in records. However, there is an Elizabeth "McCully" (sic) (McAuley) who was a servant in the household of William Seward at the time of the 1881 Census. The McAuley's lived near Newcastle where William Brown was living at the time and had a youngest child named Elizabeth. Elizabeth McAuley's parents were John Angus McAuley and Mary Curtis! Elizabeth Russell's death certificate in Arizona shows her father as Angus McColley (sic) from New Brunswick. This is a bizarre tale but one that descendants of Elizabeth Josephine (McAuley, Johnson, Boyle) Russell and I have been sorting out in the past month!

So I wouldn't spend time looking for John Brown as a sibling of Nicholas James, Mary Ann, Patrick, Philip, Sarah or William Seward. I added John to my tree to see if it would help reveal the family of William. I guessed at the dates of birth and death based on Elizabeth's tale which is part of the written history of Montana where David Harrison Russell was a well-known pioneer and rancher.

Marriage Notes for William Brown and Elizabeth Parks:

The following email was received from Heather Brenneman, 6 Feb 2013:

You have that William Seward Brown "married Elizabeth Parks before 1866". Elizabeth Parks was never married to William S. Brown. She had three (not 4!) children (Samuel, Alexander and Elizabeth Jane ("Jennie")) out of wedlock before she married George Stevenson in 1873 and had 3 more children (Martha, Bessie and Nancy) by him. Check the entry for William Parks family in Willis Hamilton's Old North Esk. I found some corrections for Willis's information which he has acknowledged and is including in a new revised edition. The corrections are on my tree, I believe. Please note a footnote for William S. Brown family in "Old North Esk" which documents that William was a well-known philanderer with several children born out of wedlock during his marriage to Mary Jane Vye. He lived across the road from the Parks family in Red Bank.

My grandmother, Elizabeth Jane "Jennie" Parks (1869-1935) named W. S. Brown as her father on her marriage certificate which I have on my tree. Best not to add to the misinformation out there.

NOTE:: There is no marriage shown between William Seward Brown and Elizabeth Jane Parks, they were just friends. What and how Ancestry.com can put together this misinformation is beyone me.

Marriage Notes for Martha Flinn and Joshua Thomas:

The maiden name of Martha A. is shown as Flinn. This may not be correct but all information points in this direction as Joshua Thomas was in the home of Joshua Flinn in the 1851 census and Joshua Flinn's daughter, Martha A is in the same home. This connection is being assumed until proven otherwise. (AEK). NOTE: Proof found with the death of Cogswell and Thomas boys who were cousins.

There are only 5 different persons by the name of Martha in the 1851 census for St. Patrick Parish and only one of these is a Martha A. Flinn and that is the main reason for assuming that this is the one that Joshua married.

Proof that Martha A. is a Flynn/Flinn is found at the following link. <a target="_blank"

Walter Flynn, a native of Pennsylvania, and a sergeant in one of the disbanded Loyalist corps, received a grant of the land now occupied by his grandson of the same name. After coming to Digdeguash he married Anne Brown, a niece of the wife of Esquire Curry. Ten children were born to them, one of whom, also named Walter Flynn, was the father of the present owner of the place. He was drowned by the upsetting of a boat in St. Andrews Bay. Sergt. Flynn died at about ninety years of age, and his wife when nearly one hundred. They were buried on their own farm.

The above facts relating to Sergt. Flynn are given chiefly on the authority of the late Mrs. Brown, of Summerside, P.E.I., his last surviving daughter, who was born on the 25th of December, 1792, and reached the age of one hundred years on last Christmas day.(2) Mrs. Brown remembered as neighbours the McIlroys, Fishers, Stewarts and Campbells; and could recollect the building of the mills afterwards known as the Allanshaw & McMaster mills.

Joel Bonney left the house referred to above; but, after living for a time on Grand Manan, took up a new place at the mouth of the Digdeguash. Maj. McDonald has left the following report on the settlement of this tract:-

McIlroy and Stewart Settled on the tract in 1788 and say they applied with Moses Sprage for 100 acres each that they expected a front of 40 Rods on the Shore, and with a mariner's compas set the courses of their side lines at N.E. & by N. that they lived and improved in a kind of partnership together on the Shore, but since Stewart's marriage that they separated Houses, and occupied the land nearly as laid down in this plan. Sprague settled on the tract in 1789, made some improvements as on the plan, and left in 1796. Joel Boney Senior Settled on the Head in 1790 which he cleared all up and then moved back in the rear of the other Settlers on the County Road in 1796 where he now resides. John Jameson Settled on the tract in 1793 at a little Marsh on the Shore in opposition to Stewart & McIlroy who had fenced in the marsh, and conveyed his claim to Joel Boney Junr. when he left it in 1797. Joel Boney Junr. has since been Settled on the tract till this year (1804) when he went to the United States.

(1)Article liii.

(2) They are corroborated by Capt. Joshua Thomas and his wife, of Calais, who are descendants of Sergt. Flynn. We are indebted to Mrs. Thomas for the story of the raid as given above.

Mrs. Brown departed this life on the 6th of May last, at the residence of her son, Mr. Patrick Brown, in Summerside.

Drowning at Calais, Maine, Saturday afternoon. Two were sons of Capt. Dudley COGSWELL, age 11 and 13 years respectively and the other was the son of Capt. Joshua THOMAS, age 13. .. Removing their clothes, Arthur COGSWELL, the elder of the Cogswell brothers and Hassam THOMAS, his cousin, waded towards the gully and stepped in, were instantly plunged over their heads and not being able to swim called for help. The younger boy, Judson COGSWELL rushed in to their assistance and he too was drawn beyond his depth by the other boys and all three were drowned. Obituary - Lt. Russell Ganong

News of the death in Italy of Lt. Russell Ganong was received on Tuesday morning by his wife, Mrs. Mary Ganong, in a message from official sources which stated only that he had died of wounds on March 18 1944.

Other information indicated that he had only recently rejoined his unit, the Carleton & York Regiment after enjoying a rest period away from the front. The special leave was granted Lt. Ganong and members of a patrol of which he was the leader as a reward for their good work last month in capturing the first prisoners taken on the Tollo sector of the Canadian Corps front. Their rest period would have concluded on March 14, and it would therefore appear that Lt. Ganong was wounded within a very few days after returning to the front.

The elder son of Major General and Mrs. Hardy nelson Ganong, Lt. Ganong was born in St. Stephen in 1920. He enlisted in the R.C.A.F. on the outbreak of war in 1929 and proceeded overseas, where he transferred to the Army and served for some time in the ranks. Recommended for a commission he returned to Canada and trained at Brockville and Camp utopia, returning to duty overseas, just too late to get in on the invasion of Sicily last July. Later, however, he was sent to the Mediterranean zone as a reinforcement officer with the Carleton & York Regiment.

In Italy he had seen considerable action. The work of the patrol which he led in capturing prisoners resulted in a special message of commendation to the Canadian troops and on Christmas Day he was one of the fortunate officers in a group which was severely shot up by German aircraft. On that occasion a small group of officers was bombed and machine gunned; one was killed, another, Lt. Lorne Groom of St. Stephen was wounded in the back, legs and one arm and close to the hip. Lt. Ganong was slightly injured when he fell over a root while taking cover.

Besides his wife, who at one time of her marriage, was section officer Mary MacKenzie, R.C.A.F., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. MacKenzie of St. Stephen, he is survived by an infant son, hardy, jr. born since his father's return to overseas duty; his parents., now in Prince George, BC; a sister, Miss Constance Ganong, a student at Acadia University; a brother Billy, also in Prince George and his grandmother, Mrs. E.M. Ganong, St. Stephen.

Marriage - MacKenzie - Ganong

The Presbyterian Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Sherbrooke Street, Montreal, was the scene of a wedding of interest to friends in New Brunswick at 11 a.m. Friday September 11, 1942, when Mary Helena MacKenzie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robert MacKenzie of St. Stephen, became the bride of Cadet

The bride was attended by Miss Constance Margaret Ganong, sister of the groom, and F.F. Moar, of the Officers Training Centre at Brockville, was the groomsman. The ushers were James MacKenzie, brother of the bride, and James Clark, her brother-in-law.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing the uniform of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) to which she is attached at Moncton, with the rank of corporal. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in the blue Room of the Windsor Hotel. The following in addition to the bridal couple were present: Mr. and Mrs. AR. MacKenzie, Mrs. Hardy N. Ganong, Miss Constance Ganong and Mrs. Melville Deacon, all of St. Stephen; Dean C.J. MacKenzie, President of the Research Council of Canada and Mrs. MacKenzie, Ottawa; PO and Mrs. William Erly, St. John's Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Montreal, the latter a sister of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. James MacKenzie of Montreal, the former a brother of the bride. Later Cadet and Mrs. Ganong left for Brockville.

The groom recently returned from overseas, where he spent two years and is at present taking an officers course at Brockville. The bride prior to her enlistment in the R.C.A.F. was a member of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada in St. Stephen. Following their honeymoon the bride and groom will return to their respective duties.
