Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

A car crash last Thursday evening caused the death of one man, and hospitalized a second on the Ledge Road near here.

Killed in the car crash was Donald M. Lord 29 of Back Bay and in Charlotte County Hospital with a fractured skull in a second occupant of the car. Leigh Anthony's condition had been described as good by hospital officials here.

The car in which the two were occupants apparently failed to make a curve in the road, went out of control and struck a culvert.

Charlotte County Coroner Ed Williston said no inquest would be held into the back Bay man's death and the accident.

Mr. Lord is survived by his wife, the former Marsha Leavitt, one son, George, his maternal grandmother, two brothers and five sisters. He rested at the St. George funeral Home until 3 p.m. Sunday when the body was taken to the United Baptist Church for service at 3:30 p.m. Interment was made in the St. George Rural Cemetery.

LORD, PHILLIP J. "PHIL" - 67, Grosses Coques, died September 21, 2001, at home. Born in St. Andrews, N.B., he was a son of the late Joseph and Carrie (Riecer) Lord. Phil was born and raised in St. Andrews N.B. where he attended and graduated from Charlotte County Grammar School. Around 1950, he started working for the Bank of Nova Scotia in Blacks Harbour, N.B. From there he worked his way up in the banking profession from the Charlotte Street St. John Bank to Yarmouth and Halifax. The last 20 years, he was manager at the downtown Truro branch. Phil's retirement years were spent much differently than his banking years, he became a collector of a large variety of antiques and what he called "old stuff". One of the major attractions of this hobby was the many interesting people he came into contact with each day. All through the nine years that Phil lived in Clare he became very well-known and quickly made many friends throughout the community and beyond. Phil will be certainly missed by everyone. Surviving are his wife, Jeanne; daughters, Heather (Mrs. Denis Moore), Ladson, S.C.; Natalie (Mrs. Brian Mach), Plymouth Wis.; brother, Joseph, St. Andrews, N.B. He was predeceased by his first wife, Joyce. Visitation will be Tuesday from 12 noon to 1:30p.m. in Meteghan Funeral Home. Cecil Durrell Lord
September 26, 1940 - December 21, 2013

Obituary HomeMake a DonationSend a CondolenceCecil Durrell Lord was born on Christie Ridge, in York County, New Brunswick, on September 26, 1940, to Charlotte Annabell (Christie) and Edward Lawrence Lord. He passed away quietly at the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B., on December 21, 2013, after a three year battle with liver cancer.

A long time resident of Charlotte County. He loved his family, old cars, motorcycles, boats, planes, and travel. He travelled to Ontario to work as a mechanic, where he took courses at the Esso Car Clinic and worked at several garages. He moved back home to the Board Road and opened his own two bay garage. He always had an old car or two and was always working on them and everyone else's vehicles. He was happiest when he was helping someone else, whether it was a friend or someone that was stranded at the airport or on the side of the road. Come and share your stories with us as we celebrate the life of Cecil Durrell Lord.

Memorial and interment services will be held on May 24, 2014 at 11 a.m., at the United Baptist Cemetery in Rolling Dam, N.B. with a reception to follow at the Orange Hall.

She was born 08 October 1920 in Tower Hill, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, and died 07 February 2011 in Fredericton, York Co., NB.

Notes for Hazen Maxwell Richardson:

RICHARDSON, HAZEN MAXWELL (MAX) - Hazen Maxwell (Max) Richardson passed away in Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B., on July 31, 2003 in his 80th year. He is survived by his wife, Kathleen (Pollard), one daughter, Kathie Wells (Robert), Ottawa, Ont; one son, George (Judy), Fredericton, N.B.; one grandchild, Alice Richardson, two sisters, Ruth (Hume), Portland, Me., and Mary Gene (Lee), Saint John, N.B.; one brother, Edwin Richardson (Jane), Ottawa, Ont.; half sister, Grace Gendron (Mark), two half brothers, Elmer Richardson (Joyce), St. Stephen, N.B.; Vance Richardson (Elizabeth), Nova Scotia; several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by one brother, William Richardson. Max was born in 1924 in St. Stephen, N.B., the son of Hazen and Margaret (Forsyth) Richardson of Richardson, Deer Island, where he spent his early years. His fondest memories of childhood were times spent with his grandfather, master boatbuilder George Everett Richardson in his boatshop. This interest in boat building was to continue through his entire life and his retirement allowed him the time to use those skills for the design and construction of two wooden cabin cruisers. As a young man, Max travelled to Ontario where he worked in the steel mills and graduated from Central Technical College in Toronto as a bricklayer. In 1942 he joined the Royal Canadian Engineers in Fredericton and was sent overseas on the Aquatania, returning on the same vessel in 1946. Later that year he married Kathleen (Kaye) Pollard. Max worked for many years around the local area as a well-known masonry contractor. In 1973 he became maintenance supervisor for School District No. 23, a position he held until his retirement in 1989. In 1953 he joined Victoria Lodge No. 26 F&AM rising to the office of Worshipful Master in 1969. He went through all the chairs in all York Rite bodies, but one and was a founding member of the Luxor Temple AAONMS clown unit. In 1972 he was awarded the first emblem ever presented to a Noble for outstanding service. He was also a member of the Queen Mary Chapter No. 4 O.E.S. and he served as District Deputy Grand Master, District 5 of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick. Max's retirement years were spent indulging his passions - boat building and outdoor activities such as snowmobiling around his camp in Canoose. He built two cabin cruisers - the 20' Alice K was launched in 1993 and the 28' Kathie A was launched in 2000. Declining health forced him to downscale his boat building activities, but he completed several large models, including the Bluenose, the Pauline, the Alma Connors and the Page. Most of these were boats originally built by his grandfather on Deer Island or by his uncle, Albion Richardson, of Blacks Harbour. Max had many, many friends and spent a great deal of his time in their company offering advice and assistance or just enjoying their friendship. His funeral service was held at the S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral in St. Stephen on Aug. 2, 2003 with Rev. Eric E. Caldwell officiating. Pallbearers were Leigh Waldron, Herbert Weatherby, Chester Hyslop and cousins Dick, Floyd and Dale Richardson. The eulogy was delivered by his long-time friend Leigh Waldron. Interment was at the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Hazen Richardson and Kathleen Pollard:

Marriage - Richardson - Pollard

A pretty wedding of wide interest to many relatives and friends was solemnized in Trinity Church, St. Stephen, at 2 o'clock, when Kathleen Victoria, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey R. Pollard, of St. Stephen and Hazen Maxwell Richardson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Richardson of Deer Island, were united in marriage by the rector, Rev. A. Raymond Smith. The church was tastefully decorated with snapdragons and pink and white chrysanthemums, and the guest pews were marked by nosegays of sweetpeas, with white satin bows.

Miss Phyllis Hunter presided at the organ, and rendered special nuptial music. During the signing of the register, Mr. Charles Ryder sang in pleasing voice "Because."

Entering the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage the bride was charming in a floor length gown of white sheer, with sweetheart neckline trimmed with d'aleneon lace, tight fitting bodice, with inserts of d'aleneon lace and dainty ruffles in the full skirt, tiny self covered buttons fastened down the back to a point slightly below the waist line, the long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil was of white net with a coronet of net and white daffodils. Her only ornament was a gold locket, heart shaped, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses with wide blue sash.

The bride was attended by Miss Mary Gene Richardson, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, who wore a floor length gown of shell pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline and tiered skirt.. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Her shoulder length veil was light blue with a cornet of shell pink daffodils and pink velvet ribbon. The groomsman was Ralph Pollard, brother of the bride, and the ushers were Lloyd Pollard, brother of the bride and Philip Weatherby, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was attractively gowned in a jacket dress of black silk, with white lace ruffles, and silver buttons trimming the jacket. Her earrings were of silver sequins, and her corsage of Talisman roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents where a buffet lunch was served. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth tastefully decorated in a color scheme of blue and white, with pink roses, tall white tapers in silver holders and centered with a three- tiered wedding cake.

The guests were served by friends of the bride, Mrs. Phillip Caldwell, Mrs. Philip Weatherby, Miss Eileen Dick, Mrs. Lloyd Pollard, sister in law of the bride, and Miss Ruth Richardson, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Eva Ludgate, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. Ralph Pollard had charge of the guest book and presided over the wedding gifts.

CANAL - Self-employed Charlotte County businessman, avid outdoorsman and family man Maynard Justason was one of those wheeler-dealer nice guys everybody seemed to love.

Friendly, outgoing and caring, and blessed with a love of people, the Blacks Harbour native always managed "to eke out a living somehow," Gail (Waite), his wife of 44 years, said last week.

"He really had quite an entrepreneurial spirit," she added.

Justason, who left school after Grade 10 to work at the Connors Bros. retail store in Blacks Harbour, was willing to try his hand at just about anything in order to support his family.

He left Connors' store to go lobster and weir fishing and, for a few years, got into digging, buying and selling clams.

From 1968 to 1970, he and Gail operated a canteen called Maynard's Lunch in St. George, where an order of three large pieces of fish and chips would set you back just 50 cents.

He then acquired Charlie Hawkins' old store at Pennfield Corner where, for the next 13 years, he sold "boots, shoes, groceries, anything you could sell," said Gail. He also acquired the old Orange Hall building across from the store, which went through several incarnations under his ownership, including those of a furniture store, pool hall and redemption centre.

But Justason's greatest accomplishment and lasting legacy, said Gail, was creating "a loving home" for his children - sons Bill and Brad and daughter Sari - and teaching them good values.

The family lived over the old store at Pennfield Corner until 1978, when Justason purchased a cottage on Lake Utopia at Canal, which he enlarged to become his own version of On Golden Pond.

"He loved his home on the lake, that was his pride and joy," said Gail. "He also cared very deeply for his family and friends.

"He really did like people and being around them. He would sit out on the deck here, in later years, and yell to the passing fishermen, 'Are you catching any fish?' Of course, they couldn't hear him and would cut their motor. And that would strike up another conversation."

The deck was also where, after being diagnosed with inoperable colon cancer in 2006, Justason came to spend much of his time each day once he had made the obligatory morning trip to spend time with his sister at Hooper's Store in Blacks Harbour.

Justason died peacefully at home on Jan. 24. He was 69.

Born on May 11, 1938, Maynard Eugene Justason was the second of three children of the late Emery and Margaret (Leavitt) of Blacks Harbour. Besides his wife and children, his survivors include two sisters, Pauline Tucker and Carolyn Hooper, and two grandchildren, Taylor and Cassidy Justason.

He and Gail, who hailed from nearby Beaver Harbour, first met after she started going to school in Blacks Harbour in Grade 9. It was later, when the boys in her circle started driving, that they became an item.

"The boys from Blacks always went to Beaver to get their girlfriends," said Gail.

The Justasons married on July 20, 1963, at Christ Church (Anglican) in Pennfield and shelled out $3,500 to purchase their first home in Deadman's Harbour.

As a young man, he played ball, and in his 40s and 50s, he curled out of both the Blacks Harbour and St. George curling clubs.

He counted hunting, trout fishing and travelling among his passions, including trips with Gail to visit family and exotic vacation spots in Hawaii and the Caribbean.

"He seemed to be very content no matter where he was, or what he was doing," said Gail. "But I think he was happiest when he was out on the deck."

Reginald Roland Richardson

1934-2011

Born on Campobello, NB on October 9, 1934 he was the son of Reginald and Harriet (Homan) Richardson. He is survived by wife Marilyn (Waite), daughter Lucille Cline (Steven) and son Christopher (Cathy Perkins); four grandchildren, Ross, Travis, Macy and Riley; sisters Andrea (Ken), Gail (Douglas), Beth (Myles); brother Dana (Betty), brother in law Goldie Smith and several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents, infant daughter Jacqueline Lee; sisters Patricia Smith and Sharon (Barry).

Growing up in Richardson, NB he later enlisted in the Canadian Army. After serving and returning home he worked on a sardine carrier with his brother in law Goldie. On July 9, 1961, he married Marilyn (Waite) starting his family. Most of his life was spent supplying the fishermen with his diving service which he did with dedication and pride, finishing his employment with the DOT and the DI school. During his diving career he discovered the wreck "Britannia" where some artifacts can still be seen at the Saint John Museum. With a spirit of adventure and always learning he enjoyed life to the fullest from building and flying his own ultra-lite to building and operating his own hovercraft. He even acquired his dream of sailing his Cape Dory in 2010. Music and friends also gave him much pleasure, from playing guitar in earlier years and starting the mandolin at age 69 he had the pleasure of meeting many new friends at bluegrass festivals. Always enjoying the water and island he and Marilyn spent 20 years collecting Indian arrowheads and artifacts with a collection better than most museums. More than anything, his love and kindness towards his family and friends was known to all who knew him. So much loved and missed, he leaves with us his legacy and lessons in life.

By Reggie's request there will be no visitation. A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, March 16, 2011 at the Lords Cove Church of Christ, Lords Cove NB at 2 pm with Rev. Glenn Cox officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations to a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated by the family. Notes for Edward Glendon Justason:

Edward Glendon Justason

1937-2018

Edward Glendon Justason It is with deep sadness that the family of Edward Glendon Justason of Pennfield, N.B. announces his passing at the Saint John Regional Hospital on February 12, 2018. Born on February 14, 1937 in St. Stephen, he was the husband of Beverley A. (Butler) Justason and the son of the late David and Alverta (Wadlin) Justason.

As with most young boys, much thought was invested in what he would do and be when he became a man. Hours were spent in his small workshop as he meticulously constructed model planes of balsa wood and glue, planning for the day when he would become a pilot and own a small airplane. And so it was, in the mid-1960's, he received his Private Pilot's License and with three friends purchased an airplane. As he grew older, he fashioned a sail from a sheet and sailed the mighty Letang River in a flat-bottomed boat planning to learn to sail and to own his own sailboat. And so it was, in the late 1970's, he purchased an Independent 20, then a Grampian 30 and finally, a Hughes 38. By then, five Justason children and Beverley became his crew and quite skilled sailors through many exciting adventures.

Ed was a graduate of Eastern Charlotte Regional School and Community College in Moncton as a Mechanical Draftman, working in Toronto upon graduation. His love, however, was anything that possessed wheels, especially Fords. Many vehicles were skillfully restored and while doing so, invaluable skills were passed on to his sons. His greatest project was the complete building of two Bricklin's from parts purchased when the plant closed.

He and Beverley greatly enjoyed camping, especially in our own beautiful province. He was very gratified that all of his children grew up to love camping and to thrive in the outdoors.

Ed finished his working career with Royal Insurance (Royal Sun Alliance). He was an adherent of the Pennfield Baptist Church and a member of the Christ Church (Anglican) in Pennfield.

He is survived by Beverley, his wife of 57 years; children: Jeffrey (Judy), Dana (Michelle Leslie), Dale (Valerie), Katie (Jim) MacDonald and Jennifer (Chad Abbot) Breau; brother, Blair (Pat) Justason; sister-in-law, Beverley P. Justason; brother-in-law, Paul (Brenda) Butler and many cousins, nephews and nieces. He was the loving, proud "Pops" to his grandchildren: Olivia and Colleen Justason, Carly and Sarah Justason, Ryan and Christopher MacDonald and Dale Breau; two great-grandchildren were greatly loved, Claire Hooper and Harrison Justason-Lord.

He was predeceased by his parents, in-laws, Arthur and Phyllis Butler, brother, Paul Justason, niece, Donna

Russell and a large number of relatives.

In keeping with Ed's wishes, there will be no visitation or funeral service. Cremation has taken place. Donations in memory of Ed may be made to the St. George and Area Food Bank, the NBSPCA or to a memorial of the donor's choice.

“Loves” Love

Just a reminder from Someone you once knew,
Of a love so deep,
Of a love so true.
Of our many days
Of joy and sorrow
Of our expectations
Of holding each other
On the morrow.
Life we thought was
Long and hard,
But being with you
Was a joyful, loving Reward.
Now I await in a
Time without end
Thinking of you love,
My most faithful
Friend.
May what is the end
Is a beginning again,
With our love living
On, my wife and
Friend.
All my love, eternally,
Your loving husband, Larry G.

Notes for Peter John Gardner:
Four dead in Mother's Day accident
By KATHY BOCKUS
kathy@stcroixcourier.ca

ST. STEPHEN – Four St. Stephen area men, including a prominent local retired businessman, are dead and one man is recovering from his injuries after a head on collision early Sunday afternoon on Highway 1 near Kerr's Ridge.

Dead are businessman Alan Halstead, 67, former owner of Halstead Electric, who was alone in his Nissan car driving west from Saint John.

Also pronounced dead at the scene were Peter Gardner, 43 and Corey Kent, 22, who were traveling east on the highway in a 1986 Ford Bronco. Ronnie Johnson, 25, died Monday afternoon at the Saint John Regional Hospital from injuries he sustained in the accident. Matthew Stewart, 18, has been identified as the fourth man in the truck. He sustained non-life threatening injuries. The accident occurred around 1:15 p.m. on Mother's Day.

A spokesman for the RCMP said Kent was the driver of the full-sized Ford Bronco.

Stewart was a passenger in the front seat, while Gardner and Johnson were sitting in the rear seats. The officer said all four men were ejected from the vehicle during the accident.

He said it is not known at this time whether they were wearing seatbelts.

The RCMP spokesman said road conditions were not a factor in the accident.

He said the highway surface was damp and the weather was overcast at the time of the accident.

The officer confirmed that Halstead's vehicle crossed over the centre line of the highway, and struck the other vehicle.

Autopsies have been performed on Halstead, Kent and Gardner, but the causes of death have not yet been released. An autopsy is expected to be performed on Johnson.

The investigation is continuing.

The portion of the highway between the two exits into St. Andrews was closed for over five hours while RCMP investigators conducted a collision analysis and tow truck personnel cleaned the highway and removed the crushed vehicles.

Gardner's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday, with a service at 10 a.m.

A memorial service for Halstead will be held at the Kirk McColl United Church on Thursday at 3 p.m.

Kent's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday at 2 p.m.

Johnson's funeral will be held Friday at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home at 2 p.m.
