Final Version

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

7) Sarah (Hannah) Brown[assumed to be a Hannah from property division.]: 03 and 15

Connection of Sarah w/o John Brown is being made as the cemetery inscriptions do now show the year of death for Sarah w/o John Brown. Very poor proof, need much more.(AEK)

This division of property would indicate that other children shown as descendants of James Hannah are either incorrect or had died leaving no issue prior to the death of James and Mercy Hannah. More research is required on this topic(AEK)

The major concern found with the data from the land division is the presence of a Sarah Brown who was unknown prior to this document. Subsequent findings have shown that John Brown was the son of Daniel Brown and Abigail Wardwell.

Notes for John Brown:

The dates of b/d may not be correct for John Brown, s/o Daniel Brown. The information is from Cemetery transcriptions for a cemetery in the same area as Daniel Brown had his Land Grant.

Kirk McColl Church Records shows the following:

"John Brown from the Old Ridge was buried 22 May 1825". Is this the John Brown shown here ???!

Possible land grants received by John Brown(These must be checked to see if this is the correct person)

Land Grant Index

John Brown, 19 3rd Div. Hayman Hill, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., 110.0 acres, 6 Mar. 1815, Vol. ROL, No. 748

John Brown, 6E Basswood Ridge, Saint James Parish, Charlotte C., 200.0 acres, 5 Feb. 1812, Vol. F, No. 567

The following email segment was received from Joan Hannah on 9 Aug. 2006:

" I have a probate for John Brown but it is very hard to read .. His wife Rebecca gets 30 pounds, use of house for a year, all furniture, beddings belonging to her and what she made or acquired since the marriage, one cow and pew in Baptist Church..

Son James Brown and daughters 25 pounds... Son Daniel Brown the farm and all stock and pew in the methodist Chapel at the Ledge"

Based on the following information it appears that the Rebecca Thomson that John Brown married is the daughter of Dougald Thomson of St. Andrews Parish. This is based on the following:

1) Rebecca uses the name Thomson which is consistent with the family of Dougald Thomson.

2) Rebecca is from St. Andrews Parish where the Rebecca Thompson/Thomson d/o Dougald Thomson lived.

3) It appears that Rebecca might be Baptist as she received the pew in the Baptist Church in the Will of John Brown. The family of Dougald Thomson were Baptist and Adam Duncan Thom(p)son was a Baptist Minister.

4) If Rebecca d/o Dougald Thomson had been looking after her mother, Experience, in her older years then upon the death of Experience on 15 Jan. 1846 she would have completed her commitment.

More research required to determine the parentage of Rebecca. This note is also being added the the notes for Rebecca Thomson, d/o Dougald Thomson.

d. St. David parish (Charlotte Co.) 31st, John CLENDENIN froze to death.

I have just received copies of 2 land petitions that include John Clendinin.

One in 1821, Where it states Andrew Clindinin was born in NH, has a wife and 10 children and that he is 53 years old...(makes him born c 1768 in NH) and he has lived in St David 35 (since 1786) years. This would make him Capt Andrew Clendenin ? 10 Children by 1821.. There must be more we haven't discovered.....!

"John Clendinin, born in St David, lived there his entire life. is married and has two children". Has bought property and has never received land from the Crown.. ( John married to Catherine Hannah had two children by this date..!.)

The second petition... Apr 19 1825 John Clindinnin, of St David is married with five children, and 33 years old (thus born c 1792 ) and never received property from the Crown.. In 1817 (John's marriage year Jul 31, 1817) he purchased land from James Brown in St David..., who had purchased it from Robert Hitchings, who purchased it from one of the persons allotted ... Which is now part of the reserve # 2 and contains about 2 hundred acres, He has been unable to obtain a grant of vacant Crown land in the vicinity of his family who were all settled on said reserve.....

By 1825 John Clendenin (married to Catherine Hannah b. 1799,) had 5 children...! It still fits.....!!!

The Clindinins lived in St. David on the Clindinin Ridge, as it was then called. The ridge is made up of lands in the Reserve lying west of the lots in the Penobscot grant fronting on the westerly shore of Oak Bay. Here was the homestead. There were four sons, John CLINDININ, Andrew CLINDININ, William CLINDININ and Alexander CLINDININ. (I do not remember the father's name) and two daughters. One married ELLIOTT and the other her cousin, David V. CLINDININ. Andrew, William and Alexander lived on the Riage, married, and to them were born sisters and daughters. On the road from Moores Mills to Oak Bay, passing the Cook distract, tends generally in a southerly direction to the McKnight farm. Here it bends southeasterly for some half a mile, then again resumed the southerly direction. Here on the northern side of the road lived John CLINDININ sixty years ago. Next along the lot adjoining resided Patrick MURPHY; still further, some two or three lots intervening, was, and is to this day the James SMITH homestead. Here also, was a parting of the ways, one southerly, continuing to Oak Bay, the other southerly over the Clindinin Ridge to the road from St. Stephen to Oak Bay. John Clindinin married a Miss HANNAH from the Ledge and to them were born seven children: Matthew CLINDININ, Maria CLINDININ, Mary Ann CLINDININ, Andrew CLINDININ, Robert CLINDININ, Bathalina CLINDININ and Alexander CLINDININ. John Clindinin had a quarrel with a neighbor and the danger real or fancied so impressed him that he always carried a pistol. One short winter day he went to St. Stephen, then almost entirely called 'Schoodiac' on business and it was far spent before he was ready to take the road for home. Then he missed his pistol - he had probably left it at home. He dared not go back by the usually travelled road - that from St. Stephen to Oak Bay partly, thence by Clindinin Ridge - he might meet his enemy or be waylaid, so he took another more circuitous road to Tourtlotte's, thence by the road as now travelled to the residence of Wm G. Maxwell, then owned by John Burns and afterwards by John McAdam. Here he stopped and had some talk with Johnnie. A very wild and severe snow storm having begun and the dusk of evening day fast approaching, Johnnie tried to persuade him to stop till morning, not to attempt the dangers of the storm and the way. But he made light of these conditions and went on into the blinding storm and approaching darkness. From Burns the road continued north through fields and pasture lands, some third of a mile and through a young growth of soft and hard woods with ever present alder swamps at every brook crossing, on the westerly side of the Dana stream, about 2 1/2 miles to the crossing of the stream on an old cordoroy bridge opposite the side hill road from the then John Hitchings farm, afterwards Abram H. Marks and passing the Billie Allen log house, that being then and now the only home on the whole way of between three and four miles. The next day Clindin had not reached home. Search was organized. He was traced to Burns and was eventually found within sight of the house, three or four rods from the road, lying beside a large fallen hemlock, the place being lng pointed out afterwards. Bewildered in the storm and darkness, he probably wandered round and round till far into the night, for he was of healthy, strong and vigorous constitution and long held in the battle for life, but here he lay cold in death. Of the family of John Clindinin, Matthew CLINDININ followed the sea. He was in the West India trade out of St. Stephen as first mate. He resided at the Ledge and had a high character as a capable and able seaman. Another followed the sea, sailing as skipper in the coasting trade out of Calais. With the other sons I was not acquainted after their boyhood. Maria and Bathalina married two men, brothers of the name of ALBEE in Machias, Me. and resided there and Mary Ann married John MILBERRY of Old Ridge, St. James. - John E. MOORE, Lewiston, Me., May 1896

Marriage Notes for Catherine Hannah and Leander Mitchell:

The following email segment was received from Joan Hannah, 2 Aug 2011:

This is a scan of Catherine Hannah's deed. A portion of the James Hannah estate. It looks here as though Catherine's husband is called Thomas ?

The date is Aug 26 1839 , so we know they were married by this date.. It was in book R and recorded Sept 7 1839 640-641

I didn't copy the deeds to the siblings but I am sure it would be written in the same way listing the other siblings and their spouses. To be sure of Mitchells name, one should get the other deeds where he should be listed.

Notes for William Hannah:

Kirk McColl Church records show that Wm is the son of James Hannah, Jr. No record has been found for a William s/o James Hannah, Sr. However, on looking at the Kirk McColl Records again it could be that the person wrote James Hannah Jnr then overwrote it with Snr. If you look at the link shown below, the J comes through as the loop goes way below the base line while the way the S is written is best seen by looking at the names shown under S or the 3rd last line where the name of John Smith is shown. The way that the J is written is not like the J in James but is more like the S in Smith on the same page but the J was written first so this confuses the whole thing. I am making the change to James Hannah, Sr. based on this!!

Notes for John Chisholm, Sr.:

NOTE: John could possibly had more than one wife as one researcher shows the name of Hugh Chisholm (1800-1880) with a wife of Jane Veasie/Veasey(1805-1885) as the parents of John Franklin Chisholm, Sr.(1831-1920). Some of this info seems to fit but no sources are shown and nobody by the name of Jane Chisholm is found in any of the census as John/Hugh Chisholm is a widower in the 1851 and subsequent census. This line is shown as Chisholm, Br-02 to keep the info on the line.

Microfilm F4191

Names on petition(1821) are: John Chisholm, James Grimmer, Thomas Grimmer, Denis Post, and James Post

The following is a reference to the earliest settler with the name of Chisholm in St. James Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. Name is John Chisholm:

"In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell."

This is from the following article shown on the St. James webpage:

OAK HILL

Oak Hill was given this name because of a large oak tree on the top of Buchanan Hill now called Grimmer's Mountain.

The early settlers came from England, Scotland, Ireland and the United States. Most of them farmed or lumbered. Others were blacksmiths, tailors, shoemakers, school teachers, post masters, mail drivers and Justices of the Peace.

Through the years, some of the jobs held by the people living on Oak Hill have included: a surveyor, doctors, nurses, bookkeepers, a cabinet minister, veterinarian, transport drivers, a forest ranger, welders and machinists.

In 1825, James Buchanan applied to the English government for a grant of land for himself and his neighbours, John Chisholm, Henry McKay, Hiram Jenkins, William McCann, Mr. Cook, Mr Barber and Mr. Maxwell.

The first industry was cutting ton timber or English deal which was 40 feet long and 12 inches square. This was large pine logs roughly hewn. It was shipped to England.

The first post office was at James Buchanan's. Mail was carried once a week from St.Stephen. William McCann was Post Master for more than forty years in his home. The last post office was at Frank Cook's. Mail was brought from Moore's Mills three times a week.

Through the years, Oak Hill has had the Herb Fraser Blacksmith Shop, the Allen Parker Store, the Arthur Armstrong store which was later owned by Gaston Rideout, Philip Haley and Arden Johnston and the Theo Sabine store. The community also had the Walter McGaw Gas Station, Philip Haley Sawmill, Harry Christie Dairy Farm, now owned by his son Fred Christie. Fred Russell Dairy Farm later owned by his son Melvin Russell: Steven and Jeffrey Smith Welding and Machine Shop and Ron and Donnie Cook Ski-Doo Snowmobile Shop.

There is a dam on Green Brown Brook built by Duck's Unlimited. This is on land once owned by Edward Russell and now owned by Layton Russell. Ski slopes have been cleared and a lift put in place. This is on land once owned by Samuel Parker and Peter McGaw.

(Editors Note: The ski hill has now been replaced by a church organization which holds summer camps among other events).

Clark of Milltown conducting the services. L.A. MILLS, J.B. ROBINSON, John F. GRANT and M. McGOWAN were pall bearers. Conflict: Kirk McColl church records trascribed by Melvin Chase show the dob as 27 Oct. 1846 and a Mathew Sidney son of the same parents dob of 20 May 1847. This must be in error as there is only 7 months between these two births.

The 1851 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., p1, shows a William (middle initial difficult to read), age 6, s/o John and Mary Ann Milberry.

Result: dob for William being set as 27 Oct. 1845 and NOT 1846.(AEK)

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in all phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

Capt. Beverly L. MITCHELL of Bacobec (Charlotte Co.) while going from St. Andrews to his home Saturday morn. was knocked overboard from his vessel and drowned just off the sand reef in Passamaquoddy Bay. The jib sheet parted and in an effort to secure it, the captain was struck by the loose canvas and thrown overboard. The young men with him made every effort to rescue him. As the sea was very rough and the wind high, Capt. Mitchell very soon perished. It is probable the body will never be recovered. Capt. Mitchell was slightly passed fifty years of age and leaves a family of twelve children, most of whom are full grown.

Notes from WG database:

Leander Mitchell , a sea captain, drowned from his own vessel in Passamaquaddy Bay, being caught in the Anchor when it was thrown overboard, his body was never recovered.

m. Methodist Parsonage, Oak Bay (Charlotte Co.) 10th June, by Rev. C.H. Manaton, Colin J. HANNAH / Ida R. HUNTER, both of Dufferin

Notes for Nellie Brickley:

The following email segment was received from Joanie Hannah, 4 June 2007:

It appears a "Mrs Colin Hannah" died Jan 23 1905 at San Francisco, bur SF, age 36, born NB...."her husband was the first officer on the "Pomona" ' (DT art 29 Jan 1905)

This is from a lady who does Genealogy look-ups in the Humboldt Rm, Eureka Library..

According to the 1920 CA census records Colin's wife ' Rose' was born in CA. If you subtract Mrs Colin Hannah's age, she was born abt 1868 which is pretty close to Ida's (for News Papers..!) Anyway, If this was the first wife of our Colin J Hannah.. It gives us a question Mark?

Obit:

Warren M. Dow - 1951

The death of Warren Dow occurred at his home on King Street with shocking suddenness Friday evening, less than two hours after he had been stricken by heart seizure. Earlier in the evening, in his usual good health, he had spent some time calling on patients in the hospital.

Devoted To Good

His passing was learned with regret by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the County, for few enjoyed a better reputation. A thorough Christian he carried into personal and business relationships the high principles, on which his life was based and strove to exemplify the tribute, "He Went about doing good." With strength of character and devotion to duty he combined qualities of manhood which earned the respect of all about him.

Mr. Dow was born in St. George, April 1, 1897, a son of the late Harley and Eva (Mitchell) Dow, but for most of his life lived in St. Stephen where he was active in lodge and church work. For 31 years he was employed by W.B. Sampson, for many years as foreman of the garage. In April 1946 in partnership with Ralph McNeill, he stepped into active management when the new firm of Dow & McNeill took over the Sampson car agency and garage business.

Mr. Dow was married June 28, 1922, to Lillian Spinney of St. George, who survives him with one son, Kenneth, an engineer employed by the Ford Motor Company in Windsor, Ontario.

Also surviving are three brothers, Earl and George Dow, both of New York, and a twin, Watson Dow of St. Stephen; and one sister, Mildred, Mrs. Milton Dines, Montreal. His father died in August 1950.

Mr. Dow was one of the strongest members of the Union Street Baptist Church, having taken active part in all branches of its work for many years and at the time of his death was chairman of the board of deacons. He was as well keenly interested in Miriam Lodge, IOOF, of which he was a past grand, and was also a past president of the St. Stephen Automobile Dealers Association.

The church was filled to overflowing for the funeral service, which was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L.E. Davis. In a brief tribute Mr. Davis pointed out the great loss which the church and community had sustained, and referred to his close personal associations with Mr. Dow. Members of Miriam Lodge attended in a body. Pallbearers were fellow deacons, Guy L. Clark, Sylvester E. McBride, and Fred E. Richardson and three members of Miriam Lodge, Rudolph Sanders, Jack Clark and John Weatherby. Two selections, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Face To Face," were sung by a male quartet comprised of Halton Bancroft, W.G. Dewolfe, Flavis Allen, and Alfred Burns. Burial took place in the family lot in the St. George Rural Cemetery.

Child of Warren Dow and Lillian Spinney is:

756 i. Kenneth<sup>6</sup> Dow, born Private.

They entertained friends and family alike at their Oak Bay cottage during the summer and spent several winters in Florida.

Frank was an avid angler and hunter and enjoyed re-telling stories about his adventures. He was a serious man with a tender heart when it came to his wife and children. Frank was a very social man who loved the company of good friends and his family. You knew where you stood with Frank.

Eric worked at several trades over his life. He was an Industrial Mechanic, appliance repair service man and worked at several sawmills around Charlotte County.

After retirement, due to illness, he took up woodworking in his shop and spent many hours there creating lighthouses and other cedar products which he sold at the markets.

Eric loved all his family but had a special bond with "the Girls" Beanna and Maddy. He loved to attend all their special school activities and loved to watch Brianna play hockey.

He loved to travel and spent many years camping with friends and 4-wheeling over the back roads with family and friends.

Eric was a proud member of Satellite Serenity AA group and had 28 years of continued sobriety in the program. He made many friends over the years through the program and cherished everyone of them. Although he had many illnesses over the years he fought each one bravely to his last breath.

For those who wish remembrances to Charlotte County Cancer Society or charity of ones choice would be appreciated by his family.
