Old Songs and Singers

My appeal on behalf of Burt Clinch for the words of a couple of old songs brought a response from three old-timers, The following letter from my good friend Harry W. Smith speaks for itself.

Mr. Smith's Letter

Your request on behalf of Burt Clinch last week opened the flood gates of memory in me and took me back to the middle Nineties and early Nineteen hundreds when as a member of a male quartette which was circulating quite freely through the County at that time and was known as the Beulah Quartette (I think that the name was given by Miss Pint Love, of Old Ridge) we visited many of the fine old homes of that day, and the memory of happy hours spent in then is refreshing in these days.

Among the many I recall are the homes of John S. Maxwell of Old Ridge, Dr. Dibbilee of Moores Mills, Andrew McAdam on the mountain side on the Hill's Point Road, Robert Linton of Pomeroy Ridge, John Murray of Waweig Bridge and a host of others whose forms and faces come back very vividly to me as I think of them I remember we sang at the dedication of the little church on the road to Fredericton just after passing Gilman's Corner. Our quartette when it was organized consisted of four cousins all of whom have joined the heavenly choir, for I am sure they are where they can express themselves in song and many will recall them, Herb Price, Duncan McGeachy, Elwell DeWolfe and Sandy Stevenson. I had the honor of taking Price's place when he went away and A.J. (Bert) Jackson took the place of McGeachy and we got together frequently at least yearly until the untimely death of Elwell DeWolfe, Bert Jackson is still living in Cornwall, Ontario and was recently retired by Canadian Cottons Ltd. and I feel sure that if he sees that article in the Courier, he will be supplying the words of that song for Mr. Clinch and in case he doesn't I am going to beat him to it. A large number of singers from St. Stephen came down around the year 1900 including our quartette and had a picnic supper on St. Andrews Island and came ashore after supper and with whom was Burt Clinch, gave a concert in one of the halls here and we made a great hit with this song, which although the theme is rather distressing the harmony and the chance to bring out the qualities of the several parts make up for that part and we didn't pay much attention to the words.

She was born the youngest daughter of Mary (Hanson) and Matt Spearin, and was raised in Upper Little Ridge, with one sister and eight brothers. Hilda was the last surviving member of that family.

Her first husband, Fred McKeeman and second husband Edgar Townes; as well as sons, Fred Jr., and Sheldon; an infant son, and several grandsons predeceased Hilda.

Hilda has left behind a large extended family including son, Ralph (Anita) McKeeman, Westbrook, Maine; daughters, Inez McLaughlin, Moores Mills, Ruth (Roy) Fraser, Baillie, N.B.; Carol McLaughlin, Canoose and Freda (Carroll) Daley, Old Ridge; daughter in law, Rowena McKeeman, Little ridge and Sharon McKeeman of Westbrook, Maine.

She leaves behind many grandchildren, great grandchildren and even great-great grandchildren, who are richer for having known her.

Hilda lived a rich life, having many friends. She loved to travel yearly to Westbrook, Maine where she lived for many years.

Even at her advanced age, she kept busy with crafts, including knitting children's mittens and baby sets. She will be missed.

Notes for Mildred Ina Hanson:

The following is from an email received from Robert Bushnell, 7 Aug. 2005:

Thanks so much for the information! I am researching my mother's history. She was brought to the US in 1930 at the age of 9 by her aunt Harriet Hanson Benson, to be raised here. She is now deceased and we have no knowledge of her family history before she came to the US. I recently obtained her birth certificate and it is there I see her father as Harry Woods Hanson and mother Annie Myrtle McCullough. However, I have found copies of her naturalization papers and her marriage certificate and it is on those that she lists her mother's name as Annie Orr.

Notes for Thomas 'Edgar' Hanson:

The two adopted children, Thomas Edgar Hanson and Mary Elizabeth Somers were raised by Thomas and Mary (Haymen) Bonness as they did not have any children of their own. See full notes under Thomas Edgar Hanson and Mary Elizabeth Somers for proof found to date.

This child may have been adopted out and became known as Charles Edgar Bonness as the dates of birth of the two are exactly the same and Charles Edgar Bonness was adopted. Only by using Y-Chromosome DNA testing can this hypothesis be proven or disproved!!

However, the finding of Thomas 'Edgar' Hanson in the 1881 census refutes this hypothesis!!!! When one looks at this even closer, it may still be possible if Thomas Edgar Hanson lived at both homes and lived this way with the name Charles Edgar Bonnes when in the home of his adoptive parents and as Thomas Edgar Hanson when in the home of his birth parents. When he married, he took the name of Charles Edgar Bonness and that is the name he use till his death. No further information on Thomas Edgar Hanson has been found after the 1881 census which seems to make this plausible.

This connection is being made until proven otherwise

The following information points to Charles Edgar Bonnes as being adopted and being the same person as Thomas Edgar Hanson. These two persons were born on the same date. Thomas Edgar Hanson date of birth from the Kirk McCall Church Records and Charles Edgar Bonnes from his tombstone inscription. The adoption hypothesis may be correct based on info in an email from Ivane Corbett that states "Dad and Uncle Earl. Dad had always said that his father was adopted and years later Uncle Earl also told me this. According to Earl his father's grandmother came from Ireland to work as a servant in the household and than later married his grandfather who was a son in that household." This is shown at the end of the email shown below.

The question with this is: why does Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson state in the 1900 census that she has had 8 children and 3 are living? Does this include the child that she gave up for adoption that is living or does she consider him as dead!!!!

On way of proving this would be to use Y-Chromosome DNA analysis to see if the DNA profile of a living male descendant of Charles Edgar Bonness has a DNA profile that matches the Hanson line but not the Bonness line. The genetic distance should be less then two for a close match. More research required on this.(AEK-2010)

The following is an email received from Ian Chisholm, 9 June 2010:

I have several Emails that I will be forwarding to you. I think that he was adopted.

Best,

Ian

Subject: MORE on Charles Edgar Bonness

I HAD WRITTEN AND PRESENTED THE FOLLOWING AT A BONNESS REUNION AT THE ALGONQUIN HOTEL IN ST. ANDREWS, N.B.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION:

It is herewith submitted to you that ample evidence indicates that Charles Edgar Bonness, the designated patriarch of this celebrated occasion, was not originally a member of the Bonness family and we begin investigation of that premise by noting that he had been born on Wednesday, March 29, 1865, the accepted and recorded date of birth that had always been used by himself and his family.

A search of the local St. Croix Courier newspaper and governmental records of the Provincial Archives of New Brunswick report no births for Wednesday, March 29, 1865. However, birth records maintained by the Kirk McColl Church* for such date indicate that there is one for a Thomas Edgar Hanson born to John and Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson.

* Kirk McColl records cover the following Parishes or areas: St. Stephen, St. David, St. James, St. Patrick, Dufferin, St. Andrews, Calais/Washington Co., ME. and were copied from the microfilm, tape #27, of the Kirk McColl church in St. Stephen, NB.

Some six years later, the 1871 Canadian Census for the Lower Parish of St. Stephen, Charlotte County, New Brunswick, lists family # 286, lines 1-8, Division 2, page 78, dwelling # 238 as John and Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson, ages 35 and 32, and their children Gilman, age 11; Edward, age 8; and Dora, age 4. There was no listing for any Thomas Edgar, age 6 (born March 29, 1865) but also in the same crowded household, were Mary Hanson, age 70 (born in Ireland) and Parker and Sarah Hanson, married, ages 30 and 26.

But wait, the next-door neighbors do not appear to be as crowded. In family # 285, lines 18-20, Division 2, page 77, dwelling # 237 it lists Thomas Marten and Mary Ann (Hayman) Bonness, both 47 and a Edgar Bonness, age 6 (born March 29, 1865).

Coincidence ?

It has been established that Charles Edgar Bonness was reared by Thomas Marten Bonness and Mary Ann Hayman who had married on Sunday, July 2, 1848. Thereafter, they remained childless for almost 17 years - until (in 1865) when they each would be @ 42/43 years old, and were awarded -- not an "Oscar" or an "Emmy" or a "Tony" -- BUT an "Edgar" from just down the road ??

Reared ? Yes ! Awarded ? Yes ! - Birthed ? NO !

So, it is submitted that it is very possible and also highly probable that Charles Edgar Bonness and Thomas Edgar Hanson were one in the same person and that Thomas and Mary Ann Bonness adopted Thomas Edgar and renamed him Charles Edgar.

Historical evidence indicates that, as a general rule, prior to the early to mid-1900s when provincial authorities became involved in adoptions, children were placed with family, friends or neighbors without documentation by government authorities.

Additionally, prior to such period there were additional Bonness/ Hanson connections (i.e. Henrietta Hanson Bonness who had married John Mathew Bonness {Bonness} on August 11, 1861).

So, it would appear that the final result here (Believe It or Not ®) is the probability that Thomas Edgar Hanson, born Wednesday, March 29, 1865 had become Charles Edgar Bonness, born Wednesday, March 29, 1865 and had acquired a father named Thomas instead of a John having a son named Thomas. His old but younger mother named Mary Ann Ham Hanson was replaced by his new but older mother named Mary Ann Hayman Bonness and he became part of such family in the house next-door -- (by the numbers) from his old family # 286 in dwelling # 238 into his new family #285 in dwelling #237. It's a "moving" story. Go figure.

"Decided I should put in writing what I learned years ago from Dad and Uncle Earl. Dad had always said that his father was adopted and years later Uncle Earl also told me this. According to Earl his father's grandmother came from Ireland to work as a servant in the household and than later married his grandfather who was a son in that household.

If it were true that Charles Edgar Bonness is actually Thomas Edgar Hanson this information would follow in that line as on Ancestry.com Thomas Hanson's grandmother did indeed come from Ireland. His parents would be John Hanson and Mary Ann Ham and grandparents would be Jacob Hanson and Mary McNamara. Thomas Hanson was born in the same church on the same day as Charles Bonness and there is no info on Thomas Hanson after that date. Please send this on to any interested cousins. thanks. Love, Ivane

Mrs. Charles Edgar Bonness

On Tuesday evening, June 30, 1931, at Chipman Memorial Hospital, surrounded by her family, Mrs. Charles Edgar Bonness of Heathland, entered into the heavenly rest.

Ivane Eloise Doten, daughter of Alvah and Louise Doten, was born at Cooper, Maine, in 1870. At the age of 16 she was united in marriage to Charles Edgar Bonness of Heathland. Eleven children were the issue of this marriage; all but one of whom survive; Ethel, the eldest of the family died twenty-three years ago.

The funeral service was held Friday, July 3, conducted by Rev. Dr. Goucher and Rev. A.S. Bishop.

Two favorite hymns "Some Day We'll Understand", and " My Saviour First Of All," were rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. Bert Faloon, Mrs. Hayman, Walter Dewolfe and Bert Hyslop.

The pallbearers were Harry Rodgers, Walter Howland, George Elkington, and Fred Elkington. Interment took place in the beautiful St. Stephen Cemetery.

Among those mourners beside the bereaved husband were the seven daughters and three sons; Mrs. Thomas McLeod, Kellyland; Mrs. Rutherford Weatherby, Grand lake Stream; Mrs. Alvin Mcleod, Oak Bay; Mrs. Joseph Pierce, St. Stephen; Mrs. Paul Lee, St. Stephen; Mrs. Herbert Chisholm and Mrs. Carl Tolin, both of Sommerville, Mass.; Guy of Princeton, Maine; Earl of Grand Lake Stream; and Edgar, living at home.

Mrs. Bonness is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Herbert hall of Milltown, N.B.; Mrs. Nettie Hall of Calais, and one brother, Roscoe Doten, of Milltown, Maine. There are also twenty grandchildren to cherish the memory of a lovable grandparent. Of Mrs. Bonness it can truthfully be said: In her tongue was the law of kindness. She looked well to the ways of her household. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Obituary - Lindsay Turner

Residents of Old Ridge and surrounding districts were saddened of the death of G. Lindsay Turner, who passed away in the early hours of that morning.

Mr. Turner, one of Charlotte county's best known and most highly respected citizens, was born at Greenock, March 7, 1872, but moved to Old Ridge with his family when a young man. On September 4, 1901 he was united in marriage with Clara Mae Libby of Heathland.

Besides his widow four daughters, Mrs. J. Mitchell Lindsay, Mrs. Louise F. Allen, Mrs. Frederick Gordon and Mrs. W.G. Scott; one son, George and five grandchildren who are left to mourn the loss of loving husband and father and who was always happiest when they were all at home with him.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. E.A. Gunn, was held at his home Tuesday November 15, and was attended by numerous friends from all walks of life. A profusion of flowers and many sympathetic messages attested to the esteem in which he was held. The family were all at home with their mother.

A quartet from St. Stephen sang two selections. The pallbearers were C.W. Hanley, Cleveland Tyler, Milton Maxwell, and Rufus Stewart, close friends of the family. Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Eva Dow, wife of Harley Dow, occurred at her home in St. George, Sunday, December 19 1943 at the age of 72 years. Although in failing health for a few weeks, her death came as a great shock to relatives and friends alike.

She was a staunch member of the St. George Baptist Church and will be greatly missed by a host of friends who will remember her for her hospitality and generosity and her readiness ever to help others in time of trouble. She was a devoted wife and loving mother.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn four sons, H. Earle of NY, Warren, St. Stephen, Watson of Camp Sussex and George of Little NY, and one daughter, Mrs. Milton Dynes of Montreal all of whom attended the funeral. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. M.L. Young of Ashland, Wis., and Mrs. Charles McCullough of Bocabec and three brothers, Osborne Mitchell of St. Stephen, Howard Mitchell, Bocabec, and Roy Mitchell, Providence, also five grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held at her home and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. D.F. MacDormand assisted by Rev. Frank Smith of Saint John and Rev. W. Randall of Pennfield. The singing was conducted by the Baptist Male Choral Club, of St. George and hymns were, "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus," and "Sometime We'll Understand," and at the grave, "We Are Going Down the Valley One By One." Pallbearers were Eugene Wilson, Morton Kennedy, Kenneth Bonnell, Walter Allen, George Hoyt and William Hanson. Floral tributes were beautiful and numerous, testifying to the esteem in which deceased was widely held.

Mrs. Joseph Boyd Honored On 84th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Agnes (Maxwell) Boyd celebrated her birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Sawyer of Hawthorne Street, on Wednesday last, and was at home during the day to friends and relatives who called in large numbers. She received many cards and gifts. A beautiful birthday cake made by her granddaughter, Mrs. Vernon Barr, which she served to her guests with tea and sandwiches.

Mrs. Boyd enjoys good health and keeps busy with crocheting, knitting and reading. Her mind is keen and she enjoys the radio discussing the events of the day. Although she broke her hip over three years ago and had been confined to her home most of the time since, she is able to get up every day and be about the home in a walker.

Among out of town guests were her grandson, Blair Brown, and wife and son Tommy of Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Boyd has lived all her life in and around St. Stephen and has many friends who wish her many more birthdays.

Notes for Jesse Leigh White:

Jesse Leigh White and Blanche

In an earlier section of this family story we left Jesse Leigh White on the train travelling to Fredericton to attend Normal School. After graduation he was engaged to teach in the town of Grand Falls, Victoria County NB. Here he began what was to be a most successful teaching career. We have already related how Blanche Maxwell had also launched on a teaching career in Charlotte County. It is possible that they were in the same class while attending Normal School. If this is so, it explains how Blanche left Charlotte County and continued her career in Grand Falls. Not long afterwards these fellow teachers talked about marriage. Many years later J.L. white told me that it was their intention to be married at the end of the school term in 1895 but they changed their minds and decided on an earlier date, the Christmas vacation period in 1894 at the home of the bride's parents in Moores Mills. The Anglican minister Rev. M. Milledge performed the ceremony. The following clipping from a local paper tells of the event. The list of guests includes names that are already familiar to us from earlier sections of this record. The listing of the various wedding gifts is interesting and amusing.

After their marriage in 1894, J.L. White and Blanche continued to teach in Grand Falls. Both are remembered by the old timers as excellent teachers who expected excellence from their pupils. Teaching was not J.L. White's only interest. He engaged in a few commercial ventures in the community opening a grocery store on the other side of the river from the main town. He also made some investment in railway shares from which he later earned substantial profits. In these years they were also busy having their family. After two still births, their daughter Leitha was born in 1899. Edward Maxwell was born in 1904. Gretchen's birth year was 1907 and Marion came in 1909. In May 1910 Constance was born and the youngest child Jay Leigh arrived in 1914.

It was in 1912 that J.L. White gave up teaching and put all his energy into his business ventures. With vision and courage he built a huge general store on the main street of the town. Almost anything could be purchased in this emporium with the sign J.L. White, General Merchant". There were departments, Groceries, dry goods, hardware. Even caskets were available and the services of Aunt Leslie Estey were called in when coffins had to be lined. Blanche said of her husband that he would tackle anything to turn a dollar. Along with the general store he built an extensive business buying and selling pulpwood. He was involved in all these ventures in 1912. It is no wonder he resigned his school teaching position. He and blanche were key figures in the business and social life of Grand Falls. In that same year he was offered the nomination of the Conservatives to represent them. He accepted this challenge and became the member of Legislature for Victoria County. For the next five years (1912 to 1917) he continued his business ventures and served as Member of the Provincial Parliament.

We have already noted his generosity toward his parents, caring for them in their old age, and doing the same for Aunt Victoria Maxwell. His brothers Bert and Charles also became established business people in Grand Falls through his support and encouragement. For his own growing family he provided every advantage. There was always hired help in the home enabling Blanche to assist her husband in the great load of necessary office work.

There were set backs as well as successes. In 1925 the family suffered a great blow. Their home next to the large store was burned to the ground and all the contents were lost except a couple of fur coats and the clothes they were wearing. Fortunately everyone got out safely, but family pictures which would be so useful in this story were lost.

The cause of the fire was attributed to the earthquake which had occurred the previous day, February 28, 1925. The stovepipes had been loosened and some were separated by the quake. This had not been noticed and when the fires were lighted the following morning, the sparks ignited the surrounding dry material and almost immediately the house was in flames. Blanche was able to rescue the youngest child as she made her way to safety. There was a heavy loss of family possessions but there was no loss of life.

Fortunately the Whites owned a second house in Grand Falls which was occupied by their son Max who has married a year earlier. It was the intention of J.L. and Blanche to make their house their home eventually. The fire hurried up the event. The house had been purchased some years earlier by Blanche. It was one of the oldest and finest houses in Grand Falls. It had been built in 1834 and occupied for a time by Sir John Campbell. Sir John had operated a large sawmill in Grand Falls in earlier years and had been the receiver general of Lower Canada. He also had considerable business connections with the American before the middle of the century. The house was located in an area overlooking the falls from which Grand Falls for its name. We have several pictures for enclosure with this story. It was generally known as the "Wade House."

Jessie Leigh White and Blanche received a serious blow with the great depression of the thirties. In his store business he had given credit very freely to his customers and continued to do so even as times got harder. He was always hoping that better times would come soon and that his customers would be able to pay their debts. As the depression continued it was evident that the business could no longer be carried on in the same way. It was impossible to collect much that was owing. It was a hard decision to make but in 1934 J. L. White gave up his store business. He had tried so hard to hang on that his health was undermined. His asthmatic condition, which had bothered him since his youth, grew worse. His doctor suggested a change of climate so he and Blanche took an extended holiday to Arizona where they visited Ruby White. This was in the winter of 1931-32. J.L. White was much better for the change and faced his business problems with courage when he returned. He realized that the store had to go and within a couple of years it happened.

J.L. White still had his pulpwood business. He bought a home in Kilburn and conducted his business from there. His sons Max and Leigh worked with him, doing most of the travelling. He died February 5, 1941.

After the death of Jessie Leigh White, Blanche White continued to live in Kilburn but her son Max was concerned that she was alone so much of the time. Max now managed the business his father had established. His home was in Andover so he arranged a suite of rooms in his home for his mother. She made her headquarters here but spent much of her time in the homes of her daughters, Leitha in Boston, Marion in Alberta and Constance in British Columbia. She was always a most welcome guest and we are grateful for the memories we have of the visits she made to us. Her grandchildren have happy and rich memories of their grandmother White.

She was a faithful member of the Anglican Church and of the I.O.D.E. She took a keen interest in the Order of the Eastern Star and occupied the top position in New Brunswick for a time. This term as "Worthy Grand" gave her the opportunity to travel throughout the province and to give her presidential addresses. She loved to talk and was a most acceptable speaker. Blanche White had many other talents. Always interested in handwork, there are many samples of her workmanship in the homes of her friends and family. In her last years, she continued to use her spare moments tating and I have yet to discover what happened to the yards and yards of lace she made. Some of her family and friends have in their possession, paintings and drawings which she did in earlier years. They are much beyond average in excellence and are prized by those who have them.

In the summer of 1957 Marion and I motored to Nova Scotia and on our way we stopped to visit Gramma White in Andover. She was 87 years of age. We suggested that she accompany us on our trip. She had never been to Nova Scotia and was most anxious to see that province. She came along and her presence added to our interest as we visited Halifax, Grand Pre, Digby as well as place in Cape Breton. She enjoyed every bit of the journey.

Blanche White died in 1957 and is buried in the cemetery at Grand Falls.

Marriage Notes for Ethel Maxwell and Jesse White:

Notice of wedding in the St. Stephen Paper

The monotony of our usually quiet little village was very pleasantly varied on Wednesday evening of last week, by a wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Maxwell. The contracting parties were their only daughter Blanche, and Mr. Leigh White of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Millidge, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. Mr. Arthur Maxwell and Miss Mabel Penkes brother and cousin of the bride, were the attendants. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of brown cloth, beautifully trimmed with silk, with ornaments and bouquet of roses. Margaret Christie was married on Hills' Point for awhile and then moved about 2 miles on the road to Lily Hill which was the main road, before the causeway was built. Joe, was the mailman for many years until he retired and his youngest son Herbie took over. Joe was a typical old time mailman who followed the theory of "whether rain or sleet or snow the mail must go through". I have heard my father say of Joe delivering the mail on snow shoes as the drifts were too high for a horse and sleigh. I can remember him bringing the mail to the Point in a sleigh as the roads were not plowed. In all of Joe's years, he never once went on strike.

During the 2nd World War Howard Hill said that "Old Joe Stalin looked like Joe Richardson but he thought that he (Joe Stalin) was a good deal smarter."

Maggie and Joe had a large family of 8 children, they were:

Seymour Freemont - 1902 and died 1971.

Albert Gilman - 1905 (lives in Black's Harbour)

Alice Ethelyn - 1907 (lives in St. John)

Marguerite Theresa (lives on St. David Ridge)

- 1912 (lives on Bay Road)

Marion Beatrice Helena - 1915 (lives in St. Stephen)

Joseph Eugene - 1918 (lives in St. Stephen)

Herbert Howard - 1920 died 1972.

Notes for Franklin Hartley Hill:

Franklin Hartley Hill

He was born in 1866 and came to Cannington in 1888 or 1889. He first homesteaded the land cornering the quarter where he later lived. He worked for the Becktons for a brief time then went to British Columbia to prospect and was at the Caribou while the gold rush was on. He tells of three men leaving camp, one died, one vanished and one was lucky enough to make it through. Frank did do some prospecting. Some of the other Hills had started out for the Caribou overland, got as far as the Peace River area and found it too hard so started trading for furs.

Frank later returned to his land SW-13-9-2-2 and married Annie Hindmarch on May 22, 1903. With the aid of James Beattie, he built the log house that still stands on the property, now owned by his son, Alfred Hill, and is farmed by Dan Hodgson.

Frank was an elder of Sutherland Church and a very religious man. His daughter, Annie, recalls the family involvement in the building of the church as they discussed the donations of the Eaton's and Simpson's stores. One gave the chairs and the other gave the floor matting. Reverend Thomas Lawson was the first minister in the new church. Frank was still serving communion in the church at the age of eighty.

There was no school in the area when Alice, their oldest child was ready to begin Grade One so she lived with the Appletons, near the Moos Mountain School and attended it until the Keverne School was built in 1912 or 1913, north of the former Wes Downery home.

Frank became trustee on the first Keverne school board and in all served thirty-two years.

Annie was born on August 12, 1877 and came to Canada from England with her parents, James Fry and Ann Hindmarch and presumably got her schooling at Cannington. In her younger years, prior to her marriage, she worked for Mrs. LeMesurier helping to look after the children and other household chores, and possibly helped other ladies of the neighborhood.

Annie and Frank had a family of six, ranging in ages from about five to sixteen, when Annie had the misfortune to get cancer in the roof of her mouth. She was taken to Winnipeg for the operation, which turned out to be a complete success. It is not known at this time how long she was there or how long the operation took. Although she was left with a speech impediment, she was a very lucky person to have been able to come through this type of operation with a complete cure. A few years ago, a doctor in Vancouver told her that it was a miracle, that even yet they could not guarantee as much success as he had had.

So Annie was another one of those great ladies of that era. Although she was not a very big person, she was able to hold her own with all the trials and tribulations of life, as they came along. She was a great cook and homemaker as well as doing her share of the outside chores.

One of Frank's and Annie's hobbies was their beautiful flower garden around the old log house. The long lilac hedge outlining the lane out to the road, was a neighborhood show piece every spring.

Frank passed away on January 7, 1954 and Annie passed away on June 16, 1961.

Annie and Frank's family were:

- 1) Alice born March 13, 1904, married Ed Ross and farmed at Heward for a while and then moved to Ituna area. They farmed there until about 1936, then moved out to Langley, British Columbia where they have lived ever since. Alice and Ed have three children., Patricia, Donald and Dennis and they all reside in British Columbia.
- 2) James, born March 24, 1906 would likely get his schooling at Keverne. He farmed north of Stoughton. He met Mildred Hood of Ituna, Saskatchewan. They were married and moved to Langley, B.C. to live and have resided there ever since. Mildred and James have three sons, Gordon, Edward and Bruce.

3) Wesley was born August 8, 1908, also went to Keverne School. He farmed north of Stoughton with his brother Jim. They moved to the Ituna area with their livestock and personal possessions loaded on racks and wagons hauled by horses. Wesley married Florence Hood of Ituna on May 24, 1939. Their marriage was very brief as Wesley was called into the army of World War 11 and was killed on December 11, 1994 in Italy, serving in the Canadian army Engineers on an advanced bridge site on the Lamone River, Hill Bay, on Wiley Lake in Northern Saskatchewan was named by the Provincial Government to commemorate his sacrifice. Florence and Wesley had twin daughters, Annie Mildred and Alice Irene.

4) Annie was born July 8, 1910, was also a Keverne School girl. She married Edward Dunkerly and they lived on the former James Beattie farm now owned by Murray Short.

Edward served in the army in World War Two, and while he was overseas, Annie kept the farm going.

Annie and Ed served on the Sutherland Church board as well as being active in any other community project. Ed was on the board for the Arcola Larger School Unit for some time, as well.

In the fall of 1959, Annie and Ed and family moved to British Columbia where they had lived ever since. They had two children, Jean and Charles, who took their schooling in Carlyle. They both reside in British Columbia.

5) Willard was born on November 28, 1912.

6) Alfred was born July 5, 1915.

They two, went to Keverne School and rumors have it that especially Alfred, was great for giving the teachers a bad time. Both Bill and Alf lived at home with their parents and eventually took over the farm. They are great nature lovers and can tell many a story of their hunting and trapping experiences and if we could just get them to write it down, it would make very interesting reading.

Alfred was always noted for his great vegetable garden and strawberry patches, and every spring would be the first to have radishes and lettuce in the neighborhood. He was a great guy to have for a friend when the corn was ready too. After his mother passed away, I believe, Alf more or less took over the household duties while Willard ( or Bill, as we all knew him), did more of the farming part. They kept the usual farm animals, horses, cows, pigs and sheep and experimented with different kinds of fowl. Bill's evening enjoyment was playing Bridge with the neighbors. He was also a member of the Bridge Club.

Both Bill and Alf are now retired and living in Manor, Saskatchewan and enjoying their leisure time at the Over Sixties Drop In Center.

5) Minnie Maggie Victoria Hill

She was born in 1869, the fifth child of Nehemiah and Sarah Hill that stayed in this area. She married Samuel Brayford at Canduff. Their homestead was SW-32-2-9-1, north of the Tom Brayfords. They had ten children, namely, Ethel, Frank, Sam, Grace, Lily, Norman, Roy, Marian, Vesta and Ida.

Grace married Jasper Fox and farmed north of Manor for years. The Jasper Fox farm was well known all over the prairies for the fine purebred cattle. Jasper was a leader in improving the Hereford Breed. Jasper is now deceased and Grace resides in the Moose Mountain Lodge in Carlyle.

He married the former Susie Bartlett of Bartlett's Mills, on January 1, 1901, at Oak Bay. She survives. They spent all their married life at the Morrell homestead. Mr. Morrell was parish clerk of St. David's parish for 56 years, and a member of the oak Bay Baptist Church.

Also surviving are two daughters (Marion) Mrs. W. R. Manning of Bathurst; (Frances) Mrs. George Hyslop, at home; one sister, Mrs. Mabel Rogerson, Lancaster, N.B.; seven grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at his home, with Rev. William Armstrong, Lawrence Station, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Donald Draper and Rev. George Murray of Oak Bay. Notes for Anna Susie Bartlett:

Obituary Anna S. Morrell

The funeral of Mrs. Morrell, widow of Amos Chester Morrell, was held Sunday April 29 at two o'clock from her home in Oak Bay where she died Friday, the 27th after a prolonged illness.

The Rev. Kenneth Hughes of the Oak Bay Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Morrell was a life long member, conducted services. Assisting were Rev. William Armstrong of Lawrence Station and Rev. V.B. Walls of the Oak Bay United Church who offered prayer.

Covered with a blanket of red roses the casket rested in a veritable bower of beauty. Floral tributes filled the room, expressions of love and of the esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

In addition to those a beautiful Bible and marker were presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, Mass., In Loving Memory of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrell. A number of friends made up a sum of money to be given to the church along with Gideon Bibles, in memory of Mrs. Morrell and many contributed to the Heart Fund in her name. Burial was in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Born March 29, 1872 in Bartlett's Mills, N.B. the eldest child of Edward and Frances Bartlett, she attended the country school there and later the Fredericton Normal School from which she graduated.

From that time until her marriage to Mr. Morrell in 1901, she was a teacher, first at the Oak haven School then at the school in Chamcook. Former pupils from these two schools never forgot her. Over the years presents of flowers and fruit came to her from then on special occasions. Two of them were present at the funeral, Mr. Harley Bedford and Mr. Herman Hopps both of Oak Haven.

To the work of her church she gave her dedicated services, and was filling the offices of clerk and Sunday School superintendent four years ago, when ill health made it impossible for her to carry on. Only then did she pass the responsibilities over to others of a younger generation.

A devoted wife and mother, she was the heart of a happy home and indeed of a House by the side of the Road where the smile of this precious Christian lady welcomed all who came and came they did from far and near and all who stayed to enjoy its abundant hospitality.

To those in need within in her sphere, she was a refuge and help. We shall not soon see her life again.

Mrs. Morrell leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Manning (Marion) of Bathurst and Mrs. George Hyslop (Frances) of Oak Bay; seven grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, two brothers, Hollis bracelet of Bartlett's Mills and Lewis Bartlett of Bayside besides several nieces and nephews.

Notes for Cyrus Hill Acheson:

Obituary - Cyrus Acheson

Word has been received here of the death of Cyrus Hill Acheson at his home in Transvaal, South Africa.

Mr. Acheson was a native of Elmsville, having been born there October 1, 1872, a son of John Harris and Jane (Hill) Acheson. He received his early education in St. Andrews, and later attended Normal school at Fredericton and University of New Brunswick, where he completed the four- year course in two years. He taught for a brief period in Moncton and other centres in New Brunswick, and at the close of the Boer War was selected to accompany FR Mullen, principal of the Normal School at that time, to South Africa where they reorganized the system of education and patterned it after the Canadian School system. Mr. Acheson was recognized throughout his life as a brilliant scholar and noted educationist. He remained in South Africa until retired a few years ago at which time he came to Canada and spent some time in St. Stephen, later going to Toronto and Calgary, returning to his home in Transvaal about two years ago.

He was married in 1893[8] to Miss Martha Herbison of Bocabec. His death occurred on July 7, 1949, their 51st anniversary. His widow survives, with three sons, Kenneth and Wilfred in the Transvaal, and Harold in South America. A fourth son died in infancy. The late Harry Acheson of Elmsville whose death occurred two years ago, was a brother.

Obituary - Mrs. Ella Frye

Friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Ella M. Frye, which although sudden was not unexpected. A heart ailment which had been troubling her for some time seized her with fatal severity on Sunday, August 4 and she passed away in the early evening at the advanced age of 79 years.

Born at Little Ridge, a daughter of the late Peter and Matilda Morrison she was the last surviving member of a large family. Since her marriage some 40 years ago she had lived in St. Stephen where she was a regular attendant of the Kirk United Church as long as health permitted. She was exceptionally active for one of her years before her death. Her husband, Henry Frye, predeceased her in December, 1938. She is survived by an only son, George of St. Stephen, three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held the following Wednesday at the home of her son, Rev. B.D. Earle officiating and was well attended. Beautiful floral tributes were received. Two favorite hymns were sung by Jack Duplissea and the pallbearers were Ernest Hewes, Fletcher Thornton, George McConvey and Beverly Maxwell. Interment was made in the Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Inez Phoebe Morrell:
 OBITUARY - Inez P. MacLeod

Relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Inez Phoebe MacLeod of Oak Bay, at the age of 81 years at the Charlotte County Hospital on Monday, February 7th, 1972, following a illness of three months.

Born at Oak Bay on March 2, 1890, she was the daughter of the late George S. Morrell and Maria (Doten) Morrell. Two brothers predeceased her; Frank of Oak Bay and Woodstock, in 1962 and Austin of Princeton, New Jersey, in 1969. This she was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Educated at the public school at Oak Bay and the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton in 1907-08, she was a teacher in the schools of Charlotte and York Counties for a period of seven and one half years from 1908 to 1916. Schools in which she served as teacher were Lever Settlement, Oak hill, McAdam, Little Ridge and Oak Bay.

She was married on October 28, 1915 to Everett Campbell MacLeod, a son of the late J. Campbell MacLeod and Marietta Eastman) MacLeod of Little Ridge. During early years of their marriage they resided at Little Ridge, moving to Oak Bay where they have resided until the present time, living in the home of her childhood built many years ago by her father.

Three children were born to her; Margaret Jean, who died in infancy; Priscilla and Malcolm.

She is survived by her husband, Everett C. MacLeod of Oak Bay; a daughter, Priscilla of Bangor, Maine; a son, G.E. Malcolm MacLeod of Fredericton, N.B.; two grandchildren, Austin Greenlaw of Andover, N.B. and Miss Kathryn Greenlaw of Bangor, Maine; a number of cousins, nieces and nephews.

As a wife and mother for fifty-six years she was a source of strength to her family to whom she was devoted and in whom she maintained a keen interest to the time of her death.

An ardent reader, she enjoyed literary pursuits and maintained a keen interest in writing both poetry and short stories. Selections of her poetry were published several years ago.

Her most recent interest in writing was a genealogy of her family tracing the history of the Morrell and Doten families through the past several generations to the present. During 1971, at the age of 81 years, she wrote numerous letters and gathered all of the informative material for this work which is now ready for publication.

A teacher for several years, and a person keenly interested in others, she had a wide circle of friends, and she became known and respected throughout Charlotte County and beyond. She maintained a regular correspondence with relatives and friends in many parts of North America,

A devout Christian, she was a life long member of the Oak Bay United Baptist Church.

Her funeral was largely attended in the A.G. MacDonald Memorial Chapel at St. Stephen on the afternoon of February 10th, when member of her family, relatives and friends gathered to pay a final tribute to her memory. The service was conducted by Reverend Eldon Hicks, United Baptist Church, Oak Bay. the sermon was preached by Reverend Kenneth Hughes, United Baptist Church, St. George. Prayer was offered by Reverend Maynard Rector, United Church of Canada, Oak Bay.

Two favorite hymns, "Peace In The Valley" and "In The Garden" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Dorothy Murchie of St. Stephen.

Pallbearers were Harold Irving, Burton Ashley, Keith Morrell, Donald Morrell, Glen MacLeod, Lloyd MacLeod.

Many beautiful floral tributes and memorials testified to the esteem and affection with which she was regarded. Memorials were offered on her behalf to the Oak Bay United Baptist Church, the New Brunswick Division of the Canadian Heart Foundation, the Charlotte County Cancer Society, the Canadian Association for the Mentally Retarded. A number of Gideon Bibles were presented in her memory.

Burial was in the family lot in the Oak Bay Rural Cemetery over looking the oak tree lined drives and lots, and the committal service was conducted under sunny skies and in warm Spring like weather by Reverend Kenneth Hughes and Reverend Eldon Hicks.

Mr. L. R. Knowles, who died in Victoria Public Hospital, Fredericton at the age of 56, was a respected journalist who gained a wide reputation as a radio news director.

Services were held Tuesday in the Brunswick Street United Baptist Church in Fredericton followed by a second service and burial in St. Stephen.

Rev. Harold R. Burton and that conducted the Fredericton service in St. Stephen by Rev. L.E. Davis.

A native of Windsor, NS Mr. Knowles entered the news media in that province and worked for a number of Nova Scotia newspapers before coming to The Courier in 1929. His length tenure in St. Stephen brought him a solid reputation as a journalist and a host of friends and acquaintances.

In 1954 Mr. Knowles resigned from the Courier to take up a position with Radio Press, a maritime news agency. Later when the news operation ceased operation in 1900, Mr. Knowles was appointed news director of CFNB now Radio Atlantic.

Mr. Knowles was well known to countless government and public officials and earned their respect with his conscientious reporting of facts and analytical approach to opinion writing. To the general public he was best known for his editorial program., "Larry Looks At. The News", which was heard daily by thousands of people throughout the Atlantic Provinces.

Mr. Knowles was a past president of the Fredericton branch of the New Brunswick Fish and Game Protective Association.

He was a member of the Brunswick Street United Baptist Church in Fredericton and served as chairman of the church's constitution committee and a member of its board of trustees and board of finance.

He is survived by his wife, the former Evelyn Smith of St. Stephen and one daughter, Barbara, Mrs. Melvin Williams of Calgary.

Notes for Helen Muriel Gillespie:

Obituary - Helen Muriel Baldwin

The death of Helen Muriel Baldwin occurred at Lincourt Manor, St. Stephen on Nov. 10, 1992, where she had been a resident.

Word of her death came as a sense of shock by her family, relatives and friends.

She was born Aug. 27, 1906, a daughter of the late Charles and Margaret (Hanson) Gillespie of Pennfield, where she attended the Grade School. Later she attended the Toronto Conservatory of Music for two years. A talented musician she served as organist, for a time, of Christ Anglican Church, Pennfield, and of St. Mark's Anglican Church, St. George, of which she was a member.

On Sept. 12, 1934, she was united in marriage with the late Edgar L. Baldwin of St. George. The wedding was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Saint John. Over the years they resided in Fredericton, Chatham, N.B. and in Halifax, Middleton and in Cape Breton, N.S. where Edgar's work took them, as an inspector of Central Mortgage and Housing. When he retired they returned to their home on Riverview Ave., St. George.

Helen held membership in the IODE while in Chatham in the ACWs of the Anglican churches and local Granite Town Club for seniors. Her hobbies included needlecraft on variety, and in oil paintings excelling in both; she also enjoyed curling.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Glendyne Callison of Eureka, Calif.; three grandsons, Ronald, Timothy and Thomas of Eureka; a number of cousins, nephews and nieces.

The funeral service was held here in St. Mark's Anglican Church with the Rector Rev. Charles Smart and Rev. Canon David Genge, Rector of Christ Anglican Church, Pennfield, officiating. Two hymns "Softly and Tenderly" and "How Great Thou Art" were sung by the congregation. The pallbearers were all relatives - Charles Gillespie, Harold Gillespie, James and Dwight Gillespie, John Baldwin and Michael Whitford. Interment was in the St. George Rural Cemetery.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Baldwin, Riverview Avenue. Beautiful floral tributes were received and a number of donations made to the memorial funds.

Those attending the service were from Eureka, California; Halifax, N.S.; Fredericton; Old Ridge; Pennfield; L'Etete and Beaver Harbour.

75 Years a Mason

Brougham Union Lodge Honouring Their Own and Celebrating Their History

Kenneth Beaton Turner will be celebrating his 100th birthday on Feb. 8, 2010. He still has his driver's license, lives alone in his condo in Hamilton and does volunteer work at the local senior's centers. His maternal grandfather, W. Bro. Forrester A. Beaton was W.M. of Brougham Union in 1891; his grandfather's brother, W. Bro. Donald R. Beaton was W.M. in 1905 and his father, W. Bro. Howard E. Turner was W.M. in 1934. In 1943 it would have been Ken's year to be Master but he was in the Air Force so his father Howard was elected W.M. again. In 1946, Ken was asked if he would be Master. He was by this time a Major in the Air Force, stuck in a desk job in Ottawa. After a conversation with his (very understanding) superior, he was given permission to commute to Claremont to fulfill his commitment as Master. Ken would jump on the train in Ottawa, which 'just happened' to go through Claremont and stopped to let him off. He would have dinner with his good friend the station master, go to Lodge, and then pick up the train at 11:30 pm. and report for work the next morning. Claremont was not a stop for that train. This man did this for a year. Talk about commitment and devotion. Brougham Union is obviously very proud of this fine gentleman.

Email received from Adam Albonowicz, 20 Oct 2010:

Josephine Asher Married Eugene Vacher, and had a son, Eugene DuBac Vacher, Oct20, 1909, died Sept 2009, in San Diego... Also had a daughter who died the same year she was born, around 1914... I think, was supposed to be the spring after both her parents died, from possibly the flu... but dates are hazy as a family bible with all the information has disappeared from my grandfathers' house which belonged originally to Josephus and Sarah. Josephus the third, grandson, died in a submarine in WW2. Other than that, can not seem to trace most of the family. Is it possible for me to get the details from your tree as I had thought from an old story that one of Josephines' family had been a cook in the Lewis and Clark expedition. Also, thought the family traced back to an area of Virginia near Petersburg when the US became independant... but may have the old stories wrong.

A/B Burton Rolls Missing After "Athabaskan" Lost

St. Stephen Man May Be Among 85 Off Tribal Class Destroyer Claimed By Germans As Prisoners After Channel Battle

A message from official sources yesterday advised members of his family that A/B Burton Rolls, R.C.N.V.R. was reported missing following the sinking of his ship, the Tribal Class Canadian destroyer Athabaskan, in a sharp battle with German destroyers in the English Channel last Saturday.

Although at present missing, A/B Rolls may be accounted for in course of time. High hopes are held for the survival of many of the destroyer's personnel on view of the fact that the Germans claim to be holding 85 as prisoners and also considering that the engagement took place close to the French coast where chances of being rescued would be encouraging.

Of the destroyer's complement of about 225, 46 have been brought back to England and 85 are claimed as prisoners by the German, including six officers.

Able Seaman Burton Rolls, an employee of Ganong Bros. Ltd., before enlisting in the Navy in May, 1942, saw his first duty at sea aboard the Athabaskan and had been with her through all her short but stormy career. He is one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rolls of St. Stephen who are in uniform; the eldest Herbert, is with the Canadian Army in Italy, and the other two Donald and Jack, like Burton chose the Navy. Mrs. Burton Rolls, who before her marriage was Miss Mona Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Price of Calais, has been employed in a Portland shipyard during her husband's absence. They have one daughter, aged three years.

The Athabaskan, one of the Tribal class destroyers added to the Canadian Navy since the war began, was a sleek, heavily armed and extremely fast ship packing a tremendous punch on fore power and offensive armament. She was hit in the Mediterranean last year when the Germans made the first use of glider bombs but was nursed back to port in what was described at the time as a remarkable piece of seamanship.

The engagement which proved to be her last occurred in the starlit hours before dawn Saturday morning, April 29. In company with the destroyer Haida, also of the Tribal class, the Athabaskan was engaged in patrol work in the English Channel when they sighted two German destroyers and immediately closed to engage them. The action was short but furious. Only a few salvos had been fired when the Athabaskan was hit by a torpedo and sank within a few minutes her guns firing to the last. The Haida continued to carry the battle to the fleeing German craft. One of them was driven ashore out of control and the other escaped on the darkness and mist. The Germans reported 85 of the Athabaskan's personnel as prisoners while 46 of the men returned safely to England, having been picked up by the Haida. Much hope was held that A.B. Rolls was among those taken by the Germans.

Notes for Marion Josephine Pendleton:

From ST.CROIX COURIER- At the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B. on Dec. 23, 1993, Mrs Marion Josephine (Pendleton) Conley of Lords Cove, Deer Island; wife of Joseph P. Conley, daughter of the late Daniel and Dorothy Pendleton; survived by her husband, two daughters, Rachel, Mrs Glen Stuart of Lords Cove and Martha, Mrs Tom Gibson of South Portland, Me., one son, Daniel of Lords Cove, three grandsons, Matthew Stuart, David and Thomas Gibson, one uncle, Robert Pendleton of Saint John, and numerous cousins.No visitation by family request. Donations to the Kidney Foundation or charity of one's choice would be appreciated by the family. Arrangements under the care of the St. George Funeral Home, 26 Portage Street, St. George, N.B.

From ST.CROIX COURIER-1990- Organ Donation- Conley grateful for the gift of life-(with picture) Marion Conley of Deer Island, who had a kidney transplant two years ago says it has changed her life- Receiving a kidney transplant has given Marion Conley a whole new lease on life and she will always be grateful to the family of the young man who donated his organs to her and others like her. "People say it is iraculous that we have the technology to do this type of thing today but I think it is miracloous that someone who has lost a 23-year old son, brother or father would think of other people at a time like that. I would like to know his family. I wonder if these people realize the wonderful gift they gave. I do feel tremondus gratitude toward them." It was while she and her family were living in South Portland, Maine that Conly became terribly sick and she did not know what was wrong with her. When the family moved back to Deer Island, where they are originally from, Conley and her husband began renovating their home and she found she was tired all the time. She put this down to all the work they were doing but her daughter insisted she see a doctor. In 1986 she went into the Saint John Regional and remained there for about six weeks while various tests were run. She didcovered she suffers from polycystic disease which is a hereditary disease and that she would need dialysis to remove poisons from her blood. She learned how to use a dialysis machine and technicians from the hospital came to her home to set it up. Since this is a two-man job her daughter, who lives nearby, learned how to help her. There was also an emergency number to call if anything went wrong. When conley first started using the machine it was twice a week but eventually she moved up to three three-hour sessions which proved quite a chunk out of the day and after dialysis she always delt she just wanted to curl up and sleep for awhile. "If you have always been an independant person it is difficult to be totally dependant on someone else. I felt guilty because my daughter could not go on vacation because I needed her although the hospital is very good in providing someone to help you once a year so your helper can take some time off." While she had been in hospital Conley had been asked if she wanted to go on the transplant list and an initial evaluation, psychological evaluation and tissue typing had been carried out. All this information is sent to the Victoria General hospital in Halifax where kidney transplants are performed. Conley recalled it was a Monday morning when she received a call from the province's transplant coordinator, Ann Secord, at about 6 a.m. When she learned there was a kidney available for her she said she began laughing and crying at the same time. Secord had made reservations on a flight out of Saint John at around 1 p.m. that day so she told Conley to go on her machine tat morning before she left. By 9 p.m. that night she was in surgery. "Some people worry about rejection but my kidney worked immediately. The morning after when I woke up in my room I was stiff and I was sore but I felt better than I had for a long time." Conley spent about a month in hospital; then she moved to a motel with a shuttle bus service to the hospital so she could attend clinics for blood tests, etc. She continues to take anti-rejection medication- cyclosporinum- twice a day and will have to for the rest of her life. However that is a small price to pay for the change in her lifestyle. At the time she had her transplant Conley said she was very thin because she could not eat and she had almost no strength at all. She had to be very careful what foods she ate and was on a stringent diet. "I love Italian food and I was so pleased when the first meal they brought me was spaghetti and meatballs." But Conley will never forget the family who made all this possible. All she knows about the donor of her kidney is that he was a 23-year old man from New Brunswick who was helping someone move things, was thrown off the back of a truck and died of head injuries. She and a girl sharing her room were given the young man's kidneys and she understands his heart and liver were also used. Prior to receiving the kidney Conley said she never let herself think that she would like to have a transplant because she knew in order to receive one someone young and healthu had to die. A decision to donate organs, she said should be something which is fiscussed with the family. While a donor's family still has to give concent if that person has indicated their wish to donate their organs then it is an easier decision to make. 'It is a decision you make as a family before, not during, a time of really emotional turmoil."

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 19 June 2012:

That said it is not clear what the relationship was between Ellis LeRoy Hatch and Ruel Manzer Scott (Hatch). There was enough time between the death of Sophia Saffrona Beney Hatch and Ruel's birth for Roy to be his father. After Sophia d. Roy took Alfred to his in-laws, who raised Alfred. The girls, Annie, Eva, and Esther spent summers with the Beney's too. It is possible that Roy was having sex with Lillian Irene Scott and got her pregnant. Ruel was born (no father listed) 8 April 1908 (Calais Record Book, City Hall) In 1967 Eva by personal affidavit swore that Ruel was Roy's son. However, Ruel was not named in Roy's will.

Warren M. Dow - 1951

The death of Warren Dow occurred at his home on King Street with shocking suddenness Friday evening, less than two hours after he had been stricken by heart seizure. Earlier in the evening, in his usual good health, he had spent some time calling on patients in the hospital.

Devoted To Good

His passing was learned with regret by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the County, for few enjoyed a better reputation. A thorough Christian he carried into personal and business relationships the high principles, on which his life was based and strove to exemplify the tribute, "He Went about doing good." With strength of character and devotion to duty he combined qualities of manhood which earned the respect of all about him.

Mr. Dow was born in St. George, April 1, 1897, a son of the late Harley and Eva (Mitchell) Dow, but for most of his life lived in St. Stephen where he was active in lodge and church work. For 31 years he was employed by W.B. Sampson, for many years as foreman of the garage. In April 1946 in partnership with Ralph McNeill, he stepped into active management when the new firm of Dow & McNeill took over the Sampson car agency and garage business.

Mr. Dow was married June 28, 1922, to Lillian Spinney of St. George, who survives him with one son, Kenneth, an engineer employed by the Ford Motor Company in Windsor, Ontario.

Also surviving are three brothers, Earl and George Dow, both of New York, and a twin, Watson Dow of St. Stephen; and one sister, Mildred, Mrs. Milton Dines, Montreal. His father died in August 1950.

Mr. Dow was one of the strongest members of the Union Street Baptist Church, having taken active part in all branches of its work for many years and at the time of his death was chairman of the board of deacons. He was as well keenly interested in Miriam Lodge, IOOF, of which he was a past grand, and was also a past president of the St. Stephen Automobile Dealers Association.

The church was filled to overflowing for the funeral service, which was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L.E. Davis. In a brief tribute Mr. Davis pointed out the great loss which the church and community had sustained, and referred to his close personal associations with Mr. Dow. Members of Miriam Lodge attended in a body. Pallbearers were fellow deacons, Guy L. Clark, Sylvester E. McBride, and Fred E. Richardson and three members of Miriam Lodge, Rudolph Sanders, Jack Clark and John Weatherby. Two selections, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Face To Face," were sung by a male quartet comprised of Halton Bancroft, W.G. Dewolfe, Flavis Allen, and Alfred Burns. Burial took place in the family lot in the St. George Rural Cemetery.
