Final Version

Preface

This book is an attempt to give those searching the different Moore and Hitchings branches that were present in Charlotte Co., NB and other locations some help in tracking the families. Since this is a work in progress, there is much missing data and some may even be incorrect. If anyone has additional information or corrections they are asked to send them to the following: The book is divided into chapters for each branch so that those who wish may print just that chapter and not the complete book.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Fred McInnis

The passing of Fred McInnis at Chipman Memorial Hospital early on Tuesday morning, January 12, 1937, brought to the close a life which, though short, was filled with the richness and joy of high purpose and kindly deeds.

Mr. McInnis underwent a surgical operation six weeks before and the skill of physicians and the watchful care of a loving wife could not longer delay the end.

Born at Maw-wah-hoc, Maine, in 1900, eldest son of P. Albert and the late Laura Hannan McInnis, he moved to Pomeroy Ridge while still a child, and lived most of his life there. On July 31, 1926 he married Edith Hazel Hitchings of Pomeroy Ridge. Besides his wife there are left to mourn his father, P. Albert McInnis of Pomeroy Ridge, two sisters, Mrs. Chester McFarlane, Little Ridge and Mrs. George Smith, Pomeroy Ridge; two brothers, Albert E. of Toronto and Cecil at home; and his aged grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hannan, Gleason Road.

He was a generous, charitable nature to know him slightly was to like him, to know him intimately was to love him. Especially was he loved by little children and as love cannot sleep or die his influence will be felt for years to come. A skilled mechanic he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to friend and stranger alike.

The funeral service was conducted at his home on Thursday, by his pastor, Rev. R.C. Robbins of the United Church, Scotch Ridge of which Mr. McInnis had been a member and faithful worker for many years.

Cecil Nesbitt sang very beautifully the hymns, "Sometime We'll understand," "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "The Christian's Goodnight". The pallbearers were Raymond Burns, Vernon Hannan, Kenneth Matheson and Donald McMorran, friends since boyhood, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Scotch Ridge. Many beautiful floral offerings bore testimony to the affection in which he was held and the desire of loving friends to express sympathy for the sorrowing family.

Less Than Two Weeks, C.C. Grant Dies At Home Sunday

Charles C. Grant, who started his business career selling newspapers at the age of 12 and became one of the biggest retailers on the river, died Sunday afternoon at his home on the corner of Water and boundary Street after an illness of less than two weeks. He had turned his 82nd birthday just nine days before.

A remarkable man in many ways, nothing about him was more remarkable than the strong constitution that enabled him to withstand illness and advancing years so well. As far back as 1919 he was out of his store for a year, confined to a wheel chair much of that time by an ailment affecting his legs, and doctors told him he would never walk again. But he refused to give up slowly taught himself the use of his legs and did walk for many years afterward. Although he retired from active business four years ago, he was far from bed ridden. Until two weeks before his death he was out once or twice every day for car rides, which he enjoyed immensely, and only about a month ago made two trips to St. Andrews in one day and would have gone the third time except for weather conditions. A native of St. Andrews, he cherished a warm affection for the town until his dying day.

He was a son of Benjamin R. Grant. Ship captain, of St. Andrews. His mother died when he was born, and he was brought up by his step mother, Hannah E. Ames. At the age of 12 he came to St. Stephen and started selling newspapers for a living. His first job was as clerk with W. Woods & Company in the dry goods business in Calais, where he spent several years before Mr. woods, a devout churchman, discharged him for breaking the Sabbath by swimming and playing ball at Barbour's Beach. In those days long hours were the rule; stores were open all day and every evening, and both clerks and employers were lucky if they got away before 11:00. Hence Sunday became a day of concentrated recreation and beauty spots up and down the river were crowded.

Although Mr. Woods could not condone these liberties, he did give young Grant a recommendation for honesty and willingness to work which was helpful in getting him a job with Smith & Murray; the big dry goods firm in St. Stephen at an increase of $3.00 a week in his pay. There he worked until the firm was taken over by its bankers.

It was the Spring of 1888 when Mr. Grant, with a capital of $100.00 of his own money and an equal sum borrowed from a relative, set up his own store on the site where the Stedman Stores have been located in recent years. The quarters were small, but so meagre was the stock, consisting mainly of bustles and hoop skirts, that the proprietor hung a curtain across near the front door in the early days, and as he built up his stock moved it gradually back until he was using the whole store.

But though its stock was small the new store created something of a sensation in that Spring season. Grant's did a flourishing business from the opening day, and when the owner took stock for the first time nine months later he found that he had made $1500.00 had his stock all paid for, and his $200.00 intact in the bank. Four or five years later he decided to move into the big brick building next door, and did so against the advice of many friends. Events justified his judgement; trade grew so much that to use his own words. "I was making money so fast I didn't know what to do with it."

The store was in its heyday when lumber was king along the St. Croix. On sale days and other busy occasions it was not unusual for the counters of the big store to be so piled with merchandise already sold that the clerks had to get down on the floor to wrap parcels. Every so often the doors were locked until those inside could be waited upon and then a new batch admitted. Mr. Grant determined to keep in step with changing styles, and was the pioneer in introducing many items in this district.

The advent of main chain stores, mail order houses and modern transportation, along with the decline of the lumbering industry on the river, have made competition much more keen and Grant's along with other stores of its kind lost much of its former trade. It continued until this year in the same location, but when that property changed hands was forced to seek other and smaller quarters. Since Mr. Grant's retirement it has been managed by his only son, W. Howe Grant.

A tireless worker, Mr. Grant's interests were centered in his business and his home. Lodges and other organizations held no appeal for him, although he did belong to the Curling Club at one time. He was a very generous contributor to worthy causes, playing no favorites but donating equally to all churches and charitable organizations.

Mrs. Grant predeceased him. He is survived by one son, W. Howe Grant, and two daughters, Mrs. Murray Allen and Mrs. Leroy Creamer, several grandchildren, one niece, Mrs. M. McKusiak, Vermillion, SD and one nephew, Jerome Bates of Newton, Mass. A sister, Mrs. D.H. Bates and a brother who followed his father's example and became a sea captain both predeceased him.

The funeral service was held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and was largely attended. Beautiful floral tributes many of them from out of town, testified to the place he held in the esteem of all who knew him. A lovely piece came from the Merchants Association. The service was conducted by Mrs. C.F. Sears and Harold Beek, friends of the family. The pallbearers were William R. Burns, Joseph Shaughnessy, A.C. Gregory, Marvin W. McCoomb, Rolfe Vanstone and J. Beverley Jordan. Interment was made in the Rural Cemetery besides the remains of his wife and third daughter who died in childhood.

Howe Grant

Hitchings of Charlotte Co., NB

Howe Grant, 54, well known St. Stephen merchant died last week and was buried on Friday with a simple ceremony at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roy Creamer. Rev. A.R. MacIver officiated at the last rites.

Bearers were Cpl. Donaldson of the St. Stephen detachment of the R.C.M.P., Frank Sherman, Jack Fraser, Arthur Goucher, James Inches and Charles Parks. Interment was in the family lot in the St. Stephen Cemetery.

Nearest surviving relatives are his wife and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Creamer and Mrs. Murray Allen both of St. Stephen.

A member of the Masons and the Canadian Legion, Howe was very well known and universally liked on both sides of the St. Croix. Baseball fans of the early 20's will recall the part he played in the promotion of the St. Croix League and the St. Stephen teams that boasted such stars as Vince Shields and Bill Morrell, a pair of hurlers good enough to have a fling at major league baseball. Charlie Paul, brilliant but erratic southpaw from Nova Scotia, Shortie Dee, Franklin Rouillard, Ike Vanstone, Dollard Cummings and a host of others that was the era when rivalry was at white heat in the border towns and money was spent like water for players from which to mould a winning combination, in those days Howe Grant was an outstanding personality in the St. Croix League for the gift he possessed of winning or losing like a true sportsman. As keenly as any other fan he desired victory but the will to win never clouded the true perspective for him and he faced defeat as gracefully as he greeted the sweetest triumph.

He was born in St. Stephen in 1894, the son of C.C. and Julia Watson Grant. After attending the schools of St. Stephen he entered Mount Allison University and on graduating matriculated at Mount Allison. At Mt. A. he performed so brilliantly in the schools' football team that a sports commentator recently described him as one of the greatest fullbacks in the athletic history of the institution.

Along the border Howe was recognized as a regular fellow and a gentleman. Quiet spoken and unfailing courteous whenever and wherever you chanced to meet him he was one man of whom you never heard an unkind word.

A fitting tribute to his memory was the reading of the poem "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road" by Mr. MacIver in his funeral sermon. It seems to us Howe himself would have approved of that in its expression of a way of life that he preferred. Many people on the border will miss kindly, quiet, gentlemanly Howe Grant.

George L. Moore

A well-known and highly respected citizen of the St. Stephen area George L. Moore passed away September 9, 1971 at the Charlotte County Hospital in his 88th year. Better known as "Bert" to all who knew him, he had devoted many years of his life serving the citizens of St. Stephen. His occupation were many and varied. He served many years on the St. Stephen Police Force as constable and later as Town Marshall and filled this position until the time of his retirement.

Mr. Moore was born at Baillie, December 20, 1883. In May 1907, he was united in marriage to Jennie Gertrude Haste of Lynnfield who died in 1948.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Henrietta Hannah of Saint John, two sons, Raymond and Eldon, St. Stephen and three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey (Florence) Saint John, Mrs. Charles Savage (Josephine), Maine; Mrs. William Weatherbee (Jean), Brewer, Maine; eight grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Mr. Moore had spent most of his retirement years he had resided at Maces Bay and more recently at Saint John. He had been a devoted an active member of the United Church of Canada, having served on the session for many years.

The largely attended funeral service was held Sunday September 12, at 2 p.m. in the Mehan Memorial Chapel of the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home with Rev. B.D. Earle officiating.

The many floral tributes as well as contributions to the Canadian Heart Foundation, cancer society, Mentally Retarded and Gideon Bibles were silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held throughout the community.

Two favorite hymns, The Old Rugged Cross and What A Friend We Have In Jesus were sung by a male quartet comprised of Mert Coffey, Ted Boyd, Tom Mitchell, and Fred Allen. Pallbearers were Irving Haste, Henry Watters, George Palmer, Carl Dunn, Frank Worrell and Fred Reid.

As a tribute to the deceased active members of the St. Stephen Police force attended the funeral in a body and formed a guard of honor at the funeral home and at the grave also.

Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Mrs. G. L. Moore

Many friends learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Jennie Moore, wife of G. Leighbert Moore of Old Ridge, Wednesday morning, July 28, 1948. Although in poor health for sometime, news of her sudden passing came as a distinct shock.

Mrs. Moore was born at Lynnfield, August 26, 1881, the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Haste, and was united in marriage to George Leighbert Moore of Baillie, May 1, 1907, by Rev. W. Wass of the Methodist Church.

The greater part of her married life was spent in St. Stephen, and while her health permitted, she took an active part in the work of the church which she faithfully attended, having been a member of the choir, the Steadfast Evening Auxiliary and of the Quilters. She was also a member of the Quilters. She was also a member of Olive Rebekah Lodge.

While she gave much of her time and energy to these, it was in her home where her influence was most felt, her kindly joyous personality and her womanly qualities fitting her for a devoted wife and mother.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey, Saint John; Mrs. Charles Savage, Bath, Maine; and Miss Jean Moore, who has been on the staff of the Suzzex High School; two sons, Raymond and Eldon of Old Ridge; two sisters, Mrs. George Bingham and Mrs. John Speedy, of St. Stephen; two brothers, Joseph Haste of Nantasket, Mass., and Percy Haste of Oak Bay, and five grandchildren.

The many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which she was held by a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral service Friday afternoon at the home of her son, Raymond Moore, was conducted by Rev. B.D. Earle, pastor of the Kirk McColl United Church, and was largely attended. A mixed quartette sang two favorite hymns, "Let Your Lower Lights Be Burning," and "Sometime We'll Understand." Pall bearers were Everett Moore, Victor Poole, Sidney Torrance, Joseph Thomas, Frank Leland, and Richard Toal. Interment was in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Lauren Maude Smith:
Lauren Maude Merrill
May 26, 1936 - September 13, 2014

MERRILL- At the Dr. Everett Chalmers Hospital, Fredericton, NB, September 13, 2014, Lauren Maude (Smith) Merrill of Fredericton, NB.

On May 25, 1936 in Oak Hill NB, Lauren was the first born of Alexander and Vera Smith. The family moved to Dewolfe Corner and by her mid-teens she had caught the eye of her future husband of 61 years, Ross Merrill. Their life together began on March 27, 1952.

The next seven years of their lives saw them introduce three children into the world; Steven Ross, Elaine Vera and Rory Alexander. During these early years Laureen proved to be a supportive young wife and a loving mother as the family relocated overseas and across Canada. On March 9, 1969 Laureen gave birth to their fourth child, Bryan Roger.

No matter where they lived, people were drawn to Laureen's kind, sweet and loving nature. In the late 80's she graduated as an RNA from St. Andrews and began working at Lincourt Manor in St. Stephen.

Laureen was affectionately called "Nanny" by all five of her grandchildren, starting with Ryan in 1988 then followed by Ross, Raelle and Klark through the 90's. In 2002 her final grandchild, Braxtyn was born. Laureen became a Great-Nanny with the addition of Addy Rose and, only a month ago, Elizabeth Lane.

Laureen loved music, family gatherings and providing hospitality to her many friends.

She was predeceased by her daughter, Elaine in 1980 and just over six months ago by the love of her life, Ross.

Laureen is survived by her three sons and their families, her sister, Diana Cannon and her husband Glenn, brother, Russ and Auntie Berla.

Laureen believed in the Bible's promise of an earthly resurrection of the dead in the near future. She believed that God's Kingdom government will soon take control of the earth's affairs and transform it into a paradise where pain and death will be no more (Rev 21:3,4)

Funeral service will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 9161 Route 3, Old Ridge, NB on Saturday, September 20, 2014 at 2 PM. Visiting hours will be held at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd. 23 Main Street, St Stephen, NB on Saturday from 12-1 PM.

For those who wish, remembrances to a charity of one's choice would be appreciated by the family. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Notes for Ross Aubrey Merrill:

Ross Aubrey Merrill

September 11, 1930 - February 24, 2014

MERRILL - At Parkland Fredericton, Fredericton, N.B. on February 24, 2014, Ross Aubrey Merrill. He was the 4th of 12 children born to John "Jack" & Dorothy (Keenan) Merrill and was born in Tay Creek (near Stanley, NB).

Ross is survived by his wife, Laureen; sons, Steven Merrill, Rory Merrill (Ramona) and Bryan Merrill (Arlene); 5 grandchildren, Ryan, Ross, Raelle, Klark and Braxtyn; great-grandchild, Addy; brother, Nate (Kelly); sisters, Lillian Mattson (Larry), Nellie Cumberland (Dale) and Margie Shannon (Gene); and several nieces and nephews.

Predeceased by his parents; daughter, Elaine; 4 brothers, Willis, Orlen, Charlie and Jackie; 3 sisters, Frannie, Verda and Ella.

The family moved their homestead to DeWolfe Corner, NB and thus began Ross's long history of travel. At 16, Ross ventured West to British Columbia, to work in logging camps. It was noted at a very young age that Ross possessed great work ethic and abnormal strength.

At the age of 20, after returning home he began doing some work for a neighbour, Alex Smith. Alex's daughter Laureen caught his fancy and soon they were wed on March 27, 1952! The adventure had just begun for these "kids"!

At 21, Ross joined the Canadian Armed Forces and soon after their first child was born, Steven Ross Merrill. Ross's military career was blossoming early and soon he was posted to British Columbia. On December 15, 1954 Ross & Laureen were blessed with their second child, Elaine Vera Merrill.

After a short stint in Germany, Ross was posted back to British Columbia and not long after along came baby number three, Rory Alexander Merrill.

Ross was a natural leader and he was a noted track and field athlete. He set military records in the shot-put and javelin (before the age of steroids, he didn't need those!)

In time, the family settled in CFB Petawawa and in March of '69 their fourth and final addition came, Bryan Roger Merrill. Ross retired in 1977 and the family decided to move back to New Brunswick.

Tragically, the family lost a daughter and sister in 1980 with the passing of Elaine. Through the 80's Ross worked for the New Brunswick Forestry department supporting private woodlot owners.

From 1988 through 2002, Ross and Laureen were blessed with 5 grandchildren; Ryan, Ross, Raelle, Klark and Braxtyn, who affectionately call them Nanny and Papa. In 2012 Ross became great-"Papa" with the addition of Addy.

Ross was a loving husband, father, brother and friend. He cared deeply for his family and was always there for any in need.

Resting at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B. from where the funeral service will be held on Saturday, March 8, 2014 at 1 PM.

Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home on March 8 from 11 AM to 1 PM.

Interment at Moores Mills Cemetery, Moores Mills, NB.

For those who wish, remembrances to the Heart and Stroke Foundation or a charity of one's choice would be appreciated by the family.

Notes for Randall 'Randy' Stephen White:

Randall Stephen White

January 26, 1951 - July 23, 2019

Randall S. White was born on January 26, 1951 to Kenneth and Jacqueline (Clarke) White in St. Stephen, NB. He was predeceased by his parents, his wife, Deborah (Perkins) White, his brother, Ronald White, his sister Barbara Penny, and father-in-law, Leo Perkins.

Randy is survived by his two daughters, Melissa Brown (Chuck) and Krista White (Jeff McShane), both from St. Stephen, his two granddaughters, Jessica Brown and Emma Brown, one grandson, Ben McShane, his brother-in-law, Doug Penny, along with his nephews, Jeff Penny (Katelyn) and Stephen Penny (Jennifer), his nephew, Ken Perry (Prince Edward Island), his mother-in-law, Madeline Perkins (Baileyville, Maine), and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Donna and David Brown (Baileyville, Maine), and several other nieces and nephews.

Randy grew up in St. Stephen, NB, and, like his mother, Jackie, and older brother, Ron, was a Spartan basketball player, alongside lifelong friend Jeff McLeod. He was proud of his time on the court and would fondly recall the Class "L" Provincial Championship win in 1969, his team coached by Al Casey.

Randy met Debbie when he was a 16-year-old basketball player from St. Stephen and she was a cheerleader from Woodland High School. Randy wasn't often allowed to use the family car, so he spent many weekends hitchhiking to Woodland to visit her. They married and were together for 40 years. He later attended St. Thomas University in the early 1970's, earning a Bachelor of Arts with a major in Economics, then continued his studies at the University of New Brunswick graduating from the Faculty of Law in 1978.

Randy began his career in Newfoundland with the firm Parsons, Learmonth, Dunne, which sent him to Labrador City where he became a partner of the firm Parsons, Learmonth, Dunne and White. During his practicing years, Randy also worked as a Crown Prosecutor in Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, for a short time before returning to New Brunswick. He practised in Fredericton for a short time then returned to his hometown of St. Stephen where he would become a partner in the firm Nicholson, Turner, Walker and White. Along with his private practice, Randy also worked as a Crown Prosecutor in Charlotte County before retiring from law at the age of 52.

Randy loved playing and watching basketball, bridge, golf, reading historical autobiographies, building his cottage (his first carpentry project, which he completed by getting the directions from a book) with his father-in-law, Leo, and brother-in-law, Doug. His greatest delight, however, came from becoming a grandfather. He would have loved to have been able to cheer each of his grandchildren from the sidelines – with Jessica on the rugby field, Emma on stage and Ben on the basketball court, like his grandfather.

Thanks to his excellent caregivers over the last 11 years, Randy has been able to live life to the fullest possible through each stage of his disease. From the many people at Charlotte County Home Support who helped him when he was still at home, to the wonderful care he received from Pro-Team in Moncton and finally, the incredible staff at Lincourt Manor, your kindness has been overwhelming. Our family cannot express how grateful we have been.

The family will receive friends at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB on Thursday, July 25th, 2019 from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 PM.

A small family graveside service will be held at the St Stephen Cemetery, St. Stephen, NB. on Monday, July 29th, 2019 at 10:30 AM.

For those who wish, donations in memory of Randy may be made to the SSHS Alumni Scholarship facilitated by Fundy Community Foundation or to the Alzheimer Society of New Brunswick.

Condolences may be sent online to www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Will: (email from Greg Craig)

The Will itself is not overly informative as far as family members are concerned . It's four pages long. It's the big pages (too big for my scanner) , 11" by 16" .It's mostly legal talk ,not much different from nowadays .

However the front page is the page with all of the clues on it . It's mostly just a cover page . Unfortunately it's faint and hard to read everything .

The paragraph at the top is hard to make out but it is basically saying that Amos Hitchings is the executor for the Late Amos Hitchings . There are 3 other names and they appear to be names of the bondsman .

Then there are 9 columns of numbers . I can't make it all out but I see the numbers 202 . 15 . 1 at the bottom . It's almost like it was a ledger and maybe that was the outstanding balance .

The really interesting part is the bottom of the page . There are 7 names listed . It appears as follows :

AMOS	50
GEORGE	25
WILLIAM	25
WALTOR(N?)	25 (this must be one of the bondsman)
JOYCE	25 (Also the name of one of the bondsmen)
SMITH	25 (this name was hard to make out , not sure who it would be or even if it's correct)

It looks to me like this was maybe each mans share after the Will was settled .The oldest son always got the most including the land , and of course the daughters usually got nothing . This would also explain why the three younger brothers had to apply for a land grant together and the eldest brother didn't and why there are no daughters named , unfortunately .

Walton , Joyce as well as Mary and her son Amos sign the end of the will .

From the information in the Will, it appears that John Walton, John Joyce, and John Smith might be the husbands of the three known daughters of Amos Hitchings. Records exist for the marriage of Mary Hitchings to a John Smith.

A Joseph Walton married a Sarah Hitchings on Feb 11, 1798. Tombstone inscriptions for Sarah Walton w/o Joseph Walton indicate that she died 18 Sept. 1857, age 67, making her birth year 1789-1790. This is either a different Sarah than the one that married Joseph Walton in 1798 or her age at death is in error. This could be the Sally Hitchings that was more than ten years old when the family came from Penobscot in 1784. Age might be 87 rather than 67 which would make her birth year 1769-1770 which would then be consistent with the Sally in the Passamaquoddy list.

A John Joice of St. Andrews. Administration granted 15 February 1822 to the widow, Elizabeth Joyce of St. Andrews. Fellow Bondsmen are Joseph Walton, St. Andrews, and Benjamin Bradford of St. David. Elizabeth could be the Betsy Hitchings, daughter of Amos Hitchings.

I'm still sorting out the children. I am pretty sure of Elizabeth Keltie, William, George E., Samuel, Frederick, David, and Louisa Young. But thanks to the genealogist Don Dixon, I also have some All Saints Anglican Church baptism records for John Jr. (1796), Joshua (1798) and Abel (1802), all listed as children of John Joice. I don't know if these are additional children, or if one of them is the same as George or David.

George St. Andrews Hitchings must have been born just after the family arrived from Penobscot as there were only 3 children under 10 when at Penobscot while there are 4 listed in 1784 after the family is at Passamaquoddy. That is most likely why his middle name is St. Andrews.

WG shows that: GEORGE ST. ANDREWS HITCHINGS was the first male child born in St. Andrews, N.B.

1851 Census, St. Andrews Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p92, shows a William Hitchings, age 66, making his birth year 1884-1885. Since he is not listed in the 1784 list while his brother(assumed right now) G. A. Hitchings is shown, his birth year must be 1885. Another Lodger by the name of Robert Hitchings, age 17, is with William at the home of Isaac Budd. This appears to be a grandson to William as there is also a Robert Hitchings, age 16, in the St. Patricks Parish, Charlotte Co. Census. He is shown as the son of William Hitchings, age 30.

1861 Census, Dumbarton Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p10, shows a William Hitchings, age 77, Father-in-Law, in the household of one George Wilson. Email segment received from Jean Mabie, 4 June 2012:

Melvin Chase shows the father of Louisa Maria Joyce as Jacob ?. The "?" mark indicates that this is not proven and is subject to revision.

Emails from Susan Berry have shown the following that give some proof to the parents of Louisa Maria Joyce: I hired a researcher to try to prove that Betsy Hitchings (I076102) was the wife of John Joyce(I155163), among other projects. But he didn't find anything definitive. I'd say that I am about 90% sure.

I'm pretty sure now that Louisa Maria Joyce (I024309) wife of Jacob Young (I024308) is the daughter of John and Elizabeth Joyce, despite what the Melvin Chase book says. Louisa's brother was Deacon Frederick Joyce(I150193). My proof is an 1838 deed that mentions Elizabeth Bradford (widow of John Joice), Samuel C. Joyce, George E. Joyce, David H. Joyce, Frederick Joyce, Jacob Young husband of Louisa Maria, and John Keltie husband of Elizabeth. Together they sold some land to a Robert Stevenson. The land was from a Penobscott grant. I believe that they are the heirs of John Joice mentioned in this document:
<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nbstdavi/1823alpha.html> .

So, from the deed I know that Elizabeth???(I155164), widow of John Joyce(I155163), remarried a man named Bradford after the 1822 death of John Joyce. There was a Benjamin Bradford who was a bondsman in John Joyce's will. I believe this Elizabeth may be the same as your Elizabeth??? (I055436), who was the second wife of Benjamin Franklin Bradford I. (I055434)

a follow-up email showed the following:

Here's the deed I promised you, in which the "heirs of John Joice" sell the land in St. David. In the deed, Elizabeth Bradford is described as the widow of John Joice.

The reference is F5186, PANB, RS86 Charlotte County Registry R/18 Deed 1838

I also want to thank you for scanning the "All Saints Anglican Church" information. I was (sort of) able to find the baptismal information for my ancestor, Samuel C. Joyce. Sort of, because the pastor left his name blank. He must have intended to go back and fill it in. The line reads "George son of Mr. Joseph Walton & _____ of Mr. Joice....May 16 1800." That's another clue (but no proof!) that John Joice was married to Betsy Hitchings, since George Walton was the son of Betsy's sister.

Notes for William Henry Walton:

Ref:

1860 Census, Stevens Point, Portage Co., WI, p163/335, frame 7/45, taken 30 July 1860, age 53, b ME

Based on William's age as 53 in 1860 this would make his yob as 1806-1807. In 1861 when he joined the army he gave his age as 44 which appears to be an effort to make him younger than what he actually was. A baptism of a person by the name of William Henry so of Jos'h ?olton was baptized 11 Sept ??. This is at the top of a page that shows 1809 as the dates at the bottom of the page but the previous page is 1808 with the third line from the bottom showing 30 July 1808. Using this as a reference, the baptism was most likely 11 sept 1808!??

You list sources as various federal census reports, but I assure you, the info in not available in federal census reports. I have spent many hours obtaining the information and I think you should credit me with the info so anyone who is researching the same family will then look for my name on forums, etc.

Just an example of info you used that isn't on any census -

- first and middle names of Nellie Walton
 - birth date of Nellie Walton
 - Middle name of Jane Archer
 - Middle name of Robert Walton
 - Marriage of Milo Cooper & Jane Walton
- etc. etc. etc.

I wrote to you asking for information and instead, you lifted identifying info from my email and added to your site without crediting me. I'm not happy.

The information given by Carol does not constitute a source but only unsubstantiated data and that is why is is not credited to her. If she want her name in print then I will only do it by showing what she indicates above.

Older residents of St. Andrews and vicinity will remember Mrs. Sarah A. HITCHINGS. For many years she has been cared for in the home of her husband's niece, Mrs. Wellington SPRAGUE, who aided by her husband, has surrounded her with every comfort. She was in her usual health and died peacefully with hardly a moment's warning. She leaves four sisters, two of whom, Mrs. STINSON and Mrs. PETTIGROVE reside in this place. The remains were interred beside those of her husband, Rev. Amos HITCHINGS of Oakland, Maine.

DEATH OF MRS. FAIRBANKS

End of a Useful life comes to an Estimable Woman

Mrs. Sarah Walton Fairbanks died at 8:15 Sunday evening at her late residence, 616 Union Street, of Bright's disease. Mrs. Fairbanks suffered a slight paralytic shock about nine years ago and has been in delicate health since. About a year ago a second stroke came and she had been gradually failing for the past six weeks. Mrs. Fairbanks was born in St. Andrews New Brunswick Jan. 4, 1841. She came with her parents to Stevens Point when a child. She was first married to Milo Cooper. Three children were born to this union: William, Mrs. Nellie Fransway, and Walter, all of this city. One sister, Mrs. Bowe, of Oshkosh, and two brothers, W. H. Walton, Weyauwego, and R. G. Walton, of Minneapolis also survive her. After her marriage to Mr. I. S. Fairbanks two children were born of the union. One died in Infancy , and Miss Affie lives at home. Mrs. Fairbanks came to Appleton about 19 years ago, and as wife, mother, friend and neighbor has been universally loved and respected. She entered the Episcopal church as a communicant at the age of 14, and later in life became a member of the Presbyterian church. Until failing health compelled her retirement, she was untiring in her deeds of charity and in her devotion as a Christian worker. Her closing days were peaceful and triumphant.

Notes for Anna Susie Bartlett:

Obituary Anna S. Morrell

The funeral of Mrs. Morrell, widow of Amos Chester Morrell, was held Sunday April 29 at two o'clock from her home in Oak Bay where she died Friday, the 27th after a prolonged illness.

The Rev. Kenneth Hughes of the Oak Bay Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Morrell was a life long member, conducted services. Assisting were Rev. William Armstrong of Lawrence Station and Rev. V.B. Walls of the Oak Bay United Church who offered prayer.

Covered with a blanket of red roses the casket rested in a veritable bower of beauty. Floral tributes filled the room, expressions of love and of the esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

In addition to those a beautiful Bible and marker were presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, Mass., In Loving Memory of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrell. A number of friends made up a sum of money to be given to the church along with Gideon Bibles, in memory of Mrs. Morrell and many contributed to the Heart Fund in her name. Burial was in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Born March 29, 1872 in Bartlett's Mills, N.B. the eldest child of Edward and Frances Bartlett, she attended the country school there and later the Fredericton Normal School from which she graduated.

From that time until her marriage to Mr. Morrell in 1901, she was a teacher, first at the Oak haven School then at the school in Chamcook. Former pupils from these two schools never forgot her. Over the years presents of flowers and fruit came to her from then on special occasions. Two of them were present at the funeral, Mr. Harley Bedford and Mr. Herman Hopps both of Oak Haven.

To the work of her church she gave her dedicated services, and was filling the offices of clerk and Sunday School superintendent four years ago, when ill health made it impossible for her to carry on. Only then did she pass the responsibilities over to others of a younger generation.

A devoted wife and mother, she was the heart of a happy home and indeed of a House by the side of the Road where the smile of this precious Christian lady welcomed all who came and came they did from far and near and all who stayed to enjoy its abundant hospitality.

To those in need within in her sphere, she was a refuge and help. We shall not soon see her life again.

Mrs. Morrell leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Manning (Marion) of Bathurst and Mrs. George Hyslop (Frances) of Oak Bay; seven grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, two brothers, Hollis bracelet of Bartletts Mills and Lewis Bartlett of Bayside besides several nieces and nephews.

Notes for Inez Phoebe Morrell:

OBITUARY - Inez P. MacLeod

Relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Inez Phoebe MacLeod of Oak Bay, at the age of 81 years at the Charlotte County Hospital on Monday, February 7th, 1972, following a illness of three months.

Born at Oak Bay on March 2, 1890, she was the daughter of the late George S. Morrell and Maria (Doten) Morrell. Two brothers predeceased her; Frank of Oak Bay and Woodstock, in 1962 and Austin of Princeton, New Jersey, in 1969. This she was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Educated at the public school at Oak Bay and the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton in 1907-08, she was a teacher in the schools of Charlotte and York Counties for a period of seven and one half years from 1908 to 1916. Schools in which she served as teacher were Lever Settlement, Oak hill, McAdam, Little Ridge and Oak Bay.

She was married on October 28, 1915 to Everett Campbell MacLeod, a son of the late J. Campbell MacLeod and Marietta Eastman) MacLeod of Little Ridge. During early years of their marriage they resided at Little Ridge, moving to Oak Bay where they have resided until the present time, living in the home of her childhood built many years ago by her father.

Three children were born to her; Margaret Jean, who died in infancy; Priscilla and Malcolm.

She is survived by her husband, Everett C. MacLeod of Oak Bay; a daughter, Priscilla of Bangor, Maine; a son, G.E. Malcolm MacLeod of Fredericton, N.B.; two grandchildren, Austin Greenlaw of Andover, N.B. and Miss Kathryn Greenlaw of Bangor, Maine; a number of cousins, nieces and nephews.

As a wife and mother for fifty-six years she was a source of strength to her family to whom she was devoted and in whom she maintained a keen interest to the time of her death.

An ardent reader, she enjoyed literary pursuits and maintained a keen interest in writing both poetry and short stories. Selections of her poetry were published several years ago.

Her most recent interest in writing was a genealogy of her family tracing the history of the Morrell and Doten families through the past several generations to the present. During 1971, at the age of 81 years, she wrote numerous letters and gathered all of the informative material for this work which is now ready for publication.

A teacher for several years, and a person keenly interested in others, she had a wide circle of friends, and she became known and respected throughout Charlotte County and beyond. She maintained a regular correspondence with relatives and friends in many parts of North America,

A devout Christian, she was a life long member of the Oak Bay United Baptist Church.

Her funeral was largely attended in the A.G. MacDonald Memorial Chapel at St. Stephen on the afternoon of February 10th, when member of her family, relatives and friends gathered to pay a final tribute to her memory. Obituary - Mary Fredrica "Freda" Berry

Mary Fredrica "Freda" Berry of East Orland, Maine died Tuesday March 25, 2003 at her home on Toddy Pond, where she had lived with her husband for the past 21 years. She was born April 2, 1928, in Fredericton, N.B.. When she was two her mother died and Freda was placed in an orphanage in Saint John, N.B. Shortly thereafter she was adopted by Maynard and Louicinda McKinney of St. Stephen, N.B.

She graduated from St. Stephen High School and went on to get her degree from the University of New Brunswick. She obtained a teaching certificate and taught school until she married Dick Berry in 1957.

Freda learned to fly and sail. She, her husband and their cat sailed to Key West and Blue Hill, having lived aboard for nine months. She did all this despite having Multiple Sclerosis from the age of 19. Freda loved animals and the following gave her great comfort:

The Rainbow Bridge

"There's a beautiful story that tells of a bridge connecting heaven and earth. It's called the Rainbow Bridge because of its many vivid colors. Just this side of the bridge is a land of lush grass and flowers, of hills and meadows.

"When a beloved pet dies, it goes to this place of beauty and peace where there's always plenty of food and water and warm spring weather. The old and frail are young again. Those who are maimed are made whole. They play all day with each other in happiness and health.

"Only one thing is missing - they're not with that special person who loved them on earth. So they run and play until the day comes when one abruptly stops and looks up! The nose twitches! The ears are up! And this one suddenly runs from the group. You have been seen, and when you and your special friend meet, you take him in your arms and embrace. Your face is kissed again and again, you look once more into the eyes of your trusting pet. Then you cross the Rainbow Bridge, never again to be separated."

She is survived by her husband, Dick of East Orland, Maine, her son, Lee and two grandchildren, Josh and Megan all of Sioux Falls, S.D.

No plans for a service have been made at this time.

Arrangements are with Direct Cremation of Maine, Belfast.

Born at St. David Ridge, March 5, 1903, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Darius Hyslop he was aged 47 years. On January 4th, 1928, he was united in marriage with Frances Morrell of Oak Bay, who survives with two sons, and two daughters, Chester Oak Bay; and Sydney, Margaret, and Eunice at home; also two sisters and six brothers, Mrs. Sydney Hopkins and Cameron, Vancouver, BC; Lena and Stanley, Fairview, Alberta; Elmer, Montreal; and Vernon in Minnesota.

An unusually large number of friends gathered at the home Wednesday afternoon, July 19, at 3 o'clock where the funeral was conducted by Rev. R.A. Ross, assisted by Rev. E.A. Gunn. A quartet comprised of Halton Bancroft, Alfred Burns, Cecil Nesbitt and Flavis Allen sang two beautiful hymns, "Under His Wings," and "All Is Well." A profusion of beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pallbearers were John McDonald, Karl Dick, Gerald Gilman, Moores Mills, and Frank Clark, Jr., St. David Ridge. Interment took place in the Moores Mills Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Frances Morrell and George Hyslop:

On Wednesday January 4th, at the Manse, St. Stephen, Was solemnized a quiet but very petty wedding when Frances May Morrell became the bride of George McKenzie Hyslop. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C.R.F. McLennan in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride looked very winsome in a gown of pale green Canton crepe, with trimmings of fawn georgette, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maidenhair fern.

Miss Marion Morrell, sister of the bride attired in a handsome dress of old blue taffeta, acted as bridesmaid and John Hyslop, brother of the groom was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left on the evening train for a short honeymoon trip to St. John and other points of interest. The bride's going away dress was Grecian crepe with coat of king's blue Brazial cloth with grey fur trimmings and hat to match.

The bride is one of New Brunswick's superior teachers, the groom a prosperous farmer, and both have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy wedded life.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a set of sterling silver vases and to the best man a set of cuff links in white and green gold.

On Monday evening a miscellaneous shower was given in their honor at their home at St. David and many handsome presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Marriage - Thompson - Myers

A very pretty but quiet ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gay, Wednesday evening, November 10th, when their sister Mrs. Emma Myers of St. John was united in marriage with Mr. Wellington Thompson of Oak Bay. Rev. Mr. Stirling of Oak Bay being the officiating clergyman. After the ceremony supper was served, the dining room being daintily trimmed for the occasion, pink and green being the colors used. Only a few of the contracting parties were present. After doing ample justice to the dainty supper the bridal party drove to their home, accompanied by their friends, where they were given a cordial welcome by their friends of Oak Bay.

273. Joseph Harvey⁷ Bartlett (Caleb⁶, Samuel Thomas⁵, Jane⁴ Thomas, Jane³ <Hitchings>, ² Hitchings, Br-Three¹, (00Root-Hitchings)^A) was born 25 December 1881 in Waweig, St. Croix Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic."), and died 06 March 1958 in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic."). He married Rose Caroline Philips 01 February 1912 in Worcester, MA, daughter of ? Philips and ? ????. She was born 14 March 1887 in Cardiff, Glamorgan Co., Wales, and died 18 July 1966 in Brockville, ON.

Notes for Rose Caroline Philips:

Phillips Children - Fred - Rose - Stella

Consider now the case of the three Phillips children of Cardiff, Wales, who were given to the Bristol Emigration Society in 1896 because their parents couldn't earn enough to feed them or for perhaps, some equally desperate reason. In company with other children and a Society lady employee to oversee them, they arrived in Halifax on the Scotsman, a modest steamship (wrecked off Newfoundland three years later with the loss of 11 passengers.)

So it was that Fred, 10, Rose eight and Stella, four came ashore. Stella was taken straight to a farmer's home in Ontario. How could these three children bear that separation with equanimity?

Fred was sent to St. Stephen, thence to a Whittier Ridge farm. He ran away a few years later and ended up in Worcester, Mass. What desperation could bring a boy to escape a roof, bed and food?

Now we meet eight year old Rose, who was Jackie Hiltz, my lady's grandmother!

She was connected with a St. Stephen tailor and his invalid wife, who died shortly. It's easy to see the tailor was right to let Rose move to Rolling Dam. There she became stepsister of Josephine McCann and A member of the family.

The story of the three Phillips children appears to have had a happy ending. After being schooled in Rolling Dam, Rose went to a nursing school in Worcester, Mass, where she reunited with her brother, later returning to Rolling Dam and marrying Harvey Bartlett; they fell heir to the deceased McCann's home.

It appears certain that oversight by the Bristol Emigration Society people was effective in the case of the Phillips children, because Rose, after her husband's death in 1958, moved to Ontario to reunite with Stella the next year. Harvey died 1958 and Rose died in 1966 along with Lavina died 1980 are buried in the cemetery behind the United Church of Canada there in Rollingdam.

Wouldn't it be fine should a reader of this tale venture to explore his/her own recent family background where an ancestor has arrived as a "Home Child" in the years before 1940. Perhaps, as in the case of the Phillips children, their story may find its way to the Saint Croix Courier to share with the rest of us.

The Phillips case study to me shows the quality of character that sometimes escapes us, as we are flooded with bad media news. The separate love, the endurance, adaptability and perseverance of humans is so very evident in the lives of the Phillips children, and no doubt, their descendants. The indomitable courage of ordinary people is a force to be admitted.

Notes for James Howard Ross:
James Howard Ross
January 13, 1934 - January 03, 2019

It is with heavy hearts that the family of James Howard Ross wishes to share that this loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend left us on Thursday, January 3, 2019. He is remembered by his loving wife of 61 years Shirley, his one daughter Carol (Guy) and five sons Eugene (Barb), Jeff (Joan), Bruce (Karen), Wayne (Shari), Jimmy (Paula), and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Born in St. Andrews, NB., son of the late Forest and Evangeline (French) Ross.

Jim's priority was his family. He worked hard to provide for them but was always ready for a family gathering and good times. He was a mentor and helper to his children, grandchildren and others. He was kind-hearted and always willing to lend a helping hand to all. You would often find him building something in his woodshop, volunteering his time helping others or sitting by the bonfire. He gave his family the gift of his time and attention and will be forever loved and missed by them.

Funeral service will be held at All Saints Anglican Church, King St. St. Andrews, NB on Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 2 PM. The family will receive friends at the church on Wednesday from 12-2 PM. A reception will follow in the church hall.

For those who wish, donations in Jim's memory may be made to Charlotte County Cancer Society or a charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be sent to the family on line at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Jim's family would like to thank the staff at the Charlotte County Hospital for his care.

Marriage Notes for Hilda Vail and Robert Nichols:

MARRIAGE - Nicholas - Vail

A very pretty wedding took place in Brockway at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brockway, Wednesday, October 1, 1941, at 3:30, when Hilda Mae Vail, daughter of Mrs. Brockway, and the late Carleton Vail, became the bride of Pte. Robert McLeod Nichols of the R.C.A.S.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, Brockway. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of cedar and autumn leaves on the broad verandah, which was effectively decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers and small flags. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W.E. Armstrong.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Ernest Vail, looked charming in a floor length dress of white brocaded satin made on princess lines, with long fitted sleeves, and sweetheart neck. A floor length veil of net falling from a coronet of white flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli, tied with long streamers of white satin. She wore a gold bracelet with cameo clasp, the gift of the groom.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Percy M. Clark, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of Dulce blue taffeta made with a fitted bodice and full skirt, and wore a small hat of matching material and white gloves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli, tied with long streamers of pink satin.

David Brockway, half brother of the bride, was groomsman.

The Wedding March from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Harold Langley, who also played suitable music during the signing of the register, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and their attendants returned to the verandah, where they received congratulations of the guests. Mrs. Brockway, mother of the bride, wore a gown of skyline blue with gold trimmings, Mrs. Nichols the groom's mother, wore a gown of dusty rose printed crepe.

A wedding supper was served in the dining room which was effectively decorated with pink and white streamers hung from a white wedding bell in the centre of the ceiling, and pink, blue, and white flowers. The table had silver candlesticks with ivory candles, and was centred with a three tier bride's cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Byrd Boone invited the guests in the dining room and the Misses Barbara Vail, Joyce Langley, and Myra McLeod served. Others assisting were Mrs. T.N. Vail, Mrs. H.V. Symonds, Mrs. A.W. Vail, and Miss Susie Vail.

Many gifts were received by the young couple. The bride's gift to the matron of honour was a silver necklace. The groomsman received a billfold.

Later in the evening other friends gathered to offer their congratulations and later all went to the hall where dancing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols afterwards motored to a camp on the Maguadavic River to spend some time before leaving for Gaspé, Que., where the groom is now stationed. For travelling the bride wore an ensemble of navy blue pinstripe wool, with lighter blue hat and accessories.

The out of town guest were Stillman Smith, grandfather of the bride, of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Symonds of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Smith of Milltown, Maine, Mrs. Fulton Sinclair of Baring, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Brown and daughter, Nancy of Moores Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McLeod of Dewolfe Corner, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawthorn, Calais, Me., Miss Verna Marshall, Moores Mills, Billy Purdy of Dufferin, Miss Margaret Brockway, Miss Barbara Vail of St. Stephen, and Mrs. Carl Byers of McAdam.

Notes for William Moore:

The family of John Moore who Moore's Mills is named after. Some of the first settlers from Ireland- Londerdery & Scotland. 40 families left in 5 ships and arrived in Boston Aug 8, 1718.

From there they scattered different places with the Moore family coming to Moore's Mills, New Brunswick.

It appears that Tristan and William are brothers, United Empire Loyalists, from New Hampshire that have come to New Brunswick. This data is taken from the 1851 NB Census and St. Stephen NB cemetery book.

Actual lineages must be checked to make sure they are correct for the children and wives of William Moore and also for Tristan Moore.

William Moore, Loyalist from New Hampshire, USA, entered NB in 1785.

Tristan Moore, as above for William, was a miller, Moore's Mills.

Marriage Notes for Hiram Connick and Susannah Doore:

Charlotte Co. Marriage Records show the name as Dow. This must be an error as further investigation and the name shown in the book "Memorial of the Loyalist Families of William Moore, Josiah Hitchings, and Robert Livingstone" by John Elliott Moore, 1898. shows the name as Door.

The 1851 census of St. David Parish has a Stephen Door(e) shown on page 17 with a son Hosea. This is the same name of one of Susanna's sons by Hiram Connick as shown on page 3 of the same census.

JOHN CAMPBELL

The Life and Death of a Worthy Man.

By the death of John Campbell, which occurred at St. Andrews on the 19th inst., a former and much respected resident of this town called away.

Mr. Campbell was born in St. Andrews on the 24th December 1813 where he spent his boyhood. At an early age he went to St. John where he received business training with a Mr. Nicholson. Returning to St. Andrews, his father Colon Campbell, who was the High Sheriff of the County sent him to St. Stephen as his Deputy and about the same time he began trading at the Ledge, then a considerable place of shipping.

He married in 1836 a daughter of Samuel Stuart, and about this time he began the publication of the St. Stephen Courant which he conducted successfully for several years. He afterwards entered the company of Messrs. George M. and James Porter as their bookkeeper and confidential clerk. He continued in their employ for 17 years. His health failing, he left their employ and accepted the situation of Inspector of schools for Charlotte County which position he acceptably filled for some years, but his old complaint asthma still troubling him, he was advised to try a change of climate. He then entered the employ of Messrs. Pope, Talbot & Co. of San Francisco, the most extensive lumber dealers on the Pacific Coast, as their chief bookkeeper and confidential clerk and though he continued his relations with this firm until about a year ago when he expressed a desire to view the scenes of his boyhood. They gave him a year's leave of absence playing his salary for the full time, he having been in their employ 23 years.

Mr. Campbell accompanied by his wife and daughter returned to the pace of his nativity a little over a year ago and although very frail, enjoyed the greetings of many old friends. He spent the greater portion of the time at St. Andrews with his son D.F. Campbell where he died peacefully and fully resigned to his Maker's will.

His body was brought to St. Stephen by railroad and taken to the house by his sister, Mrs. S.H. Whitlock from which it was interred in the beautiful rural cemetery where, even when in a far distant land it was his earnest desire to be laid to rest in the quietness and repose of its beautiful scenery.

Mr. Campbell will long be remembered by his many friends and companions as a man of genial and happy disposition and deeply interested in everything pertaining to the welfare of his native country. In politics he was a Liberal and in the day when the Liberal Party was coming into prominence, he was among the foremost in the advocacy of their principles. He was one of the first appointed by the Liberal Government to be Justice of the Peace for this County.

He was a zealous advocate of the temperate cause when here and maintained his principles until his death. For many years he was a leading member of the Howard Division S & T.

Mr. Campbell had acquired considerable property in San Francisco where a portion of his family still resides and where his death will be deeply regretted by many sincere friends. He died as he had lived, a sincere Christian, humbly trusting in the merits of his Redeemer and at peace with all men. His beloved wife and family will have the sympathy of many sorrowing friends in their dad bereavement.

Notes for Jesse Leigh White:

Jesse Leigh White and Blanche

In an earlier section of this family story we left Jesse Leigh White on the train travelling to Fredericton to attend Normal School. After graduation he was engaged to teach in the town of Grand Falls, Victoria County NB. Here he began what was to be a most successful teaching career. We have already related how Blanche Maxwell had also launched on a teaching career in Charlotte County. It is possible that they were in the same class while attending Normal School. If this is so, it explains how Blanche left Charlotte County and continued her career in Grand Falls. Not long afterwards these fellow teachers talked about marriage. Many years later J.L. white told me that it was their intention to be married at the end of the school term in 1895 but they changed their minds and decided on an earlier date, the Christmas vacation period in 1894 at the home of the bride's parents in Moores Mills. The Anglican minister Rev. M. Milledge performed the ceremony. The following clipping from a local paper tells of the event. The list of guests includes names that are already familiar to us from earlier sections of this record. The listing of the various wedding gifts is interesting and amusing.

After their marriage in 1894, J.L. White and Blanche continued to teach in Grand Falls. Both are remembered by the old timers as excellent teachers who expected excellence from their pupils. Teaching was not J.L. White's only interest. He engaged in a few commercial ventures in the community opening a grocery store on the other side of the river from the main town. He also made some investment in railway shares from which he later earned substantial profits. In these years they were also busy having their family. After two still births, their daughter Leitha was born in 1899. Edward Maxwell was born in 1904. Gretchen's birth year was 1907 and Marion came in 1909. In May 1910 Constance was born and the youngest child Jay Leigh arrived in 1914.

It was in 1912 that J.L. White gave up teaching and put all his energy into his business ventures. With vision and courage he built a huge general store on the main street of the town. Almost anything could be purchased in this emporium with the sign "J.L. White, General Merchant". There were departments, Groceries, dry goods, hardware. Even caskets were available and the services of Aunt Leslie Estey were called in when coffins had to be lined. Blanche said of her husband that he would tackle anything to turn a dollar. Along with the general store he built an extensive business buying and selling pulpwood. He was involved in all these ventures in 1912. It is no wonder he resigned his school teaching position. He and Blanche were key figures in the business and social life of Grand Falls. In that same year he was offered the nomination of the Conservatives to represent them. He accepted this challenge and became the member of Legislature for Victoria County. For the next five years (1912 to 1917) he continued his business ventures and served as Member of the Provincial Parliament.

We have already noted his generosity toward his parents, caring for them in their old age, and doing the same for Aunt Victoria Maxwell. His brothers Bert and Charles also became established business people in Grand Falls through his support and encouragement. For his own growing family he provided every advantage. There was always hired help in the home enabling Blanche to assist her husband in the great load of necessary office work.

There were set backs as well as successes. In 1925 the family suffered a great blow. Their home next to the large store was burned to the ground and all the contents were lost except a couple of fur coats and the clothes they were wearing. Fortunately everyone got out safely, but family pictures which would be so useful in this story were lost.

The cause of the fire was attributed to the earthquake which had occurred the previous day, February 28, 1925. The stovepipes had been loosened and some were separated by the quake. This had not been noticed and when the fires were lighted the following morning, the sparks ignited the surrounding dry material and almost immediately the house was in flames. Blanche was able to rescue the youngest child as she made her way to safety. There was a heavy loss of family possessions but there was no loss of life.

Fortunately the Whites owned a second house in Grand Falls which was occupied by their son Max who has married a year earlier. It was the intention of J.L. and Blanche to make their house their home eventually. The fire hurried up the event. The house had been purchased some years earlier by Blanche. It was one of the oldest and finest houses in Grand Falls. It had been built in 1834 and occupied for a time by Sir John Campbell. Sir John had operated a large sawmill in Grand Falls in earlier years and had been the receiver general of Lower Canada. He also had considerable business connections with the American before the middle of the century. The house was located in an area overlooking the falls from which Grand Falls for its name. We have several pictures for enclosure with this story. It was generally known as the "Wade House."

Jessie Leigh White and Blanche received a serious blow with the great depression of the thirties. In his store business he had given credit very freely to his customers and continued to do so even as times got harder. He was always hoping that better times would come soon and that his customers would be able to pay their debts. As the depression continued it was evident that the business could no longer be carried on in the same way. It was impossible to collect much that was owing. It was a hard decision to make but in 1934 J. L. White gave up his store business. He had tried so hard to hang on that his health was undermined. His asthmatic condition, which had bothered him since his youth, grew worse. His doctor suggested a change of climate so he and Blanche took an extended holiday to Arizona where they visited Ruby White. This was in the winter of 1931-32. J.L. White was much better for the change and faced his business problems with courage when he returned. He realized that the store had to go and within a couple of years it happened.

J.L. White still had his pulpwood business. He bought a home in Kilburn and conducted his business from there. His sons Max and Leigh worked with him, doing most of the travelling. He died February 5, 1941.

After the death of Jessie Leigh White, Blanche White continued to live in Kilburn but her son Max was concerned that she was alone so much of the time. Max now managed the business his father had established. His home was in Andover so he arranged a suite of rooms in his home for his mother. She made her headquarters here but spent much of her time in the homes of her daughters, Leitha in Boston, Marion in Alberta and Constance in British Columbia. She was always a most welcome guest and we are grateful for the memories we have of the visits she made to us. Her grandchildren have happy and rich memories of their grandmother White.

She was a faithful member of the Anglican Church and of the I.O.D.E. She took a keen interest in the Order of the Eastern Star and occupied the top position in New Brunswick for a time. This term as "Worthy Grand" gave her the opportunity to travel throughout the province and to give her presidential addresses. She loved to talk and was a most acceptable speaker. Blanche White had many other talents. Always interested in handwork, there are many samples of her workmanship in the homes of her friends and family. In her last years, she continued to use her spare moments tating and I have yet to discover what happened to the yards and yards of lace she made.

Some of her family and friends have in their possession, paintings and drawings which she did in earlier years. They are much beyond average in excellence and are prized by those who have them.

In the summer of 1957 Marion and I motored to Nova Scotia and on our way we stopped to visit Gramma White in Andover. She was 87 years of age. We suggested that she accompany us on our trip. She had never been to Nova Scotia and was most anxious to see that province. She came along and her presence added to our interest as we visited Halifax, Grand Pre, Digby as well as place in Cape Breton. She enjoyed every bit of the journey.

Blanche White died in 1957 and is buried in the cemetery at Grand Falls.

Marriage Notes for Ethel Maxwell and Jesse White:

Notice of wedding in the St. Stephen Paper

The monotony of our usually quiet little village was very pleasantly varied on Wednesday evening of last week, by a wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Maxwell. The contracting parties were their only daughter Blanche, and Mr. Leigh White of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Millidge, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. Mr. Arthur Maxwell and Miss Mabel Penkes brother and cousin of the bride, were the attendants. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of brown cloth, beautifully trimmed with silk, with ornaments and bouquet of roses. Hot tea and coffee with substantial refreshments were served immediately after the ceremony after which a few hours were spent very delightfully to social converse and in listening to the music which was finely rendered by some of the younger guests, while Miss Ann Douglas presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. white left by Saturday morning train for Mr. white's home in Centerville, where they will remain for a few days. They will then go to Grand Falls, where they will reside. Mrs. White was the recipient of many useful presents some of which I will mention.

George L. Moore

A well-known and highly respected citizen of the St. Stephen area George L. Moore passed away September 9, 1971 at the Charlotte County Hospital in his 88th year. Better known as "Bert" to all who knew him, he had devoted many years of his life serving the citizens of St. Stephen. His occupation were many and varied. He served many years on the St. Stephen Police Force as constable and later as Town Marshall and filled this position until the time of his retirement.

Mr. Moore was born at Baillie, December 20, 1883. In May 1907, he was united in marriage to Jennie Gertrude Hastey of Lynnfield who died in 1948.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Henrietta Hannah of Saint John, two sons, Raymond and Eldon, St. Stephen and three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey (Florence) Saint John, Mrs. Charles Savage (Josephine), Maine; Mrs. William Weatherbee (Jean), Brewer, Maine; eight grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Mr. Moore had spent most of his retirement years he had resided at Maces Bay and more recently at Saint John. He had been a devoted an active member of the United Church of Canada, having served on the session for many years.

The largely attended funeral service was held Sunday September 12, at 2 p.m. in the Mehan Memorial Chapel of the S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home with Rev. B.D. Earle officiating.

The many floral tributes as well as contributions to the Canadian Heart Foundation, cancer society, Mentally Retarded and Gideon Bibles were silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held throughout the community.

Two favorite hymns, The Old Rugged Cross and What A Friend We Have In Jesus were sung by a male quartet comprised of Mert Coffey, Ted Boyd, Tom Mitchell, and Fred Allen. Pallbearers were Irving Hastey, Henry Watters, George Palmer, Carl Dunn, Frank Worrell and Fred Reid.

As a tribute to the deceased active members of the St. Stephen Police force attended the funeral in a body and formed a guard of honor at the funeral home and at the grave also.

Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Mrs. G. L. Moore

Many friends learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Jennie Moore, wife of G. Leighbert Moore of Old Ridge, Wednesday morning, July 28, 1948. Although in poor health for sometime, news of her sudden passing came as a distinct shock.

Mrs. Moore was born at Lynnfield, August 26, 1881, the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Hastey, and was united in marriage to George Leighbert Moore of Baillie, May 1, 1907, by Rev. W. Wass of the Methodist Church.

The greater part of her married life was spent in St. Stephen, and while her health permitted, she took an active part in the work of the church which she faithfully attended, having been a member of the choir, the Steadfast Evening Auxiliary and of the Quilters. She was also a member of the Quilters. She was also a member of Olive Rebekah Lodge.

While she gave much of her time and energy to these, it was in her home where her unfluence was most felt, her kindly joyous personality and her womanly qualities fitting her for a devoted wife and mother.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Harry Giggey, Saint John; Mrs. Charles Savage, Bath, Maine; and Miss Jean Moore, who has been on the staff of the Suzzex High School; two sons, Raymond and Eldon of Old Ridge; two sisters, Mrs. George Bingham and Mrs. John Speedy, of St. Stephen; tow brothers, Joseph Hastey of Nantasket, Mass., and Percy Hastey of Oak Bay, and five grandchildren.

The many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which she was held by a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral service Friday afternoon at the home of her son, Raymond Moore, was conducted by Rev. B.D. Earle, pastor of the Kirk McColl United Church, and was largely attended. A mixed quartette sang two favorite hymns, "Let Your Lower Lights Be Burning," and "Sometime We'll Understand." Pall bearers were Everett Moore, Victor Poole, Sidney Torrance, Joseph Thomas, Frank Leland, and Richard Toal. Interment was in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

"Biographical Note

The Bucklin family's history in the state of Washington begins in 1859. The family papers are concerned principally with three men, Nathan Bucklin, his son Robert Eben Bucklin, and his grandson Robert Willis Bucklin. Other family members, including brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, in-laws, and distant relatives, are all mentioned in letters, manuscripts, or diaries.

Nathan Bucklin, who was born in Warren, Maine, in 1839, came to Kitsap County, Washington Territory, in 1859. He settled in Seabeck W.T., and there supervised a lumber mill. In 1867, he married Marian Campbell. They had three daughters, Annie, born 7 May 1868; Amy, born 4 May 1872; and Marian, born 17 January 1874. Marian Campbell Bucklin died at Port Madison, W.T., in 1874.

In early 1877 Nathan Bucklin married again. His second wife, Mary Alice Babbitt, had journeyed to San Francisco from New Jersey, to live with relatives. There she learned of a widower, Nathan Bucklin, who needed a nanny to care for his young motherless daughters on Puget Sound. This information led to the eventual marriage of Bucklin and Miss Babbitt. They were the parents of six children: Robert Eben, born 3 December 1878; Frances Lydia, born 6 August 1881; Alice, born May 1885; Clara, born 10 January 1887; Henrietta, born 3 December 1889; and Emma Louise, born 18 November 1892. Notes for Annie 'Elsie' Chrestofferson:

Surname was Annie Elizabeth 'Elsie' Christofferson but this was changed to Annie Elizabeth 'Elsie'

Cluntoff[looks more like a Russian name] after finding the birth information for her daughter, Elizabeth V.

Campbell. However, no surnames of Cluntoff were found in searching the census for 1900 or 1910 so this looks like a dead end!! This was solved by using information from the engagement notice, of 21 June 1936, for Eliabeth Berne Campbell which named her aunt's as Mrs. James M. Page and Mrs. George E. Cummings.

Notes for Kenneth Milton Johnston:
Kenneth Milton "Kenny" Johnston
1930-2007

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Kenneth Milton Johnston "Kenny" at Charlotte County Regional Hospital on December 8, 2007. Kenny leaves behind his wife, Jean (Weeks) of fifty-seven years, his childhood sweetheart whom he met while toboggan sliding in Old Ridge.

His loving memory will live on in his seven children; daughters Brenda Sansom (David) in Fredericton, Terry Dickerson (Bobby) St. Stephen and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, son Marshall (Syreena) in New Germany, Nova Scotia and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya). He is also survived by grandchildren Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley, and twins, Brandan and Brandi and great grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan. Daddy loved white cats and leaves Momma to care for his snow white "Sparky".

Daddy was born in Dewolfe Corner, December 10, 1930 and lost a twenty dollar bet when his first child Brenda was born two days before his twentieth birthday. Daddy was the third of seventeen children of the late George and Vivian (Foote) Johnston. He was predeceased by his most special friend, Bob McBride and his brothers Marvin (Gooley), Earl and Sam. He is survived by siblings Albert, Florence Crosby, Clarence, Gerald, Sharon Needle, Raymond, Hazen and Roger.

Daddy was raised by his grandparents, the late Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston in the small community of Moore's Mills where he attended school and began his life as a fun loving, joke playing imp.

Daddy spent his entire life in Charlotte County living as well in Milltown and The Ledge and a brief time in Fredericton. Daddy worked his entire life. After a life dedicated to the principals of honest, hard work and a spinal chord injury in 1994 he finally retired in 1997. He peeled pulp and worked for Gerald Gilman at Gilman's Garage in Moore's Mills when he left school but later became a very capable licensed mechanic and a licensed electrician. He was also a plumber and finished carpenter. He outfitted a complete carpentry workshop in his basement to accommodate him working from a wheelchair. He worked for Bert Linton selling Volkswagens and later had his own business, Causeway Motors at Oak Bay where he continued to sell Volkswagens and Used Cars. Causeway Motors later moved to Milltown when he bought the facility operated by one of his childhood mentors, Norman Holmes. Daddy never got rich at anything because his kind and generous heart ruled his fee schedule, if he managed to even charge you for the work he did. When his garage was not open, customers, friends and strangers simply came to the house anytime of the day and night to get their cars fixed. Once cell phones came into popular use he is known to have listened to the car engines over the phone so as to diagnose the problem. Daddy could fix anything - anything that is except cancer. He will be lovingly remembered as the eternal optimist who always had a smile, a laugh and a solution - if you had a problem. He is renown for his ability to solve mechanical problems when others could not. He will be treasured by the respect he instilled in others when never gave up when he was told he would not walk again. He built a pulley in his garage at The Ledge so that he could exercise his legs and back.

Daddy's legacy is four sons, all of whom have his mechanical talents and three daughters who can jump start a car. Daddy taught by example the importance of doing a job to the best of your ability, working hard and being honest and fair. His determination to walk and live independently has been an inspiration to everyone around him. Quite simply, our dad was amazing.

As cancer slowing took its final toll, our dad, the perfect patient continued to bless us with moments of precious memories reflective of the good, kind and generous man he had always been.

There are no words to express our immense gratitude for the professional love, care and compassion from Kindred Home Care, Hospice of Charlotte and the Charlotte County Hospital Palliative Care Staff.

Remembrances may be made to Hospice of Charlotte or charity of donor's choice.

The family will receive friends at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB on Monday, December 10, 2007 from 2 to 4 pm, followed by a Memorial Service at 4 pm.

Interment will be at the Moores Mills Cemetery at a later date.

Notes for Edna Jean Weeks:
Obit:
Johnston, Edna Jean

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Edna Jean (Weeks) Johnston, at the home of Randy and Melinda Johnston, in Moores Mills, N.B., on Jan. 13, 2009. Mommy joins her childhood sweetheart and husband of 57 years, Kenneth Milton Johnston, who died Dec. 8, 2007.

Born Feb. 22, 1931, her loving memory will live on in her seven children: daughters, Brenda Sansom (David), in Fredericton, N.B., Terry Dickerson (Bobby), St. Stephen, N.B., and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, N.B.; son, Marshall (Syreena), in New Germany, N.S., and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, N.B., Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya).

Mommy is also survived by grandchildren: Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley and twins, Brandan and Brandi; and great-grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan.

Mommy lived her entire life in Charlotte County, having been raised in Old Ridge, where she met Daddy while tobogganing. The oldest girl in a family of seven children, she was predeceased by her adoring father, Burton, her mother, Myrtle, and her special older brother, Douglas.

She is survived by sisters, Louise Cleghorn (Kenny), Donna Libby (Stephen), Grace Cook (Kenny), and Doris Stewart (Roger); and brother, Kenny (Fran).

Mommy was the epitome of the saying, "big surprises come in small packages." She graduated from St. Stephen High School, where she enjoyed such nicknames as "Spark Plug," "Squirt" and "Pint Size".

In the last chapter of her life, Mommy delighted in the new name of "Rocket", given to her by her son, Randal. Jeannie never let her size discourage her from attempting any challenge or engaging any challenger. Her family often lovingly called her the "Little Banty Rooster".

Mommy was born a natural mother, homemaker, seamstress, nurse, gardener and handy woman. A newlywed at 19, she moved to Moore's Mills with Daddy's grandparents, Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston, where she became chief cook and bottle washer. Within three years she had her first three children. During those early years, she quickly mobilized her many talents as she pumped water, chopped wood, stoked fires, gardened, canned vegetables, preserved fruits and pickles, and mastered a large and uncooperative wringer washer. Our home was most often graced by a long, carefully hung wash, where the largest sheets were first and the smallest socks last. After the birth of the triplets, her excitement peaked when Buchanan Brothers' truck arrived with three new highchairs and an automatic washer and dryer.

Christmas church pageants and school concerts would find her girls in carefully sewn matching dresses. Mommy could lug pails of berries and stack heavy boxes matching any man and outdoing many at the family-owned blueberry fields in Tower Hill.

At the family business, Causeway Motors in Oak Bay, Mommy operated the canteen, making world famous fried clams and lobster rolls, as well as acting as part-time service manager, accountant and gas pump attendant. As a young woman she most likely honed her waitress and cooking skills when she worked for Phil McCarroll at Phil's Restaurant.

When the family purchased the Milltown Garage from long-time friend, Norman Holmes, Mommy continued her business duties, as well as managing an apartment building. She modeled a work ethic and illustrated that it is not the size or gender that determines your ability but your personal determination and will to succeed.

Even though osteoporosis and emphysema left this most capable woman bedridden, she would delight us with her wit, humour and dear sweet smile. She had a determined desire to spend her final days in Moore's Mills, and that she did. Our family is forever indebted to, and blessed to have a dedicated and loving son, Randy, and his wonderful wife, Melinda, who, together with Mommy's self-proclaimed guard dog, Champ, provided a most caring and loving home in Moore's Mills.

We express our gratitude to Kindred Home Care and Pam Thibeault, Carolyn Fagan, Lori Greenier and Nancy Richard, for their loving care. Dr. Kay, the staff at Extra-Mural, Charlotte County Hospital and Hospice of Charlotte have provided immeasurable care and compassion. The support from family and friends will be remembered forever. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

The family will receive friends at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B., on Saturday, Jan. 17, 2009 from 12 - 2 p.m., followed by a funeral service at 2 p.m.

Interment at Moores Mills Rural Cemetery.

Remembrances may be made to Hospice of Charlotte, Moores Mills Community Club at 8427 Route 3, Moores Mills, NB E5A 1Y1, or a charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for James Norman McCurdy:

TRAGEDY IN OAK BAY

BY KATHY BOCKUS

OAK BAY – Police have confirmed that two people found dead in their home Saturday night were the victims of a murder-suicide and that both died from single gunshot wounds.

Police released the names of the deceased on Monday. They are James McCurdy, 50, and his common-law spouse, Karen Buchanan, 45.

Police found their bodies in separate rooms in the small bungalow they rented at 1099 Highway 1 in Oak Bay. Police are not releasing details about the fatal gunshots. Autopsies were conducted Sunday at the Saint John Regional Hospital.

Sgt. Derek Strong, media relations officer with the RCMP in Fredericton, said RCMP officers arrived at the couple's home late Saturday night, six minutes after McCurdy made a 911 call at 11:15 p.m. requesting an ambulance.

"He said he had just shot his wife and was about to shoot himself," Sgt. Strong said.

A .410 rifle was recovered at the scene.

Sgt. Strong said police couldn't get into the house right away because two large Rottweiler-type dogs were inside the home.

"And for safety reasons, given the nature of the call, the members weren't about to barge into the house," said Sgt. Strong.

"The dogs did cause some concern," he said, but added an animal control officer assisted with equipment to keep the dogs at bay until the RCMP gained access.

Sgt. Strong said before entering the house, officers peered through windows and saw the bodies of McCurdy and Buchanan.

The investigation into the deaths is continuing.

Monday morning, the short lane leading through the trees to the house was blocked by a single piece of yellow police crime-scene tape.

Duct taped to that was a warning scrawled on a bright orange piece of paper declaring "No one allowed past this line" and "All violators will be prosecuted."

The house appeared quiet on Monday with colourful lawn ornaments standing by the driveway. A large, bulbous troll figure is attached to the trunk of one tree and in the branches of others are a happy faced scarecrow and a frog, both on swings and a set of bamboo wind chimes. Across the street, attached to a rusted mailbox are three deflated balloons, two red and one white. Further up the driveway, signs warn Beware of Dog.

The modest beige house has green shutters and a satellite dish on its roof. There's a barbecue on the tiny porch and a cream-coloured station wagon sits in the driveway in front of the stairs. There are several pairs of jeans still on the clothesline strung between the house and a tree.
