Final Version

Preface

This book is an attempt to give those searching the descendants of the surname Getchell some assistance.

The Chapter named Custom Report shows all persons with the surname Getchell that are in my database and those near the top of the list that show no parents are in NEED of ancestral information. Anyone with information on the parents of these people are requested to send update information to the address shown below.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Since this is a work in progress there may be errors and some data is missing. If you see errors or have corrections and/or additions then you are asked to send them to the address shown below.

Notes for Abiel Sprague, Sr.:

There were three Spragues involved in frontier building in Washington County, Main. Abiel No. 1 (born 1710) came from Scarboro, Maine, to Machias in 1763 in Capt. Buck's vessel of first settlers (Joel Bonney was on the same boat) he died there in 1774. Abiel No. 2 was son and a first settler at Sprague Falls in Baileyville, was born on a proprietor's grant in Casco Bay where Abiel No. 1 was living. This was probably in early 1740's. this grant was three miles from the center of Brunswick, on a neck of land extending into the bay called Mereconege (now Meres Neck). Abiel No. 3 son of Abiel No. 2, was with his father when he migrated from Calais to Baileyville in 1795. He was born in Machias in 1776.

Abiel Sprague No. 3 and his brother Captain Eli Sprague married two sisters of Joseph Thornton, another pioneer settler of Baileyville. They lived in Baileyville in the frontier days. The two Sprague brothers came to Calais from Machias in 1782 settled at "middle landing" in the vicinity of the present Ware Knitters Factory building. The surrounding country was thick with the big white pines so desperately needed for the ship masts and for board siding in the growing communities in the area. In the 1790's they were part owners in several saw mills on Denny's stream which flowed into the Schoodic at St. Stephen, NB. In many of the transactions Isaac T. Bayley, oldest son of the Baileyville pioneer Nathaniel Bayley (1740) was their partner. They even kept some of this ownership after they had settled in Baileyville. Other area men involved in these saw mills were Jonas Dyer, Colin Campbell, John McAllister and Robert Crocker.

From "Glimpses of the Past" St. Croix Courier

Article liii.-From his grandson, Mr. Chas. Jameson, of St. Stephen, we learn that Joel Bonney was born in Pembroke, Conn., (now in Mass.) and was of Welsh descent. He was a very stout and able man, six feet and one inch in height, and remarkably fine looking. He fought in the French and Indian wars, and was present as an ensign at the taking of Detroit; and tradition says that it was he who pulled down the French colors when the British entered the fort. As a carpenter and millwright, he came to Schoodic with the Machias men to help in building the first mill here; and he built a house for Squire Curry at Digdeguash. He lived for a time on Grand Manan, where two of his children were born, the elder of whom is said to have been the first white child born on the island. After living for some years at Digdeguash, he removed to Portland, Me., where he died about 1824, at the age of 84.

She was born 1762, and died May 1804 in Machias, ME.

Notes for Benjamin Getchell:

Benjamin Getchell came to the area where St. Stephen, NB is now located in the year 1779.

The following notes are from WG database:

Benjamin Getchell was born Feb. 4, 1753 at Scarboro, Me. He was married twice but the first wife is unknown. He married Mehitable Meserve on August 26, 1783 by Rev. James Lynn (Lyon). She died in 1804. Mehitable was one of the first converts of Rev. Duncan McColl.

Benjamin served as a private in 1777 in the Continental Army. In 1779 at the age of 26, he in the company of others (James and Jeremiah Frost, Samuel Milberry, Samuel, Jacob and Eben Libby, John Rolfe and Dr. McDonald) came to St. Stephen from Machias guided by two Indians, Denny and Sabattus. Coming out back of Maguerawaak mountain, they crossed the river at Stillwater, where now stands the town of Milltown. Unable to settle there as the Indians claimed the place as their camping and burial grounds, they moved to the ridge opposite the fishing falls. Benjamin built his house where the W. T. Rose house now stands. (On the hill across from the present Ferry Point bridge.) His home was constructed of logs with no brick or chimneys and had few glass windows. In two marriages he had eight children, only two were known of: Jonas and Samuel who was born 1780 died Jan. 22, 1868. Samuel was probably the first child to be born in St. Stephen. Benjamin returned to Machias in 1783 and married Mehitable Meserve.

Benjamin Getchell was born on July 2, 1751, Scarborough [17], bp. February 4, 1753, Scarborough, Maine [10, P43], son of Joseph and Mary (Mitchell) Getchell. He died in St. Stephen, New Brunswick, Canada; buried September 22, 1824 [30]. He married 1st c. 1772, _____; 2nd August 26, 1783, Mehitable Meserve died in 1804 [27], Machias, Maine [18]. Benjamin signed the petition to the General Court of Massachusetts for a grant of a township of land there in 1769 [14, P30]. About 1779 [15], he moved to the bank of the Schoodic (now St. Croix) River in Nova Scotia (now St. Stephen, N.B.), where he was one of the first settlers and the ancestor of the inhabitants of what was first called the Getchell Settlement, then Mayfield, and is now part of St. Stephen. It is said that he was a private in the Continental army, but his move to Canada suggests Loyalist sentiments. This appears to be supported by a statement made in his name March 29, 1785 by Samuel Milberry to the Governor of New Brunswick that he left Machias "to avoid taking up arms against Great Britain" [19]. However, it must be noted that Benjamin was trying to favorably impress the authorities in order to receive a grant of land and this would sound favorable whether factual or not. I have not seen conclusive evidence matching him with a Benjamin Getchell in the Continental army. On September 7, 1792, he was granted (grant #363) the land he had settled on, this being the 86 acre lot #2 in the Nehemiah Marks grant in St. Stephen [20]. Benjamin sold his "High Marsh Lot #55" in Machias to his brother, Joseph, for £10 on September 29, 1790 {13, V@, P162}, and sold a "thatch lot," "#51 in O'Brien's thatch bed, so called", in Machias to Consider Drew of Machias for £3 on July 11, 1792 [13, VI, P498]. Benjamin was, at this time, a "yeoman" in St. Stephen. Benjamin was buried in the "Methodist New Chapel yard" which is now beneath the parking lot of the Kirk McColl United Church in St. Stephen [30]. It seems likely that his first three children were not with Mehitable Meserve, but the identity of their mother has not been found after an extensive search of Maine and New Brunswick records [E]. Children of Benjamin Getchell and probably his first wife [27 & ELG]: Betsy born July 6, 1773 in Machias, Maine married William Mabee; Jonas married Nancy Marpole; Samuel born 1780 Children of Benjamin and Mehitable (Meserve) Getchell were: Daniel Meserve born June 24, 1785 married Elizabeth Grimmer born 1786 died December 21, 1880 lived in Lynnfield, N.B. died June 6, 1876; Polly married William Mitchell; Susannah born 1796 married John Leeman died October 8, 1868 aged 72 years, 7 months (gravestone inscription) buried in the St. Stephen Cemetery; David died Miramichi, N.B.; Mehitable married John Holmes.

APPENDIX:

[E] It is worth considering that Benjamin's first wife may have been left behind, pregnant with Samuel, in the care of her relatives while he went to pioneer in the St. Stephen area. Gouldsboro families worthy of consideration are the Ash and Joye families. The Joyes are of particular interest, as they, later, moved to St. Stephen and several times intermarried with the Getchells. Vroom [15] alleges the existence of a land grant application in the Arthur M. Hill papers.

[F] Marion A. Getchell was born at the turn of the century and died c. 1980, living her life in the St. Stephen area. Although her genealogy is unaccompanied by documentation or references, she is the closest thing available to a "reporter on the scene". While her work is not in a class with documentary evidence, the time and place of her life put her in a position to have access to information that may appear in no documentary record.

PIONEERS OF SCHOODIC

In 1779 or the following year, so far as can now be ascertained, there were nine persons settled on the present site of the town of St. Stephen-James and Jeremiah Frost, Benjamin Getchell, Samuel Milberry, Samuel, Jacob and Eben Libby, John Rolfe and Dr. McDonald*. On the opposite side of the river, (soon afterwards known as Plantation No. 5, now the city of Calais, three more had made their homes--William Swain, David Ferrol and Daniel Hill. The latter were joined a year or two later by Samuel Hill, Jones Dyer, Abiel Sprague, James Sprague and others; and at the time of the landing of the Loyalists there were perhaps fifteen or twenty families living in log houses, on both sides of the Schoodic, at or near the head of tide waters, and within the present limits of the three towns. Most of these settlers had come from Machias; and the valuable timber lands and convenient water powers were the attractions which brought them here. They built a sawmill at the mouth of the Dennis Stream, which now forms the eastern boundary of the town of St. Stephen; and there began under most unfavorable circumstances, the lumber trade of the St. Croix. They found their principal market, probably, in the Annapolis Valley and other parts of Nova Scotia where Loyalist refugees were already beginning to settle in considerable numbers. The owners of the first mill are said to have been Daniel Hill, Jacob Libby and Jeremiah Frost (b) It does not appear that any effort was made at the time to obtain a grant of the mill, privilege, or to establish a legal claim to their land. In 1792 the mill privilege at the mouth of the stream was granted to a company, in which were Jacob and Eben Libby, Jones Dyer and Ebiel (Abiel) Sprague, and also James Charrey, of Indian Island, with others who were later comers. Another mill privilege adjoining this was at the same time granted to John Curry, James Shaffey and Sarah Frost; the latter, the widow of Jeremiah Frost, holding six of his eight shares. Of the persons above named, James and Jeremiah Frost were probably the first to come. We know little more about them, Except that Jeremiah came to Passamaquoddy in 1770. Swain and Farrel were also here before the coming of the Machias men. Swain's house stood near to where the pumping station of the water works stands today, not far from the Calais end of the upper bridge in Milltown. The site of the Farrel's house is somewhere near the railway station in Calais.

Tradition says that Daniel Hill and his family came from Machias in 1779. He settled on what is now the Calais side of the rovers, his house and clearing being on the point of land opposite the cove, hence called Hill's Point for many years--now Ferry Point.

In 1779 or 1780, the company which included Benjamin Getchell and his family and Samuel Libby and his sons, came from Machias to St. Stephen. They are said to have made their way through the woods, guided by two Indians named Denny and Sabattus. Coming out back of Maguerawaak mountain, they crossed the river at Stillwater, where now stands the town of Milltown. There they wished to settle, but they were prevented by the Indians, who had a camping ground and burial place there, and claimed the land as belonging to their tribe. They next made choice of "the ridge opposite the Fishing Falls"; and with their cattle and other effects, which they had brought across the river on a raft, they came down and took possession. It is known that there were at the time five settlers here--probably the two Frosts, Swain, Farrel, and Hill.

Benjamin Getchell built his house where the residence of Mrs. W. T. Rose now stands. We have little information concerning him, except that he had settled at Machias some time before the close of 1769, and had married Mehitable Meserve. His oldest son, Jonas, was born about 1776, probably in Machias; and his second son, Samuel, about 1779.

Samuel Libby was born at Rye, N.H., and was about sixty years of age when he came from Machias to Schoodic.

He died of small pox not many years after his arrival. Jacob Libby, his eldest son, was born in Epsom, N.H. He accompanied his father to Machias, about 1765, and was about 32 years old when they came to Schoodic. He also died of small pox in 1805. His home was at the Cove, (afterwards called Libby's Cove) on the hillside, a little to the north of where the Cove school house stands. For himself, perhaps some two or three years later, chose a spot further down the river, where a little brook came out of the forest. The St. Stephen bank building stands upon the spot today. Eben was about four years old when his father moved to Machias, and 19 when they came to this place. His eldest son, Samuel, was the first child born in St. Stephen.

Samuel Hill came from Machias about 1780; Jones Dyer and James and Abiel Sprague in 1781. They settled on the southern side of the river. Dyer built the first framed house in what is now the city of Calais.

Among those who came later was Robinson Crocker, who had been engaged in privateering. His house was on the river bank, directly in front of Eben Libby's. He afterwards occupied land further down the river, including the little island which still bears the name of Crocker's Island.

Of the other pre-Loyalist settlers at Schoodic, very little is known excepting their names; and it is quite possible that even some of these are now forgotten.

FOOTNOTES:

The chief authority of this list of names is a statement found in the files of the Courier for 1868, based upon an interview with the late Mrs. Porter, then the oldest person living in St. Stephen. Brief notes concerning the pioneers of the border towns, from this and other information, are given in Knowlton's Annals of Calais and St. Stephen, published by J.A. Sears, Calais, 1875.

* Knowlton's Annals.

* In a collection of historical papers belonging to Mr. Arthur M. Hill is an application for grants of land on Chiputneticook Ridge (Scotch Ridge), in which it is stated that Jonas and Samuel Getchell were born here at or near the dates above given; but from family traditions and other evidence there is little doubt that both were born in Machias.

From the 1909 "Family of Samuel Getchell" by Everett Lamont Getchell:

At the age of 26, he moved from Machias, Maine, to St. Stephen, New Brunswick, where he was one of the first settlers. He was the original ancestor of those who later resided in what became known as the "Getchell Settlement" near St. Stephen. In 1777, he served as a private in the Continental army.

David Craig II

The soldiers must have been allowed to bring their wives with them when they came out to his country as Mrs. David Craig was at Castine with her husband. Two children were born in December 1779 and a son, David, was born in May 1782.

An event occurred while they resided at Castine which has been handed down from one generation to another. Mrs. Craig had an errand which necessitated her passing a sentry on guard. Some say she was going to fetch fresh water; others, that she was taking laundry to her husband. However, when ordered to halt and give the password, she gave the signal. Owing to the fact that she was wearing a cape, the sentry did not notice and signal and called on her twice more to halt. She continued on her way thinking the sentry knew her, whereupon the sentry fired. The shot inflicted a bad wound which did not prove fatal, but required a lot of care and attention until it finally healed.

There was talk of a court martial as it was thought the sentry was over enthusiastic in this attention to duty, but Mrs. Craig pleaded on his behalf, assuming the blame herself and the matter was dropped.

Tradition provides a romantic atmosphere with the sequel that a son the sentry married Mrs. Craig's oldest daughter, Janet, some time after they moved to St. Andrews.

The Thirteen Colonies were given their freedom from the Mother country and were separated from British North America, becoming known as the United States of America.

After having successfully held the Penobscot for the British, the Penobscot Loyalists sorrowfully learned that the powers that he had agreed that the St. Croix River was to be the boundary between the two countries and not the Penobscot; consequently they were forced to seek a settlement elsewhere to be on British soil. They moved eastward to a place called St. Andrews, Nova Scotia at the mouth of the St. Croix River. The settlers packed up their belongings, household furniture and some even took down their houses and put them on board two large transports and several smaller craft and set sail for their new home in a new land, arriving on October 03, 1783.

The British post at Penobscot was not evacuated until January 1784 and was the last British post in America from which the King's forces were withdrawn.

David Craig would accordingly come to St. Andrews very early in 1784 with his wife and two children. At the muster of the Loyalist settlers at Passamaquoddy, as taken may 20, 1784, the names of David Craig, his wife, Molly, and son David are included. The daughter, Janet, was evidentially overlooked.

On the arrival of David Craig at St. Andrews, everything would be in the state of activity. The fall arrivals had hastily put up shelters for themselves for the winter, but with the coming of spring, great improvements would be under way. From an extract of a letter written by William Pagan to Dr. William Paine, Harbor L'Tang, we find some idea of the progress of the settlement at St. Andrews.

You will find us in a state of infancy, but when it is considered that there was not a single house erected till last October, you will not think lightly of our extensions.

We have now about ninety houses up and great preparations making in every quarter, for more. Numbers of inhabitants are daily arriving and great many others are hourly looked for from different quarters. Agents are now here from the neighboring States on the look out for lands for a number of valuable inhabitants who wish to emigrate here, being tired of their new Government.

The Town of St. Andrews was surveyed and laid out in uniform blocks by Charles Morris, son of the Surveyor-General of Nova Scotia and on August 12, 1784 the lots were officially granted to William Gammon and others. David Craig was grantee to Lot No. 2, Letter H., Buckeley's Division.

The King's orders and instructions to Sir Guy Carleton, commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in America, at New York on August 18, 1783 included these provisions. The non-commissioned officers and private men of the land forces who may be reduced in Nova Scotia, and wish to become settlers in that province, will be allowed grants of land at the rate of 200 acres to every non-commissioned officer and 100 acres to every private man, exclusive of what he shall be entitled to in right of his families discharged of all fees of office and quit rents for the first ten years. And, as a further inducement to them to become settlers, each man shall be furnished out of the stores with equal rations of provisions allowed to him for one year, and shall be permitted to retain his arms and accoutrements.

Another excerpt from this section of the order reads:

And in order to strengthen the proposed settlements in our said province, and that they may be in a state of security and defence, it is our will and pleasure that the allotments to be made to the non-commissioned officers and private men under our said instructions shall be, where the same is practicable, by Corps and as contiguous as may be to each other, and that allotments made to the several commissioned officers under this our instruction shall be interspersed therein, that the same may be thereby united and in case of attack, be defended by those who have been accustomed to bear arms and serve together.

It was also provided that an allowance of half-pay should be made to the non-commissioned officers at the time of disbanding and a gratuity of fourteen days pay allowed the private men.

He married Phebe McGier 22 October 1829 in Charlotte Co., NB (Source: "CCMR:Charlotte County Marriage Registers, Charlotte Co., NB," p210.), daughter of William McGear and Phebe Webb. She was born Abt. October 1800 in St. Andrews Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, and died 21 April 1888 in Chamcook, St. Andrews Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Daniel Fred Johnson, *VSNB: Vital Statistics from N.B. The following is from an email received from Marilyn Cannon:

Well, proving the Beckwith connection has been difficult. I found the Nova Scotia planters, Beckwith and Chipman and obtained info from Acadia Univ. Understand they came from Connecticut and England. Yes, I believe Catherine married JCB and their son JCB was born 1765 and died in St. John Oct. 1847.

We have a marriage in St. Andrews between JCB and Phoebe McGeer (or McGier) Apr. 18, 1819, All Saints Anglican Records, film #1057. He's a boatmaster.

I believe Eliza Jane Beckwith is daughter to Phoebe and JCB and could be born about 1820. Cannot find any record. Do find a child named Mary Eliza b. or baptized June 10, 1819 and died the next month July 11, 1819. Film # 1082, All Saints Anglican Church records.

Looks like Phoebe McGeer Beckwith remarries David Craig Oct. 22, 1829. JCB disappears it seems and doesn't die until age 83 in 1847. Don't see another JCB except for the one born 1827 who could be Phoebe and JCB's only son named John. There's a JCB born to S.J. Beckwith and Sarah J. who died in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery Vol. 1 Pg. 195 with daughter Phebe Ann.

Phoebe's buried at Chamcook as a Craig. She died April 21, 1888 there. The 1851 census for Charlotte Co. pg. 71 has her under Craig as a widow age 51. Son John is 24 and a blacksmith and then 5 more children in St. Andrews.

I believe Phebe is dau. of Phebe Webb and Wm. McGear. they were married 9 Oct. 1792. Can't find Phoebe McGeer's birth record yet. Should be about 1800 which would make Eliza Jane Beckwith's birth about 1820.

Notes for Thomas Hasty:

Thomas Hasty was a yeoman and a farmer. His first marriage was to Nancy Bladgrove Christy. Dr. Skiffington Thomson, Rector, in the presence of Andrew Murchie and James Thomson, married them December 7, 1826 in the parish of St. Stephen Christ Church (Anglican) by license with the consent of parents. Thomas was recorded as a yeoman and Nancy as a spinster. According to Mr. Allen Hastay of St. Stephen, they did have one son. Nancy is buried among several other Christys behind Kirk McColl Methodist Church in St. Stephen. The gravestones have subsequently been removed from their original plots, however, they are neatly arranged on a mound in back.

Thomas Hasty married Ann Maria Frost on August 25, 1836 in the same church and by the same minister and was witnessed by S. Richardson. Ann is buried with one of their sons, Dougald at Baille. The cemetery is located next to the Baptist Church. Work began to restore the cemetery ground in 1970 but much more clearing is needed. Irving Hastey of St. Stephen believes 'Old Tom' is buried at Lynnfield. At any rate, he was alive in 1871 as he is listed in the 1871 census, in which they have his age as 67 and religion with the Church of England, of Irish descent and a farmer.

Thomas Hasty may have been married a third time to a A. Connor in 1860 at the Anglican church in St. Stephen. She was listed as a widow. Dr. Thomas and James Stephenson performed the ceremony. Both were from St. James. Thomas would have been 56 years old.

When about 18, Thomas came to Minnesota with "Still" Dudley and went to work on the Mississippi River boom for Darelus Morrison, owner of the big sawmill. Several years later his brother, Edward joined him at the mill. Thomas first job was a ketch marker on the boom and learned all the log marks; then became a scaler for the Surveyor General for Minnesota at different mills.

Note:: Family stories indicate that Margaret Alexander was of North American Indian race. This has not been proven, but any kind of DNA testing that shows the mtDNA would prove this to be either true or false. The female descendants of Margaret Alexander would have the mtDNA that they pass on to their children but only the females pass it on to their children. This means that any living female that has a direct female line back to Margaret Alexander would have the same mtDNA as she had. This can be proven by either a Family Finder DNA test(FF) that would give the percentage of native ancestry in the person being tested or an mtDNA test that determines the Haplogroup that is either of native ancestry or not. Since there are several generations to cover, the amount will be in the range of 12% for 3rd generation or 6% for 4th generation descendants. The main thing here is that the person being tested can be either male or female as long as their mother has a direct female line back to Margaret Alexander.

A direct line female was tested using the Family Finder DNA test and the Population Finder portion of this test showed that the line was NOT of North American Indian ancestry.

Hugh MORRISON and son Edward MORRISON met with a severe accident Saturday afternoon while returning from the Shore Line with freight for the firm of Morrison & McKenzie. When about half way down the Union hill, the rod holding the shafts of his sled became loose and slipping forward struck the horse's heels. This frightened the animal and he ran away, dashing madly down the hill, until he reached the three corners. There the horse's course was directed up Queen Street but, suddenly turning to take the main street, the sled slewed and Mr. Morrison and his son were thrown with terrible force against the two trees there. A barrel filled with sugar, a portion of the load on the sled, struck Mr. Morrison, adding to his injuries. When men working near reached the spot, Mr. Morrison and his son were unconscious. They were quickly taken to the residence of Mr. Morrison in Milltown. Several physicians were soon in attendance. An examination revealed the fact that five of Mr. Morrison's ribs were broken, that his shoulder was dislocated and that his skull was injured in two places, while his whole body was a mass of bruises. The boy also was found to have suffered a fracture of the skull. Mr. Morrison lingered in a comatose state until Sunday eve. when he died. The boy is still living and may recover. Another son of Mr. Morrison and three other lads were on the sled at the time, but fortunately they escaped without injury. Mr. Morrison formerly resided at Scotch Ridge but a few years ago moved to Milltown and built a house here. He at one time represented St. James in the County Council. He was an acting J.P., a leading member of the Presbyterian church. A wife and eleven children survive him.

1861 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p1, age 10, name: Almira

This would indicate that she was born in 1850 at a time before the census date and not 1851 as shown in other references. However, this could be caused by the age at next birthday. Other provinces of Canada use the age at next birthday for the 1851 census. In some cases, the 1851 census was actually taken in 1852 which makes it even more complicated.

There is a problem with the date of birth from the Kirk McColl Church Records. When Born is shown as Aug. 16 1838 and when baptized is shown as a ditto of May 19 1836. However, the next dates for baptism are shown as 1839 which could indicate that the baptism year was 1838 and the birth was Aug 16 of 1837 or 1836.

Many friends learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Jennie Moore, wife of G. Leighbert Moore of Old Ridge, Wednesday morning, July 28, 1948. Although in poor health for sometime, news of her sudden passing came as a distinct shock.

Mrs. Moore was born at Lynnfield, August 26, 1881, the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Haste, and was united in marriage to George Leighbert Moore of Baillie, May 1, 1907, by Rev. W. Wass of the Methodist Church.

The greater part of her married life was spent in St. Stephen, and while her health permitted, she took an active part in the work of the church which she faithfully attended, having been a member of the choir, the Steadfast Evening Auxiliary and of the Quilters. She was also a member of the Quilters. She was also a member of Olive Rebekah Lodge.

While she gave much of her time and energy to these, it was in her home where her unfluence was most felt, her kindly joyous personality and her womanly qualities fitting her for a devoted wife and mother.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey, Saint John; Mrs. Charles Savage, Bath, Maine; and Miss Jean Moore, who has been on the staff of the Suzzex High School; two sons, Raymond and Eldon of Old Ridge; two sisters, Mrs. George Bingham and Mrs. John Speedy, of St. Stephen; tow brothers, Joseph Haste of Nantasket, Mass., and Percy Haste of Oak Bay, and five grandchildren.

The many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which she was held by a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral service Friday afternoon at the home of her son, Raymond Moore, was conducted by Rev. B.D. Earle, pastor of the Kirk McColl United Church, and was largely attended. A mixed quartette sang two favorite hymns, "Let Your Lower Lights Be Burning," and "Sometime We'll Understand." Pall bearers were Everett Moore, Victor Poole, Sidney Torrance, Joseph Thomas, Frank Leland, and Richard Toal. Interment was in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Notes for George Leighbert Moore:

Better known as "Bert" to all who knew him, he had devoted many years of his life serving the citizens of St. Stephen. His occupation were many and varied. He served many years on the St. Stephen Police Force as constable and later as Town Marshall and filled this position until the time of his retirement.

Mr. Moore was born at Baillie, December 20, 1883. In May 1907, he was united in marriage to Jennie Gertrude Haste of Lynnfield who died in 1948.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Henrietta Hannah of Saint John, two sons, Raymond and Eldon, St.

Stephen and three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey (Florence) Saint John, Mrs. Charles Savage (Josephine), Maine; Mrs. William Weatherbee (Jean), Brewer, Maine; eight grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Mr. Moore had spent most of his retirement years he had resided at Maces Bay and more recently at Saint John. He had been a devoted an active member of the United Church of Canada, having served on the session for many years.

The largely attended funeral service was held Sunday September 12, at 2 p.m. in the Mehan Memorial Chapel of the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home with Rev. B.D. Earle officiating.

The many floral tributes as well as contributions to the Canadian Heart Foundation, cancer society, Mentally Retarded and Gideon Bibles were silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held throughout the community.

Two favorite hymns, The Old Rugged Cross and What A Friend We Have In Jesus were sung by a male quartet comprised of Mert Coffey, Ted Boyd, Tom Mitchell, and Fred Allen. Pallbearers were Irving Haste, Henry Watters, George Palmer, Carl Dunn, Frank Worrell and Fred Reid.

As a tribute to the deceased active members of the St. Stephen Police force attended the funeral in a body and formed a guard of honor at the funeral home and at the grave also.

Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Phyllis Evans Hooper:

Obituary - Mrs. Allan Hastay

The death of Mrs. Allen Hastay, which occurred at the East St. John County Hospital, Saint John, on Friday October 24, 1941 brought sadness in the community. Deceased made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Evan Densmore until her marriage to Allen Hastay. She was taken ill and a few months ago taken to St. John for a treatment in hopes she would be spared for the sake of her two little ones but it was not to be.

Her remains were brought here to the home of Edward Hastay and on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 a large number gathered for a service conducted by her pastor, Rev. H.C. Upton, who spoke comforting words to the mourners. Hymns, "Shall We Meet Beyond The River", and "The Sweet Bye and Bye" were sung, after which her body was laid to rest in the cemetery here. She will be much missed by all, as she helped all she could in every good work and the two children will miss a loving mother's care, and the sympathy of all goes out to those who mourn.

The pallbearers were Abner, Gordon, Maurice and David Hastay, sons of Robert Hastay. Flowers silent tributes of the esteem in which she was held were numerous.

Fred McInnis

The passing of Fred McInnis at Chipman Memorial Hospital early on Tuesday morning, January 12, 1937, brought to the close a life which, though short, was filled with the richness and joy of high purpose and kindly deeds.

Mr. McInnis underwent a surgical operation six weeks before and the skill of physicians and the watchful care of a loving wife could not longer delay the end.

Born at Maw-wah-hoc, Maine, in 1900, eldest son of P. Albert and the late Laura Hannan McInnis, he moved to Pomeroy Ridge while still a child, and lived most of his life there. On July 31, 1926 he married Edith Hazel Hitchings of Pomeroy Ridge. Besides his wife there are left to mourn his father, P. Albert McInnis of Pomeroy Ridge, two sisters, Mrs. Chester McFarlane, Little Ridge and Mrs. George Smith, Pomeroy Ridge; two brothers, Albert E. of Toronto and Cecil at home; and his aged grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hannan, Gleason Road.

He was a generous, charitable nature to know him slightly was to like him, to know him intimately was to love him. Especially was he loved by little children and as love cannot sleep or die his influence will be felt for years to come. A skilled mechanic he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to friend and stranger alike.

The funeral service was conducted at his home on Thursday, by his pastor, Rev. R.C. Robbins of the United Church, Scotch Ridge of which Mr. McInnis had been a member and faithful worker for many years.

Cecil Nesbitt sang very beautifully the hymns, "Sometime We'll understand," "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "The Christian's Goodnight". The pallbearers were Raymond Burns, Vernon Hannan, Kenneth Matheson and Donald McMorrin, friends since boyhood, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Scotch Ridge. Many beautiful floral offerings bore testimony to the affection in which he was held and the desire of loving friends to express sympathy for the sorrowing family.

Notes for Anna Patricia McShane:

Anna P. (McShane) James
1955-2019

Anna P. (McShane) James

Anna Patricia McShane James, age 64, passed away while in the loving care of the wonderful people at Hospice of Fredericton on Thursday the 7th of November in Fredericton, NB.

Anna was born August 26, 1955, in St. Stephen, NB, the seventh of 12 McShane siblings. But she certainly never got lost in the crowd. Anna was a strong woman who blazed a trail in life for her family. With her love of sewing and handiwork, she became known as the "Wee Irish Cobbler."

Anna is also well known in our community for her work with children. Her caring and nurturing nature helped her enjoy many years working in the school system and helping with various programs.

She spent most of her life in the St. Stephen area before moving to "The Lake" – which she called home for the past several years.

Friends and family will always remember Anna's laugh and her genuine love for life and the people she shared it with. She had a quick wit and a great, if sometimes dark, sense of humour.

Anna's greatest joy has been her grandchildren. She loved spending time with them at the lake, swimming, painting rocks and gardening.

Anna is pre-deceased by her son, Adam James, her father, Carl McShane, sister, Linda Babineau, sister, Kathy Clark, brother, Danny McShane and nephew, Kirk Clark.

She is survived by her mother, Geraldine McShane, of St. Stephen, daughter, Andrea Henderson and her husband, Mike, of Oromocto, NB, by her grandchildren, Keaghan Porelle, and Grace James, of St. Stephen, Blair and Maryn Henderson, of Oromocto, NB. Anna is also survived by her siblings, Mark (Carol), Gary (Jane), Tim (Peter), Joey (Denise), Donna, Kim, Bernadette (Mark) and Jeff (Krista), as well as many close nieces and nephews, cousins and her beloved cat, Willy.

We will celebrate Anna's life with a service at the Milltown Catholic Church, Milltown Blvd., St Stephen, NB. On Wednesday, November 13, 2019 at 10 AM. The family will receive friends and family at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Tuesday, November 12, 2019 from 2-4 and 6-8 PM.

In lieu of flowers, if so desired, please consider donating to Hospice House Fredericton, where Anna was lovingly cared for in the last days of her life.

A tireless promoter of athletes, he believed in the importance of sports for an individual and for their community. Together with his wife, Flo, they were the first husband and wife team to officiate basketball as I.A.A.B.O. members. He held various offices with the N.B. She was also involved in many sports when she was younger and in fact was the best shot for the rifle team at Vocational High School in Saint John. This was a gene she passed onto her son Lt. Col. Kirk, a Lt. Col. with the 3 Field Regiment-RCA. During her life she was also an entrepreneur running a Bed and Breakfast at Oak Haven for many years.

Florence was an integral part of many organizations and community events; Chocolate Fest in St. Stephen, Eastern Star, and perhaps dearest to her the Atlantic Charter Chapter IODE where she was a Past Regent and President with over 50 years of service. Church was also very important to Florence and she attended both the Kirk McColl United Church and Anglican Church in St. Stephen, N.B.

Florence was also involved in sports from being a sports mom, official (referee) and spectator. She began refereeing basketball in 1955 and along with husband Duncan, they were officially recognized as the first husband and wife accredited referees in North America by the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials. Her children have many stories about her officiating their games.

Although Florence began her Nurse's training prior to her marriage, it was not until 1972-73 that she returned to pursue her career and graduated from the University of Maine Orono Nursing program. She worked at Barnards Nursing Home in Calais, Maine for many years. In addition to her career as a Nurse, Florence also taught Home Economics at St. Stephen High School.

In her spare time Florence enjoyed sewing, quilting, gardening, playing bridge, spending time with friends, and family and trying new activities. She was recently getting lessons from her granddaughters on how to FaceTime as she wanted to join the new electronic age.

A service celebrating her life will be held at St. Anne's Chapel Anglican Christ Church (Parish) Church at 245 Westmorland Street in Fredericton, N.B. on January 17, 2019 commencing at 2 p.m. Archdeacon John Matheson officiating. A Memorial Service will also take place in St. Stephen, N.B. in the Spring with details to be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Charlotte County Cancer Society, Charlotte County SPCA, Fundy Community Foundation for the D. Kirk McGeachy Memorial Scholarship or donor's choice. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Talented engineer also military man
Published Friday November 7th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS
TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - D. Kirk McGeachy - a military leader, talented engineer and family man - is being remembered as someone who did what he loved and did it well.

D. Kirk McGeachy, of Summerville, on the Kingston Peninsula, and originally of St. Stephen, died on Monday at the age of 55 in an industrial accident while working for Jacques Whitford and Associates Ltd. on a site in Grew Brook, near Edmundston.

"He was the kind of guy that always sent out that family Christmas card with him and his family on it dressed up the same and that says a lot," his brother, Marc McGeachy, said.

Kirk McGeachy is survived by his wife Lisa; three children, Nicholas, 17, Megan, 16, and Kennedy, 8; four siblings, Mary Reid, Janet McGeachy, Marc McGeachy and Sandi McGeachy and his parents, Duncan and Florence McGeachy.

Marc McGeachy said Kirk, the oldest sibling, always loved the armed forces. Their father was principal of St. Stephen High School for 30 years and the commanding officer of the cadet corps in St. Stephen, and his brother followed their father into the military.

When Kirk was in Grade 7, Marc said, he started spending his summers away at cadet camps. On Feb. 1, 1972, he joined the 3rd Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery (The Loyal Company) as an officer cadet in the reserves and was promoted through the ranks, eventually achieving the top rank of lieutenant-colonel. He commanded the regiment from 1998 to 2001 and from 2005 to 2008.

Lt.-Col. Shawn McPherson said Kirk was a confident and competent leader and teacher.

McPherson said he always saw Kirk as two people: family man and military leader.

"I thought he was the best battery commander I ever met. He was very confident in his leadership and had all of the technical skills required," McPherson said.

"When I married his niece, I started to see the family side of him. "Although he didn't require me to, I called him sir at the supper table."

McPherson said he learned loyalty and duty from Kirk McGeachy.

"I'm going to miss being able to go to him for advice and guidance on matters," McPherson said. "He was a person you could always rely on and would always be there."

"Surprisingly for a leader in the military, he was the quietest member of our family," Marc McGeachy said. "He was a by-the-book type of guy, so the military and engineering are two things where you have to follow the rules. He was a person who liked to pay close attention to detail."

Marc said his brother loved the excitement of the military, shooting cannons into empty fields, jumping out of planes and travelling to places such as the Arctic and Europe and always coming home to share his stories with his family.

He said Kirk loved his family and wanted his children to have fun and happy lives.

Kirk McGeachy had been employed full-time since 1975 with Jacques Whitford as a senior engineering technologist. He was involved in the construction of many major projects, including the Point Lepreau nuclear generating station, the Hibernia offshore production platform, Market Square, McAllister Place and Harbour Station.

Visiting hours will be held today from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. at Brenan's Select Community Funeral Home, 111 Paradise Row in Saint John. Funeral mass will be celebrated Saturday at St. John the Baptist Church, 60 Broad St. in Saint John at 1 p.m. followed by a reception at the Barrack Green Armoury.

It is with great sorrow and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Madelyn Irwin (nee Meating), who was residing at the Passamaquoddy Lodge, after a short lived series of age related illnesses, at the grand age of 91 years.

Born in St. George, New Brunswick, she moved to her beloved St. Andrews in 1950, fell in love, married , had two children, worked and lived her whole adult life as a proud member of, and ambassador for, this community.

Madelyn retired in 1989 after a 33 year career at the St. Andrews Biological Station with Fisheries & Oceans Canada.

Madelyn was an avid golfer, a lover of Duplicate Bridge and crossword puzzles. She enjoyed walking, the beach, gardening and being outdoors. In younger years she liked cross country skiing the woods behind her house to the St. Andrews golf course.

At this age, her circle of friends has declined but her friend Margaret MacNichol has been a great pal over the years and we'd like to thank her for her friendship.

As well she is survived by her close friend and second daughter, Wendy Henderson and her husband Michael of St. Andrews. Wendy is the daughter of Carine D. "Billie" Burnett, our mothers' closest and best life-long friend, who has just recently passed away also. Together again on the golf course!

Notes for John Pinkerton Hastey:

The Passengers Are Famous

When a corporal of the Canadian army tells you easily that Field Marshal Sir John Dill is an exceptionally tall man that I come up only to the Field's Marshal Decorations-or mentions some little characteristics of Anthony Eden. Sir Andrew Cunningham, General George C. Marshall and a number of other world-known figure-it sounds like boasting.

That is why Corporal John Hasteley who last week completed his assignment as driver for His excellency the Earl of Athlone and Her Royal Highness the Princess Alice during their tour of New Brunswick military establishments, won't say much about his experiences as a driver in the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

Nevertheless if you can win his confidence Cpl. Hasteley can tell you things about these notables that only proximity can reveal. In his three and a half years as driver for Brigadier G. G. Anglin, M.C.,M.D. district officer commanding Military District No. 7, he has had the opportunity of serving a number of men and women whose stations make them world known.

Take the Quebec Conference last month, for instance. With the Chateau Laurier filled to capacity with leaders in government, top navy, army and air force men of three nations, and hundreds of experts in various branches of each service, there developed a shortage of cars for transportation during the meetings. Brigadier Anglin offered his car and driver, and Cpl. John Hasteley went to Quebec as a driver and was attached to Field Marshal Sir John Dill. British representative on the United Nations combined Chiefs of Staff in Washington.

While at the conference he also drove Mrs. Churchill, wife of Britain's Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Britain's Foreign Secretary, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Andrew Cunningham, First Sea Lord; Sir Charles Portal, Chief of Air Staff, R.A.F., General George C. Marshall, U.S. Army Chief of Staff and General H.H. Arnold, U.S. Air Chief of Staff.

Cpl. Hasteley will never forget the day he had as passengers at one time, Sir John Dill, Admiral King, General Marshall, General Arnold and Admiral Cunningham. "That was quite a distinguished passenger list", he admits.

The Quebec Conference assignment put the really big names on Corporal Hasteley's list of notables he has driven as passengers but previous to that his list could still be the envy of any motor transport driver in this or any war of the past.

As driver for the district Officer Commanding M.D. No. 7 he has been at the wheel when Brigadier Anglin was host to many visiting military officials among whom Cpl. Hasteley recalls Col. J.L. Ralston, minister of national defense, Lt. Gen. J.C. Murchie, Chief of the General staff Canadian Army; Major General Staff Canadian Army; Major General H.F.G. Letson adjutant general; Major General T.L. Tremblay, inspector general; Major General F.R. Phelan, director general Reserve army and his predecessor, Major General B.W. Browne, Lieutenant General Kenneth Stuart, former Chief of the General Staff, N.D.H.Q., now C>g.S. of the Canadian Army overseas.

Corporal Hasteley, whose home is in St. Stephen, enlisted for active service in November, 1940. Because he had driven commercial buses in civilian life, and had an excellent record of efficiency, he was given his choice of serving with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. The following June he was assigned as driver to the district Officer Commanding.

Although not superstitious Cpl. Hasteley has become affectionately attached to the number "7". He points out he enlisted and is serving in M.D. No. 7, is posted to No. 7 Company R.C.A.S.C. and when the cars were numbered at the Quebec conference he was given inevitably No. 7. As a civilian he drove bus No. 7 for the firm with whom he was employed.

Marriage Notes for John Hasteley and Virginia MacVay:

MARRIAGE - Hasteley - McVay

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening, January 2, 1941, at 8 o'clock at the Kirk United Manse, when Rev. B.D. Earle united in marriage Virginia Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank McVay and John Pinkerton, son of John Hasteley and the late Mrs. Hasteley, both of St. Stephen. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride was becomingly attired in dusty brown crepe with gold sequin trimmings and matching accessories. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Pettie.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate family and friends.

The bride's table was very attractive with a lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of cut flowers. Those who assisted Mrs. McVay were Mrs. Florence Larkin, Mrs. John F. Moore and Miss Marjorie McVay. The bride is a graduate of St. Stephen High School class of 38 and prior to her marriage was employed at Crawford's Drug Store. The groom is a member of the Army Service Corps, stationed in Saint John. Immediately following the reception the happy couple left for Saint John, where they will reside at 36 Sydney Street.

The following email segment was received from Barbara Thorkelson on 5 June 2007:

My brother knows all the details much better than I do but it involves cousin Hugh Morrison son of the Morrison from Edmonton, and his relationship with a Clarissa Getchell. Hugh was a Rhodes Scholar in the 1920's and while at Oxford he played on the hockey team and was in a game in Switzerland where he met a lovely lady who was at finishing school there. They had a short relationship but eventually lost track of each other. When in his 80's and lonely, he determined to track down his Oxford love, and found her in a nursing home in New Jersey. He re-established their relationship (her being widowed as well as himself) and they traveled between Toronto and New Jersey, and even over to England to an Oxford reunion where they kissed once again on The Bridge of Sighs. Their relationship lasted a few years until her death. Hugh Morrison lived to be 98 and died nearly a year ago.

Obit: (Toronto Globe & Mail)

HUGH WHITNEY MORRISON B.A. (ALTA), B.A. (HONS) M.A. (OXON) Peacefully, in his 99th year, May 23, 2006, at the Aurora Retirement Centre, Aurora, Ontario. Hugh had an extraordinary and very full life. Born May 15, 1908 in Vegreville, Alberta, he earned his B.A. (Hons.) (language and literature) at the University of Alberta, Edmonton and was named a Rhodes Scholar in 1930. At his Oxford College, Merton, he read literature and political theory from 1930 to 1932, with post-graduate studies in 1933. After serving as a reporter at the Toronto Star and editor of the Star Weekly from 1934 to 1937, Hugh was appointed the first Director of Talks & Public Affairs at the CBC, serving in Ottawa and Toronto from 1937 to 1943. Thereafter, he worked as Assistant to the President of a Central and South American airline out of New York until 1947. While in that position, he was recruited to assist 'Intrepid', Canada's spy master Sir William Stephenson, by reporting wartime activities of German agents in Central and South America. (In Hugh's library is a copy of A Man Called Intrepid by Stephenson dedicated 'To Hugh, my comrade in arms'.) From 1946 to 1948 he was a partner in a public relations firm in New York. Then he rejoined the CBC in its 'Overseas ShortWave Broadcasting Service' in Montreal as its first Director for Latin America. He returned to Toronto in 1952 as the first Director of Public Relations for the United Way, serving until 1972. On retirement, he developed a diploma course in Public Relations at Humber College and taught there until 1983. Always a keen scholar of English literature, particularly Shakespeare, Hugh wrote Shakespeare, his Daughters and his Tempest, published in 1963. He also wrote Oxford Today and the Canadian Rhodes Scholarships, published in 1958. Hugh was the oldest surviving Canadian Rhodes Scholar. Unfortunately, his autobiography remains unfinished. While at Oxford Hugh played hockey for the Spengler (European) Cup-winning Oxford teams in 1931 and 1932. Recently, he was invited to Oxford for a reunion of Oxford hockey teams and presented with a replica of his playing jersey. Hugh outlived three wives (Florentine St. Clair Sherman, Patricia LeMoine FitzGerald, daughter of the artist, and Marita LaFlèche) and one companion, Mary-Lucille Getchell French, called 'Ceeley', with whom he was reunited after an interval of 62 years; they had met while he was at Oxford and she was in Paris on her 'junior year abroad' from Smith College. Hugh is survived by his loving granddaughter Elizabeth St. Clair Morrison Field (Adam Christian) of Buffalo, N.Y daughter of his only child, Hugh ., Peter St. Clair who died in 1998, and his nephew Hugh John Bolton of Edmonton. Hugh's extensive library was donated in lots over many years to the University of Alberta and his Oxford College, with assistance from his long-time friend, book dealer David Mason of Toronto. His extensive Shakespearean studies collection was gratefully accepted in 2004 by doctoral candidates in the University of Toronto's English Department. His extensive memorabilia, including transcripts of wartime and other CBC shows Hugh produced, has been gratefully accepted by Library and Archives Canada (finding aid No. 2283). For more on Hugh's career, his publications and honours received, see the entry in the 2006 Whose Who in Canada. A memorial service will be held at the Morley Bedford Funeral Home, 159 Eglinton Ave. W. (2 stoplights west of Yonge St.), Toronto on Sunday, May 28, 2006 at 11:00 a.m., reception following there. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Canadian Rhodes Scholars Foundation in his name would be appreciated.

GETCHELL It is with great sorrow that the family of Elinor (Elley) May Getchell announces her peaceful passing at Charlotte County Hospital on April 13, 2018.

Elley was born in Southern Ontario, the daughter of Lloyd and Hilda Jones. She met her husband Wayne and moved to St. Stephen to begin their young lives together in what would become her forever home. Elley was active in the community, starting or contributing to several groups in support of Fibromyalgia and Arthritis sufferers. Elley enjoyed a great many pursuits during her life, including toll painting, clogging, alpine skiing, riding the open road on her motorcycle with her husband, bike rallies, and listening to Wayne as he played his guitar whether he was with a band, or when they were along together. She truly was, and will always be, his greatest fan. On Saturday, July 28, 2018 Verna (Mills) Cole passed away at the Robbinston Bridge Home, Robbinston, ME. surrounded by loving family members.

Born on June 9, 1921, Verna was the daughter of the late Byron and Ina (Getchell) Marshall. She was predeceased by one son, Wayne (Ruth), three sisters: Madeline, Alma and Doris, two brothers: Leo (Betty) and Gilbert.

She is survived by her three sons: Dale (Patty), Ron (Jean) and Gary (Joanne), one daughter, Elaine (Ken) and sister, Irene Porteous, ten grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, step-children, step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Verna married Frank Mills of St. Stephen in 1942. They enjoyed a loving marriage until his untimely death in 1967. Several years later, she met Gilbert Hanson of Machias, Maine, they formed a loving partnership and enjoyed going to local dance halls, listening to music and traveling throughout the US and Caribbean. One only has to look at the early photos of Verna on a motorcycle, standing in front of a Jimmy Carter campaign office or sitting with puppies on her lap to know she was a woman of strength and character. Verna had a strong-minded and kind-hearted personality, traits that she instilled in her children.

Marriage Notes for Rosemarie Hanson and Stephen Mulholland:

Marriage - Hanson - Mulholland

The United Church Milltown was the scene of a pretty wedding of wide interest, July 4, when Rose Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Windsor Hanson, became the bride of Stephen H. Mulholland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mulholland of Princeton, Maine. Rev. D.C. MacKenzie officiated at the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and peonies and the guest pews were marked with nosegays of pansies tied with white satin ribbon. John Peterson, organist rendered traditional wedding music and the guest soloist was Darrell MacPherson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin with lace panel inserts and full train, which also had panels of lace. The tight bodice had a yoke of seed pearls and rhinestones, round neckline of Chantilly lace and long sleeves which extended to points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses with garlands of baby breath. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Wilfred McFarlane who wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta with net overskirt and matching shoulder veil and lace mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Little Barbara Ann Ross was flower girl.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white silk dress with blue and white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore an aqua blue costume with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Arthur Mulholland, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Ronald Hanson, cousin of the bride and Lawrence Merritt of Woodland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Legion Hall, Milltown, with over 85 guests in attendance. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by tall ivory tapers in silver holders. Summer flowers also adorned the table and were used profusely throughout the room. Mrs. Albert Jackson and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson presided over the tea and coffee cups. The bride's table was served by the Misses Barbara Ann and Margaret Mulholland, sisters of the groom. The guests were served by the Misses Theresa Hanson, Ruth Rolls, Jane Boone, Kaye Thompson, Betty Cameron, Julia Mulholland and Eleanor Polter. Miss Edith Irvine had charge of the guest book. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. D.C. Mackenzie and was responded to by the groom.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a wedding trip to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and PEI. For travelling the bride donned a wine gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of white rose buds.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold tie clip set, to the maid of honor a gold compact and to the flower girl a silver locket.

The groom's gift to the bride was a double strand of pearls and billfolds to the best man and ushers.

The bride is a graduate of the Milltown Superior School and from the School of Beauty Culture.

The groom graduated from Princeton High School and from the American Technical Society of Chicago. The popularity of the couple was evidenced in the beautiful array of gifts they received. Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland will reside in Princeton where the groom is employed.

Patricia Ann Garcelon

April 29, 1939 - November 21, 2013

Garcelon, Patricia Ann (Pomeroy) following two years of living life to the fullest despite cancer, it is with great sadness that the family of Pat Garcelon announces her death at the Charlotte County Hospital on November 21, 2013. The daughter of the late Walter and Audrey (Lister) Pomeroy, she was born in St Stephen on April 29, 1939. Predeceased by her beloved husband of over 50 years; James William Garcelon (Bill) and survived by children Leanne (Mario) Della-Savia of Mississauga ON; Lisa (Alan) Blair of Dartmouth, NS; James (Julie) Garcelon of Toronto ON; grandchildren Melissa and Caitlin Blair, Joshua and Samantha Della -Savia, Jorja, Ava and Audrey Garcelon; Sisters Sandra (John) Hawrylak of Dartmouth NS, Joanne (Arnold) MacPherson of Yoho, NB; Bernette Burnley of Fredericton NB; sister-in-law Joanne Reichelt of St Stephen NB and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

A graduate of St Stephen High School, she went on to study nursing at the Victoria Public Hospital in Fredericton NB. She returned to St Stephen to work at the Charlotte County Hospital in Obstetrics. Following the birth of her children she dedicated her time to them and their many and varied activities. Having an entrepreneurial spirit she opened the Stationary Stop which she successfully ran for 20 years. During this time, Pat was the first female president of the New Brunswick Office Products Association. She was a big believer of donating her time and giving back to her community. Over the years she has been a supporter or involved with the Girl Guides of Canada, UCW Fidelis Unit, Breast Friends Support Group, Reach to Recovery, Relay for Life, Kirk McColl United Church, Charlotte County Cancer Society, Charlotte County Hospital Foundation, Ganong Nature Park and the Garcelon Civic Centre to name a few.

Family was very important to Pat, especially her sisters, she felt that chance made them sisters and hearts made them friends.

Her greatest talent was her ability to make everyone she met feel important, heard and appreciated. Throughout her life she developed wonderful friendships in St Stephen, Fredericton, St Andrews, Jupiter Florida, and points in between. She took every opportunity to gather friends together for something as simple as a cup of tea, or as involved as a reunion. Her love of travel was not only about the beautiful locations but also about the people that she met.

Funeral Service will be held at the Kirk McColl United Church, King Street, St Stephen at 11am on Friday November 29, 2013.

Visiting hours will be held at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd, 23 Main Street, St Stephen NB on Thursday November 28, 2013 from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 pm.

Notes for Philip Douglas Hartford:
Philip Douglas Hartford
October 21, 1955 - January 28, 2019

It is with broken hearts that we announce the passing of Philip Douglas Hartford on January 28, 2019 at the Charlotte County Hospital, surrounded by his loving family.

Phil leaves behind his loving, devoted wife of 39 years Joanne (Magee) Hartford; children, Meagan Flowers (Justin), Doug Hartford (Emily) and Alicia Denyer (Tom); grandchildren Nathan, Jack, Owen, Reagan, Rylee, Ellis and Roslyn; mother, Jean Hartford; sisters, Brenda Amos and Darla Hartford (Gary); sister-in-law Debbie Gregory (Ron); several nieces and nephews and many great friends. Predeceased by father, Doug Hartford, maternal grandparents, Philip and Alice Doten, mother and father-in-law, Doris and Russell Magee and brothers-in-law, George Amos and Greg Magee.

Getchell

After graduating from St. Thomas University, Phil began a 33.5 year career with Service Canada. He was an active member of his community and served three terms on town council. After retiring, Phil enjoyed his daily "coffee break" with the boys, trips to the camp for Skeet Shooting and spending time with his family.

Being a Mason was a source of great pride for Phil, having joined Victoria Lodge #26 in 1980. He was active in the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, including having been appointed District Deputy Grand Master. Phil was also a Noble of Luxor Shrine and a drummer for the Luxor Flag Unit.

Phil was a devoted family man and put those he loved before all else. Of his many accomplishments in life, earning the title of "Grampy" was by far his favourite.

Words cannot express our gratitude for the staff at the Charlotte County and Saint John Regional hospitals. The care and compassion he received were unparalleled and will never be forgotten.

A funeral service will be held at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd, St. Stephen, NB on Saturday, February 2, 2019 at 2 PM. The family will welcome visitors at the funeral home on Thursday, January 31 from 7-9 PM and Friday, February 1 from 2-4 PM and 7-9 PM. A Masonic Service will take place at the Funeral home Friday, February 1 at 6:15 PM.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Phil's memory to the Luxor Shriners, Charlotte County Cancer Society or a charity of one's choice.

Notes for Edna Jean Weeks:
Obit:
Johnston, Edna Jean

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Edna Jean (Weeks) Johnston, at the home of Randy and Melinda Johnston, in Moores Mills, N.B., on Jan. 13, 2009. Mommy joins her childhood sweetheart and husband of 57 years, Kenneth Milton Johnston, who died Dec. 8, 2007.

Born Feb. 22, 1931, her loving memory will live on in her seven children: daughters, Brenda Sansom (David), in Fredericton, N.B., Terry Dickerson (Bobby), St. Stephen, N.B., and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, N.B.; son, Marshall (Syreena), in New Germany, N.S., and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, N.B., Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya).

Mommy is also survived by grandchildren: Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley and twins, Brandan and Brandi; and great-grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan.

Mommy lived her entire life in Charlotte County, having been raised in Old Ridge, where she met Daddy while tobogganing. The oldest girl in a family of seven children, she was predeceased by her adoring father, Burton, her mother, Myrtle, and her special older brother, Douglas.

She is survived by sisters, Louise Cleghorn (Kenny), Donna Libby (Stephen), Grace Cook (Kenny), and Doris Stewart (Roger); and brother, Kenny (Fran).

Mommy was the epitome of the saying, "big surprises come in small packages." She graduated from St. Stephen High School, where she enjoyed such nicknames as "Spark Plug," "Squirt" and "Pint Size".

In the last chapter of her life, Mommy delighted in the new name of "Rocket", given to her by her son, Randal. Jeannie never let her size discourage her from attempting any challenge or engaging any challenger. Her family often lovingly called her the "Little Banty Rooster".

Mommy was born a natural mother, homemaker, seamstress, nurse, gardener and handy woman. A newlywed at 19, she moved to Moore's Mills with Daddy's grandparents, Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston, where she became chief cook and bottle washer. Within three years she had her first three children. During those early years, she quickly mobilized her many talents as she pumped water, chopped wood, stoked fires, gardened, canned vegetables, preserved fruits and pickles, and mastered a large and uncooperative wringer washer. Our home was most often graced by a long, carefully hung wash, where the largest sheets were first and the smallest socks last. After the birth of the triplets, her excitement peaked when Buchanan Brothers' truck arrived with three new highchairs and an automatic washer and dryer.

Christmas church pageants and school concerts would find her girls in carefully sewn matching dresses. Mommy could lug pails of berries and stack heavy boxes matching any man and outdoing many at the family-owned blueberry fields in Tower Hill.

At the family business, Causeway Motors in Oak Bay, Mommy operated the canteen, making world famous fried clams and lobster rolls, as well as acting as part-time service manager, accountant and gas pump attendant. As a young woman she most likely honed her waitress and cooking skills when she worked for Phil McCarroll at Phil's Restaurant.

When the family purchased the Milltown Garage from long-time friend, Norman Holmes, Mommy continued her business duties, as well as managing an apartment building. She modeled a work ethic and illustrated that it is not the size or gender that determines your ability but your personal determination and will to succeed.

Even though osteoporosis and emphysema left this most capable woman bedridden, she would delight us with her wit, humour and dear sweet smile. She had a determined desire to spend her final days in Moore's Mills, and that she did. Our family is forever indebted to, and blessed to have a dedicated and loving son, Randy, and his wonderful wife, Melinda, who, together with Mommy's self-proclaimed guard dog, Champ, provided a most caring and loving home in Moore's Mills.

We express our gratitude to Kindred Home Care and Pam Thibeault, Carolyn Fagan, Lori Greenier and Nancy Richard, for their loving care. Dr. Kay, the staff at Extra-Mural, Charlotte County Hospital and Hospice of Charlotte have provided immeasurable care and compassion. The support from family and friends will be remembered forever. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

The family will receive friends at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B., on Saturday, Jan. 17, 2009 from 12 - 2 p.m., followed by a funeral service at 2 p.m.

Interment at Moores Mills Rural Cemetery.

Remembrances may be made to Hospice of Charlotte, Moores Mills Community Club at 8427 Route 3, Moores Mills, NB E5A 1Y1, or a charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for Kenneth Milton Johnston:

Kenneth Milton "Kenny" Johnston

1930-2007

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Kenneth Milton Johnston "Kenny" at Charlotte County Regional Hospital on December 8, 2007. Kenny leaves behind his wife, Jean (Weeks) of fifty-seven years, his childhood sweetheart whom he met while toboggan sliding in Old Ridge.

His loving memory will live on in his seven children; daughters Brenda Sansom (David) in Fredericton, Terry Dickerson (Bobby) St. Stephen and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, son Marshall (Syreena) in New Germany, Nova Scotia and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya). He is also survived by grandchildren Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley, and twins, Brandan and Brandi and great grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan. Daddy loved white cats and leaves Momma to care for his snow white "Sparky".

Daddy was born in Dewolfe Corner, December 10, 1930 and lost a twenty dollar bet when his first child Brenda was born two days before his twentieth birthday. Daddy was the third of seventeen children of the late George and Vivian (Foote) Johnston. He was predeceased by his most special friend, Bob McBride and his brothers Marvin (Gooley), Earl and Sam. He is survived by siblings Albert, Florence Crosby, Clarence, Gerald, Sharon Needle, Raymond, Hazen and Roger.

Daddy was raised by his grandparents, the late Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston in the small community of Moore's Mills where he attended school and began his life as a fun loving, joke playing imp.

Daddy spent his entire life in Charlotte County living as well in Milltown and The Ledge and a brief time in Fredericton. Daddy worked his entire life. After a life dedicated to the principals of honest, hard work and a spinal chord injury in 1994 he finally retired in 1997. He peeled pulp and worked for Gerald Gilman at Gilman's Garage in Moore's Mills when he left school but later became a very capable licensed mechanic and a licensed electrician. He was also a plumber and finished carpenter. He outfitted a complete carpentry workshop in his basement to accommodate him working from a wheelchair. He worked for Bert Linton selling Volkswagens and later had his own business, Causeway Motors at Oak Bay where he continued to sell Volkswagens and Used Cars. Causeway Motors later moved to Milltown when he bought the facility operated by one of his childhood mentors, Norman Holmes. Daddy never got rich at anything because his kind and generous heart ruled his fee schedule, if he managed to even charge you for the work he did. When his garage was not open, customers, friends and strangers simply came to the house anytime of the day and night to get their cars fixed. Once cell phones came into popular use he is known to have listened to the car engines over the phone so as to diagnose the problem. Daddy could fix anything - anything that is except cancer. He will be lovingly remembered as the eternal optimist who always had a smile, a laugh and a solution - if you had a problem. He is renown for his ability to solve mechanical problems when others could not. He will be treasured by the respect he instilled in others when never gave up when he was told he would not walk again. He built a pulley in his garage at The Ledge so that he could exercise his legs and back.

Daddy's legacy is four sons, all of whom have his mechanical talents and three daughters who can jump start a car. Daddy taught by example the importance of doing a job to the best of your ability, working hard and being honest and fair. His determination to walk and live independently has been an inspiration to everyone around him. Quite simply, our dad was amazing.

As cancer slowing took its final toll, our dad, the perfect patient continued to bless us with moments of precious memories reflective of the good, kind and generous man he had always been.

There are no words to express our immense gratitude for the professional love, care and compassion from Kindred Home Care, Hospice of Charlotte and the Charlotte County Hospital Palliative Care Staff.

Remembrances may be made to Hospice of Charlotte or charity of donor's choice.

The family will receive friends at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB on Monday, December 10, 2007 from 2 to 4 pm, followed by a Memorial Service at 4 pm.

Interment will be at the Moores Mills Cemetery at a later date.

Caleb never failed to make you laugh or put a smile on your face. He was always the life of the party and he knew it. He loved all things outdoors, his old tunes and his "87" Chevy. Born February 19, 1993, Brett lived between High Prairie and Edmonton, with numerous stays in New Brunswick in between. In his younger years he enjoyed playing hockey, soccer, ball hockey, swimming and karate. As he grew older and moved out to the yard, it was dirt bikes, quads, sleds, then turbo sleds, trucks, then bigger trucks, then Big Sexy. He was an active member of Western Canadian Powerstrokes. He was a journeyman B-pressure welder, with numerous inspector tickets. Throughout his life, his biggest asset was his beautiful smile and the twinkle in his eye. He thrived on being the go-to guy – anybody who needed anything knew to call Brett. His biggest passion was being a big brother, a great son, an awesome friend, and tire shine. He will be sorely missed by all.

The family welcomed anyone wishing to celebrate Brett's life to join them at the Howard & McBride Chapel of Chimes Funeral Home for visitation on Monday, April 10, 2017 from 6 – 9 p.m., and on Tuesday April 11, 2017 from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. The service will be held on Tuesday April 11, 2017 at 2 p.m., with a reception to follow. Cremation will follow and his final resting place will be at Westlawn Memorial Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Canadian Mental Health Association or the Edmonton SPCA.
