Final Version

Preface

This book is an attempt to clear the fog away from the Libby/Libbey families of Charlotte Co., NB. These Libby families are descendants of Jacob Libby, Sr who was one of the first persons to come to this area in search of the lumber trade. The reseach material used has been from Kirk McColl Church Records, Census records, Cemetery records, St. Croix Courier, and PANB records, it has been possible to produce this book showing of the descendants of Samuel/Jacob Libby

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can nolonger be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Since this is a work in progress there may be errors and some data is missing. If you see errors or have corrections and/or additions then you are asked to send them to:

Notes for Samuel Libby:

What is the first name of this Libby?? Many researchers show it as Samuel however, from documents from the St. Stephen, NB and Calais, ME area he was known as Jacob Libby.

The book "Annals of Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, New Bruswick" by Rev. I. C. Knowlton, 1875 and reprinted as "Beginnings The Settlement of The St. Croix Valley" by the same author, printed 1984, p 10, states the following"

"The others, - James and Jeremiah Frost, Jacob Libbey and his sons, Ebenezer and Jacob, Jr." These people came in 1779 and 1780. Based on the arrival year, the Libby males that would have been eligible for this are the father of Jacob Libby who married Unity Parker and Ebenezer Libby who married Lydia Young. This father is stated as being Jacob Libby. This is where the problem occurs. Was his name Samuel Jacob Libby or Jacob Samuel Libby and sometimes he was Samuel Libby and at others Jacob Libby. Such are the trials of a Genealogist!!

" Libbey's Lot was at the Cove .... Soon after their arrival, Daniel Hill, Jacob Libbey, and Jeremiah Frost built a Saw-mill on Porters Stream."

Anyone with information from these applications are asked to contact me if they have information that relates to the name of the father or how long this Libby family had been in the St. Stephen area. I don't need the document just the information. (See the following email from Betsy Norton)

The following email was received from Betsy Norton, 19 Feb. 2013:

"Saw your info on the ancestry website. You were asking about Jacob vs Samuel Libby. I am a direct descendent. Samuel was the son of Jacob. Jacob came from Machias to Calais and then crossed over to St Stephen. Samuel was the first white child born in the settlement, (which is also in the book "Annals Of Calais Me and St Stephen NB".) I have a copy myself. Jacob also was the first person to sell land in the settlement of St Stephen, which is also in the book. I called my Dad to talk to him about the information and he confirmed it as well. He remembered his mother "Jessie Libby Norton", telling the story of the sale of the land for almost nothing and how valuable it had become. I have also seen the grave marker for Samuel Libby which is in the old section of the Milltown NB cemetary and also states on it that Samuel was the first born white child in that settlement as well."

Notes for Daniel Hill I:

Ninth child of Joseph and Abigail (Libby) Hill. (This does not seem correct, unless other children died young.)(AEK)

First permanent white resident of Calais, ME. Came from Jonesport in 1779. (Knowlton, p8/Beginnings)

The following notes are from WG database:

Daniel Hill served with the British Army at Champlain, and moved to Machias, Maine in 1763 with the "Sixteen Associates" to begin the settlement of Machias. In 1779 he moved from Jonesport to Calais. Daniel was piloted through the woods by an Indian guide and it is believed that he was the first permanent white settler in the Calais area. Daniel built a cabin near where the Ferry Point Bridge is now located. He was soon followed by other settlers and soon a settlement sprung up at the head of the St. Croix.

Daniel Hill, along with Jacob Libby and Jeremiah Frost erected and operated the first saw mill of this area at the mouth of Porters (now called Dennis Stream) stream. He also was the first settler to become involved in the lumber business and to use oxen as beasts of burden in this trade.

It is written in "The Settlement of the St. Croix Valley" by Rev. I.C. Knowlton, that Daniel Hill was a man of great strength, agility, and fearlessness, also was an ingenious, energetic and moral man."

A probable cousin of Daniel Hill was Japhet Hill of Machias who moved to Calais around 1780 and was engaged in farming. One of his grandchildren was Keziah Hill who turns up on the McAdam side of the family, more will be told of her later.

Daniel Hill was living on what he thought was the British side of the river at Frost's Mills in 1784, but on finding he was still on American soil he obtained a grant for land from King George III, and during that year went over the river with his boys and cleared some land on Hill's Point. He did not plant or sew any seeds on Hill's Point in 1784 but planted in 1785.

Another source quoted from "The History of Scarborough" by Southgate:

In 1762 the crops were almost wholly cut off by a remarkable drought. It was this circumstance which led to the settlement of Machias. They not only found (in Machias) an abundant supply of salt hay, but a fine water power at the head of tide water navigation, surrounded by unbroken forests of timber. In May 1763 the 16 settled Machias, 13 of them from Scarborough: Samuel Scott, Sylvanus Scott, (brothers), Timothy Libby, David Libby, George Libby (brothers), Daniel Hill, Japhet Hill (brothers), Isaiah Foster, Westbrook Berry, Isaac Larrabee, Daniel Fogg, all of Scarborough; Thomas Buck of Plymouth, Capt. of a coaster, Jonathan Carlton of Sheepscoot, and Wm Jones of Portsmouth, N.H. making sixteen in all.

Northwest Passage

The Rogers Rangers & Daniel Hill

Pioneer of Calais

From An Issue Of The Saint Croix Courier

"Northwest Passage" that magnificent technicolor picture made from the outstanding historical novel of the same name will be shown here shortly. It is the story of the Col. Robert Rogers, the renowned Indian fighter and his company of border Rangers, and includes the terrible attack on the Indian village of St. Francis in 1759. For Calais and St. Stephen the picture should have an added interest, for it has always been understood that the pioneer settler of Calais, Daniel Hill, was a member of this redoubtable company and took a part in its exploits. When the French-Indian warfare came to an end, Hill left his native town of Scarborough on the Maine-New Hampshire border and as a member of the "Sixteen Associates" began the settlement of Machias in 1762.

In 1779, Hill came through the woods to the St. Croix guided by an Indian. A little later he built a cabin on Ferry Point, and installed his family. They probably made the trip by water in one of the little coasting vessels bringing with them their modest household goods.

The notes of James Vroom inform us that:

"Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist though not a member of the Loyalist Association. After it was decided that the St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was disposed by the Massachusetts authorities, and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the Parish of Dufferin." Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

When the "Annals of Calais and St. Stephen" were written in the early eighteen-seventies, the author, Rev. I.C. Knowlton, the Universalist minister at Calais, was able to talk with persons whose lives had touched those of the pioneers in this valley. Of Daniel Hill he writes:

"Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quoddies having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him."

It was a tradition among Daniel Hill's descendants that he had a belt of Indian scalps he was accustomed to don at times for the purpose of overawing the Passamaquoddies. Certainly if the Indians knew that he had been at the attack on St. Francis he would be held in fear, or the Abenakis of that village were kin of the Passamaquoddy tribe, who were also of the Abenaki, or Wabenaki as it is sometimes spelt.

I do not know whether there is a complete list of men who were with Rogers when the village of St. Francis was attacked, so cannot say that there is actual proof that Hill took part in the destruction. But as you will probably see by the picture, and as the following account relates it was an excellent opportunity to accumulate such a trophy. I do not think there is any doubt that Daniel Hill was a member of Rogers Rangers for that was the famous company of Indian fighters. Hill had been reared on a frontier that since the beginning of settlement had been exposed to merciless attacks by the French and their Indian allies.

The Old French War as it was generally called, in the colonies, but better known in history as the Seven Years war, ended by the Treaty of Paris in 1763, the year the "Sixteen Associates" went to begin the settlement at Machias.

As to the village of St. Francis:

There were four tribes or divisions of the Wabenaki or Abenakis--the Penobscots, the Passamaquoddies, the St. John River Tribe and another, said to have been scattered and merged in other tribes, but at that time probably was represented by the Abenakis of Becancour and St. Francis.

From the Notes of James Vroom:

Daniel Hill was an ardent Loyalist, though not a member of the Loyalist Assn. After it was decided that St. Croix would be the boundary line he left his land at Ferry Point (Calais) or was dispossessed by the Massachusetts authorities and went to some place near Horton in Nova Scotia, but returned and settled at Hill's Point in the parish of Dufferin. Maine was then a part of Massachusetts.

"Northwest Passage" is a story of Col. Robert Rogers, the renowned Indian fighter and his company of Border rangers, and includes the terrible attack on the Indian Village of St. Francis in 1759. #### Daniel Hill

From "Annals of Calais, Maine and St. Stephen, N.B. by Rev. I.C. Knowlton - "The first permanent white resident of Calais was Daniel Hill. He came here from Jonesport in 1779. A report had been circulating in Machias and vicinity for several years that near the head of the on the St. Croix, there was an abundance of pine, timber, fish and game that the river up to this point, was navigable for large vessels. Several persons talked of migrating to this Promised Land; and at length Mr. Hill piloted by an Indian, came through the woods to Calais. On arriving he perceived at once that the country was even better than the report indicated. Deciding to locate he built a cabin where the Gravel Pit now is, on Union Mills street, and cleared a small patch of land on Ferry Point. His oldest son, Thomas Hill, who was born January 20th, 1773 and who lived almost a century, often said that when he was about six years old, he saw his father fell the first tree that was ever cut in Calais. He was probably mistaken in relation to its being the first tree felled; but he saw his father chopping down trees on Ferry Point, and no doubt he was correct respecting his age at that time. His statement therefore fixes the date of the first permanent settlement. It was in 1779. Other persons from Machias and vicinity, very soon after, either that year or the next, joined Mr. Hill and made the settlement a neighborhood. But the permanent beginning was in 1779, and the Centennial of Calais will therefore occur in the summer of 1879.

Daniel Hill is said to have been remarkably strong, agile and fearless. He had been a soldier in some of the old wars against the Indians; and the Quaddys having learned this fact, although he kindly aided and instructed them in farming, always greatly feared him.

A few years after he came here, he joined Jacob Libbey and Jeremiah Frost, in building a sawmill. It stood on Porter's Stream, near its mouth, and was the first mill ever erected in this vicinity. The number of men at the "rising" was so small, that the ladies were obliged to lend all their strength in lifting the heavy timbers. Without their aid the frame could not have been set up. Mr. Hill also imported the first oxen and first engaged in lumbering. He was an ingenious, energetic and moral man; and he so trained his children that his posterity largely inherit his qualities.

Notes for Ebenezer Libby:

Conflicting evidence:

If Ebenezer Libby died in Sept 1818 as shown by other researchers then the Ebenezer Libby who was buried 4 Sept. 1824 must have been his son who is shown as dying in Feb. 1854. This seems unlikely as the Feb 1854 and Sept. 1824 are harder to confuse. Ebenezer, Jr. was not found in the 1854 census, indicating that he was either missed or had died previously. More research required.(AEK)

Notes for James Maxwell, Sr.:

Grantee with the Port Matoon Association, in the Jones Division.

The info on James Maxwell is shown in the Loyalist cemetery tombstones inscriptions, #47, The line above, #46, shows Sarah Maxwell/ wife of / James Maxwell/ died/ Aug 15, 1831/ Aged 88.

The information shown above on the Loyalist Cemetery was also published in "Generations", the Journal of the New Brunswick Genealogy Society, Issue 64, Summer 1995, p23-24. Same information on Sarah as shown above.

Actual stone information is different than what is shown in the documents by Robert F. Fellows:

- 1) Mr. James Maxwell d Aug 2? 1847 age 85
- 2) Elizabeth w/o James Maxwell d Aug 15 1853 age 88
- 3) Sarah w/o James Maxwell d Apr ?7 183?

I have personally seen the tombstone, located to the right of the main entrance to the Loyalist Cemetery, front row, and since the top of the stone is broken and mended with a piece iron bar, it is difficult to read, but the information as shown above is present.

Notes for Charlotte Hill:

There is some confusion with this Charlotte Hill, is she the daughter of Daniel Hill, Sr. or Daniel Hill, Jr. ? It would appear that she must be the daughter of Daniel Hill, Jr. as Charlotte d/o Daniel Hill, Sr. was already married in 1794 to Alexander Thompson so she would not be known as "Charlotte daughter of Daniel Hill born .... St. David" in 1797. No date of birth is shown in the Kirk McColl Church Records, only St. David as the place of birth. This location verified as Daniel Hill, Jr. had land at Hills Point, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co.

Notes for Samuel Milberry III:

Information on this family line is very difficult to keep track of and determine if the proper parent is being used as the Kirk McColl Church records only show the name of the father and no mention is made of the mother. If anyone has information from Wills, Land Transactions, or other sources that indicate errors in the connections that I show then please send me an email indicating the changes with the supporting evidence. This will be added as notes to that individual so that a more clear and concise record may be developed.

The following email was received from Rick Milbury, 30 Dec 2010:

I am a descendant of the Milbury's from York Maine with Samual Milbury b.1747 and went to Machias and settles in St. Stephens. I just want to add and assist in a Milbury you have listed who is a Thomas Milbury who married Nancy Dyer dau. of Jonas Dyer. Thomas is incorrect and it actually is Timothy. Please consider the notes below from an email I had sent to a fellow genealogist.

Nathaniel Milbury son of Samuel b. 1747 and Mary Polly Hill ehh Wrong! Nathaniel was Nathan Dyer Milbury and his brother George Milbury were sons of Timothy Milbury and Nacny Dyer (dau. of Jones Dyer of Machias Me.) I feel this to be true because I have...

1. Both "Nancy Milbury an adult" and "Nathan Dyer son of Mr. Milbury" being Baptized at St. Andrews Anglican Church, June 1, 1800 on the same day and time. I have a copy available if you like. That would make Nancy 35 years old and Nathan 4 years old at Baptiziam.

2. Nancy Milbury buried in Lower Wicklow Cemetery near Nathan Milbury's stone and her stone says ."Nancy Milbery wife of Timothy" "Died 10 February 1847 age 82" which would make her birth date 1765 - same as Timothy Milbury

3. Nancy's brother Nathan Dyer died shortly before her sons birth, giving him (her child) her brother's name? possibly.

There was a Timothy Milbury b.1765 Son of Samuel Milbury Sr.b.1723 and Dorcus Came from York , York Maine. This is the only Timothy Milbury known to me that fits. Timothy is Samuel's b.1747 younger half brother. It is my theory that Samuel b. 1747 went north with his first wife Elizabeth Sayward both from York Maine for work and opportunity in Machias Maine. She died and he remarried widow Sara Trafton. They and thier combined kids all moved to St. Stephen 1779/80. Sara dies before 1790 and Samuel remarries a third time to Mary (Polly) Hill. About this time I assume that Samuel sent word back for brother Timothy to come up for work or join him in his moderate lumber mill. The tie-in is the family of Jones Dyer who lived in Machias while Samuel Milbury and family were there. They ( Dyer's) migrated further north too and are recorded in St. Stephen and St. Andrews records.

Nancy Dyer born 1765 Scarboro Maine , her parents lived there before moving the Machias ME ,following the limber trade there and then with the close of the war followed the trade up to St. Stephen N.B.

NOW HERE IS THE ONLY CATCH..Both Nathan and Georges obits states they were born or from Salem MA. Even thier children stated on Marriage Certificates that thier fathers came from Salem Ma. No Way! George joined the 114 Regiment at age 10 +/- ( it's in my notes) and Nathan request for Crown Land Grants which were granted, stated that he was born in St. Andrews N.B. My guess is that Timothy - Samuel 1/2 brother, shamed the family some how or abandoned them or committed suicide or something ...for the sons to to re write thier past ?odd? Believe me, I checked and rechecked with Salem Archives and found nothing for Milbury / Milberry / Millberry/ Milbery, nothing ! I could be mistaken but I'll need more time to dig.

And I now believe thier children to be:

George Milbery b.16 December 1792 m. Catherine Avery lived in Kent Co N.B.Canada
Nathan Dyer Milbery b. 1796 m. Marjorie Squires lived in Wicklow N.B.Canada
Best of all .... I have a copy of the tin photos of George and Catherine Avery Milbury but unfortunately none of brother Nathan D. Milbury.

A Pleasant Birthday Party

Last Friday, August 12, 1904, a pleasant affair transpired at the home of Mrs. Caroline Hill on Prairie avenue, being the figure of time pointed on life's dial her 71st birthday had arrived, years of along useful and pleasant life gone by.

Mrs. Hill with her mild, aimable disposition made a very happy home and her children realized and appreciate a mothers love and devotion to them, and in return they are happy in giving her every attention possible.

So on this occasion they invited together brother and sisters, nieces, nephews and with grandchildren they came a successful surprise party.

They found Mrs. Hill ready for town as she said she thought some of the country folks might be in, and she wanted to make a little preparation and for Sabbath. But when she saw them unloading the baskets of roast chicken and boiled ham she changed her mind. It is useless to attempt to tell what came in all those bundles but it was easily know the big tub contained ice cream. And when a group of nearly forty gathered in the yard and were quiet, we knew there must be an instrument somewhere for taking pictures. We saw the beautiful rocker from the children and many other useful gifts from relatives.

The afternoon was spent in one round of pleasure, and before their departure for home each guest, great and small, wrote their names, so grandma could remember who came to make her heart glad on the turning of another mile stone on life's journey. The names are as follows: Rev. John B. Reinhardt of Harvey, Ill., Mrs. Hill's children, Mr. Howard B. Hill, Lorin S. Hill, Mrs. Anna Paxton; sisters and brother, Mrs. Susan Jones, Mrs. Mary Gates, Taylor Warne; brother in law, Asel Gates; grandchildren, Miss Florence Paxton, Miss Maud and Earl H. Paxton, Miss Vera Hill, Miss Fern, Mildred, Bernice and Harold B. Hills; daughters and son in law, Mrs. Nettie E. Hill, Mrs. Nellie P. Hill and Fred Paxton; nieces and nephews, Mrs. Carrie Hill and son Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warne, Mrs. Wesley Gary, Mrs. D.E. Bartholomew, Mrs. Wesley Morgan, Mr and Mrs. Samuel Warne, daughter Lucinda; Burton Blackman; friends, Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Desrosier, Mrs. M.A. Jones, Mrs. Hannah Olmstead.

Notes for James N. Waldron:

The James N Waldron who married Sarah Hanson appears to have married first, Sarah, d/o Stephen Hanson and Sarah Libby. This Sarah was baptized in 1810 at the age of 1 yr. born 1808-1809. The second Sarah Hanson who married James Waldron on 17 Mar. 1829, eloped, lived in Maine. This Sarah was the d/o Daniel Hanson and Mary Haley. Ages of children in 1840 census are consistant with the marriage year of 1829.

The following census information may not be for the correct James N. Waldron but the birth location of the wife fits that of Sarah Hanson. However, her age does not fit with the one born 1814 as she is 39 yrs old in 1850. Will track this family to see if the age changes.

Ref:

1840 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p51, frame 17/17, 1 male 20- <30, Next house is an Abraham Waldron, age 60-70, look like it might be the father of James.

Notes for Alice Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

Buried in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery. Tombstone unreadable for dates(see page 215. Died age 69. This must be a grave that was moved from an original location to the Rural Cemetery and the Internment records must be searched to find his date of death.

From an analysis of entries in "Early New Brunswick Probate Records 1785-1835", the name of William Andrews of St. Stephen Parish appears 12 times in the time range of 1807-1829 but not as a Probate record which indicates that his estate was missed or he died after 1835.

Notes for Mary A. Hanson:

NOTE!! It appears that the Tombstone date of birth is in error by one year or this Mary Hanson is not the correct one that married Stephen Libby. However, the location of these people all fit with this being the correct family as Elizabeth Ann Hanson that married Jones Dyer Jackson lived just a short distance away from the Libby family in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.

The other reason for the discrepancy in dates might possibly be from an error in the Kirk McColl Church records that show Mary as age 2 and Sarah as age 1 in 1810 when it should have been shown as Sarah age 2 and Mary age 1. This would be more consistent with the fact that Sarah was married in 1824.

It would appear that there is an error in the census and Lidia should be shown as the daughter of Hill and the age should be 16 months and not 16 years.

These two men, together with Reuben and Henry Whittier, David Laiton and Daniel Hill Sr. explored a tract supposed to lie above the grant of John Croy, but it was found the lots were in the Croy grant. They decided on lots east of the Digdeguash River of 200 acres each to front on the river. They cleared the lots and built a barn on each lot. (From N.B. archives, petitions.)

Hugh WILSON came from Ireland in 1819 (and he used to enjoy identifying this fact by stating that upon his arrival in Canada he learned that Victoria, England's later Queen, had been born.) Hugh landed at St. Andrews where he joined a sister who had preceded him to Canada. He also had two other sisters somewhere in New England. While at St. Andrews he married Elizabeth, called Eliz. Ann (HILL) and moved along the shore toward St. George and settled temporarily in the neighborhood of Bethel, Charlotte County. It is believed that Eliza Ann was born in New Brunswick. Here they met John and James CATHCART. Hugh WILSON and John CATHCART bought adjoining blocks of land on the old St. Andrew - Fredericton road in the Rollingdam area. The WILSONS coming first, arriving on horseback with their personal effects and settling in 1826; and the CATHCARTS following the next year in 1827. Hugh forthwith built his fine home which is used today.

The 1851 census reports the following children and ages: " James, 20; Sarah, 18; Ann M.,16; Mary, 13; Hugh, 11; Elenor, 7; and Hill, 4." There may have been others; also "ages" may only be approximate and thus require confirmation; but such information is always most helpful. (This family apparently was not related to the WILSONS of Sorrel Ridge (these came from England). Their grave markers read as follows; "Hugh WILSON (Dec. 25, 1797--October 27, 1887); Wife, Elisa Ann (Died February 20, 1878, age 76)" Hill M. WILSON (December 21, 1846--November 17, 1929); Wife, Annie (BELL) (October 14, 1845-January 9, 1918)"

1871 Census, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p76, age 63

1. Found Moses Hill in the 1871 census, living in St. David, Charlotte, N.B. He is 63 yrs old, born N.B. Religion is Church of England, origin English, occupation farmer, and he is a widower. The only person living with him is Harris Hill, age 33, born N.B. married, but in remarks column it is stated "parted from wife." I think this is the Harris Hill who was "adopted" by his uncle John B. and living with that family in 1851. He is probably the one who married Mary Blake.

2. Found three deeds in the name of Moses Hill:

A. Book 0, pp311-312: Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill No. 192 to James McCullough; Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte, Co, N.B. yeomen, for...5 pounds...paid by James McCullough of the same place, yeoman, have remitted...all our right, title, & interest to the following piece of land...in the parish aforesaid, being a part of lot #52 in the Penobscot Assoc. Grant and on which the said McCullough now resides, described as follows...westerly side of the highway & southernly line of a (paved? reserved?) to a reserve for public uses but since granted to McCullough...containing one acre...25 July 1835. signed Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill.

B. Book 0, pp 312-313: James McCullough No. 193 to Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill; James McCullough & Lucy McCullough of the Parish of St. Andrews, Charlotte Co. N.B., for...42 pounds...paid by Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill of the same place...have sold...unto the said Stephen Lawrence & Moses Hill...our title...to lot #52 situated in Parish aforesaid, bounding westerly by the River St. Croix, northerly by lot #53 now owned by James Russel...southerly by lot #51 now owned and occupied by Alexander McDowall being the same lot which the late Stephen Lawrence died seized and possessed of and on which we now reside... signed 20 July 1835. Witnesses to both of these deeds are CR Hatheway and CM Hatheway.

C. Book 20 pp77-78: No. 62 Moses Hill to Robert Towl: I Moses Hill of the Parish of St. David, Charlotte Co. N.B, farmer, for...the sum of $135 U.S. currency paid to me by Robert Towl of the Parish of St. David, etc..have sold...the following described premises: All that certain parcel of land containing by estimation 75 acres, .being a part of lot #89 and laying on the eastern side of Oak Bay & on the eastern side of the road leading from St. Andrews to St. Stephens and on the north of land owned by J.A. Simpson and on the south by land owned by David Smith, Jr., together with all the improvements on said land... signed Moses Hill 23 October 1871. Witness Joseph A. Simpson.

NOTE: Son Harris married Roxanna Hannah in Calais in Dee of 1871. Did Moses move to Calais with him??

Notes for William Wellington Milberry:

Conflict: Kirk McColl church records trascribed by Melvin Chase show the dob as 27 Oct. 1846 and a Mathew Sidney son of the same parents dob of 20 May 1847. This must be in error as there is only 7 months between these two births.

The 1851 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., p1, shows a William (middle initial difficult to read), age 6, s/o John and Mary Ann Milberry.

Result: dob for William being set as 27 Oct. 1845 and NOT 1846.(AEK)

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in all phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

William E. McAllister and William Thompson

The lineage of A. H. Thompson has been proven. He is a son of Alexander. He was in business with Harrison Thompson which would tend to indicate a close relationship with the William s/o James line. However, he is not mentioned in the Will of William. Subsequent research has shown A. H. Thompson was a son of Alexander Thompson.

Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason

Another link with the storied past of this district was severed Monday March 6, 1933, with the passing of Mrs. Augusta Hill Nason, great-granddaughter of Daniel Hill, pioneer settler of Calais at the home of her nephew Adelbert Hill, at the Ledge. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Hill was born at the Ledge June 16, 1854, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, but following her marriage to William Nason took up residence at Oak Point where she remained until her husband's death. Later she returned to the Ledge to make her home with her sisters, the Misses Alma and Elizabeth Hill, and following their deaths continued to reside there in the summer months, spending the winters with her nephew Alalbert Hill and Mrs. Hill. Her grandfather, Daniel Hill, was the pioneer settler of Calais and one of the sixteen founders of Machias in 1743. A brother, Marshall Hill living in California, survives her.

The funeral service was held at the home of her nephew Wednesday march 8, Rev. Gordon Fraser of the United Church officiating. The choir of the church attended and rendered very beautifully the hymns "After" and "Christian Goodnight". The pallbearers were Marvin Watson, Charles Young and James Purdy. Interment was made in the hill family cemetery at the Narrows.

The following email segment was received from Shirley Cloar, 11 May 2009:

William Turner bought 400 acres between the 5th and 6th concession, now hwy #7, the 5th is now Whitevale Road. The land was considered in the 5th concession because it was on the north side of the road. I have a 1877 map of Pickering Twp., up on the NE corner is where Isaac Turner & Ann Vardon are living on 25 acres. There is a C. Lott on another 25 acres beside Isaac, I don't know who Lott is. The land near Whitevale hasn't changed much in the last 30 years or so, the Ontario government bought up thousands of acres for a new Toronto airport, the people fought it and won, some of the houses are rented or torn down (ours) and a lot of the land sits empty. But Whitevale was accepted as a historical hamlet so no matter what they do with the land it will not change.

PICKERING NEWS

December 13, 1889

Mr. Turner whose death was mentioned last week, was born in the year 1800 in New Brunswick near the city of St. Johns, in about 1840 with his wife and family the oldest boy being about 12 years, he moved to Pickering. He bought the two hundred acres on which he lived until he died. This he cleared by hard work and thrift, became wealthy, and divided his property equally among his ten children, all of whom are well to do and much respected members of society. Seven of these five sons and two daughters are all in Ontario while three are in Dakota. Mr. Turner was intellectual and well read and in his prime at times ably occupied the pulpit, where his good advise was profitable to all, and among the very foremost of temperance advocates in our township. He was a very intimate friend of our aged and much respected citizen Mr. Hector Beaton, who is now the oldest representative in our midst of those long ago days. In reviewing the past we find that as boys of eight to fourteen they listened to the recent triumphs of Napoleon Bonaparte, of Wellington and Waterloo, of the horrors of the war of 1812, of the battles of Lundy's Lane; as men in their prime at nearly forty they participated in the joys of Queen Victoria's coronation day, and the anxieties of the Papineau and Mckenzie Rebellion of '37 and as men ready to retire in life, read the accounts of the Storming of Sabastopol, and the lamentations of the United States slave war. Mr. Turner's remains were followed to their last resting place in the Methodist cemetery by a large concourse of friends and relatives, who all extend their sincerest sympathy to the bereaved wife and mother who has been his helpmate so many years. The pall bearers consisted of his five sons and a grandson. After the funeral the people drove to the Baptist chapel where a impressive service was conducted by Rev. Messrs. Trotter and Real.

You mght want this too from Past Years in Pickering. One of 2 Pickering history books. Only some of the children are mentioned, none from ND

TURNER. — William Turner was of U. E. L. stock and was born in 1801 in the parish of St. Patrick, New Brunswick. In 1828 he married Abigail Hanson and in 1841 they came to Upper Canada. In 1842 the family settled permanently on Lot 29, Con. 5. Mr. Turner had been licensed as a Baptist preacher in 1834, and when he came to Pickering conducted services for a time in his own house, then for a time in the school on the fifth concession and afterward for the Bible Christians until the organization of the Baptist Church in Whitevale. His family were: William Burpy, John Hanson and David Sylvester.

William's family are: John, (Markham), Abigail (Mrs. Richardson), William J. (Lot 31, Con. 7), Isabella (Mrs. J. Holden), Ezra, Sarah (Mrs. J. Michell), Albert E., Mary (Mrs. Coyne), Anthony Orvis, Helen and David Francis. John's family are: Naomi (Mrs. Albert White), Ada, Garfield and Florence. David's family are: Howard (married Minnie Beaton) and Alice.

He was born 10 January 1802 in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.), and died 21 May 1886 (Source: TI: Tombstone Inscriptions.).

Notes for Mary A. Hanson:

NOTE!! It appears that the Tombstone date of birth is in error by one year or this Mary Hanson is not the correct one that married Stephen Libby. However, the location of these people all fit with this being the correct family as Elizabeth Ann Hanson that married Jones Dyer Jackson lived just a short distance away from the Libby family in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.

The other reason for the discrepancy in dates might possibly be from an error in the Kirk McColl Church records that show Mary as age 2 and Sarah as age 1 in 1810 when it should have been shown as Sarah age 2 and Mary age 1. This would be more consistant with the fact that Sarah was married in 1824.

Notes for Ellis Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

According to the "John Lovell's 1871 Directory" both Ellis and William were farmers who lived at Mohannas, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. The 1865-66 and 1867-68 versions of the Hutchinson Directory show Charles, Ellis, and William as farmers at Mohannas.

The following email was received from Frank Crisler, 28 Dec 2010:

I'm documenting the graves at the Arlington City Cemetery in Arlington, South Dakota, and came across a marker, obviously replaced, for Calvin Hall and Mary Ann Hall. All they have is dates, with Calvin marked 1815-1884 and Mary Ann marked 1821-1903. Otherwise, they are unknown here.

I'm thinking they are your Calvin Jellison Hall and Mary Ann Durgan-mostly because you note that Calvin was in the 1880 Dakota Territory Census in Brookings County, and the Arlington cemetery is on the western edge of Brookings County. Mary Ann's dates don't match, but she could have taken five years off their age, and the cemetery records list a "Lindsay Hall" as having paid for the plots, who might be Ninian Lindsay Hall. (He is not buried at the cemetery, but an infant named Ezra Earl Hall is listed in the records as buried there in 1896, who might be Lindsay's son.)

So, I'm wondering if you know anything more about Calvin and Mary Ann Hall, or Lindsay Hall. It looks like they fell off the edge of the Earth after the 1880 Census, which might as well be the case, as this was frontier back then, with the railroad just coming through. The town didn't get its start until 1880, so Calvin's is one of the oldest graves in the cemetery, close to the front gate. I can send you gravestone photos, if you wish.

Sincerely,
Frank Crisler

On Thursday last a number of the children of E. HALL gathered at the parental house on the outskirts of St. Stephen to recognize his Golden Wedding. All the 13 children with whom the union of Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been blessed are living, though some are many miles distant. More than 40 grandchildren have been born and all but one, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. JACKSON who died in infancy, are alive. The children, in order of their birth are, George Wesley HALL of Baillie; Mary E. HALL, now Mrs. Joseph McVEY; Chas. W. HALL, now living in California; John W. HALL in Portland, Me.; Zachariah C. HALL in Minneapolis; Cynthia HALL wife of Arch. MAXWELL; Frank W. HALL in California; Sethly HALL in Portland, Me.; Unity HALL wife of C. JACKSON, Levi HALL, Addie HALL, Arthur HALL, Alfred HALL and Wilmot Tilley HALL, who are at home. Martin J. HALL came to St. Croix valley from the town of Litchfield in 1790 when 30 years of age and bought from John FRINK a fifty acre farm situated just to the south of the house now occupied by the subjects of this sketch. The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

Sometime between 8 Dec 1864 and 10 Feb 1868 Jane Ann married Alfred Howard Hatch. St. Croix Courier for Friday Feb 14, 1868 p2, col.2 is a story about Alfred Howard Hatch's first wife, Sarah Ann charging him with bigamy. Problem was Judge Rose found out that Sarah Ann was still married to HER first husband when she married Hatch. He advised her to deal with it in Maine; my research shows that she did not pursue this in Machias.

Howard and Jane Ann had a son, Stephen Richardson Dec 8, 1868 in Union Mills (St. Stephen) according to Project Preservation roll #27 Kirk McColl

They also had a son, Jas. Hd. when they were living in Union Mills b. 11th Mar 1871 bap. 14 Apr 1871 by Richard Smith according to Project Preservation roll #15 Records of Baptisms by the Wesleyan Minister in the Milltown Circuit.

They also had Mary Ann – known as Annie 18 December 1875

My great grandfather Ellis LeRoy 16 June 1877

and Laura Gertrude 11 February 1881

I have yet to find any written proof of these births in Union Mills/Milltown. However, the family consistently says they immigrated in 1886-which is surprising because any document associate with this family is rife with inaccuracies.

Before they immigrated, Maria Jane Douglass, Milltown, St. Stephen files intentions on July 7th and 12th to marry T. Franklin Butler. I find no marriage record. I did find a record for City of Calais Mayor's Address and Annual report 1891-1892 p.24 Frank Butler Insane Hospital $181.71 – don't know if this is the same man. 12 April 1880 Maria Jane does marry Alexander H. McDougall and it is announced in the Daily News, Weekly Telegraph, D.T., St. Croix Courier and the Sun. Five newspapers! Makes me think that the first marriage didn't take place or that there was some anxiety because she was four months pregnant. Their first child John Gilbert MacDougall says he was born in Massachusetts (Oct 1880) – their only child born there. Alexander was from Prince Edward Island, so they weren't visiting his folks.

1881 census for Milltown L p. 50 line 1 Howard Hatch and Jane A. have Maria 21, living with them, as well as John Douglass, 19; Stephen Hatch, 11; Mary A, 7; Ellis, 2 ½; Howard, 10; Laura, 2/12. As you can see – Maria is not Maria MacDougall, Alexander is not there, and their son, John Gilbert MacDougall is not listed. I did take these notes 15 years ago and would want to go back and look at this entry again.

27 November 1882 John Gilbert Douglass married Annie E. Hanson by Rev James S. Day, Methodist, in Calais. Augusta Maine microfilm for Calais Marriage/Marriage Intentions 1881-1891. There was an announcement in the D.T. 10 Oct 1883- 7 Feb 1884 Annie Douglass and her baby died in childbirth. I have not been able to find this and pin down a date yet. (So much work, so little time)

8 Oct 1884 John Gilbert Douglass married Nellie McLain (aka Ellen McLean) by Rev. J.F. Haley, Methodist, Calais. Announcement 24 Oct 1884 in D.T.

3 Oct 1892 Annie Hatch married Nathaniel McWakefield Jr. by S.R. Byram, Justice of Peace, Eastport NOTE: this is the only place his last name is McWakefield. Usually his name is Nathaniel M. Wakefield, Jr. Maine Archives

30 June 1897 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Sophia S(affrona) Beaney (Beney) by S.A. Bender/Bendex clergyman, Calais Maine Archives

17 February 1900 Laura Gertrude Hatch married Henry Oscar Tompkins. I am not finding my notes for this, but they are on the 1900 Calais City census Enumeration district 197 p6A family 126

1 Aug 1903 James Howard Hatch married Ada Tompkins by Willard Luce, clergyman, Milltown, Calais. Ada is sister to Henry Oscar Tompkins – see above marriage and St. Croix Courier 6 Aug 1903 p.1 Also some time around 1903 James Howard Hatch had ( can't recall what off the top of my head, but it involved a fever) and went blind.

All is not wedded bliss in the family – Superior Judicial Court Vol. 36 p. 314 Annie Wakefield vs. Nathaniel Wakefield. She got a divorce 15 Oct 1906

And remarried 2 Jan 1907 to Clarence Bert Lermond (also divorced – 2nd marriage) by Rev John Tinling, Milltown (ME) Methodist as announced 9 Jan 1907 Calais Advertiser.

20 June 1907 Ellis LeRoy Hatch's wife Sophia died of heart disease at Reed Plantation

15 April 1908 Clarence Bert Lermond, Annie's husband, died of acute indigestion in Calais

Between 23 April 1910 (1910 census) and 28 May 1911 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Lillian Irene Scott

She was possibly previously married to George Thurston – father to her daughter Thelma. I find no evidence of either marriage.

Somehow in my page flipping I missed the marriage of Annie Hatch Wakefield Lermond to Oscar R Wilson 28 November 1911. I believe this record is Maine Archives, but not sure.

28 Dec 1914 James Howard Hatch married his first cousin, once removed Annie Elizabeth Libby by MW Corliss? In Calais Maine Archives

Estella is NOT James Howard's first wife – she is his only (known) child – by Annie. Estella May was born in 1916 in Baileyville. Baileyville Record book. I have her birthdate but no verification that she is dead. She was married twice – my nana kept in touch with her. A month after Stella's birth, Jane Ann Libby Douglass Hatch's estate was finally settled.

James Howard Hatch's wife, Annie, died 18 Nov 1918 of influenza (part of the epidemic of 1918) Maine Archives; Scholl Funeral Home Record, Calais Free Library

1920 census Annie Hatch Wilson and her husband have Earl R. son age 3 9/12. He was adopted. Believe he was born Earl R. Mingo, but not verified. Do not know if they legally adopted him or they did the old fashioned took him in and brought him up adoption.

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

To go off on a tangent – my documents are in order by the calendar - James Douglass – Jane Ann’s 1st husband died 7 Dec 1864 of diphtheria. Death notices in Religious Intelligencer (16 Dec) and New Brunswick Courier (17 Dec) both available at St. Croix Library. He is interred in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery per their burial records entry 366. However his grave is unmarked and the last person who knew where he was buried, has died. His name is on a marker in Calais Cemetery, but there is no record on his interment.

When James Douglass died, Jane Ann was pregnant. St. Croix Courier 2 June 1870 this child, James C. also died of diphtheria. He was 5 years, 3 mos. Therefore born about February 1865. Because he died within one year of the 1871 census, he is listed on the mortality schedule – as James Clarke Hatch. It says he died of croup. Jane Ann is listed with Howard Hatch, head; Jane Ann, wife; Maria, 11; John, 9; Stephen, 2; and James 1/12.

Jane Ann’s children with James Douglass are:

- 1) Maria Jane b. abt. 16 September 1860
- 2) John Gilbert 4 March 1863
- 3) James Clark abt February 1865

The following was received from Colleen Congdon, 1 Feb 2013:
Calais Advertiser Wednesday, September 22nd 1920

Died Calais, Sept 14th, Howard H. Hatch, aged [unreadable] years, 6 months, and 14 days.

Howard A. Hatch, a well-known resident of Milltown, Me., passed away Tuesday, Sept. 14th at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tompkins, where he has made his home for the last seven years. He was in his 81st year, and has been a resident of Milltown for some 34 years. He was a native of Bocabec, N.B. That Mr. Hatch had many friends in the community was attested by the many floral tributes to his memory. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, Howard H. Jr., Ellis Leroy, and Mrs. Annie Willison (sic), all of Woodland, and Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Milltown. He is also survived by a brother and three sisters.

The above are two different entries in the newspaper. Obviously his daughter Alma R. doesn't count as a surviving child. It would be hard to imagine that people didn't know that she was his daughter because her mother, Sarah Ann usually told the census taker that she was married. I didn't get the feeling that they "just let it go."

Lydia does not appear in the 1861 census under the name of Smith. There is a Lydia Hill that married 7 Nov. 1853. Is this possibly a third marriage? Need to find who this Lydia Hill married?????!!!!!! Charlotte Co., NB, Marriage Registers show a Peter Hunter and Daniel Morrison were married on the same date. The other female is a Susan Card with the same marriage date.

It appears that Nathaniel Burnham did not want his name to appear in any church records as his given name is shown as ----- Burnham when his three sons are baptized in Aug. 1818 and also when he was buried 11 July 1818.

Notes for Major Ebenezer Redding, Sr.:

Pike's Notes, p16-17, has the following:

"Miss Rebecca Hill, see Redding, see Hill, says she was born in Milltown in 1794 and married Eben Redding in 1811 and moved into the house her husband built, and where she now lives, the same year.

Her husband originated in the vicinity of Boston and came here from Somerset County in 1805. He died at the age of 56, born in August 1795."

This date of August 1795 must be an error as the alternate dob of 22 Apr. 1782 and age at death match with the date of death of 1838. This is verified by the census data as shown below.

Joseph MYSHRALL, who died Sunday eve., was born at Nashwaaksis (York Co.) in 1816. He was a long time resident of Fredericton city. In his younger days he was conservative and associated with J.W. LAWRENCE and R.C. SCOVIL in the first commission for building the E.& N.A. Railway. Politically he was a strong Liberal and a friend of the late John PICKARD. He came to Fredericton when about 6 years old and commenced at that early age to make his own living. He soon afterwards held a post in the Crown Land Office and subsequently was deputy sheriff. He resigned the latter position in 1846 and commenced business as an auctioneer in the back part of the store now occupied by H.A. CROPLEY. In 1854, he and Marchall RITCHIE bought the MacIntosh business and they remained in partnership until 1867 when Mr. Ritchie retired. In 1877, Mr. Myshrall retired, selling out to Alexander BURCHILL. He was a well known Mason and had one of the best old coin collections in the Province. He leaves five children: two sons, Capt. MYSHRALL of South Wales, England and Dr. MYSHRALL of St. Stephen (Charlotte Co.); three daughters, Mrs. TIPPET, Mrs. HOWELL and Mrs. SHERMAN. His funeral took place 3 o'clock this afternoon.

OBITUARY - Margaret Maxwell

Full of years and honored by all who knew her, Margaret, wife of the late William G. Maxwell, passed on, Sunday, March 1, 1914, to her eternal reward. Mrs. Maxwell, whose maiden name was Margaret Craig, was born at Rolling Dam, September 11, 1827. On July 14, 1851, she was united in marriage with William G. Maxwell, and their married life was an example of Godly upright living. Mrs. Maxwell is survived by five children, namely, Mrs. Thomas Hodgdon of Milo, Maine, Alvin U. of Brookhaven, Mississippi, Mrs. Thomas Hill, of Hill's Point, Horatio of Bangor, and Beverley at home. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham. Interment was at Old Ridge Cemetery.

Parents of Margaret Rachel Craig are unknown. Since she was supposedly born at Rolling Dam, then a possible family is that of James Craig, Sr. and h/w Charlotte Walker. James received a Land Grant as shown in the "Crown Land Grant Index" for New Brunswick. This lot was as follows: #6 Rolling Dam Station, Dumbarton Parish, Charlotte County, 282 Acres, Date: 18 May 1818, Vol 1, No. 987. This lot is approx. 3 miles from Rolling Dam. More research required to make a connection!!!!!!!!

The Hill history dates back many years, as far back as Nehemiah's Grandfather of 1767 and his father of 1793, this being Frank and Chipman's great-grandfather. Some of the people lived at St. Stephen's and Whittier Ridge, New Brunswick and were descendants of the United Empire Loyalists.

Nehemiah Hill married Sarah Baldwin in 1849, and they raised a large family of six sons and seven daughters. In the early 1870's the two oldest sons, Alfred and Wilson, came west to Winnipeg and were so impressed with the country that they sent word back to the family to sell out and come west. About 1877 a bad grasshopper plague hit, so the boys sent word back home telling them to stay put for the time being, but the message arrived too late as they were already on their way. The family stopped off at St. Catharines, Ontario, brought a place and stayed there.

In 1881, Tom Baldwin a Baptist minister, his wife and son, Frank of Chatham, Ontario and a contingent of his three nieces and five nephews (Hill relatives) were the first of the Cannington Manor pioneers to cross the Pipestone Creek southwest of Moosomin. Herbert L. PULK, of the Ledge (Charlotte Co.) was drowned at that place on Monday eve. last. He boarded a small raft to get to his boat which was moored a distance from the shore. When he reached the boat he went to step in but by some means fell between the raft and the boat. A companion who witnessed the accident says he never rose after first going down. His father and brother also met death by drowning some years ago.

Notes for Olivia A. Turner:

NOTE!!

Olive/Olivia Hannah that married Amos C. Young was actually Mrs Olive Hannah w/o James Hannah. This puzzle was solved with the 1881 census where there are two Hannah children in the home of Amos C. Young and his wife Olive. These two were Colon J. Hannah, age 17, and George E. Hannah, age 13.

Notes for Nellie Brickley:

The following email segment was received from Joanie Hannah, 4 June 2007:

It appears a "Mrs Colin Hannah" died Jan 23 1905 at San Francisco, bur SF, age 36, born NB...."her husband was the first officer on the "Pomona" " (DT art 29 Jan 1905)

This is from a lady who does Genealogy look-ups in the Humboldt Rm, Eureka Library..

According to the 1920 CA census records Colin's wife ' Rose' was born in CA. If you subtract Mrs Colin Hannah's age, she was born abt 1868 which is pretty close to Ida's (for News Papers..!) Anyway, If this was the first wife of our Colin J Hannah.. It gives us a question Mark?

Mrs. Etta McCallum - Dies in 90th Year September 16, 1954

Many border residents regret the death of Mrs. Etta McCallum, formerly a resident of Calais avenue whose death occurred in St. Stephen last weekend at the home of her niece, Mrs. Marie Bartlett in her 90th year. Mrs. McCallum, who was a resident of Calais from 1926 to 1944 was born March 20, 1865, daughter of Angus and Margaret Pratt Turner in Digdeguash.

As a young woman she married Peter H. McCallum, who predeceased her in 1912. Mrs. McCallum's sister and husband also died at an early age, leaving two daughters, Mrs. Alden Murray, Oak Bay and Mrs. John Ross of St. Andrews, whom Mrs. McCallum cared for. In early life she joined the Digdeguash Methodist Church and while a resident of Calais was a member of Knight Memorial Methodist Church. She was a teacher in the church school at Digdeguash.

During failing health the past five months, Mrs. McCallum was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Bartlett, 16 Church Street.

Prayers for Mrs. McCallum were said at the home of Mrs. John Ross in St. Andrews last Sunday followed by services at the church, Rev. R.H. Barker officiating. The hymn, The Lord Is My Shepherd was sung by the choir of the Elmsville church during the service. Bearers were four nephews, Kenneth H. Murray, Rudolph A. Murray, Lawson Murray and Prescott Smith.

Due to inclement weather, Mr. Edgar Finlay, of Sarnia, Ontario, arrived Sunday evening too late for the service. Surviving members of the family who attended the service are Mrs. Alden Murray of Oak Bay, Mrs. John Ross, St. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Murchie, Mrs. Don J. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Laurie, Wilbur McKee, Mrs. Edward MacKay and Mrs. Edward Carson. Several people from Calais, St. Stephen, The Ledge, Bocabec and surrounding communities attended the service. Many floral tributes attested to the esteem in which friends held Mrs. McCallum. Mrs. Harry Baxter of Hampton, PEI, a niece was unable to attend.

1861 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p1, age 10, name: Almira

This would indicate that she was born in 1850 at a time before the census date and not 1851 as shown in other references. However, this could be caused by the age at next birthday. Other provinces of Canada use the age at next birthday for the 1851 census. In some cases, the 1851 census was actually taken in 1852 which makes it even more complicated.

Hanson Family Holds Reunion

Nearly 100 members of the Hanson Family Association, descendants of Thomas Hanson who came from England and settled in Dover about the year 1652, gathered at the home of the secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, on the Rochester Hill Road last Thursday for their 26th reunion.

During the day piano solos were contributed by Miss Estelle Hanson of Beverly, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey of South Berwick, Me., well known organist of the first Congregational Church in Dover and Clarence D. Mooney, pianist and organist of Laconia.

At one o'clock in a veritable hall of flags, a beautiful lunch was served one table being 60 feet long, decorated with flowers from the gardens of Mrs. Clarence C. Hanson. After lunch came the business meeting, when the following officers were elected; President, Herbert N. Hanson, Boston, vice-president, Bert Hanson, New York City, Mrs. Eunice L. Wiggin and C. Herbert Canney of Dover, secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, Rochester, treasurer, Mrs. Carrie E. Varney, Dover, historians, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam, Brooklyn, NY. trustees for three years, dr. George W. Nutter, salmon falls, Rev. Harold L. Hanson, Claremont, Charles W. Hanson, Cliftondale, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey, So. Berwick, Me., Mrs. C. Herbert Canney, Dover, and Dr. William T. Hanson, Bridgewater, Mass.

The principal speakers of the afternoon were the Rev. Harold L. Hanson, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam of 624 Macon street, Brooklyn, NY., who is compiling a history of the family. Mr. Stam is seeking data for his genealogy and members were urged to send to him any information they be able to contribute. Others who spoke briefly were C.H. Canney, Dr. William T. Hanson, and Ex-President Willard Hanson and Charles Wm. Hanson. A recitation by Mrs. Charrie E. Varney who was heartily applauded, closed the exercises of the day.

1871 Census, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist 175I, Div 2, p16, family#61, frame 78/178, age 10

From a paper published at Portland, Oregon, and refers to a native of St. Stephen.

'John Danley, a sawyer in the employ of the Portland Lumber & Manufacturing Company, is laid up at his home in Fulton Park from the effects of a peculiar accident. He was engaged in running an edger, when a long, slender strip of fir struck him in the right thigh, one end passing through the leg. The "splinter" was eight feet in length and about an inch square at the end. A fellow workman pulled the stick out backward, and it took a good exercise of strength to do so. The wound is ragged and painful, and will keep Danley from work for several weeks. He had been in the habit of wearing a sole-leather apron as a shield against such flying missiles, but this stick struck on one side of the apron.'

(The paper spelled the last name as "Danley")

VICTIM OF AUTO ACCIDENT

The Oregon Journal, published at Hillsdale, Oregon of recent date contained this item.

"John Edward Denley of Hillsdale, who was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Vance of Salem on the Pacific Highway Saturday night, died early today at Good Samaritan hospital.

Inasmuch as the accident occurred just outside the city limits, the sheriff's office has been notified. No arrests have been made.

Mr. Denley was fifty nine years of age and had conducted a farm near Multnomah station for thirty one years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Denley, and four children, Florence, Henry F., R. L. and W. A. Denley."

"Jack" Denley is well remembered by many of the middle aged residents of St. Stephen. His home was just outside the town limits, beyond "the Tom Peele place" on the road that leads past the eastern side of the St. Stephen cemetery, in the home now occupied by his sister, Mrs. Alex O'Brien. He went west many years ago.

The clipping has the date August 21, 1919

Residents of Old Ridge and surrounding districts were saddened of the death of G. Lindsay Turner, who passed away in the early hours of that morning.

Mr. Turner, one of Charlotte county's best known and most highly respected citizens, was born at Greenock, March 7, 1872, but moved to Old Ridge with his family when a young man. On September 4, 1901 he was united in marriage with Clara Mae Libby of Heathland.

Besides his widow four daughters, Mrs. J. Mitchell Lindsay, Mrs. Louise F. Allen, Mrs. Frederick Gordon and Mrs. W.G. Scott; one son, George and five grandchildren who are left to mourn the loss of loving husband and father and who was always happiest when they were all at home with him.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. E.A. Gunn, was held at his home Tuesday November 15, and was attended by numerous friends from all walks of life. A profusion of flowers and many sympathetic messages attested to the esteem in which he was held. The family were all at home with their mother.

A quartet from St. Stephen sang two selections. The pallbearers were C.W. Hanley, Cleveland Tyler, Milton Maxwell, and Rufus Stewart, close friends of the family. Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Mary Anne Maxwell:

Mrs. Joseph Boyd Honored On 84th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Agnes (Maxwell) Boyd celebrated he birthday at the home of hr daughter, Mrs. Agnes Sawyer of Hawthorne Street, on Wednesday last, and was at home during the day to friends and relatives who called in large numbers. She received many cards and gifts. A beautiful birthday cake made by her granddaughter, Mrs. Vernon Barr, which she served to her guests with tea and sandwiches.

Mrs. Boyd enjoys good health and keeps busy with crocheting, knitting and reading. Her mind is keen and she enjoys the radio discussing the events of the day. Although she broke her hip over three years ago and had been confined to her home most of the time since, she is able to get up every day and be about the home in a walker.

Among out of town guests were her grandson, Blair Brown, and wife and son Tommy of Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Boyd has lived all her life in and around St. Stephen and has many friends who wish her many more birthdays.

Notes for Jesse Leigh White:

Jesse Leigh White and Blanche

In an earlier section of this family story we left Jesse Leigh White on the train travelling to Fredericton to attend Normal School. After graduation he was engaged to teach in the town of Grand Falls, Victoria County NB. Here he began what was to be a most successful teaching career. We have already related how Blanche Maxwell had also launched on a teaching career in Charlotte County. It is possible that they were in the same class while attending Normal School. If this is so, it explains how Blanche left Charlotte County and continued her career in Grand Falls. Not long afterwards these fellow teachers talked about marriage. Many years later J.L. white told me that it was their intention to be married at the end of the school term in 1895 but they changed their minds and decided on an earlier date, the Christmas vacation period in 1894 at the home of the bride's parents in Moores Mills. The Anglican minister Rev. M. Milledge performed the ceremony. The following clipping from a local paper tells of the event. The list of guests includes names that are already familiar to us from earlier sections of this record. The listing of the various wedding gifts is interesting and amusing.

After their marriage in 1894, J.L. White and Blanche continued to teach in Grand Falls. Both are remembered by the old timers as excellent teachers who expected excellence from their pupils. Teaching was not J.L. White's only interest. He engaged in a few commercial ventures in the community opening a grocery store on the other side of the river from the main town. He also made some investment in railway shares from which he later earned substantial profits. In these years they were also busy having their family. After two still births, their daughter Leitha was born in 1899. Edward Maxwell was born in 1904. Gretchen's birth year was 1907 and Marion came in 1909. In May 1910 Constance was born and the youngest child Jay Leigh arrived in 1914.

It was in 1912 that J.L. White gave up teaching and put all his energy into his business ventures. With vision and courage he built a huge general store on the main street of the town. Almost anything could be purchased in this emporium with the sign J.L. White, General Merchant". There were departments, Groceries, dry goods, hardware. Even caskets were available and the services of Aunt Leslie Estey were called in when coffins had to be lined. Blanche said of her husband that he would tackle anything to turn a dollar. Along with the general store he built an extensive business buying and selling pulpwood. He was involved in all these ventures in 1912. It is no wonder he resigned his school teaching position. He and blanche were key figures in the business and social life of Grand Falls. In that same year he was offered the nomination of the Conservatives to represent them. He accepted this challenge and became the member of Legislature for Victoria County. For the next five years (1912 to 1917) he continued his business ventures and served as Member of the Provincial Parliament.

We have already noted his generosity toward his parents, caring for them in their old age, and doing the same for Aunt Victoria Maxwell. His brothers Bert and Charles also became established business people in Grand Falls through his support and encouragement. For his own growing family he provided every advantage. There was always hired help in the home enabling Blanche to assist her husband in the great load of necessary office work.

There were set backs as well as successes. In 1925 the family suffered a great blow. Their home next to the large store was burned to the ground and all the contents were lost except a couple of fur coats and the clothes they were wearing. Fortunately everyone got out safely, but family pictures which would be so useful in this story were lost.

The cause of the fire was attributed to the earthquake which had occurred the previous day, February 28, 1925. The stovepipes had been loosened and some were separated by the quake. This had not been noticed and when the fires were lighted the following morning, the sparks ignited the surrounding dry material and almost immediately the house was in flames. Blanche was able to rescue the youngest child as she made her way to safety. There was a heavy loss of family possessions but there was no loss of life.

Fortunately the Whites owned a second house in Grand Falls which was occupied by their son Max who has married a year earlier. It was the intention of J.L. and Blanche to make their house their home eventually. The fire hurried up the event. The house had been purchased some years earlier by Blanche. It was one of the oldest and finest houses in Grand Falls. It had been built in 1834 and occupied for a time by Sir John Campbell. Sir John had operated a large sawmill in Grand Falls in earlier years and had been the receiver general of Lower Canada. He also had considerable business connections with the American before the middle of the century. The house was located in an area overlooking the falls from which Grand Falls for its name. We have several pictures for enclosure with this story. It was generally known as the "Wade House."

Jessie Leigh White and Blanche received a serious blow with the great depression of the thirties. In his store business he had given credit very freely to his customers and continued to do so even as times got harder. He was always hoping that better times would come soon and that his customers would be able to pay their debts. As the depression continued it was evident that the business could no longer be carried on in the same way. It was impossible to collect much that was owing. It was a hard decision to make but in 1934 J. L. White gave up his store business. He had tried so hard to hang on that his health was undermined. His asthmatic condition, which had bothered him since his youth, grew worse. His doctor suggested a change of climate so he and Blanche took an extended holiday to Arizona where they visited Ruby White. This was in the winter of 1931-32. J.L. White was much better for the change and faced his business problems with courage when he returned. He realized that the store had to go and within a couple of years it happened.

J.L. White still had his pulpwood business. He bought a home in Kilburn and conducted his business from there. His sons Max and Leigh worked with him, doing most of the travelling. He died February 5, 1941.

After the death of Jessie Leigh White, Blanche White continued to live in Kilburn but her son Max was concerned that she was alone so much of the time. Max now managed the business his father had established. His home was in Andover so he arranged a suite of rooms in his home for his mother. She made her headquarters here but spent much of her time in the homes of her daughters, Leitha in Boston, Marion in Alberta and Constance in British Columbia. She was always a most welcome guest and we are grateful for the memories we have of the visits she made to us. Her grandchildren have happy and rich memories of their grandmother White.

She was a faithful member of the Anglican Church and of the I.O.D.E. She took a keen interest in the Order of the Eastern Star and occupied the top position in New Brunswick for a time. This term as "Worthy Grand" gave her the opportunity to travel throughout the province and to give her presidential addresses. She loved to talk and was a most acceptable speaker. Blanche White had many other talents. Always interested in handwork, there are many samples of her workmanship in the homes of her friends and family. In her last years, she continued to use her spare moments tating and I have yet to discover what happened to the yards and yards of lace she made. Some of her family and friends have in their possession, paintings and drawings which she did in earlier years. They are much beyond average in excellence and are prized by those who have them.

In the summer of 1957 Marion and I motored to Nova Scotia and on our way we stopped to visit Gramma White in Andover. She was 87 years of age. We suggested that she accompany us on our trip. She had never been to Nova Scotia and was most anxious to see that province. She came along and her presence added to our interest as we visited Halifax, Grand Pre, Digby as well as place in Cape Breton. She enjoyed every bit of the journey.

Blanche White died in 1957 and is buried in the cemetery at Grand Falls.

Marriage Notes for Ethel Maxwell and Jesse White:

Notice of wedding in the St. Stephen Paper

The monotony of our usually quiet little village was very pleasantly varied on Wednesday evening of last week, by a wedding which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Maxwell. The contracting parties were their only daughter Blanche, and Mr. Leigh White of Centerville, Carleton County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Millidge, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. Mr. Arthur Maxwell and Miss Mabel Penkes brother and cousin of the bride, were the attendants. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of brown cloth, beautifully trimmed with silk, with ornaments and bouquet of roses. Hot tea and coffee with substantial refreshments were served immediately after the ceremony after which a few hours were spent very delightfully to social converse and in listening to the music which was finely rendered by some of the younger guests, while Miss Ann Douglas presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. white left by Saturday morning train for Mr. white's home in Centerville, where they will remain for a few days. They will then go to Grand Falls, where they will reside. There are also ten grandchildren. The eldest grandchild, Robert c. Clark, son of Charles Clark, was married to Miss Ivory Dow of Brownville at 9 a.m. on his grandparents golden anniversary. The youngest grandchild, Millidge Allen Clark, son of Frank Clark, Jr. was baptized by Rev. J.L. Rose of Chipman on the anniversary day.

In the evening about fifty relatives and friends gathered and gave Mr. and Mrs. Clark a pleasant surprise. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.

Also present was a life long friend and neighbor, Joseph Milbery, 87, who never misses making two calls a week for a chat and a game of auction forty -fives.

The couple received many beautiful presents and cards, and from Mr. Clark's niece in grand Rapids, Michigan a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The best wishes of everyone go to this remarkable couple for many more years of happiness.

Margaret Christie was married on Hills' Point for awhile and then moved about 2 miles on the road to Lily Hill which was the main road, before the causeway was built. Joe, was the mailman for many years until he retired and his youngest son Herbie took over. Joe was a typical old time mailman who followed the theory of "whether rain or sleet or snow the mail must go through". I have heard my father say of Joe delivering the mail on snow shoes as the drifts were too high for a horse and sleigh. I can remember him bringing the mail to the Point in a sleigh as the roads were not plowed. In all of Joe's years, he never once went on strike.

During the 2nd World War Howard Hill said that "Old Joe Stalin looked like Joe Richardson but he thought that he (Joe Stalin) was a good deal smarter."

Maggie and Joe had a large family of 8 children, they were:

Seymour Freemont - 1902 and died 1971.

Albert Gilman - 1905 (lives in Black's Harbour)

Alice Ethelyn - 1907 (lives in St. John)

Marguerite Theresa (lives on St. David Ridge)

- 1912 (lives on Bay Road)

Marion Beatrice Helena - 1915 (lives in St. Stephen)

Joseph Eugene - 1918 (lives in St. Stephen)

Herbert Howard - 1920 died 1972.

He married Annie Appleton Hindmarch 22 May 1903 in Arcola, SK. She was born 12 August 1877 in Newcastle, England, and died 16 June 1961 in Matsqui, BC.

Notes for Franklin Hartley Hill:
Franklin Hartley Hill

He was born in 1866 and came to Cannington in 1888 or 1889. He first homesteaded the land cornering the quarter where he later lived. He worked for the Becktons for a brief time then went to British Columbia to prospect and was at the Caribou while the gold rush was on. He tells of three men leaving camp, one died, one vanished and one was lucky enough to make it through. Frank did do some prospecting. Some of the other Hills had started out for the Caribou overland, got as far as the Peace River area and found it too hard so started trading for furs.

Frank later returned to his land SW-13-9-2-2 and married Annie Hindmarch on May 22, 1903. With the aid of James Beattie, he built the log house that still stands on the property, now owned by his son, Alfred Hill, and is farmed by Dan Hodgson.

Frank was an elder of Sutherland Church and a very religious man. His daughter, Annie, recalls the family involvement in the building of the church as they discussed the donations of the Eaton's and Simpson's stores. One gave the chairs and the other gave the floor matting. Reverend Thomas Lawson was the first minister in the new church. Frank was still serving communion in the church at the age of eighty.

There was no school in the area when Alice, their oldest child was ready to begin Grade One so she lived with the Appletons, near the Moos Mountain School and attended it until the Keverne School was built in 1912 or 1913, north of the former Wes Downery home.

Frank became trustee on the first Keverne school board and in all served thirty-two years.

Annie was born on August 12, 1877 and came to Canada from England with her parents, James Fry and Ann Hindmarch and presumably got her schooling at Cannington. In her younger years, prior to her marriage, she worked for Mrs. LeMesurier helping to look after the children and other household chores, and possibly helped other ladies of the neighborhood.

Annie and Frank had a family of six, ranging in ages from about five to sixteen, when Annie had the misfortune to get cancer in the roof of her mouth. She was taken to Winnipeg for the operation, which turned out to be a complete success. It is not known at this time how long she was there or how long the operation took. Although she was left with a speech impediment, she was a very lucky person to have been able to come through this type of operation with a complete cure. A few years ago, a doctor in Vancouver told her that it was a miracle, that even yet they could not guarantee as much success as he had had. So Annie was another one of those great ladies of that era. Although she was not a very big person, she was able to hold her own with all the trials and tribulations of life, as they came along. She was a great cook and homemaker as well as doing her share of the outside chores.

One of Frank's and Annie's hobbies was their beautiful flower garden around the old log house. The long lilac hedge outlining the lane out to the road, was a neighborhood show piece every spring.

Frank passed away on January 7, 1954 and Annie passed away on June 16, 1961.

Annie and Frank's family were:

- 1) Alice born March 13, 1904, married Ed Ross and farmed at Heward for a while and then moved to Ituna area. They farmed there until about 1936, then moved out to Langley, British Columbia where they have lived ever since. Alice and Ed have three children., Patricia, Donald and Dennis and they all reside in British Columbia.
- 2) James, born March 24, 1906 would likely get his schooling at Keverne. He farmed north of Stoughton. He met Mildred Hood of Ituna, Saskatchewan. They were married and moved to Langley, B.C. to live and have resided there ever since. Mildred and James have three sons, Gordon, Edward and Bruce.
- 3) Wesley was born August 8, 1908, also went to Keverne School. He farmed north of Stoughton with his brother Jim. They moved to the Ituna area with their livestock and personal possessions loaded on racks and wagons hauled by horses. Wesley married Florence Hood of Ituna on May 24, 1939. Their marriage was very brief as Wesley was called into the army of World War 11 and was killed on December 11, 1994 in Italy, serving in the Canadian army Engineers on an advanced bridge site on the Lamone River, Hill Bay, on Wiley Lake in Northern Saskatchewan was named by the Provincial Government to commemorate his sacrifice. Florence and Wesley had twin daughters, Annie Mildred and Alice Irene.
- 4) Annie was born July 8, 1910, was also a Keverne School girl. She married Edward Dunkerly and they lived on the former James Beattie farm now owned by Murray Short.

Edward served in the army in World War Two, and while he was overseas, Annie kept the farm going.

Annie and Ed served on the Sutherland Church board as well as being active in any other community project. Ed was on the board for the Arcola Larger School Unit for some time, as well.

In the fall of 1959, Annie and Ed and family moved to British Columbia where they had lived ever since. They had two children, Jean and Charles, who took their schooling in Carlyle. They both reside in British Columbia.

5) Willard was born on November 28, 1912.

6) Alfred was born July 5, 1915.

They two, went to Keverne School and rumors have it that especially Alfred, was great for giving the teachers a bad time. Both Bill and Alf lived at home with their parents and eventually took over the farm. They are great nature lovers and can tell many a story of their hunting and trapping experiences and if we could just get them to write it down, it would make very interesting reading.

Alfred was always noted for his great vegetable garden and strawberry patches, and every spring would be the first to have radishes and lettuce in the neighborhood. He was a great guy to have for a friend when the corn was ready too. After his mother passed away, I believe, Alf more or less took over the household duties while Willard ( or Bill, as we all knew him), did more of the farming part. They kept the usual farm animals, horses, cows, pigs and sheep and experimented with different kinds of fowl. Bill's evening enjoyment was playing Bridge with the neighbors. He was also a member of the Bridge Club.

Both Bill and Alf are now retired and living in Manor, Saskatchewan and enjoying their leisure time at the Over Sixties Drop In Center.

5) Minnie Maggie Victoria Hill

She was born in 1869, the fifth child of Nehemiah and Sarah Hill that stayed in this area. She married Samuel Brayford at Canduff. Their homestead was SW-32-2-9-1, north of the Tom Brayfords. They had ten children, namely, Ethel, Frank, Sam, Grace, Lily, Norman, Roy, Marian, Vesta and Ida.

Grace married Jasper Fox and farmed north of Manor for years. The Jasper Fox farm was well known all over the prairies for the fine purebred cattle. Jasper was a leader in improving the Hereford Breed. Jasper is now deceased and Grace resides in the Moose Mountain Lodge in Carlyle.

Friends throughout Charlotte County, particularly in the community of Oak Bay, were saddened last week to learn of the death on Good Friday of Mrs. Herman Morrell, whose passing occurred at her home at Oak Bay. Although in failing health and confined to her bed for the past two years her death came as a shock to her family and friends.

Born at St. David in 1869, she was a daughter of the late George Walter and Madalene Hall. She was twice married, the first husband having been Allie Blake of Milltown. In 1892 she was united in marriage to Herman S. Morrell, who predeceased her in December 1944. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John Cavanaugh, Calais; Mrs. Edward Smith, Boston; and Muriel of Saint John; six sons, Walter Blake, Warwick, NY; Stephen Morrell, Patterson, NJ; Elmor, Edward, and Milton Morrell of Oak Bay, and Wellington at home; Two sisters, Mrs. Albert Davis, St. Stephen, and Mrs. Ernest Bailey, Cambridge, Mass.; one brother, Gillis Hall, Milltown and also 28 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Morrell was a faithful wife, a loving mother, and a kind friend and neighbor, and won the highest esteem of all who knew her. She was a devoted and active member of the United Church at Oak Bay.

The funeral was held at her late home on Monday at 2:30, Rev. D.C. MacKenzie of the United church conducting the service, assisted by Rev. J. H. Copeland of the Baptist Church. Two of her favorite hymns, "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus," and "Abide With Me" were sung.

The esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large attendance at the funeral and the beautiful floral tributes. Pallbearers were John Cavanaugh, Maynard McKinney, Percy Scott, John Toft, and Roscoe and Ernest Davis. Interment as made in the family lot in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Notes for Anna Susie Bartlett:

Obituary Anna S. Morrell

The funeral of Mrs. Morrell, widow of Amos Chester Morrell, was held Sunday April 29 at two o'clock from her home in Oak Bay where she died Friday, the 27th after a prolonged illness.

The Rev. Kenneth Hughes of the Oak Bay Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Morrell was a life long member, conducted services. Assisting were Rev. William Armstrong of Lawrence Station and Rev. V.B. Walls of the Oak Bay United Church who offered prayer.

Covered with a blanket of red roses the casket rested in a veritable bower of beauty. Floral tributes filled the room, expressions of love and of the esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

In addition to those a beautiful Bible and marker were presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, Mass., In Loving Memory of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrell. A number of friends made up a sum of money to be given to the church along with Gideon Bibles, in memory of Mrs. Morrell and many contributed to the Heart Fund in her name. Burial was in the Oak Bay Cemetery.

Born March 29, 1872 in Bartlett's Mills, N.B. the eldest child of Edward and Frances Bartlett, she attended the country school there and later the Fredericton Normal School from which she graduated.

From that time until her marriage to Mr. Morrell in 1901, she was a teacher, first at the Oak haven School then at the school in Chamcook. Former pupils from these two schools never forgot her. Over the years presents of flowers and fruit came to her from then on special occasions. Two of them were present at the funeral, Mr. Harley Bedford and Mr. Herman Hopps both of Oak Haven.

To the work of her church she gave her dedicated services, and was filling the offices of clerk and Sunday School superintendent four years ago, when ill health made it impossible for her to carry on. Only then did she pass the responsibilities over to others of a younger generation.

A devoted wife and mother, she was the heart of a happy home and indeed of a House by the side of the Road where the smile of this precious Christian lady welcomed all who came and came they did from far and near and all who stayed to enjoy its abundant hospitality.

To those in need within in her sphere, she was a refuge and help. We shall not soon see her life again.

Mrs. Morrell leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Manning (Marion) of Bathurst and Mrs. George Hyslop (Frances) of Oak Bay; seven grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, two brothers, Hollis bracelet of Bartletts Mills and Lewis Bartlett of Bayside besides several nieces and nephews.
