Final Version

Preface

This book is a first version of the descendants of the earliest Hill family that I have. The notation 00Root-Hill has no significance other than to allow me to easily find all families that descend from an earliest ancestor where the index listing always places these names before any other ones in the list. As more branches are found that their ancestry is unknown then additional branches will be added (i.e. Branch-Two Hill, etc).

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

If anyone find errors or has corrections they should be sent to:

Loyalist Connections:

The descendants of Joseph Hill, 1706-1782, son of Samuel Hill, 1659-1723, and Elizabeth (Williams) Hill, 1665-1737, constitute the ancestors of the Hill's of Machias, Washington Co., ME, and Charlotte Co., NB. Joseph left Maine, went to Nova Scotia as a Loyalist. This branch of the Hill descendants is spread throughout Canada, USA, and other countries. Some of their descendants are given in the next chapter.

Notes for Daniel Hill I:

Ninth child of Joseph and Abigail (Libby) Hill. (This does not seem correct, unless other children died young.)(AEK)

First permanent white resident of Calais, ME. Came from Jonesport in 1779. (Knowlton, p8/Beginnings)

The following notes are from WG database:

Daniel Hill served with the British Army at Champlain, and moved to Machias, Maine in 1763 with the "Sixteen Associates" to begin the settlement of Machias. In 1769 he moved from Jonesport to Calais. Daniel was piloted through the woods by an Indian guide and it is believed that he was the first permanent white settler in the Calais area. Daniel built a cabin near where the Ferry Point Bridge is now located. He was soon followed by other settlers and soon a settlement sprung up at the head of the St. Croix.

Daniel Hill, along with Jacob Libby and Jeremiah Frost erected and operated the first saw mill of this area at the mouth of Porters (now called Dennis Stream) stream. He also was the first settler to become involved in the lumber business and to use oxen as beasts of burden in this trade.

It is written in "The Settlement of the St. Croix Valley" by Rev. I.C. Knowlton, that Daniel Hill was a man of great strength, agility, and fearlessness, also was an ingenious, energetic and moral man."

A probable cousin of Daniel Hill was Japhet Hill of Machias who moved to Calais around 1780 and was engaged in farming. One of his grandchildren was Keziah Hill who turns up on the McAdam side of the family, more will be told of her later.

Daniel Hill was living on what he thought was the British side of the river at Frost's Mills in 1784, but on finding he was still on American soil he obtained a grant for land from King George III, and during that year went over the river with his boys and cleared some land on Hill's Point. He did not plant or sew any seeds on Hill's Point in 1784 but planted in 1785.

Another source quoted from "The History of Scarborough" by Southgate:

In 1762 the crops were almost wholly cut off by a remarkable drought. It was this circumstance which led to the settlement of Machias. They not only found (in Machias) an abundant supply of salt hay, but a fine water power at the head of tide water navigation, surrounded by unbroken forests of timber. In May 1763 the 16 settled Machias, 13 of them from Scarborough: Samuel Scott, Sylvanus Scott, (brothers), Timothy Libby, David Libby, George Libby (brothers), Daniel Hill, Japhet Hill (brothers), Isaiah Foster, Westbrook Berry, Isaac Larrabee, Daniel Fogg, all of Scarborough; Thomas Buck of Plymouth, Capt. of a coaster, Jonathan Carlton of Sheepscot, and Wm Jones of Portsmouth, N.H. making sixteen in all.

Northwest Passage

The Rogers Rangers & Daniel Hill

Pioneer of Calais

From An Issue Of The Saint Croix Courier

"Northwest Passage" that magnificent technicolor picture made from the outstanding historical novel of the same name will be shown here shortly. It is the story of the Col. Robert Rogers, the renowned Indian fighter and his company of border Rangers, and includes the terrible attack on the Indian village of St. Francis in 1759. For Calais and St. Stephen the picture should have an added interest, for it has always been understood that the pioneer settler of Calais, Daniel Hill, was a member of this redoubtable company and took a part in its exploits. When the French-Indian warfare came to an end, Hill left his native town of Scarboro on the Maine-New Hampshire border and as a member of the "Sixteen Associates" began the settlement of Machias in 1762.

In 1779, Hill came through the woods to the St. Croix guided by an Indian. A little later he built a cabin on Ferry Point, and installed his family. They probably made the trip by water in one of the little coasting vessels bringing with them their modest household goods.

The notes of James Vroom inform us that:

"Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist though not a member of the Loyalist Association. After it was decided that the St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was disposed by the Massachusetts authorities, and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the Parish of Dufferin." Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

When the "Annals of Calais and St. Stephen" were written in the early eighteen-seventies, the author, Rev. I.C. Knowlton, the Universalist minister at Calais, was able to talk with persons whose lives had touched those of the pioneers in this valley. Of Daniel Hill he writes:

"Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quoddies having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him."

It was a tradition among Daniel Hill's descendents that he had a belt of Indian scalps he was accustomed to don at times for the purpose of overawing the Passamaquoddies. Certainly if the Indians knew that he had been at the attack on St. Francis he would be held in fear, or the Abenakis of that village were kin of the Passamaquoddy tribe, who were also of the Abenaki, or Wabenaki as it is sometimes spelt.

I do not know whether there is a complete list of men who were with Rogers when the village of St. Francis was attacked, so cannot say that there is actual proof that Hill took part in the destruction. But as you will probably see by the picture, and as the following account relates it was an excellent opportunity to accumulate such a trophy. I do not think there is any doubt that Daniel Hill was a member of Rogers Rangers for that was the famous company of Indian fighters. Hill had been reared on a frontier that since the beginning of settlement had been exposed to merciless attacks by the French and their Indian allies.

The Old French War as it was generally called, in the colonies, but better known in history as the Seven Years war, ended by the Treaty of Paris in 1763, the year the "Sixteen Associates" went to begin the settlement at Machais.

A nod as to the village of St. Francis:

There were four tribes or divisions of the Wabenaki or Abenakis--the Penobscots, the Passamaquoddies, the St. John River Tribe and another, said to have been scattered and merged in other tribes, but at that time probably was represented by the Abenakis of Becancour and St. Francis.

From the Notes of James Vroom:

Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist, though not a member of the Loyalist Assn. After it was decided that St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was dispossessed by the Massachusetts authorities and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the parish of Dufferin. Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

"Northwest Passage" is a story of Col. Robert Rogers, the renowned Indian fighter and his company of Border rangers, and includes the terrible attack on the Indian Village of St. Francis in 1759. For Calais and St. Stephen this picture should have and added interests for it has always been understood that the pioneer settler of Calais, Daniel Hill was a member of the redoubtable company and took part in its exploits. #### Daniel Hill

From "Annals of Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, N.B. by Rev. I.C. Knowlton - "The first permanent white resident of Calais was Daniel Hill. He came here from Jonesport in 1779. A report had been circulating in Machias and vicinity for several years that near the head of the on the St. Croix, there was an abundance of pine, timber, fish and game that the river up to this point, was navigable for large vessels. Several persons talked of migrating to this Promised Land; and at length Mr. Hill piloted by an Indian, came through the woods to Calais. On arriving he perceived at one that the country was even better than the report indicated. Deciding to locate he built a cabin where the Gravel Pit now is, on Union Mills street, and cleared a small patch of land on Ferry Point. His oldest son, Thomas Hill, who was born January 20th, 1773 and who lived almost a century, often said that when he was about six years old, he saw his father fell the first tree that was ever cut in Calais. He was probably mistaken in relation to its being the first tree felled; but he saw his father chopping down trees on Ferry Point, and no doubt he was correct respecting his age at that time. His statement therefore fixes the date of the first permanent settlement. It was in 1779. Other persons from Machias and vicinity, very soon after, either that year or the next, joined Mr. Hill and made the settlement a neighborhood. But the permanent beginning was in 1779, and the Centennial of Calais will therefore occur in the summer of 1879.

Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quaddys having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him.

A few years after he came here, he joined Jacob Libbey and Jeremiah Frost, in building a sawmill. It stood on Porter's Stream, near its mouth, and was the first mill ever erected in this vicinity. The number of men at the "rising" was so small, that the ladies were obliged to end all their strength in lifting the heavy timbers. Without their aid the frame could not have been set up. Mr. Hill also imported the first oxen and first engaged in lumbering. He was an ingenious, energetic and moral man; and he so trained his children that his posterity largely inherit his qualities.

Another source quoted from "The History of Scarborough" by Southgate:

In 1762 the crops were almost wholly cut off by a remarkable drought. It was this circumstance which led to the settlement of Machias. They not only found (in Machias) an abundant supply of salt hay, but a fine water power at the head of tide water navigation, surrounded by unbroken forests of timber. In May 1763 the 16 settled Machias, 13 of them from Scarborough: Samuel Scott, Sylvanus Scott, (brothers), Timothy Libby, David Libby, George Libby (brothers), Daniel Hill, Japhet Hill (brothers), Isaiah Foster, Westbrook Berry, Isaac Larrabee, Daniel Fogg, all of Scarborough; Thomas Buck of Plymouth, Capt. of a coaster, Jonathan Carlton of Sheepscoot, and Wm Jones of Portsmouth, N.H. making sixteen in all.

fathered by someone else or Obediah, Sr. did not die 3 months before the birth of Obediah, Jr. but rather it was Harriet!??

Notes for James Maxwell, Sr.:

Grantee with the Port Matoon Association, in the Jones Division.

The info on James Maxwell is shown in the Loyalist cemetery tombstones inscriptions, #47, The line above, #46, shows Sarah Maxwell/ wife of / James Maxwell/ died/ Aug 15, 1831/ Aged 88.

Actual stone information is different than what is shown in the documents by Robert F. Fellows:

1) Mr. James Maxwell d Aug 2? 1847 age 85

- 2) Elizabeth w/o James Maxwell d Aug 15 1853 age 88
- 3) Sarah w/o James Maxwell d Apr ? 183?

I have personally seen the tombstone, located to the right of the main entrance to the Loyalist Cemetery, front row, and since the top of the stone is broken and mended with a piece iron bar, it is difficult to read, but the information as shown above is present.

Notes for Charlotte Hill:

There is some confusion with this Charlotte Hill, is she the daughter of Daniel Hill, Sr. or Daniel Hill, Jr. ? It would appear that she must be the daughter of Daniel Hill, Jr. as Charlotte d/o Daniel Hill, Sr. was already married in 1794 to Alexander Thompson so she would not be known as "Charlotte daughter of Daniel Hill born .... St. David" in 1797. No date of birth is shown in the Kirk McColl Church Records, only St. David as the place of birth. This location verified as Daniel Hill, Jr. had land at Hills Point, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co.

Notes for Samuel Milberry III:

Information on this family line is very difficult to keep track of and determine if the proper parent is being used as the Kirk McColl Church records only show the name of the father and no mention is made of the mother. If anyone has information from Wills, Land Transactions, or other sources that indicate errors in the connections that I show then please send me an email indicating the changes with the supporting evidence. This will be added as notes to that individual so that a more clear and concise record may be developed.

The following email was received from Rick Milbury, 30 Dec 2010:

I am a descendant of the Milbury's from York Maine with Samuel Milbury b.1747 and went to Machias and settles in St. Stephens. I just want to add and assist in a Milbury you have listed who is a Thomas Milbury who married Nancy Dyer dau. of Jonas Dyer. Thomas is incorrect and it actually is Timothy. Please consider the notes below from an email I had sent to a fellow genealogist.

Nathaniel Milbury son of Samuel b. 1747 and Mary Polly Hill eh Wrong! Nathaniel was Nathan Dyer Milbury and his brother George Milbury were sons of Timothy Milbury and Nancy Dyer (dau. of Jones Dyer of Machias Me.) I feel this to be true because I have...

1. Both "Nancy Milbury an adult" and "Nathan Dyer son of Mr. Milbury" being Baptized at St. Andrews Anglican Church, June 1, 1800 on the same day and time. I have a copy available if you like. That would make Nancy 35 years old and Nathan 4 years old at Baptiziam.

2. Nancy Milbury buried in Lower Wicklow Cemetery near Nathan Milbury's stone and her stone says ."Nancy Milbery wife of Timothy" "Died 10 February 1847 age 82" which would make her birth date 1765 - same as Timothy Milbury

3. Nancy's brother Nathan Dyer died shortly before her sons birth, giving him (her child) her brother's name? possibly.

There was a Timothy Milbury b.1765 Son of Samuel Milbury Sr.b.1723 and Dorcus Came from York , York Maine. This is the only Timothy Milbury known to me that fits. Timothy is Samuel's b.1747 younger half brother.

It is my theory that Samuel b. 1747 went north with his first wife Elizabeth Sayward both from York Maine for work and opportunity in Machias Maine. She died and he remarried widow Sara Trafton. They and their combined kids all moved to St. Stephen 1779/80. Sara dies before 1790 and Samuel remarries a third time to Mary (Polly) Hill. About this time I assume that Samuel sent word back for brother Timothy to come up for work or join him in his moderate lumber mill. The tie-in is the family of Jones Dyer who lived in Machias while Samuel Milbury and family were there. They (Dyer's) migrated further north too and are recorded in St. Stephen and St. Andrews records.

Nancy Dyer born 1765 Scarboro Maine, her parents lived there before moving to Machias ME, following the lumber trade there and then with the close of the war followed the trade up to St. Stephen N.B.

NOW HERE IS THE ONLY CATCH.. Both Nathan and George's obits state they were born or from Salem MA. Even their children stated on Marriage Certificates that their fathers came from Salem Ma. No Way! George joined the 114 Regiment at age 10 +/- (it's in my notes) and Nathan request for Crown Land Grants which were granted, stated that he was born in St. Andrews N.B. My guess is that Timothy - Samuel 1/2 brother, shamed the family somehow or abandoned them or committed suicide or something ...for the sons to rewrite their past? odd? Believe me, I checked and rechecked with Salem Archives and found nothing for Milbury / Milberry / Millberry/ Milbery, nothing! I could be mistaken but I'll need more time to dig.

And I now believe their children to be:

George Milbery b. 16 December 1792 m. Catherine Avery lived in Kent Co N.B. Canada

Nathan Dyer Milbery b. 1796 m. Marjorie Squires lived in Wicklow N.B. Canada

Best of all .... I have a copy of the tin photos of George and Catherine Avery Milbury but unfortunately none of brother Nathan D. Milbury.

Batavia (Illinois) Herald

A Pleasant Birthday Party

Last Friday, August 12, 1904, a pleasant affair transpired at the home of Mrs. Caroline Hill on Prairie avenue, being the figure of time pointed on life's dial her 71st birthday had arrived, years of along useful and pleasant life gone by.

Mrs. Hill with her mild, aimable disposition made a very happy home and her children realized and appreciate a mothers move and devotion to them, and in return they are happy in giving her every attention possible.

So on this occasion they invited together brother and sisters, nieces, nephews and with grandchildren they came a successful surprise party.

They found Mrs. Hill ready for town as she said she thought some of the country folks might be in, and she wanted to make a little preparation and for Sabbath. But when she saw them unloading the baskets of roast chicken and boiled ham she changed her mind. It is useless to attempt to tell what came in all those bundles but it was easily know the big tub contained ice cream. And when a group of nearly forty gathered in the yard and were quiet, we knew there must be an instrument somewhere for taking pictures. We saw the beautiful rocker from the children and many other useful gifts from relatives.

The afternoon was spent in one round of pleasure, and before their departure for home each guest, great and small, wrote their names, so grandma could remember who came to make her heart glad on the turning of another mile stone on life's journey. The names are as follows: Rev. John B. Reinhardt of Harvey, Ill., Mrs. Hill's children, Mr. Howard B. Hill, Lorin S. Hill, Mrs. Anna Paxton; sisters and brother, Mrs. Susan Jones, Mrs. Mary Gates, Taylor Warne; brother in law, Asel Gates; grandchildren, Miss Florence Paxton, Miss Maud and Earl H. Paxton, Miss Vera Hill, Miss Fern, Mildred, Bernice and Harrold B. Hills; daughters and son in law, Mrs. Nettie E. Hill, Mrs. Nellie P. Hill and Fred Paxton; nieces and nephews, Mrs. Carrie Hill and son Orville, Mr. nd Mrs. Ed Warne, Mrs. Wesley Gary, Mrs. D.E. Bartholomew, Mrs. Wesley Morgan, Mr and Mrs. Samuel Warne, daughter Lucinda; Burton Blackman; friends, Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Desrosier, Mrs. M.A. Jones, Mrs. Hannah Olmstead.

The baptism in 1797 that was attributed to this Charlotte (Hill) Thompson was in error as Charlotte was married to Alexander Thompson in 1794 and would not have been known as "daughter of Daniel Hill, born ...[not date given] St. David. This Charlotte Hill was born in Machias. The Charlotte Hill referred to in the baptism in 1797 must be d/o Daniel Hill, Jr. who was in St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB

Machias 'Union' - In 1777 when British war vessels threatened Machias, Me. several families moved from the settlement to Old Stream, a branch of the Machias, a dozen miles up the river and in or near what is now known as the town of Northfield. The families built camps or log houses, tilled the land, lived there some of them two years, others not so long. In 1770 some of the Old Stream pioneers went to the St. Croix. As Knowlton in his history of Calais says, they were guided through the woods by an Indian while others came by water. Daniel HILL and Samuel HILL were the first settlers of Calais and they were from the Old Stream Colony. ... Among the sons of Japhet HILL was Abner HILL who settled on the St. Stephen side. Abner married Mary (or Polly) WHITNEY d/o Joel WHITNEY, one of the first settlers of Jonesboro and sister of Capt. Ephraim WHITNEY. It is told that when Abner and Mary were married they rode from Jonesboro via No. 14 to Cooper on horseback through the woods, no roads then, to the St. Croix, and although Abner had real and personal estate, their outfit with which to commence housekeeping consisted of a few chairs, an iron tea kettle, one table and a bag of Indian meal. The sons of Abner were George HILL, John HILL, Joel HILL, Abner HILL, Daniel HILL, William HILL, Horatio N. HILL. George was well known in political circles in New Brunswick and Canada while Abner, Daniel and Horatio were prominent lumber manufacturers on the St. Croix. Elizabeth HILL, widow of Abner, is still living in St. Stephen. Ann PORTER, widow of John PORTER lives at Upper Mills, natives of Jonesboro, daughters of Ephraim WHITNEY. The late Beriah WHITNEY of Milltown, N.B. was a son of Ephraim Whitney of Jonesboro. Mrs. Lucy WHITNEY, widow of Beriah, now past 82 years, also a resident of Milltown, is a daughter of late Wm S. HALL of Jonesboro. Col. Joseph WHITNEY, prominent business man of Calais, 1826 to 1840, was a native of Jonesboro; also Paul WHITNEY and Joel WHITNEY, both settlers in Milltown, N.B. early as 1806-9 and brothers of Ephraim. Capt. Jonathan KNIGHT came from Machias in 1790. His friends claimed that he had fired the first shot in the battle in which the "Margaretta" was captured. Capt. O'BRIEN was in command. When they neared the British schooner Knight said 'Captain, I see their eyes'. Then said O'Brien, 'Fire' and so he did. The old Queen's Arm which Knight used, the family kept a long time. Paul KNIGHT, the oldest of Jonathan, lived at Englishman's River until 1800 when he moved to Robbinston thence to Calais where he lived the rest of his days. He married Hannah WHITNEY of Jonesboro; in their family were three pairs of twins. Calais was incorporated in 1806. Stephen BREWER of Boston came to Calais in 1800 or 1801. In 1804 he married Sophia HILL of Machias, a sister of late Obediah HILL. Subsequently Mrs. Brewer married a Mr. Knight. Their only child Nancy A. KNIGHT married William SPRING. They lived in Alexander until about 1865 when they moved to Arcata, California. A son, William O.H. SPRING, is now a resident of Arcata and prominently known in Humboldt Co. About 1818, Joseph NASH and Amaziah NASH, millwrights, sons of Isaac NASH of Columbia, the latter a native of Yarmouth, Me. and a descendant of the Nash who settled at Duxbury, Mass. from England in 1690 or 1695, came to Milltown, Calais. The brothers were intelligent mechanics. They had built some of the mills at Machias and East Machias and the fame of the growing Schona River induced them, then unmarried, to adopt the frontier for future scenes of labors. These brothers built several mills near Milltown. Joseph lived here as late as 1858 and died about this time. A son, Nelson NASH succeeded his father as millwright, but died early in life. Capt. Amaziah NASH at one time, 1840 probably, was engaged in business at Bog Brook, two or three miles below the city on the road towards Red Beach. He had a mill there. ... Mr. Nash's first home where his family were all born, was at Milltown. He resided there almost twenty years. Col. Nash in 1847 moved to the south part of Robbinston. Here he built a saw mill, a grist and lath mill, all operated by a large moveshot wheel. This was in operation as late as 1852 or 1853. He also built vessels and superintended an extensive store trade. The depression of '56 and '57 overtook him and the property passed into other hands. In '57 or '58, Mr. Nash with his family moved to Hopkinton, Iowa where he died ten years later; a daughter having married and settled at Hopkinton in 1854 or '55. So that with a single exception, although both had families, neither Joseph nor

The 1851 Census for St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p1, shows Lidia, age 16, as a daughter of Daniel Maxwell, age 62. Hill Maxwell, was married to Harriet Grimmer prior to 1851 and they had a daughter Lydia born 1849. It would appear that there is an error in the census and Lidia should be shown as the daughter of Hill and the age should be 16 months and not 16 years.

On April 11, 1816 Daniel Hill aged 23 and John Gilman aged 24 petitioned for two land grants. These two men, together with Reuben and Henry Whittier, David Laiton and Daniel Hill Sr. explored a tract supposed to lie above the grant of John Crory, but it was found the lots were in the Crory grant. They decided on lots east of the Digdeguash River of 200 acres each to front on the river. They cleared the lots and built a barn on each lot. (From N.B. archives, petitions.)

Hugh WILSON came from Ireland in 1819 (and he used to enjoy identifying this fact by stating that upon his arrival in Canada he learned that Victoria, England's later Queen, had been born.) Hugh landed at St. Andrews where he joined a sister who had preceded him to Canada. He also had two other sisters somewhere in New England. While at St. Andrews he married Elizabeth, called Eliz. Ann (HILL) and moved along the shore toward St. George and settled temporarily in the neighborhood of Bethel, Charlotte County. It is believed that Eliza Ann was born in New Brunswick. Here they met John and James CATHCART. Hugh WILSON and John CATHCART bought adjoining blocks of land on the old St. Andrew - Fredericton road in the Rollingdam area. The WILSONS coming first, arriving on horseback with their personal effects and settling in 1826; and the CATHCARTS following the next year in 1827. Hugh forthwith built his fine home which is used today.

The 1851 census reports the following children and ages: " James, 20; Sarah, 18; Ann M.,16; Mary, 13; Hugh, 11; Elenor, 7; and Hill, 4." There may have been others; also "ages" may only be approximate and thus require confirmation; but such information is always most helpful. (This family apparently was not related to the WILSONS of Sorrel Ridge (these came from England). Their grave markers read as follows; "Hugh WILSON (Dec. 25, 1797--October 27, 1887); Wife, Elisa Ann (Died February 20, 1878, age 76)" Hill M. WILSON (December 21, 1846--November 17, 1929); Wife, Annie (BELL) (October 14, 1845-January 9, 1918)"

1. Found Moses Hill in the 1871 census, living in St. David, Charlotte, N.B. He is 63 yrs old, born N.B. Religion is Church of England, origin English, occupation farmer, and he is a widower. The only person living with him is Harris Hill, age 33, born N.B. married, but in remarks column it is stated "parted from wife." I think this is the Harris Hill who was "adopted" by his uncle John B. and living with that family in 1851. He is probably the one who married Mary Blake.

2. Found three deeds in the name of Moses Hill:

A. Book 0, pp311-312: Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill No. 192 to James McCullough; Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte, Co, N.B. yeomen, for...5 pounds...paid by James McCullough of the same place, yeoman, have remitted...all our right, title, & interest to the following piece of land...in the parish aforesaid, being a part of lot #52 in the Penobscot Assoc. Grant and on which the said McCullough now resides, described as follows...westerly side of the highway & southernly line of a (paved? reserved?) to a reserve for public uses but since granted to McCullough...containing one acre...25 July 1835. signed Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill.

B. Book 0, pp 312-313: James McCullough No. 193 to Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill; James McCullough & Lucy McCullough of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte Co. N.B., for...42 pounds...paid by Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the same place...have sold...unto the said Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill...our title...to lot #52 situated in Parish aforesaid, bounding westerly by the River St. Croix, northerly by lot #53 now owned by James Russel...southerly by lot #51 now owned and occupied by Alexander McDowall being the same lot which the late Stephen Lawrence died seized and possessed of and on which we now reside... signed 20 July 1835. Witnesses to both of these deeds are CR Hatheway and CM Hatheway.

C. Book 20 pp77-78: No. 62 Moses Hill to Robert Towl: I Moses Hill of the Parish of St. David, Charlotte Co. N.B, farmer, for...the sum of $135 U.S. currency paid to me by Robert Towl of the Parish of St. David, etc...have sold...the following described premises: All that certain parcel of land containing by estimation 75 acres, .being a part of lot #89 and laying on the eastern side of Oak Bay & on the eastern side of the road leading from St. Andrews to St. Stephens and on the north of land owned by J.A. Simpson and on the south by land owned by David Smith, Jr., together with all the improvements on said land... signed Moses Hill 23 October 1871. Witness Joseph A. Simpson.

Conflict: Kirk McColl church records trascribed by Melvin Chase show the dob as 27 Oct. 1846 and a Mathew Sidney son of the same parents dob of 20 May 1847. This must be in error as there is only 7 months between these two births.

The 1851 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., p1, shows a William (middle initial difficult to read), age 6, s/o John and Mary Ann Milberry.

Result: dob for William being set as 27 Oct. 1845 and NOT 1846.(AEK)

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in al phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

William E. McAllister and William Thompson

The lineage of A. H. Thompson has been proven. He is a son of Alexander. He was in business with Harrison Thompson which would tend to indicate a close relationship with the William s/o James line. However, he is not mentioned in the Will of William. Subsequent research has shown A. H. Thompson was a son of Alexander Thompson.

Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason

Another link with the storied past of this district was severed Monday March 6, 1933, with the passing of Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason, great-granddaughter of Daniel Hill, pioneer settler of Calais at the home of her nephew Adelbert Hill, at the Ledge. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Hill was born at the Ledge June 16, 1854, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, but following her marriage to William Nason took up residence at Oak Point where she remained until her husband's death. Later she returned to the Ledge to make her home with her sisters, the Misses Alma and Elizabeth Hill, and following their deaths continued to reside there in the summer months, spending the winters with her nephew Alelbert Hill and Mrs. Hill. Her grandfather, Daniel Hill, was the pioneer settler of Calais and one of the sixteen founders of Machias in 1743. A brother, Marshall Hill living in California, survives her.

The funeral service was held at the home of her nephew Wednesday march 8, Rev. Gordon Fraser of the United Church officiating. The choir of the church attended and rendered very beautifully the hymns "After" and "Christian Goodnight". The pallbearers were Marvin Watson, Charles Young and James Purdy. Interment was made in the hill family cemetery at the Narrows.

Lydia does not appear in the 1861 census under the name of Smith. There is a Lydia Hill that married 7 Nov. 1853. Is this possibly a third marriage? Need to find who this Lydia Hill married????????!!!!!! Charlotte Co., NB, Marriage Registers show a Peter Hunter and Daniel Morrison were married on the same date. The other female is a Susan Card with the same marriage date.

It appears that Nathaniel Burnham did not want his name to appear in any church records as his given name is shown as ---- Burnham when his three sons are baptized in Aug. 1818 and also when he was buried 11 July 1818.

Notes for Major Ebenezer Redding, Sr.:

Pike's Notes, p16-17, has the following:

"Miss Rebecca Hill, see Redding, see Hill, says she was born in Milltown in 1794 and married Eben Redding in 1811 and moved into the house her husband built, and where she now lives, the same year.

Her husband originated in the vicinity of Boston and came here from Somerset County in 1805. He died at the age of 56, born in August 1795."

This date of August 1795 must be an error as the alternate dob of 22 Apr. 1782 and age at death match with the date of death of 1838. This is verified by the census data as shown below.

Notes for Alice Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

He married Hannah Elizabeth Bassett 27 September 1820, daughter of David Bassick and Hannah Stockham. She was born 12 December 1799 in Lisbon, ME, and died 08 December 1899 in Belfast, ME.

Notes for Hannah Elizabeth Bassett:

Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth DUSTIN was born in Lisbon, Maine in October 1805 and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M.W. RICH on Main Street this city December 8, 1899. She was the daughter of David and Hannah (Stockham) BASSICK. Her parents moved to New Brunswick when she was eight years old. She married John DOWDELL of St. George New Brunswick and after his death married Farnham A. DUSTIN of the same town. Mr. DUSTIN died 35 years ago and 20 years later she went to Musquash, New Brunswick to live with her daughter Mrs. Charles CLINCH. She came to Belfast in October 1898. On the 20th of June 1899, she had an attack of paralysis which affected her brain and she has been confined to her bed since September 8th. She joined the Baptist Church in St. George when a young woman and has been a faithful and consistent member through life. Of her family of nine children, six remain: Mrs. Julia CLINCH of Musquash, Horatio DOWDALL of Carleton, New Brunswick, Mrs. Amy D. CLINCH of Belfast, Mrs. Urania D. HADLEY of Belfast, Jesse F. DUSTIN of St. Stephens, New Brunswick and Mrs. Idelia RICH of Belfast. The funeral was held at her late home Sunday afternoon. Rev. Randell T. Capen officiating. Her sunny and cheerful disposition, ever looking on the brighter side of life, was beautifully typified in a profusion of flowers sent in by loving friends who had learned to appreciate her true worth even in the short time she has lived among us.

I have just received a letter from a relative in Minnesota in which I am informed of the death of Sister Lavinia BROCKWAY, well known in our Province. Sister Brockway and her husband, Deacon Reuben BROCKWAY were among the first members of the Baptist church of 2nd Falls, St. George (Charlotte Co.) For many years their home was open to all the ministers of the gospel who passed that way. A number of years ago, they moved to the State of Minnesota and united with the Baptist church in the town of Anoka. Sister Brockway always prayed that she might live longer than her husband and God granted her request, for on 25th Nov. 1881, he passed through the valley and over the river. On Friday eve. 14th Dec. 1882, she received the summons to come also. Rev. Torbett, pastor of the Anoka church preached the funeral sermon. - W.J. Stewart, Portland, Dec. 26, '82.

d. 20th Nov., Deacon R. BROCKWAY of church of Anoka, Minnesota. The Deacon was born 11th Nov. 1794 in Washington, Mass. and when about 19 years of age, he removed to St. George (Charlotte Co.) N.B. and there married 2nd Nov. 1819 the lady he now leaves a widow. Some years after their marriage they united with the Baptist Church in St. George of which he was chosen Deacon and he remained such for nearly fifty years. A fire having reduced their dwelling to ashes about 6 years ago, and all their large family of 17 children having removed to Minnesota, they then went there also to settle among them, to spend the remainder of their days.

Notes for Thomas Watson:

A footstone for a Thos. Watson and also an Elizabeth is located at the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery, St. Stephen, Charlotte Co., NB. This is at the same grave locations of Mary Celia (Watson) Brown and her husband David Brown.

The 1851 census for Charlotte Co., NB, does not show any Thomas or Elizabeth Watson. Since theirs two sons had gone to California in 1849 then to Oregon in 1852, the parents are either in Washington Co., ME, both dead, or have gone to California or Oregon as well. More research required on this(AEK).

Note from Randy Brusse indicates the following:

In 1849 they were 49'ers mining gold in Scotts Bar California. John became a naturalized citizen after filling his naturalization claim in Yreka California. Stephen filled also but was never affirmed like his brother John was. History books report to the contrary but my records search turned up no affirmation for Stephen only John.

G. D. Davis

Relatives and friends heard with sincere regret of the unexpected death of George Dow Davis of St. Stephen. Although in failing health for four years, Mr. Davis died in the Charlotte County Hospital after one days illness. He was 48 years old.

Born at Oak Bay, N.B. June 26, 1916, he was a son of Roscoe Davis and Florence Lillian (Bryant) Davis. He was educated in the Oak Bay schools and worked locally until 1942 when he went to Montreal where he was employed there as a mechanic. He worked there for six years and went to Toronto where he stayed two years, at that time his health was such that he returned to St. Stephen, and later became a painter by trade. On February 27, 1936 he married the former Veda Emerson of Rollingdam, who survives.

The funeral service was held from the home of his father Roscoe Davis, King Street, with Rev. L.E. Davis, pastor of the Union Street Baptist Church officiating. The pallbearers were Stuart Anderson, Hazen Ashley, George Purcell, Kenwood Young, Donald Cleghorn and Ronald Scott. Interment was made in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Among the many floral tributes were those from Vail's Service Station, Morris Greenhouse, Girls of the General Packing Room, Ganongs Bros. Ltd., and the staff of Brown's Service Station.

Attending the funeral from out of town were those from Rollingdam, Oak Bay, Milltown and Bartlett's Mills.

Joseph MYSHRALL, who died Sunday eve., was born at Nashwaaksis (York Co.) in 1816. He was a long time resident of Fredericton city. In his younger days he was conservative and associated with J.W. LAWRENCE and R.C. SCOVIL in the first commission for building the E.& N.A. Railway. Politically he was a strong Liberal and a friend of the late John PICKARD. He came to Fredericton when about 6 years old and commenced at that early age to make his own living. He soon afterwards held a post in the Crown Land Office and subsequently was deputy sheriff. He resigned the latter position in 1846 and commenced business as an auctioneer in the back part of the store now occupied by H.A. CROPLEY. In 1854, he and Marchall RITCHIE bought the MacIntosh business and they remained in partnership until 1867 when Mr. Ritchie retired. In 1877, Mr. Myshrall retired, selling out to Alexander BURCHILL. He was a well known Mason and had one of the best old coin collections in the Province. He leaves five children: two sons, Capt. MYSHRALL of South Wales, England and Dr. MYSHRALL of St. Stephen (Charlotte Co.); three daughters, Mrs. TIPPET, Mrs. HOWELL and Mrs. SHERMAN. His funeral took place 3 o'clock this afternoon.

OBITUARY - Margaret Maxwell

Full of years and honored by all who knew her, Margaret, wife of the late William G. Maxwell, passed on, Sunday, March 1, 1914, to her eternal reward. Mrs. Maxwell, whose maiden name was Margaret Craig, was born at Rolling Dam, September 11, 1827. On July 14, 1851, she was united in marriage with William G. Maxwell, and their married life was an example of Godly upright living. Mrs. Maxwell is survived by five children, namely, Mrs. Thomas Hodgdon of Milo, Maine, Alvin U. of Brookhaven, Mississippi, Mrs. Thomas Hill, of Hill's Point, Horatio of Bangor, and Beverley at home. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham. Interment was at Old Ridge Cemetery.

Parents of Margaret Rachel Craig are unknown. Since she was supposedly born at Rolling Dam, then a possible family is that of James Craig, Sr. and h/w Charlotte Walker. James received a Land Grant as shown in the "Crown Land Grant Index" for New Brunswick. This lot was as follows: #6 Rolling Dam Station, Dumbarton Parish, Charlotte County, 282 Acres, Date: 18 May 1818, Vol 1, No. 987. This lot is approx. 3 miles from Rolling Dam. More research required to make a connection!!!!!!!!!!

The Hill history dates back many years, as far back as Nehemiah's Grandfather of 1767 and his father of 1793, this being Frank and Chipman's great-grandfather. Some of the people lived at St. Stephen's and Whittier Ridge, New Brunswick and were descendants of the United Empire Loyalists.

Nehemiah Hill married Sarah Baldwin in 1849, and they raised a large family of six sons and seven daughters. In the early 1870's the two oldest sons, Alfred and Wilson, came west to Winnipeg and were so impressed with the country that they sent word back to the family to sell out and come west. About 1877 a bad grasshopper plague hit, so the boys sent word back home telling them to stay put for the time being, but the message arrived too late as they were already on their way. The family stopped off at St. Catharines, Ontario, brought a place and stayed there.

In 1881, Tom Baldwin a Baptist minister, his wife and son, Frank of Chatham, Ontario and a contingent of his three nieces and five nephews (Hill relatives) were the first of the Cannington Manor pioneers to cross the Pipestone Creek southwest of Moosomin. Here he set up the first store and post office and called it Moose Mountain and it was on the Moose Mountain trail. He became advisor to the arriving groups of other pioneers as they came through. He built his home on land there, later farmed by Morgan VanDresar.

The two eldest boys, Alfred and Wilson took up one of the first homesteads in the Moose Mountain District, now known as the Tom Brayford farm.

The Hill brothers are credited with having helped to build the original All Saints Cannington Church.

Willard Senior, and Frank homesteaded the land that is now owned by Willard (Bill) and Alfred Hill of Manor.

Willard and Chipman Hill built the log house of Arthur LeMesurier, which has now been moved to Cannington Manor Museum site and is being preserved as a historical structure.

Quite a number of Nehemiah's family visited this area in the early years but Alfred,, Wilson and Willard all moved away. Stillman was the contractor for the large Canadian Pacific Railway Bridge at Outlook, Saskatchewan, built in 1911. There were only five of the younger members of the family that settled permanently in this surrounding area and they were as follows:

Herbert L. PULK, of the Ledge (Charlotte Co.) was drowned at that place on Monday eve. last. He boarded a small raft to get to his boat which was moored a distance from the shore. When he reached the boat he went to step in but by some means fell between the raft and the boat. A companion who witnessed the accident says he never rose after first going down. His father and brother also met death by drowning some years ago.

Notes for Nellie Brickley:
The following email segment was received from Joanie Hannah, 4 June 2007:
It appears a "Mrs Colin Hannah" died Jan 23 1905 at San Francisco, bur SF, age 36, born NB...."her husband was the first officer on the "Pomona" ' (DT art 29 Jan 1905)
This is from a lady who does Genealogy look-ups in the Humboldt Rm, Eureka Library..
According to the 1920 CA census records Colin's wife ' Rose' was born in CA. If you subtract Mrs Colin Hannah's age, she was born abt 1868 which is pretty close to Ida's (for News Papers..!) Anyway, If this was the first wife of our Colin J Hannah.. It gives us a question Mark?

He married Abigail Kendall Tuttle 15 April 1842 in Calais, Washington Co., ME (Source: VRCM: Vital Records of Calais, ME, p6, 94.). She was born 1811 in of Calais, Washington Co., ME, and died 1904.

Notes for Ellis Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

According to the "John Lovell's 1871 Directory" both Ellis and William were farmers who lived at Mohannas, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. The 1865-66 and 1867-68 versions of the Hutchinson Directory show Charles, Ellis, and William as farmers at Mohannas.

Notes for Herbert Wilmot McAdam:

Herbert McAdam lived and worked at the family farm at Hills Point until the lure of gold fields in the Klondike took his fancy. He left home on March 30, 1898 for Edmunston to begin his trek to prospect for gold. In a letter written home on November 21, 1899 he says he is on the Fraser River prospecting and thinks he has a good chance of striking it rich. He did not, and eventually found work at the logging camp as a cook. With the out break of the Boer War he tried to volunteer for duty in South Africa with the Canadian Regiment "The Strathcona Horses," he was refused however as a result of a bad limp from a previous injury. This news was taken with great joy by the rest of the family.

Herb eventually came home with a few gold nuggets or gold bearing quartz (which I have) and married a neighbor, Christmas Simpson. They lived about 1/2 mile from his fathers in the house now occupied by a Mrs. Rolf Syvertson.

Herb was engaged as a lumberman, a farmer and a fisherman all his life. He died after a short illness on June 18th, 1941. They had no children.

WELL-KNOWN RESIDENT OF OAK BAY PASSES

Herbert McAdam, 73, in Failing Health for Some Weeks Past; Native of Milltown

Friends were grieved to learn of the death of Herbert Wilmot McAdam, well-known resident of Oak Bay, which occurred at his home Wednesday morning, June 18, after an illness of only a few weeks. Quiet and retiring by nature, he lived unassumingly but enjoyed a wide acquaintance and was held in high esteem. He was a staunch member of the Church of England.

Mr. McAdam was born in Milltown in 1868, son of Major Andrew McAdam and grandson of Hon. John McAdam. Since early boyhood he had lived at Oak Bay, where he engaged in lumbering and farming. He was married in 1897 to Mary Christina Simpson daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Simpson of Oak Bay, who survives him. He also leaves one brother Roy, Smith Falls, Ont. and two sisters, Miss Nellie Smith Falls and Mrs. Chester Morrison, Lower Southampton.

The funeral was held at the home Friday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by the rector, Rev. C. Alvin Hawkes, assisted by his predecessor in the parish Rev. Victor M. Regan, who with Mrs. Regan motored from their present home in Portland to take part in the service. There was a very large attendance of friends and neighbors and many beautiful floral tributes were received. The pall-bearers were four nephews, Lee Simpson, Fredericton; Kenneth Bailey, Toronto; and Gerald and Ray Gilman, Oak Bay, and two cousins, Fred and Abner McAllister. Burial was in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Among those who came from a distance to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Roy McAdam and Miss Nellie McAdam, Smith Falls; Rev. and Mrs. V. M. Regan, Portland, Me; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrison, Lower Southampton; Kenneth Bailey, Toronto; Miss Bertha Bailey, Saint John, and Lee Simpson, Fredericton.

Notes for Mary Christina Simpson:

LONG ILLNESS FATAL TO MRS. H. MCADAM

Esteemed Resident of Oak Bay Passes in 82nd Year

Mrs. Mary Christiana McAdam passed away Tuesday evening, April 19 at her residence at Main and Union Street in her 82nd year. While she had been ill over a long period and the end was not unexpected, her many friends, old and young to whom she had endeared herself by her cheerfulness and unflinching kindness, will feel a keen sense of loss and regret.

Mrs. McAdam, who was one of the six children of the late Joseph A. Simpson, was born on Christmas Day, 1868, in the home at Oak Bay where she lived but her last few years.

Through all her long and active life she was an ardent supporter of the church, the school and all movements directed towards the welfare of the community, but she will best be remembered in her home where she maintained a boundless and gracious hospitality.

After the death of her husband, Herbert McAdam, eight years ago, she joined her sisters, Mrs. Alexander Irvine and Mrs. John Williamson, in making a home in St. Stephen.

She was an enthusiastic member of Trinity Church, where services were conducted Friday afternoon by Rev. Edwin Parkinson and Rev. J. E. Lane before she was laid to rest in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Pall-bearers were Leonard Maxwell, C.W. Hanley, Marvin McCoomb, Walter Quartermain, G.E. Francis and Warren Dow. Besides her two sisters she is survived by several nephews and nieces, Percy Bailey of Oak Bay, Miss Bertha Bailey of Saint John, Lea J. Simpson of Fredericton, Miss Kathleen Simpson and Mrs. H. R. Morick of San Diego, California.

William E. McAllister and William Thompson

The lineage of A. H. Thompson has been proven. He is a son of Alexander. He was in business with Harrison Thompson which would tend to indicate a close relationship with the William s/o James line. However, he is not mentioned in the Will of William. Subsequent research has shown A. H. Thompson was a son of Alexander Thompson.

JOHN CAMPBELL

The Life and Death of a Worthy Man.

By the death of John Campbell, which occurred at St. Andrews on the 19th inst., a former and much respected resident of this town called away.

Mr. Campbell was born in St. Andrews on the 24th December 1813 where he spent his boyhood. At an early age he went to St. John where he received business training with a Mr. Nicholson. Returning to St. Andrews, his father Colon Campbell, who was the High Sheriff of the County sent him to St. Stephen as his Deputy and about the same time he began trading at the Ledge, then a considerable place of shipping.

He married in 1836 a daughter of Samuel Stuart, and about this time he began the publication of the St. Stephen Courant which he conducted successfully for several years. He afterwards entered the company of Messrs. George M. and James Porter as their bookkeeper and confidential clerk. He continued in their employ for 17 years. His health failing, he left their employ and accepted the situation of Inspector of schools for Charlotte County which position he acceptably filled for some years, but his old complaint asthma still troubling him, he was advised to try a change of climate. He then entered the employ of Messrs. Pope, Talbot & Co. of San Francisco, the most extensive lumber dealers on the Pacific Coast, as their chief bookkeeper and confidential clerk and though he continued his relations with this firm until about a year ago when he expressed a desire to view the scenes of his boyhood. They gave him a year's leave of absence playing his salary for the full time, he having been in their employ 23 years.

Mr. Campbell accompanied by his wife and daughter returned to the pace of his nativity a little over a year ago and although very frail, enjoyed the greetings of many old friends. He spent the greater portion of the time at St. Andrews with his son D.F. Campbell where he died peacefully and fully resigned to his Maker's will.

His body was brought to St. Stephen by railroad and taken to the house by his sister, Mrs. S.H. Whitlock from which it was interred in the beautiful rural cemetery where, even when in a far distant land it was his earnest desire to be laid to rest in the quietness and repose of its beautiful scenery.

Mr. Campbell will long be remembered by his many friends and companions as a man of genial and happy disposition and deeply interested in everything pertaining to the welfare of his native country. In politics he was a Liberal and in the day when the Liberal Party was coming into prominence, he was among the foremost in the advocacy of their principles. He was one of the first appointed by the Liberal Government to be Justice of the Peace for this County.

He was a zealous advocate of the temperate cause when here and maintained his principles until his death. For many years he was a leading member of the Howard Division S & T.

Mr. Campbell had acquired considerable property in San Francisco where a portion of his family still resides and where his death will be deeply regretted by many sincere friends. He died as he had lived, a sincere Christian, humbly trusting in the merits of his Redeemer and at peace with all men. His beloved wife and family will have the sympathy of many sorrowing friends in their dad bereavement.

Notes for William George Davis:

Obituary - William George (Billy Joe) Davis

A single vehicle accident on slushy roads early Friday morning has claimed the life of 26 year old St. Stephen man.

William George Davis was the driver of the 1992 Dodge Caravan, which was north bound from St. Andrews on Highway 127. Following the accident he was rushed to Charlotte County Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

Nate Anderson of St. Stephen who was a passenger in the vehicle suffered cracked vertebrae and is still in hospital where his condition has improved and is listed as stable.

The RCMP say roads were covered with a slush and snow mixture at the time of the accident and it was snowing and raining that night. They said the road was very slippery.

An RCMP accident reconstructionist attended the scene and the cause of the accident is under investigation as there are several witness statements still to be taken.

Sgt. John Fraser of District 1 RCMP in St. George said speed was a factor and there is evidence to indicate that Davis passed another vehicle before the accident occurred. He said they don't know if alcohol was a factor as toxicology test were conducted but they won't have the results for two or three months.

Davis is survived by his parents, Mrs. Sharon Pierce, and Bev Davis and his wife Ellen , one brother, three sisters, one step sister and one step brother.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon from the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, in St. Stephen with Peter Fitch officiating.

Notes for Mary Anne Maxwell:

Mrs. Joseph Boyd Honored On 84th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Agnes (Maxwell) Boyd celebrated he birthday at the home of hr daughter, Mrs. Agnes Sawyer of Hawthorne Street, on Wednesday last, and was at home during the day to friends and relatives who called in large numbers. She received many cards and gifts. A beautiful birthday cake made by her granddaughter, Mrs. Vernon Barr, which she served to her guests with tea and sandwiches.

Mrs. Boyd enjoys good health and keeps busy with crocheting, knitting and reading. Her mind is keen and she enjoys the radio discussing the events of the day. Although she broke her hip over three years ago and had been confined to her home most of the time since, she is able to get up every day and be about the home in a walker.

Among out of town guests were her grandson, Blair Brown, and wife and son Tommy of Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Boyd has lived all her life in and around St. Stephen and has many friends who wish her many more birthdays.

Notes for Jesse Leigh White:

Jesse Leigh White and Blanche

In an earlier section of this family story we left Jesse Leigh White on the train travelling to Fredericton to attend Normal School. After graduation he was engaged to teach in the town of Grand Falls, Victoria County NB. Here he began what was to be a most successful teaching career. We have already related how Blanche Maxwell had also launched on a teaching career in Charlotte County. It is possible that they were in the same class while attending Normal School. If this is so, it explains how Blanche left Charlotte County and continued her career in Grand Falls. Not long afterwards these fellow teachers talked about marriage. Many years later J.L. white told me that it was their intention to be married at the end of the school term in 1895 but they changed their minds and decided on an earlier date, the Christmas vacation period in 1894 at the home of the bride's parents in Moores Mills. The Anglican minister Rev. M. Milledge performed the ceremony. The following clipping from a local paper tells of the event. The list of guests includes names that are already familiar to us from earlier sections of this record. The listing of the various wedding gifts is interesting and amusing.

After their marriage in 1894, J.L. White and Blanche continued to teach in Grand Falls. Both are remembered by the old timers as excellent teachers who expected excellence from their pupils. Teaching was not J.L. White's only interest. He engaged in a few commercial ventures in the community opening a grocery store on the other side of the river from the main town. He also made some investment in railway shares from which he later earned substantial profits. In these years they were also busy having their family. After two still births, their daughter Leitha was born in 1899. Edward Maxwell was born in 1904. Gretchen's birth year was 1907 and Marion came in 1909. In May 1910 Constance was born and the youngest child Jay Leigh arrived in 1914.

It was in 1912 that J.L. White gave up teaching and put all his energy into his business ventures. With vision and courage he built a huge general store on the main street of the town. Almost anything could be purchased in this emporium with the sign J.L. White, General Merchant". There were departments, Groceries, dry goods, hardware. Even caskets were available and the services of Aunt Leslie Estey were called in when coffins had to be lined. Blanche said of her husband that he would tackle anything to turn a dollar. Along with the general store he built an extensive business buying and selling pulpwood. He was involved in all these ventures in 1912. It is no wonder he resigned his school teaching position. He and blanche were key figures in the business and social life of Grand Falls. In that same year he was offered the nomination of the Conservatives to represent them. He accepted this challenge and became the member of Legislature for Victoria County. For the next five years (1912 to 1917) he continued his business ventures and served as Member of the Provincial Parliament.

We have already noted his generosity toward his parents, caring for them in their old age, and doing the same for Aunt Victoria Maxwell. His brothers Bert and Charles also became established business people in Grand Falls through his support and encouragement. For his own growing family he provided every advantage. There was always hired help in the home enabling Blanche to assist her husband in the great load of necessary office work.

There were set backs as well as successes. In 1925 the family suffered a great blow. Their home next to the large store was burned to the ground and all the contents were lost except a couple of fur coats and the clothes they were wearing. Fortunately everyone got out safely, but family pictures which would be so useful in this story were lost.

The cause of the fire was attributed to the earthquake which had occurred the previous day, February 28, 1925. The stovepipes had been loosened and some were separated by the quake. This had not been noticed and when the fires were lighted the following morning, the sparks ignited the surrounding dry material and almost immediately the house was in flames. Blanche was able to rescue the youngest child as she made her way to safety. There was a heavy loss of family possessions but there was no loss of life.

Fortunately the Whites owned a second house in Grand Falls which was occupied by their son Max who has married a year earlier. It was the intention of J.L. and Blanche to make their house their home eventually. The fire hurried up the event. The house had been purchased some years earlier by Blanche. It was one of the oldest and finest houses in Grand Falls. It had been built in 1834 and occupied for a time by Sir John Campbell. Sir John had operated a large sawmill in Grand Falls in earlier years and had been the receiver general of Lower Canada. He also had considerable business connections with the American before the middle of the century. The house was located in an area overlooking the falls from which Grand Falls for its name. We have several pictures for enclosure with this story. It was generally known as the "Wade House."

Jessie Leigh White and Blanche received a serious blow with the great depression of the thirties. In his store business he had given credit very freely to his customers and continued to do so even as times got harder. He was always hoping that better times would come soon and that his customers would be able to pay their debts. As the depression continued it was evident that the business could no longer be carried on in the same way. It was impossible to collect much that was owing. It was a hard decision to make but in 1934 J. L. White gave up his store business. He had tried so hard to hang on that his health was undermined. His asthmatic condition, which had bothered him since his youth, grew worse. His doctor suggested a change of climate so he and Blanche took an extended holiday to Arizona where they visited Ruby White. This was in the winter of 1931-32. J.L. White was much better for the change and faced his business problems with courage when he returned. He realized that the store had to go and within a couple of years it happened.

J.L. White still had his pulpwood business. He bought a home in Kilburn and conducted his business from there. His sons Max and Leigh worked with him, doing most of the travelling. He died February 5, 1941.

After the death of Jessie Leigh White, Blanche White continued to live in Kilburn but her son Max was concerned that she was alone so much of the time. Max now managed the business his father had established. His home was in Andover so he arranged a suite of rooms in his home for his mother. She made her headquarters here but spent much of her time in the homes of her daughters, Leitha in Boston, Marion in Alberta and Constance in British Columbia. She was always a most welcome guest and we are grateful for the memories we have of the visits she made to us. Her grandchildren have happy and rich memories of their grandmother White.

She was a faithful member of the Anglican Church and of the I.O.D.E. She took a keen interest in the Order of the Eastern Star and occupied the top position in New Brunswick for a time. This term as "Worthy Grand" gave her the opportunity to travel throughout the province and to give her presidential addresses. She loved to talk and was a most acceptable speaker. Blanche White had many other talents. Always interested in handwork, there are many samples of her workmanship in the homes of her friends and family. In her last years, she continued to use her spare moments tating and I have yet to discover what happened to the yards and yards of lace she made. Some of her family and friends have in their possession, paintings and drawings which she did in earlier years. They are much beyond average in excellence and are prized by those who have them.

In the summer of 1957 Marion and I motored to Nova Scotia and on our way we stopped to visit Gramma White in Andover. She was 87 years of age. We suggested that she accompany us on our trip. She had never been to Nova Scotia and was most anxious to see that province. She came along and her presence added to our interest as we visited Halifax, Grand Pre, Digby as well as place in Cape Breton. She enjoyed every bit of the journey.

Blanche White died in 1957 and is buried in the cemetery at Grand Falls.

Marriage Notes for Ethel Maxwell and Jesse White:

Notice of wedding in the St. Stephen Paper

The monotony of our usually quiet little village was very pleasantly varied on Wednesday evening of last week, by a wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Maxwell. The contracting parties were their only daughter Blanche, and Mr. Leigh White of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Millidge, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. Mr. Arthur Maxwell and Miss Mabel Penkes brother and cousin of the bride, were the attendants. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of brown cloth, beautifully trimmed with silk, with ornaments and bouquet of roses. Margaret Christie was married on Hills' Point for awhile and then moved about 2 miles on the road to Lily Hill which was the main road, before the causeway was built. Joe, was the mailman for many years until he retired and his youngest son Herbie took over. Joe was a typical old time mailman who followed the theory of "whether rain or sleet or snow the mail must go through". I have heard my father say of Joe delivering the mail on snow shoes as the drifts were too high for a horse and sleigh. I can remember him bringing the mail to the Point in a sleigh as the roads were not plowed. In all of Joe's years, he never once went on strike.

During the 2nd World War Howard Hill said that "Old Joe Stalin looked like Joe Richardson but he thought that he (Joe Stalin) was a good deal smarter."

Maggie and Joe had a large family of 8 children, they were:

Seymour Freemont - 1902 and died 1971.

Albert Gilman - 1905 (lives in Black's Harbour)

Alice Ethelyn - 1907 (lives in St. John)

Marguerite Theresa (lives on St. David Ridge)

- 1912 (lives on Bay Road)

Marion Beatrice Helena - 1915 (lives in St. Stephen)

Joseph Eugene - 1918 (lives in St. Stephen)

Herbert Howard - 1920 died 1972.

He married Annie Appleton Hindmarch 22 May 1903 in Arcola, SK. She was born 12 August 1877 in Newcastle, England, and died 16 June 1961 in Matsqui, BC.

Notes for Franklin Hartley Hill:

Franklin Hartley Hill

He was born in 1866 and came to Cannington in 1888 or 1889. He first homesteaded the land cornering the quarter where he later lived. He worked for the Becktons for a brief time then went to British Columbia to prospect and was at the Caribou while the gold rush was on. He tells of three men leaving camp, one died, one vanished and one was lucky enough to make it through. Frank did do some prospecting. Some of the other Hills had started out for the Caribou overland, got as far as the Peace River area and found it too hard so started trading for furs.

Frank later returned to his land SW-13-9-2-2 and married Annie Hindmarch on May 22, 1903. With the aid of James Beattie, he built the log house that still stands on the property, now owned by his son, Alfred Hill, and is farmed by Dan Hodgson.

Frank was an elder of Sutherland Church and a very religious man. His daughter, Annie, recalls the family involvement in the building of the church as they discussed the donations of the Eaton's and Simpson's stores. One gave the chairs and the other gave the floor matting. Reverend Thomas Lawson was the first minister in the new church. Frank was still serving communion in the church at the age of eighty.

There was no school in the area when Alice, their oldest child was ready to begin Grade One so she lived with the Appletons, near the Moos Mountain School and attended it until the Keverne School was built in 1912 or 1913, north of the former Wes Downery home.

Frank became trustee on the first Keverne school board and in all served thirty-two years.

Annie was born on August 12, 1877 and came to Canada from England with her parents, James Fry and Ann Hindmarch and presumably got her schooling at Cannington. In her younger years, prior to her marriage, she worked for Mrs. LeMesurier helping to look after the children and other household chores, and possibly helped other ladies of the neighborhood.

Annie and Frank had a family of six, ranging in ages from about five to sixteen, when Annie had the misfortune to get cancer in the roof of her mouth. She was taken to Winnipeg for the operation, which turned out to be a complete success. It is not known at this time how long she was there or how long the operation took. Although she was left with a speech impediment, she was a very lucky person to have been able to come through this type of operation with a complete cure. A few years ago, a doctor in Vancouver told her that it was a miracle, that even yet they could not guarantee as much success as he had had.

So Annie was another one of those great ladies of that era. Although she was not a very big person, she was able to hold her own with all the trials and tribulations of life, as they came along. She was a great cook and homemaker as well as doing her share of the outside chores.

One of Frank's and Annie's hobbies was their beautiful flower garden around the old log house. The long lilac hedge outlining the lane out to the road, was a neighborhood show piece every spring.

Frank passed away on January 7, 1954 and Annie passed away on June 16, 1961.

Annie and Frank's family were:

- 1) Alice born March 13, 1904, married Ed Ross and farmed at Heward for a while and then moved to Ituna area. They farmed there until about 1936, then moved out to Langley, British Columbia where they have lived ever since. Alice and Ed have three children., Patricia, Donald and Dennis and they all reside in British Columbia.
- 2) James, born March 24, 1906 would likely get his schooling at Keverne. He farmed north of Stoughton. He met Mildred Hood of Ituna, Saskatchewan. They were married and moved to Langley, B.C. to live and have resided there ever since. Mildred and James have three sons, Gordon, Edward and Bruce.
- 3) Wesley was born August 8, 1908, also went to Keverne School. He farmed north of Stoughton with his brother Jim. They moved to the Ituna area with their livestock and personal possessions loaded on racks and wagons hauled by horses. Wesley married Florence Hood of Ituna on May 24, 1939. Their marriage was very brief as Wesley was called into the army of World War 11 and was killed on December 11, 1994 in Italy, serving in the Canadian army Engineers on an advanced bridge site on the Lamone River, Hill Bay, on Wiley Lake in Northern Saskatchewan was named by the Provincial Government to commemorate his sacrifice. Florence and Wesley had twin daughters, Annie Mildred and Alice Irene.
- 4) Annie was born July 8, 1910, was also a Keverne School girl. She married Edward Dunkerly and they lived on the former James Beattie farm now owned by Murray Short. Edward served in the army in World War Two, and while he was overseas, Annie kept the farm going.

Annie and Ed served on the Sutherland Church board as well as being active in any other community project. Ed was on the board for the Arcola Larger School Unit for some time, as well.

In the fall of 1959, Annie and Ed and family moved to British Columbia where they had lived ever since. They had two children, Jean and Charles, who took their schooling in Carlyle. They both reside in British Columbia.

5) Willard was born on November 28, 1912.

6) Alfred was born July 5, 1915.

They two, went to Keverne School and rumors have it that especially Alfred, was great for giving the teachers a bad time. Both Bill and Alf lived at home with their parents and eventually took over the farm. They are great nature lovers and can tell many a story of their hunting and trapping experiences and if we could just get them to write it down, it would make very interesting reading.

Alfred was always noted for his great vegetable garden and strawberry patches, and every spring would be the first to have radishes and lettuce in the neighborhood. He was a great guy to have for a friend when the corn was ready too. After his mother passed away, I believe, Alf more or less took over the household duties while Willard ( or Bill, as we all knew him), did more of the farming part. They kept the usual farm animals, horses, cows, pigs and sheep and experimented with different kinds of fowl. Bill's evening enjoyment was playing Bridge with the neighbors. He was also a member of the Bridge Club.

Both Bill and Alf are now retired and living in Manor, Saskatchewan and enjoying their leisure time at the Over Sixties Drop In Center.

5) Minnie Maggie Victoria Hill

She was born in 1869, the fifth child of Nehemiah and Sarah Hill that stayed in this area. She married Samuel Brayford at Canduff. Their homestead was SW-32-2-9-1, north of the Tom Brayfords. They had ten children, namely, Ethel, Frank, Sam, Grace, Lily, Norman, Roy, Marian, Vesta and Ida.

Grace married Jasper Fox and farmed north of Manor for years. The Jasper Fox farm was well known all over the prairies for the fine purebred cattle. Jasper was a leader in improving the Hereford Breed. Jasper is now deceased and Grace resides in the Moose Mountain Lodge in Carlyle.

Obituary - Mrs. Herman Morrell

Friends throughout Charlotte County, particularly in the community of Oak Bay, were saddened last week to learn of the death on Good Friday of Mrs. Herman Morrell, whose passing occurred at her home at Oak Bay. Although in failing health and confined to her bed for the past two years her death came as a shock to her family and friends.

Born at St. David in 1869, she was a daughter of the late George Walter and Madalene Hall. She was twice married, the first husband having been Allie Blake of Milltown. In 1892 she was united in marriage to Herman S. Morrell, who predeceased her in December 1944. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John Cavanaugh, Calais; Mrs. Edward Smith, Boston; and Muriel of Saint John; six sons, Walter Blake, Warwick, NY; Stephen Morrell, Patterson, NJ; Elmor, Edward, and Milton Morrell of Oak Bay, and Wellington at home; Two sisters, Mrs. Albert Davis, St. Stephen, and Mrs. Ernest Bailey, Cambridge, Mass.; one brother, Gillis Hall, Milltown and also 28 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Morrell was a faithful wife, a loving mother, and a kind friend and neighbor, and won the highest esteem of all who knew her. She was a devoted and active member of the United Church at Oak Bay.

The funeral was held at her late home on Monday at 2:30, Rev. D.C. MacKenzie of the United Church conducting the service, assisted by Rev. J. H. Copeland of the Baptist Church. Two of her favorite hymns, "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus," and "Abide With Me" were sung.

The esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large attendance at the funeral and the beautiful floral tributes. Pallbearers were John Cavanaugh, Maynard McKinney, Percy Scott, John Toft, and Roscoe and Ernest Davis. Interment as made in the family lot in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Notes for Anna Susie Bartlett:

Obituary Anna S. Morrell

The funeral of Mrs. Morrell, widow of Amos Chester Morrell, was held Sunday April 29 at two o'clock from her home in Oak Bay where she died Friday, the 27th after a prolonged illness.

The Rev. Kenneth Hughes of the Oak Bay Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Morrell was a life long member, conducted services. Assisting were Rev. William Armstrong of Lawrence Station and Rev. V.B. Walls of the Oak Bay United Church who offered prayer.

Covered with a blanket of red roses the casket rested in a veritable bower of beauty. Floral tributes filled the room, expressions of love and of the esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

In addition to those a beautiful Bible and marker were presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, Mass., In Loving Memory of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrell. A number of friends made up a sum of money to be given to the church along with Gideon Bibles, in memory of Mrs. Morrell and many contributed to the Heart Fund in her name. Burial was in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Born March 29, 1872 in Bartlett's Mills, N.B. the eldest child of Edward and Frances Bartlett, she attended the country school there and later the Fredericton Normal School from which she graduated.

From that time until her marriage to Mr. Morrell in 1901, she was a teacher, first at the Oak haven School then at the school in Chamcook. Former pupils from these two schools never forgot her. Over the years presents of flowers and fruit came to her from then on special occasions. Two of them were present at the funeral, Mr. Harley Bedford and Mr. Herman Hopps both of Oak Haven.

To the work of her church she gave her dedicated services, and was filling the offices of clerk and Sunday School superintendent four years ago, when ill health made it impossible for her to carry on. Only then did she pass the responsibilities over to others of a younger generation.

A devoted wife and mother, she was the heart of a happy home and indeed of a House by the side of the Road where the smile of this precious Christian lady welcomed all who came and came they did from far and near and all who stayed to enjoy its abundant hospitality.

To those in need within in her sphere, she was a refuge and help. We shall not soon see her life again.

Mrs. Morrell leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Manning (Marion) of Bathurst and Mrs. George Hyslop (Frances) of Oak Bay; seven grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, two brothers, Hollis bracelet of Bartletts Mills and Lewis Bartlett of Bayside besides several nieces and nephews.

Notes for Cyrus Hill Acheson:

Obituary - Cyrus Acheson

Word has been received here of the death of Cyrus Hill Acheson at his home in Transvaal, South Africa.

Mr. Acheson was a native of Elmsville, having been born there October 1, 1872, a son of John Harris and Jane (Hill) Acheson. He received his early education in St. Andrews, and later attended Normal school at Fredericton and University of New Brunswick, where he completed the four- year course in two years. He taught for a brief period in Moncton and other centres in New Brunswick, and at the close of the Boer War was selected to accompany FR Mullen, principal of the Normal School at that time, to South Africa where they reorganized the system of education and patterned it after the Canadian School system. Mr. Acheson was recognized throughout his life as a brilliant scholar and noted educationist. He remained in South Africa until retired a few years ago at which time he came to Canada and spent some time in St. Stephen, later going to Toronto and Calgary, returning to his home in Transvaal about two years ago.

He was married in 1893[8] to Miss Martha Herbison of Bocabec. His death occurred on July 7, 1949, their 51st anniversary. His widow survives, with three sons, Kenneth and Wilfred in the Transvaal, and Harold in South America. A fourth son died in infancy. The late Harry Acheson of Elmsville whose death occurred two years ago, was a brother.

Obituary - Mrs. Ella Frye

Friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Ella M. Frye, which although sudden was not unexpected. A heart ailment which had been troubling her for some time seized her with fatal severity on Sunday, August 4 and she passed away in the early evening at the advanced age of 79 years.

Born at Little Ridge, a daughter of the late Peter and Matilda Morrison she was the last surviving member of a large family. Since her marriage some 40 years ago she had lived in St. Stephen where she was a regular attendant of the Kirk United Church as long as health permitted. She was exceptionally active for one of her years before her death. Her husband, Henry Frye, predeceased her in December, 1938. She is survived by an only son, George of St. Stephen, three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held the following Wednesday at the home of her son, Rev. B.D. Earle officiating and was well attended. Beautiful floral tributes were received. Two favorite hymns were sung by Jack Duplissea and the pallbearers were Ernest Hewes, Fletcher Thornton, George McConvey and Beverly Maxwell. Interment was made in the Rural Cemetery.

The following article was sent to me by Steve Carter, 11 Dec 2014:

My name is Steve Carter and I came upon your website while searching for ancestry information on my family. I was happy to find that much of what you have matches what I have been able to find myself.

I can offer you the following corrections for my great grandmother Hazel Patterson Burnham. Her husband was Chester Arthur Carter b. 3 Feb 1893 in Dayton, Yamhill County, Oregon. Child #1 was Dorothy Lucille as you have listed. Child # 2 (my grandfather) was Chester Boyd Carter b. 30 July Portland OR, 1916 d. 29 Dec. 1991 in Portland, OR. Child #3 was Robert Bryant Carter b. 9 June 1924. Robert has died but I do not yet have that date.

I also have information that the father of Horatio Hill Burnham ID: I117665 was Enoch Burnham also native of New Brunswick and later settled in Minnesota. However I have little else on him. Please find attached some information that made its way to me by way of family detailing information on the Burnhams. I hope that you may find it useful.

I am also looking for information for another ancestor on my mother's side. His name was John Arvin b. about 1791. I don't know where he was born. Could have been the US or Canada. In about February 1820 he married Samantha Hodge (formerly Stoddard from a prior marriage) in Bastard Township, Leeds, Ontario and they had several children including John Newton Arvin b. 10 Feb, 1832 in Leeds, Ontario. Samantha Hodge was born in 1795 in Roxbury, CT and had gone to Canada with her husband in 1818 likely in search of inexpensive land. I have no idea if the Arvins or the Hodges were loyalists. Any information you may have of these folks or suggestions where I might look would be helpful.

Two special readings, Crossing the Bar and Soldier Farwell were read by Rev. Hughes followed by a solo by Mr. Hughes, The Longer I Serve Him.

Pallbearers were Hon. Sheldon Lee, Wiley McGinley, Norman Wentworth, Allan MacDonald, David MacDonald and Bob Gaudet. Many floral tributes and donations were received in her name.

Marriage Notes for Frederick McAllister and Jennie Gilman:

Marriage - McAllister - Gilman

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday April 30th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Gilman of Woodland, Maine when their daughter Jennie Celess became the bride of Fred Everett McAllister of Milltown, N.B.

The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with flowers and potted plants. The bride was given in marriage by her father, the wedding march being played by Helen Gilman. The bride looked charming in a costume of Alice blue taffeta silk and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Frances Gilman, twin sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid, gowned in navy blue taffeta and carried pink carnations. Abner Mcallister, brother of the groom was best man. Rev. W.H. Stewart of the Methodist Church performed the ceremony, the single ring service being used.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held, only the immediate family and friends of the bridal party being present. Dainty refreshments were served by the misses Helen and Bertha Dunn, and Barbara Blaney.

The bride then changed her wedding dress for a travelling suit of navy blue serge with hat to match and the happy couple left on the evening train amid showers of confetti and rice, for a brief trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities; followed by the good wishes of their many friends in the border towns. On their return they will make their home in Milltown, NB.

The presents were numerous and costly, consisting of linen, silver and cut glass.

Old Songs and Singers

My appeal on behalf of Burt Clinch for the words of a couple of old songs brought a response from three old-timers, The following letter from my good friend Harry W. Smith speaks for itself.

Mr. Smith's Letter

Your request on behalf of Burt Clinch last week opened the flood gates of memory in me and took me back to the middle Nineties and early Nineteen hundreds when as a member of a male quartette which was circulating quite freely through the County at that time and was known as the Beulah Quartette (I think that the name was given by Miss Pint Love, of Old Ridge) we visited many of the fine old homes of that day, and the memory of happy hours spent in then is refreshing in these days.

Among the many I recall are the homes of John S. Maxwell of Old Ridge, Dr. Dibbilee of Moores Mills, Andrew McAdam on the mountain side on the Hill's Point Road, Robert Linton of Pomeroy Ridge, John Murray of Waweig Bridge and a host of others whose forms and faces come back very vividly to me as I think of them I remember we sang at the dedication of the little church on the road to Fredericton just after passing Gilman's Corner. Our quartette when it was organized consisted of four cousins all of whom have joined the heavenly choir, for I am sure they are where they can express themselves in song and many will recall them, Herb Price, Duncan McGeachy, Elwell DeWolfe and Sandy Stevenson. I had the honor of taking Price's place when he went away and A.J. (Bert) Jackson took the place of McGeachy and we got together frequently at least yearly until the untimely death of Elwell DeWolfe, Bert Jackson is still living in Cornwall, Ontario and was recently retired by Canadian Cottons Ltd. and I feel sure that if he sees that article in the Courier, he will be supplying the words of that song for Mr. Clinch and in case he doesn't I am going to beat him to ot. A large number of singers from St. Stephen came down around the year 1900 including our quartette and had a picnic supper on St. Andrews Island and came ashore after supper and with whom was Burt Clinch, gave a concert in one of the halls here and we made a great hit with this song, which although the theme is rather distressing the harmony and the chance to bring out the qualities of the several parts make up for that part and we didn't pay much attention to the words.

"Biographical Note

The Bucklin family's history in the state of Washington begins in 1859. The family papers are concerned principally with three men, Nathan Bucklin, his son Robert Eben Bucklin, and his grandson Robert Willis Bucklin. Other family members, including brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, in-laws, and distant relatives, are all mentioned in letters, manuscripts, or diaries.

Nathan Bucklin, who was born in Warren, Maine, in 1839, came to Kitsap County, Washington Territory, in 1859. He settled in Seabeck W.T., and there supervised a lumber mill. In 1867, he married Marian Campbell. They had three daughters, Annie, born 7 May 1868; Amy, born 4 May 1872; and Marian, born 17 January 1874. Marian Campbell Bucklin died at Port Madison, W.T., in 1874.

In early 1877 Nathan Bucklin married again. His second wife, Mary Alice Babbitt, had journeyed to San Francisco from New Jersey, to live with relatives. There she learned of a widower, Nathan Bucklin, who needed a nanny to care for his young motherless daughters on Puget Sound. This information led to the eventual marriage of Bucklin and Miss Babbitt. They were the parents of six children: Robert Eben, born 3 December 1878; Frances Lydia, born 6 August 1881; Alice, born May 1885; Clara, born 10 January 1887; Henrietta, born 3 December 1889; and Emma Louise, born 18 November 1892. He was born October 1896, and died 24 June 1936.

Notes for Bruce Alexander Little:

BRUCE ALEXANDER LITTLE born October 1896 died June 24, 1936 married Dorothy Forsyth.

Copied from a newspaper obituary -

BRUCE A. LITTLE, 39 SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY WHILE ON BUSINESS TRIP TO MONCTON (1936)

Bruce Alexander Little, 39, met with sudden death in the Moncton City Hospital while on a visit there Wednesday of last week. Taken suddenly ill after supper Tuesday evening, he was rushed to hospital where he died less than 24 hours later of complications arising from a punctured esophagus. The immediate cause of death was strangulation. Food escaping from the esophagus caused the collapse of one lung and forced his heart out of its normal position, but an autopsy performed in Moncton failed to disclose the presence of any foreign substance that would have injured his esophagus.

His wife, formerly Dorothy Forsythe of Little Ridge and Mr. Maxwell were with him when he died. His mother, Mrs. Alex Little, also went to Moncton but left to return home after it appeared that her son was on the road to recovery. Besides his wife, he is survived by four small sons: James, Gray, William Irving and Maxwell Bruce, two brothers and two sisters.

News of his passing in the prime of his life came as a shock and occasioned wide spread sorrow in this vicinity where he was widely known and where his jovial friendly nature made him a favourite with all. In his own community, he was a leading figure, a successful farmer.

He was born in Harvey, but the family moved to Old Bay Road when he was still a boy. For some years he was a traveller for the Gunn Packing Company and later for Christie, Brown and company, leaving his position to go into partnership with his brother Elmer, in farming on his father's farm on Old Bay Road. The brothers in addition to general farming operated an extensive milk route to St. Stephen.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Forsyth and Bruce Little:

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity Rectory, St. Stephen on Wednesday evening, October 7th at eight o'clock when the rector, Rev. J.T. Ibbott united in marriage Bruce Alexander Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Little of the Ledge and Dorothy Edith Forsyth, daughter of Alexander and the late Charlotte Alice Forsyth of Little Ridgeton.

The bride was charming in a gown of ivory satin, with veil in cap effect caught up with silver ribbon. She was attended by her sister, Marjorie Forsyth, who was dressed in pale green crepe. The groom was supported by Lawrence Crompton of St. Stephen.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's father at Little Ridgeton, where a reception was tendered to the immediate families of the contracting parties, after which the bride changed her dress for one pale green with hat and coat to match and amid a shower of confetti, rice and old shoes, the couple left by auto for a short honeymoon.

The many beautiful presents of silver, china, furniture and cheques testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held.

M. Eileen Richardson

May 29, 1928 - December 27, 2013

RICHARDSON - Peacefully, at the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B, on December 27, 2013, surrounded by her loving family, after a long struggle with Alzheimer's, M. Eileen (Bailey) Richardson of Oak Bay, N.B. Wife of the late Herbert Edward Richardson and daughter of the late Edgar Thompson and Freda Bessie (Gardiner) Bailey.

Survived by her 5 daughters and 5 sons, Dorothy Brown (Danny) of Tower Hill, Christine Hanley (Randall) of Oak Bay, Sharon O'Halloran (Ray) of Canal, Jean Tinker (Kenneth) of Oak Bay, Pam Gullison (Keith) of Oak Bay, Glenn Richardson (Mary) of Rolling Dam, Lloyd Richardson (Betty) of Oak Bay, David Richardson (Brenda) of Milltown, William Richardson (Chrissy) of Scotch Ridge, and Johnny Richardson (Karen) of Oak Bay; 26 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Harriet; several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Predeceased by her beloved son, Terry Richardson; great-grandson, Eli Beaumaster; sisters, Edna Sharp, and Dorothy Josey; brother, John Bailey. She was the last surviving member of the Bailey family.

She was an incredible, hardworking woman who loved spending time with her family. A strong-willed lady who beat cancer, open heart surgery and several other illnesses only to shop and go for a drive another day. An inspiration to anyone who knew her. Her life's philosophy "if I have my family, I have my world". Missed by all who knew her and five girls lost their best friend.

Resting at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B. from where the funeral service will be held on Sunday, December 29, 2013 at 2 PM.

Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home on Saturday, December 28, 2013 from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.

Due to allergies, the family requests a scent-free environment for the visitation and funeral service.

Interment at Oak Bay Cemetery, Oak Bay, N.B.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Charlotte County Cancer Society or Heart and Stroke Foundation would be appreciated by the family.

Email received from jlc, 2 Jan. 2007:

Yes, ALL of George and Rose's kids were adopted (except last 2). When my grandmother died in 1970, someone in the family counted up ALL the Foster Kids they had. It was 64!!! The last 4 kids (Billy, Evedell – I made a mistake on the spelling, Randy and Greg were all long term foster kids. They came to my grandma very early in life. I would say from the pictures, 2 or 3 years old? Evedell's mom was a teenager I believe, and I know Randy's dad died when he was a baby I think. Billy and Evedell were legal age to agree to be adopted. Randy kept in touch with his family. I don't know about Greg. He is Native.) Grandma and Grandpa took in Foster Kids when Grandpa retired.

James Howard Ross

Hill - Genealogy

January 13, 1934 - January 03, 2019

It is with heavy hearts that the family of James Howard Ross wishes to share that this loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend left us on Thursday, January 3, 2019. He is remembered by his loving wife of 61 years Shirley, his one daughter Carol (Guy) and five sons Eugene (Barb), Jeff (Joan), Bruce (Karen), Wayne (Shari), Jimmy (Paula), and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Born in St. Andrews, NB., son of the late Forest and Evangeline (French) Ross.

Jim's priority was his family. He worked hard to provide for them but was always ready for a family gathering and good times. He was a mentor and helper to his children, grandchildren and others. He was kind-hearted and always willing to lend a helping hand to all. You would often find him building something in his woodshop, volunteering his time helping others or sitting by the bonfire. He gave his family the gift of his time and attention and will be forever loved and missed by them.

Funeral service will be held at All Saints Anglican Church, King St. St. Andrews, NB on Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 2 PM. The family will receive friends at the church on Wednesday from 12-2 PM. A reception will follow in the church hall.

For those who wish, donations in Jim's memory may be made to Charlotte County Cancer Society or a charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be sent to the family on line at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Jim's family would like to thank the staff at the Charlotte County Hospital for his care.

Born in 1919 and after growing up in the Eastern Townships region of Quebec, Rene' enlisted in the RCAF during WWII as an airframe mechanic, and continued to serve his country for 25 years as an aerial photographer post-war before transitioning to the federal public service in surveys, mapping, and satellite imagery. OBITUARY - Inez P. MacLeod Relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Inez Phoebe MacLeod of Oak Bay, at the age of 81 years at the Charlotte County Hospital on Monday, February 7th, 1972, following a illness of three months.

Born at Oak Bay on March 2, 1890, she was the daughter of the late George S. Morrell and Maria (Doten) Morrell. Two brothers predeceased her; Frank of Oak Bay and Woodstock, in 1962 and Austin of Princeton, New Jersey, in 1969. This she was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Educated at the public school at Oak Bay and the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton in 1907-08, she was a teacher in the schools of Charlotte and York Counties for a period of seven and one half years from 1908 to 1916. Schools in which she served as teacher were Lever Settlement, Oak hill, McAdam, Little Ridge and Oak Bay.

She was married on October 28, 1915 to Everett Campbell MacLeod, a son of the late J. Campbell MacLeod and Marietta Eastman) MacLeod of Little Ridge. During early years of their marriage they resided at Little Ridge, moving to Oak Bay where they have resided until the present time, living in the home of her childhood built many years ago by her father.

Three children were born to her; Margaret Jean, who died in infancy; Priscilla and Malcolm.

She is survived by her husband, Everett C. MacLeod of Oak Bay; a daughter, Priscilla of Bangor, Maine; a son, G.E. Malcolm MacLeod of Fredericton, N.B.; two grandchildren, Austin Greenlaw of Andover, N.B. and Miss Kathryn Greenlaw of Bangor, Maine; a number of cousins, nieces and nephews.

As a wife and mother for fifty-six years she was a source of strength to her family to whom she was devoted and in whom she maintained a keen interest to the time of her death.

An ardent reader, she enjoyed literary pursuits and maintained a keen interest in writing both poetry and short stories. Selections of her poetry were published several years ago.

Her most recent interest in writing was a genealogy of her family tracing the history of the Morrell and Doten families through the past several generations to the present. During 1971, at the age of 81 years, she wrote numerous letters and gathered all of the informative material for this work which is now ready for publication.

A teacher for several years, and a person keenly interested in others, she had a wide circle of friends, and she became known and respected throughout Charlotte County and beyond. She maintained a regular correspondence with relatives and friends in many parts of North America,

A devout Christian, she was a life long member of the Oak Bay United Baptist Church.

Her funeral was largely attended in the A.G. MacDonald Memorial Chapel at St. Stephen on the afternoon of February 10th, when member of her family, relatives and friends gathered to pay a final tribute to her memory. The service was conducted by Reverend Eldon Hicks, United Baptist Church, Oak Bay. the sermon was preached by Reverend Kenneth Hughes, United Baptist Church, St. George. Prayer was offered by Reverend Maynard Rector, United Church of Canada, Oak Bay.

Two favorite hymns, "Peace In The Valley" and "In The Garden" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Dorothy Murchie of St. Stephen.

Pallbearers were Harold Irving, Burton Ashley, Keith Morrell, Donald Morrell, Glen MacLeod, Lloyd MacLeod.

Many beautiful floral tributes and memorials testified to the esteem and affection with which she was regarded. Memorials were offered on her behalf to the Oak Bay United Baptist Church, the New Brunswick Division of the Canadian Heart Foundation, the Charlotte County Cancer Society, the Canadian Association for the Mentally Retarded. A number of Gideon Bibles were presented in her memory.

Burial was in the family lot in the Oak Bay Rural Cemetery overlooking the oak tree lined drives and lots, and the committal service was conducted under sunny skies and in warm Spring like weather by Reverend Kenneth Hughes and Reverend Eldon Hicks.

Notes for Mary Frederica 'Freda' McKinney:

Obituary - Mary Fredrica "Freda" Berry

Mary Fredrica "Freda" Berry of East Orland, Maine died Tuesday March 25, 2003 at her home on Toddy Pond, where she had lived with her husband for the past 21 years. She was born April 2, 1928, in Fredericton, N.B.. When she was two her mother died and Freda was placed in an orphanage in Saint John, N.B. Shortly thereafter she was adopted by Maynard and Louicinda McKinney of St. Stephen, N.B.

She graduated from St. Stephen High School and went on to get her degree from the University of New Brunswick. She obtained a teaching certificate and taught school until she married Dick Berry in 1957.

Freda learned to fly and sail. She, her husband and their cat sailed to Key West and Blue Hill, having lived aboard for nine months. She did all this despite having Multiple Sclerosis from the age of 19. Freda loved animals and the following gave her great comfort:

The Rainbow Bridge

"There's a beautiful story that tells of a bridge connecting heaven and earth. It's called the Rainbow Bridge because of its many vivid colors. Just this side of the bridge is a land of lush grass and flowers, of hills and meadows.

"When a beloved pet dies, it goes to this place of beauty and peace where there's always plenty of food and water and warm spring weather. The old and frail are young again. Those who are maimed are made whole. They play all day with each other in happiness and health.

"Only one thing is missing - they're not with that special person who loved them on earth. So they run and play until the day comes when one abruptly stops and looks up! The nose twitches! The ears are up! And this one suddenly runs from the group. You have been seen, and when you and your special friend meet, you take him in your arms and embrace. Your face is kissed again and again, you look once more into the eyes of your trusting pet. Then you cross the Rainbow Bridge, never again to be separated."

She is survived by her husband, Dick of East Orland, Maine, her son, Lee and two grandchildren, Josh and Megan all of Sioux Falls, S.D.

No plans for a service have been made at this time.

Arrangements are with Direct Cremation of Maine, Belfast.

Marriage Notes for Frances Morrell and George Hyslop:

On Wednesday January 4th, at the Manse, St. Stephen, Was solemnized a quiet but very petty wedding when Frances May Morrell became the bride of George McKenzie Hyslop. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C.R.F. McLennan in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride looked very winsome in a gown of pale green Canton crepe, with trimmings of fawn georgette, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maidenhair fern.

Miss Marion Morrell, sister of the bride attired in a handsome dress of old blue taffeta, acted as bridesmaid and John Hyslop, brother of the groom was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left on the evening train for a short honeymoon trip to St. John and other points of interest. The bride's going away dress was Grecian crepe with coat of king's blue Brazial cloth with grey fur trimmings and hat to match.

The bride is one of New Brunswick's superior teachers, the groom a prosperous farmer, and both have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy wedded life.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a set of sterling silver vases and to the best man a set of cuff links in white and green gold.

On Monday evening a miscellaneous shower was given in their honor at their home at St. David and many handsome presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Notes for John Mansfield Moody:

John Moody -

John Moody said he never fired a shot during the Second World War.

"I was a mechanic," he said with a chuckle.

He remembers being shot at though.

"I hid. That's why I'm still here," he said teasing.

Joking aside, Moody who enlisted in 1942 with the Eighth Hussars and served in the army until 1945, said he'll be remembering old friends this Remembrance Day, like he has in the past.

I think about them. I remember things that happened when we were overseas, the times we got shelled a lot," said Moody who turned 90 years old on September 17 this year.

He sat on his couch in front of a crackling fire in the fireplace in the livingroom of his home on the Ledge Road and remembered.

"This is the tam I wore all through Italy," he said, popping up from the couch and gabbing a dark tam with a gleaming Eighth Hussars badge.

"It's getting a little worn," he said running his finger slowly around the binding on the edge.

Moody said he tried to remember the good times from the period in his life overseas.

Moody was born in 1914.

"I started the First World War," he joked.

Born in the very House where he now lives, in the room he now claims as his bedroom, John Moody was the son of Berton and Blanche Moody. His dad was a sea captain whose homeport was Portland, Maine. His mother was a schoolteacher who raised two other children besides John.

His elder brother Charles is dead and buried near Boston.

His sister, Virginia Faloon, still lives in Quebec, where she moved with her husband, Ken, now deceased about 40 years ago, when the Cotton Mill in St. Stephen closed. Virginia is 93 years old.

"I talk to her quite often," said Moody.

"I want her to come home and live here. There's plenty of room. But she's a serious bridge nut; loves to play bridge where she is," he added with a laugh.

You can tell family is important to Moody. He has family photos on just about every available surface in his living room. He has a large metal plate engraving of himself and his wife, the former Jean Frye, who died several years ago.

They were married for 53 years. "she must have been a saint," exclaims Moody with a laugh.

The couple had three children. Two daughters, Dianne and Barbara are both dead now but their son, John Frederick or Ted as he is called lives in Barter Settlement.

Moody worked as a mechanic at the local Government Garage for 24 years and a half years following his return from overseas.

He liked being a mechanic, even in the army. He said he was responsible for keeping the vehicles moving. When you ask him what rank he held in the army, he replies, "super duper trooper," and laughs heartily.

"They wanted to give me a stripe, but I said no," he said, explaining that mechanics made 75 cents more per day than sergeants who only received 60 cents more a day.

Moody began his overseas tour with six months and two weeks of training in an English town called Chatham.

"They taught every trade in England there," he said.

Moody was then sent to Algiers in North Africa, then to Italy. He went into Naples.

"They had gondolas there," he said.

After his division was pulled out of Italy, Moody was sent to France, Belgium "a corner of Germany" and ended up in Holland.

While in Italy Moody who said he could "Jibber jabber" in Italian, often helped the locals in the village in which they stayed with their community oven.

I'd help them build the fire and one woman would give me a loaf of bread, he recalled.

Moody remembers almost ending up behind enemy lines.

He said he and the other mechanics had a truck they called "the fitters truck."

"I had a bunk and made a stove to keep warm out of a five gallon can," said Moody.

He remembers the men getting into the back of the truck and the driver heading out.

The fella driving the truck came up to a sign that said front line 100 yards. He drove right by our tanks firing, said Moody.

I said stop this thing, but he said that's an old sign. I told him that sign was new to me. Moody said laughing.

It was no laughing matter, however, when the men piled out and discovered they were indeed only a short distance from enemy territory. They jumped into a ditch for cover when small arms fire opened up around them.

Moody said the truck driver was yelling at them to help him turn the truck around.

We just told him you got us in here, you can back it around yourself. Said Moody, with another laugh. They did manage to get back on the truck and to safety away from the enemy line.

Moody was in England in VJ Day as he calls it. He remembers being told at 4 p.m. on a particular day that he would be shipping out for England at 6 p.m. on the same day.

Moody was in England for two weeks after the end of the war and then came home to St. Stephen.

Moody said he will place a wreath this year at the Cenotaph in memory of the Eight Hussars who died in the War.

I don't parade anymore, he said. I just hide behind the monument until its time to lay the wreath, he added with a mischievous chuckle.

He said he enjoyed the recent turkey supper offered by the St. Stephen Legion and enjoys visiting with his Legion friends.

This Remembrance Day he said he would think about other friends.

I'll think about them, he said solemn for once as he stared into the flames of his living room fire.

I kind of miss the people, but thank goodness we didn't lose too many."

Marriage Notes for George Nixon and Daisy Veno:

Marriage - Nixon - Veno

A wedding of wide interest in this community was solemnized at the Manse at Scotch Ridge when Miss Daisy Belle Veno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Veno, became the bride of George William Nixon, son of George Nixon of Lower Little Ridge. The ceremony took place under a large wedding bell hanging in centre and the arch was decorated with yellow and white streamers. The double ring service was used with Rev. R.C. Robbins officiating.

After the ceremony the happy couple were driven by Chas. Dickinson to the home of the bride's parents, where they were greeted by a host of friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a floor length dress of white chiffon crepe with long veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern and wore a string of pearls. The bridesmaid, Miss Lois Omar, was gowned in a yellow figured crepe and carried a bouquet of roses and fern. The groomsman was Harry Craft of Milltown.

Earl Mailman, cousin of the bride, acted as ring bearer and Hazel Marie, sister of the bride was flower girl. The house was beautifully decorated with fern and wild roses.

Dainty refreshments including a three tier wedding cake were served by friends of the bride. The table was trimmed with pink and white streamers.

After the luncheon the bride changed her costume to a navy blue traveling suit with pearl grey accessories and the happy couple left for a short motor trip amid the best wishes of many friends. On their return, they will make their home at Lower Little Ridge. The many gifts, including linen, cut glass, silver, china and cash, testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held in this community.

He was a student at the university of New Brunswick till May Of 1941, when he enlisted in the R.C.A.F., as aircrew and on August 14, 1942, received his pilot's wings at Moncton. He led his class of 52 pilots and was commissioned as a PO and posted to Renton, Ontario for an instructor's course. Going from there to Camp Borden, in August of 1943 he was posted overseas to No. 6 Group of Bomber Command.

After some operational experience made Deputy Flight Commander then Flight Commander and Squadron Leader. Did 31 operational trips, 10 of them to the Rhur Valley (Happy Valley in Air force slang) and others to Manburg, Magdeberg, Cologne, Osnabruck etc. and several trips in close support of the Canadian Army in vicinity of Calais and Cap Griz-Nez, coming down below 2000 feet on two occasions in order to pinpoint the target. Longest trip to Chemnitz (2300 miles for the trip) 9 hours flying without co-pilot.

He was later employed by the St. Croix Paper Co. of Woodland, but in September 1946 returned to U.N.B. to complete work on his engineer's degree. In May of 1947 he received a B. Science in electrical engineering and since that time, has been employed by General Electric at the Lynn River Works.

On August 15, 1942 he married Miss Mona Cleland of Milltown.

The Citation

His citation reads as follows:

"In October 1944, this officer was the pilot of an aircraft detailed to attack Wanne Eickel Whilst many miles from the target area the aircraft was hit by anti-aircraft fire. A large hole was torn in the nose of the aircraft; the navigator was wounded and had to be taken to a rest position for attention. Nevertheless, Flight Lieutenant McAllister went on to the target and executed a successful attack. He afterwards flew the damaged aircraft back to an airfield in this country and effected a safe landing in difficult circumstances. Flight Lieutenant McAllister later displayed high qualities of leadership skill and resolution throughout."

D.F.C. Winner Spending Leave At Home In Milltown - 1944

John E. McAllister Rose From Ranks to Become Squadron Leader with R.C.A.F. Overseas

Squadron Leader John Everett McAllister, D.F.C. of Milltown arrived home on Friday morning, May 25, after nearly two years overseas on operational duty.

Completing his tour of 31 missions over enemy territory as the pilot of huge bombers, SL McAllister had been sent to an embarkation post in England awaiting his leave home just two days before V-E Day, which accounts for his speedy return to Canada.

He enlisted on the Air Force on the fall of 1941 and after completing three years at the University of New Brunswick, and rose rapidly from the ranks. Before proceeding overseas in the fall of 1943 he spent a year instructing various stations in Canada as a Flying Officer. He has received two promotions while serving overseas, as well as the Distinguished Flying Cross received the latter part of last year for "displaying high qualities in leadership, skill and resolution." That was when he completed a bombing mission after his plane had been riddled by enemy aircraft and the navigator wounded and then flew the damaged plane back to his base, making a successful landing.

SL. McAllister tells of some exciting and harrowing experiences. The latter part of his tours he flew Halifax bombers. He told of one incident when after "laying their eggs" on their designated spot on the Ruhr Valley his plane became separated from the rest of the squadron and ran into heavy barrage of anti-craft fire from the ground. They got his plane into a pocket and every time he attempted a turn the battery of six guns would send up a shower of three consecutive bursts spreading along the line where his ship would be if he completed the turn. The Germans kept him in this hole for some time until he finally decided to make a last stab at getting out. Faking a turn he waited for the ever present burst of fire that would greet the dip and then pulled in behind the last two shots completing his turn and scooting for home.

He told of his experience with the new 11 ton bombs, which were so large that they would not fit inside the planes. They placed the plane on top of the bomb; he said and then cut the bottom of the plane until it formed the shape of the bomb. They then fastened the bomb to the plane, or vice-versa, whichever way you like it, thus making the 22,000 pound bomb part of the bottom of the fuselage. These bombs must be dropped from a great height, he added, and after one is dropped it leaves a big hole in the bottom of the plane, just the same as if half of the plane had fallen away. Once, he said, they dropped one from about 180 feet and struck a rocky ledge. When they got back to the base in England they found bits of rock embedded in the wings, the bomb was so powerful it had blown the rocks even above the plane.

He gave high praise to the Pathfinders, those bombers which go ahead of the squadron and light up the target with flares. "It gives you a great feeling," he says, "to be flying along in the pitch dark, not able to see a thing, and then at the exact second planned, see your target light up like a Fourth of July celebration. They have never failed."

SL. McAllister is spending a 30 day rotation leave with his wife, following which he will report to Moncton for further orders.

Obituary:

Gordon James McAllister

February 12, 1927 - November 04, 2013

The much beloved Gordon McAllister slipped quietly from this life on Monday, November 4, 2013. Born in Milltown, NB in 1927, he was the son of the late James W. McAllister and Ruth (Alward) McAllister Norwood.

Throughout his life Gordon demonstrated a deep devotion to his family and friends. For seventy years he joyfully shared his passion for music with all those around him. After mastering the piano by the age of sixteen, he expressed his strong faith by serving for several decades as a church organist and choir member in both Fredericton and McAdam. His musical contributions included leading a dixieland band in the 1950s and 60s, serving as Director of the River Valley Chorus (Fredericton's barbershop chapter), playing the piano for Fredericton Golden Kiwanis meetings, forming a hand bell choir in McAdam, and teaching many young people to play the piano, including several of his own children and grandchildren. We, his family, loved it best when he played the piano at home and at family gatherings.

Gordon was proud to have served in the Canadian Air Force. Following that he spent forty-one years working for NB Power. He was among the pioneers who brought computing technology to that organization, and he helped shape their information technology direction for several decades.

He is predeceased by his first wife, Betty (Welch) and daughters Nancy (newborn) and Linda LaBine (Jerry), 2009. He is survived by his wife Patricia (Robinson) Little McAllister, McAdam; sister Barbara Logan, Fredericton; children Stephen (Susan), Scarborough, ON, Mary Ann Casey (Michael), Fredericton, Andrew (Brenda), Fredericton, and Wendy Cromwell (Allison), McNamee; fourteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

There will be no visitation, by request. A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, November 8, 2013 at Wilmot United Church, 473 King Street, Fredericton. A reception in the church hall will immediately follow the service.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the following charities: St. Paul's United Church in McAdam, the Fredericton Food Bank, and the IWK Hospital in Halifax.

Notes for Lawrence Richard Knowles:

Mr. L. R. Knowles, who died in Victoria Public Hospital, Fredericton at the age of 56, was a respected journalist who gained a wide reputation as a radio news director.

Services were held Tuesday in the Brunswick Street United Baptist Church in Fredericton followed by a second service and burial in St. Stephen.

Rev. Harold R. Burton and that conducted the Fredericton service in St. Stephen by Rev. L.E. Davis.

Bearers were Lloyd Parsons, Arlo Hayman, Bliss Berry, Elmer Scott, Arthur Lowe and Richard Hughes.

A native of Windsor, NS Mr. Knowles entered the news media in that province and worked for a number of Nova Scotia newspapers before coming to The Courier in 1929. His length tenure in St. Stephen brought him a solid reputation as a journalist and a host of friends and acquaintances.

In 1954 Mr. Knowles resigned from the Courier to take up a position with Radio Press, a maritime news agency. Later when the news operation ceased operation in 1960, Mr. Knowles was appointed news director of CFNB now Radio Atlantic.

During this period of service he won a reputation as the leading instructor of radio journalism in the Maritimes and many of Canada's top newsmen owe their start to his consideration.

In addition to heading the Radio Atlantic News Department, Mr. Knowles also served as a director of the Radio Television News Directors Association of America. And for a number of years was Fredericton correspondent for the Telegraph-Journal.

Mr. Knowles was well known to countless government and public officials and earned their respect with his conscientious reporting of facts and analytical approach to opinion writing. To the general public he was best known for his editorial program., "Larry Looks At. The News", which was heard daily by thousands of people throughout the Atlantic Provinces.

Mr. Knowles was a past president of the Fredericton branch of the New Brunswick Fish and Game Protective Association.

He was a member of the Brunswick Street United Baptist Church in Fredericton and served as chairman of the church's constitution committee and a member of its board of trustees and board of finance.

He is survived by his wife, the former Evelyn Smith of St. Stephen and one daughter, Barbara, Mrs. Melvin Williams of Calgary.

Notes for Annie 'Elsie' Chrestofferson:

Surname was Annie Elizabeth 'Elsie' Christofferson but this was changed to Annie Elizabeth 'Elsie' Cluntoff[looks more like a Russian name] after finding the birth information for her daughter, Elizabeth V. Campbell. However, no surnames of Cluntoff were found in searching the census for 1900 or 1910 so this looks like a dead end!! This was solved by using information from the engagement notice, of 21 June 1936, for Eliabeth Berne Campbell which named her aunt's as Mrs. James M. Page and Mrs. George E. Cummings.

Notes for Rebecca Hill:

Obit:

REBECCA HILL TALBOT of EAST MACHIAS - Rebecca Hill Talbot, 84, of East Machias, died April 23, 2005, in Machias, after a short illness. She was born June 7, 1920, in Machias, the daughter of Warren M. and Grace (Morrison) Hill. Following her graduation from Machias High School, she attended Wheaton College and graduated from the University of Maine in 1942. Later that year, Rebecca married William B. Talbot of East Machias, and she and Bill traveled throughout the south as Bill underwent Army training. When Bill was deployed to the European Theater, she returned to Machias, where she began teaching at Machias High School. Following her joyful reunion with Bill at war's end, Rebecca moved to East Machias and raised her two sons. When her boys were in college, she resumed her career as an English teacher at Washington Academy. Countless students will attest that her standards were uncompromising, but her patience, humor and love of literature inspired them to meet those standards. Many will recall with laughter her sense of play and adventure with her friend, Mollie Beam on the French club trips to Quebec City. Following her retirement, she indulged her passion to locate and identify the smallest flowers, ferns and lichen at her much loved Camp Polypody at Hadley Lake and traveled to Greece and Germany with Bill. Their most touching moments came during their visit to the Dachau death-camp, which Bill had helped liberate in the spring of 1945. She also became active in the Center for Lifelong Learning Capital Campaign at the University of Maine at Machias and she returned to the church of her childhood, the Centre Street Congregational Church, to spearhead the memorial fund for the new north wing and wheelchair access. Rebecca is survived by one son, William B. Talbot Jr. and his wife, Nancy, and their two children, Ally and Matt Talbot, all of East Machias; a daughter-in-law, Shelagh Talbot and her friend, Bob Miller, of Guilford; a granddaughter, Jessica Talbot of Machias; one sister, Virginia Brehmer and her husband, Thor, of West Chester, Pa.; a niece, Anne Richards; and two nephews, Donald and Philip Brehmer. She was predeceased by her husband, William B. Talbot in 2002; and a son, James R. Talbot III in 1978. A private committal service will be held at the Village Cemetery, East Machias, with the Rev. Gini King officiating. A reception to celebrate Rebecca's life will follow at 2:45 p.m. Friday, April 29, at the Centre Street Congregational Church, Machias, all are welcome. The family request those who wish may contribute to the Memorial Fund of the Centre Street Congregational Church, care of Valarie Preston, P.O. Box 265, Machias, ME 04654

Notes for Leland Watson McGaw:

Leland Watson McGaw

July 27, 1927 - March 26, 2017

Leland Watson McGaw

We are sad to announce the passing of Leland Watson McGaw, peacefully in his sleep at Windsor Court, Fredericton, his home of the last two years, on March 26, 2017.

Born in Oak Hill, N.B. on July 27, 1927, he was the only son of Walter and Margaret (McMorrان) McGaw. He was predeceased by his wife of 66 years, Eileen. He is survived by his son Richard McGaw (Gail Storr); grandsons Ryan (Tamarisk) and Peter; step-grandchildren Peter Storr (MJ) and Karen Storr (Benoit); great-grandson Ryker; and step-great-grandsons Nicolas, Phillipe and Felix.

Leland spent his early years working in the woods, running a lumber camp while still a teenager. In the 1950s he was a heavy equipment operator and in the 1960s he was co-owner of a clothing store in St. Stephen. In 1967 he was elected as one of four MLAs for Charlotte County, and was subsequently was reelected to Charlotte West, serving 20 years in the Legislature. While in the Legislature, he served as Deputy Speaker, Minister of Tourism and Chair of the N.B. Power. He was devoted to his constituents, whether they voted for him or not. He found employment for many, and interceded with government when people had problems that he could fix. It was difficult to have an evening meal without a phone call or someone showing up in the driveway looking for help, and he always gave it. It is fair to say that he left politics with his respect and integrity intact, and continued to help when he could even out of office. Through everything, and right to the end, his sense of humour never left him.

Leland loved his family and was as devoted to it as he was to politics, never letting one take over the other. After politics, he returned to his love of the woods. He loved to hunt and fish. In 1989, with help from a friend, he cut the wood and built his camp "Esoonac" where he spent many happy hours with Eileen, often entertaining large numbers of family and friends. He also started a Christmas tree farm, working it into his 80s. For many years, he brought the Grade 5 children from McAdam Elementary for a day of orientation in Christmas tree production and a meal at Esoonac.

The family extends appreciation to the staff of Windsor Court, who provided care and compassion during his time there. He became one of their family.

Funeral service will be held from The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Ltd. 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Thursday March 30, 2017 at 3:30PM. with Archdeacon John Matheson officiating. Family will receive friends at the funeral home on Thursday from 12 Noon until time of service.

For those who wish in lieu of flowers, remembrances to the charity of ones choice would be appreciated by the family. On-line condolences for the family may be sent to www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Notes for Hazen Maxwell Richardson:

RICHARDSON, HAZEN MAXWELL (MAX) - Hazen Maxwell (Max) Richardson passed away in Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B., on July 31, 2003 in his 80th year. He is survived by his wife, Kathleen (Pollard), one daughter, Kathie Wells (Robert), Ottawa, Ont; one son, George (Judy), Fredericton, N.B.; one grandchild, Alice Richardson, two sisters, Ruth (Hume), Portland, Me., and Mary Gene (Lee), Saint John, N.B.; one brother, Edwin Richardson (Jane), Ottawa, Ont.; half sister, Grace Gendron (Mark), two half brothers, Elmer Richardson (Joyce), St. Stephen, N.B.; Vance Richardson (Elizabeth), Nova Scotia; several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by one brother, William Richardson. Max was born in 1924 in St. Stephen, N.B., the son of Hazen and Margaret (Forsyth) Richardson of Richardson, Deer Island, where he spent his early years. His fondest memories of childhood were times spent with his grandfather, master boatbuilder George Everett Richardson in his boatshop. This interest in boat building was to continue through his entire life and his retirement allowed him the time to use those skills for the design and construction of two wooden cabin cruisers. As a young man, Max travelled to Ontario where he worked in the steel mills and graduated from Central Technical College in Toronto as a bricklayer. In 1942 he joined the Royal Canadian Engineers in Fredericton and was sent overseas on the Aquatania, returning on the same vessel in 1946. Later that year he married Kathleen (Kaye) Pollard. Max worked for many years around the local area as a well-known masonry contractor. In 1973 he became maintenance supervisor for School District No. 23, a position he held until his retirement in 1989. In 1953 he joined Victoria Lodge No. 26 F&AM rising to the office of Worshipful Master in 1969. He went through all the chairs in all York Rite bodies, but one and was a founding member of the Luxor Temple AAONMS clown unit. In 1972 he was awarded the first emblem ever presented to a Noble for outstanding service. He was also a member of the Queen Mary Chapter No. 4 O.E.S. and he served as District Deputy Grand Master, District 5 of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick. Max's retirement years were spent indulging his passions - boat building and outdoor activities such as snowmobiling around his camp in Canoose. He built two cabin cruisers - the 20' Alice K was launched in 1993 and the 28' Kathie A was launched in 2000. Declining health forced him to downscale his boat building activities, but he completed several large models, including the Bluenose, the Pauline, the Alma Connors and the Page. Most of these were boats originally built by his grandfather on Deer Island or by his uncle, Albion Richardson, of Blacks Harbour. Max had many friends and spent a great deal of his time in their company offering advice and assistance or just enjoying their friendship. His funeral service was held at the S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral in St. Stephen on Aug. 2, 2003 with Rev. Eric E.

Caldwell officiating. Pallbearers were Leigh Waldron, Herbert Weatherby, Chester Hyslop and cousins Dick, Floyd and Dale Richardson. The eulogy was delivered by his long-time friend Leigh Waldron. Interment was at the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Hazen Richardson and Kathleen Pollard:

Marriage - Richardson - Pollard

A pretty wedding of wide interest to many relatives and friends was solemnized in Trinity Church, St. Stephen, at 2 o'clock, when Kathleen Victoria, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey R. Pollard, of St. Stephen and Hazen Maxwell Richardson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Richardson of Deer Island, were united in marriage by the rector, Rev. A. Raymond Smith. The church was tastefully decorated with snapdragons and pink and white chrysanthemums, and the guest pews were marked by nosegays of sweetpeas, with white satin bows.

Miss Phyllis Hunter presided at the organ, and rendered special nuptial music. During the signing of the register, Mr. Charles Ryder sang in pleasing voice "Because."

Entering the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage the bride was charming in a floor length gown of white sheer, with sweetheart neckline trimmed with d'aleneon lace, tight fitting bodice, with inserts of d'aleneon lace and dainty ruffles in the full skirt, tiny self covered buttons fastened down the back to a point slightly below the waist line, the long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil was of white net with a coronet of net and white daffodils. Her only ornament was a gold locket, heart shaped, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses with wide blue sash.

The bride was attended by Miss Mary Gene Richardson, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, who wore a floor length gown of shell pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline and tiered skirt.. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Her shoulder length veil was light blue with a cornet of shell pink daffodils and pink velvet ribbon. The groomsmen was Ralph Pollard, brother of the bride, and the ushers were Lloyd Pollard, brother of the bride and Philip Weatherby, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was attractively gowned in a jacket dress of black silk, with white lace ruffles, and silver buttons trimming the jacket. Her earrings were of silver sequins, and her corsage of Talisman roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents where a buffet lunch was served. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth tastefully decorated in a color scheme of blue and white, with pink roses, tall white tapers in silver holders and centered with a three- tiered wedding cake.

The guests were served by friends of the bride, Mrs. Phillip Caldwell, Mrs. Philip Weatherby, Miss Eileen Dick, Mrs. Lloyd Pollard, sister in law of the bride, and Miss Ruth Richardson, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Eva Ludgate, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. Ralph Pollard had charge of the guest book and presided over the wedding gifts.

Family came first for Higgins

Published Friday December 5th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - Walter Higgins was a man who was always there for his family. Walter Higgins And that included taking his grandchildren to their hockey games, standing at the side of a racetrack cheering on his family, sitting in so his daughter could have a nap and getting on the floor to play dinky cars with his great-grandson.

"He was the greatest," daughter Judy Fahey said. "Everybody thinks their father is. But he was really kind and gentle and family was really important to him."

On Nov. 30, Walter Harold Higgins, of St. Stephen, died at the age of 75, at the Charlotte County Hospital with his family by his side.

He is survived by his wife, Edna Higgin; his children, Judy Fahey, Douglas Higgins and Danny Higgins; 10 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and his siblings, Joseph Higgins, Steve Higgins and Aldena Morrisy. He was predeceased by siblings Leslie Higgins, Bernard Higgins, Donald Higgins and Richard Higgins, and a grandson Jeffrey Higgins.

Fahey said her dad was a quiet man who was not the centre of attention at family get-togethers or the outspoken voice among the many. But he was always present, listening and supporting his family.

"My mother was the dominant one, she was the enforcer," Fahey said. "Anything I wanted, I went to my father and he always gave it to me. I was the only girl, so I was really spoiled."

Although Walter Higgins was quiet, he was also funny.

Fahey said he was always playing funny little pranks on people, such as when her friends used to come over to their house when she was in high school and her father sometimes filled their purses with rocks so they would be shocked when they picked them up to leave.

Fahey said her father was a mechanic by trade and was always a "Mr. Fix-It."

"He could fix anything," Fahey said. "Anytime I wanted something fixed, I would call him and he would do it. He was always there for all of us. We could call him in the middle of the night and he would come."

Fahey said when her father was in the nursing home, one of the nurses gave him a chair to fix and despite his illness he spent hours fixing that chair until it was as good as new.

In his home he was the housekeeper, cleaning and doing the chores and he was the family gardener, always making sure the lawn was immaculate and there was not a rock to be found.

Douglas Higgins said his dad was a hard worker who put in countless hours every week and did everything he could for the sake of his family.

Douglas Higgins said his father taught him the difference between right and wrong, and to be the kind of man who earns everything he has.

"He taught me what life was about," Douglas Higgins said. "You don't give up, you struggle, and sooner or later you will come out of it."

Fahey said it is her father's caring heart, which wanted to help people and make life better for his family, that she carries in her own heart.

"You always knew he was going to be there. You may not have heard him, but you knew he was there," Fahey said. "He lived mostly for his family and his main goal in life was to make our lives better."

The funeral for Walter Higgins was held on Thursday.

Joseph "Joe" Eugene Higgins
1938-2015

It is with great sadness, the family of Joseph Eugene Higgins, 1938-2015, announce his passing at the Saint John Regional Hospital on March 28, 2015. Born at St. Stephen NB on August 5, 1938 he was a son of the late James and Marion (Richardson) Higgins.

Joe is survived by his wife Mary Evangeline (Legacy), Children Susan Hall (Roswell), Maggie Hanley, Cathy McKinley (Danny), Jim Higgins (Marci), Marilyn Blanchard (Rickey), and Aldena Higgins-Harris (Dennis), Grandchildren Tammy, Patti, Bryan, Aimee, Joel, Joey, and Dawna; Great Grandchildren Dustin, Zack, Tori, Makayla, Sarah, Karma, Brooklynn, and Kain; one Brother Stephen (Carol), and many sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, numerous nieces and nephews. Besides his parents James and Marion (Richardson), Joseph is predeceased by siblings Walter, Aldena, Les, Bernard, Richard, and son-in-law Farren Hanley.

Joe knew from an early age what his career path would be. His love for numbers resulted in him starting his career at the Bank of Nova Scotia and then onto Connors Brother Limited where he spent 38 years as Paymaster. He often said the best part of the job was the people he worked with and meeting the many employees on his visits through the factories. He enjoyed being outside taking long walks through his property, clearing woodland, gardening, or checking on his blueberries. Each year he could hardly wait for the berries, with his son at his side. Even though work took most of his time he would always find time for his family. He was also involved in church activities at Christ Church Pennfield, early on as Sunday school superintendent, a church warden, Treasurer and a choir member. He did a term as a member of a Board of Directors for the Fundy Health Center. During his spare time, he was active in the Pennfield Volunteer Fire Department as one of the original members, a level II fire fighter, a Fire Marshall, and also took on the role of Treasurer. He enjoyed the sport of curling as well and socializing at the Brunswick Curling Club in which he was a lifetime honorary member and the Club Treasurer.

A special thank you to Extra-Mural support from Sheri and the staff on the Palliative Care Unit at the Saint John Regional Hospital. Also, a huge thank you to the many family and friends who visited and showed support in the last six months; all of this support truly meant a lot to the family.

Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB. Resting at Christ Church (Anglican), 68 Route 778, Pennfield NB from where the service will be held on Tuesday at 2:00 pm with Rev. Canon Keith Osborne Officiating. Visiting at the church will take place on Monday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. The interment in the parish cemetery will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Charlotte County Cancer Society or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for Marion Josephine Pendleton:

From ST.CROIX COURIER- At the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B. on Dec. 23, 1993, Mrs Marion Josephine (Pendleton) Conley of Lords Cove, Deer Island; wife of Joseph P. Conley, daughter of the late Daniel and Dorothy Pendleton; survived by her husband, two daughters, Rachel, Mrs Glen Stuart of Lords Cove and Martha, Mrs Tom Gibson of South Portland, Me., one son, Daniel of Lords Cove, three grandsons, Matthew Stuart, David and Thomas Gibson, one uncle, Robert Pendleton of Saint John, and numerous cousins.No visitation by family request. Donations to the Kidney Foundation or chariety of one's choice would be appreciated by the family. Arrangements under the care of the St. George Funeral Home, 26 Portage Street, St. George, N.B.

From ST.CROIX COURIER-1990- Organ Donation- Conley grateful for the gift of life-(with picture) Marion Conley of Deer Island, who had a kidney transplant two years ago says it has changed her life- Receiving a kidney transplant has given Marion Conley a whole new lease on life and she will always be grateful to the family of the young man who donated his organs to her and others like her. "People say it is iraculous that we have the technology to do this type of thing today but I think it is miracloous that someone who has lost a 23-year old son, brother or father would think of other people at a time like that. I would like to know his family. I wonder if these people realize the wonderful gift they gave. I do feel tremondus gratitude toward them." It was while she and her family were living in South Portland, Maine that Conly became terribly sick and she did not know what was wrong with her. When the family moved back to Deer Island, where they are originally from, Conley and her husband began renovating their home and she found she was tired all the time. She put this down to all the work they were doing but her daughter insisted she see a doctor. In 1986 she went into the Saint John Regional and remained there for about six weeks while various tests were run. She didcovered she suffers from polycystic disease which is a hereditary disease and that she would need dialysis to remove poisons from her blood. She learned how to use a dialysis machine and technicians from the hospital came to her home to set it up. Since this is a two-man job her daughter, who lives nearby, learned how to help her. There was also an emergency number to call if anything went wrong. When conley first started using the machine it was twice a week but eventually she moved up to three three-hour sessions which proved quite a chunk out of the day and after dialysis she always delt she just wanted to curl up and sleep for awhile. "If you have always been an independant person it is difficult to be totally dependant on someone else. I felt guilty because my daughter could not go on vacation because I needed her although the hospital is very good in providing someone to help you once a year so your helper can take some time off." While she had been in hospital Conley had been asked if she wanted to go on the transplant list and an initial evaluation, psychological evaluation and tissue typing had been carried out. All this information is sent to the Victoria General hospital in Halifax where kidney transplants are performed. Conley recalled it was a Monday morning when she received a call from the province's transplant coordinator, Ann Secord, at about 6 a.m. When she learned there was a kidney available for her she said she began laughing and crying at the same time. Secord had made reservations on a flight out of Saint John at around 1 p.m. that day so she told Conley to go on her machine tat morning before she left. By 9 p.m. that night she was in surgery. "Some people worry about rejection but my kidney worked immediately. The morning after when I woke up in my room I was stiff and I was sore but I felt better than I had for a long time." Conley spent about a month in hospital; then she moved to a motel with a shuttle bus service to the hospital so she could attend clinics for blood tests, etc. She continues to take anti-rejection medication- cyclosporinum- twice a day and will have to for the rest of her life. However that is a small price to pay for the change in her lifestyle. At the time she had her transplant Conley said she was very thin because she could not eat and she had almost no strength at all. She had to be very careful what foods she ate and was on a stringent diet. "I love Italian food and I was so pleased when the first meal they brought me was spaghetti and meatballs." But Conley will never forget the family who made all this possible. All she knows about the donor of her kidney is that he was a 23-year old man from New Brunswick who was helping someone move things, was thrown off the back of a truck and died of head injuries. She and a girl sharing her room were given the young man's kidneys and she understands his heart and liver were also used. Prior to receiving the kidney Conley said she never let herself think that she would like to have a transplant because she knew in order to receive one someone young and healthu had to die. A decision to donate organs, she said should be something which is fiscussed with the family. While a donor's family still has to give concent if that person has indicated their wish to donate their organs then it is an easier decision to make. 'It is a decision you make as a family before, not during, a time of really emotional turmoil."

The groom was attended by his brother, Carl MacLeod.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Those who served were Mrs. Mary Ferson, Mrs. Carl MacLeod and Miss Frances Manning with Miss Danena MacLeod and Miss Barbara Manning serving the bride's table.

Notes for Bonnie Elaine Hall:

Bonnie Elaine (Hall) Barry
1952-2014

At the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen NB on June 9, 2014, Ms. Bonnie Elaine (Hall) Barry of St. Stephen NB and formerly of St. George NB. Born at St. Stephen NB on October 22, 1952, she is a daughter of Ted and Audrey (Hall) Scovil. In addition to her parents, Bonnie is survived by her daughter, Tammy (Paul) Turmel, her son, Chris (Mandy) Barry, her treasured grandchildren, Cody and Jessie, her ex-husband and father of her children, David Barry, her companion, Charlie Estey, two brothers; David (Lisa) Scovil and Peter (Angela) Scovil, five sisters; Barbara Scovil, Jody (Derek) Hatt, Carol (Bill) Craig, Sandra Ingersoll and Judy White, one additional brother, Brad (Carolynn) Mullin, two additional sisters; Sherry (Bill) Peebles and Terri (Sue) Mullin and several nieces, nephews and cousins. Bonnie is also survived by her special friends; Debbie Barry, Peggy Barry, Frank & Mary Clark and Andrew & Karen Seamans. She was predeceased by her father, Joe Mullin, one sister, Debbie Mullin, her grandmother, Minnie Hall and her grandfather Ken Hall.

Bonnie was a woman whose love of life and family defined who she was. She appreciated all she had and said daily that she was the luckiest woman in the world. She never expected or asked for more. Her big heart always made her one of the first people to step up and help someone when they needed it.

Bonnie's outgoing and vivacious personality made her the life of any social event and she enjoyed it so much more if surrounded by her family. It was well known amongst her many friends that her family and particularly her grandchildren, were her world. She did her best to make sure she was there for every event no matter how small.

Bonnie worked the last few years of her life as a home support worker and in this found a special calling that her patience, kindness and compassion allowed her to love an entirely new family. These same traits also made her beloved by many of her grandchildren's friends as a faithful cheerleader at every hockey game she could make.

If there was one lesson in life that Bonnie would hope for everyone she knew to learn and live...it would be keep smiling! The same way she lived her life to the very end.

Resting at the Sea View Full Gospel Church, Back Bay NB from where the service will be held on Thursday at 2pm with Rev. Gordon Cooke officiating. Visiting at the church will take place on Wednesday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. In Bonnie's memory, donations to a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated by the family. Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home & Crematorium (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB

Notes for John Mansfield Moody:

John Moody -

John Moody said he never fired a shot during the Second World War.

"I was a mechanic," he said with a chuckle.

He remembers being shot at though.

"I hid. That's why I'm still here," he said teasing.

Joking aside, Moody who enlisted in 1942 with the Eighth Hussars and served in the army until 1945, said he'll be remembering old friends this Remembrance Day, like he has in the past.

I think about them. I remember things that happened when we were overseas, the times we got shelled a lot," said Moody who turned 90 years old on September 17 this year.

He sat on his couch in front of a crackling fire in the fireplace in the livingroom of his home on the Ledge Road and remembered.

"This is the tam I wore all through Italy," he said, popping up from the couch and gabbing a dark tam with t gleaming Eighth Hussars badge.

"It's getting a little worn," he said running his finger slowly around the binding on the edge.

Moody said he tried to remember the good times from the period in his life overseas.

Moody was born in 1914.

"I started the First World War," he joked.

Born in the very House where he now lives, in the room he now claims as his bedroom, John Moody was the son of Berton and Blanche Moody. His dad was a sea captain whose homeport was Portland, Maine. His mother was a schoolteacher who raised two other children besides John.

His elder brother Charles is dead and buried near Boston.

His sister, Virginia Faloon, still lives in Quebec, where she moved with her husband, Ken, now deceased about 40 years ago, when the Cotton Mill in St. Stephen closed. Virginia is 93 years old.

"I talk to her quite often," said Moody.

"I want her to come home and live here. There's plenty of room. But she's a serious bridge nut; loves to play bridge where she is," he added with a laugh.

You can tell family is important to Moody. He has family photos on just about every available surface in his living room. He has a large metal plate engraving of himself and his wife, the former Jean Frye, who died several years ago.

They were married for 53 years. "she must have been a saint," exclaims Moody with a laugh.

The couple had three children. Two daughters, Dianne and Barbara are both dead now but their son, John Frederick or Ted as he is called lives in Barter Settlement.

Moody worked as a mechanic at the local Government Garage for 24 years and a half years following his return from overseas.

He liked being a mechanic, even in the army. He said he was responsible for keeping the vehicles moving. When you ask him what rank he held in the army, he replies, "super duper trooper," and laughs heartily.

"They wanted to give me a stripe, but I said no," he said, explaining that mechanics made 75 cents more per day than sergeants who only received 60 cents more a day.

Moody began his overseas tour with six months and two weeks of training in an English town called Chatham.

"They taught every trade in England there," he said.

Moody was then sent to Algiers in North Africa, then to Italy. He went into Naples.

"They had gondolas there," he said.

After his division was pulled out of Italy, Moody was sent to France, Belgium "a corner of Germany" and ended up in Holland.

While in Italy Moody who said he could "Jibber jabber" in Italian, often helped the locals in the village in which they stayed with their community oven.

I'd help them build the fire and one woman would give me a loaf of bread, he recalled.

Moody remembers almost ending up behind enemy lines.

He said he and the other mechanics had a truck they called "the fitters truck."

"I had a bunk and made a stove to keep warm out of a five gallon can," said Moody.

He remembers the men getting into the back of the truck and the driver heading out.

The fella driving the truck came up to a sign that said front line 100 yards. He drove right by our tanks firing, said Moody.

I said stop this thing, but he said that's an old sign. I told him that sign was new to me. Moody said laughing.

It was no laughing matter, however, when the men piled out and discovered they were indeed only a short distance from enemy territory. They jumped into a ditch for cover when small arms fire opened up around them.

Moody said the truck driver was yelling at them to help him turn the truck around.

We just told him you got us in here, you can back it around yourself. Said Moody, with another laugh. They did manage to get back on the truck and to safety away from the enemy line.

Moody was in England in VJ Day as he calls it. He remembers being told at 4 p.m. on a particular day that he would be shipping out for England at 6 p.m. on the same day.

Moody was in England for two weeks after the end of the war and then came home to St. Stephen.

Moody said he will place a wreath this year at the Cenotaph in memory of the Eight Hussars who died in the War.

I don't parade anymore, he said. I just hide behind the monument until its time to lay the wreath, he added with a mischievous chuckle.

He said he enjoyed the recent turkey supper offered by the St. Stephen Legion and enjoys visiting with his Legion friends.

This Remembrance Day he said he would think about other friends.

I'll think about them, he said solemn for once as he stared into the flames of his living room fire.

I kind of miss the people, but thank goodness we didn't lose too many."

KATHERINE ELIZABETH McFARLANE

After a courageous battle with cancer, Katherine Elizabeth McFarlane passed away surrounded by her loving family at her daughters residence. St. Stephen, NB on Friday, April 12, 2002.

She was born May 12, 1933 in St Stephen, N.B., the daughter of the late William J. and Margaret (Hannan) Cleghorn. On July 20, 1957, she married Melvin (Shruddie) McFarlane and they lived at 9 Lisgar Street, St. Stephen, their entire life Her husband, Mel, passed away May 30,2000.

Surviving are her children: Mark (Debbie) McFarlane, grandchildren Miranda and April, Little Ridge, N.B. Kathy (Kevin) Helpert, grandchildren Kara and Kurt, St. Stephen, N.B. Arthur (Tracy), grandchildren Renee and Blayr, Oromocto, N.B.; and Paul (Josee), grandchildren Blaine, Brodie and Lucas, Little Ridge, N.B.; one brother, William (Lois) Cleghorn, St Stephen, N.B., and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by one sister, Regina Ingersoll, Little Ridge, N.B. Katherine worked as a telephone operator in her early years, leaving this line of work to be employed at Eaton's office, then returned to NBTel as a customer service receptionist, until retiring in 1993.

She was a life member of Kirk-McColl United Church, being a Sun-day School teacher when her children were growing up in Christian faith. She offered her help during Vacation Bible School when needed. She was a member of Fidelis Unit UCW, Cooking and serving at many luncheons, and a member of Pastoral Care.

She was a devoted member and Past Noble Grand, Olive Rebekah Lodge; Junior Ladies Auxiliary Branch #9 and Charlotte County Hospital Auxiliary, finishing her presidency this year.

Katherine was very active in her community volunteering for Meals on Wheels, and canvassing for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. She was involved in many sport leagues such as bowling, curling, swimming, golfing and the Dancing Grandmas. She also played bridge every week, faithfully, with her regular mates. In the last few years, she took piano lessons as she had always wanted to play the piano when she was little. She was very energetic and wanted to fulfill her dreams, and that she did in so many ways in the eyes of her children. Her time may have seemed limited but she was never too busy to think of a friend or family member. She enjoyed reading, baking, and working in her flower and vegetable garden, walks along the beach and lazing by the pool with her family and friends in her spare time.

One of the great joys of her life was her family, and most of all, her grandchildren, to whom she gave a great deal of love and memories that will be cherished always. Family gatherings were always a tradition which kept this family very close, and will be continued, although her presence will be missed very much.

Her largely attended funeral was held at the Kirk-McColl United Church on Monday, April 15, 2002. Rev. Linda Thomas conducted the service. Dear friends, Doreena Riley, Jean Peck and Jean Christie read Scriptures. Debbie MacDonald rendered What a Friend We Have in Jesus, accompanied by organist David Robinson. The senior choir and congregation sang many favourite She was laid to rest in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery. The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home was in care of arrangements. Pallbearers were nephews Phil Cleghorn, Bill Cleghorn, Jr and Richard Cleghorn, cousin Seymour Johnson, and co-workers Galen Dempsey and Dana Brooker. The women of the UCW prepared a lovely luncheon that was served in the Fellowship Hall, following the committal.

The many floral arrangements, memorial cards, plus those who paid their respects at the funeral home and attended the funeral attested to Katherine's esteem. "A gracious woman" she was. She will be lovingly and sadly missed by her family and a large circle of friends.

The outpouring of condolences, prayers and support from this community were overwhelming during after her short sickness. Words cannot express the gratitude the family feels.

From Stephen & Dale Robbins database:

The following information regarding Bud was copied from: "Bud Wilkinson, An Intimate Portrait of an American Legend", 1994, by his son Jay Wilkinson.

Bud was hanger deck officer in the Navy during World War II, he was best known as the coach who built the University of Oklahoma's football program into a dynasty during the late 1940's and 1950's, leading them to a record 47 straight victories. He attended the Shattuck Military Prep School, located in Faribault, Minnesota, and went on to become a three-sport letterman at the University of Minnesota and was a guard and then a quarterback on the three national championship football teams coached by Bernie Bierman in 1934, 1935 and 1936.

Bud was an English major at the University and won the Big Ten medal given to the senior most outstanding in scholarship and athletics. He later earned a master's degree at Syracuse. A member of the National Coaches Hall of Fame, he compiles a record of 145 wins, 29 loses and 4 ties in 17 years at Oklahoma. He won national titles in 1956 and 1957.

After leaving coaching at age 47, 1963, to work in politics - he worked for presidents Kennedy and Nixon and ran unsuccessfully for a seat in the U.S. Senate - he returned to football in 1978, at the age of 62, to briefly coach the St. Louis Cardinals. He was a college football analyst for ABC-TV and ESPN, and also was the first director of the President's Council on Physical Fitness, which was created by President Kennedy.

He was responsible for some of football's most intriguing innovations. He developed the split-T formation and was the first to use the no-huddle offense.

Bud is survived by his wife Donna; two sons, Jay of Columbus, Ohio, and Pat of Baltimore, Maryland, and six grandchildren. His first marriage to the former Mary Shifflet, a college sweetheart, ended in divorce in 1975 after 37 years.

Notes for Marguerite Annie Waycott:
Marguerite Annie Spinney
1917-2014

With sadness we announce the passing of our mother on October 6, 2014 at York Manor in Fredericton. Born in St. George, N.B. on December 14, 1917, she was the daughter of the late William and Abigail (Stewart) Waycott. She was predeceased by her loving husband Roy, her three brothers, Richard, Douglas and Edmund and her two sisters, Blanche (Hoyt) and Amy. She is survived by her four children, Roberta (Jacques Cadieux) of Ottawa, Tom (Nellie Johnson) of Lower Queensbury, Jill, (Gregory Thompson) of Dipper Harbour, and Juanita Barrett of Saint John; by one brother, James Waycott of Truro, N.S., and by two nephews, Robert Hoyt of Saint John, and Russell Waycott of Pictou, N.S. She will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by her twelve grandchildren: Jean-Jacques and Daniel Cadieux, David and Adam Spinney, Melanie Loveridge, Jennifer Brewer, Matthew, Jeremy, and Christy Thompson, Jeffrey, Tim and Michael Barrett, and her fourteen great grandchildren: Theoren, Noel, Lindsay, Jenna, Janie, Jolee, Marlee-Rae, Ben, Melia, Hudson, James, Lillian, Vyonae and Eldyn.

Marguerite was a quiet and gentle lady. She was very proud of her little home and was content with the things life offered her. Her greatest joy was her family, and she was especially happy when they visited and she could prepare them a meal. She never forgot a birthday or special occasion, was seldom in a hurry, and was very patient in everything she did. Her faith was strong and helped her through all the struggles in her life, and to accept those things she could not change. She was ever grateful for all her blessings and never one to complain. She was someone to admire for all her kindness, family dedication and love of God - a very special lady whom we were proud to call mother.

Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB. A celebration of Marguerite's life will be held at St. George Baptist Church, St. George NB where she was a longtime member, on Friday, October 10 at 2:00 pm. For those who wish to express condolences, the family will be at the church prior to the service, from 12:00 - 2:00 pm. In lieu of floral tributes, remembrances to the charity of the donor's choice would be greatly appreciated by the family.
