Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

The information from a webpage at the Campobello website on the  Early Holmes Families  by Dale Barteau, and the WILL as shown above are what gives the required information to show this family unit. He married Abigail Matthews. She was born 1780, and died Unknown.

Notes for Jonathan Holmes:

The following is from WG database:

Death reported in Eastport Sentinel. Aug. 18, 1827 issue. Gave age as about 60.

Jonathan was on Campobello in 1811 as a 38 year old member of the Militia.

Jonathan was a fisherman who traded at nearby Popes Folly Island and also at Indian Island as well. We have old records that prove that this statement is true.

Since Jonathan died in L'Etete and his level of trading activity (referred to above) seemed to diminish just a few years before his death we are suggesting that the families of Jeremiah, Robert, Joseph, and Stephen who are to be found living all together in the L'Etete are on the St. George census for 1851 are his. This could be true and it could only be partly true and it may not be true at all.

It appears that this information is from a webpage at the Campobello website on the  Early Holmes Families  by Dale Barteau.

Notes for Abigail Matthews:

The following email was received from Pamela Stowe, 1 Mar. 2013:

I have spent the last week digging out information on these St. George Parish families:

Wentworth, Chambers, Matthews, and Fountain.

A short term goal is to figure out the one in each family who arrived to the area earliest. Like with the boat loads in 1783, and from where they might have come.

It is like a puzzle and you never know just where you might find that missing piece!

About my own tree, I am not really sure just who was indeed Jonathan Holmes' wife, I see I have put the name of Abigail Matthews down for his wife, but I don't remember if that is actually valid. We know Jonathan's two sons married Chambers woman.

Robert m. Charlotte Chambers

Stephen m. Elizabeth Chambers

Jeremiah m. Hannah Hillard/Hilyard

Joseph m. Abigail Matthews

But I don't seem to know with assurance if the wife of their father Jonathan was indeed an Abigail Matthews.

The Matthews family is a tough one to figure out. I find two different lines in St. George,

1. Francis Matthews and wife Thomasine w/ 7 chn. all from Oyster River aka Newcastle NH.

2. Wm. Matthews b. 1766 in Frankfort Maine, the present day area of Hampden south along the Penobscot. For Wm. I can not find a wife or any other children besides, Martha Matthews b. 1792. Martha married Thom. Wentworth b. 1792 Frankfort.

This Wm. Matthews b. 1766 have you any other information on him? I am trying not to confuse the Newcastle and Frankfort Matthews as the generation go on.

Holmes Families

This Robert Holmes with a wife Charlotte may not be the son of John Holmes who is just shown as a Son with a wife of Charlotte, 1813-1882, in the book "Passamaquoddy Genealogies of West Isles Families" by Martha Ford Barto. All indications based on the dates of birth and death of Charlotte tend to point in the direction that she is the same one who was the wife of the person named "Son" in Barto's book, p107. This connection is being made until proven otherwise.(AEK, Jan. 2006)

Notes for Conflicting evidence from Caroline Young vs George Young:

Conflicting evidence: The birth date for Caroline and George R. Young clearly shows that there is an error in one of the dates. Since the date of death for Caroline is known and she died at age 3 months then her date of birth is assumed as correct. The date of birth for George R. Young is from his death document and appears to be incorrectly given as 1837 when it should have been 1836 as George was 14 in 1851 and 24 in 1861 which gives his year of birth as 1836-1837. Notes for George Young show the following ages from census:

Ref:

1851 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p 9 , house #122, age 14

1861 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p16, age 24

1871 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist 175L, p 40, family#146, frame 21/29, age 33, widower

1880 Census, Eastport, Washington Co., ME, ED#177, p27/232C, family#219, frame 27/41, taken 14 June 1880, age 44

1900 Census, Lubec, Washington Co., ME, ED#211, p1A/250A, family#9, frame 1/61, taken 2 June 1900, age 62(Aug 1837)

As a result of the information from the census, it would appear that George was born in 1836 and not 1837.

Notes for Albert S. Holmes:

Oconto County Reporter June 6, 1885

Sad Accident

The Denver Tribune-Republican of May 20th contained the following account of the drowning of Mr. Albert S. Holmes who was a nephew of Mr. Charles T. Pendleton of this city; Albert S. Holmes of Denver was drowned in Grand River, at the mouth of Derby Creek, last Thursday morning, about 20 miles north of Dotsero. He was a roadman of the Burlington survey party, now at work in that section. He is the son of Captain J. R. Holmes, residing at No. 315 Twenty-Third Street, this city. About two years ago he was graduated from the business department of Denver University, and for nearly a year has been with the Burlington engineers along the Grand.

Bringing the news to Denver

Yesterday Mr. J. H. Harvey, one of the engineering party, arrived in the city, having come for the purpose of informing Albert's mother of his death. Captain Holmes was at Silverton at the time, where he was immediately notified of the sad affair soon after it occurred. Mr. Harvey the day previous had given the information to the correspondent of The Tribune-Republican at Red Cliff, but asked that the name be not used until after the parents could be informed of the fate of their son.

In relating the circumstances of the case yesterday to a Tribune-Republican reporter, Mr. Harvey said that the accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock on the morning of the 26th inst. Their surveying party, numbering about fifteen, was camped at the mouth of Derby creek. On that morning Albert Holmes and Daniel Cullen got into a small boat to take a rope across the Grand River, to be used in transferring the pack animals of the party.

Frank Boyden accompanied them to the edge of the water and assisted them in getting in to the boat.

The Rapid Current

The current is very rapid, having a velocity of about eight miles an hour, and at the point the stream is about 300 feet wide. Holmes and Cullen apprehended no danger, as they were both good swimmers. After they had gone about fifty feet from the shore the force of the current upon the rope became so great that it upset the boat, and both men were thrown into the water. When the boat capsized they both retained their hold on the rope, but as the current was so very swift and rapidly sweeping them around, they were compelled to loosen their hold. They both then started to swim to the shore. They both then started to swim to the shore. Cullen sank once, but succeeded in reaching the pole thrown out to him by Boyden, who was standing on the bank.

Drowned near the shore

Young Holmes was not so fortunate. When within about twenty feet of the shore, Holmes sank the first time. Boyden tried to reach him with a pole, but did not succeed. Holmes sank the second time within two feet of the pole, and the third time he rose, his hands and the top of his head were only visible. Every effort possible was used to save the young man's life, but the swiftness of the current was too much for them. As Holmes was a good swimmer, it is thought that he was taken with a cramp. His body has not yet been recovered.

Yesterday Mr. Harvey called upon Holmes mother and informed her of the sad event, and both mother and daughter were grief stricken at the horrible news. Mr. Harvey said that Holmes had been with the surveying party for nearly a year, and was a general favorite.

The reporter called at Denver University yesterday afternoon, where only kind words and expressions of sympathy were uttered by his teachers in his behalf.

Ref:

1911 Census, St. George Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist. 17, p10, family#97, age 21, shown as Brother-in-law. This entry looks suspicious but the following from Pamela Stowe helps to clarify some of the ancestry.

The following is from a Post-em received 5 May 2007

Name: pamela stowe

Note:

Warden McLeese b. 1889 is not the son of Archibald McLeese, rather the grandson. Warden's full name: Howard Warden McLeese, s/o Nelson and Hortense (McNichol/Holmes) McLeese. Howard Warden was born 17. Oct 1886.

The following is from an email received from Pamela Stowe( my questions to her are shown at the end), 26 July 2012:

Arnie,

It is not speculation, no speculation at all.

Nelson and Hortense had four children between 1881 and 1888 - Albion, Frances Bell, Warden and Clara Irene.

When Hortense was pregnant with Clara Irene, the youngest,, Nelson died, that was a1888. Nelson's eldest son, Albion is my great grandfather, and to complicate matters, Frances Bell the second child, is my great grandmother.

This oddity is because Albion's son married Frances Bell's daughter, these children married each other, first cousins.

So, When my 2great grandfather died, Hortense had four small children. By 1893 Hortense married Arthur M. Ferris in Eastport. Hortense died of TB August of 1894. Thus her four children were orphaned. The siblings of Nelson McLeese took Nelson and Hortense's children in.

Warden also went by the name Warden Howard McLeese and Howard Warden, just as his younger sister went by Rene Clara and Clara Irene.

Warden eventually married Ethel Hooper. Warden's paternal grandmother was Abigail Hooper. Warden and Ethel had a number of children and all I can say is they would be shocked to see what has been written regarding Warden's legitimacy.

I have a copy of the pages in the family bible showing the births of Nelson and Hortense's 4 children

After Nelson died, Albion pretty much stayed with his mother and worked on ships. Frances Bell moved to Ansonia CT with her paternal aunts Mary McLeese Chubb and Keturah McLeese Wentworth. Warden lived with his paternal aunt Pricilla McLeese Hooper and eventually married Ethel Hooper. Warden died 1953.

Arnie, I really do take offense at your assumption my request for this correction is speculation. If anything your comment regard Warden is unadulterated speculation and slander. Please make the correction to convey the truth. Warden was not a bastard son of one of Archibald's daughters. This is my family your are talking about.

Curious, what is your connection to the family?

Best regards, Pamela Stowe

Hi Pamela,

I have had contact with you previously about this.

What is your proof for what you say?? Or is it just speculation??

Lowell Brown was my great Grandfather. He was born on Campobello Island, New Brunswick to Clara SEARLES and William O. BROWN. Lowell was living on Grand Manan Island in 1891 at the age of 8 with the JOHNSON family. His mother and two other siblings were still living at Campobello. I believe his father had died by 1891 but have yet to find a death date.

Lowell remained with the JOHNSON family until he was of age and would soon marry Jessie BEAL, also of Grand Manan. They would remain there the rest of their lives and have a large number of descendants.

The following is Lowell's obituary which would have been published in the Telegraph Journal, Quoddy Tides or the Saint Croix Courier. (I believe it was the Courier).

LOWELL BROWN DIES IN HOSPITAL

The death of Lowell Brown occurred at the Grand Manan Hospital on April 15 following a period of failing health. He was 80 years old. He was the son of the late William and Clara Brown of Wilson's Beach.

KATHERINE P. H. SNELL
librarian, historian

HALLOWELL - Katherine Phyllis Holmes Snell, 82, a local librarian and historian, died Wednesday at Kennebec Valley Medical Center in Augusta. She lived at 5 Grove St.

Mrs. Snell was born in Lubec, a daughter of Clayton Scott Holmes and Elsie Adeline (Greenlaw) Holmes, and attended Lubec schools until her family moved to Calais in 1924.

She graduated from Calais Academy in 1928 and spent a year at Oak Grove Seminary in Vassalboro. She graduated from Colby College in 1933 with a major in history and later studied library science.

In 1935 she married Burrill Dexter Snell. The two traveled throughout the United States before moving to Hallowell in 1943. Mr. Snell died in 1983.

Mrs. Snell worked in department stores in Waterville and Portland and was a homemaker for many years while raising her family. She worked for a year at the Gardiner Public Library and in 1963 she became the head librarian at the Hubbard Free Library in Hallowell. She retired in 1987.

Mrs. Snell was a local historian and co-authored a book with Vincent P. Ledew for the Hallowell Bicentennial in 1962 called "Historic Hallowell."

She was also known for the miniature furniture and trees she created in the workshop in her basement. She sold tiny Christmas trees she decorated using costume jewelry and other handmade ornaments.

Mrs. Snell served on the Hallowell School Board for six years.

She was also a member of the Augusta Country Club, Questers, Lubec Historical Society, Kennebec Historical Society, New Brunswick Genealogical Society, St. Andrews Society of Maine and Row House, Inc.

She is survived by two sons, Jere Rollins Snell, of Raleigh, N.C., and Stephen Holmes Snell of Washington, DC; and a daughter, Mrs. Walter (Anna Mary Snell) Curtis of Vassalboro.

-Karen Hamilton

A biography of Katherine Phyllis Holmes Snell from the funeral program of her Service of Remembrance held on Saturday, February 6, 1993, at the Old south Congregational Church in Hallowell, Maine:

Born December 2, 1910, Katherine Phyllis Holmes was the daughter and only child of Lubec dentist, Dr. Clayton Scott Holmes and Elsie Adeline Greenlaw Holmes. She was a first generation American. Both of her parents were born in New Brunswick, Canada, and were of English, Scottish, and Irish heritage.

She spent her early years in Lubec and attended Lubec Grammar School. In 1924, her family moved to Calais where she attended Calais Academy, graduating in 1928. She spent the following year as a postgraduate student at Oak Grove Seminary in Vassalboro, Maine, before entering Colby College. She graduated from Colby in 1933 with a major in history. Subsequently, she returned to Colby in the early 1960's for library science courses. After college she became a department store trainee working in department stores in Waterville and Portland.

On May 20, 1935, she was married to Burrill Dexter Snell of Fairfield whom she had met while attending Colby. They were married at the home of her family who were living in Gardiner. Katherine and Burrill ("Red" as he was known) were happily married for 48 years until his death in 1983.

After her marriage she traveled throughout the United States for a year with her husband who was a salesman. They settled in Portland, Maine, where he became a credit manager for the Noyes Tire Company. In 1943 Burrill Snell opened his own tire business in Augusta and they moved to Hallowell. Here Katherine Snell lived for 50 years raising her family and becoming involved in a number of community projects. She had three children, Jere, Stephen, and Anna Mary. Interested in education, she served on the Hallowell School Board for six years, working hard to improve the quality of the Hallowell School System.

After completing library science courses at Colby, she spent one year working at the Gardiner Public Library. She then became Head Librarian at the Hubbard Free Library in Hallowell, a position she held for 24 years, from 1963 through 1987. As town librarian, she sought to develop the library as a useful and much needed resource for individual and community projects. It also became an opportunity for her to use her research skills by assisting with the many inquiries on Hallowell history and genealogy.

In 1962 Katherine H. Snell co-authored with Vincent P. Ledew "Historic Hallowell,": prepared as part of the Hallowell Bicentennial. She was a talented miniaturist, well-known for her hand-crafted miniature Christmas trees, and a collector of the wide variety of historical objects that interested her, including glass and dolls. She was an active member of the committee to restore the Dr. John Hubbard, Jr. office in Hallowell, and served on the Board of Row House.

She engaged in extensive genealogical research on her family history, uncovering much information on the Greenlaw, Holmes, and Snell lines. At the time of her death, she was researching the Italian heritage of Hallowell.

In 1991 she was honored as Hallowell's Citizen of the Year, an honor of which she was immensely proud.

Katherine Holmes Snell was an individual of strong character who possessed a great sense of duty. She devoted herself to her family whom she greatly loved and by whom she was much loved in return. She believed in community service and directed much of her energy to worthwhile project that would both improve and create a better understanding of her community. She will be sadly missed by her family and many many friends. She is survived by her three children, a daughter-in-law, a son-in-law, five grandchildren, and five great grandchildren, as well as several cousins.

From a memorial card for Eliza Scott, a great-grandmother to Katherine...

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

The following was read at the funeral for Katherine Holmes Snell:

I have got my leave.
Bid me farewell my brothers!

I bow to you all and take my departure.

Here I give back the keys of my door--
and I give up all claims to my house.

I only ask for last kind words from you.

We were neighbors for long,
but I received more than I could give.

Now the day has dawned
and the lamp that lit my dark corner is out.

A summons has come and I am ready for my journey.

From "Gitanjali" by Rbindranath Tagore

The following was read at the committal service for Katherine H. Snell on May 15, 1993. It was provided by her dear lifelong friends and college roommate, Mary Palmer Mills.

"Death is not extinguishing the Light:
It is putting out the Lamp
because the Dawn has come."

Burrill D. Snell

HALLOWELL -- Burrill D. "Red" Snell, 73, of 5 Grove St., widely known Augusta area businessman and civic leader, died unexpectedly Friday at his home. He was the husband of Katherine Holmes Snell.

He was born at Fairfield, son of George N. and Harriet Snell. A graduate of Coburn Classical Institute, he attended the University of Maine at Orono, and graduated from Colby College, class of 1932.

He had been employed by American Oil Co., Portland, and Forster Manufacturing Co., Strong, moving here in 1943, where he owned and was president of Snell Tire Co., Augusta, until 1966. He sold the company to Noyes Tire Co., and was employed by Noyes as a marketing manager and assistant to the president, retiring in 1976.

Mr. Snell was a member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity at UMO. Active in civic affairs, he was a member and past president of the Rotary Club, serving as auctioneer for the Rotary March of Dimes Radio Auction for many years, past president of the Augusta Country Club, past president of the Maine Tire Dealers Association, member and past president of the board of directors and chairman of the building committee of Augusta General Hospital, member of the board of directors of the Kennebec Valley YMCA and the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the board of Kennebec Valley Community Chest, member of the board of Depositor's Trust Co., and currently was a trustee of the Helen W. Fuller Memorial Fund, and chairman of the board of trustees of the Kennebec Savings Bank.

Surviving in addition to his wife of Hallowell, are two sons, Jere R. of Raleigh, N.C.; and Stephen H. of Baltimore, Md.; a daughter, Mrs. Walter (Hannah) Curtis of Maxfield; a step-sister, Mrs. George (Jeannette) Quarmby of Sarasota, Fla.; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Knowlton and Hewins Funeral Home, 1 Church St., Augusta.

Two notes about the above obituary:

1) My father, Burrill D. Snell was the son of Florence Burrill Snell, not Harriet Gould (Bates) Snell. His mother, Florence, left him, his older brother, and his father while the children were very young. He was raised by Harriet Snell whom he always thought of as his mother. Immediately after my father's death there was a great deal of discussion within the immediate family about how this should appear in Dad's obituary. It was inconceivable to the family that Harriet Snell, whom my father deeply loved as a mother, would not be credited as his mother in the obituary, since she raised him from a very early age. I don't think my father remembered his biological mother and never saw her after she left him, his brother, and his father. I only remember him mentioning her once in my life, and not kindly. I did not know that my grandmother Snell was not my biological grandmother until her death in 1953. She was always called and referred to as "Ma" by my parents, both of whom deeply loved her. - S.H. Snell

2) Also, "Hannah" should be Anna in the obituary. - S.H. Snell

- 859 ii. Stephen Holmes Snell, born 13 March 1942 in Portland, Cumberland Co., ME; died 10 January 2008 in Alexandria, VA.

Notes for Stephen Holmes Snell:

Stephen H. Snell

ALEXANDRIA, Va. -- Stephen Holmes Snell died of pancreatic cancer, Jan. 10, 2008, at his home in Alexandria.

Mr. Snell was born in Portland, Maine, March 13, 1942, son of the late Burrill Dexter Snell and Katherine Phyllis (Holmes) Snell of Hallowell, and grandson of the late Dr. Clayton Scott Holmes and Elsie Adeline (Greenlaw) Holmes, late of Lubec, Maine.

He was raised in Hallowell, where he attended Hallowell public schools. He graduated from Berwick Academy in South Berwick, Maine, in 1960 and from The College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va., with a degree in history in 1966.

He was professionally active in historic preservation in Newport and Providence, R.I.; Portland, Maine; Boston; and Ellicott City, Md. In Boston, he was active at the Massachusetts Historical Commission. Beginning in 1983, he worked successively for a variety of associations in Washington, D.C. At the time of his death, he was employed as an association consultant in Alexandria.

Mr. Snell was community oriented and active in a number of organizations. He was an active advocate for gay and lesbian civil rights, serving as membership director and treasurer of the Gay & Lesbian Activists Alliance of Washington, D.C., where he substantially increased the membership and revenues of the organization, helping to make it more effective. He also was a member of the board of directors of the Gay and Lesbian Education Fund, a nonprofit fund associated with the Alliance that makes grants for projects that educate the public about homosexuality.

He was founder and first chairperson and president of The College of William and Mary GALA Inc., an advocacy group for gay and lesbian alumni, and forged it into one of the most effective gay and lesbian alumni organizations in the country, credited with bringing several changes to The College of William and Mary, making that institution more sensitive to its gay-and-lesbian community. He was chair of the fundraising drive that successfully established an endowment at Swem Library at William and Mary for the purchase of gay and lesbian materials. He was also a founding member of the nationally based Network of Gay and Lesbian Alumni/ae Associations, NetGALA, in which he was also active.

He was an active member of the police training program of Washington, D.C.'s Gays and Lesbians Opposing Violence, where, on a volunteer basis, he assisted in training police cadets and recruits in professional behavior towards gays and lesbians, and helped to build the training into a strong program. For a brief period, he served professionally as the associate director for development at the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force, during which time he planned the first national gay and lesbian leadership conference ever held in this country. The NGLTF-sponsored conference was very successful and immediately became one of the most important national conferences for the gay and lesbian community. He also served as head of the landscaping committee for the Belle View condominium unit owners association.

He is survived by his life partner, Manuel Benjamin Suaste, of Alexandria; a brother and sister-in-law, Jere Rollins Snell and Sharon Snell, of Raleigh, N.C.; a sister and brother-in-law, Anna Mary Snell Curtis and Walter James Curtis, of Fayette, Maine; and several nieces.

A remembrance service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 26, at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Arlington. His ashes will be spread in his family plot in Fairfield, Maine, and the campus of the College of William and Mary.

In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to make remembrance contributions to the Earl Gregg Swem Library of The College of William and Mary, for the Richard Cornish Library Endowment Fund, which Mr. Snell was very active in establishing.

Notes for Pauline Ida Mitchell:

Pauline Miller

MILLER, PAULINE - of St. Andrews, NB, passed away quietly at her home on Wednesday, February 6, 2013. Born in Campobello Island on October 10, 1919, she was the wife of 63 years of the late George Hugh Miller Sr, the daughter of the late Carroll and Lena Mitchell and the sister of Burnham and the sister ... in ... law of Barbara Mitchell.

Pauline lived a long life filled with great joy not only through her close family ties but also by the numerous multigenerational friends that she encountered in the Maritimes, Montreal, and Waterloo, Ontario. Like many others of her generation, she left New Brunswick when she was accepted to go in training at the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal. Although she discontinued her nursing practice to bring up her family, she kept strong community ties through volunteer work and the United Church. She was keenly interested in people and their evolution in a changing world over the 93 years she was with us. As a true "Maritimer" she and her family returned to New Brunswick every summer so it was natural for her to settle in Saint Andrews at retirement. She is caringly remembered by her family, Hugh and Judith (Waterloo, Ontario), Carolyn and Jacques (Cannes France), Ian and Lisa (Ottawa), Bruce and Becky (Oakville), Manuel GUMBAU (Cannes). She became "GG" at the birth of her great grandchildren Ella and Devyn (Ottawa) and McKayla and Spencer (Oakville). She never forgot her origins and is lovingly remembered by the large and wonderful Mitchell Family (Stuart, Blake, Scott, Kevin, Gregory and families).

The funeral will be held on Saturday, February, 16th, 2013 at 2:00 pm at Wesley United Church, in St.

Andrews. Rev. Jane Doull officiating. A reception will follow in the church hall. The family will receive friends at the church during a time of visitation on Friday from 2 ... 4 pm. For Ian and Liisa (Ottawa), Bruce and Becky (Oakville), Sean (Cannes) and Manuel GUMBAU (Montreal), "Grandfather", "pepe Georges" was and is a vital part of their lives. He waited eagerly for his first great- granddaughter, Ella (Ottawa). His many friends and extended family from Campobello Island and around the world, all have delighted in memories of George. They went to him often for songs, poems, letters and speeches.

George was a graduate of Sir George Williams University in Montreal (B.A., B.Com.). Retired Senior Vice-President for Canada of Prudential Assurance of England, he thoroughly enjoyed his 45 years with the company in Montreal and Waterloo.

Notes for Lillian Adelaide Mitchell:

Lillian A. Fitzgerald

Lillian A. Fitzgerald

Fitzgerald – Lillian Adelaide, beloved wife of the late Philip T. “Dolly” Fitzgerald, died on Tuesday, March 29, 2016. She was born on March 19, 1930 to Walter & Alice (Corey) Mitchell on Campobello Island. She spent her time between Campobello and Meriden, CT, where she and her family had moved in 1955.

Lillian enjoyed baking and spending time with her family. Her vast variety of pies and sweet treats, always made with love, are sorely missed by her family. Lillian also loved to read, follow politics and current events. She also loved drawing; a talent many were not aware that she had.

Lillian is survived by daughters Carol Calcinari (John) of South Meriden CT, Andria Fitzgerald of Lubec, ME, and Cheryl Fitzgerald (James Rinaldi) of Middletown CT, grandchildren Traci Calcinari (Herve Kimball), Angela Dean (David), Philip Newman (Kinny), Jeremy Newman (Mary), Daniel Perez (Megan), Desiree Diogostine (Joseph), great grandchildren Lillie, Ava, Vienna, Lance, Colin, Olivia and Tessa, along with many nieces, nephews and cousins.

She also leaves behind her treasured sister Lois Calder of Campobello, who in the last years of Lillian's life was her constant support and faithful companion. Our family is truly grateful for our loving Aunt Lois.

Besides Lillian's husband and parents, she is predeceased by her much loved son Gordon, her brother and his wife Glen & Lorena Mitchell, her nephew Dana Mitchell, her brother-in-law Neil Calder, her brother-in-law and his wife Durrell & Margaret Fitzgerald and her parents-in-law, with whom she lived for many years Aden & Mae Fitzgerald.

For Nanny, her family was her life. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother & great grandmother. Beautiful sweet & caring are the words that described her; strong willed and feisty too. I think we would all like to think of her, sitting at the kitchen table on Campobello, making a raspberry pie. We will miss you; we love you Nanny! Notes for Edith 'Eydie' Mae Case:

Edith Mae Calder

January 06, 1948 - August 14, 2019

Edith "Eydie" Mae (Case) Calder died peacefully on August 14. She was 71 years old.

Eydie was diagnosed with polycythemia rubra vera in 1997. Her emotional and physical determination allowed her to live with the disease and treatments for over 20 years. In the early winter of 2018,

Holmes Families

Eydie's body developed acute myeloid leukemia. She faced life with cancer and chemotherapy with the same determination. There is no doubt about it, Eydie was a tough cookie. Yet she will be remembered most for her gracefulness, kindness, and love.

Born on January 6, 1948, in Lubec, Maine. Eydie was the oldest of 10 children. Her parents were Calvin "Coochie" Case and Vivian (Moore) Case. Eydie loved her family very much. She was proud to be born and raised in Lubec. In high school, Eydie celebrated her hometown pride as a majorette and cheerleader. She carried this spirit throughout her entire life.

After high school, Eydie moved to Portland, Maine and worked in the administration office at the Maine State Highway Department. In Portland, she fell in love with Roy Calder. Eydie and Roy married on October 24, 1970. They moved to Roy's native island of Campobello and built their home on North Road. Eydie was a dedicated homemaker and wife. She was a fantastic mother to their sons, Scott and Ross. She was also a caring grandmother to Ross's and his wife Marla's children, Gavin and Aselin.

Eydie was the bookkeeper for the family's fishing businesses in the mid-1970s through 2004. In the early 1990s, after her sons went away to university, Eydie wanted to work outside the home again. She learned new computer and bookkeeping skills. She found both plant and office work in the salmon processing industry on Campobello. In 2000, Eydie became a guide at the Roosevelt Campobello International Park. Eydie worked at the Park until she retired due to health reasons in 2012. Her work and the friends she made during her career meant a lot to her.

Eydie enjoyed toe-tapping music and dancing, including clogging to Elvis Presley's "Blue Suede Shoes". She also enjoyed having a good laugh, throwing fun picnics and beachside cookouts. She passed along these joys to her children and grandchildren.

In addition to her husband, sons, grandchildren, sisters and brothers, Eydie is survived by many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends. They will miss her dearly and together will carry on her memory.

Her family would like to thank Oncology Department staff at the Charlotte County Hospital, Saint John Regional Hospital and Dr Everett Chalmers Regional Hospital, and nurses with The New Brunswick Extra-Mural Program and Palliative Care Unit in St. Stephen.

Eydie will be laid to rest on Campobello Island. A wake service will be held at St. Timothy's Catholic Church on Wednesday, August 21 at 6 p.m. Family and friends wishing to give their respects before the wake may begin arriving at 4 p.m. A burial service will take place at the North Road Cemetery on Thursday, August 22 at 11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Charlotte County Cancer Society or the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Canada.

Marriage Notes for Phoebe Tapley and Albert Horne:

Marriage - Horne - Tapley

In a floral setting of green and white, with white candles, the marriage of Phoebe Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tapley, id Milltown and Albert Edward Horne, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Horne of St. Stephen, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Milltown United church, the minister Rev. D.C.

MacKenzie officiating.

The church was attractively decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride. The guest pews were marked with nosegays of daisies tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Barbara Frazee played the traditional nuptial music before and during the ceremony and Darrell MacPherson sang "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Mrs. Christopher Dunn as matron of honor and the misses Corinne and Maxine Horne, sisters of the groom as bridesmaids. Miss Joan Thornton, small niece of the bride was flower girl.

Manswell W. Quartermain of St. Stephen was groomsman and the ushers were Gilbert Irvine and James Tapley.

For her marriage the bride chose ivory satin fashioned with fitted bodice and yoke of net and orange blossom pointed lace, long sleeves and full skirt terminating on a long train encircled with lace. Her veil of tulle illusion fell from a coronet of silver beads and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Dunn wore a gown of shell pink net over satin; with pink shadow brim hat designed with satin crown and streamers, and carried a bouquet of blue chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were attired in identical gowns of yellow and blue taffeta with shoulder length veils in matching shades and carried yellow and mauve mums. The flower girl was attractive in green taffeta and hat of matching shade with a garland of pink roses and carried a nosegay of the same flowers.

Mrs. Tapley, mother of the bride, was gowned in teal blue satin with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Horne, mother of the groom wore black crepe with picture hat and black accessories. Her corsage was also of pink roses.

A largely attended reception followed at the home of the bride's parents where the rooms were decorated with bouquets of pink common and gladioli. In the dining room the bride's table covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a five-tier wedding cake, surmounted by a miniature bride and groom, encircled by pink and white streamers, falling from a chandelier and flanked by pink tapers in crystal holders.

A toast to the bridal couple was proposed by Rev. MacKenzie to which the groom responded.

Mrs. J.E. Greenough and Mrs. Frank Wilson poured. Mrs. Wilfred Kilpatrick served the bride's table and Miss Kay Milligan presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Forrest Peterson, Mrs. James Tapley, the Misses Gwen McKinley, Mary and Lois Dougherty, Ann Thornton, Freda McKinney and Avis Marsh.

The couple later left by motor on a trip to the New England States. For traveling the bride changed to a tailored suit of maroon gabardine with gray accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Out of town guests included Miss Gwen McKinley of Mount Denson, NS; Capt. and Mrs. J. Earle Tucker, Saint John; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haggerty and the Misses Lorraine and Elizabeth Haggerty, Blacks Harbour; Miss Judy Dick, Franklin and Richard Dick, of L'Etete.

It is with heavy hearts that the family and friends of David Horne announces his passing after a brief illness, on Thursday June 14, 2012 at the age of 57. Dave was the son of the late Albert E. Horne Jr. and Pheobe E. (Tapley) Horne.

Dave leaves behind his wife, Lana Hosain; brother, Mike (Darlene), whom he always admired and looked up to; nephew, Christopher; nieces, Kathryn, and Julie, along with great niece Sarah. He will be dearly missed by his best friend Kirk Kinney, colleagues at Enbridge Gas, his many friends and a special group known as the Snappers.

Holmes Families

He was predeceased by his sister Kimberly Bell.

Dave lived his life to the fullest and was gone in an instant. Just the way he would have wished. After taking early retirement from Transport Canada, Dave went back to school later in life and obtained a gas technician diploma. He shared his skills, knowledge, and leadership with Enbridge Gas until his untimely death.

If you were a friend to Dave you can probably look around and see something he designed, built, or fixed. A weekend rarely went by that Dave wasn't at one of his many friends homes helping out.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, June 19 at 1:00 p.m. at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B. In keeping with Dave's wishes there will be no visitation. In lieu of flowers, as expressions of sympathy, donations to the Charlotte County Cancer Society, Canadian Cancer Society, or a charity of one's choice.

PENNFIELD - Well-known lighthouse keeper, wharf agent and air force veteran Raye Brown of Pennfield is being remembered as a "go-getter" who packed a lot of living into his nearly 92 years on this old sod.

"Dad was a great talker, outgoing, and loved to tell stories," Rebecca Anthony, the eldest of his two daughters, said following the funeral of the avid sportsman, outdoorsman and family man last week.

"He was interested in politics, a supporter of all health care, and he liked to know what was going on," she added. "And he liked to get into discussions about it."

Active in Liberal politics, he once offered his name unsuccessfully for the party's provincial nomination.

Brown, who died on Nov. 17, didn't just like to know what was going on. Often, he was part of it.

He was a life member of Branch No. 39 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Blacks Harbour, and district commander of the Legion's St. Croix District, and a former president of both the St. George Curling Club and the Brunswick Curling Club, in Blacks Harbour.

He liked to shoot skeet and curled right into his 80s, but he was never happier than "when he was out fishing and hunting, especially if his (first-born) grandson, Andrew Anthony, was with him."

Brown also liked to cook, garden and, in retirement, enjoyed travels to places like Florida, California and Alaska in the company of his late schoolteacher wife Olive (English), a native of Deer Island, who died in 2003.

Born at Wilsons Beach, Campobello, on Dec. 6, 1915, Edward Raye Brown was a son of the late Willie and Gertrude (Ludlow) Brown.

His survivors include Anthony, of Pennfield, and her sister, Natalie Harris of Blacks Harbour; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

During the Second World War, Brown served with the Royal Air Force's Marine Squadron in Point Doichin, Que., Halifax and Shediac, where he earned tickets as a carpenter, diesel mechanic and stationary engineer.

He was still in uniform when he and Olive were married on Sept. 2, 1945, at the Baptist Church in Lambertville, Deer Island. Anthony recalled her mother, who had gone to Campobello to teach elementary school, telling her how her father was wearing a red wool sweater when she first laid eyes on him on the basketball court.

After starting married life in Shediac, Brown moved to the Blacks Harbour area, where he was to serve as head keeper of the Pea Point Light for 21 years. He and Olive started their family at the light. But once his eldest girl reached school age he purchased a big house at neaby Wallace Cove which, in the 1960s, became the mainland terminal for the Grand Manan ferry service. Brown finished out his working life as the wharf agent for Coastal Transport, the ferry operator, retiring around 1980. Shortly before retirement, the Browns also relocated to 225 Blacks Harbour Rd. in Pennfield.

"When Dad moved there, he became an avid gardener and had a big vegetable garden and raspberry canes and they were right into jam-making and pickling," said Anthony. "When we moved to the (Wallace) Cove and he was still on the lighthouse, he had to cook for himself. He made excellent stews and fish chowders. So, when Mom developed osteoporosis in later years, Dad was the one who made the pickles."

Brown's love of sports of all kinds, especially curling, continued long after his body kept him from taking part.

"It was nothing for him to stay up and watch the Scott Tournament of Hearts on TV until 3 a.m.," Anthony said of the onetime skip. "Dad still liked to call the shots."

Published Monday November 26th, 2007

PENNFIELD - Well-known lighthouse keeper, wharf agent and air force veteran Raye Brown of Pennfield is being remembered as a "go-getter" who packed a lot of living into his nearly 92 years on this old sod.

"Dad was a great talker, outgoing, and loved to tell stories," Rebecca Anthony, the eldest of his two daughters, said following the funeral of the avid sportsman, outdoorsman and family man last week.

"He was interested in politics, a supporter of all health care, and he liked to know what was going on," she added. "And he liked to get into discussions about it."

Active in Liberal politics, he once offered his name unsuccessfully for the party's provincial nomination.

Brown, who died on Nov. 17, didn't just like to know what was going on. Often, he was part of it.

He was a life member of Branch No. 39 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Blacks Harbour, and district commander of the Legion's St. Croix District, and a former president of both the St. George Curling Club and the Brunswick Curling Club, in Blacks Harbour.

He liked to shoot skeet and curled right into his 80s, but he was never happier than "when he was out fishing and hunting, especially if his (first-born) grandson, Andrew Anthony, was with him."

Brown also liked to cook, garden and, in retirement, enjoyed travels to places like Florida, California and Alaska in the company of his late schoolteacher wife Olive (English), a native of Deer Island, who died in 2003.

Born at Wilsons Beach, Campobello, on Dec. 6, 1915, Edward Raye Brown was a son of the late Willie and Gertrude (Ludlow) Brown.

His survivors include Anthony, of Pennfield, and her sister, Natalie Harris of Blacks Harbour; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

During the Second World War, Brown served with the Royal Air Force's Marine Squadron in Point Doichin, Que., Halifax and Shediac, where he earned tickets as a carpenter, diesel mechanic and stationary engineer.

He was still in uniform when he and Olive were married on Sept. 2, 1945, at the Baptist Church in Lambertville, Deer Island. Anthony recalled her mother, who had gone to Campobello to teach elementary school, telling her how her father was wearing a red wool sweater when she first laid eyes on him on the basketball court.

After starting married life in Shediac, Brown moved to the Blacks Harbour area, where he was to serve as head keeper of the Pea Point Light for 21 years. He and Olive started their family at the light. But once his eldest girl reached school age he purchased a big house at nearby Wallace Cove which, in the 1960s, became the mainland terminal for the Grand Manan ferry service. Brown finished out his working life as the wharf agent for Coastal Transport, the ferry operator, retiring around 1980. Shortly before retirement, the Browns also relocated to 225 Blacks Harbour Rd. in Pennfield.

"When Dad moved there, he became an avid gardener and had a big vegetable garden and raspberry canes and they were right into jam-making and pickling," said Anthony. "When we moved to the (Wallace) Cove and he was still on the lighthouse, he had to cook for himself. He made excellent stews and fish chowders. So, when Mom developed osteoporosis in later years, Dad was the one who made the pickles."

Brown's love of sports of all kinds, especially curling, continued long after his body kept him from taking part.

"It was nothing for him to stay up and watch the Scott Tournament of Hearts on TV until 3 a.m.," Anthony said of the onetime skip. "Dad still liked to call the shots."

Notes for Edith Mae Brown:

Edith May Brown
1927-2015

Mrs. Edith M. Brown of North Head Grand Manan Island passed away peacefully at the Grand Manan Hospital January 29, 2015. She was born almost eighty-eight years ago March 26, 1927, the eldest of nine to John and Lois (Ingersoll) Brown of Deep Cove, Grand Manan, NB. She married Herman (Hi) Brown of North Head where they raised their nine children, six girls and three boys. Edith is survived by five daughters; Sheila Wilson (Walter), Andrea Morse (the late Wellesley), Marlene Graham (Doug) from Sussex, Deborah Avery (Grant), Leola Ingalls (Joseph), three sons; Dale (Brenda), Dana (Denise), and Dwain Brown, all of Grand Manan. Two sisters; Marilyn Cary of Woodward's Cove, Selinda Ryder (Murray) of Moncton, four brothers; George Brown (Betty), Johnny Brown (Charmaine), of Grand Manan, Sherwin Brown (Jean) of Ontario, Bob Brown (Barb) of St. Stephen. Also will be missed by her eighteen grandchildren, twenty-nine great grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, and special friends. Edith was predeceased by husband Herman (2000), ten year old daughter Wendy (1967), sisters Leola Monroe (1958), Deanna Russell (2009), and son in law Wellesley Morse (1989). After graduating from high school Edith boned herring and did childcare. Children were her passion, joy, delight, and they were drawn to her. After marrying Whistle Roder Herman Brown and having nine children in eleven years she became a full time stay at home mom, a "born mother". She loved playing with the kids, cooking, providing a warm loving home which was open to all, especially kids and teens. Edith encouraged her children to get an education and four went on to be teachers. The family was musical so sang in many Island music festivals as well as appearing on the TV program "It's Time For Juniors". Being an avid gardener her large yard was covered with beautiful flower gardens. In later years she enjoyed watching the great variety of birds (some rare) at her feeders, reading and of course cooking. Edith loved her Savior the Lord Jesus Christ and her Church, North Head Wesleyan of which she was a member, and in younger years helped with children's programs as well as Missionary Auxillary. As a child Edith spent several months at the TB Hospital in Saint John for several months and for the past seventeen years has confronted death many times. She has had a strong will to live due to her love for her family and all the family babies being born, but finally her body wore out and she left earth for eternal life in Heaven with Jesus and loved ones there. Donations may be made to the North Head Wesleyan Church Building Fund, or to the charity of the Donor's choice. Visiting will take place at the North Head Wesleyan Church on Monday, February 2nd from 4-8 pm. The funeral will be held Tuesday, February 3, 2015 at 1:00 pm from the church with Rev. Stephen Brown officiating, assisted by Rev. Ryan Farrell, and Rev. David Ingersoll. Funeral arrangements are in the care of Ells Funeral Home Inc., 1199 Route 776, Grand Manan, NB E5G 1G2. Notes for Kenneth LeRoy Holmes:

Kenneth LeRoy Holmes

March 02, 1930 - December 29, 2016

Kenneth LeRoy Holmes passed away peacefully at his home on Dec. 29, 2016. He was born March 2, 1930 in McAdam NB, a son to the late Preston Randall and Mamie Alice (Hatt) Holmes.

Ken was predeceased by his wife of 57 years, Emily Josephine (Hooper) Holmes, as well as three of his four siblings. Ken and Emily had 11 children, and by the time Ken passed away, there were 46 surviving grandchildren and 45 surviving great-grandchildren in the family. Ken and Emily were predeceased by two grandchildren: Erin Holmes and Michael Wright. They were also predeceased by two great-grandchildren:

Alexis Densmore and Liam Densmore.

Ken was well known locally and across his home province as a kind and generous man who would help anyone in need. He worked hard to provide for his large family, from driving transport truck, to working at an Irving bunker station, to finally settling on his career as a beloved and respected municipal police officer with a reputation for being able to defuse any tense situation. Many times, Ken was called by special request of a victim or perpetrator, and he always responded even if he wasn't on duty. His love for people and his community permeated all he did.

In spite of his full family and career, Ken worked diligently to start an ambulance service for his growing community when none existed. It began as a completely volunteer service, funded through donations and Ken's own pocketbook, named Ken Holmes Ambulance Service after its founder. Years later it underwent an ownership and name change, being taken over by Ken's oldest son under the name Good Samaritan EMS, by that time with a complement of full time staff. In 2007 the service that began so humbly as a gift to the community had transitioned into part of the provincial ambulance system that exists today.

Ken was also an active member of his church, of which he was a founder. His love for his family and community was surpassed only by his love for his Lord. Ken's faith saw him through all the rough times that life brought his way.

Ken is survived by his 11 children; Preston (Patricia) Holmes of ON, Keith Holmes of NB, Ken Jr. (Tina) Holmes of AB, Elaine (Stephen) Densmore of NB, Debbie (Milton) Wilcox of NB, Don (Christa) Holmes of NB, Andrew (Barb) Holmes of NB, Earl (Paula) Holmes of NB, Jonathan (Dana) Holmes of NB, Joyce (Dwayne) Wright of NB, and Sue (Paul) Butler of ME; 46 grandchildren; 45 great grandchildren; one sister, Betty Jean Seaman, of CT and a large extended family.

Resting at the Old Ridge United Pentecostal Church, 8962 Route 3, Old Ridge, NB. from where the funeral service will be held on Monday, January 2, 2017 at 11 AM. Visitation will be held at the church on Sunday, January 1, 2017 from 6-9 PM

She was born 05 April 1941 in Moncton, Moncton Parish, Westmorland Co., NB, and died 23 January 2004 in Port Credit, ON.

Notes for Elizabeth Mae Secord:

CALDER, ELIZABETH MAE SECORD - With her usual courage and grace, Liz passed away peacefully and with dignity on 23 January, 2004 after a gallant battle of more than six years with cancer. She was surrounded at her bedside by immediate family and friends. Her remarkable intellect, modesty, keen insight, gentleness, and capacity for care and love will be sorely missed. Liz was born in Moncton, New Brunswick, on 5 April, 1941, the eldest daughter of Grace Secord and the late Gordon Secord of Lower Millstream, NB. She began her educational career as a teacher at schools in St. George, NB, and later in Lachine, QC. After receiving a B.A. from Acadia University in 1964, she was awarded an M.A. from the College of William and Mary in Virginia in 1967 and a Ph.D. in Psychology in 1978. She served as Assistant Professor of Psychology at Christopher Newport College (Now Christopher Newport University) in Virginia in 1971-73 before moving with her family to South Carolina. In Charleston, SC, she rose to become the Coordinator of Psychological Services for the Charleston County School District. Following another move to the Greater Toronto Area in 1981, she was employed as a School Psychologist for the Peel District School Board from 1981 until her passing. She became a Registered Psychologist in Ontario in 1982 and maintained a private practice locally for several years. Outside her profession, she loved gardening, was an avid keelboat sailor for several years, and enjoyed nature, rural areas, and seashores. Perhaps most of all she loved her two grandchildren. Although the years passed and her life path took her elsewhere, she never forgot her roots in the dairy farming region of Kings County, NB. She chose to end her days at home in the little house near Lake Ontario that she had come to love so dearly. For that, and for the relative ease in which she slipped away, we are eternally grateful to Dr. Douglas Mah, to the nurses of Spectrum Health Care, and especially to her oldest sister and dearest friend Ruth, and husband Garry MacLean of Moncton, Moncton Parish, Westmorland Co., NB. The entire family wishes to express heartfelt appreciation to nurse Dave Burrage of Spectrum Health for his gentle care, professionalism, and sensitivity, and to neighbours and friends who have been so helpful and supportive. Liz is survived by her mother Grace, her husband Dale, daughters Nancy Catton and Andrea Calder, son-in-law John Catton, grandchildren Kaitlyn Cole and Andrew Catton, sisters Ruth MacLean, Susan Lutes, and Margaret Vallis. Funeral services, arranged by Skinner and Middlebrook Funeral Home, were held at 11:00 am on Tuesday, 28 January at St. Andrews Memorial Presbyterian Church, Port Credit, Ontario, with Rev. Dr. James Cooper officiating. Following cremation, her ashes are to be scattered over the surging tides of the Bay of Fundy back home in Atlantic Canada.

Dorothy H Townsend Young

Birth: Sep. 18, 1932
Death: May 10, 2007

East Machias – Dorothy H. Young, 74, loving wife of Norman L. Young, passed away May 10, 2007 at her home with family by her side. She was born September 18, 1932 in Marion, the daughter of Clarence W. and Jeanette (Rice) Townsend. Dorothy was raised in Marion and Eastport, where she graduated from Shead Memorial High School. She married her childhood sweetheart in 1951 and together they embarked on an exciting life. They lived all over the United States as well as in the Philippines. Their greatest adventure, however, was raising their four children. She was devoted to her family and raised her family in a very loving home. Dorothy was a member of the Bridge Club for many years in Eastport and enjoyed the Gardening Club as well. She fully believed in and practiced her phrase "Go while you can", having fun with her sisters. She had a "green thumb", being able to grow anything and in the warmer months could be found outside in her flower and vegetable gardens. Along with her husband, she is survived by her sons, Michael N. Young and his wife Sally of Herman, and Larry L. Young and his wife Karen of East Machias; two daughters, Karen Ann Hallowell and her husband Keith of Edmunds, and Lois Jean Young of East Machias; as well as eleven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; three brothers, Wallace, Arthur and Joseph; and four sisters, Alice, Pansy, Connie and Patricia.

Marriage Notes for James Clark and Ruth McMorran:

MARRIAGE - Clark - McMorran

Kirk McColl United Church of St. Stephen was the scene of a pretty wedding at 2 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, August 1, 1948, when Rev. B.D. Earle united in marriage Ruth Helen, daughter of Mrs. Theodore McMorran and the late Mr. McMorran of St. Stephen, and James Vincent, son of Mrs. Emmon Clark and the late Mr. Clark of St. George. The church was attractively decorated with cut flowers. The guest pews were marked with white flowers tied with blue satin ribbon.

Miss Joyce Boles played the wedding march and nuptial music. Miss Arlyn Hoyt was guest soloist and during the signing of the register sang "Oh Promise Me". The ushers were Leland McGaw, nephew of the bride and Alexander Clark, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother who gave her in marriage. She was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned with tight fitting bodice with seed pearl embroidery and sweetheart neckline. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands. Her bridal veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms into a long train with embroidered border. Her only ornament was a four strand necklace of pearls, an heirloom of the family. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli mixed with fern and baby's breath, tied with long satin streamers.

Miss Velma McMorran, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a floor length gown of pale blue net with satin embroidered tight fitting bodice. Her veil was elbow length falling from a coronet of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a set of earrings and pin to match and to the organist and soloist, earrings. The groom's gift to the best man and the ushers were automatic pencils.

Ellison Clark, brother of the bridegroom was groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore a gown of royal blue crepe with black hat and black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of black crepe with white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was red roses.

Approximately 125 guests attended a reception immediately after the ceremony held at the home of the bride's mother. The bride's table was covered with an ecru lace cloth, centered with a beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake, flanked by yellow candles in crystal holders and yellow and blue streamers extending from a group of white bells on the ceiling to the corners of the table.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. B.D. Earle, to which the bridegroom responded.

Miss Margaret Smith, a close friend of the bride, and Miss Mary Clark, sister of the bridegroom, served the bride's table. Mrs. Theodore Sabine presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Albion Cook served the ice cream. Mrs. Leland McGaw had charge of the guest book, Mrs. Ralph McMorran and Mrs. Walter McGaw had charge of the gifts and assisted in looking after the guests. Mrs. William Smith, a cousin of the bride, cut and served the bride's cake. Others assisting were the Misses Sybil Bannister, Evelyn Bateman, Jaon and Sylvia McMorran, Lille Clark, Eunice Hyslop, Mrs. Millidge Caldwell, Mrs. Clifford McGaw, Mrs. Lloyd McNutt and Mrs. Philip Caldwell. Mrs. Angus Campbell and Mrs Edward Black were in charge of the kitchen.

Notes for Hazel Annie Hatt:

Hazel Casey Turns 80

Imagine Hazel Casey's surprise when she awoke on July 17 to find herself to be 80 years old.

Quite the feat, she lost both parents and husband Billy all in their early 60's.

On July 18 her two daughters Carla Chandlar (late John) and Cara Lou Stark (Phil) along with a good family friend, Charlene Hill, hosted an open house for the occasion held in Beaumont, Alberta.

Casey was pleased to have more than 60 friends drop by to celebrate with her and family, one couple coming from as far away as Peace River. She was showered with many good wishes, floral arrangements, and cards. She even received a "video phone" call from Carl and Phyllis in MacLean in N.B. Casey enjoyed their call as she was able to seem clearly during their conversation. She was especially blessed by the presence of all her family.

One of the highlights was all five grandchildren, Robin Casey (Tiffany), Randall Leavitt, Caleb and Julia Stark and her great grandson, Dayne Casey) all entered the room singing Happy Birthday while sporting T-shirts with her picture on the front labeled "Proud to be at Nana's 80th Birthday Bash." Listed on the back of the shirts was her family tree, from her parents down to her great grandson Dayne.

Casey was born to Roy and Florence Hatt on July 17, 1929 in St. George.

In proving seniors can meet any challenge, Hazel now has her own touch screen computer, complete with a personal email address and she is actually spending a bit of time on it each day.

Notes for Edward Wright:

Obituary - Edward Wright

Relatives and friends throughout Charlotte County were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden death of Edward (Eddie) Wright, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright of Sudbury Ontario.

The little boy drowned in Trout Lake, just across the road from his home. He was alone at the time and it is supposed that he had been playing on a float anchored on the shore of the lake and had somehow slipped and fallen off. The body was lying in eight feet of water and was discovered by a young boy Kalevi Hellston who ran for help. The body was brought ashore by his brother, 12 year old Daniel Wright.

Members of the Sudbury Fire department arrived and used the resuscitator in an attempt to get the boy breathing. Men of the Metro Ambulance who took the boy to Sudbury General Hospital assisted them. He was pronounced dead on arrival. His father employed by International Nickel, was at work at the time; his mother was at home.

He was born in Sudbury December 5, 1954, and attended McLeod Public school. He is survived by his parents and one brother Danny of Sudbury; a half sister Miss Helen Noddin of Blacks Harbour, N.B. and a half brother James Noddin of Rollingdam, N.B. He is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grovenor Wright, Beaver Harbour and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Craig, Blacks Harbour as well as a number of uncles, aunts and cousins in Charlotte County and Ontario.

Holmes Families

The largely attended funeral was held Wednesday June 6, from the Memorial Chapel of Jackson and Barnard's Funeral Home, Sudbury. Rev. Bernard Heywood conducted services, pastor of the St. Mark's United church. The bearers were three young cousins, Calvin Wright, James Wright and Robert Hooper and three young school friends, Gary Hawkins, Andrews Thompson and Edward Thompson.

Many beautiful floral tributes were received from neighbors and friends in the Lockerby district of Sudbury., testifying to the affection in which the young boy was held by all who knew him and included pieces from the staff of McLeod school; Lockerby Motors, the 1st Lockerby Scouts and Cubs association; the Converter Building of INCO Smelter; pupils of McLeod School; the Home and school Association of McLeod School as well as pieces from friends and relatives in Blind River, Peterborough, Hamilton, Blacks Harbour, L'Etete and Maces Bay.

Attending the funeral from outside points were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Craig, Miss Shirley Craig, Miss Helen Noddin, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Leavitt and Miss Linda Leavitt of Blacks Harbour; Mrs. Grovenor Wright of Beaver Harbour; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wright of Bracebridge, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Preston, Ontario; and Mr. Basil Taylor of Hamilton, Ontario.

Interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery, Sudbury. Both Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright are natives of Charlotte county; Mrs. Wright being the former Edith Craig Noddin of Blacks Harbour and Mr. Wright a native of Beaver Harbour.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the families in their tragic bereavement.

Notes for Kevin Ross Norman:
Kevin Ross Norman
1962-2012

At the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen NB on October 18, 2012, Mr. Kevin Ross Norman of St. George NB. On October 11th, 1962 Kevin was born at the Charlotte County Hospital, to John & Mary (Tucker) Norman. A baby brother to sister Karen and later a big brother to John Jr. Kevin is survived by his parents, brother John Jr., two very special nieces Kristi and Jennifer and Kristi's two children, Rachel and Tanner. He has several aunts, uncles and cousins, too great in number to list. Kevin was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Darrell and Rosie Norman, maternal grandparents, Clyde and Hazel Tucker (St. Andrews) and his ever loving sister Karen Rose Cooke.

Kevin has been a lifelong resident of St. George, attending the St. George Elementary and Fundy High Schools. Over the years he spent his leisure hours playing badminton, always working hard to improve his game. All who knew Kevin remember when he got his driver's license and his first car. He started driving and never really stopped. Kevin loved driving the back roads and driving to Fredericton Junction on the weekends. Another of his favourite pastimes was to play games on the computer. Kevin was a devoted and faithful fan of both the Toronto Maple Leafs and Toronto Blue Jays which often led to good natured ribbing and barbs from family and friends. Kevin enjoyed these times and would give as good as he got. Kevin loved his many talks with Grammie and so enjoyed their notorious games of Scrabble and her "50 lb. dictionary". Kevin was a worker, as a youngster he could be seen pushing his lawnmower throughout town, mowing various lawns. Later he worked at JDI for a few years and for the last 21 years he has been a dedicated employee of Connors Bros, Blacks Harbour. Kevin loved his little buddy, his dog Rocky. No matter the time of day or type of weather Kevin always had time to take Rocky for his walks, especially before work. Rocky has and will continue to miss his best bud, Kevin.

BLACKS HARBOUR - A 16-year-old Fundy High School student was killed Sunday night after his dirt bike was in collision with a pick-up truck at the junction of the Mountain Road and Blacks Harbour Road.

Jason Michael Kernighan, son of Karen (Leavitt) Kernighan (Brian Noddin) and Michael Kernighan (Karen Gordon), of Blacks Harbour, was pronounced dead at Charlotte County Hospital, where he was taken by ambulance following the accident.

Sgt. Greg MacAvoy of District 1 RCMP said the accident happened around 8:20 p.m. The pick-up truck had just started to pull away from the Mountain Road intersection when it was struck on the passenger side by the dirt bike. He said it was dark at the time, raining heavily and visibility was poor.

Born in Saint John Jan 29, 1989, Jason is survived besides his parents, by a sister, Amanda, of Blacks Harbour, maternal grandfather Vance Leavitt, of Pennfield, paternal grandmother Doris Kernighan, of St. George, as well as a number of aunts, uncles and cousins. The teenager enjoyed mechanics and fixing the bikes of the neighbourhood kids. He loved motorcycles and snowmobiles.

Notes for Sally J. Hawkins:

Sally J. Nabuurs
1954-2018

Sally J. Nabuurs It is with heavy hearts the family of Sally J Nabuurs (nee Hawkins) wife of Anthony (Tony) Nabuurs announces her peaceful passing surrounded by her family on June 3rd, 2018 at her residence in Beaver Harbour, NB. She was born in Blacks Harbour, NB on October 29th, 1954 to the late Floyd and Kathleen (nee Flagg) Hawkins. Besides her beloved husband of 41 years she is survived by joys of her life, her son Zachary (Jody) Nabuurs and her daughter Stephanie (Sean) Herron and her most precious grand children Madison, Matthew and Mackenzie Herron and grand doggy Franklin. She is also survived by her siblings Ruby (Bill) Scott, Coralie (George) Losier and Colin; Sister-In-Law Darlene Hawkins; Uncle Jimmy (Florence) Hawkins; and many nieces, nephews, cousins. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her brothers Derwyn, Kevin, Danny and Rodney.

Sally greeted everyone with her beautiful smile and always was interested in how you were doing as a person. When she was talking to you she made you feel like the most important and interesting person in the world. She was devoted to her family. She was always there for her children having time for them, listening to them, making their lives fun. During her whole life right to the end it was in her nature to always think of the other person not herself. Whether it was moving to where her husband worked, looking out for her siblings or her coworkers, volunteering with Brownies, figure skating, school lunch, soup kitchen, Sunday school, home and school, heart and stroke, committee for new school for New Maryland, or "finding" an extra school bus for an overcrowded bus route she was always giving of herself to others. She would take the last twenty dollar bill out of her pocket and go without to feed a person on the street who was down and out of luck.

Arrangements in the care of the St. George Funeral Home (755-3533) 26 Portage Street, St. George NB. As per Sally's wishes there will be no visitation or funeral service. Cremation will take place. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Saint John Regional Hospital Oncology or to a charity of your choice.

Notes for Connie Louise Haddon:

Connie Louise Hatt
1962-2017

Connie Louise Hatt Unexpectedly, at the Saint John Regional Hospital, Saint John NB on August 6, 2017, with her husband and family by her side, Connie Louise (Haddon) Hatt, wife of David Reid Hatt of Back Bay NB. Born in St. Stephen NB on February 2, 1962, she was a daughter of Rev. H. David Haddon and the late Shirley Ann (Richardson) Haddon. A loving wife, sister, aunt and friend, in addition to her beloved husband, David, Connie is survived by her father: Rev. H. David (Allyson) Haddon of L'Etete NB; sisters: Joan (George) Richard of Scoudouc NB and Vicki Haddon (Ross Norman) of St. George NB; nieces: Melissa Haddon, Julie Richard and Jessica Richard; nephews: Shane Haddon, Matthew Haddon and Camden Hatt; one uncle: Richard Richardson of Richardson NB; aunts: Audrey Cline of St. Stephen NB and Marjorie Leeman of Fairhaven NB and many cousins and friends. Connie was predeceased by her mother, Shirley Haddon.

Connie was always a very creative person and her passion for this creativity finally found its home in her jewelry business, "Echoes of Erin" with a store, Water Street Fine Crafts, located in St. Andrews. On her path to that business, which she poured herself into, she operated a wedding cake business, a porcelain doll business and worked in a flower shop. Her line of jewelry was unique with many Celtic influences. Connie loved all things Celtic; books, music, history, etc. She was well loved, well known, was kind, compassionate and loving, yet she was a very private person and kept a lot of her life private. She loved her fur babies, "the Newfs", Morgan, Rachel and Travis. Connie was also a very active member of the St. George Church of Christ where her father has pastored for many years. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.

The family would like to thank the doctors and nurses at the Saint John Regional Hospital for all their care and compassion shown to Connie over these last few months.

Resting at the St. George Funeral Home & Crematorium Limited, 26 Portage Street St. George NB with visiting at the funeral home on Wednesday from 6-9 pm. The service will be held on Thursday at 2 pm from the Church of Christ St. George with Lou Outhouse officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Charlotte County Cancer would be appreciated by the family.

Longtime teacher left mark on community

BLACKS HARBOUR - Christmas, and maybe Halloween, too, might not seem quite the same at Blacks Harbour this year.

People would come from miles around to see the seasonal lights and displays that the late John Charles Munroe erected outside his home. The tradition will likely end with the death of his widow, Helen Josephine Munroe, at her home on Sept. 2 at the age of 66.

More important than the lights, hundreds of young scholars will remember the help that Helen Munroe provided them as a private tutor after she retired as a teacher.

"I think the ones she tutored, she felt like they were her grandchildren," Munroe's daughter, Kimberly Anderson of Moncton, said in an interview Wednesday.

She taught school 32 years, most of it Grade 3. She started private tutoring in reading and mathematics after she retired, at the request of teaching colleagues.

"Mom just got these calls," Anderson said. She tutored from 2 to 9 p.m. six days a week, spending an hour at a time with each student.

"I know she had about 25 kids each year," Anderson said.

Munroe enjoyed teaching the younger ones, but tutored some in Grades 9 and 10.

She took only Saturdays off, but made it to the Blacks Harbour Wesleyan Church on Sunday especially after her husband John died several years ago.

She enjoyed walking, especially with her dog. Years back she made a name for herself as an athlete.

"Basketball was the one she was most known for," Anderson said. She went with the local high school team to the provincial championship one year.

"When she was in her 50s, she played softball with me," Munroe's daughter said. "Mom was extremely competitive."

Anderson and her brother, Kevin, also of Moncton, grew up with sports. Their father built basketball and badminton courts in the yard.

"I figure skated all my life, my brother played hockey," Anderson recalled.

Munroe belonged to the Brunswick Curling Club.

She also enjoyed gardening. She looked after the one-acre property after John died, and walked through the village. The children came home at Christmas to help put up the lights after their father died.

A close group of women friends, mostly widows, saved a seat for her at church.

"I know that she was a regular at church, she rarely missed," said her pastor, Rev. Jeff Hoyt.

Her daughter said Munroe was "probably the most kind and generous and loyal person" to have in your corner."

Munroe was born in Blacks Harbour on Sept. 13, 1942, a daughter of the late Muriel and Oscar Craig.

Her sister, Shirley Blinn, and brother, Arnold, live in Coniston, Ont., brother Danny in Moncton and brother Jimmy in Calais, Maine. She is survived by half-siblings, nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family got together on Aug. 1 when Shirley came to visit, with only Arnold missing.

"Danny and Jimmy and Shirley," Anderson said. "So it was a nice get together that day."

Others praised the contribution the Munroes made to the community.

"She had an exemplary career as an educator and as well, even after retirement, she continued to tutor kids from her home," Blacks Harbour Mayor Terry James said Wednesday.

"Their home had an extravagant Christmas display every year, and it was a gift to our community," the mayor said. "It was such a contribution to our community, and it's a shame that it's going to end."

The Munroes were involved in the community arena, hockey and other activities, James said. They kept themselves physically fit.

James' mother, Eleanor Greenlaw, recalled Anderson - Kim Munroe, she was then - playing minor hockey years ago.

"They were wonderful people," Greenlaw said, referring to Helen and John Munroe. "Both very well liked and respected in the community."

"She had a wonderful insight about children," Greenlaw said. "I am sure that she's left quite a mark on a lot of lives, really."

John Munroe worked for more than 40 years at the Connors Bros. sardine cannery in Blacks Harbour, retiring as foreman at 65.

"He built his dream garage," Anderson recalled.

He died not long after at 66 - the same age that his wife died apparently from an aneurysm. She would have turned 67 Sunday.

Her children delivered the eulogy at the funeral at the Blacks Harbour Wesleyan Church on Sept. 7. Interment followed in the St. George Rural Cemetery.
