Final Version

Preface

This book is an attempt to give those searching the descendants the surname Lane in Washington Co., ME, some assistance.

Three Branches of Lane families are shown in the chapters for each Branch.

Branch-One shows the descendants of James Lane,

Branch-Two is for the descendants of Daniel Lane, and Branch-Three is for the line of Horace Almon Lane who supposedly was born in Calais, Washington Co., ME. This has not been proven and might just be hear-say.

Branch-Four This is the line of Ebenezer Lane possibly an ancestor to Branch-Two. A final chapter shows all persons in the database with the surname Lane where the parentage is indicated. Those with unknown parentage are at the top of the list for ease of finding those who still need further work to connect them to the proper line. Since this is a work in progress, there is much missing data and some may even be incorrect. If anyone has additional information or corrections they are asked to send them to the following snail-mail or email address shown below:

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

The following email segment was received from Margaret B. Markey, 18 Apr 2011:

I have been researching the Lane family for several years along with a Lane descendant in Texas. I am in Colorado and note that you are in Saskatoon. That family spread widely. Not sure what it was that I saw that was different from your info but here is what I have.

James Lane and Eunice Purdy were evacuated from New York around 1783 I believe. This is based on Pikes Notes and records from Nehemiah Marks and the Armed Boatmen. I believe that James was a civilian working for General Clinton's staff--perhaps as a drover. He and Eunice were at Port Mattoon, Nova Scotia during the terrible winter of 1784 and subsequently went to St. Andrews with Nehemiah Marks and from there to Calais around 1787. His name is usually associated with John Noble's name, Jemima Noble having been her sister. I am not sure where James and Eunice married. According to info I found from a gt. gt. granddau. of Jemima's, Jemima was the oldest of 5 sisters and 1 brother born in Westchester County, NY. (Daughters of the American Revolution magazine now online.) They were orphaned early in life. Jemima was born 1865 so the earliest that Eunice could have been born would be 1867, probably not until 1870, and William was born about 1884. James and Eunice came to St. Andrews with N. Marks as noted earlier (Ward Chipman papers) and there was an older boy over 10 years of age in 1784 with them, as well as William who must have been an infant. "Lane" in those papers is spelled "Lein" incidentally. The older boy could not have been Eunice's child as she would have been too young so there was probably an earlier wife for James.

In 1790, there were three females in James's home, I believe they were probably the 2 younger Purdy sisters, Phoebe and Sally. Lydia was not born yet.

In 1800, there are only four boys in the home, not sure who was missing. There should have been William 16, John, 13, Joseph, Daniel and Thomas, about 2 years, as well as Lydia.

James Lane died probably early in 1807. Eunice Lane named her son, William, as administrator of his estate on July 25, 1807.

Thomas Lane married Eliza Ann Grover on 26 Jul 1821 in Calais. I don't know who her parents were but I suspect it might have been the older Stephen Grover. Lydia Nevens remarks on the Grovers are not very clear. Apparently, there was a son named Stephen as well and he may have had a daughter named Eliza. Eliza Ann Grover Lane, who went by "Ann", and Thomas apparently separated after 1850. Thomas went to Wisconsin where his son, Isaiah, also ended up and died in Shawano County, Wisconsin about 1885. He is buried in the Maple Grove Cemetery, in Shawano County, Wisconsin. My correspondent from Texas is descended from Isaiah incidentally.

Ann Lane meanwhile went with her daughter, Susannah, and another 2 or 3 daughters to work in the mills in Saco, Maine. She and Susannah ended up in Lewiston where Susannah, who never married, ran a boarding house for the Bates Company. I have the obituary of Mary Ellen Lane Hanscom, the youngest of Thomas and Ann's children, from Lewiston. She died in 1907. Susannah, Ann, Mary Ellen and family, are all buried in the Riverside Cemetery in Lewiston and I have the papers from the cemetery regarding the plot. Haven't had a chance to get back to Lewiston to look for other obits. I have tintypes of four of the daughters and one picture, unidentified, who I think was another of the eight daughters. I have managed to track all of them except for Harriet, the eldest daughter. They were Harriet Jane Lane, Susannah G. Lane, Lavina Lane (married William Tracy), Emily Farnham Lane (married William Pettygrove), Lydia Nevins Lane, Elizabeth Ann Lane, Rebecca Lane (married Wesley Carlton), and Mary Ellen Lane (married Charles Henry Hanscom).

I am descended thru Elizabeth Ann Lane (Lizzie) Noyes Powell Thibodeau. She was born in 1837 in Calais and died in 1924 in Danforth. She married (1st) James Wakefield Noyes of Topsfield who died in the Civil War, then (2nd) Evan Powell, Jr. of Topsfield who died about 1880, and finally (3rd) Fabian Thibodeau of Carroll. My grandfather was Havilah A. Powell, born in Topsfield in 1872, died in Lubec in 1969. He lived much of his life in Danforth and married Ethel Kirkpatrick of Weston on 2 April 1900 in Weston, Maine. I remember several of Havilah's brothers and have been able to track his family quite thoroughly. The Kirkpatrick family has been well researched by another cousin.

Notes for Eunice Purdy:

The following information was left in my Guestbook on 8 Apr 2011 by Margaret B. Markey:

I have been researching the James Lane-Eunice Purdy family of Calais and have slightly different info than you have. I am a descendant of Thomas Lane thru Elizabeth Lane Noyes Powell Thibodeau. My info indicates that Eunice Purdy was a sister of Jemima Purdy Noble, Phoebe Purdy Burgess Hadley, , Sally Purdy Hoyt and Mary Purdy Sullivan of Nova Scotia. Eunice was born in New York State possibly in Mamaroneck according to one of her sons' census info. Haven't had much luck tracing any of the sisters except Jemima who married John Noble in New York where they were both imprisoned. Would be very interested in comparing any info that you have.

7. Elizabeth⁵ Sullivan (Dau-Two⁴ Lane, ?³, Branch-One², (00Root-Lane)¹) was born 1783 in of Yarmouth, NS, and died 09 March 1863. She married John Bohannon II Abt. 1816, son of John Bohonon and Mary Rolfe. He was born Bet. 1765 - 1767 in Machias, Washington Co., ME, and died 19 November 1854 in Calais,

Washington Co., ME.

Notes for Elizabeth Sullivan:

See Pikes Notes, p15 "John Bohannon married Betsey Sullivan of Yarmouth, NS, my cousin[Lydia (Lane) Nevens]

Notes for John Bohannon II:

Ref: John Bohannon "Beginnings - The Settlement of The St. Croix Valley", Rev. I. C. Knowlton(reprint 1984). also known as "Annals of Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, New Brunswick", 1875

p 18 "Ananiah Bohannon and wife with their two sons, John and Daniel, came from Machias and settled in Calais at an early date. Their home was near the spot where the Abner Sawyer house now stands. They appear to have been moral, active and useful citizens. Mrs. Bohannon, in all the region round, was often employed and highly prized as a midwife.

Sept . 9, 1792, John Bohannon, for the small sum of 15 pounds, bought of E. H. Robbins a hundred acre lot, in what is now the heart of the City, embracing nearly all the business part of Main St. In the Deed there was a reservation of the "right to lay out a road four rods wide, across the same". It is evident there were then no public highways in the Township; and wild land was considered of small value. Unaware that he owned the site of a future city, Mr. Bohannon in 1796, sold his land with all its improvements, to Mr. Robbins for one hundred dollars. But still liking the location, in 1797 he rebought one half the lot, and continued to live in his original cabin."

On the basis of this information, it would appear that John must have been of legal age (21 years) in 1792 to have made this land transaction. His birth would be before 1772.

The 1790 Census for Plantation 5 east of Machias gives the following for John Bohannon:

2 males 16 years and up,

3 males less than 16,

3 females.

Total of 5 children less than 16. For a family of this size, John would have been married approx 1780-1786 which is consistent with the date of arrival in Calais, ME.

If John has a son that is 16 or more in 1790 then he would have to be born before ca 1765. This definitely makes him a son of an earlier wife of Ananiah Bohannon, Sr.(not Mary Dyer, wife William Jackson).

The Ananiah Bohannon, Sr. .1766-1790, is definitely not the father of John Bohannon. From their ages, it would appear that this is either a brother or someone else.

Ref: 1800 Census, Calais, ME

1 male 10 - <16 years

2 males 16 - <26 years

1 male 26-45 years

1 male > 45 years

2 females 16 - < 26 years

1 female 26 - < 45 years

It appears that John Bohannon, Sr. and his wife Mary are living in the same household as that of John Bohannon, Jr. and his wife Sarah. If this is true, then there have not been any children born during the ten year period 1790-1800. This seems highly unlikely. Where is John Bohannon, Sr. and his wife Mary? Maybe they are living on the New Brunswick side of the border. This again seems unlikely as John, Sr. sold his property on the NB side in 1784 and moved to the ME side. More confusion.

Notes for William Lane:

"Pike's Notes", p48, indicates William is an older brother of Daniel Lane. Brother to William and Daniel is John Lane.

Daniel Lane was the Proprietor of the next place, living in the house, now remodelled and owned by John Gardner.

NOTE!!! This person may NOT be a son of James Lane, Sr. according to the number of sons shown in the census. However, the Kirk McColl Church Records show two children were baptized in 1814, children of James Lane, Jr. of St. Stephen Parish. Since this was after the death of James Lane, Sr. then it has been assumed that James Lane, Jr. must have been a son of James, Sr. More research required on this.(AEK)

The following information was left in my Guestbook on 8 Apr 2011 by Margaret B. Markey:

Thomas Lane died about 1885 and is buried in Shawano County, Wisconsin in the Maple Grove Cemetery. His son, Isaiah, was living in Shawano County at the time.

Eliza Ann Lane died after 1880 in Lewiston, Maine where she was living with her daughter, Susannah Lane. I have been to her grave site in the Riverside Cemetery but didn't get the date of death.

Elizabeth Lane Noyes Powell Thibodeau was born on 25 Aug 1837 and died in Danforth on 16 Dec 1924. She married (1#

James Wakefield Noyes, #2# Evan Powell, Jr., and #3# Fabian Thibodeau. I am descended thru the Powell line. Incidentally, I have pictures #tintypes) of four of the daughters of Thomas and Ann Lane, unfortunately I don't have one of Elizabeth, but have Susannah, Emily, Rebecca, and Mary E. There is also one picture that I think is a Lane but it doesn't have I.D.

The following was received from Colleen Congdon, 1 Feb 2013:
Calais Advertiser Wednesday, September 22nd 1920

Died Calais, Sept 14th, Howard H. Hatch, aged [unreadable] years, 6 months, and 14 days.

Howard A. Hatch, a well-known resident of Milltown, Me., passed away Tuesday, Sept. 14th at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tompkins, where he has made his home for the last seven years. He was in his 81st year, and has been a resident of Milltown for some 34 years. He was a native of Bocabec, N.B. That Mr. Hatch had many friends in the community was attested by the many floral tributes to his memory. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, Howard H. Jr., Ellis Leroy, and Mrs. Annie Willison (sic), all of Woodland, and Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Milltown. He is also survived by a brother and three sisters.

The above are two different entries in the newspaper. Obviously his daughter Alma R. doesn't count as a surviving child. It would be hard to imagine that people didn't know that she was his daughter because her mother, Sarah Ann usually told the census taker that she was married. I didn't get the feeling that they "just let it go."

Marriage Notes for Sarah Nevens and Alfred Hatch:
Daniel F. Johnson : Volume 27 Number 199

Date February 14 1868
County Charlotte
Place Saint Stephen
Newspaper Saint Croix Courier

The language of the text is the original used in the newspaper entry and as transcribed by Daniel F. Johnson. Records acquired by the Provincial Archives are not translated from the language in which they originate.

Mrs. Sarah Ann HATCH entered an action against her husband, Alfred Howard HATCH and had him brought before Justice Rose on Tuesday and Wednesday, who after hearing the evidence discharged the prisoner. It appears that Sarah Ann is the most liable party of the two, she having a husband at the time she married HATCH, but as she belongs to the State of Maine, it is not likely our courts will be troubled with the matter again.
