A copy of a letter from John Harvey Sederquest to his daughter dated 29 Jan. 1887 was received from Diana Ledger . This letter states the following: "You wrote you would like to know about your ancestry. I can give it to you. Your Great Grandfather Sederquest was a native of Sweden, as Sederquest is a Swedish name, and your Great Grandmother was a native of Scotland. Her name was Cunningham. " With this new information, both wives are shown with the same children with each wife until the correct marriage dates can be found and the proper lineage determined.(AEK)

The following are segments of an email received from Diana Ledger on 7 Apr. 2005:

" James and William were the sons of John Sederquist the "Loyalist" married to widow Anne Henderson Harvey. He was born in Stockholm Sweden 1754. I never shared this file with anyone as I wanted to give credit to my friend, Ruby Cusack who does a column in St. John and is a genealogy buff. She is the one who gave me all the information from Canada. Ann Henderson Harvey's husband was a Loyalist from PA and died fighting. She along with many others left for Canada about 1783. She either met in NS or knew John during the war. A great grandson, George Washington Sederquist wrote a book which, I bought about his memories of his grandfather's tales of the past. From her column a query was posted and I heard from other family members, Fowler, and Davidson.

..... If you post the information I do hope that you will give credit to Ruby Cusack who went out of her way to find so much, even the family bible dated 1825!

Regards,
Diana Ledger"

Marriage Notes for James Sederquest and Mary Wiggins:

The surname of Mary is shown by some to be Wiggins and others to be Underhill. Maybe one is a married name and the other is the maiden name. On further searching, it appears that the Underhill one is incorrect as it is from a record in the LDS IGI and is for Ontario.

The following is from Diana Ledger's database:

"Diana,

I was looking for information I knew I had some place on the Sederquest family. The name Albert rang a bell. Looking through my notes, I found the following, taken from the 26 May 1911 edition of the Kings County Record published in Sussex, NB:

On Monday, May 22nd, John H Sederquest, one of the oldest and best known residents of Clover Hill passed away, aged 87 years. Mr. Sederquest was a well known farmer and is survived by his wife and a large family of adult children. The sons are James, Wakefield, Mass.; Albert, Greenwood, Mass.; Cassius, Clover Hill; Ernest, Maine; and four daughters, Mrs. Henry Chatterton, Greenwood, Mass.; Mrs. Hattie Auburn, Bartlett, N.H; Mrs Arthur James, Quincy, Mass.; and Mrs. John A Odell, Sussex. The funeral took place on Wednesday and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Allton officiated. Interment was in the family plot on the Sederquest homestead. This John H Sederquest (often going by his middle name, Harvey) went back to the US either just before or during the Civil War and fought in that war. A memorial will soon be erected on the cemetery location by a Civil War group. Albert's nephew, Lewis Sederquest, still resides in Sussex, NB He is in his 90's now.
Credit to Christopher Greer

The Memorial was held October 23, 2004 on the old Sederquist farm with many attending including Lewis Sederquist grandson. My son, Michael and I flew to NB and stayed with a family member. The nicest people one would want to meet. Ruby Cusack, Mable Dixon also attended. Terry Middleton was the official in charge. Many pictures were taken and fonder memories of what we left behind.

Note received from Diana Ledger states the following:

My father told us that his brother Richard Lester was his half brother and the son of Stephen Augustus Willey. I found that Horace Trask was in Maine 1920 but on the census is listed in the household in Wakefield Ma. Another researcher went to look at the tax rolls and found that Stephen was in the house with Bernice. My sister was given pictures dated 1915 and in the picture is Bernice and Stephen with my father and his sister Virginia Lee Trask. Horace died in Augusta, Maine at the home of his mother 1924.

Notes for James Howard Ross:
James Howard Ross
January 13, 1934 - January 03, 2019

It is with heavy hearts that the family of James Howard Ross wishes to share that this loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend left us on Thursday, January 3, 2019. He is remembered by his loving wife of 61 years Shirley, his one daughter Carol (Guy) and five sons Eugene (Barb), Jeff (Joan), Bruce (Karen), Wayne (Shari), Jimmy (Paula), and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Born in St. Andrews, NB., son of the late Forest and Evangeline (French) Ross.

Jim's priority was his family. He worked hard to provide for them but was always ready for a family gathering and good times. He was a mentor and helper to his children, grandchildren and others. He was kind-hearted and always willing to lend a helping hand to all. You would often find him building something in his woodshop, volunteering his time helping others or sitting by the bonfire. He gave his family the gift of his time and attention and will be forever loved and missed by them.

Funeral service will be held at All Saints Anglican Church, King St. St. Andrews, NB on Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 2 PM. The family will receive friends at the church on Wednesday from 12-2 PM. A reception will follow in the church hall.

For those who wish, donations in Jim's memory may be made to Charlotte County Cancer Society or a charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be sent to the family on line at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Jim's family would like to thank the staff at the Charlotte County Hospital for his care.

HISTORY OF THE VANSTONE FAMILY

The following is the history of the Thomas Vanstone family and the Charles Vanstone family as I believe it was, based upon various pieces of information gathered from many different sources.

At this point of the research it appears as if Thomas Vanstone, born in Devonshire (the specific town to be discovered) England, in 1800, and died in Newcastle, N.B. Canada on January 3, 1880. His wife's name was Elizabeth (found in the Charles Vanstone Family bible), and she was born in Devonshire, England in 1791, and died in Newcastle, N.B. on February 27, 1859. It appears as if this Thomas Vanstone later married a Mrs. W.B. Weldon on May 19, 1873. (Information from Mr. Carl Landry of the St. Michael's Museum Association shows the 1881 census with Thomas and Elizabeth McLean Vanstone still together. Also Mary McLean Vanstone and Margaret Campbell Vanstone wee born to Thomas and Elizabeth after 1873. Therefore the marriage of Mrs.

Weldon could not have been to Tomas Jr.)

The record shows that Thomas Vanstone Sr. and his wife Elizabeth (?) arrived in the New Brunswick area about 1831. Since Thomas Jr. was born in 1830 this would support the data which shows him to have been born in England.

It also appears as if Thomas Sr. is the "Uncle Tom" referred to in the family picture album. The records from St. Michael's Museum Association show the Charles Vanstone family (or Charles by himself) entered the New Brunswick area in 1836. Since he was born on October 10, 1825 he was only 10 or 11 years old at that time. There is a belief that Thomas Sr. (Uncle Tom) either brought Charles or had him brought over to New Brunswick from England. (The record shows him to have been in Yorkshire, Eng.) Prudence Perkin Searle was one five years old at the time (1836).

Since there are various Searles in the family album it might be assumed that Prudence Perkin Searle was brought to New Brunswick by one of them. (Prudence was the eldest daughter of Michael Searle of the Parish of Chatham.)

From this information a logical assumption would be that Thomas Vanstone Jr. (born in Devonshire) would be a cousin to Charles (born in Yorkshire), and both entered New Brunswick five years apart.

This appears to be the beginning of the history of the Vanstone family on New Brunswick, Canada. The task now is to verify this information, and to further trace the Vanstones, the Searles, and possibly the Perkin family back in Devonshire and Yorkshire, England. A check of the marriage record of Charles and Prudence Perkin Searle Vanstone show the names of his parents and it might also show the names of Prudence's parents. Also Prudence's birth record might be obtained from her birthplace of Chathampton, Devon, England. The date was August 11, 1831.

Notes for Marion Louise Carey:

Marion Louise Vanstone

May 18, 1926 - June 14, 2018

It is with great sadness the family of Marion Louise (Carey) Vanstone announce her death at the Charlotte County Hospital on June 14, 2018, at the age of 92.

Marion was born in McAdam, NB, May 18, 1926, third daughter of Frank and Emily Carey. She was valedictorian of the 1943 McAdam High School graduation class. In 1944 she graduated from Normal School in Fredericton with Highest Professional Standing in her class. She taught in Beaver Harbour, Campobello Island and finally St. Stephen in 1945 teaching English. It was in St. Stephen where she met Harry Vanstone. Marion and Harry were married by Father Ward in McAdam in 1950 at St. Clement's Roman Catholic Church.

Six children were born from 1953 and Marion became a stay at home mom. David Joseph, first born in 1953, died that same year. David was followed by Mary Patricia Vanstone (John Roby), Carolyn Joan McNamara (Bryan), Monica Claire Lyons (Wade), Janice Elizabeth Rice (Kirk) and Harry Peter Vanstone.

Marion returned to teaching when Peter was in high school. While teaching she became interested in working towards her Bachelor of Education and was encouraged to do so by Harry, graduating at 58 from the University of New Brunswick in 1984. She and Harry both retired in 1989 and started their world travels. Marion and Harry enjoyed many trips and cruises, exploring Europe, China, Africa, Russia, Central and South America, as well as many points in North America.

Through the years Marion kept busy as a member and President of Holy Rosary CWL, member and president of the Atlantic Chapter of I. O. D. E., Board of School Trustees, and Board of Home Support.

Marion enjoyed watching and supporting her children through the years and loved to see her family grow. Her grandchildren David, Charlie, Mike, Rachel, Ed, Mark, Pat, Ethan and Oliver all have such fond memories of their Gram. Marion also leaves behind one great grandchild, Aria.

Marion is also survived by her special cousin, Roberta Paquin, Rhode Island. Marion and Roberta spent many summers together in McAdam and Rhode Island as young ladies.

Marion is predeceased by her parents, Frank and Emily (Cote), sisters Florence and Evelyn, brother Francis, and infant son David.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Pinder, the staff of Charlotte County Hospital Floor 1, the Extramural nurses and Home Support Service "girls" for their care and kindness. As well, we appreciate the support of our many neighbors and friends.

Funeral Mass will be celebrated at the Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Union St., St. Stephen, NB on Saturday, June 16, 2018 at 11 AM. There will be no visitation held.

For those who wish, remembrances to the St. Stephen Food Bank, Home Support or a charity of one's choice would be appreciated. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Sarah Croote Watters died January 25, 1853. She is buried in the Baring Cemetery, Baring, Washington Co., Me. Information taken from headstone lying flat at the far rear center of the cemetery. I removed several inches of grass that had grown over the stone. It had been barely visible with just a small corner of one end raised above the grass. I cleaned it off as best I could and have taken a photo dated October 2008.

CONFLICTING EVIDENCE:

The parentage of William John Watters, II, is very confusing. According to Tim Montgomery the death certificate of William states that his father is Andrew Watters, brother of William Watters, I, who was married to Elizabeth Ann Young. This is entirely possible but is in conflict with the information found from marriage documents, and census. In no case was William Watters, I, who married Elizabeth Ann Young ever found present in the home with his wife and family.

1) The 1861 census shows Elizabeth Waters as the head of the family with a young son, Frederick, age 9 months, and a sister-in-law, Mary. The presence of Mary listed as sister-in-law makes the connection of the husband of Elizabeth to the children of Daniel Watters and his wife Agnes. The son, William John Waters, II, is not present in the home and is not shown anywhere in the census for Charlotte Co., NB. Since the 1861 census for St. David Parish is not available then it is likely that young William is at one of his relatives in St. David Parish where they were found in the 1851 and 1871 census.

2) The 1871 census shows William Waters in the home of his mother Elizabeth who is the wife of Chester Stevens, her second husband.

JULY 3, 1941

DIED :

MABEY - At Fairfield, Me., July 1, Gordon D. Mabey, formerly of St. Stephen, aged 24 years.

Obituary - Gordon Dean Mabey

The Howard Mabey family for many years' residents of the Bay Road, St. Stephen, and latterly citizens of Calais and Vermont, U.S.A. lost under pathetic circumstances their youngest son, who had barely reached his 24th year. As a babe he was named Gordon Dean in honor of a visit which is certain titled lady. Lady Gordon nee Dean, paid his mother when she was a patient in the Chipman Memorial Hospital.

As the lad grew he manifested every promise of a worthy career, in as much as during his teens he availed himself of the scholastic equipments proffered by the excellent schools in Calais. He became a graduate of the Academy there and at one-stepped into the battle of life. It was then that he manifested signs of that dread scourge, tubercular infection. At one he sought remedial measures and was transferred to the Fairfield Sanatorium and during two years derived some benefit from several major pulmonary operations. Eventually an auxiliary operation was ordered and on the advice of a sister, Berla, then a first class nurse in New York Hospital he submitted to the ordeal only at the last to pass along on July 1st, though under her vigilant care for three months.

His remains were brought to St. Stephen, accompanied by his sister, as his mother had died six years previous and after some tedious delays the body rested in the Lockary house, Prince William Street, where two of his married sisters are living. A church service was conducted on July 4 by the family's former pastor before a good congregation of acquaintances with whom the Mabey family had regularly worshipped. He was assisted by Mrs. Frank Blackall as organist and by Philip McGarrigle of Calais, who fervently sang as solos "Face to Face" and "Nearer My God to Thee".

Mindful of the strain through which the mourners had already passed, he preached on the mystery of angel existence, whose aloofness faintly compared with the services of trained nurses and gentle woman kind, without whose presence death beds would miss a lot of consolation.

Interment took place in the Mabey lot in Oak Bay, beside the remains of the lad's mother. Besides his father Howard Mabey, surviving are five sisters, Miss Berla, NY, Mrs. John Miller, Belmont, Mrs. Edward Wainwright, Nfld., Mrs. Webber Burns and Mrs. James Fitzmaurice both of St. Stephen, and two brothers, Kenneth of Salem, Mass., and Cornelius of Conn. Owing to the nature of the work in which he is engaged in connections with United States defence projects, deceased's father was unable to leave his position as foreman in order to attend the funeral.

Obituary - Minard Gillmore

Minard Gillmore, 27 year old resident of the Bay Road, died in hospital here early last Friday morning of a fractured skull sustained when he fell down the stairs of the building on Water Street occupied by J.M. Fraser, optician, the preceding afternoon. Corporal Sturgeon of the Mounted Police and Marshall Hill collaborated with Dr. H.S. Everett, coroner, in an investigation of the circumstances, as the result of which it was decided the death was purely accidental and no inquest was held.

Heber Fitzsimmons, also of the Bay Road, was Gillmore's companion and was interrogated by police after the accident. He told them that he and Gillmore went up to Mr. Fraser's office to get a calendar and on their way out he reached the head of the stairs first and told Gillmore to wait there while he went down first to open the door. He had just opened it, he said, when he heard the sound of someone falling and turning around saw Gillmore lying at the foot of the stairs. He went back to him and asked. "What's the matter, did you fall downstairs?" and receiving no reply he went into Barlow's barbershop to send for help.

It was some time before a doctor could be reached, but Dr. E.V. Sullivan was eventually contacted and on arriving made a precursory examination which convinced him the injured man had a severe fracture at the base of the skull. He was lying on his left side, his head toward the door and only a few inches away from a hot water radiator. There was a pool of blood under the head and some blood still oozing from the left ear. On Dr. Sullivan's instructions the injured man was immediately taken to hospital in Mehan's ambulance. He died there about 3 a.m., Friday. The accident occurred between 5:30 and 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

A later examination of the body disclosed no external wounds beyond a slight depression in the skull back of the right ear. The skin was not broken at any point. From their investigation the police concluded that he had fallen downstairs accidentally and struck his head on the floor at the bottom. He did not regain consciousness.

The dead man had made his home at Bay Road with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Gillmore. Of the immediate family he is survived by four brothers, Frank, Arthur, Edward and Leo. The funeral service was held at the Church of the Holy Rosary. Father Whelley officiating.

A/B Burton Rolls Missing After "Athabaskan" Lost

St. Stephen Man May Be Among 85 Off Tribal Class Destroyer Claimed By Germans As Prisoners After Channel Battle

A message from official sources yesterday advised members of his family that A/B Burton Rolls, R.C.N.V.R. was reported missing following the sinking of his ship, the Tribal Class Canadian destroyer Athabaskan, in a sharp battle with German destroyers in the English Channel last Saturday.

Although at present missing, A/B Rolls may be accounted for in course of time. High hopes are held for the survival of many of the destroyer's personnel on view of the fact that the Germans claim to be holding 85 as prisoners and also considering that the engagement took place close to the French coast where chances of being rescued would be encouraging.

Of the destroyer's complement of about 225, 46 have been brought back to England and 85 are claimed as prisoners by the German, including six officers.

Able Seaman Burton Rolls, an employee of Ganong Bros. Ltd., before enlisting in the Navy in May, 1942, saw his first duty at sea aboard the Athabaskan and had been with her through all her short but stormy career. He is one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rolls of St. Stephen who are in uniform; the eldest Herbert, is with the Canadian Army in Italy, and the other two Donald and Jack, like Burton chose the Navy. Mrs. Burton Rolls, who before her marriage was Miss Mona Price, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Roland Price of Calais, has been employed in a Portland shipyard during her husband's absence. They have one daughter, aged three years.

The Athabaskan, one of the Tribal class destroyers added to the Canadian Navy since the war began, was a sleek, heavily armed and extremely fast ship packing a tremendous punch on fore power and offensive armament. She was hit in the Mediterranean last year when the Germans made the first use of glider bombs but was nursed back to port in what was described at the time as a remarkable piece of seamanship.

The engagement which proved to be her last occurred in the starlit hours before dawn Saturday morning, April 29. In company with the destroyer Haida, also of the Tribal class, the Athabaskan was engaged in patrol work in the English Channel when they sighted two German destroyers and immediately closed to engage them. The action was short but furious. Only a few salvos had been fired when the Athabaskan was hit by a torpedo and sank within a few minutes her guns firing to the last. The Haida continued to carry the battle to the fleeing German craft. One of them was driven ashore out of control and the other escaped on the darkness and mist. The Germans reported 85 of the Athabaskan's personnel as prisoners while 46 of the men returned safely to England, having been picked up by the Haida. Much hope was held that A.B. Rolls was among those taken by the Germans.

'Community mom' had patience of saint

Published Tuesday October 14th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - Having loved seven children, a foster daughter, and any child that graced her doorstep, Susan Gillmor was known as a woman with the patience and temperament of a saint.

"She was a mom to everybody around her - it didn't matter if it was her child or not," said her daughter, Monica Gillmor. "She was a community mom - she invited everyone into the house. You could always smell bread baking. She was always smiling and she never complained about anything."

Surrounded by her family, Gillmor died after a three-and-a-half year battle with cancer. She was 61.

Allan Gillmor, a two-time mayor of St. Stephen, said he will miss his wife every single day.

"She (had) been fighting cancer for three and a half years. She won many battles but she lost the war. She is at peace," he said. "She was strong in her faith. We had talked about death and she said, 'I have no fear.'"

Gillmor and his wife were both teachers at St. Stephen High School. They first met at the Fairmont Algonquin hotel. Romance blossomed, and they later married. The couple was blessed with seven children:

Gillian, Gregory, Anna, Mark, Monica, Christina, Charlotte, and a foster daughter, Margie Snell.

Her husband remembers his wife as a calming influence in the family. "She was calm and collected - she always kept her cool," said Allan Gillmor. "She was supportive of me all the years I was on council."

The former mayor said his wife always had everything under control. She always knew where her seven children were and what they were doing. He said there is a black board posted in the bathroom that listed each child and where they were.

"It's still there, even though there is nothing on it, and it will (continue to) be there," he said.

Monica Gillmor delivered her mother's eulogy at the funeral last Thursday. She said her mother was always wearing an apron and her feet were always bare. She was constantly doing things around the house, whether it was hanging clothes on the line or kneading bread. But no matter how busy she was, or how many children she had to feed and care for, Monica said her mom always made time to run around the bases in the backyard and play games with her youngsters.

"She cared for all of us. She lived a great life, surely not long enough, but still a great life. We can only hope to be as respected, as well-liked and appreciated as she was, (with) her generous ways, her strong heart, her welcoming and spiritual nature."

Monica said all her mother had to do was point her finger and give a stern look to keep the children in line. She said her family rarely fought, and every child knew exactly what chores they had to do, and did them, without being prompted.

"We all had our own personalities and she welcomed that. She never tried to get us to be the same person and do the same things."

Lorna Haley said she met Susan Gillmor through the IODE, a women's group. Haley said her friend was a lady, in the true sense of the word. She said if you asked Susan to do something, you knew it would get done. Haley said when she was with Susan, she knew she would be listened to, that nothing she said would be repeated and that she would get good motherly advice.

"She must have had the patience of Job," said Haley. "I don't know how she raised seven children. And all of her children turned out well. They are lovely, compassionate children - so she must have done something right."
