Final Version

Introduction

This eBook covers only a small portion of the descendants of the Hanson line.

The surname Hanson was created by an act of the British Parliament in 1330.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Notes for Daniel Hill I:

Ninth child of Joseph and Abigail (Libby) Hill. (This does not seem correct, unless other children died young.)(AEK)

First permanent white resident of Calais, ME. Came from Jonesport in 1779. (Knowlton, p8/Beginnings)

The following notes are from WG database:

Daniel Hill served with the British Army at Champlain, and moved to Machias, Maine in 1763 with the "Sixteen Associates" to begin the settlement of Machias. In 1879 he moved from Jonesport to Calais. Daniel was piloted through the woods by an Indian guide and it is believed that he was the first permanent white settler in the Calais area. Daniel built a cabin near where the Ferry Point Bridge is now located. He was soon followed by other settlers and soon a settlement sprung up at the head of the St. Croix.

Daniel Hill, along with Jacob Libby and Jeremiah Frost erected and operated the first saw mill of this area at the mouth of Porters (now called Dennis Stream) stream. He also was the first settler to become involved in the lumber business and to use oxen as beasts of burden in this trade.

It is written in "The Settlement of the St. Croix Valley" by Rev. I.C. Knowlton, that Daniel Hill was a man of great strength, agility, and fearlessness, also was an ingenious, energetic and moral man."

A probable cousin of Daniel Hill was Japhet Hill of Machias who moved to Calais around 1780 and was engaged in farming. One of his grandchildren was Keziah Hill who turns up on the McAdam side of the family, more will be told of her later.

Daniel Hill was living on what he thought was the British side of the river at Frost's Mills in 1784, but on finding he was still on American soil he obtained a grant for land from King George III, and during that year went over the river with his boys and cleared some land on Hill's Point. He did not plant or sew any seeds on Hill's Point in 1784 but planted in 1785.

Another source quoted from "The History of Scarborough" by Southgate:

In 1762 the crops were almost wholly cut off by a remarkable drought. It was this circumstance which led to the settlement of Machias. They not only found (in Machias) an abundant supply of salt hay, but a fine water power at the head of tide water navigation, surrounded by unbroken forests of timber. In May 1763 the 16 settled Machias, 13 of them from Scarborough: Samuel Scott, Sylvanus Scott, (brothers), Timothy Libby, David Libby, George Libby (brothers), Daniel Hill, Japhet Hill (brothers), Isaiah Foster, Westbrook Berry, Isaac Larrabee, Daniel Fogg, all of Scarborough; Thomas Buck of Plymouth, Capt. of a coaster, Jonathan Carlton of Sheepscot, and Wm Jones of Portsmouth, N.H. making sixteen in all.

Northwest Passage

The Rogers Rangers & Daniel Hill

Pioneer of Calais

From An Issue Of The Saint Croix Courier

"Northwest Passage" that magnificent technicolor picture made from the outstanding historical novel of the same name will be shown here shortly. It is the story of the Col. Robert Rogers, the renowned Indian fighter and his company of border Rangers, and includes the terrible attack on the Indian village of St. Francis in 1759. For Calais and St. Stephen the picture should have an added interest, for it has always been understood that the pioneer settler of Calais, Daniel Hill, was a member of this redoubtable company and took a part in its exploits. When the French-Indian warfare came to an end, Hill left his native town of Scarboro on the Maine-New Hampshire border and as a member of the "Sixteen Associates" began the settlement of Machias in 1762.

In 1779, Hill came through the woods to the St. Croix guided by an Indian. A little later he built a cabin on Ferry Point, and installed his family. They probably made the trip by water in one of the little coasting vessels bringing with them their modest household goods.

The notes of James Vroom inform us that:

"Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist though not a member of the Loyalist Association. After it was decided that the St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was disposed by the Massachusetts authorities, and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the Parish of Dufferin." Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

When the "Annals of Calais and St. Stephen" were written in the early eighteen-seventies, the author, Rev. I.C. Knowlton, the Universalist minister at Calais, was able to talk with persons whose lives had touched those of the pioneers in this valley. Of Daniel Hill he writes:

"Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quoddies having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him."

It was a tradition among Daniel Hill's descendents that he had a belt of Indian scalps he was accustomed to don at times for the purpose of overawing the Passamaquoddies. Certainly if the Indians knew that he had been at the attack on St. Francis he would be held in fear, or the Abenakis of that village were kin of the Passamaquoddy tribe, who were also of the Abenaki, or Wabenaki as it is sometimes spelt.

I do not know whether there is a complete list of men who were with Rogers when the village o St. Francis was attacked, so cannot say that there is actual proof that Hill took part in the destruction. But as you will probably see by the picture, and as the following account relates it was an excellent opportunity to accumulate such a trophy. I do not think there is any doubt that Daniel Hill was a member of Rogers Rangers for that was the famous company of Indian fighters. Hill had been reared on a frontier that since the beginning of settlement had been exposed to merciless attacks by the French and their Indian allies.

The Old French War as it was generally called, in the colonies, but better known in history as the Seven Years war, ended by the Treaty of Paris in 1763, the year the "Sixteen Associates" went to begin the settlement at Machais.

A road as to the village of St. Francis:

There were four tribes or divisions of the Wabenaki or Abenakis--the Penobscots, the Passamaquoddies, the St. John River Tribe and another, said to have been scattered and merged in other tribes, but at that time probably was represented by the Abenakis of Becancour and St. Francis.

From the Notes of James Vroom:

Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist, though not a member of the Loyalist Assn. After it was decided that St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was dispossessed by the Massachusetts authorities and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the parish of Dufferin. Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

Daniel Hill

From "Annals of Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, N.B. by Rev. I.C. Knowlton - "The first permanent white resident of Calais was Daniel Hill. He came here from Jonesport in 1779. A report had been circulating in Machias and vicinity for several years that near the head of the on the St. Croix, there was an abundance of pine, timber, fish and game that the river up to this point, was navigable for large vessels. Several persons talked of migrating to this Promised Land; and at length Mr. Hill piloted by an Indian, came through the woods to Calais. On arriving he perceived at once that the country was even better than the report indicated. Deciding to locate he built a cabin where the Gravel Pit now is, on Union Mills street, and cleared a small patch of land on Ferry Point. His oldest son, Thomas Hill, who was born January 20th, 1773 and who lived almost a century, often said that when he was about six years old, he saw his father fell the first tree that was ever cut in Calais. He was probably mistaken in relation to its being the first tree felled; but he saw his father chopping down trees on Ferry Point, and no doubt he was correct respecting his age at that time. His statement therefore fixes the date of the first permanent settlement. It was in 1779. Other persons from Machias and vicinity, very soon after, either that year or the next, joined Mr. Hill and made the settlement a neighborhood. But the permanent beginning was in 1779, and the Centennial of Calais will therefore occur in the summer of 1879.

Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quaddys having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him.

A few years after he came here, he joined Jacob Libbey and Jeremiah Frost, in building a sawmill. It stood on Porter's Stream, near its mouth, and was the first mill ever erected in this vicinity. The number of men at the "rising" was so small, that the ladies were obliged to end all their strength in lifting the heavy timbers. Without their aid the frame could not have been set up. Mr. Hill also imported the first oxen and first engaged in lumbering. He was an ingenious, energetic and moral man; and he so trained his children that his posterity largely inherit his qualities.

Hanson Lineage

More About Sarah Hanson:

Baptism: 12 July 1810, Age 1 yr. (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.)

Notes for James N. Waldron:

The James N Waldron who married Sarah Hanson appears to have married first, Sarah, d/o Stephen Hanson and Sarah Libby. This Sarah was baptized in 1810 at the age of 1 yr. born 1808-1809. The second Sarah Hanson who married James Waldron on 17 Mar. 1829, eloped, lived in Maine. This Sarah was the d/o Daniel Hanson and Mary Haley. Ages of children in 1840 census are consistent with the marriage year of 1829.

The following census information may not be for the correct James N. Waldron but the birth location of the wife fits that of Sarah Hanson. However, her age does not fit with the one born 1814 as she is 39 yrs old in 1850. Will track this family to see if the age changes.

Ref:

1840 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p51, frame 17/17, 1 male 20- <30, Next house is an Abraham Waldron, age 60-70, look like it might be the father of James.

1850 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p209/105A, frame 9/40, taken 21 Aug. 1850, age 45

1860 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p24-25, frame 24-25/960, taken 11 June 1860, age 56

1870 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p22/81B, frame 22/39, taken 22 June 1870, age 63. This looks strange as it might be a different James Waldron. Middle name does not look like a "N" in al previous census.

shows Sarah Maxwell/ wife of / James Maxwell/ died/ Aug 15, 1831/ Aged 88.

The information shown above on the Loyalist Cemetery was also published in "Generations", the Journal of the New Brunswick Genealogy Society, Issue 64, Summer 1995, p23-24. Same information on Sarah as shown above.

Actual stone information is different than what is shown in the documents by Robert F. Fellows:

- 1) Mr. James Maxwell d Aug 2? 1847 age 85
- 2) Elizabeth w/o James Maxwell d Aug 15 1853 age 88
- 3) Sarah w/o James Maxwell d Apr ?7 183?

I have personally seen the tombstone, located to the right of the main entrance to the Loyalist Cemetery, front row, and since the top of the stone is broken and mended with a piece iron bar, it is difficult to read, but the information as shown above is present.

Notes for Charlotte Hill:

There is some confusion with this Charlotte Hill, is she the daughter of Daniel Hill, Sr. or Daniel Hill, Jr. ? It would appear that she must be the daughter of Daniel Hill, Jr. as Charlotte d/o Daniel Hill, Sr. was already married in 1794 to Alexander Thompson so she would not be known as "Charlotte daughter of Daniel Hill born .... St. David" in 1797. No date of birth is shown in the Kirk McColl Church Records, only St. David as the place of birth. This location verified as Daniel Hill, Jr. had land at Hills Point, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co.

Notes for Samuel Milberry III:

Information on this family line is very difficult to keep track of and determine if the proper parent is being used as the Kirk McColl Church records only show the name of the father and no mention is made of the mother. If anyone has information from Wills, Land Transactions, or other sources that indicate errors in the connections that I show then please send me an email indicating the changes with the supporting evidence. This will be added as notes to that individual so that a more clear and concise record may be developed.

The following email was received from Rick Milbury, 30 Dec 2010:

I am a descendant of the Milbury's from York Maine with Samuel Milbury b.1747 and went to Machias and settles in St. Stephens. I just want to add and assist in a Milbury you have listed who is a Thomas Milbury who married Nancy Dyer dau. of Jonas Dyer. Thomas is incorrect and it actually is Timothy. Please consider the notes below from an email I had sent to a fellow genealogist.

Nathaniel Milbury son of Samuel b. 1747 and Mary Polly Hill eh Wrong! Nathaniel was Nathan Dyer Milbury and his brother George Milbury were sons of Timothy Milbury and Nancy Dyer (dau. of Jones Dyer of Machias Me.) I feel this to be true because I have...

1. Both "Nancy Milbury an adult" and "Nathan Dyer son of Mr. Milbury" being Baptized at St. Andrews Anglican Church, June 1, 1800 on the same day and time. I have a copy available if you like. That would make Nancy 35 years old and Nathan 4 years old at Baptiziam.

2. Nancy Milbury buried in Lower Wicklow Cemetery near Nathan Milbury's stone and her stone says ."Nancy Milbery wife of Timothy" "Died 10 February 1847 age 82" which would make her birth date 1765 - same as Timothy Milbury

3. Nancy's brother Nathan Dyer died shortly before her sons birth, giving him (her child) her brother's name? possibly.

There was a Timothy Milbury b.1765 Son of Samuel Milbury Sr.b.1723 and Dorcus Came from York , York Maine. This is the only Timothy Milbury known to me that fits. Timothy is Samuel's b.1747 younger half brother.

Hanson Lineage

It is my theory that Samuel b. 1747 went north with his first wife Elizabeth Sayward both from York Maine for work and opportunity in Machias Maine. She died and he remarried widow Sara Trafton. They and their combined kids all moved to St. Stephen 1779/80. Sara dies before 1790 and Samuel remarries a third time to Mary (Polly) Hill. About this time I assume that Samuel sent word back for brother Timothy to come up for work or join him in his moderate lumber mill. The tie-in is the family of Jones Dyer who lived in Machias while Samuel Milbury and family were there. They (Dyer's) migrated further north too and are recorded in St. Stephen and St. Andrews records.

Nancy Dyer born 1765 Scarboro Maine, her parents lived there before moving to Machias ME, following the lumber trade there and then with the close of the war followed the trade up to St. Stephen N.B.

NOW HERE IS THE ONLY CATCH..Both Nathan and Georges obits states they were born or from Salem MA. Even their children stated on Marriage Certificates that their fathers came from Salem Ma. No Way! George joined the 114 Regiment at age 10 +/- (it's in my notes) and Nathan request for Crown Land Grants which were granted, stated that he was born in St. Andrews N.B. My guess is that Timothy - Samuel 1/2 brother, shamed the family some how or abandoned them or committed suicide or something ...for the sons to to re write their past ?odd? Believe me, I checked and rechecked with Salem Archives and found nothing for Milbury / Milberry / Millberry/ Milbery, nothing ! I could be mistaken but I'll need more time to dig.

And I now believe their children to be:

George Milbery b.16 December 1792 m. Catherine Avery lived in Kent Co N.B.Canada

Nathan Dyer Milbery b. 1796 m. Marjorie Squires lived in Wicklow N.B.Canada

Best of all .... I have a copy of the tin photos of George and Catherine Avery Milbury but unfortunately none of brother Nathan D. Milbury.

A Pleasant Birthday Party

Hanson Lineage

Last Friday, August 12, 1904, a pleasant affair transpired at the home of Mrs. Caroline Hill on Prairie avenue, being the figure of time pointed on life's dial her 71st birthday had arrived, years of along useful and pleasant life gone by.

Mrs. Hill with her mild, aimable disposition made a very happy home and her children realized and appreciate a mothers love and devotion to them, and in return they are happy in giving her every attention possible.

So on this occasion they invited together brother and sisters, nieces, nephews and with grandchildren they came a successful surprise party.

They found Mrs. Hill ready for town as she said she thought some of the country folks might be in, and she wanted to make a little preparation and for Sabbath. But when she saw them unloading the baskets of roast chicken and boiled ham she changed her mind. It is useless to attempt to tell what came in all those bundles but it was easily know the big tub contained ice cream. And when a group of nearly forty gathered in the yard and were quiet, we knew there must be an instrument somewhere for taking pictures. We saw the beautiful rocker from the children and many other useful gifts from relatives.

The afternoon was spent in one round of pleasure, and before their departure for home each guest, great and small, wrote their names, so grandma could remember who came to make her heart glad on the turning of another mile stone on life's journey. The names are as follows: Rev. John B. Reinhardt of Harvey, Ill., Mrs. Hill's children, Mr. Howard B. Hill, Lorin S. Hill, Mrs. Anna Paxton; sisters and brother, Mrs. Susan Jones, Mrs. Mary Gates, Taylor Warne; brother in law, Asel Gates; grandchildren, Miss Florence Paxton, Miss Maud and Earl H. Paxton, Miss Vera Hill, Miss Fern, Mildred, Bernice and Harrold B. Hills; daughters and son in law, Mrs. Nettie E. Hill, Mrs. Nellie P. Hill and Fred Paxton; nieces and nephews, Mrs. Carrie Hill and son Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warne, Mrs. Wesley Gary, Mrs. D.E. Bartholomew, Mrs. Wesley Morgan, Mr and Mrs. Samuel Warne, daughter Lucinda; Burton Blackman; friends, Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Desrosier, Mrs. M.A. Jones, Mrs. Hannah Olmstead.

The baptism in 1797 that was attributed to this Charlotte (Hill) Thompson was in error as Charlotte was married to Alexander Thompson in 1794 and would not have been known as "daughter of Daniel Hill, born ...[not date given] St. David. This Charlotte Hill was born in Machias. The Charlotte Hill referred to in the baptism in 1797 must be d/o Daniel Hill, Jr. who was in St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB

Notes for John Hopps, Jr.:

The Penobscot Loyalists List of 1784 shows one John Hopp in the list of children 10+, neither parents are shown on the list. There are no children 10- shown as they must have travelled via a different method than those shown on the list.

The John Hopp, age 10+ in 1784, cannot be this John Hopps as John was born in Charlotte Co. after the Loyalists arrived. The one listed might be an older brother that died before this John was born.

The Isaac Young, b 1777, has been disconnected from this family as he has been located in the 1850 census for WI with his wife Mary and their son Richard.

Who was the Isaac Young who married Sarah Hanson according to the Hanson genealogy report. Maybe it is a major error?????!!!!!! More research is required.

The following note refers to the Isaac Hanson and Mary Turner. Tried to contact Donna Davis. Result was the email bounced. Now to try and verify her findings. At least we have some census areas that can be looked at to verify the names and ages of the persons.(AEK)

The children with each wife may not be correctly shown as the marriage to Sarah Hanson is unknown right now other than his daughter Mary Ann, b 18 Mar. 1821 was the daughter of Sarah Hanson and Isaac Young. As more information becomes available the proper positioning will be done. I/we need your help in finding the information.

Isaac Young's tombstone inscription shows ae 93 yrs Adjacent stones are Hiram Hanson, d aug 21 1890 ae 75 yrs Mary Ann his wife died Nov 16 1902 ae 82 yrs. This would tend to indicate the Isaac Young, b 1777, IS the father of Mary Ann Young whose mother was Sarah Hanson. Was Isaac married first to Mary Turner then to Sarah Hanson the again to Mary Turner??? The plot thickens and the waters get muddier. Who knows the answers??

The source information used for "Sarah Hanson who was born ca 1787. She married Isaac Young, and their daughter Mary Ann married Hiram Hanson, son of Eliphalett." This comes directly from a document titled "The Ancestors and some Descendants of John Hanson of Bocabec" These are the same two people shown above, indicating that Isaac Young was closely connected to the Hanson line. This information is a MAJOR ERROR in the above named document. Subsequent finding in PANB Vital Statistics from New Brunswick Newspapers has shown that the Sarah Hanson b 1787 is not a daughter of John Hanson but the Sarah Hanson, b 1757-1758, that married Ephraim Young is the daughter of John Hanson.

Mary, age 3, b WI

This is sufficient proof to show that this Isaac, b 1777, married to Mary Turner, b 1778 is not the one that married Sarah Hanson as his wife Mary is still alive and with him in the 1850 census, unless he fathered the child by Sarah Hanson and was not married to her.?????!!!!!! Another cenario is that Isaac left Mary and went with Sarah for a number of years as there are no children born to Mary and Isaac during the period 1813-1824 when Richard is born, assuming that he is the son of Isaac and Mary. After his daughter Mary Ann, b 1821, d/o Sarah Hanson he must have gone back to his first wife Mary. The other puzzling thing is that he is buried in the Bocabec Baptist Cemetery with Mary Ann and her husband, which would indicate that he is the father of Mary Ann Young that married Hiram Hanson.

The following email segment was received from Shirley Cloar, 11 May 2009:

William Turner bought 400 acres between the 5th and 6th concession, now hwy #7, the 5th is now Whitevale Road. The land was considered in the 5th concession because it was on the north side of the road. I have a 1877 map of Pickering Twp., up on the NE corner is where Isaac Turner & Ann Vardon are living on 25 acres. There is a C. Lott on another 25 acres beside Isaac, I don't know who Lott is. The land near Whitevale hasn't changed much in the last 30 years or so, the Ontario government bought up thousands of acres for a new Toronto airport, the people fought it and won, some of the houses are rented or torn down (ours) and a lot of the land sits empty. But Whitevale was accepted as a historical hamlet so no matter what they do with the land it will not change.

PICKERING NEWS

December 13, 1889

Mr. Turner whose death was mentioned last week, was born in the year 1800 in New Brunswick near the city of St. Johns, in about 1840 with his wife and family the oldest boy being about 12 years, he moved to Pickering. He bought the two hundred acres on which he lived until he died. This he cleared by hard work and thrift, became wealthy, and divided his property equally among his ten children, all of whom are well to do and much respected members of society. Seven of these five sons and two daughters are all in Ontario while three are in Dakota. Mr. Turner was intellectual and well read and in his prime at times ably occupied the pulpit, where his good advise was profitable to all, and among the very foremost of temperance advocates in our township. He was a very intimate friend of our aged and much respected citizen Mr. Hector Beaton, who is now the oldest representative in our midst of those long ago days. In reviewing the past we find that as boys of eight to fourteen they listened to the recent triumphs of Napoleon Bonaparte, of Wellington and Waterloo, of the horrors of the war of 1812, of the battles of Lundy's Lane; as men in their prime at nearly forty they participated in the joys of Queen Victoria's coronation day, and the anxieties of the Papineau and Mckenzie Rebellion of '37 and as men ready to retire in life, read the accounts of the Storming of Sabastopol, and the lamentations of the United States slave war. Mr. Turner's remains were followed to their last resting place in the Methodist cemetery by a large concourse of friends and relatives, who all extend their sincerest sympathy to the bereaved wife and mother who has been his helpmate so many years. The pall bearers consisted of his five sons and a grandson. After the funeral the people drove to the Baptist chapel where a impressive service was conducted by Rev. Messrs. Trotter and Real.

You mght want this too from Past Years in Pickering. One of 2 Pickering history books. Only some of the children are mentioned, none from ND

TURNER. — William Turner was of U. E. L. stock and was born in 1801 in the parish of St. Patrick, New Brunswick. In 1828 he married Abigail Hanson and in 1841 they came to Upper Canada. In 1842 the family settled permanently on Lot 29, Con. 5. Mr. Turner had been licensed as a Baptist preacher in 1834, and when he came to Pickering conducted services for a time in his own house, then for a time in the school on the fifth concession and afterward for the Bible Christians until the organization of the Baptist Church in Whitevale. His family were: William Burpy, John Hanson and David Sylvester.

The following is from the Memoirs of Annie M. Holt:

On the other side of the road, a little beyond the school, stands the home of Rachel Turner and Daniel McCallum of Elmsville. They had no family. Rachel's parents were Mr. & Mrs. David Turner. His sons were Colin, who went to Newcastle, N.B. area, Douglas and Joshua, Saint John, Dorcas, one of the teachers to Saint John, where she married Henry Botterell. They lived at first in Saint John until Mr. Botterell moved to Montreal to join the firm of some uncles (furriers). He and Mrs. Botterell made two or more trips to England yearly to buy furs and Mrs. Botterell educated her sons in Edinburgh University and her daughters in Germany. Another sister was Mrs. Dadmun (Charlotte) who lived in Watertown, Mass. next town to Waltham, noted for its watch manufactures. Her family spent nearly all their summers in Bocabec.

I knew them all quite well. Edward was a Methodist minister in Virginia; Arthur in Y.M.C.A. work, lived in Syracuse, N.Y. and Arthur was a very fine musician: then Dora, only sister taught Greek and Latin for many years in Virginia. Mrs. McCallum (Aunt Rachel) had much religious zeal and became noted as an evangelist, travelling even as far as Ontario. Mr. McCallum had died young, and she had little means. Mrs. Botterell with her plenty, rebuilt the home and it became her property eventually. Once, many years ago, she brought nearly all her sons and daughters to spend a summer there and her youngest son Jack, spent nearly all his summers there, in his latter years, selling the place to Mr. John C. Veness of Fredericton, who had been Forestry Director in Fredericton for a long time. Mr. Veness had been afflicted in World War 1 with supertension hypertension, which caused much pain and long periods of inaction in bed. In one of these spells, he was taken to hospital (oxygen tents) in St. Stephen, but lived only a few hours. His widow lives there in summer, but after spending a few winters away-- in Worcester, Mass. and Edmonton, Alberta, she now goes to St. Andrews to be with her daughter, Mrs. Thurber, music instructor in St. Andrews. Another of David Turner family was Cecelia, who married a McCallum, brother of Rachel's husband, Daniel. Two sons, Peter and David McCallum, Charlotte, a fine nurse and Cecelia, wife of Will Johnston. McCallum's home was in Johnston Settlement, now Lower Elmsville. David was a millman in Nova Scotia. When David was killed, Peter went over and brought back Mrs. David and four daughters and placed them in an old McCallum home. Peter's wife was Etta Turner of Johnston's Settlement.

Members of nearly all the families liked the McCallum home. Miss Kate Turner with brother Allen's daughters, Susie and Muriel, were especially interested in the old place. One time Miss Kate Turner (teacher all her life in Saint John) had her sister Alice with Rev. Mrs. McCallum, had two men friends come from Toronto to visit and one in particular, who had recently recovered from a severe illness, came to get the benefit of the fine air Bocabec had to offer. He was Mr. Frederick Hodgson, who fell in love with Alice. They married and stayed on there all winter. He went into raising chickens-- had the first incubator known in Bocabec. They both were such wonderful people, we all felt sorry when they left Bocabec in a year or two and moved to a farm below Robbinston, Maine (South Perry). They later moved to Toronto. We also greatly admired Miss Kate. The history of that home is not complete without a mention of Kate and Alice. All these people were at our home so much, and correspondence still goes on with a few who are left.

The following was copied from an article shown on an Ancestry.com webpage contributed by Ruby Jane Myers:

"Clark Hanson, one of the oldest men in this section, died at his home with his grandson, Leonard E. Keen of Swanville Nov 4th, aged 93 years and 7 months. [He was born in Hancock county and spent his early manhood in Sullivan.] {He was born in New Brunswick, Canada}

He bought a farm in Lincoln and engaged in farming and lumbering on a large scale. Subsequently he moved to Hampden and again to Swanville, owning a good farm in both places. His Lincoln farm is still in possession of one of his daughters. He married Nancy J. Hatch of Vassalboro, who died ten years ago. His daughter Mrs. Rosa Keen with whom he was living died last July and he has since remained on the farm with his [grand]son Leonard. He leaves two sons and one daughter. William C. Hanson of Houlton, Wisc., Mrs. Maria J. Perry of Lincoln, and ex-Mayor Edgar F. Hanson of Belfast. He was a man of sterling integrity, holding the respect of all who knew him. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, Rev. Geo. E. Tufts of Islesboro officiating. The internment was in the cemetery near his late home.

Republican Journal, November 14, 1901"

Whoever wrote this article did not know where Clark Hanson was born as the 1850 Census clearly shows that he was born in New Brunswick. Based on this, it is entirely possible that he was married twice and had another daughter Laura Hannah Hanson that was born 1821-1825. The 1821 is probably incorrect but 1824-1825 is more reasonable.

She married James N. Waldron 17 September 1829 in Charlotte Co., NB (Source: "CCMR:Charlotte County Marriage Registers, Charlotte Co., NB," p200.), son of <Abraham> Waldron and ? ????. 1870 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p22/81B, frame 22/39, taken 22 June 1870, age 59, b New Brunswick

Based on the tracking information, it appears that this Sarah was born 1810-1811 and not 1813-1814 as would be the case of Sarah Hanson d/o Daniel Hanson and Mary Haley.

Notes for James N. Waldron:

The James N Waldron who married Sarah Hanson appears to have married first, Sarah, d/o Stephen Hanson and Sarah Libby. This Sarah was baptized in 1810 at the age of 1 yr. born 1808-1809. The second Sarah Hanson who married James Waldron on 17 Mar. 1829, eloped, lived in Maine. This Sarah was the d/o Daniel Hanson and Mary Haley. Ages of children in 1840 census are consistent with the marriage year of 1829.

The following census information may not be for the correct James N. Waldron but the birth location of the wife fits that of Sarah Hanson. However, her age does not fit with the one born 1814 as she is 39 yrs old in 1850. Will track this family to see if the age changes.

Ref:

1840 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p51, frame 17/17, 1 male 20- <30, Next house is an Abraham Waldron, age 60-70, look like it might be the father of James.

1850 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p209/105A, frame 9/40, taken 21 Aug. 1850, age 45

1860 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p24-25, frame 24-25/960, taken 11 June 1860, age 56

1870 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p22/81B, frame 22/39, taken 22 June 1870, age 63. This looks strange as it might be a different James Waldron. Middle name does not look like a "N" in al previous census.

He was born 10 January 1802 in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.), and died 21 May 1886 (Source: TI: Tombstone Inscriptions.).

Notes for Mary A. Hanson:

NOTE!! It appears that the Tombstone date of birth is in error by one year or this Mary Hanson is not the correct one that married Stephen Libby. However, the location of these people all fit with this being the correct family as Elizabeth Ann Hanson that married Jones Dyer Jackson lived just a short distance away from the Libby family in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.

The other reason for the discrepancy in dates might possibly be from an error in the Kirk McColl Church records that show Mary as age 2 and Sarah as age 1 in 1810 when it should have been shown as Sarah age 2 and Mary age 1. This would be more consistent with the fact that Sarah was married in 1824.

Notes for Lydia Maxwell:

The 1851 Census for St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p1, shows Lidia, age 16, as a daughter of Daniel Maxwell, age 62. Hill Maxwell, was married to Harriet Grimmer prior to 1851 and they had a daughter Lydia born 1849. It would appear that there is an error in the census and Lidia should be shown as the daughter of Hill and the age should be 16 months and not 16 years.

Hugh WILSON came from Ireland in 1819 (and he used to enjoy identifying this fact by stating that upon his arrival in Canada he learned that Victoria, England's later Queen, had been born.) Hugh landed at St. Andrews where he joined a sister who had preceded him to Canada. He also had two other sisters somewhere in New England. While at St. Andrews he married Elizabeth, called Eliz. Ann (HILL) and moved along the shore toward St. George and settled temporarily in the neighborhood of Bethel, Charlotte County. It is believed that Eliza Ann was born in New Brunswick. Here they met John and James CATHCART. Hugh WILSON and John CATHCART bought adjoining blocks of land on the old St. Andrew - Fredericton road in the Rollingdam area. The WILSONS coming first, arriving on horseback with their personal effects and settling in 1826; and the CATHCARTS following the next year in 1827. Hugh forthwith built his fine home which is used today.

The 1851 census reports the following children and ages: " James, 20; Sarah, 18; Ann M., 16; Mary, 13; Hugh, 11; Elenor, 7; and Hill, 4." There may have been others; also "ages" may only be approximate and thus require confirmation; but such information is always most helpful. (This family apparently was not related to the WILSONS of Sorrel Ridge (these came from England). Their grave markers read as follows; "Hugh WILSON (Dec. 25, 1797--October 27, 1887); Wife, Elisa Ann (Died February 20, 1878, age 76)" Hill M. WILSON (December 21, 1846--November 17, 1929); Wife, Annie (BELL) (October 14, 1845-January 9, 1918)"

1. Found Moses Hill in the 1871 census, living in St. David, Charlotte, N.B. He is 63 yrs old, born N.B. Religion is Church of England, origin English, occupation farmer, and he is a widower. The only person living with him is Harris Hill, age 33, born N.B. married, but in remarks column it is stated "parted from wife." I think this is the Harris Hill who was "adopted" by his uncle John B. and living with that family in 1851. He is probably the one who married Mary Blake.

2. Found three deeds in the name of Moses Hill:

A. Book 0, pp311-312: Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill No. 192 to James McCullough; Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte, Co, N.B. yeomen, for...5 pounds...paid by James McCullough of the same place, yeoman, have remitted...all our right, title, & interest to the following piece of land...in the parish aforesaid, being a part of lot #52 in the Penobscot Assoc. Grant and on which the said McCullough now resides, described as follows...westerly side of the highway & southernly line of a (paved? reserved?) to a reserve for public uses but since granted to McCullough...containing one acre...25 July 1835. signed Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill.

B. Book 0, pp 312-313: James McCullough No. 193 to Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill; James McCullough & Lucy McCullough of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte Co. N.B., for...42 pounds...paid by Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the same place...have sold...unto the said Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill...our title...to lot #52 situated in Parish aforesaid, bounding westerly by the River St. Croix, northerly by lot #53 now owned by James Russel...southerly by lot #51 now owned and occupied by Alexander McDowall being the same lot which the late Stephen Lawrence died seized and possessed of and on which we now reside... signed 20 July 1835. Witnesses to both of these deeds are CR Hatheway and CM Hatheway.

C. Book 20 pp77-78: No. 62 Moses Hill to Robert Towl: I Moses Hill of the Parish of St. David, Charlotte Co. N.B, farmer, for...the sum of $135 U.S. currency paid to me by Robert Towl of the Parish of St. David, etc..have sold...the following described premises: All that certain parcel of land containing by estimation 75 acres, .being a part of lot #89 and laying on the eastern side of Oak Bay & on the eastern side of the road leading from St. Andrews to St. Stephens and on the north of land owned by J.A. Simpson and on the south by land owned by David Smith, Jr., together with all the improvements on said land... signed Moses Hill 23 October 1871. Witness Joseph A. Simpson.

Conflict: Kirk McColl church records trascribed by Melvin Chase show the dob as 27 Oct. 1846 and a Mathew Sidney son of the same parents dob of 20 May 1847. This must be in error as there is only 7 months between these two births.

The 1851 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., p1, shows a William (middle initial difficult to read), age 6, s/o John and Mary Ann Milberry.

Result: dob for William being set as 27 Oct. 1845 and NOT 1846.(AEK)

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in all phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

Marriage Witnesses:

William E. McAllister and William Thompson

The lineage of A. H. Thompson has been proven. He is a son of Alexander. He was in business with Harrison Thompson which would tend to indicate a close relationship with the William s/o James line. However, he is not mentioned in the Will of William. Subsequent research has shown A. H. Thompson was a son of Alexander Thompson.

Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason

Another link with the storied past of this district was severed Monday March 6, 1933, with the passing of Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason, great-granddaughter of Daniel Hill, pioneer settler of Calais at the home of her nephew Adelbert Hill, at the Ledge. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Hill was born at the Ledge June 16, 1854, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, but following her marriage to William Nason took up residence at Oak Point where she remained until her husband's death. Later she returned to the Ledge to make her home with her sisters, the Misses Alma and Elizabeth Hill, and following their deaths continued to reside there in the summer months, spending the winters with her nephew Alelbert Hill and Mrs. Hill. Her grandfather, Daniel Hill, was the pioneer settler of Calais and one of the sixteen founders of Machias in 1743. A brother, Marshall Hill living in California, survives her.

The funeral service was held at the home of her nephew Wednesday march 8, Rev. Gordon Fraser of the United Church officiating. The choir of the church attended and rendered very beautifully the hymns "After" and "Christian Goodnight". The pallbearers were Marvin Watson, Charles Young and James Purdy. Interment was made in the hill family cemetery at the Narrows.

He married Hopestill Delano 27 September 1783. She was born 11 January 1765 in Kingston, Plymouth Co., MA, and died Unknown in Woolwich, Sagadahoc Co., ME.

Notes for Peleg Bradford II:

Since no birth record has been found for Peleg Bradford, II an indirect approach has been taken to prove that he is the son of Peleg Bradford, I and is a descendant of Gov. William Bradford, one of the Mayflower passengers. Y-Chromosome DNA analysis is a very powerful tool that can be used to provide some answers to lineage and to show the results of those tested, just click on the following link to theBradford page  of Other families that I follow. The results for a male descendant of Peleg Bradford is shown as Kit# 145825 another male descendant of Gov. William Bradford is shown as Kit# 166460. His lineage back to William Bradford has been proven and is a member of the Mayflower Society. The other two members shown as

Hanson Lineage

Kit# 57360 & 26447 are also descendants of Gov William Bradford and their lineage from Joshua Bradford who was the grandfather of Martin Bradford has been proven back to Gov. William Bradford as two other persons who are descendants of Joshua Bradford have obtained their membership in the Mayflower Society. The DNA test results do NOT conclusively show that Peleg Bradford, II is the son of Peleg Bradford, I. However, they do show that he is a descendant of John Bradford and his wife Mercy Warren. More research is required to determine additional information before a more conclusive connection can be made. The connection of Peleg Bradford, II as a son of Peleg Bradford, I is being shown here until proven otherwise as this is the most probable connection.

Mrs. Etta McCallum - Dies in 90th Year September 16, 1954

Many border residents regret the death of Mrs. Etta McCallum, formerly a resident of Calais avenue whose death occurred in St. Stephen last weekend at the home of her niece, Mrs. Marie Bartlett in her 90th year. Mrs. McCallum, who was a resident of Calais from 1926 to 1944 was born March 20, 1865, daughter of Angus and Margaret Pratt Turner in Digdeguash.

As a young woman she married Peter H. McCallum, who predeceased her in 1912. Mrs. McCallum's sister and husband also died at an early age, leaving two daughters, Mrs. Alden Murray, Oak Bay and Mrs. John Ross of St. Andrews, whom Mrs. McCallum cared for. In early life she joined the Digdeguash Methodist Church and while a resident of Calais was a member of Knight Memorial Methodist Church. She was a teacher in the church school at Digdeguash.

During failing health the past five months, Mrs. McCallum was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Bartlett, 16 Church Street.

Prayers for Mrs. McCallum were said at the home of Mrs. John Ross in St. Andrews last Sunday followed by services at the church, Rev. R.H. Barker officiating. The hymn, The Lord Is My Shepherd was sung by the choir of the Elmsville church during the service. Bearers were four nephews, Kenneth H. Murray, Rudolph A. Murray, Lawson Murray and Prescott Smith.

Due to inclement weather, Mr. Edgar Finlay, of Sarnia, Ontario, arrived Sunday evening too late for the service. Surviving members of the family who attended the service are Mrs. Alden Murray of Oak Bay, Mrs. John Ross, St. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Murchie, Mrs. Don J. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Laurie, Wilbur McKee, Mrs. Edward MacKay and Mrs. Edward Carson. Several people from Calais, St. Stephen, The Ledge, Bocabec and surrounding communities attended the service. Many floral tributes attested to the esteem in which friends held Mrs. McCallum. Mrs. Harry Baxter of Hampton, PEI, a

Hanson Lineage

- 2560 i. Grace Vernon<sup>23</sup> Olive, born 05 April 1865 in West Saint John, Saint John Co., NB; died 1950 in Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB.

Notes for Grace Vernon Olive:

Obituary - Mrs. F.P. Grimmer - 1950

Friends here and in other communities where she was known learned with sorrow of the death of Mrs. F. Parker Grimmer, for many years a resident of St. Stephen, which occurred Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A.M. Budd, Moncton. Taken Friday, she passed away without regaining consciousness.

Formerly Grace Vernon Olive, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Olive she was born on West Saint John April 5, 1865 but as a young woman came to St. Stephen when the family moved here in the mid eighties. She was married here in October, 1888 to F. Parker Grimmer and shared with him a prominent place in the business, civic, religious and social life of the town. She was keenly interested in music, had studied voice at the Boston Conservatory, and sang with quartets and in the choir of the Union Street Baptist church with which she was associated as a member and faithful attendant over a period of some 65 years. She was a life member of the Missionary Society of that church.

For most of the time since the death of Mr. Grimmer in September 1941; she had made her home in Moncton with Mrs. Budd.

She is survived by four sons, W. Vernon and Walter P. Grimmer, both of St. Stephen; Rev. Harry K. Grimmer, Amherst, NS and Rev. Howard M. Grimmer, Newcastle Bridge, two daughters, Mrs. A.M. Budd, Moncton and Mrs. Walter Flagg, Bar Harbor and three sisters, Mrs. Alec Murray, Vancouver, BC, Mrs. Fred Lovely, Dedham, Mass. And Mrs. Harry L. Wall, St. Stephen. There also survive 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

A service was held at Tuttle's funeral Home in Moncton Monday evening and was largely attended. Rev. I. Judson Levy, pastor of the First Baptist church in Moncton conducted the service assisted by Rev. Ronald Noble. Selections were sung by the church choir.

- 2561 ii. Mary 'Minnie' Clark Olive, born 15 November 1866 in Carleton(Saint John), Saint John Co., NB; died 24 May 1954 in Vancouver, BC. She married Alexander Purdie Murray 10 September 1885 in St. Stephen, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB; born 30 October 1858 in Glasgow, Scotland; died 18 June 1941 in Winnipeg, MB.

Notes for Mary 'Minnie' Clark Olive:

Personal memories by Barbara Reid, March 1998:

Grandma was called the prettiest girl in Charlotte County.

Grandma and Aunt Grace moved in with us during my mid teens. Grandma stayed with us until she passed away at age 86. She did have an effect on me and I remember wearing a little black dress with a white Peter Pan collar to high school one- day and being asked if I was a nun. I suspect there was a good reason for always being the first one dropped off from a car load of kids, however, I suppose it didn't hurt me any. I can still visualize Grandma Murray holding my first little guy and saying how wonderful it was to be holding another wee Douglas (since her very own Douglas had died in WW1.)

I know having lived with Grandma during her eighties that she loved reading the newspaper every day, she was very aware of current fashions and of world events!

They were right in the middle of Canada becoming a new country and were in close proximity to both the founding fathers and more influential writers of the time. From her United Empire Loyalist perspective, Grandma had different views, and said that the United States was welcome to join in with them at any time.

Grandma's family moved to Canada during the American Revolution of 1775-83.

Grandma had a delicious sense of humour, it seemed to run throughout the family.

Notes for Alexander Purdie Murray:

Alexander and brother, James, lived in Buchanen from 1890 to 1891.

Wife Mary, set Alexander and brother, James, up in business in 1886.

Personal memories by Barbara Reid, March 1998

During a Canadian literature course last year, on the 1900's in New Brunswick, I learned that the Murray family lived in very interesting times of Canadian history. Not many of the women were literate in those days, but it was obvious that Grandma was, because there is an old family story that Grandma beat Grandpa on a bible test, and that he never did quite forgive her.

There are family legends galore, such as the one about the pet monkey. His treats, bananas and peanuts were always on top of the Saturday night Goodie Bag that Grandpa took home. The monkey would sit over the door, jump on Grandpa's shoulder, partially peel the banana and stick shelled peanuts into it. So if you ever see anyone eating a banana stuffed with peanuts, there's a strong possibility that they are a member of the Murray clan.

The dining room in the Murray house on the hill always smelled of the apples that were stored in a large pull down bin. They often went to an area referred to as The Ledge for their holidays.

In 1921 Alexander took a position as a man's haberdasher with the Hudson Bay Company in Winnipeg. The whole town of St. Stephen turned out to say good bye to the little family that had dwindled down to the parents and the remaining four girls. Grandpa was an Orangemen (Protestant) and when Margaret became a Catholic, he would walk her to school, he was much admired for this.

Ship To New Brunswick

Alexander and James left Glasgow by boat some time after 1872 and before 1884 on the River Clyde which flows through the center of Glasgow, and deep enough for ocean going ships in the 1870s. Remembering that ships were much smaller then. Their ship, name unknown, left from the Glasgow Harbor, an area called Broomielaw. This was the Waterfront Street. At some point the Broomielaw Glasgow became Govan. Govan is known for large shipbuilding. Even the Queen Mary was built there. In the 1870's Glasgow was considered to be divided into four big parishes: Glasgow, Barony, Gorbals and Govan. Only Glasgow and Govan were on the navigable part of the Clyde.

Barbara Reid remembers that there was a breakup between the brothers, James and Alexander and that Alexander sold his business to James. He then left St. Stephen for Winnipeg, Manitoba where he took a job as a haberdasher at Hudson Bay. This is especially interesting, since Alexander's wife put up the money to by J & A Murray Mercantile in the first place.??

Alexander Murray Dead In Winnipeg

Former Resident was Co-Founder of Calais Firm and Outstanding Sunday School Worker

Old friends on the border were grieved to learn of the death of Alexander Murray, for many years a well known resident of St. Stephen and a prominent figure in the Union street Baptist Church, which occurred in Winnipeg June 18, 1941 at the advanced age of 83.

Mr. Murray a native of Glasgow, Scotland came here as a young man to join his brother, William founder of a dry goods business which operated for many years in the store now occupied by Stedman's. Later with another brother, James, he organized the firm of J. $ A. Murray in Calais, which is still carried on under the original name by James Murray's son, Hugh. After the last war Alex Murray moved to Winnipeg where he was employed in the dry goods department of the Hudson's Bay Company, retiring several years ago. He had been in poor health for some time.

A man of splendid character and possessing a very pleasing personality, Mr. Murray for years conducted a large men's class in the Union Street Baptist church and was also active in the Masons, Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows.

His wife was formerly Mary C. Olive of St. Stephen and to them were born twelve children. Both parents and children had many contacts and their home for years was a center of hospitality for the community. Besides his widow he is survived by three sons, George, Seattle; William, Walkerville, Ontario; Kenneth, Winnipeg and six daughters, Mrs. W.D. Riordan (Margaret) of Swamscott, Mass.; Mrs. Norman McDonald (Dora) Sacramento, California; Mrs. Arnold Budd (Nora) Winnipeg and Elizabeth living in British Columbia. One son, Douglas was killed overseas in the last war, and the twin brothers Donald and Ronald, both predeceased their father.

The funeral was held Friday and burial was in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Etta McCallum - Dies in 90th Year September 16, 1954

Many border residents regret the death of Mrs. Etta McCallum, formerly a resident of Calais avenue whose death occurred in St. Stephen last weekend at the home of her niece, Mrs. Marie Bartlett in her 90th year. Mrs. McCallum, who was a resident of Calais from 1926 to 1944 was born March 20, 1865, daughter of Angus and Margaret Pratt Turner in Digdeguash.

As a young woman she married Peter H. McCallum, who predeceased her in 1912. Mrs. McCallum's sister and husband also died at an early age, leaving two daughters, Mrs. Alden Murray, Oak Bay and Mrs. John Ross of St. Andrews, whom Mrs. McCallum cared for. In early life she joined the Digdeguash Methodist Church and while a resident of Calais was a member of Knight Memorial Methodist Church. She was a teacher in the church school at Digdeguash.

During failing health the past five months, Mrs. McCallum was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Bartlett, 16 Church Street.

Prayers for Mrs. McCallum were said at the home of Mrs. John Ross in St. Andrews last Sunday followed by services at the church, Rev. R.H. Barker officiating. The hymn, The Lord Is My Shepherd was sung by the choir of the Elmsville church during the service. Bearers were four nephews, Kenneth H. Murray, Rudolph A. Murray, Lawson Murray and Prescott Smith.

Due to inclement weather, Mr. Edgar Finlay, of Sarnia, Ontario, arrived Sunday evening too late for the service. Surviving members of the family who attended the service are Mrs. Alden Murray of Oak Bay, Mrs. John Ross, St. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Murchie, Mrs. Don J. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Laurie, Wilbur McKee, Mrs. Edward MacKay and Mrs. Edward Carson. Several people from Calais, St. Stephen, The Ledge, Bocabec and surrounding communities attended the service. Many floral tributes attested to the esteem in which friends held Mrs. McCallum. Mrs. Harry Baxter of Hampton, PEI, a niece was unable to attend.

Hanson Family Holds Reunion

Nearly 100 members of the Hanson Family Association, descendants of Thomas Hanson who came from England and settled in Dover about the year 1652, gathered at the home of the secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, on the Rochester Hill Road last Thursday for their 26th reunion.

During the day piano solos were contributed by Miss Estelle Hanson of Beverly, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey of South Berwick, Me., well known organist of the first Congregational Church in Dover and Clarence D. Mooney, pianist and organist of Laconia.

At one o'clock in a veritable hall of flags, a beautiful lunch was served one table being 60 feet long, decorated with flowers from the gardens of Mrs. Clarence C. Hanson. After lunch came the business meeting, when the following officers were elected; President, Herbert N. Hanson, Boston, vice-president, Bert Hanson, New York City, Mrs. Eunice L. Wiggin and C. Herbert Canney of Dover, secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, Rochester, treasurer, Mrs. Carrie E. Varney, Dover, historians, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam, Brooklyn, NY. trustees for three years, dr. George W. Nutter, salmon falls, Rev. Harold L. Hanson, Claremont, Charles W. Hanson, Cliftondale, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey, So. Berwick, Me., Mrs. C. Herbert Canney, Dover, and Dr. William T. Hanson, Bridgewater, Mass.

The principal speakers of the afternoon were the Rev. Harold L. Hanson, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam of 624 Macon street, Brooklyn, NY., who is compiling a history of the family. Mr. Stam is seeking data for his genealogy and members were urged to send to him any information they be able to contribute. Others who spoke briefly were C.H. Canney, Dr. William T. Hanson, and Ex-President Willard Hanson and Charles Wm. Hanson. A recitation by Mrs. Charrie E. Varney who was heartily applauded, closed the exercises of the day.

Marriage Notes for Laura Hanson and William Waite:

Marriage document shows father of Laura Hanson as Clark Hanson of Woodville, Penobscot Co., ME, mother's name not given.

Since the father's name is indicated this would tend to indicate that he was still living. This creates a real problem as the only living Clark Hanson is Clark S. Hanson and his death information does not mention any daughter by the name of Laura or Hannah. Based on the age of Clark Hanson when he married Nancy Jane Hatch in 1839, he would have been 31 years old and it is possible that he might have been married previously and Laura was a child of that union. More research required but this is being assumed for the present time.

See Clark Simon Hanson, b 9 March 1808, died 4 Nov 1901 for more information.

The following was received as an email from Robert Bushnell, 7 Aug. 2005:

Thanks so much for the information! I am researching my mother's history. She was brought to the US in 1930 at the age of 9 by her aunt Harriet Hanson Benson, to be raised here. She is now deceased and we have no knowledge of her family history before she came to the US. I recently obtained her birth certificate and it is there I see her father as Harry Woods Hanson and mother Annie Myrtle McCullough. However, I have found copies of her naturalization papers and her marriage certificate and it is on those that she lists her mother's name as Annie Orr.

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

Sometime between 8 Dec 1864 and 10 Feb 1868 Jane Ann married Alfred Howard Hatch. St. Croix Courier for Friday Feb 14, 1868 p2, col.2 is a story about Alfred Howard Hatch's first wife, Sarah Ann charging him with bigamy. Problem was Judge Rose found out that Sarah Ann was still married to HER first husband when she married Hatch. He advised her to deal with it in Maine; my research shows that she did not pursue this in Machias.

Howard and Jane Ann had a son, Stephen Richardson Dec 8, 1868 in Union Mills (St. Stephen) according to Project Preservation roll #27 Kirk McColl

They also had a son, Jas. Hd. when they were living in Union Mills b. 11th Mar 1871 bap. 14 Apr 1871 by Richard Smith according to Project Preservation roll #15 Records of Baptisms by the Wesleyan Minister in the Milltown Circuit.

They also had Mary Ann – known as Annie 18 December 1875

My great grandfather Ellis LeRoy 16 June 1877

and Laura Gertrude 11 February 1881

I have yet to find any written proof of these births in Union Mills/Milltown. However, the family consistently says they immigrated in 1886-which is surprising because any document associate with this family is rife with inaccuracies.

Hanson Lineage

Before they immigrated, Maria Jane Douglass, Milltown, St. Stephen files intentions on July 7th and 12th to marry T. Franklin Butler. I find no marriage record. I did find a record for City of Calais Mayor's Address and Annual report 1891-1892 p.24 Frank Butler Insane Hospital $181.71 – don't know if this is the same man. 12 April 1880 Maria Jane does marry Alexander H. McDougall and it is announced in the Daily News, Weekly Telegraph, D.T., St. Croix Courier and the Sun. Five newspapers! Makes me think that the first marriage didn't take place or that there was some anxiety because she was four months pregnant. Their first child John Gilbert MacDougall says he was born in Massachusetts (Oct 1880) – their only child born there. Alexander was from Prince Edward Island, so they weren't visiting his folks.

1881 census for Milltown L p. 50 line 1 Howard Hatch and Jane A. have Maria 21, living with them, as well as John Douglass, 19; Stephen Hatch, 11; Mary A, 7; Ellis, 2 ½; Howard, 10; Laura, 2/12. As you can see – Maria is not Maria MacDougall, Alexander is not there, and their son, John Gilbert MacDougall is not listed. I did take these notes 15 years ago and would want to go back and look at this entry again.

27 November 1882 John Gilbert Douglass married Annie E. Hanson by Rev James S. Day, Methodist, in Calais. Augusta Maine microfilm for Calais Marriage/Marriage Intentions 1881-1891. There was an announcement in the D.T. 10 Oct 1883- 7 Feb 1884 Annie Douglass and her baby died in childbirth. I have not been able to find this and pin down a date yet. (So much work, so little time)

8 Oct 1884 John Gilbert Douglass married Nellie McLain (aka Ellen McLean) by Rev. J.F. Haley, Methodist, Calais. Announcement 24 Oct 1884 in D.T.

3 Oct 1892 Annie Hatch married Nathaniel McWakefield Jr. by S.R. Byram, Justice of Peace, Eastport NOTE: this is the only place his last name is McWakefield. Usually his name is Nathaniel M. Wakefield, Jr. Maine Archives

30 June 1897 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Sophia S(affrona) Beaney (Beney) by S.A. Bender/Bendex clergyman, Calais Maine Archives

17 February 1900 Laura Gertrude Hatch married Henry Oscar Tompkins. I am not finding my notes for this, but they are on the 1900 Calais City census Enumeration district 197 p6A family 126

1 Aug 1903 James Howard Hatch married Ada Tompkins by Willard Luce, clergyman, Milltown, Calais. Ada is sister to Henry Oscar Tompkins – see above marriage and St. Croix Courier 6 Aug 1903 p.1 Also some time around 1903 James Howard Hatch had ( can't recall what off the top of my head, but it involved a fever) and went blind.

All is not wedded bliss in the family – Superior Judicial Court Vol. 36 p. 314 Annie Wakefield vs. Nathaniel Wakefield. She got a divorce 15 Oct 1906

And remarried 2 Jan 1907 to Clarence Bert Lermond (also divorced – 2nd marriage) by Rev John Tinling, Milltown (ME) Methodist as announced 9 Jan 1907 Calais Advertiser.

20 June 1907 Ellis LeRoy Hatch's wife Sophia died of heart disease at Reed Plantation

15 April 1908 Clarence Bert Lermond, Annie's husband, died of acute indigestion in Calais

Between 23 April 1910 (1910 census) and 28 May 1911 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Lillian Irene Scott

She was possibly previously married to George Thurston – father to her daughter Thelma. I find no evidence of either marriage.

Somehow in my page flipping I missed the marriage of Annie Hatch Wakefield Lermond to Oscar R Wilson 28 November 1911. I believe this record is Maine Archives, but not sure.

Estella is NOT James Howard's first wife – she is his only (known) child – by Annie. Estella May was born in 1916 in Baileyville. Baileyville Record book. I have her birthdate but no verification that she is dead. She was married twice – my nana kept in touch with her. A month after Stella's birth, Jane Ann Libby Douglass Hatch's estate was finally settled.

James Howard Hatch's wife, Annie, died 18 Nov 1918 of influenza (part of the epidemic of 1918) Maine Archives; Scholl Funeral Home Record, Calais Free Library

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

To go off on a tangent – my documents are in order by the calendar - James Douglass – Jane Ann’s 1st husband died 7 Dec 1864 of diphtheria. Death notices in Religious Intelligencer (16 Dec) and New Brunswick Courier (17 Dec) both available at St. Croix Library. He is interred in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery per their burial records entry 366. However his grave is unmarked and the last person who knew where he was buried, has died. His name is on a marker in Calais Cemetery, but there is no record on his interment.

When James Douglass died, Jane Ann was pregnant. St. Croix Courier 2 June 1870 this child, James C. also died of diphtheria. He was 5 years, 3 mos. Therefore born about February 1865. Because he died within one year of the 1871 census, he is listed on the mortality schedule – as James Clarke Hatch. It says he died of croup. Jane Ann is listed with Howard Hatch, head; Jane Ann, wife; Maria, 11; John, 9; Stephen, 2; and James 1/12.

Jane Ann’s children with James Douglass are:

- 1) Maria Jane b. abt. 16 September 1860
- 2) John Gilbert 4 March 1863
- 3) James Clark abt February 1865

The following was received from Colleen Congdon, 1 Feb 2013:

Calais Advertiser Wednesday, September 22nd 1920

Died Calais, Sept 14th, Howard H. Hatch, aged [unreadable] years, 6 months, and 14 days.

Howard A. Hatch, a well-known resident of Milltown, Me., passed away Tuesday, Sept. 14th at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tompkins, where he has made his home for the last seven years. He was in his 81st year, and has been a resident of Milltown for some 34 years. He was a native of Bocabec, N.B. That Mr. Hatch had many friends in the community was attested by the many floral tributes to his memory. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, Howard H. Jr., Ellis Leroy, and Mrs. Annie Willison (sic), all of Woodland, and Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Milltown. He is also survived by a brother and three sisters.

The above are two different entries in the newspaper. Obviously his daughter Alma R. doesn't count as a surviving child. It would be hard to imagine that people didn't know that she was his daughter because her mother, Sarah Ann usually told the census taker that she was married. I didn't get the feeling that they "just let it go."

This would indicate that she was born in 1850 at a time before the census date and not 1851 as shown in other references. However, this could be caused by the age at next birthday. Other provinces of Canada use the age at next birthday for the 1851 census. In some cases, the 1851 census was actually taken in 1852 which makes it even more complicated.

1871 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist 175I, Div 2, p16, family#61, frame 78/178, age 10

From a paper published at Portland, Oregon, and refers to a native of St. Stephen.

'John Danley, a sawyer in the employ of the Portland Lumber & Manufacturing Company, is laid up at his home in Fulton Park from the effects of a peculiar accident. He was engaged in running an edger, when a long, slender strip of fir struck him in the right thigh, one end passing through the leg. The "splinter" was eight feet in length and about an inch square at the end. A fellow workman pulled the stick out backward, and it took a good exercise of strength to do so. The wound is ragged and painful, and will keep Danley from work for several weeks. He had been in the habit of wearing a sole-leather apron as a shield against such flying missiles, but this stick struck on one side of the apron.'

(The paper spelled the last name as "Danley")

VICTIM OF AUTO ACCIDENT

The Oregon Journal, published at Hillsdale, Oregon of recent date contained this item.

"John Edward Denley of Hillsdale, who was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Vance of Salem on the Pacific Highway Saturday night, died early today at Good Samaritan hospital.

Inasmuch as the accident occurred just outside the city limits, the sheriff's office has been notified. No arrests have been made.

Mr. Denley was fifty nine years of age and had conducted a farm near Multnomah station for thirty one years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Denley, and four children, Florence, Henry F., R. L. and W. A. Denley."

"Jack" Denley is well remembered by many of the middle aged residents of St. Stephen. His home was just outside the town limits, beyond "the Tom Peele place" on the road that leads past the eastern side of the St. Stephen cemetery, in the home now occupied by his sister, Mrs. Alex O'Brien. He went west many years ago.

The clipping has the date August 21, 1919

Joseph MYSHRALL, who died Sunday eve., was born at Nashwaaksis (York Co.) in 1816. He was a long time resident of Fredericton city. In his younger days he was conservative and associated with J.W. LAWRENCE and R.C. SCOVIL in the first commission for building the E.& N.A. Railway. Politically he was a strong Liberal and a friend of the late John PICKARD. He came to Fredericton when about 6 years old and commenced at that early age to make his own living. He soon afterwards held a post in the Crown Land Office and subsequently was deputy sheriff. He resigned the latter position in 1846 and commenced business as an auctioneer in the back part of the store now occupied by H.A. CROPLEY. In 1854, he and Marchall RITCHIE bought the MacIntosh business and they remained in partnership until 1867 when Mr. Ritchie retired. In 1877, Mr. Myshrall retired, selling out to Alexander BURCHILL. He was a well known Mason and had one of the best old coin collections in the Province. He leaves five children: two sons, Capt. MYSHRALL of South Wales, England and Dr. MYSHRALL of St. Stephen (Charlotte Co.); three daughters, Mrs. TIPPET, Mrs. HOWELL and Mrs. SHERMAN. His funeral took place 3 o'clock this afternoon.

OBITUARY - Margaret Maxwell

Full of years and honored by all who knew her, Margaret, wife of the late William G. Maxwell, passed on, Sunday, March 1, 1914, to her eternal reward. Mrs. Maxwell, whose maiden name was Margaret Craig, was born at Rolling Dam, September 11, 1827. On July 14, 1851, she was united in marriage with William G. Maxwell, and their married life was an example of Godly upright living. Mrs. Maxwell is survived by five children, namely, Mrs. Thomas Hodgdon of Milo, Maine, Alvin U. of Brookhaven, Mississippi, Mrs. Thomas Hill, of Hill's Point, Horatio of Bangor, and Beverley at home. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham. Interment was at Old Ridge Cemetery.

Parents of Margaret Rachel Craig are unknown. Since she was supposedly born at Rolling Dam, then a possible family is that of James Craig, Sr. and h/w Charlotte Walker. James received a Land Grant as shown in the "Crown Land Grant Index" for New Brunswick. This lot was as follows: #6 Rolling Dam Station, Dumbarton Parish, Charlotte County, 282 Acres, Date: 18 May 1818, Vol 1, No. 987. This lot is approx. 3 miles from Rolling Dam. More research required to make a connection!!!!!!!

The Hill history dates back many years, as far back as Nehemiah's Grandfather of 1767 and his father of 1793, this being Frank and Chipman's great-grandfather. Some of the people lived at St. Stephen's and Whittier Ridge, New Brunswick and were descendants of the United Empire Loyalists.

Nehemiah Hill married Sarah Baldwin in 1849, and they raised a large family of six sons and seven daughters. In the early 1870's the two oldest sons, Alfred and Wilson, came west to Winnipeg and were so impressed with the country that they sent word back to the family to sell out and come west. About 1877 a bad grasshopper plague hit, so the boys sent word back home telling them to stay put for the time being, but the message arrived too late as they were already on their way. The family stopped off at St. Catharines, Ontario, brought a place and stayed there.

In 1881, Tom Baldwin a Baptist minister, his wife and son, Frank of Chatham, Ontario and a contingent of his three nieces and five nephews (Hill relatives) were the first of the Cannington Manor pioneers to cross the Pipestone Creek southwest of Moosomin. Here he set up the first store and post office and called it Moose Mountain and it was on the Moose Mountain trail. He became advisor to the arriving groups of other pioneers as they came through. He built his home on land there, later farmed by Morgan VanDresar.

The two eldest boys, Alfred and Wilson took up one of the first homesteads in the Moose Mountain District, now known as the Tom Brayford farm.

The Hill brothers are credited with having helped to build the original All Saints Cannington Church.

Willard Senior, and Frank homesteaded the land that is now owned by Willard (Bill) and Alfred Hill of Manor.

Willard and Chipman Hill built the log house of Arthur LeMesurier, which has now been moved to Cannington Manor Museum site and is being preserved as a historical structure.

Quite a number of Nehemiah's family visited this area in the early years but Alfred,, Wilson and Willard all moved away. Stillman was the contractor for the large Canadian Pacific Railway Bridge at Outlook, Saskatchewan, built in 1911. There were only five of the younger members of the family that settled permanently in this surrounding area and they were as follows:

received civil war papers. He served in Company F 3 infantry which was changed to Company D 17th infantry of Maine. Entered Sept 10 1863 and died in a battle June 15 1864. He and Mary had one daughter born on Oct 12 1863 so he never saw her. June 4th 1865 he was due to get out of the service and at that time there was an investigation to find out what happened to him. (they figured he had to have died in the battle that happened about the time they lost track).

Notes for Nellie Brickley:

The following email segment was received from Joanie Hannah, 4 June 2007:

It appears a "Mrs Colin Hannah" died Jan 23 1905 at San Francisco, bur SF, age 36, born NB...."her husband was the first officer on the "Pomona" ' (DT art 29 Jan 1905)

This is from a lady who does Genealogy look-ups in the Humboldt Rm, Eureka Library..

According to the 1920 CA census records Colin's wife 'Rose' was born in CA. If you subtract Mrs Colin Hannah's age, she was born abt 1868 which is pretty close to Ida's (for News Papers..!) Anyway, If this was the first wife of our Colin J Hannah.. It gives us a question Mark?

BRADFORD, ERNEST LINDEN - Black's Harbour, Oct. 27 - The death of Ernest Bradford, occurred on Thursday last after a lingering illness at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lola Bradford. A male quartet sang "Going Down the Valley One by One" and the choir sang "Good Night and Good Morning" and "The Christian's Goodnight". Many floral and spiritual tributes attested to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The scripture text was taken from the Twenty-Third Psalm: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil."

Interment was made in the new Baptist Cemetery. The pall-bearers were five brothers, Walter Bradford, Donald Bradford, Harold Bradford, Myles Bradford and Gunner Theodore Bradford, and one nephew, Lance-Corporal Eric Bradford.

on of William Alexander McClinton's daughters who is named Margaret Gaffy McClinton, b 5 June 1877.

Friday afternoon Frank P. BARNARD, station agent of the Bangor & Aroostock Railway Co. at Houlton, Me., lost his life. Mr. Barnard, accompanied by his wife, left Houlton Monday afternoon for a camping trip, having a car nicely fitted up for shelter and set at Summit Siding near Stacyville on the line of the B.& A. Friday afternoon, while climbing a ladder leading up to the car, Mr. Barnard's gun was accidentally discharged, the contents passing through his heart, killing him instantly. Some section men happening along came to the nearest telegraph station and wired the sad tidings to Houlton in time for friends to catch a west bound train and go down the line to meet and render what assistance they could to Mrs. Barnard, who was with her husband's body until the section men's arrival. Mr. Barnard was 27 years of age and a native of Granville, N.Y., but for some time station agent at St. Andrews where he married the daughter of Thos. ARMSTRONG two years ago. Upon the opening of the B.& A. Railway, Mr. Barnard resigned his position on the C.P.R. to take a similar one under his old manager F.W. CRAM.
