Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Tombstone inscription says she died at age 98. (b 1780-1781)

Based on these ages, the year of birth is most probably somewhere in the range of 1780-1784

The following is a Post-em by Marilyn McKibbin, dated 6 Apr. 2004:

Desire Trim, daughter of Godfrey Trim and Mary Rose, was my third great-grandmother. She was born on Block Island in New Shoreham, Rhode Island in 1781. She moved with her parents to Islesboro, ME in or about 1802. Desire married first Samuel McCurdy, who is on the Islesboro Census for 1800. Sam was lost at sea, along with their son, Sam Jr.

Desire then married Sargent Towle, a widower of Jane Nicholson, and they moved to Oak Bay, St. David, New Brunswick. Desire's daughter Deborah went with them. Sargent Towle, my 3rd great-grandfather, and Desire Trim McCurdy Towle, had three sons together: Horatio Nelson Towle, Robert Sargent Towle and my second great-grandfather, John Cramer Towle, born in Oak Bay in 1828. John married Sarah Cockburn, daughter of James Cockburn of NB. Desire is buried in Oak Bay Cemetery with her sons Horatio and Robert and their families. Sargent was buried on their farm and the stone has been lost. Desire lived to be 98 years old and had a very full life. Desire did not drown at the age of seventeen, as has been posted in many places.

Nor was she married to two other men. She may have been mixed up with her sister, according to the Block Island Historical Society. I am descended from her granddaughter, Isabella Desire Towle, who was an identical twin (twins run in this family). Isabella was my great-grandmother.

March 1775 in probably Halifax, NS, and died 29 July 1856 in Calais, Washington Co., ME. She married Thomas Pettigrove, Jr. 04 December 1801 in Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Christ Church & Trinity Anglican, St. Stephen, NB.), son of Thomas Pettigrove and Eleanor Adams. He was born Abt. September 1765 in ME, and died 28 July 1852 in Calais, Washington Co., ME.

Notes for Thomas Pettigrove, Jr.:

Ref: "Annal of Calais Maine and St. Stephen, New Brunswick", I. C. Knowlton.

"On the same day of September 1792, Thomas and Francis Pettigrove of Kittery, Me., bought each, a hundred acres of land in Calais, and soon after came here to reside. Francis located near the Ledge, and Thomas, on Hinkley Hill. Each reared respectable families. Francis jr., the son of Thomas, married Mary McCurdy of Campobello, and remained on the homestead of his father. He had seventeen children, ten of whom lived to adult age, vis.: -- Thomas, Nevil, Mrs. Caroline Short, Mrs. Sarah Colby, Mrs. Charlotte Foster, Francis, William, Mrs. Abigail Smith, and Mrs. Lucy B. Smith who still resides at the old home. None of the others dwell at present in Calais. Some of Francis Pettigrove, senior's posterity however still live in the lower part of the city and retain the family name."

1850 Census, Calais, Washington Co., ME, p278:

Thomas Pettigrove, 84, b ME;
 Mary, 72, b NS;
 Thomas Jr., 46, b ME;
 William A., 32, b ME;
 Lucy K., 26, b ME;
 Jonathan C. Colby, 43, b VT;
 Sarah Ann, 40, b ME;
 Thomas P., 10, b ME;
 William, 7, b ME;
 Harriet A., 5, b ME;
 Lucy J., 3, b ME;
 Mary Emma, 6/12, b ME.

Conflict:

According to the lineage shown from page 18 of "Knowlton", would appear that Francis Jr. son of Thomas married Mary McCurdy. However, the Anglican Church records show the name of Thomas Pettigrove married Mary McCurdy and the 1850 census shows Thomas Pettigrove and his wife Mary with many of the children shown in the list of children attributed to Thomas and Mary Pettigrove.

Angus RIGBY, after seven years absence in the Western States and Manitoba, returned to St. Andrews (Charlotte Co.) Monday last.

The following email was received from Gail Gordon, 31 March 2014:

Regarding Angus Rigby's departure from St. Andrews for seven years, I found him in the 1880 federal census in Hudson, St. Croix, Wisconsin, age 29, a carriage maker, in the home of George and Mary Williams. This explains why there is a note on the 1881 St. Andrews census saying "omit entry". He had been incorrectly listed as living there with Mary Isabella. I see that he was back living with her upon his return.

Obituary - Lindsay Turner

Residents of Old Ridge and surrounding districts were saddened of the death of G. Lindsay Turner, who passed away in the early hours of that morning.

Mr. Turner, one of Charlotte county's best known and most highly respected citizens, was born at Greenock, March 7, 1872, but moved to Old Ridge with his family when a young man. On September 4, 1901 he was united in marriage with Clara Mae Libby of Heathland.

Besides his widow four daughters, Mrs. J. Mitchell Lindsay, Mrs. Louise F, survives him. Allen, Mrs. Frederick Gordon and Mrs. W.G. Scott; one son, George and five grandchildren who are left to mourn the loss of loving husband and father and who was always happiest when they were all at home with him.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. E.A. Gunn, was held at his home Tuesday November 15, and was attended by numerous friends from all walks of life. A profusion of flowers and many sympathetic messages attested to the esteem in which he was held. The family were all at home with their mother.

A quartet from St. Stephen sang two selections. The pallbearers were C.W. Hanley, Cleveland Tyler, Milton Maxwell, and Rufus Stewart, close friends of the family. Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Overzealous sentry guard

· 9 January 2014 ·

From a series printed in a local paper entitled "In-Laws, Outlaws and Kin Folk" on The Craig Family. "For twenty odd years until her death in the 1960's, Ethel (Craig) Rigby researched her roots. In this series of articles, we shall be using the material which she compiled during that time. Many thanks to Ann Rigby for her permission to use these writings."

"The early history of David Craig , the Loyalist pioneer, who settled at Chamcook, is not as complete as one would wish, but it is certain that he was born in Scotland, in or near Edinburgh, in October 1749 and was married to Mary Steele, who was born May 1758. He followed the weaver's trade."

Since these words were written, Ann Rigby has unearthed the obituaries of David and Mary Craig which provide more information. The St. Andrews Standard reported that David Craid died on 08 December 1836 at the age of 83. He had been born at Beath, Scotland in 1749 and came to this country in 1783. He left seven children, 57 grandchildren and 57 great-grandchildren to mourn his passing. The Royal Gazette stated that Mary Craig had died on 26 August 1832 at the residence of her son-in-law. She was 74 years old. She had been married at Beith, near Glasgow, Scotland.

"David Craig was attached to the 74th Argyle Highlanders, a Scotch (sic) Regiment, which was sent to defend Penobscot during the Revolutionary War. "It was early in... 1779, that the British Government issued orders to establish a military post at Castine, or Bagaduce, on the east bank of the Penobscot River. This river had been the western boundary of the old French Acadia and would naturally be the dividing line between the province of Nova Scotia and the Massachusetts Bay Colony; therefore many of the loyal followers of the King, considering Castine to be on British territory, started a settlement there, and even considered forming a province by the name of New Ireland. During the troublous times of the Revolution, these loyal settlers formed an association, called "Penobscot Loyalist Association", which held many secret meetings and considered many matters of the importance in the connection with the needs of the Loyalists.

"During the the British occupation of Penobscot, the garrison occupied Fort George, which had been hastily erected for that purpose. From a book called Redcoats at Castine written by Judge Patterson, a description of the fort was obtained..." "General McLean was commander of the Fort at Castine and Captain Henry Mowatt had charge of the three ships of war, which guarded the harbor... The soldiers must have been allowed to bring their wives with them when they came out to this country as Mrs. Craig was at Castine with her husband. Two children were born before they moved to St. Andrews. Janet, the oldest child, was born December 1779; and a son, David, was born in May 1782.

"...While they resided at Castine, Mrs. Craig had an errand which necessitated her passing a sentry on guard- some say she was going to get some fresh water, others, that she was taking laundry to her husband- however, when ordered to halt and give the password, she gave the signal. Owing to the fact that she was wearing a cape, the sentry did not notice the signal, and called on her twice more to halt. She continued on her way thinking he knew her, whereupon the sentry fired. The shot inflicted a bad wound which did not prove fatal, but required a lot of care and attention until it finally healed. There was talk of a court-martial, as it was thought the sentry was over-enthusiastic in his attention to duty; but Mrs. Craig pleaded on his behalf, assuming the blame herself and the matter was dropped."

"Tradition provides a romantic atmosphere with the sequel that a son of the sentry married Mrs. Craig's oldest daughter, Janet, some time after they moved to St. Andrews..."

"After having successfully held Penobscot for the British, the Penobscot Loyalists sorrowfully learned that the powers-that-be had agreed that the St.Croix River was to be the boundary between the two countries and not the Penobscot, consequently they were forced to seek a settlement elsewhere to be on British soil. They moved therefore moved eastward to a place called St.Andrews, New Brunswick, at the mouth of the St.Croix River. The settlers picked up their belongings, household furniture and some even took down their houses and put them on board two large transports and several small craft and set sail for their new home in a new land, arriving on October 3rd, 1783.

Notes for Robert Charles Rigby:

RIGBY, Robert Charles (#V/41295)

Robert Rigby was born in St. Andrew's, New Brunswick on April 3, 1915, the son of Robert D. Rigby and Charlotte Elvada (nee Worrell) Rigby. Both his parents, Robert D. and Charlotte, were born in New Brunswick. The family would later move to Sarnia, where father Robert Senior was employed by Anglin-Norcross Ontario Limited. Sometime in 1942, Robert's mother Charlotte passed away. Robert Charles Rigby, single at the time, and recording his occupation as a hardware salesman, enlisted in Toronto on July 2, 1942 with the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. He would serve with the RCNV as Ordinary Telegraphist aboard the Canadian destroyer HMCS St. Croix.

The Canadian destroyer HMCS St. Croix (181) operated in the North Atlantic. Aboard the same ship from the Sarnia-Lambton area were Coder Joseph Griffiths Bell of Sarnia and Stoker Second class William Norman Roder of Arkona. The St. Croix was one of the "four-stacker" destroyers acquired by Great Britain from the United States Navy in September 1940, in exchange for sites for air and naval bases on British territory in the Atlantic area (she was formerly the U.S.S. McCook). The St. Croix and six other destroyers transferred to the Royal Canadian Navy at the time were manned immediately by Canadian crews and performed invaluable service on Atlantic convoy duty. Of note, one of those transferred destroyers was the St. Clair. The HMCS St. Croix had distinguished herself in the early days of the Battle of the Atlantic, by patrolling for German submarines, by being credited with two U-boat kills and by picking up many survivors of German U-boat attacks on Allied ships. On September 20, 1943, the St. Croix was to be the first of the destroyers to be lost. Not long prior to the sinking of the St. Croix, Robert was home in Sarnia on leave to visit his father and friends.

In mid-September of 1943, the Allies had a plan to merge two convoys (ONS-18 and ON-202), a combined assemblage of 63 merchant ships, in mid-ocean. A newly formed Canadian support group was on its way to reinforce the slower ONS-18 group, located to the south of Iceland. The Canadian escort group included the British frigate Itchen, corvettes Chambly, Morden and Sackville, along with the destroyers St. Francis and St. Croix. As the convoys closed their gap, the escorts were picking up U-boat signals. Undoubtedly, the U-boats were gathering in large numbers and the wolf pack was maneuvering into position for a night attack. They were about to measure the success of their newest "secret weapon", the Gnat torpedo, an acoustic torpedo that homed in on the propellers of its prey. On the night of September 20, 1943, the St. Croix had detached herself from the support group to investigate an aircraft sighting. At 9:51 pm, the German U-boat U-305 struck the HMCS St. Croix with two Gnat torpedoes near her propellers. The ship listed immediately and uncontrollably. To Itchen, a few miles away, she sent the cryptic message, "Am leaving the office." It was the last word from St. Croix. Seconds later, a third electrically directed torpedo, the final blow, hit the stern of the St. Croix. There was a tremendous explosion, flames shot into the air, and within three minutes, the St. Croix was gone.

Two RN ships from the escort force rushed to the area, to see what had taken place and what could be done. The frigate HMS Itchen signaled; "St. Croix torpedoed and blown up. Forecastle still afloat. Survivors in rafts and boats. Torpedoes fired at me. Doing full speed in vicinity. Will not attempt to P.U. survivors until Polyanthus arrives." But the RN corvette Polyanthus was herself torpedoed by U-952 just after midnight. Itchen then had to become involved in attempting to locate the attacking U-boat. Later, in the foggy daylight of September 21, the Itchen was eventually able to pick up one Polyanthus survivor and 81 St. Croix survivors, but only after they had been in the very cold water for thirteen hours. Most of those lost had perished in the sea after abandoning the ship.

The few hours of rescue came to an ironic and bitter end two days later. On September 23, 1943 at approximately 2:00 am the German U-boat U-666, using a Gnat torpedo, struck the HMS Itchen. The Itchen exploded with an ear-splitting roar, then vanished into the sea. This time, there were only three survivors, two from the Itchen and one from the St. Croix, Stoker W.A. Fisher of Black Diamond, Alberta. In total, 147 lives were lost from the St. Croix, including Ordinary Telegraphist Robert Rigby. It was not until October 1, 1943 that the Honourable Angus L. MacDonald, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services officially announced the sinking of the destroyer St. Croix. No details of the sinking were released, other than the list of names of 147 men who lost their lives, which included Stoker Second class William Norman Roder of Arkona, Sarnians Coder Joseph Griffiths Bell (included in this Project), and Ordinary Telegraphist Robert Charles Rigby.

The sinking of the St. Croix was the heaviest single loss suffered by the Royal Canadian Navy in the war. Twenty-eight year old Robert Charles Rigby has no known grave. His name is inscribed on the Halifax Memorial, Nova Scotia, Canada, Panel 10.

JOSEPH HORMIDAS RENE BOUSQUET

On the morning of March 18, 2016, our father Rene Bousquet stated, There comes a time, before passing away peacefully at Charlotte County Hospital.

Born in 1919 and after growing up in the Eastern Townships region of Quebec, Rene' enlisted in the RCAF during WWII as an airframe mechanic, and continued to serve his country for 25 years as an aerial photographer post-war before transitioning to the federal public service in surveys, mapping, and satellite imagery. He and his wife Bertha (Hill), who met right after the war and were married in her hometown of St. Stephen in 1946, also retired here in 1980, where he pursued his passion for gardening. With children and grandchildren of our own, we still aspire to be like our Dad.

Notes for Dr. John Edward Rigby:
Obituary - Dr. John E. Rigby

Dr. John E. Rigby, physician, statesman and friend died unexpectedly at his home here Friday morning. He passed quietly away in his sleep after five years of failing health following a heart attack. he was 49. He looked after his patients beyond the call of duty; acting as friend and advisor; in politics and private life his was a great contribution to the people of Charlotte County and the province as well. All Saints Angolan Church full and overflowing signified the esteem in which he was held.

Born at Bayside, NB a few miles from St. Andrews, on July 20, 1923, he was the only son of R. Foster Rigby and the late Ethel (Craig) Rigby. He attended school at Bayside until grade 9 when he came to school in St. Andrews and graduated from the Charlotte County Grammar School here with the Class of 40; he received a Bachelor of Science degree from Mount Allison University in 1944 and obtained his M.D.C.M. from Dalhousie University in 1949.

Dr. Rigby practised for a time in Deer Island and then went to Mississippi, where he was administrator of public health services for Harrison County. It was here he met and married his wife, Ann Barrett Gunter. With his wife and two children he returned to St. Andrews in the late fall of 1957 and started the practice of medicine almost immediately. Many of his former patients from deer Island drove to the mainland for his services and his practice grew to such proportions it was practically overwhelming as our two doctors cover many miles of rural area as well. Dr. Rigby was a member of the St. Croix Medical Society and of the New Brunswick Medical Society and served a term of the executive of the latter in 1969.

He was a member of All Saints Anglican Church assistant organist and a member of the choir. He served four years as warden and several terms on the vestry. He also served two terms on the St. Andrews Town Council; was a member of the Kiwanis Club, a trustee of the Sunbury Shores art and Nature Centre; a well known ornithologist; and also took a great interest in the history of the area, assisting with field trips of the Charlotte County Historical Society although not a member for the past five years.

In political life he was first elected from Charlotte County in 1967 and was respected by not only his colleagues but by the Opposition members as well. He was Deputy Speaker of the House.

He rested in his church and the countless numbers from near and far came to pay their respects. On Sunday morning at 11 a very touching requiem communion service was held with a large congregation present. The formal funeral was at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rector, Canon J.F.N. Jones assisted by Rev. J.P. Quinn of Saint John.

The pallbearers were Fisheries and Environment Minister G.W.N. Cockburn, Dr. Donne W. Smith, Wilfred G. Rankine (churchwarden) D. Paul Oxner, Gary Groom and Jeffrey Holmes. Internment was made in the family lot in the St. Andrews Rural Cemetery.

His wife, one son, Craig, survives Dr. Rigby; two daughters, Pamela and Janet, his father R. foster Rigby of Bayside and several cousins.

Flowers came from family, close friends or organizations, Dr. Rigby's wish being that the money be given instead to some deserving charity. There were flowers from Premier Hatfield, Hon. And Mrs. G.E. McInerney; Hon. And Mrs. Edison Stairs; Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Chalmers; Malcolm MacLeod; MLA J.C. Van Horne; Board of trustees Charlotte County Hospital; Town of St. George; St. George Pharmacy; Town of St. Andrews Mayor and Town Council; United Pentecostal Church; Ryan Graser and smith of Fredericton and Lanfor Industries.

There were countless doantions to the Book of Remembrances of all Saints Church; the Charlotte County Hospital Medical Library; the Canadian Heart Foundation; the Canadian Cancer Society; and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind as well as some Gideon Bibles.

Notes for James Norman McCurdy:

TRAGEDY IN OAK BAY

BY KATHY BOCKUS

OAK BAY – Police have confirmed that two people found dead in their home Saturday night were the victims of a murder-suicide and that both died from single gunshot wounds.

Police released the names of the deceased on Monday. They are James McCurdy, 50, and his common-law spouse, Karen Buchanan, 45.

Police found their bodies in separate rooms in the small bungalow they rented at 1099 Highway 1 in Oak Bay. Police are not releasing details about the fatal gunshots. Autopsies were conducted Sunday at the Saint John Regional Hospital.

Sgt. Derek Strong, media relations officer with the RCMP in Fredericton, said RCMP officers arrived at the couple's home late Saturday night, six minutes after McCurdy made a 911 call at 11:15 p.m. requesting an ambulance.

"He said he had just shot his wife and was about to shoot himself," Sgt. Strong said.

A .410 rifle was recovered at the scene.

Sgt. Strong said police couldn't get into the house right away because two large Rottweiler-type dogs were inside the home.

"And for safety reasons, given the nature of the call, the members weren't about to barge into the house," said Sgt. Strong.

"The dogs did cause some concern," he said, but added an animal control officer assisted with equipment to keep the dogs at bay until the RCMP gained access.

Sgt. Strong said before entering the house, officers peered through windows and saw the bodies of McCurdy and Buchanan.

The investigation into the deaths is continuing.

Monday morning, the short lane leading through the trees to the house was blocked by a single piece of yellow police crime-scene tape.

Duct taped to that was a warning scrawled on a bright orange piece of paper declaring "No one allowed past this line" and "All violators will be prosecuted."

The house appeared quiet on Monday with colourful lawn ornaments standing by the driveway. A large, bulbous troll figure is attached to the trunk of one tree and in the branches of others are a happy faced scarecrow and a frog, both on swings and a set of bamboo wind chimes. Across the street, attached to a rusted mailbox are three deflated balloons, two red and one white. Further up the driveway, signs warn Beware of Dog.

The modest beige house has green shutters and a satellite dish on its roof. There's a barbecue on the tiny porch and a cream-coloured station wagon sits in the driveway in front of the stairs. There are several pairs of jeans still on the clothesline strung between the house and a tree.

James Norman McCurdy

McCurdy-James Norman McCurdy passed away tragically in the late hours of Saturday July 21, 2007. He worked many years in construction.

He is survived by four brothers: John McCurdy, Donald McCurdy (Elsie), Darrell McCurdy (Betty Nelson) and Alex McCurdy (Dora). Predeceased by his mother and father Jack McCurdy and Norma (Bell).

He also had three children: William James McCurdy (Katrina), Jacqueline Marie White (Jamie) and Vicki Evelyn Urquhart (Keith) along with six beautiful grandchildren.

There will be a graveside service on Saturday July 29, 2007 at 11 AM at the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery. Friends and family welcome. In lieu of flower the family would like donation to the Fundy Region Transition House.
