- 72 iv. Betty Hodgins, born Bet. 1922 - 1923 in Toronto, York Co., ON; died 30 August 2010 in Ottawa, Carleton Co., ON. She married ? McWhinnie; died Unknown.

Notes for Betty Hodgins:

MEMORIAM: Chapter activist Betty McWhinnie passes away
August 30, 2010 - 10:10am

Activist Betty McWhinnie passed away yesterday morning at her daughter's home in Ottawa.

Our 2006 annual report states that, "Council members took the message (that water and sanitation are human rights) to heart in Whistler, B.C., when they got wind of the impending privatization of the city's wastewater system in January. Activists Pina Belperio and Betty McWhinnie swiftly formed a new Council of Canadians chapter, and worked with others to organize the Whistler Water Watch Coalition. After collecting almost 2,000 signatures opposing the privatization scheme, Whistler activists convinced city council to scuttle the deal and keep the plant in public hands."

In the Spring 2007 issue of Canadian Perspectives we congratulated Betty - at age 83 - for being named Whistler Citizen of the Year. At that time Pique Newsmagazine reported that, "A mother of five and ESL and commercial studies teacher at Toronto's George Brown College for 24 years, McWhinnie also taught in Shanghai in 1983-84. ...A long-time dedication to the Whistler library board, emergency and community social services societies, Whistler Welcome Week, Elizabeth Manso society, and the Mature Action Committee are just some of the organizations in which McWhinnie has been involved."

McWhinnie Citizen of the Year

Long-time dedication puts Betty McWhinnie in spotlight

By Vivian Moreau

Betty McWhinnie took her napkin to the podium when she was announced as Whistler's Citizen of the Year at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon Wednesday.

"This is in case I start to bawl," she said.

McWhinnie, 83, was honoured as citizen of the year for her years of volunteer work in Whistler. McWhinnie was nominated for "her many diverse efforts over the last 19 years," Garry Watson, last year's citizen of the year said in introductions.

A long-time dedication to the Whistler library board, emergency and community social services societies, Whistler Welcome Week, Elizabeth Manso society, and the Mature Action Committee are just some of the organizations in which McWhinnie has been involved. Most recently she was featured in Pique Newsmagazine as an opponent of the public-private partnership that was proposed for the sewage treatment plant upgrade.

With startled tears McWhinnie accepted the plaque with her name on it. She was even more surprised when Mayor Ken Melamed rose to tell her the municipality is giving her a designated parking spot and an annual bus pass. When she received the phone call on Monday asking her to come to the luncheon McWhinnie said she initially said no, citing a doctor's appointment.

"I said oh that's a pleasant surprise but I can't go."

But with some behind the scenes negotiation between McWhinnie's daughter Heidi Rode and the Vancouver doctor the appointment was changed so McWhinnie could attend.

A mother of five and ESL and commercial studies teacher at Toronto's George Brown College for 24 years, McWhinnie also taught in Shanghai in 1983-84.

Greenhouse program advocate Jim Cook; mountain bike enthusiast Tom Thompson; former chamber of commerce president Bernie Lalor-Morton; Ginny and Kerry Dennehy, founders of the Keltie Patrick Dennehy foundation; and Whistler Health Care Foundation chair Marnie Simon were also nominated for the honour.

Presented for 26 years by the Chamber of Commerce, responsibility for the award will rest with Community Foundation of Whistler in the future.

Notes for Adam Hodgins:

Email Segment from Susan Cross, 16 Feb. 2007:

So Adam was born in 1886. He married Catherine Vincent(aged 33) in 1919. Kitty it appears was divorced, having married a John Paxton according to the marriage certificate. In addition to Adza ,who was born later that year however, he also had an acknowledged illegitimate child Joann Eileen Theodora Winifred Rosling born in 1916. Her mother was married to a fellow army officer. She became quite well known as the cookery writer Theodora Fitzgibbon, marrying the american writer Constantine Fitzgibbon in 1944. She divorced him in 1960 and married George Morrison a producer and photographer. She died in 1991. She had an 'interesting' life (!)and knew a lot of artistic and literary people including Dylan Thomas. She wrote 2 biographies of her life . In the first one she describes her relationship with Ad and her visits to Garravalley in Ballymackey. Having visited Garravalley myself(which is a very small house!) I feel that she may have been trying to imply a somewhat grander family than the one that existed!In fact our family kept reading bits out roaring with laughter.However she is mentioned in a lot of books about the 30s and 40s so some of her stories are true , even if taken with a pinch of salt!

He is also supposed to have a son in Newcastle upon Tyne,Adza used to joke about it with my father- but we know nothing else about him!!

The following was receive in an email from Derrell Oakley Teat, 27 June 2006:

JBH was a orphan and went to sea age 7, sometime or the other he wound up in South Carolina and married.

Here is the obit written by the church minister:

Obituary from the 'South Western Baptist Newspaper", Tuskegee, AL March 15, 1855

" Died In the mountains about the 16th of November last, John B. Hodgens in the eighty-eighth year of his age. Brother Hodgens was born in England and at the age of seven years he went to sea and lived a sea-faring life until he was nineteen years old. Then he came to America and settled in SC. Then he married and raised a family and after he lost his wife emigrated with his son the Alabama and settled in Bibb Co and professed religion, and was baptized into the fellowship of the Cahawba Valley Church in the eighty-fourth year of his age, fours years before his death. The circumstances of his death were about as follows: He lived in a very thinly settled part of the county, but few were living nearer than from five to seven miles. He being very old and childless would frequently start a morning along some cow trail or trail made by hunters, and always come home at night, until the 16th of last November he walked his last. The night came on and he did not return, the family became alarmed and spent the night in diligent search for him. The people of the neighborhood being notified of it, were the next day and for two or three weeks perhaps, from twenty-five to fifty men in search of him, but without success. At length after all hopes were gone, he was found by a company that was out on a camp hunt after he had been gone three weeks to the day, and what is little singular is that some twelve or fifteen years ago there was another man about the same age that got lost and died on the same creek. We hear Dr. Watts saying that " Jesus can make a dying bed feel soft as downy pillows are, While on His breast I lean my head and breathe my life out sweetly there".

Unbelief might ask, is it possible that Jesus could make the cold ground on a freezing night feel as soft as a bed of down? We answer that he made a fiery furnace to the three Hebrew children, and a den of lions to Daniel, and prison to Paul, Silas and Peter, and a cave to David, and a shower of stones to Stephen, all like so many places of paradise, and why not send angels to comfort one of his little ones while expiring on the cold ground in the mountains, where there was no mortal eye to pity nor hand to administer the least comfort. Yes, if brother Hodgens was the man we hope he was, no doubt the angel of God camped about him, waiting to convey his departed spirit into a world of bliss. His remains now rest in the grave yard of Cahawba Valley Church, where it will remain until God shall it rise"

N.HAGGARD

Your welcome to the obit also, who knows some day someone might be able to help us find his family, his grave is not marker. I'm the third generation searching.....

The following note was posted to the Hodgins Family Forum by Darrell Teat and indicates what was know of this family as of 13 June 2004:

I have a great story, tonight I got the results from two Hodgins researchers who are a perfect match!

John B Hodgins came here in 1785 after going to sea at age 7 from England.

Served his time & left the sea at age 19, married & raised a family in SC.

We have known for years of one son's name James Madison Hodgins and could never find the other sons counted in 1820. Without a name its near impossible to trace someone on census records that early.

A Hodgins family member was planning the annual reunion & mentioned to me that he had been contacted by a OK Hodgins who believed that he belonged to our family. His GGG-grandfather Joseph B. Hodgins named his son James Madison & said his father b England and had the middle initial B, which made me believe he belonged. We all met last Oct in AL, but we could not find a single piece of paper that connected these families.

John B Hodgins did not leave a will & never anywhere is any family member written about.

Plus the family is not known for keeping in touch. Some have looked for 50+ yrs.

Our oldest member (85) did his homework on DNA & he & the OK man (35) took the test.

Tonight I got both test results...they match perfectly!!! I'm thrilled!! And I know they are..emails are flying.

We have also been contacted from Canada from a Hodgins Genealogy One Name Study group up there & they are talking about comparing our results within their group and possibly the England group also.

Based on the information posted and the resulting DNA results of these two families, it appears that the evidence is only circumstantial that James Madison Hodgins, b 1796-1796, and Joseph O. Hodgins, b 1814, are brothers. Yes, they are related but maybe not from the common ancestor shown as John B. Hodgins, b bef. 16 Nov. 1766. What is needed is more definite proof from further DNA tests as one person has had only a 25-Marker test done and the other had a 37-Marker test and there were differences in the last two markers. The person with the 25-Marker test needs to have his markers extended to 37 to see if any others differ in the range from 26-37.

The other thing that needs to be done is to test at least another member of either line to determine if the descendants of James Madison or Joseph Hodgins were the ones that had the change in Allele values and when. If the changes occurred prior to the known earliest ancestor then that would tend to indicate that the common ancestor was further back in time then the John B. Hodgins shown at the present time.

Hodgins -- Kindred Forever

I appreciate any info you are able to give me as I leave on August 16th. I don't have a great deal of time to do the researching that I will need. I shall be getting Frederick's birth certificate when I get there but don't know if I have to go to Belfast or Dublin.

Richard Hodgins 1845 Carrick on Shannon Co Leitrim
Margaret Gillespie 1839 Mountmellick Laois(I think) married 1864 Carrick On Shannon Don't know death details or where.

Civil Birth Registration Hodgins Richard John 1871 Carrick On Shannon Co. Leitrim (on His army records it says he is a widow and has a daughter Jessie -don't know what happened to her or his wife's name.Came to Australia at some time don't know date or Ship?
Civil Birth Registration Hodgins Frances Nettie 1869 Carrick On Shannon Leitrim came to Australia don't know date? Married Simon Flynn in Australia
Civil Birth Registration Hodgins Frederick St George Irwin b 1884 (our Grandfather & gr grandfather) Anchony, Sligo came to Australia 1901/1902 on Duke of Devonshire

Now I seemed to have found Mary Jane Hodgins 1865 Carrick On Shannon, Leitrim no further details that says parents the same

Catherine Emily Hodgins 1867 Carrick On Shannon Leitrim that says parents same details no further details

Josephine Harriet Maud Hodgins b 1880 with same parent details Reg Tobercurry Sligo Harriet Maud Hodgins no further details.

I have been told that Richard Hodgins Snr was a teacher at some time in Drumsna we have not been able to verify though.

Now as there seems to be a big gap in birth years between 1871 and 1880 and we don't know if there are any more births after Frederick.

Now if there are any living relatives I would be thrilled.

Thank you for replying to my email so promptly I really appreciate it.

Her father was M.P. for Chatham, Ontario.

Mrs M. B. Scoble dies, Aged 88

The death occurred late last night of Mrs. Maria Burgoyne Scoble, widow of the late Mr. Justice Thomas Hodgins, at the family residence, 174 Warren Road. The late Mrs. Hodgins was one of the pioneers of the old Ontario of sixty-eight and seventy years ago, and lived in Chatham with her father, the late Mr. John Scoble, member of the last Union Parliament for West Elgin, held just previous to Confederation.

Although born in London, England nearly eighty-eight years ago, Mrs. Hodgins made Canada her home and was married to the late Mr. Justice Hodgins on November 22, 1858, and they celebrated their golden wedding just before the Justice died, seven years ago.

Since that date Mrs. Hodgins had been in failing health, but more noticeably from last December, since which date she had been unable to leave her room. For one of her years, and ill-health, she exhibited remarkable vitality.

She is survived by her two daughters Misses Flora and Augusta Hodgins of this city, and her three sons, Mr. J. P. Hodgins, of this city; Lt.-Col. A. E. Hodgins of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces at the front, and Lt. Col. C. R. Hodgins of the Royal Artillery, at the front; two sisters Mrs. Plummer Dewar, of Hamilton and Mrs. J. G. Hodgins of Toronto.

He was educated at Upper Canada College and at the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ontario. In 1881 he was on the artillery team representing Canada at Shoeburyness, England. He spent three years as surveyor on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway. At the start of the Boer War, he was a civil engineer and architect in the interior town of Nelson in the Kootenays, British Columbia. At the time, Arthur was officer in command of the Nelson Militia company of the Rocky Mountain Rangers which joined the Royal Canadian regiment and proceeded to South Africa with the first Canadian contingent. He was promoted to the rank of Major and saw action at Paardeberg and Bloemfontein. Later he became officer in charge for the construction of military railways in the Transvaal and the Orange Free State.

At the conclusion of the Boer War, he was superintendent engineer of the Central South African Railway, then later he returned to Canada where he joined the construction staff of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. In 1909, Lieutenant Colonel Hodgins retired and made his home in the village of Duncan on Vancouver Island where he lived until the declaration of war in 1914. By 1915 he was organizing and recruiting for the first Canadian pioneer battalion, First Division.

In France, he became assistant director of light military railways. He served in this field of military service for eighteen months, then was invalided home to Canada. From 1919 to 1924 he was attached to the provincial department of Public Works as a district engineer for Vancouver Island. He was sixty-three years old when he ended his service for the government of British Columbia.

The HODGINS brothers ~~

In Ireland, Henry HODGINS and a woman with the last name MORGAN had a son names John HODGINS in 1786.

John HODGINS 1786 married a woman named Mary DALTON. They had four known children: John HODGINS in 1808, Michael HODGINS in 1815, Patrick HODGINS in 1818, Anne HODGINS (date unknown).

These four siblings came to Canada in 1847. The brother John HODGINS 1808 was already married at the time of their immigration. His wife was Catherine Ann COLLERY. They brought their 7 children with them: Thomas, John, Ann, Patrick, Catherine, Michael, and James. As I have found no other FITZPATRICK families in the York County area, I suspect that the brother Patrick brought his wife Bridget FITZPATRICK with him from Ireland as well. The brother Michael and sister Anne were unmarried at the time of the voyage.

From 1845 to 1847 Ireland suffered a disastrous famine resulting from the failure of the potato crop. Irish farmers found their food stores rotting in their cellars, the crops they relied on to pay the rent to their British and Protestant landlords destroyed. Peasants who ate the rotten produce sickened and entire villages were consumed with cholera and typhus. It is believed that between 1845 and 1851 more than 1,000,000 died of disease and starvation.

Landlords evicted hundreds of thousands of peasants, who then crowded into disease-infested workhouses.

Other landlords paid for their tenants to emigrate, sending hundreds of thousands of Irish to North America and other English-speaking countries. But even emigration was no panacea -- shipowners often crowded hundreds of desperate Irish onto rickety vessels labelled "coffin ships." In many cases, these ships reached port only after losing a third of their passengers to disease, hunger and other causes. Large numbers of people emigrated to Canada; it has been estimated that by the end of 1848, through emigration and deaths resulting from famine, the population of Ireland decreased by more than 2 million people during the peak of the great potato famine. The HODGINS brothers and sister crossed the ocean in one of those infamous overcrowded "coffin ships" in 1847. The voyage across the Atlantic lasted as long as ten weeks. Most of the immigrants were poor as they traveled in steerage with ten weeks of eating mostly cold porridge. These boats had no sanitary facilities so the stench was unbearable.

The four siblings settled in King Twp, York Co, Ontario, just south of the town of Glenville on the 2nd concession. They were a few minutes west of Newmarket. The nearest Catholic church, St. John's Chrysostom, was in Newmarket.

By 1851 John HODGINS 1808 had built a one story log cabin on his 50 acres of property and was growing wheat, oats and potatoes. He had 3 milk cows which produced 50 pounds of butter that year. He also owned 1 pig.

The brother Michael (our ancestor) married soon after arriving in King Township to Elizabeth DALTON. Whether or not she is related to Michael's mother Mary DALTON is not known.

The brother Patrick married a woman named Bridget FITZPATRICK. They started their family in 1849 having a total of 8 known children.

John and Patrick raised their families in log cabins. Michael had a frame house, which apparently wasn't necessarily any WARMER in the winter. Their lands were right beside each other.

I have not found anything on the sister Anne. I have not found her listed with her brothers in any census and have yet to find a burial place for her.

The brothers were all diligent members of the St. John's Chrysostom Catholic Church in Newmarket. They all had their babies christened there, with each other being the godparents. All the HODGINS "cousins" stood up for each other at each other's marriages ... it was often very hard to figure out who was who ... because of the 3 very large families and all the cousins with the same or similar names ... very challenging!

John and Patrick have lovely headstones over their graves ... our Michael HODGINS 1815, his wife Elizabeth DALTON and their son John Joseph HODGINS are also in the same cemetery, but in unmarked graves.

Michael's second wife has a headstone, and the lower half has sunken into the earth. Possibly more information is on the lower half as more than one body is often buried in the same grave.

The following email was received from Cheryl, 11 July 2010:

Through my research I found a cousin (Stacey Horne) who offered information that was given to his father by an aunt doing research in 1969. He had copies of her notes, in which she mentions all the children below. Her notes said that Thomas died at sea enroute to Canada and that Sarah died at age 9 in Ireland. She does not quote the source of that information. At Ancestry.ca I also found christening dates for Thomas and Sarah with parents listed as Henry and Sarah and the birthplace/parish matching those of their siblings. I too questioned the year the family arrived in Canada. The notes my cousin shared with me said that Henry and wife Sarah came to Canada in 1841. In further pages of her notes she mentions the year 1841 again. In census records I have seen the children of Henry and Sarah state their immigration year as 1847 and 1855. Did they really not know???? And I am confused about the birthplace of William and Margaret too. My early notes say they were born in Ontario (and I didn't mark the source) and my later notes say Ireland (based on census). I will have to do more digging.....

NOTE:: the 1841 immigration date appears to be the one from HKF, p282. This appears to be in error and should be 1849 or 1847. The 1849 year appears to be more correct then the 1847 as the youngest child was born 1848 in Ireland. See notes for Margaret Hodgins.

She was born 1712 in Birmingham, Chester Co., Pennsylvania, U.S.A., and died 1752 in Guilford Co., NC, U.S.A..

Notes for George Hodgson, Sr.:

Ref: p 314-315 chp 112 "HODGINSKINDRED FOREVER". George Hodgin lineage is not known (old info) See section HODGINS--KINDRED FOREVER below for text from that source.

NOTE**

New information received June 2000 indicates that the lineage of George Hodgins is unknown and shows proof as to why he is not the son of Robert.

This lineage, as a son of Robert, was being used temporarily until the proper lineage is found until the proof came in 2000 that this was not the case!!!!.

The following is the text received that shows the disputed lineage problem(received 12 June 2000 from Hank Hodgin):

Two Places at the Same Time?

The largest family tree at SHARE (a printout of it presently requires 275 A4-size pages at font 10) contains about 5,000 marriages and 15,000 names that includes over 1,300 Hodgsons! To date eighteen of our family tree donors trace their roots back to George Hodgson b.6 Jan 1701 at Chester County PA USA., this family tree's earliest-known forefather. There are no predecessors prior to this George, yet people keep turning up who believe otherwise!

Their mistaken notion seems to have originated in the pages of the late Clay Hodgin's book Early History of the Quaker Hodgson-Hodson-Hodgin Family, published 1988. On page 31 Hodgin wrote, "George, eldest son of Robert

II and Sarah, was born in 1701 and was left no inheritance. Family tradition asserts this was because he and wife Mary Thatcher, also a Quaker, eloped without Chester Meeting approval or the approval of their parents." On page

33, he wrote that "George had been disinherited by his father."

Noted Quaker author/writer Gwen Boyer Bjorkman takes exception to this father-son relationship. In a letter to SHARE in 1998, she wrote, "I am a descendant of George Hodgson and have tried to prove his parents. All I can prove is who his parents are not. I am so sorry that so many people have been led astray by bad research." The following is a capsule review in a nutshell of her findings. Both Robert Hodgson and his wife Sarah left wills in Cecil Co MA USA (Bjorkman has copies). There is no George Hodgson listed as a son of Robert and Sarah in these wills. One cannot declare that George was disowned and then use that statement as proof that he was not named in their wills!

Bjorkman goes further. She points out that Robert HODGSON, son of Robert HODGSON, is said to be living in Kent upon Delaware in 1744. His will, made 11 Jan 1765, names the following heirs: sons Robert, William, David, and daus Mary CATLIN, Margaret PRICHARD. Exec'rs are brother-in-law Andrew CALDWELL and son Robert

HODGSON. Wits. are Preston BERRY, Jane CALDWELL, Ann REYNOLDS, David CALDWELL. Prob. 12 Aug

1767. Arch. vol. A24, pp.129-131. Reg. of Wills, Liber L, folios 33-34.

Robert HODGSON's son Joseph HODGSON wrote a will in 1759 naming his uncle Andrew CALDWELL and his brother Robert HODGSON Jr. as Trustees. Robert and Train HODGSON were witnesses to a will in 1733.

Therefore Robert was married to Train when he sold [1744] that piece of land in Cecil County that he inherited from his father. The son William HODGSON left a will in 1770 naming his daus Esther and Train and his brother

David as Exor. (Calendar of Kent County, Delaware Probate Records 1680-1800, Dover DE Archives Commission, 1944, p.229.)

Note! This cannot be the Robert HODGIN who m. Theodate in 1740 west of the Susquehanna River in what became York Co PA. He or his wife were witnesses to Quaker marriages there in 1740, 1748, 1749, 1756. You just cannot be in two places at the same time. It also looks like the Robert of the 1765 Kent Co DE will is the eldest son of Robert and Sarah of Cecil Co. The 1765 will cannot be Robert and Theodate who are in NC in 1760 and they leave for SC in 1771.

Robert HODGSON d.1733, wife Sarah n,e BORDEN d.1748. Their son Robert HODGSON b.c1698, d.1767 Kent

DE, m.Train CALDWELL. Their son Robert HODGSON is mentioned in his brother's will in 1759 and in his father's will in 1765. None of these are Robert HODGIN who m.Theodate SEALS in 1740 in York Co PA.

Conclusion: There is absolutely no evidence that George Hodgson, b.1701 at Chester Co PA, is the son of or was disowned by Robert. Therefore George's parentage remains unknown.

Footnote: Hank Hodgin, one of our family tree donors for the above family tree, wrote to SHARE, saying, "I ran across a reference on the Internet that said George Hodgson (b.1701 PA USA) was the son of John Hodgson, the son of Robert and Sarah Hodgson, the son of Robert Hodgson. From the records that I have, and from information that Gwen Bjorkman sent me, John, the son of Robert, was about 10 or 12 years of age when George was born-- not a very good candidate as a father. The Robert-George connection can be laid to rest.

Recent information from Y-Chromosome DNA testing on two members who are descendants of this George Hodson and Mary Thatcher show a match of 36/37 Allele markers. The only difference is for #464d which show 16/15

HODGINS--KINDRED FOREVER: p314[see also Chpt. 7, p16 for Irish Ancestors]

"This family is closely related to the Wicklow Hodgins but it seems one branch was transplanted to the American side of the Atlantic early in the 1700s when Margaret Hodgin was still living at Armagh.

There was a group of Quakers at Lurgan near Armagh at that time as reported in American documents. Some members of this assembly emigrated to Pennsylvania in the early 1720s, traveling in the Myers' emigration ships. At that time, or perhaps somewhat earlier, Edward Hodgin, with his wife and large family left Armagh for America. It is not certain whether they were with a group of Irish Quakers or on some other ship t some unspecified tragedy took place at sea and only one child of the Hodgin family reached Pennsylvania. His father, mother, sisters, and brothers had all died at sea. American records list the boy as George "Hudson", his age is not given. Fifty years later or more, George related the details of the strange and terrible tragedy to his own grandchildren but little of the story was ever written down.

George was given a home with the friendly Quaker families of Chester County, Pennsylvania. Thre is no record of George ever joining the Quaker movement but he spent the .

In early times, parish records in Northern Ireland list of name Hodson, Hodgson, Hodgin, Hodgins, Hodgens, -- and, in many instances, they are referring to the same family, and sometimes even the same individual. Spelling had no set pattern or standard in those days. Exactly the same free style of spelling appears in the Quaker meeting records of Pennsylvania and North Carolina."

Descendants of Branch-08A Hodgins

Generation No. 1

1. Branch-08A¹ Hodgins ((00Root-Hodgins)^A) died Unknown.

Notes for Branch-08A Hodgins:

Some researcher have made the assumption that this branch is from the Belledune Hodgins line that immigrated in 1821. This seems highly improbable as William married Sarah Ludlow in early 1821 or possibly 1820 and the Belledune Hodgins line did not come until sometime in 1821. The more likely immigration path for William Hodgins is via the Military base that was on Campobello Island as that is where his wife Sarah Ludlow was born. More research is required on this.

One possible method that could be used to determine what Hodgins line that these Hodgins families descend from is to use Y-Chromosome DNA analysis to determine the profile and compare it to other Hodgins lines that have been tested as well. This will take a the co-operative effort of several people to determine what line they descend from. The best approach here would be to use the 37-Marker test as any test with fewer markers would only be useful if the Haplogroup was completely different for this branch.

Child of Branch-08A Hodgins is:

- + 2 i. Maine-New-Brunswick² Hodgins, died Unknown.

Generation No. 2

2. Maine-New-Brunswick² Hodgins (Branch-08A¹, (00Root-Hodgins)^A) (Source: HKFbLH, p271-274 for Belledune Hodgins line..) died Unknown.

Notes for Maine-New-Brunswick Hodgins:

William and Edward Hodgins/Hudgins may not be brothers; however, they were both in the 1851 census for St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.

Edward is shown as being in NB for 29 years while William is shown as 31 years.

Children of Maine-New-Brunswick Hodgins are:

- + 3 i. William³ Hodgins, Sr., born 1786 in Ireland; died Abt. 30 May 1875 in Calais, Maine, U.S.A.;

Generation No. 3

3. William³ Hodgins, Sr. (Maine-New-Brunswick², Branch-08A¹, (00Root-Hodgins)^A) was born 1786 in Ireland, and died Abt. 30 May 1875 in Calais, Maine, U.S.A.. He married Sarah Ludlow Bef. 1820, daughter of William Ludlow and ? Wilson. She was born Abt. Ref: Edward and William assumed to be brothers, no proof.

Edward is shown on the 1851 Census for New Brunswick. He is shown on page 50 of St. Stephen Parish . Age 52, Labourer, 29 years since date of entry into the colony (i.e. came to New Brunswick in approx. 1822). On the next page, 51, William Hodgins is shown as age 51 and entered the colony 31 years previous.(i. e. entered in 1820).This lineage of Edward is not proven. He might possibly be attached to the Hodgins of the Belledune area of New Brunswick who arrived in about 1820-1825. (See HKF p271-274 for Belledune Hodgins line) This seems highly improbable as William married Sarah Ludlow in early 1821 or possibly 1820 and the Belledune Hodgins line did not come until sometime in 1821. The more likely immigration path for William Hodgins is via the Military base that was on Campobello Island as that is where his wife Sarah Ludlow was born. More research is required on this.

Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason

Another link with the storied past of this district was severed Monday March 6, 1933, with the passing of Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason, great-granddaughter of Daniel Hill, pioneer settler of Calais at the home of her nephew Adelbert Hill, at the Ledge. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Hill was born at the Ledge June 16, 1854, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, but following her marriage to William Nason took up residence at Oak Point where she remained until her husband's death. Later she returned to the Ledge to make her home with her sisters, the Misses Alma and Elizabeth Hill, and following their deaths continued to reside there in the summer months, spending the winters with her nephew Alelbert Hill and Mrs. Hill. Her grandfather, Daniel Hill, was the pioneer settler of Calais and one of the sixteen founders of Machias in 1743. A brother, Marshall Hill living in California, survives her.

The funeral service was held at the home of her nephew Wednesday march 8, Rev. Gordon Fraser of the United Church officiating. The choir of the church attended and rendered very beautifully the hymns "After" and "Christian Goodnight". The pallbearers were Marvin Watson, Charles Young and James Purdy. Interment was made in the hill family cemetery at the Narrows.

The following email segment was received from Cheryl C. on 16 Nov. 2006:

He was a sea captain of a sailing vessel, b. 1854 d. 1921. There is a headstone for him at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Bangor; however, he's not buried there. There are a couple stories...but the fact is, his body was never found. He drowned on one of his trips ferrying lumber from Maine to points down south. One of the less glamorous stories is that he may have imbibed too much and fell overboard.

I did find this article:

From the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, Nov. 22, 1894:

"...By virtue of the authority in a certain mortgage bill of sale of the whole of the schooner Walter G. Hall, of Boston, Mass., of the burthen of 51 8-100 tons; her tackle and appurtenances now lying at Winterport, given by F. W. Hodgins to John Levis, dated Boston, Mass., April 22, 1893, and recorded in the Custom House, Boston, book 175, page 178, for breach of the conditions of mortgage B. P. Hall, of Winterport, will sell the schooner, her tackle and appurtenances at public auction, on board the schooner at Winterport, on Friday, November 23rd, at two o'clock in the afternoon..."

The proof for this connection of Frederick W. Hodgins as the son of Edward Hodgins is sort of weak. According to the 1861 census there is nobody in the home of Edward Hudgins/Hodgins by the name of Frederick or William but the names/age are Edward/12, James/10, Peter/8, and John/6 for the males and the females are Augusta/14.

In the 1871 census the following names appear.

5	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Edward	M	48	NB	W.Meth	Irish	Ship	Carpenter	M	5
6	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Hannah	F	43	NB	W.Meth	Scotch			M	6
7	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Agusta	F	20	NB	W.Meth	Irish				7
8	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Edward	M	19	NB	W.Meth	Irish	Labour			8
9	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Frederick	M	17	NB	W.Meth	Irish	Labour			9
10	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Leonard	M	15	NB	W.Meth	Irish				10
11	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Archibald	M	10	NB	W.Meth	Irish				11
12	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	George	M	7	NB	W.Meth	Irish				12
13	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Frank	M	5m	NB	W.Meth	Irish				13
14	1	103	320	371	Hodgins	Hannah	F	5	NB	W.Meth	Irish				14

As you can be seen, Frederick, age 17, appears for the first time as he must have been the one called either Peter or John in the 1861 census. Since this is the only record that I can find on a Frederick that might fit then the case is weak but at least something to go on.

Other documentation that will substantiate the claim that your Frederick W. Hodgins is the son of Edward and Hannah (Bray) Hodgins must be obtained. The connection is being made at the present time until proven otherwise(AEK)

d. Tay Creek (York Co.) 6th April, Wm HODGINS, age 55.

NOTE::

The birth place for William D. Hodgins comes from his death record where his wife stated that he was born at Campbellton, NB. [NOTE:: name could also be Campbeltown] If this is correct then we at least know that he came from the northern part of New Brunswick and is probably connected with the Hodgins that were at Belldune River area in Gloucester Co., NB. See Chp 103, p271-274 in "Hodgins --- Kindred Forever" for information on that line. However, this may not be true as the "Crown Land Grant Index" shows a William Hudgens received the following land grant: Location: 39 St. John River, Southampton Parish, York Co., 200.00 acres, 13 Jan. 1787.

In order to prove this, Y-Chromosome DNA testing of at least two males by the surname of Hodgins, one from the Beldune Group and the other who is a descendant of William D. Hodgins need to be done to see if they match. A 37-Marker test is suggested. Once this is done then other autosomal DNA tests could possibly be done to see if a connection could be found.

She is survived by her older sisters Lenore and Opal and younger brothers Jim, Bernard and Jack. Mom spent her lifetime in the Salmon Arm area with the exception of a move to Cranbrook B.C were she married Lloyd in 1947. They returned to Salmon Arm in 1960, children in tow.

Marie spent her working years in the service industry, working at Maes Dinner as a waitress then later at the Super Valu as a cashier.

Mother's hobbies included fishing, camping, and gardening.

Many will remember her for her awesome abilities in the home canning department, she was famous for her

Dill pickles, black cap and huckleberry jam.

Mother had a love for socialising and often would be found beneath the willow trees at her home having a lake pop with friends.

She will be sorrowfully missed by her three children Sharon, Jim and Wayne, her sisters and brothers, six grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

Our thanks to the doctors and nurses for their kind and compassionate care of our mother during her final days. Mother has requested no service; a celebration of life will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Shuswap Lake Hospital Foundation. Box 265, Salmon Arm, V1E 4N3 or a charity of your choice.

Arrangements entrusted to FISCHER'S FUNERAL SERVICES & CREMATORIUM LTD., condolences and memories may be sent at www.fischersfuneralservices.com.

Descendants of Branch-09 Hodgins

Generation No. 1

1. Branch-09¹ Hodgins ((00Root-Hodgins)^A) died Unknown.

Notes for Branch-09 Hodgins:

Y-Chromosome DNA tests have been done on two descendants of this line. One member is from Br-09A and the other is from Br-09B. Note the difference in surnames as one is Hodgins and the other is Hopkins. Since 64/67 Allele Markers are identical it indicates a common ancestor with a surname that could be either of the two indicated. The ones that differ are: 389-2 = 33, 32; 557= 14, 15; and 444= 14, 13 . When the time to a common ancestor is analyzed with a FTDNA TiP report, the 50% probability is about 6 generations back in time which indicates that the common ancestor is recent.

See the following URL for a comparison of their Allele values

<a target="_blank"

The following email note was received from Melvin Hopkins on 26 June 2006. This was in response to a Post-em left for a KBrown database on WorldConnect.:

That is an old file which she hasn't been able to update and was information passed to us from an aunt on who they thought our great grandfather Alex's mother was. She (aunt) was told that his mother was an Ashley that didn't marry his father but married a Sanders or Saunders. The only Ashley to match this was Martha Jane who married John I. Sanders in 1853. So we now believe his mother to have been Martha but no actual proof other than the fact than an uncle told this aunt that her father (William Irving Hopkins) had a half uncle Jim Sanders (son of John and Martha Sanders maybe?) and a half uncle Jim Hopkins (son of David and wife Susan maybe?).

The census indicates David and Susan Hopkins had a son named James. I have not been able to locate the Sanders past their 1853 marriage in any census. Martha was in the household of her father Thomas Ashley in 1850. I have also not been able to locate great-grandfather Alex in the 1870 census and some question about the 1860 location but this is what we are basing it on plus the fact we knew we were related to some local Ashleys that moved to our area from that area. We didn't know much as our grandfather didn't talk about his father because of him being born out of wedlock.

After being told by this uncle that the old man that came in the store he owned was her dad's half uncle Jim Sanders my aunt questioned my grandfather and he told her this about his father's relationship to the Sanders and also that Alex's Father was David Hopkins. Alex never lived with or knew either but was raised by his mother's father so we are told.

Based on this information, the tracking of the ancestral lines becomes very difficult and DNA testing of a known son of David Hopkins would be the only way to determine if the story is correct or not. Since David Hopkins married and had sons then it should be possible to find a living male descendant who could be tested and the results compared to that of the descendants of Alexander Hopkins.

Notes for William Guillaume Hodgins:

The following email segment was received from Pat Carson, 27 May 2007:

The William that I mentioned is in the Canadian ancestors Chapter 15 in the Parish of Montreal, between the years 1766-1787. He was a private in 1778 with the Queens own Rangers and in 1779 promoted to Corporal and in 1780 and 1782 he became a sargeant. Do you have anything on his family other than he married Magdalen Baker? Who were his family? Pat Carson

The following may be for the William Hodgens/Hodgins shown as Br-13. Notes being added here to show what was in the following source:

History of the settlement of upper Canada(Ontario), By William Canniff, Great Britain, Army, King's Royal Regiment, 2nd Battalion, p104

"William Hodgins was born on a small island, known as Ginn's Island, lying about three and a half miles from the Virginia shore, in Chesapeake bay, where his father, Lewis Hodgins, had a farm of two hundred acres. He joined the Royal army with his younger brother Lewis, in 1778, servng in the regiment known as the Queen's Rangers, under Lord Cornwallis; where he held the rank of sergeant, and his brother that of corporal. At the battle of Yorktown, he was wounded and taken prisoner, and his brother was killed. After the exchange he came to New Brunswick, and settled about thirty miles above Fredericton, on the St. John's river, where he lived until 1859, when he removed to Canada. First settling at Adolphustown, near what is known now as Cole's Point. He joined the incorporated militia during the war of 1812, serving under Colonel McGill, and Colonel Shaw. He received the right to considerable land; but after the capture of York, now Toronto, by the Americans in 1813, and consequent destruction of property, the documents pertaining to the same were burnt, and he could not, as a consequence, get his grant. Immediately after the war of 1812, he removed to Marysburg, where he remained until his death.

The above information is received from Mr. William Hodgins, son of the above mentioned William Hodgins, who is now an old man, he having served with his father in the war of 1812.

[It would have done you good to have heard the old gentleman, with his silver locks flowing in the wind, whitened with the frosts of four-score winters, as he descanted upon scenes and incidents in connection with the war, through which he served, and to have witnessed his eye twinkle with pride, when he referred to the loyalty of his honored parents.]--(Ashley)"

Additional info received from Paul St.Germaine, 7 July 2017:

"I can agree that William was a ranger, but the following story claims that William lived in New Brunswick until 1859. Records indicate that he was married in Montreal in 1783."

More research required on this line to try and determine where they fit.(AEK-July 2017)

Notes for Brian John Hodgins:

Hodgins, Brian John

In loving memory of Brian John Hodgins, 52 years, who passed away Thursday, September 7th, 2000 at his home and surrounded with his loved ones. He was born and educated in Sudbury (Laurentian Univ 1969) and married Ruth Caswell in 1970. Brian was a devoted and talented classroom teacher, having worked for Sudbury Rainbow Board of Education until 1996 when his health declined. Brian served on Science Fair and Olympic committees and enjoyed his work and affiliation with many wonderful students and colleagues. Brian was a member of St Peter's Church and has served on Church Council. He carried with him always a deep faith; many took strength and comfort from Brian's courage and openness as he navigated with dignity and humor the challenges of his long illness. He inspired many. Fellow members of the Lions Club of Sudbury appreciated his wit and keenness of mind. Brian served on the executive and chaired several committees. He was a Mason, a member of Friendship Lodge 691 A.F. & A.M. In all of his ventures, Brian showed a large measure of goodness-of-heart, of patience and of generosity of spirit. He could be depended upon for words of support and wisdom as well as comments that brought joy and laughter to those privileged to share his life. In his youth, Brian enjoyed years of Scouting. He was a gifted bowman and held a Junior Title with the Nickel Belt Bowmen. In later years, he enjoyed downhill skiing with his wife and sons. Brian was an avid do-it-yourselfer and intrepid problem solver; his creative and organizational abilities he leaves with his offsprings. Brian's passion and priority in life was his wife and sons. He and Ruth enjoyed a blessed marriage: they were best friends, life partners, fellow professionals, lovers and care providers. Brian was lovingly addressed as "dad" by many who visited his sons in their family home. For Brian, the comings and goings of young people was a great source of amusement and pride. Beloved husband of Ruth (Caswell) Hodgins of Sudbury. Cherished father of Bern (friend Meg Reid) of Calgary and Bill (friend Diane Wilson) of Ottawa. Loving son of J. Melville and Beatrice Hodgins of Sudbury. Special son-in-law of Laure Caswell and the late Bill Caswell (predeceased Oct 1990). Dear brother-in-law of Mary Margaret Deeth (husband Alan), Craig Caswell (wife Elaine), the late "Corky" Caswell (predeceased July 1991) (wife Irene predeceased) and Laura Jean McNeill Medina (husband Gino) (husband John McNeill predeceased 1986). Sadly missed by aunts Velma Munro, Aria Harwood, Barbara Walker, Shirley Cantelon (husband Homer) and Dolores Koronovich (husband Roy) and by many cousins, nieces and nephews, greatnieces and great nephews, many friends both young and old and neighbors. Left feeling quite miffed is Brian's devoted Wheaton Terrier pal (and punk) Oakley. Resting at JACKSON & BARNARD FUNERAL HOME, 233 Larch St, Sudbury. Funeral service will be held at St Peter's United Church on Monday, September 11th, 2000 at 4 pm. Cremation at the Parklawn Crematorium. Sudbury Star; 2000-9-10

Nichols, George B. (1865 - 1916)

The subject of the following sketch was a former resident of this vicinity, and will be remembered by many of the Greenwood, Clark County people. His boyhood days were spent on a farm near here, and nearly thirty years ago he moved to Minocqua, Wis. The obituary was taken from the Minocqua Times.

Died at his home in this village Wednesday morning March 22, 1916 at 4:30, George Brydon Nichols at the age of 51 years, 3 months and 28 days, the cause of death being dropsy brought on by a complication of other diseases. The deceased was born at London, Ontario, on the 5th day of November 1865 and at the age of five years came with his parents to Greenwood, Wis., where the family located on a farm. Here George remained until the early 90 s, when he came to Minocqua where he has made his home since. He was united in marriage to Miss Emiline Anderson at Chippewa Falls eleven years ago. To this union were born three children, Dorothy, Grace and George, all of whom are still living. Besides his wife and children he leaves to mourn his loss one brother, John Nichols of Duluth, Minn., two sisters, Mrs. John Huntzicker of Greenwood, Wis., and Mrs. Edward Carpenter of Seattle, Wash.

The funeral services will be at the Methodist Church Friday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Lewis of Tomahawk and Rev. Bean of this place will conduct the services and interment will be made in the Woodruff Cemetery. The Woodruff I.O.O.F. lodge and Modern Woodman Camp of Minocqua, both of which fraternal orders he was a member, will march in a body to and from his grave. That Mr. Nichols was a beloved citizen is impressed by the extensive preparations being made for his funeral by his fellow citizens and fraternal brothers.

He was gifted with a character so deep and serene that none bore him enmity. Death could not have called from our midst a better example of pure manhood. At all times and under all conditions he walked in the well beaten path of righteousness and when fully conscious that he was nearing his last, he appeared to be fully impressed that the bright faith which sustained him during those trying hours of suffering would only grow brighter as he journeyed toward the infinite, and the final gloom of death be dispelled by the radiance of God's love. The memory of his life must prove a perpetual inspiration.

Marriage Notes for Emeline Anderson and George Nichol:

Birth range would be 1841-1842 or 1844-1845 for Thomas based on his age shown in the marriager document(35 or 32)

NOTE::

Thomas Hodgins was a farmer who lived in Maple Township, Dickey Co., ND as per "A History of Dickey County, North Dakota, Chapter XXVI, Maple Township, p131-62. The name Thomas Hodgins is mentioned twice on page 207 Link to page. This is frame 208 out of 334 for the total document. Maple Twp., is from p205-214. This translates to frame 206-215

Land Location:

Southwest 7 source: Frame 206/334

NOTE::

The date of birth must be checked from the actual Tombstone as it appears that an error is shown in the information from Find a Grave or if the tombstone shows the year of birth to be 1818 then Thomas lied about his age by saying he was 30 years younger than he actually was. If this is true, then it is possible that he was married previously and had a family which he either abandoned or just left after his wife died or he may have just abandoned her. His name may have also been different which makes the search for him in the 1850/1851, 1860/1861, and 1870/1871 census just about impossible.

The actual parentage of Thomas Hodgins is unknown and it appears that speculation is rampant with people speculating who his parents are. They show no proof or justification for the choices of parentage. Speculation has no place in genealogy research!!!!

Based on the age of Thomas Hodgins as reported in the census, the following assumption can be made that he was born 1845-1847 as the census was taken in June and his reported date of birth was March. If this range of birth years is used to search for a Thomas Hodgins then only 3 possible individuals are found. Two of which are married and not possible answers, while the third is born about 1845 and no further information is known on him. His ID number is 8967, The following link shows what is known on this person Thomas Hodgins, Jr. possible connection. . However, when further searching was done it was found that this Thomas lived Lucan, Biddulph Township, Middlesex County, Ontario and could not be the same as the Thomas who died in ND.. Results so far, show no possible parentage and more research is required.

When the search range was increased to 1844-1848 then 8 persons are shown. The only one that is not married is a Thomas Walker Hodgins, ID 11997 shown at the following link: Thomas Walker Hodgins. . Subsequent searching found that this Thomas Hodgins was not the correct one as he died in 1918 in Carleton Co., ON.

Since no possible connection has been found then one can still go on to the next step which is required even if a possible match is found. The only difference being that one does not know the number of generations back to the common ancestor. This is not an easy task and will require the use of DNA testing to prove the connection. Autosomal DNA testing can find connections within 7 generations of the person being tested and this is within the range of those living today and the common ancestor. If DNA matches are found then they should show a 3rd-5th-remote cousin range. This requires that the person who matches must have a complete Pedigree to prove where the connection exists. This is the main area of concern as most people who have the Autosomal DNA test do not show a Pedigree that is complete to this range.

More than one person who is a descendant of Thomas Hodgins and Rebecca Dyson need to have the Autosomal DNA test done. Descendants of two or three of the children of Thomas and Rebecca need to be tested so that if a match is found then all those tested must also show the same range of shared DNA. This will prove that the connection comes from either the Hodgins or the Dyson lines.

The test lab suggested for this is FTDNA as that test lab indicates the amount of shared DNA as a numeric value and not just that a match has been found as given by the Ancestry.com test results. If Ancestry.com is used as the test facility then the results should be transferred to FTDNA for further analysis as Ancestry.com does not indicate the amount of shared DNA and the possible number of generations back to the common ancestor. The suggestion that FTDNA be the testing lab is now clouded by the fact that they have changed their way of presenting the data which has made their "In Common With"(ICW) option just about useless. the fact that FTDNA gives the amount of shared DNA is still a positive point compared to Ancestry.com. This is as of 29 Oct 2016.

Anyone reading this document and who fits the above requirements and is willing to have a Family Finder DNA test done(cost is about 100 USD) is asked to contact me at the following email address: arnie-krause@shaw.ca for further details.

My greatgrandfather John Thomas Hodgins was born in Canada about 1845 (according to the 1885 Dakota Territory Census). His father was Joseph Hodgins, born in Ireland. Joseph was married to Hannah Croft, who was born in England. Two of John Thomas's sons were born in Michigan, John Joseph and James Garfield Hodgins. I would like the address you mentioned in your message board. Any other information would be appreciated. Thanks, Marlene

There is information about Thomas Hodgins in "A History of Dickey County, North Dakota" pages 205 and 207. Contact Judy Hicks.

His parents from Judy Edmond via Scott Naylor, 30 Dec 2000

Alfreda shows the Thomas Hodgins, b 1818 as the father of the Thomas married to Rebecca Dyson. Notes are: I do not have a connection with this family and the Hodgins who came to the Ottawa and London areas at this time. This family is being traced by Marlene Emerson and Judy Edmond. - Alfreda

Marriage Notes for Thomas Hodgins and Rebecca Dyson:

Marriage Document shows the following for the ages:

Thomas as 35 or 32 yrs,

Rebecca as 22 yrs

Birth range would be 1841-1842 or 1844-1845 for Thomas and 1854-1855 for Rebecca. Looks like they both lied about their ages or this is not the correct couple!!!!!!

Witnesses: Wm. and Eliza McClellan both from Marquette, MI

The following information is posted on the Find a Grave website:

Robert Hodgins

Birth: 1892

Death: 1909

Information re: burial location and inscription (if applicable) came from survey by Maggie Rail, 2001-2012
mrail.net/data/cemete/wash/spokane/greenwood/index.htm

Another contributor has suggested that Robert's middle initial was "I." No sources were provided, and I could not confirm the accuracy of the suggestion.

A "Robert I. Hodgins," age 16 and the son of Thomas Hodgins and Rebecca Dyson, died in Spokane City on February 21, 1908. However, the Rail survey gives the year of death for the Robert buried at Greenwood as 1909. It is possible that Miss Rail made a mistake in her transcription, but I have no reason to believe that she did. Washington State Death Records do not show that anyone named "Robert Hodgins" died in that state in 1909, but many of the people buried at Greenwood died in states other than Washington.

Inscription:

Robert Hodgins
