Preface

This book on the McLaughlin Families of Charlotte County, New Brunswick and other areas is a first attempt to try and determine the lineage of those persons who are descendants of each McLaughlin line.

Since this is a first edition, there is a lot of missing data and there may even be many errors. Anyone finding errors are asked to report them to the address shown below.

A special report has been generated that shows all persons with the surname of McLaughlin that are called "Strays" as their parentage is unknown. This special chapter is a "Custom Report" where all persons with the surname of McLaughlin or McLaughlan is generated then sorted by parentage which causes all the unknown parentage ones to come to the start of the list. The list is then sorted again by first name so the unknown parentage are all at the start of the list and easier to find.

Special thanks to all who have contributed information on the descendants of the McLaughlin Families.

Please note that anyone finding errors or wishing to do updates must send the information to the address shown below. The numbers shown before a persons name are only the number of descendants from the first person in the report and must not be used to report any errors or updates. These numbers will keep changing as new information is found,

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Notes for Capt. John McLaughlin I:

Notes from WG database:

"The genealogy of John McLaughlin Sr. and his descendants follows:

John McLaughlin born in Ireland in 1720 died in 1787. He married first Rebecca Blair and 2nd Elizabeth White.

Children of John and Rebecca were

1. Thomas born 1740 in Londonderry NH

2. John Jr. Thomas married Joanna Searles, born Feb. 1741 in Salem MA and married Aug 20, 1767 at the St.Peters Episcopal Church in Salem MA. The church was built in 1733, later demolished and a new church built in 1833."

John McLaughlin and John Jr. were paying taxes in Litchfield, New Hampshire in 1745.

John McLaughlin of Londonderry, New Hampshire bought 150 acres from Thomas Wilson in New Boston, January 5, 1758 (an original) Masonian Grant). He opened the first store in New Boston on the hill south of the upper village; he was also licensed to serve liquor. We do not know the name of his first wife, and the mother of John Jr. and Thomas. John Jr. (or Captain John as he was known) carried on an extensive tanning business, met some reverses of fortune, and was found drowned in his well. At the jury of inquest it was said "As we could not say, as no one saw him that he came to his death intentionally, etc." the death was ruled accidental. We do not know name of John Jr's. first or previous wife; he married Hannah Somes in Amherst, New Hampshire June 2, 1774.

MCLAUGHLIN FAMILY HISTORY

Written by Marilyn Henderson - July 7, 2003

This is the story of the McLaughlin family who moved from Londonderry, Ireland, to Londonderry, NH. From there they moved to New Boston, NH and then to Francestown, NH. Finally, one man, Thomas with his wife and family, moved from Francestown to what would become known as St.David Ridge in Charlotte County NB in the late 1780s

There are many descendants from this family living in Charlotte County NB and Washington County ME but many have scattered over most of North America as well. I am one such descendant and I thought it might be interesting to find out as much information as I could, post it to this web site, and hope that we descendants would enjoy reading about our ancestors' story ends with a description of the McLaughlin family in the early years after they settled on St.David Ridge.

I would like to thank Emily Haley, NB, Ralph Hannan MA, Betty Morgan, GA, Shirley O'Neill, NB and Lisa Pazda, NH, for the help they have given me with this research. We have had quite a time trying to sort out seemingly conflicting data. The general consensus from a number of sources is that there were two John McLaughlins who arrived in NH at roughly the same time. One John moved to Bedford NH and our John to New Boston NH. At the end of this story, I have included a copy of a document in which Thomas McLaughlin sells some land to his father, John, in the year 1773.

The following was taken from the Acadiensis Publication, autumn 1997 edition, written by T.W. Acheson

"In 1718, a group of Ulster Presbyterian clergy organized a migration of people from their parishes in Londonderry, Ireland to the New World. Between 500 and 600 immigrants landed in Boston, Massachusetts in the summer of 1718. The immigrants encountered considerable prejudice from the people of Boston who feared the influx of a large number of poor, diseased, unemployed Irish. Those fears were heightened as succeeding waves of Irish Presbyterians arrived each summer. In an effort to disperse them from the Boston area, the government offered the newcomers land in the more remote areas of the province. One group moved to the middle of the Merrimack River area where they created the township of Londonderry in 1722.

As the Irish farmers moved into the lands of the early New Englanders many differences became apparent. The Irish built Presbyterian Churches and the earlier settlers built Congregational churches. Their farming was different too in that the Irish grew potatoes, flax and oats, made potato whiskey, fine linen cloth, oatmeal and oat bread, loved fast horses and maintained large herds of cattle and sheep. The Irish did not eat pork and had no experience with pigs, the animals most common and most easily raised in New England."

While it is not yet known what year our McLaughlins arrived from Northern Ireland, we do know that Thomas was born in Londonderry in 1740 and that his father, John, purchased 150 acres of land from Thomas Wilson in New Boston in 1758. New Boston was first settled in 1736 when NH affairs were administered by the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Earlier this government had made land grants (The Society Grants) to prominent Boston families who did not take up the land, so when this land was re-granted, the new settlers were the Scotch - Irish from Ulster. Many of the immigrants first went to Londonderry but as it became more thickly settled, they decided to move along to out lying areas as our John McLaughlin did. New Boston proceeded to grow and was incorporated in 1763 and at that time it was second in size to Portsmouth, the largest town in NH.

The genealogy of John McLaughlin Sr. and his descendants follows:

John McLaughlin born in Ireland in 1720 died in 1787. He married first Rebecca Blair and 2nd Elizabeth White. Children of John and Rebecca were

1. Thomas born 1740 in Londonderry NH
2. John Jr. Thomas married Joanna Searles, born Feb. 1741 in Salem MA and married Aug 20, 1767 at the St.Peters Episcopal Church in Salem MA. The church was built in 1733, later demolished and a new church built in 1833.

Joanna's father was Joseph Searles

Joanna's mother was Ruth Chute, daughter of James Chute and Mary Thurston.

James Chute was son of James Chute and Mary Wood

Mary Thurston was daughter of Daniel Thurston and Mary Dresser

Thomas and Joanna had the following children:

1. Thomas Jr. b. April 12, 1770 in New Boston
2. Robert b. Oct 12, 1771 in New Boston
3. Joseph b. April 20 1773 in New Boston

The following is taken from the book "History of Francestown NH. 1758-1891" by Rev. W.R. Cochran, D.D. and George K. Wood, Esq. of Francestown, published 1895, pages 832-833.

" Thomas McLaughlin of Francestown seems to be the oldest child of John of New Boston. But little can be learned concerning him. He came here as early as 1774 and settled on the Spaulding farm, south of that village. He was chosen by the town as one of the "committee" to try those "suspected" of being Tories, June 10 1775 as a member of the "Committee of Safety", 1776; was on our board of selectmen, 1776 and chairman of the board in 1781. Soon after this date we lose sight of him. There was a Thomas McLaughlin that enlisted for Londonderry, September 1781, though not belonging to that town, and possibly it was our Thomas. He was in the army for this town for a time. There was also a John McLaughlin in the army from this town, probably a brother of Thomas."

WERE THEY LOYAL TO THE CROWN?

In any investigation into the lives of these early McLaughlins, some confusion seems to result. A John McLaughlin, who was somewhat older than our John (who is thought to have been born in 1720), moved to Bedford NH, whereas our John settled in New Boston. Some researchers tell us that the McLaughlins in Bedford favored the American Revolutionary War, while many of the settlers of New Boston did not. As the battles of this war did not take place in NH, it seems possible that feelings were not quite as explosive as they were in other parts of New England. The following is a document that was presented to all the males of NH for their signature. The record for New Boston shows that John and John Jr. refused to sign. John's other son, Thomas, is not recorded because he was living in Francestown at that time serving on that town's Committee of Safety. A copy of the document follows:

Association Test: Colony of New Hampshire In Committee of Safety April 12, 1776

In consequence of the above Resolution of the Honorable Continental Congress and to show our Determination in joining our American Brethern in defending the Lives, Liberties and Properties of the Inhabitants of the United Colonies.

We, the Subscribers, do hereby solemnly engage and promise that we will do our utmost of our Power, at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes, with ARMS, oppose the Hostile Proceeding of the British Fleets and Armies against the United American Colonies.

The McLaughlins did not leave NH during the Revolutionary War so they are not officially included on the list of United Empire Loyalists of New Brunswick. It has been suggested that they left their home in NH to take advantage of the free land grants. The economy after the war was not good and we really can't seem to find out if Thomas changed his loyalties during the war or not and felt more comfortable leaving his home and starting afresh in Canada. So the answer to the question, "were they Loyalists" is one that I am unable to give.

The following is the write up of the McLaughlins after they moved to St.David Ridge. This book has other stories about the families that moved from NH around the same time. For more information go to:

"There was still another family of prominence, in fact any notice of the neighborhood, or of the loyal families described would be incomplete without mention the McLaughlins. There was only one family but the name appears prominently in the history of New Boston, New Hampshire from whence this one came: Their names were Joseph, James, Zachariah, Robert, Laughlin, Thomas 2, Betsy (Mrs. William P. Scott), and Anna (Mrs. Rodney (Barney) McCann). With a native shrewdness and humor, and lithe and muscular, they were always first and best in all games of amusement, especially if punctured, as was usual the case, by a modicum of old Jamaica as in the early days, and of New England or Bedford when in season came: and a dance, a piling frolic, or a barn raising was the occasion of their lives. Skilled in all the work of the farm and forest they were always in request for building barns and outhouses, ox-yokes and sleds; camps for the men and hovels for the oxen in the lumber woods. But though competent as indicated, I do not recall among them one skilled Joiner, blacksmith, or of other trades. Zach McLaughlin, the younger of the ilk, at the age of ten or a dozen years, called upon Aunt Ruthy one morning in the Fall of the year when the frost did not accord with his thin raiment and bare feet. "Why Zach, haint ye most froze?" said Aunt Ruthy. "It is a bit cold", Zach replied, as he stooped over the glowing coals of backlog and forestick. "yes Zach, it is a pretty cold morning and now which will you have, a piece of bread and butter or a cup of rum?" I thank ye, Aunt Ruthy, I'll take both".

Children of John McLaughlin and Rebecca Blair are:

- + 4 i. Thomas<sup>4</sup> McLaughlin, Sr., born 1740 in Londonderry, NH; died 1851 in St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.
- + 5 ii. John McLaughlin II, born Abt. 1744; died Unknown.

Generation No. 4

Notes for Thomas McLaughlin, Sr.:

In 1759 Thomas bought land of his father; he lived in New Boston 1770-1773 and then in Francestown, NH until he moved to New Brunswick. In 1781 he was paid by the State of New Hampshire 6.8 travel money 96 miles from Londonderry to Charlestown No. 4, New Hampshire. In 1787 John Sr. died intestate, bequeathing to widow Elizabeth (widow of Henry White when she married John).

In 1789 Thomas sold his land in Francestown to Abel Spaulding; he was then of St. David's Parish, Charlotte County, N.B. In 1784 Cape Ann Loyalists received land in St. David's parish. (Thomas evidently changed his persuasion as in Francestown he had served on the committee of Safety). Thomas, wife Joanna and eight children were among the Cape Ann Loyalists at Moores Mills. Thomas's sons each received 200 acres; by 1811 that had 1500 acres.

We find the Marriage Record of Thomas and Joanna Seirls August 20, 1767, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Salem, Mass. an early N.B. newspaper no date may have been written as Joanna's obituary, reads as follows:

"They were a family of prominence in the Moores Mills neighborhood. There was only one family of them, but the name appears prominently in the history of New Boston, New Hampshire from whence this family came. Thomas is believed to have been a boy at the time of immigration from Ireland to New England. He is said to have settled first near Salem, New Hampshire but later removed to New Boston where he married. His wife Joanna died at the advanced age of 93 in August 1834 at St. David's. She left behind eight children, 56 grand children, 89 great grandchildren. She died generally respected and in the firm yet humble hope of blessed immortality." This would make Joanna born February 1741; Thomas was living in 1826 when he sold property to his sons, but dead by 1834.

A Brockton, Mass. despatch says: William SANDS, a well known horseman in this city, son of W.R. SANDS, commission dealer of St. Stephen, N.B. is prospective heir to a fortune of the Sands legacy in England, estimated with accrued interest at some $75,000,000. Mr. Sands senior states in a letter recently received by his son that he has been unravelling the tangle for many years, has spent much time and money and has at last succeeded in proving his right and title to a portion of the property. The legacy was left to Capt. James SANDS who settled on Block Island in 1664. Mr. Sands has traced the genealogy of his family and finds he is fourth great-grandson and has proved the direct line of descent. Papers have been forwarded to a wealthy solicitor in New York who has been interested in the case for years and is now in England in the interest of his clients. George E. SANDS of St. Stephen is one of the heirs and is active in pushing his claims.

Obituary - Mrs. Jane Weeks

Mrs. Jane Weeks passed away to her eternal rest on Thursday afternoon, November 1st. She would have been 88 years old. She was born in Moores Mills, January 3, 1841. She married William Weeks of Lawrence Station and was a faithful stepmother to the family, the three youngest all being small at the time. Twenty- one years last May her husband passed away and she and the youngest boy Charlie remained on the old homestead until 3 years ago. She was not able to do the work so the old home was sold and she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Weeks of Lynnfield.

In August she took a severe cold and never recovered. Although she had medical care in spite of all that could be done she passed peacefully away into the land of everlasting peace. During her illness she was faithfully attended by Pastor R.J.S. Gregg and enjoyed his visit very much.

Thursday afternoon, November 3, J.S. Gregg spoke some very comforting words Psalm 127-2 "He Giveth his Beloved Sleep" at the home of W.H. Weeks. The Oak hill choir rendered sweetly her favorite

The children who mourn a kind and loving mother were, Mrs. Mary Russell, Oak Hill, W.H. Weeks, Lynnfield, Sadie Erskine, Ada Norton, Gardiner., Fred Weeks, Cedar Grove, Maine, Annie Weeks, Waterville, Maine, Charles Weeks, Lynnfield.

Obituary - Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin

A kindly life was closed on Sunday evening, May 14, when Hannah, relict of the late David McLaughlin, of Baillie passed away from earth to enter into the rest that remains for the people of God. Mrs. McLaughlin had passed the three score and ten years allotted to man and had reached the ripe old age of seventy-nine years and eleven months, being one of the early settlers of Baillie.

Her husband predeceased her some five years ago. After his death, Mrs. McLaughlin still remained on the old homestead with her daughter, who cared for her in her declining years.

Her home was one of hospitality and never was a stranger turned from her door empty handed. being of a genial and kind disposition, she had won many friends. she was a good neighbor and one who was always ready to give a word of counsel unto all who desired it. "Aunt Hannah" as she was termed by all, will be missed from her armchair at her fireside.

Being unable to attend church, her pastor expounded the truth from holy writ at home during the past winter, which was much appreciated by her. She was for many years a member of the Baptist church. Rev. C. J. Steves, assisted by Rev. Mr. McLain, conducted the funeral service at her home on Tuesday May 16th and they were largely attended.

She leaves two sons, William and Peel, to mourn the loss of a loving mother.

James Clifford McLaughlin, born 22 February 1875 in Tower Hill, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic."); died 19 March 1950 in St. Stephen, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic").

Notes for James Clifford McLaughlin:

The following is from the notes in Stephen Robbins database:

When a boy, Jim McLaughlin stayed in Wesley with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Junior. He was the son of Newall & Huldah (Pollard) McLaughlin of St. David, N.B., and was called "Jimmie New". After James Gray, Junior died, "Jimmie New" stayed on with L. Austin Gray, Senior, in Wesley. But later, "Jimmie New" went to stay with his uncle J. Randall Pollard on Tower Hill, St. David, N.B. Ralph Pollard, grandson of J. Randall Pollard, remembered that Jim McLaughlin was "childish" or "simple", and was not dependable to work unless someone was there to supervise him.

[Note: From Joshua Randall Pollard's house, Jim McLaughlin would hear the train rumbling out to Moore's Mills (which was four or five miles away), and said it was (someone he knew -- Bill English?) stepdancing. Late, "Jimmy New" stayed with J. R. Pollard's son, Chauncey Pollard. After eating his usual big heaping dish of hash (piled four or five inches high on his plate), or whatever, Alice (Mrs. Chauncey Pollard) would ask Jim if he'd have more, and he'd say with a dumb grin and slow drawl, "sure could". At other times, "Jimmy New" would run outdoors and shake himself. When Chauncey and Alice Pollard moved from Tower Hill to Moore's Mills to live and keep store, they left Jim with an old couple in St. David who needed the help that Jim could give them on their farm. Jim wasn't responsible enough to handle his own money, so the people took care of his money, if he earned some, and bought his clothes, etc. When Jim got beyond being able to work, Chauncey Pollard got him a pension and felt that Jim was quite happy. Jim McLaughlin died 19 March 1950, age about a month over 75 years, in Chipman Hospital, St. Stephen, N.B. (Most of this information came from Chauncey Pollard's son, Ralph Pollard of St. Stephen, N.B.)]

A Brockton, Mass. despatch says: William SANDS, a well known horseman in this city, son of W.R. SANDS, commission dealer of St. Stephen, N.B. is prospective heir to a fortune of the Sands legacy in England, estimated with accrued interest at some $75,000,000. Mr. Sands senior states in a letter recently received by his son that he has been unravelling the tangle for many years, has spent much time and money and has at last succeeded in proving his right and title to a portion of the property. The legacy was left to Capt. James SANDS who settled on Block Island in 1664. Mr. Sands has traced the genealogy of his family and finds he is fourth great-grandson and has proved the direct line of descent. Papers have been forwarded to a wealthy solicitor in New York who has been interested in the case for years and is now in England in the interest of his clients. George E. SANDS of St. Stephen is one of the heirs and is active in pushing his claims.

Obituary - Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin

A kindly life was closed on Sunday evening, May 14, when Hannah, relict of the late David McLaughlin, of Baillie passed away from earth to enter into the rest that remains for the people of God. Mrs. McLaughlin had passed the three score and ten years allotted to man and had reached the ripe old age of seventy-nine years and eleven months, being one of the early settlers of Baillie.

Her husband predeceased her some five years ago. After his death, Mrs. McLaughlin still remained on the old homestead with her daughter, who cared for her in her declining years.

Her home was one of hospitality and never was a stranger turned from her door empty handed. being of a genial and kind disposition, she had won many friends. she was a good neighbor and one who was always ready to give a word of counsel unto all who desired it. "Aunt Hannah" as she was termed by all, will be missed from her armchair at her fireside.

Being unable to attend church, her pastor expounded the truth from holy writ at home during the past winter, which was much appreciated by her. She was for many years a member of the Baptist church. Rev. C. J. Steves, assisted by Rev. Mr. McLain, conducted the funeral service at her home on Tuesday May 16th and they were largely attended.

She leaves two sons, William and Peel, to mourn the loss of a loving mother.

Obituary - Caroline McLaughlin

At the time of her mother's death, Caroline, only surviving daughter of the late David and Hannah McLaughlin was confined to her home by serious illness. Her friends expected that she would recover and she was tenderly cared for by her sister-in-law and neighbor who kindly and willingly administered unto her wishes. but gradually disease wrought its work and on Thursday morning June 01, 1905, she passed peacefully away, trusting in her redeemer.

She was kind and generous and will be much missed. The funeral was conducted from her home on Friday afternoon, Rev. C. J. Steves officiating. The pallbearers were William Quaid, Harris Moore, Patrick Whirty and Edward Thurston. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Interment was at the Rural Cemetery at Moore's Mills.

Was Harris McLaughlin Murdered?

The Coroner's Jury Says His Death Was Due To A Fractured Skull

A sensation has been created in the Parish of St. James by the tragic death of Harris McLaughlin of the Scott Road, not far from the Meadows Railway Station. McLaughlin who was married left home on the evening of the 21st of May, in the best of health to obtain seed oats from another farmer. The following morning he was found on the road with a fractured skull and in a dazed condition. He remained in that state until the 3rd day of June when he expired. As there was strong evidence that murder had occurred Coroner J. W. Mann of Baillie, deemed it advisable to hold an inquest on the body. This he did on the 4th of June.

The jurymen empanelled by Coroner Mann on the case were G.W. Peakes, Thadeus Brisley, William McGowan, William Johnson, Albion E. Cook, John N. Fisk and Daniel McNinch.

The Verdict

The jury returned the following verdict:

That the said Harris McLaughlin came to his death by fracture of the skull caused by blows inflicted on him on the night of the 21st of May last past by a person or persons unknown to the jury.

The result of the inquest was made known to the clerk of the Peace, who at once telegraphed this fact to the Attorney General Pugsley.

The Crown Officer has since been in communications with the clerk of the peace on the matter.

On Monday, Detective Ring came from St. John, for the purpose, it is rumoured of making arrests.

The people of the locality are convinced that a murder has been committed and they are equally convinced that the guilty persons are in there midst. The relatives that have existed between the suspected parties for some time past and which still exist add strength to these suspicions. It is the prevailing belief that Harris McLaughlin's assailant had beaten him into insensibility and left him for dead, but he had revived sufficiently to crawl along the road where he was found. A pair of gloves, which Harris McLaughlin had placed upon his hands before leaving Martin Merrill's, were found on the Scott Road on the morning of the 22nd of May by Mrs. William McLaughlin. There were so besmeared with blood that she did not lift them. She turned them over with a stick found they were covered with blood. How they got off the deceased's hands can only be conjectured.

A Supposed Murderer

George McLaughlin Arrested by Detective Ring

Suspected of the Murder of Harris McLaughlin Last Month

The Judge was sent for and at 6:15 the Jury filed into court and through their foreman Mr. Wm. Snodgrass, reported that they had found a verdict of Not Guilty.

His Honour then summoned the prisoner from the dock and in a most impressive manner addressed him. He told the prisoner that he had been accused and tried for a most serious crime; he had been ably defended and he had been acquitted by the jury. It was not within his (the Judge's) province to inquire how the jury had reached that verdict. They probably considered that there were reasonable doubts as to his guilt and they had given him the benefit of these doubts. Nevertheless he was sorry to say that he feared the prisoner would be under serious suspicion of crime through that crime had not been proved against him. The evidence with regard to the relations of the prisoner and the deceased's widow have given to serious suspicion. He hoped that by an upright line of conduct he would merit the approval of his fellow citizens and remove the stain, which now attached to his name.

The judge then told the prisoner he was discharged and thanked the jury and the court and adjourned sine die.

The prisoner and prisoner's counsel received congratulations upon the result. The former was evidently greatly relieved and promised to lead a better life.

The following information was received from Alice Johnson, 30 Jan 2015:

Drowned at Public Landing

Chas Scott of Honeydale Victim of Sad Accident Saturday Evening

A drowning under very sad circumstances occurred in the harbor here late on Saturday evening.

Levi and Charles Scott of Honeydale with their families had been at work in the factories at Lubec through the summer and the season for such employment having ended were returning to their homes'

They had chartered the fishing boat Columbia, Captain Wm, Hastings and left Lubec on Saturday intending to reach St. Stephen in time to take the evening express to their homes in Honeydale .

Unfortunately The Boat Went Ashore on her way up and arrived a little too late to make connections with the train and the party was stranded in town for the night.

Levi Scott and family came ashore and found shelter with friends but his brother and family decided to accept the invitation of Captain Hastings and remain aboard the vessel.

The tug Lord Roberts, the dredge Beacon Bar, and two scows were lying at the public wharf and the Columbia tied up to the outer scow.

During The Evening Chas Scott and two of the men from the vessel went ashore to do some shopping. They left the store of Fred Rose soon after eleven o'clock returning to the vessel.

Mrs Scott was suffering from a headache when her husband returned and he started ashore again to secure a remedy. It was very dark where the boat was lying and the decks of the scows were slippery and in some way Mr. Scott either walked or slipped over the side.

His Cries For Help attracted the attention of his companions but the current was running swiftly and before a boat could be manned and put out to his rescue he was swept away in the darkness and drowned.

The scene on the vessel was a distressing one as it was realized what a tragedy had been enacted in so short a time. The bereaved wife and family were taken to the Essex House and made comfortable until Monday morning when they proceeded to their home at Honeydale . There were seven sons and daughters ranging from seven to twenty years of age .

Chas Scott was about forty five years of age , a sober industrious man who had Fought Against Adversity for many years until recently , when the older members of the family had been able to render assistance. They had saved over $ 400 from their labors at Lubec and were returning in confidence . They have the sympathy of all in sorrow that has overtaken them..

The search for the body has been continued since Sunday morning but without reward up to Wednesday at noon, the run of tides being high in the daylight hours and low only in darkness , making the operations difficult. The town had a crew of men at work when possible on Tuesday.

I have photo copy of the above that was given to me by Grace ( McLaughlin ) Weeks some years ago. Whoever photo copied the above for her never dated or gave the name of the paper this was in,( assume it was the St. Croix Courier ) and I have never been able to find it, but may be looking in the wrong year. Grace's sister Joyce told me she thought the accident happened in late fall or near Christmas 1914, or that is what her mother told her ( Lillian who married Roy McLaughlin ).

She said they found his body in the spring somewhere down river a long way and that that the 400 dollars was still in his billfold. Have no idea where he is buried can't find in Moores Mills Cemetery or Honeydale

His wife Katherine ( Suffering Kate I was told that is what the locals called her ) died Mar. 28,1945 don't know where she is buried either or can't find a stone

Just thought I'd send you this info, you may already have it

Obituary - Mrs. Jane Weeks

Mrs. Jane Weeks passed away to her eternal rest on Thursday afternoon, November 1st. She would have been 88 years old. She was born in Moores Mills, January 3, 1841. She married William Weeks of Lawrence Station and was a faithful stepmother to the family, the three youngest all being small at the time. Twenty- one years last May her husband passed away and she and the youngest boy Charlie remained on the old homestead until 3 years ago. She was not able to do the work so the old home was sold and she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Weeks of Lynnfield.

In August she took a severe cold and never recovered. Although she had medical care in spite of all that could be done she passed peacefully away into the land of everlasting peace. During her illness she was faithfully attended by Pastor R.J.S. Gregg and enjoyed his visit very much.

Thursday afternoon, November 3, J.S. Gregg spoke some very comforting words Psalm 127-2 "He Giveth his Beloved Sleep" at the home of W.H. Weeks. The Oak hill choir rendered sweetly her favorite hymns "Safe In the Arms Of Jesus" "The Christian Good Night Sleep" and "Asleep in Jesus."

The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here. Pallbearers were Fred and Guy Russell., Fred and Burton Weeks. The children who mourn a kind and loving mother were, Mrs. Mary Russell, Oak Hill, W.H. Weeks, Lynnfield, Sadie Erskine, Ada Norton, Gardiner., Fred Weeks, Cedar Grove, Maine, Annie Weeks, Waterville, Maine, Charles Weeks, Lynnfield.

Obituary - Chester McLaughlin

News has been received by relatives at Honeydale of the death of Chester McLaughlin at Grand Rapids, Michigan. Mr. McLaughlin was born at Central Tower Hill, 63 years ago, the son of the late Laughlin McLaughlin and his wife formerly Miss Coffran. He was one of the eleven children of whom three brothers and three sisters survive in addition to his wife and an adopted daughter.

The brothers are Will in Grand Rapids, Mi., Eli in North Anson, Maine, Christopher McLaughlin of St. Stephen is a half brother. The sisters are Leila (Mrs. Conrad) in Rochester, NH; Margaret (Mrs. Herbert Beach) of Honeydale and Mary (Mrs. Thomas Linton) of Tower Hill. His wife and one adopted daughter with two grandchildren live in grand Rapids.

Mr. McLaughlin had been in the West for the past 44 years and had a comfortable home there. He passed away very suddenly after a pleasant evening spent at home with his wife. After retiring he complained of pains in his limbs and went to the medicine shelf for medicine. A short time after his wife found him unconscious on the bathroom floor. He died before reaching the hospital.

Funeral services were held at home and interment was made in a nearby cemetery. Sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives and friends.

Word was also reached very recently of the accidental drowning in Portland of their youngest half brother, Everett, who was a brother of Christopher McLaughlin of St. Stephen.

Just wonder if you know there is a cemetery on the Weeks Road, Hiram McLaughlin; his wife Abigail daughters Albia; Sadie; Ivy Adelaide and James Otis, Also Ivy Resper daughter of Albia and a couple of babies of Joel && Annie's

I called Mehan's Funeral home some years ago and they gave me the proper spelling of Albia's name as I was told about 3 different ways to spell her name ,, they gave me her death, date burial date and the Cemetery where she was buried. James Otis was the last buried in the Family Plot on Weeks Road, Sept. 1943. He was killed in the Car Accident in Brockway along with Harry McLaughlin, Herman & Edith Ames as well as the girl in the other car.

Christopher McLaughlin son of Laughlin McLaughlin & 2nd. wife Mary Kelly

Christopher married Estella Edmonds , they had 2 boys and a girl the 2 boys have died and not sure if the girl is still alive as I didn't get to ask her nephew yesterday, while at a Jamboree, I know she wasn't good a month ago.

Children of Christopher: are 1. Lewis; Iona; and Ellis . I am hoping to get more info from Christopher's grandson who lives in St Andrews now, he lived in BC, until 3 or 4 years ago then moved to St. Andrews now divorced from 1st wife and now engaged to one of Harold & Nettie McLaughlin's grand daughters , who is getting me info on the aunts & uncles as well as her family. Obituary - Abigail Scott McLaughlin

The death of Mrs. Abigail McLaughlin age 78, widow of Hiram McLaughlin occurred at her home, Honeydale at an early hour Friday morning, October 18, 1935, she had been in failing health for some time with heart trouble.

Her passing has occasioned regret among a wide circle of friends whom were drawn to her by her cheerful disposition and kindly nature and her loss is particularly felt in the Baptist Church in Honeydale, where she was an active work as long as health permitted, helping with the last church supper in September. She had been a member of the church forty-two years and was always present at the church and Sunday School as long as her health permitted.

She was born at Honeydale the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Scott and lived her entire life in this place. Mr. McLaughlin predeceased her eight years and almost eight months ago. She is survived by six children; four sons and two daughters all being at her beside at her passing. There were also present one sister and seven grandchildren. The children are James O., Frank, Mrs. Hannah Thurston, Joel at Watt Junction, Theodore at Honeydale and Sadie at home. There are 26 grandchildren also 25 great grandchildren. She had eight brothers and sisters. The brothers are Levi Scott, Joel Scott, George Scott and Millen Scott. The sisters are Mrs. Willard McLaughlin, Mrs. Henry Scott, and Mrs. Delbert McLaughlin.

The funeral was held October 19, at her home, conducted by her Pastor Rev. E. V. Buchanan assisted by Pastor William Armstrong of Lawrence Station. Her favourite Chapter of John 14 was used, also her favourite hymns, I Shall Know Him, and There is a Land that is Farther Than Day. Her pastor took for his text her last testimony when at church, Prepare to meet thy God.' the remains were laid to rest beside her husband in the family lot at home. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The pallbearers were Burton Ames, Hiram Thurston, Fred Anderson and William King Anderson.

Note:

I don't think Roy belongs in this particular family of MCLAUGHLIN's. According to 15 Aug 1925 Probate Request of Cecil MILLER (Pat Button's dad), grandson of Adelaide Mary MCLAUGHLIN MCLAUGHLIN PIERCE, there is absolutely NO MENTION of any Roy in the siblings either alive or deceased. It indicates a Joseph Pierce as 2nd husband; Hardy McLaughlin in US; Leona Day wife of Gonzella Day of Eastport, ME; Lorena Pierce Johnston wife of Raymond JOHNSON of Milltown, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB; Allie Maxwell, wife of Kenneth (my grandparents); and Foster McLaughlin, who has been unheard of for about 15 yrs. 2 surviving grandchildren...Ruth Kirk son of George Kirk of Milltown and Myrtle Kirk deceased and Cecil Miller son of Charles Miller and Inez McLaughlin deceased.

Notes for Gertrude Myrtle McLaughlin:

Obit: - Gertrude Myrtle McLaughlin

The community was saddened on Sunday December 8, 1918 when it became known that Gertrude McLaughlin wife of Homer McLaughlin and eldest daughter of Charles McLaughlin had passed away the previous night at Chipman Memorial Hospital after a short illness of pneumonia. All was done that could be done to stay the young life but it was not to be, God had lighter duties for her and called her to be with him.

The remains were brought to her father's home on Sunday where a large concourse of people assembled on Tuesday to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they loved.

She leaves to mourn a loving husband, father, mother, two sisters, a brother, grandmother and large circle of friends who have the sincere sympathy of all in their hour of deep affliction.

The internment was at Moores Mills Cemetery.

Rev. Murray Vallis conducted the simple and beautiful service at the house and grave. The floral offerings were beautiful consisting of wreaths and sprays.

The death of Mrs. Edward Thurston which occurred at the McGaw Hotel in St. Stephen, January 13th, 1923 came as a shock to her family and friends. Deceased was born in Honeydale, July 4, sixty-nine years ago. She was united in marriage to Edward Thurston 52 years ago their home being in Lynnfield and of this union six children survive to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. They were all present at the funeral, Viz; Mrs. Will Randall of Roxbury, Mass., Mrs. Joseph Hayes of Gorham, NH; Mrs. Oswald McCray of Upper Mills, Mrs. Al Smith of Milltown, Mrs. James Kidder of Woodland and one Son, Isaac Thurston of Stinston Lake, NH, Four sisters and two brothers also survive, Mrs. David Davis, Candia, NH, Mrs. George Scott of Trenton, Maine, Mrs. Albert McCullough of Springfield, Mass, Mrs. George McLaughlin Lincoln, Maine, William of Vanceboro and Samuel of Honeydale. Mrs. George McLaughlin of Lincoln was the only sister able to be present at the funeral. Deceased had not been well for some years but was about to attend her household duties until some weeks ago when she was stricken with a shock. Mrs. J. Hayes came to attend her also Mrs. Will Randall who was with her mother at the end.

It was decided after Christmas that Mr. & Mrs. Thurston would return with Mrs. Hayes to spend the winter but upon reaching St. Stephen and just before starting on their journey she was stricken with a second shock and only survived a few hours. A service was held by Rev. W.A. Ross of Milltown, Monday evening at the Hotel and on Tuesday the funeral procession proceeded to the cemetery at Lynnfield where the service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Leon Jewitt.

The sympathy of all goes out to the aged husband living without his companion who had been with him for 52 years and to all the family in the hour of their bereavement.

Obituary - Edward S. Thurston

The many friends of Edward Thurston were saddened to hear of his death which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hayes, Gorham, NH., Sunday evening, January 17th, 1926 after a few days of bronchial pneumonia. Deceased, who was 82 years of age, was a life long resident of Lynnfield. Three years ago, his wife died and since that, he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Hayes of Gorham, returning here in the summer to visit old friends and renew associations and last summer when here, we little thought it was the last time in this life we would see him. A Gorham paper states 'He was a remarkably active man for his years and took a keen interest in the affairs of the day. During his short residence here, he made many friends who sincerely regret his death' and he also had many friends who sincerely regret to learn of his death. The sympathy of all goes out to the family and relatives in their sorrow.

He is survived by one son, Isaac, of Palm Bay, FL., and five daughters; Mrs. Atkinson Smith of Milltown, NB, Mrs. William Randall of Roxbury, Mass., Mrs. Joseph Hayes of Gorham, NH, Mrs. Oswell McCrae of Upper Mills, NB, Mrs. James Kidder of Providence, RI. One daughter Cynthia predeceased him some years ago, and several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday at 1 o'clock, Rev. A H Graham, Pastor of M.E. Church officiating.

The remains were placed in the receiving tomb and in the spring will be brought here to be buried beside his wife.

Note:

I don't think Roy belongs in this particular family of MCLAUGHLIN's. According to 15 Aug 1925 Probate Request of Cecil MILLER (Pat Button's dad), grandson of Adelaide Mary MCLAUGHLIN MCLAUGHLIN PIERCE, there is absolutely NO MENTION of any Roy in the siblings either alive or deceased. It indicates a Joseph Pierce as 2nd husband; Hardy McLaughlin in US; Leona Day wife of Gonzella Day of Eastport, ME;

Was Harris McLaughlin Murdered?

The Coroner's Jury Says His Death Was Due To A Fractured Skull

A sensation has been created in the Parish of St. James by the tragic death of Harris McLaughlin of the Scott Road, not far from the Meadows Railway Station. McLaughlin who was married left home on the evening of the 21st of May, in the best of health to obtain seed oats from another farmer. The following morning he was found on the road with a fractured skull and in a dazed condition. He remained in that state until the 3rd day of June when he expired. As there was strong evidence that murder had occurred Coroner J. W. Mann of Baillie, deemed it advisable to hold an inquest on the body. This he did on the 4th of June.

The jurymen empanelled by Coroner Mann on the case were G.W. Peakes, Thadeus Brisley, William McGowan, William Johnson, Albion E. Cook, John N. Fisk and Daniel McNinch.

The Verdict

The jury returned the following verdict:

That the said Harris McLaughlin came to his death by fracture of the skull caused by blows inflicted on him on the night of the 21st of May last past by a person or persons unknown to the jury.

The result of the inquest was made known to the clerk of the Peace, who at once telegraphed this fact to the Attorney General Pugsley.

The Crown Officer has since been in communications with the clerk of the peace on the matter.

On Monday, Detective Ring came from St. John, for the purpose, it is rumoured of making arrests.

The people of the locality are convinced that a murder has been committed and they are equally convinced that the guilty persons are in there midst. The relatives that have existed between the suspected parties for some time past and which still exist add strength to these suspicions. It is the prevailing belief that Harris McLaughlin's assailant had beaten him into insensibility and left him for dead, but he had revived sufficiently to crawl along the road where he was found. A pair of gloves, which Harris McLaughlin had placed upon his hands before leaving Martin Merrill's, were found on the Scott Road on the morning of the 22nd of May by Mrs. William McLaughlin. There were so besmeared with blood that she did not lift them. She turned them over with a stick found they were covered with blood. How they got off the deceased's hands can only be conjectured.

A Supposed Murderer

George McLaughlin Arrested by Detective Ring

Suspected of the Murder of Harris McLaughlin Last Month

The Judge was sent for and at 6:15 the Jury filed into court and through their foreman Mr. Wm. Snodgrass, reported that they had found a verdict of Not Guilty.

His Honour then summoned the prisoner from the dock and in a most impressive manner addressed him. He told the prisoner that he had been accused and tried for a most serious crime; he had been ably defended and he had been acquitted by the jury. It was not within his (the Judge's) province to inquire how the jury had reached that verdict. They probably considered that there were reasonable doubts as to his guilt and they had given him the benefit of these doubts. Nevertheless he was sorry to say that he feared the prisoner would be under serious suspicion of crime through that crime had not been proved against him. The evidence with regard to the relations of the prisoner and the deceased's widow have given to serious suspicion. He hoped that by an upright line of conduct he would merit the approval of his fellow citizens and remove the stain, which now attached to his name.

The judge then told the prisoner he was discharged and thanked the jury and the court and adjourned sine die.

The prisoner and prisoner's counsel received congratulations upon the result. The former was evidently greatly relieved and promised to lead a better life.

The following information was received from Alice Johnson, 30 Jan 2015:

Drowned at Public Landing

Chas Scott of Honeydale Victim of Sad Accident Saturday Evening

A drowning under very sad circumstances occurred in the harbor here late on Saturday evening.

Levi and Charles Scott of Honeydale with their families had been at work in the factories at Lubec through the summer and the season for such employment having ended were returning to their homes'

They had chartered the fishing boat Columbia, Captain Wm, Hastings and left Lubec on Saturday intending to reach St. Stephen in time to take the evening express to their homes in Honeydale .

Unfortunately The Boat Went Ashore on her way up and arrived a little too late to make connections with the train and the party was stranded in town for the night.

Levi Scott and family came ashore and found shelter with friends but his brother and family decided to accept the invitation of Captain Hastings and remain aboard the vessel.

The tug Lord Roberts, the dredge Beacon Bar, and two scows were lying at the public wharf and the Columbia tied up to the outer scow.

During The Evening Chas Scott and two of the men from the vessel went ashore to do some shopping. They left the store of Fred Rose soon after eleven o'clock returning to the vessel.

Mrs Scott was suffering from a headache when her husband returned and he started ashore again to secure a remedy. It was very dark where the boat was lying and the decks of the scows were slippery and in some way Mr. Scott either walked or slipped over the side.

His Cries For Help attracted the attention of his companions but the current was running swiftly and before a boat could be manned and put out to his rescue he was swept away in the darkness and drowned.

The scene on the vessel was a distressing one as it was realized what a tragedy had been enacted in so short a time. The bereaved wife and family were taken to the Essex House and made comfortable until Monday morning when they proceeded to their home at Honeydale . There were seven sons and daughters ranging from seven to twenty years of age .

Chas Scott was about forty five years of age , a sober industrious man who had Fought Against Adversity for many years until recently , when the older members of the family had been able to render assistance. They had saved over $ 400 from their labors at Lubec and were returning in confidence . They have the sympathy of all in sorrow that has overtaken them..

The search for the body has been continued since Sunday morning but without reward up to Wednesday at noon, the run of tides being high in the daylight hours and low only in darkness , making the operations difficult. The town had a crew of men at work when possible on Tuesday.

I have photo copy of the above that was given to me by Grace ( McLaughlin ) Weeks some years ago. Whoever photo copied the above for her never dated or gave the name of the paper this was in,( assume it was the St. Croix Courier ) and I have never been able to find it, but may be looking in the wrong year. Grace's sister Joyce told me she thought the accident happened in late fall or near Christmas 1914, or that is what her mother told her ( Lillian who married Roy McLaughlin ).

She said they found his body in the spring somewhere down river a long way and that that the 400 dollars was still in his billfold. Have no idea where he is buried can't find in Moores Mills Cemetery or Honeydale

His wife Katherine ( Suffering Kate I was told that is what the locals called her ) died Mar. 28,1945 don't know where she is buried either or can't find a stone

Just thought I'd send you this info, you may already have it

She was born 09 April 1863 in Bayside, Charlotte Co., NB, and died 04 March 1937 in Calais, Washington Co., ME.

Notes for John Munroe Scott:

NOTE:: The parents of John Munroe Scott are unknown but he might possibly be a grandson of John Sanford Scott and Susanna Mundie as he is in their home in the 1871 census. No 1861 census for St. James Parish so this needs more research!! See comments below for latest info.

Bill Garcelon's database shows the parents as John M. Scott and Elizabeth Boles.

Records of his death show father as John Scott and mother unknown.

Using this information, it is being assumed that John Monroe Scott is a grandson of John Sanford Scott who has a son by the name of John Kirkland Scott and he is assumed to have been married to an Elizabeth Boles who must have died prior to 1857 when John Kirkland Scott married again. Assumed until proven otherwise(AEK 2018)

Fred McInnis

The passing of Fred McInnis at Chipman Memorial Hospital early on Tuesday morning, January 12,

McLaughlin Families

1937, brought to the close a life which, though short, was filled with the richness and joy of high purpose and kindly deeds.

Mr. McInnis underwent a surgical operation six weeks before and the skill of physicians and the watchful care of a loving wife could not longer delay the end.

Born at Maw-wah-hoc, Maine, in 1900, eldest son of P. Albert and the late Laura Hannan McInnis, he moved to Pomeroy Ridge while still a child, and lived most of his life there. On July 31, 1926 he married Edith Hazel Hitchings of Pomeroy Ridge. Besides his wife there are left to mourn his father, P. Albert McInnis of Pomeroy Ridge, two sisters, Mrs. Chester McFarlane, Little Ridge and Mrs. George Smith, Pomeroy Ridge; two brothers, Albert E. of Toronto and Cecil at home; and his aged grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hannan, Gleason Road.

He was a generous, charitable nature to know him slightly was to like him, to know him intimately was to love him. Especially was he loved by little children and as love cannot sleep or die his influence will be felt for years to come. A skilled mechanic he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to friend and stranger alike.

The funeral service was conducted at his home on Thursday, by his pastor, Rev. R.C. Robbins of the United Church, Scotch Ridge of which Mr. McInnis had been a member and faithful worker for many years.

Cecil Nesbitt sang very beautifully the hymns, "Sometime We'll understand," "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "The Christian's Goodnight". The pallbearers were Raymond Burns, Vernon Hannan, Kenneth Matheson and Donald McMorran, friends since boyhood, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Scotch Ridge. Many beautiful floral offerings bore testimony to the affection in which he was held and the desire of loving friends to express sympathy for the sorrowing family.

Obituary - Lyman McLaughlin Dies at Andersonville

It was with deep sorrow that relatives and friends learned of the death of Lyman Ellsworth McLaughlin of Andersonville on Thursday afternoon, February 27, 1947. Although in indifferent health for a period of time, his death was unexpected and came as a distinct shock to his family and friends.

He was born at Tower Hill the youngest son of Alfred and the late Mrs. McLaughlin and spent his entire life in this section of the county. He was married in 1910 to Miss Kathleen Johnston of DeWolfe, who survives him.

Possessed of a kind, jovial disposition, he was a good mixer and made friends easily, was especially fond of children with whom he was a favorite.

Mr. McLaughlin was a charter member of the Andersonville United Baptist church and was a good supporter and faithful in attendance at both Sunday School and church.

A Liberal in politics, for a number of years he served as fish, fire and game warden. In his death the community in which he lived has lost a valued citizen.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his aged father, in his 90th year; a son, Milford, of Andersonville; a daughter, Eva at home, a granddaughter, Joyce, a sister, Mrs. Lester Crosby of Princeton, Maine and a brother, Bert of Tigerton, Wisconsin.

The funeral was held at his late home Saturday afternoon March 1, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. William Armstrong.

The choir of the Lawrence Station United church sang two beautiful selections, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "The Old Rugged Cross." The large crowd that attended and the beautiful floral offerings bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Pallbearers were Clifford Worrell, Galen Gardiner, Clarence Ragon and Wellwood Ragon. Interment was made in the family lot in Moores Mills Cemetery.

Notes for Kathleen Johnson:

Kathleen McLaughlin

Kathleen McLaughlin was the guest of honour at a March 22 meeting at the Andersonville Women's Missionary Society on the occasion of her 93rd birthday. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morris, the home of her daughter Eva Morris.

K-K as her family and friends better knew her received her guests wearing a navy blue and white sheer dress, a birthday gift from her family. She was presented with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses from the members of the Andersonville WMS of which she is a Charter member. Her daughter presented two beautifully decorated birthday cakes to her; one from the UCW and the other one made. She received many birthday cards, gifts and telephone calls from family and friends.

Possessed of a keen mind and good eyesight, Mrs. McLaughlin has spent the past winter knitting over 100 pairs of mittens and crocheting four beautiful doilies as gifts for her family. This is especially significant as Mrs. McLaughlin was in hospital for the first two months of 1983, when she was recovering from a broken hip.

After delicious refreshments were served and Happy Birthday was sung, the evening was brought to a close when the guest of honor read a poem "Early Model" by Ruby Colwell of Musquash which is reprinted.

Obituary - Mrs. Isaac Thurston

(Reporter Berlin, NH)

The friends of Mrs. Isaac L. Thurston were deeply grieved to hear of her sudden and unexpected death at her home on Main Street on Thursday, March 6th of bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Thurston was Miss Lena L. Lowe and was born in Randolph, NH on August 10th, 1874 and was the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Charles E. Lowe.

On September 8th, 1905 Miss Lowe was united in marriage to I.L. Thurston. One child, Charles Edward, was born to Mr. & Mrs. Thurston.

Mrs. Thurston was a most devoted wife and mother and a loyal, true friend. Her life was largely lived out in her home. The funeral services were held from the home on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended. The flowers were very beautiful and revealed the respect of the many friends for the departed. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W.A. Richmond of the Congregational Church.

The pallbearers were Messrs James Fraser, Percy Little, Ernest Wood and Joseph Hayes. Mrs. Thurston leaves to mourn their loss a devoted husband and son, also three sisters and three brothers.

A telegram came last week from Gorham, NH bringing the sad news of the death of Mrs. Isaac Thurston, deceased, who lived a short time here at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Edward Thurston, who won many friends who regret to hear of her death.

Notes for Gertrude Myrtle McLaughlin:

Obit: - Gertrude Myrtle McLaughlin

The community was saddened on Sunday December 8, 1918 when it became known that Gertrude McLaughlin wife of Homer McLaughlin and eldest daughter of Charles McLaughlin had passed away the previous night at Chipman Memorial Hospital after a short illness of pneumonia. All was done that could be done to stay the young life but it was not to be, God had lighter duties for her and called her to be with him.

The remains were brought to her father's home on Sunday where a large concourse of people assembled on Tuesday to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they loved.

She leaves to mourn a loving husband, father, mother, two sisters, a brother, grandmother and large circle of friends who have the sincere sympathy of all in their hour of deep affliction.

The interment was at Moores Mills Cemetery.

Rev. Murray Vallis conducted the simple and beautiful service at the house and grave. The floral offerings were beautiful consisting of wreaths and sprays.

Lillian Belle Townes

At the Charlotte County Hospital on October 26, 1996, Lillian Townes passed away at the age of 86, after a long struggle in hospital, Lillian of Lawrence Station was the widow of the late Kenneth Townes.

She was born February 20, 1910, the daughter of the late Herbert and Isabelle Blakely. She is survived by one daughter and four sons, Basil Townes and wife Lillian of McAdam; Orville Townes and wife Verna of Lawrence Station, Murray Townes of Fredericton; Rita Dickinson of Andersonville and Elton Townes and wife Annette of Lawrence Station. She had eight grandchildren, Lavina, Clyde, Davina, Katrina, Lewis, Lorraine, Wade and Kenneth; 14 great grandchildren; also survived by one brother Herbert Blakely and wife Madaline and one sister Effie Jeffries, several nieces and nephews. She lived most of her life in Lawrence Station until she resided in Andersonville with her daughter.

She was a hard worker and loved everyone. When she was a young girl she used to cook for her father in work camps. Then she went to Blacks Harbour in the fish factory and always made Christmas wreaths every fall at Lawrence Station Evergreen because she loved Christmas and the family gathering at her home. It was her favorite holiday. Until she was no longer able to work she loved to read her Bible and go to church when she was able. She always loved to sing out of old hymn books and always had a smile.

The funeral services were held at S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home on October 29, 1996 at 2 p.m. The pastors were Rev. Carroll Carter, Rev. Lloyd Taylor and Rev. Robert Hanson. The pallbearers were Clyde Townes, Wayne Scott, Harvard Scott, Murray Scott, Neil Scott and Sterling Scott. The singing was by Wanda Grieve.

She was laid to rest at Moores Mills Cemetery beside her late husband Kenneth Townes.

A very special person, she was also loved by her daughters in law, Barbara [Mrs. Clayton Taylor], Agnes [Mrs. Leo Taylor] and Theresa [Mrs. Burl Taylor]. She derived a great deal of pleasure from kidding her sons in law, Michael Needham [Roberta], Donald Holt [Elaine], Jim Day [Bertha] and Bev Lawrence [Bernice].

Elizabeth was a most caring gran, granny, grandma, and big grandma and had a special relationship with each of her 27 grandchildren. She continued to remember her beloved Susie, Susan Lynn Holt, who passed away in 1977. Children were delightful to Elizabeth and she eagerly anticipated the arrival of each of her 25 great grandchildren. She leaves as well, dear Buzz, her elder brother, Clarence McCullough, having lost her younger brother, Stanley McMillan in 1977. She leaves aunt Hilda Tinker of Campobello and Nellie Creighton of Bocabec and many nieces and nephews.

After 10 years in Ontario, Garfield and Elizabeth returned in 1959 to make their home in Bocabec. Elizabeth attended Bocabec United Church and was a life member of the UCW . Her keenest interest was in the community and mission work carried out by the tiny club, a group of women from Bocabec. Although suffering ill health for many years, she was able to continue knitting, a hobby she enjoyed over the years. She contributed hundreds of pairs of knitted mittens and sock for her charitable endeavors.

Elizabeth derived a great deal of satisfaction from her charitable work, but the source of her real joy was the continual and true affection which she and her husband shared.

Elizabeth enjoyed her family, friends and community and was enjoyed by them.

Hymns were sung by Pentecostal Choir of McAdam.

Pallbearers were Floyd Scott, Steven Scott, Orville Townes, Clayton Markey, Aubrey Scott and Jeff Scott.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH McFARLANE

After a courageous battle with cancer, Katherine Elizabeth McFarlane passed away surrounded by her loving family at her daughters residence. St. Stephen, NB on Friday, April 12, 2002.

She was born May 12, 1933 in St Stephen, N.B., the daughter of the late William J. and Margaret (Hannan) Cleghorn. On July 20, 1957, she married Melvin (Shruddie) McFarlane and they lived at 9 Lisgar Street, St. Stephen, their entire life Her husband, Mel, passed away May 30,2000.

Surviving are her children: Mark (Debbie) McFarlane, grandchildren Miranda and April, Little Ridge, N.B. Kathy (Kevin) Helpert, grandchildren Kara and Kurt, St. Stephen, N.B. Arthur (Tracy), grandchildren Renee and Blayr, Oromocto, N.B.; and Paul (Josee), grandchildren Blaine, Brodie and Lucas, Little Ridge, N.B.; one brother, William (Lois) Cleghorn, St Stephen, N.B., and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by one sister, Regina Ingersoll, Little Ridge, N.B. Katherine worked as a telephone operator in her early years, leaving this line of work to be employed at Eaton's office, then returned to NBTEL as a customer service receptionist, until retiring in 1993.

She was a life member of Kirk-McColl United Church, being a Sun-day School teacher when her children were growing up in Christian faith. She offered her help during Vacation Bible School when needed. She was a member of Fidelis Unit UCW, Cooking and serving at many luncheons, and a member of Pastoral Care.

She was a devoted member and Past Noble Grand, Olive Rebekah Lodge; Junior Ladies Auxiliary Branch #9 and Charlotte County Hospital Auxiliary, finishing her presidency this year.

Katherine was very active in her community volunteering for Meals on Wheels, and canvassing for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. She was involved in many sport leagues such as bowling, curling, swimming, golfing and the Dancing Grandmas. She also played bridge every week, faithfully, with her regular mates. In the last few years, she took piano lessons as she had always wanted to play the piano when she was little. She was very energetic and wanted to fulfill her dreams, and that she did in so many ways in the eyes of her children. Her time may have seemed limited but she was never too busy to think of a friend or family member. She enjoyed reading, baking, and working in her flower and vegetable garden, walks along the beach and lazing by the pool with her family and friends in her spare time.

One of the great joys of her life was her family, and most of all, her grandchildren, to whom she gave a great deal of love and memories that will be cherished always. Family gatherings were always a tradition which kept this family very close, and will be continued, although her presence will be missed very much.

Her largely attended funeral was held at the Kirk-McColl United Church on Monday, April 15, 2002. Rev. Linda Thomas conducted the service. Dear friends, Doreena Riley, Jean Peck and Jean Christie read Scriptures. Debbie MacDonald rendered What a Friend We Have in Jesus, accompanied by organist David Robinson. The senior choir and congregation sang many favourite. She was laid to rest in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery. The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home was in care of arrangements. Pallbearers were nephews Phil Cleghorn, Bill Cleghorn, Jr and Richard Cleghorn, cousin Seymour Johnson, and co-workers Galen Dempsey and Dana Brooker. The women of the UCW prepared a lovely luncheon that was served in the Fellowship Hall, following the committal.

The many floral arrangements, memorial cards, plus those who paid their respects at the funeral home and attended the funeral attested to Katherine's esteem. "A gracious woman" she was. She will be lovingly and sadly missed by her family and a large circle of friends.

The outpouring of condolences, prayers and support from this community were overwhelming during after her short sickness. Words cannot express the gratitude the family feels.

Notes for Guy Frederick Burrell:
Guy Burrell

BURRELL, GUY

1923 - 2015

Guy Frederick Burrell left his five girls on June 9, 2015 to be with his wife Winnie, who predeceased him. Dad was born in Blacks Harbour, NB on August 6, 1923, son of the late Howard Burrell and Carrie (McLaughlin) Spencer. He is the last surviving member of his immediate family.

Dad is survived by his daughters Christine (Kevin) Montague of Fredericton, Jackie (George) Gilliland of Quispamsis, Joan (Tom) Manning of Quispamsis, Cathy (Ken) Scott of Edmonton and Wendy (Jerry) Kunitzky of Saint John; 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; several nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews.

Dad was also predeceased by his brothers Derwood and Frank and sisters Cora, Vera, Annie and Fern.

In 1943, Dad answered the call of his country as the 1st man in the railroad corporation of the Royal Canadian Engineers and served overseas in Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. Dad just received the "France Medal of Honour" and he also received a pin and certificate of recognition from the Netherlands as a tribute for his part in their liberation. During his time overseas he met our Mom and brought his war bride back to McAdam, N.B. Months later they moved to Saint John, N.B. living at 73 Beaverbrook Ave for 44 years and then 18 years at 8 Brentwood Cres. Dad moved into the Ridgewood Vets Wing in 2012.

Upon Dad's return from active duty, he worked many part time jobs including Acme Construction, Irving Pulp & Paper, Saint John Sugar Refinery, Extra Gang and C.P.R. Dad finally received full time work in 1964 at the CPR from where he retired in 1984. He was president of the United Transportation Union for 10 years. Dad always knew as a boy he wanted to work on the railroad and started work at the CPR Hotel in McAdam at the age of 17. He laid a lot of steel, making the yard bigger for the war effort. He was encouraged to write the rules for braking at 18 years old. Railroading was in his blood.

Dad then answered the call to his community, being a Cub Master at St. Luke's Church for 16 years and four years at Portland United Church. He was awarded the Long Service Medal and the Medal of Merit from Ottawa for his efforts. He became the President of the Great North District. No wonder so many have met him on the street and thanked him for being such a great role model. Leading his cubs was his favorite hobby. He also volunteered at the Romero House, Red Cross (now known as Canadian Blood Services) and the Poppy Campaign as a Vet. He was the founder of the Millidgeville Senior Centre. He served as the 1st. Vice-President at the Royal Canadian Legion (Branch #64) where Dad received the Meritorious Service Pin and was honoured with a life membership. He was an usher at Portland United Church and member of the Men's Club there. Dad also served on the board of the Brentwood Garden Homes in Millidgeville.

Dad enjoyed listening to country and western music; being outdoors, gardening, camping, fishing and hunting. Dad loved to hook rugs and each one of his girls has a piece of his work. Dad belonged to the Post Office camp where we as a family vacationed each year. Each Sunday when we were kids, Mom and Dad would take us to the beach to picnic for the day and in the wintertime we enjoyed many sliding and skating events. Dad was a great family man and we all have wonderful childhood memories.

Mom and Dad enjoyed many trips and cruises together. They took great pleasure from playing cards, up to four times a week. They loved going to Lorneville where they always met up with their oldest and dearest friends Irene and Nordie Christie.

Dad and his family wish to express our THANKS to all the staff and volunteers at Ridgewood Veteran's Wing for their Humanity, Respect, Compassion and continuous love for our Dad. You are truly gifted people.

Relatives and Friends are invited to join Dad's family at Fundy Funeral Home, 230 Westmorland Road (646-2424) for visiting on Sunday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 9 pm. A Tribute to a Veteran Service will take place at 7 pm. A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, June 15, 2015 from Fundy Funeral Home chapel at 11 am followed by a reception at the funeral home. Interment will take place in Ocean View Memorial Gardens.

For those who wish, remembrances may be made to the Ridgewood Veterans Wing's - Comfort Fund or the charity of choice.

Notes for John Mansfield Moody:

John Moody -

John Moody said he never fired a shot during the Second World War.

"I was a mechanic," he said with a chuckle.

He remembers being shot at though.

"I hid. That's why I'm still here," he said teasing.

Joking aside, Moody who enlisted in 1942 with the Eighth Hussars and served in the army until 1945, said he'll be remembering old friends this Remembrance Day, like he has in the past.

I think about them. I remember things that happened when we were overseas, the times we got shelled a lot," said Moody who turned 90 years old on September 17 this year.

He sat on his couch in front of a crackling fire in the fireplace in the livingroom of his home on the Ledge Road and remembered.

"This is the tam I wore all through Italy," he said, popping up from the couch and gabbing a dark tam with t gleaming Eighth Hussars badge.

"It's getting a little worn," he said running his finger slowly around the binding on the edge.

Moody said he tried to remember the good times from the period in his life overseas.

Moody was born in 1914.

"I started the First World War," he joked.

Born in the very House where he now lives, in the room he now claims as his bedroom, John Moody was the son of Berton and Blanche Moody. His dad was a sea captain whose homeport was Portland, Maine. His mother was a schoolteacher who raised two other children besides John.

His elder brother Charles is dead and buried near Boston.

His sister, Virginia Faloon, still lives in Quebec, where she moved with her husband, Ken, now deceased about 40 years ago, when the Cotton Mill in St. Stephen closed. Virginia is 93 years old.

"I talk to her quite often," said Moody.

"I want her to come home and live here. There's plenty of room. But she's a serious bridge nut; loves to play bridge where she is," he added with a laugh.

You can tell family is important to Moody. He has family photos on just about every available surface in his living room. He has a large metal plate engraving of himself and his wife, the former Jean Frye, who died several years ago.

They were married for 53 years. "she must have been a saint," exclaims Moody with a laugh.

The couple had three children. Two daughters, Dianne and Barbara are both dead now but their son, John Frederick or Ted as he is called lives in Barter Settlement.

Moody worked as a mechanic at the local Government Garage for 24 years and a half years following his return from overseas.

He liked being a mechanic, even in the army. He said he was responsible for keeping the vehicles moving. When you ask him what rank he held in the army, he replies, "super duper trooper," and laughs heartily.

"They wanted to give me a stripe, but I said no," he said, explaining that mechanics made 75 cents more per day than sergeants who only received 60 cents more a day.

Moody began his overseas tour with six months and two weeks of training in an English town called Chatham.

"They taught every trade in England there," he said.

Moody was then sent to Algiers in North Africa, then to Italy. He went into Naples.

"They had gondolas there," he said.

After his division was pulled out of Italy, Moody was sent to France, Belgium "a corner of Germany" and ended up in Holland.

While in Italy Moody who said he could "Jibber jabber" in Italian, often helped the locals in the village in which they stayed with their community oven.

I'd help them build the fire and one woman would give me a loaf of bread, he recalled.

Moody remembers almost ending up behind enemy lines.

He said he and the other mechanics had a truck they called "the fitters truck."

"I had a bunk and made a stove to keep warm out of a five gallon can," said Moody.

He remembers the men getting into the back of the truck and the driver heading out.

The fella driving the truck game up to a sign that said front line 100 yards. He drove right by our tanks firing, said Moody.

I said stop this thing, but he said that's an old sign. I told him that sign was new to me. Moody said laughing.

It was no laughing matter, however, when the men piled out and discovered they were indeed only a short distance from enemy territory. They jumped into a ditch for cover when small arms fire opened up around them.

Moody said the truck driver was yelling at them to help him turn the truck around.

We just told him you got us in here, you can back it around yourself. Said Moody, with another laugh. They did manage to get back on the truck and to safety away from the enemy line.

Moody was in England in VJ Day as he calls it. He remembers being told at 4 p.m. on a particular day that he would be shipping out for England at 6 p.m. on the same day.

Moody was in England for two weeks after the end of the war and then came home to St. Stephen.

Moody said he will place a wreath this year at the Cenotaph in memory of the Eight Hussars who died in the War.

I don't parade anymore, he said. I just hide behind the monument until its time to lay the wreath, he added with a mischievous chuckle.

He said he enjoyed the recent turkey supper offered by the St. Stephen Legion and enjoys visiting with his Legion friends.

This Remembrance Day he said he would think about other friends.

I'll think about them, he said solemn for once as he stared into the flames of his living room fire.

I kind of miss the people, but thank goodness we didn't lose too many."

Notes for Arnold Sydney Vail:

Arnold Sydney Vail

March 13, 1932 - October 15, 2018

Arnold Sydney Vail passed away at the Dr. Everett Chalmers Regional Hospital, Fredericton, NB. on Monday, October 15, 2018.

Born in Harvey, NB., son of the late Linton A. and Roxie A. (Messer) Vail.

Today we celebrate 86 years of a life well lived and filled with joys and sorrows. Arnold described himself as a "jack of all trades and master of none", but his workmanship both on his home, property and the community tells us a different story.

With the exception of a couple of years when he lived in Saint John, Arnold has lived his entire life in Brockway. With a stint at the dry dock in Saint John in 1958 and again in 1963 his heart was still in Brockway. After graduating from school in Lawrence Station he went to work the very next day. He and a neighbour worked in the woods for 10 years cutting hardwood for the flakeboard plant in St. Stephen. In 1969, he began driving school bus, in the Lawrence Station area, a job he loved and held for 28 years until his retirement. He never had any trouble with the kids whatsoever. "you had to let them know who was the boss", Arnold said, but his smile told you he had the children's safety at heart ALWAYS Fitting in nicely with his bus schedule over the years, was his love of carpentry. He built his own home in 1954 next door to his childhood home, having learned many of his carpentry skills from his grandfather Allan Messer, who at 80 years of age helped him build his first home.

Married in 1952, Arnold, and the love of his life, Gladys celebrated their 66th Anniversary on July 9th of this year. Childhood sweethearts, very seldom did you see one without the other. They were two peas in a pod and Gladys was there for every new adventure that came along. She believed, "you only get out of a marriage what you put in" and it certainly worked for them.

Arnold has been involved in many organizations over his lifetime, such as Cherry Masonic Lodge for more than 50 years and the Shriners. One activity that he found most rewarding was working with the Harvey Volunteer Fire Department as Deputy Chief.

Now retired for 21 years, Arnold delighted in keeping busy with his son Mark, working in his woodworking shop, collecting one-cylinder engines, restoring his 1928 Model A Ford to tip top shape and of course spending time with the people he loved the most, his Family.

Arnold has always risen to the occasion when asked to volunteer and often looked in on properties when home owners were away to make sure all was secure. A large stone beside the fire station attests to the influence of the Vail family since coming to the area in 1818. Arnold's motto was "before I get out of the bed in the morning I decide what the day will bring, and I try to accomplish something good everyday.

A LIFE WELL LIVED, LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Notes for Burton Raymond Rolls:

A/B Burton Rolls Missing After "Athabaskan" Lost

St. Stephen Man May Be Among 85 Off Tribal Class Destroyer Claimed By Germans As Prisoners After Channel Battle

A message from official sources yesterday advised members of his family that A/B Burton Rolls, R.C.N.V.R. was reported missing following the sinking of his ship, the Tribal Class Canadian destroyer Athabaskan, in a sharp battle with German destroyers in the English Channel last Saturday.

Although at present missing, A/B Rolls may be accounted for in course of time. High hopes are held for the survival of many of the destroyer's personnel on view of the fact that the Germans claim to be holding 85 as prisoners and also considering that the engagement took place close to the French coast where chances of being rescued would be encouraging.

Of the destroyer's complement of about 225, 46 have been brought back to England and 85 are claimed as prisoners by the German, including six officers.

Able Seaman Burton Rolls, an employee of Ganong Bros. Ltd., before enlisting in the Navy in May, 1942, saw his first duty at sea aboard the Athabaskan and had been with her through all her short but stormy career. He is one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rolls of St. Stephen who are in uniform; the eldest Herbert, is with the Canadian Army in Italy, and the other two Donald and Jack, like Burton chose the Navy. Mrs. Burton Rolls, who before her marriage was Miss Mona Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Price of Calais, has been employed in a Portland shipyard during her husband's absence. They have one daughter, aged three years.

The Athabaskan, one of the Tribal class destroyers added to the Canadian Navy since the war began, was a sleek, heavily armed and extremely fast ship packing a tremendous punch on fore power and offensive armament. She was hit in the Mediterranean last year when the Germans made the first use of glider bombs but was nursed back to port in what was described at the time as a remarkable piece of seamanship.

The engagement which proved to be her last occurred in the starlit hours before dawn Saturday morning, April 29. In company with the destroyer Haida, also of the Tribal class, the Athabaskan was engaged in patrol work in the English Channel when they sighted two German destroyers and immediately closed to engage them. The action was short but furious. Only a few salvos had been fired when the Athabaskan was hit by a torpedo and sank within a few minutes her guns firing to the last. The Haida continued to carry the battle to the fleeing German craft. One of them was driven ashore out of control and the other escaped on the darkness and mist. The Germans reported 85 of the Athabaskan's personnel as prisoners while 46 of the men returned safely to England, having been picked up by the Haida. Much hope was held that A.B. Rolls was among those taken by the Germans.

The bride looked charming in a street length dress of British blue sheer with black accessories and carried an arm bouquet of gladioli.

Following the signing of the register, supper was served to immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride's table was centred with a three- tiered wedding cake. Later the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon trip.

On Monday evening a large number of friends of the bride and groom gathered at the home of the groom and tendered them an old fashioned charivari.

"My Grampy was the best their was. He was always knitting and loved to make socks for all his son-in-laws and grandsons. He tried to teach me how to knit, but for some reson I couldn't get the hang of it. He was patient but I did wear on that patience by dropping stiches everytime. I spent alot of time with him everytime he was up from Grand Manan for his appointments and I will always cherish that time we had together one on one."

Always Loved and Remembered by your Grand Daughter Katilyn.

Friendly store owner will be missed in Utopia Published Wednesday July 2nd, 2008

MIKE MULLEN

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

LAKE UTOPIA - - - From a wide array of fishing and hunting supplies to automotive parts and basics like a loaf of bread, locals and cottage dwellers can still get just about anything they want at Utopia Convenience Store here.

Anything, that is, except the folksy, friendly welcome they had come to expect from Kenny Hatt.

Hatt, an avid outdoorsman, self-employed carpenter trucker who had owned and operated the store with his beloved wife Madolyn (Hannon) since 2004, lost a three-year battle with cancer last Friday. He was 62.

"Kenny was a people person who loved being in the store," Madolyn said earlier this week. "He was just one of those people who could talk to anyone. The biggest stranger in the world could come in and in a minute, Kenny could start up a conversation.

"I will always remember him as always having time to stop and talk to people," she added. "As busy as he was, he was never too busy to stop and have a little conversation, to tell a story or share a little joke."

Madolyn said he was also one to be thinking ahead, too, when it came to growing the business.

"This spring, we put in a propane exchange," she said. "He knew it was something that would go in this area."

Hatt also loved treating his smallest customers and being there for his family in tough times.

"When the children came into the store, he would give them a little bag of candy, or get them an ice cream," said Madolyn. "And if anybody needed anything, he would make sure he helped them out all he could. He used to take stuff from his garden to people, perhaps, who were too old to plant one anymore."

Born in St. Stephen on Feb. 19, 1946, Kenneth Osborne Hatt was a son of Isabella (McNichol) Hatt and her trucker husband, the late Arnold Reid Hatt, who raised their large family in the Lake Utopia area.

Besides Kerrs Ridge native Madolyn, who became his second wife on Oct. 10, 1987, at Pennfield Apostolic Church, Hatt's survivors include two sons, Joel, 17, from their union, and Daniel, of St. Stephen, from his previous marriage; six brothers; and five sisters.

Ironcially, Madolyn first met Hatt in the early 1980s at a little take-out his sister ran next to the convenience store they would one day own. Their romance blossomed after she went to work at the store, then owned by her future husband's brother, Arnold Jr.

Hatt built them a home in Kerrs Ridge, where they resided until 2001. He then constructed a large home on a big piece of land they had purchased in St. George.

The couple ended up selling that property and moving to Utopia in 2004, roughly the same time they purchased the convenience store.

In 2005, Hatt was diagnosed with cancer.

A country boy at heart, Hatt continued to enjoy hunting, fishing, gardening and woodworking right to the end.

Last year, against all the odds, he managed to bag two moose.

He had waited for years for his name to be drawn in the provincial moose draw.

He was not only successful in downing one on a hunting trip to the Miramichi, later in the year, he shot another during a hunting trip to Newfoundland and Labrador.

"Kenny and some of his buddies had dreamed of going to Newfoundland for a moose hunt," said Madolyn. "They made plans to go even after he found out the cancer had spread all through his body. His doctor said he shouldn't go, but I told him, 'Kenny, if you can go, you go.' And he went. And he was glad he did."

Many of the more than 600 people who signed the funeral home guest book also spoke of his strong Christian faith.

"He kept his faith in God through it all," said Madolyn.

"He never stopped believing that God was right there with him.

"He didn't want to die, but he wasn't afraid to die.

"He accepted the fact that he was in God's will; that God had a plan and he was just part of the plan."

Kathleen Elsie Smith

March 26, 1934 - October 31, 2010

SMITH - It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Kathleen Elsie (Scott) Smith, our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend at the Dr. Everett Chalmers Hospital in Fredericton, NB, on October 31, 2010. Born March 26, 1934 in McAdam, NB, she was the widow of Ralph Clarence Smith and daughter of the late John Clarence and Christine Gertrude (Sutherland) Scott.

Mom was truly "one of a kind". Although she was faced with much illness during her lifetime, she always carried with her a strong constitution and a sense of determination. Mom had a strong faith which helped her through many difficult times. Without doubt, her family was what mattered most to her in life, and she enjoyed her role as matriarch of the family. She was a kind, wonderful mother and grandmother and a loyal friend. She was very involved in her community, serving as an elder at St. Paul's United Church in McAdam, and also as a member of the United Church Women, IODE, and the Rebekah Lodge. She also sang in the church choir, served as a Girl Guide leader, kindergarten teacher, on the board of Lakeland Industries, as a Laubach Literacy volunteer, as well as contributing countless volunteer hours to her community. She will be deeply missed by all those who knew her.

She is survived by two sons: Harold (Shirley) Smith of Peel, NB, and Eric (Heather) Smith of Bathurst, NB; three daughters: Tammy Smith of Fredericton, Kelly (Troy) Smith Lunn of McAdam, and Andrea Smith of McAdam; as well as eight grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild. She is also survived by 3 brothers: Henry Scott of McAdam, Gerald Scott of McAdam, and John/Jack (Joan) Scott of Fredericton; brother-in-law John (Marie) Smith of Moncton, Moncton Parish, Westmorland Co., NB; sisters-in-law Jean Campbell of Perth-Andover, NB, Dorothy Andrews of Charlton, Massachusetts, and Barbara Miller of Edson, AB; and several nieces and nephews.

Resting at the St. Paul's United Church, Saunders Road, McAdam, NB from where the funeral service will be held on Thursday, November 4, 2010 at 3:30 PM. Visiting hours will be held at the church on Wednesday, November 3, 2010 from 2-4 and 7-9 PM. Interment will be at Rockland Cemetery, McAdam.

Notes for Murray Vallis Gardner:

Obituary - Murray Vallis Gardner

The death of Murray Vallis Gardner occurred at the Charlotte County Hospital on October 2, 2002 at the age of 81, after a long battle with cancer.

Murray was born February 8, 1921 to Melvin and Mable Gardner in Andersonville, N.B., where he was raised with 20 brothers and sisters. Only one sister remains of the 21, Edith Harley (originally from McAdam) who now lives at Browns in Tower Hill, N.B.

Murray met Velma Louise Lindsay and they exchanged vows in 1943, after which they had seven children of their own. They remained in Andersonville until 1965, when they moved to Moores Mills, N.B.

Murray worked most of his working life in the woods with the exception of a few years with the CPR. The last 26 years until his retirement in 1983 he was a bulldozer operator for GP Company out of St. Croix. He loved the outdoors and everything nature had to offer. He could sit for hours and watch the hummingbirds feed at his feeders.

He was a faithful member of the New Life Christian Assembly Church in Old Ridge, which he attended until failing health prevented him from doing so.

Murray was predeceased by his wife Velma in 1991, and by his eldest son, Beverly in 2000 both to cancer.

In July 2001, Murray moved to Elm Park, with his daughter Elaine Moulton, where he was living at the time of his death.

Volunteer, councillor was hero to her daughter
Telegraph-Journal
Published Thursday November 22nd, 2007

ST. GEORGE - In the days since the death of former town councillor Connie White on Nov. 9, daughter and caregiver Davina Cooke has had plenty of time to reflect on the life of the compassionate volunteer, church organist and family woman who always found the good in everyone.

In fact, at times, the words of the "loving, caring and amazing woman" she calls her "hero" still echo in Cooke's ears.

"One time when I was just young and did something foolish," Cook recalled Wednesday, "my mother said, 'Always live your life in such a way that, if someone writes your obituary, that those words aren't false. That they can actually say good words about you and mean it.'

"And I believe that's the way she lived her life."

People are certainly having good things to say about White, who waged a courageous five-year-battle with cancer before dying peacefully at Cooke's home in Utopia, with family at her side. She was 64.

White was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Former St. George mayor Vance Craig, who served with White during her years (1987-95) on town council, and local funeral director Fred Brennan, with whom she worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the St. George Funeral Home from 1997 until she was diagnosed with cancer, both remember her as a caring and co-operative person who was good listener.

"She was a people person who had a great concern for her community," said Craig.

Friend and eulogist Melba Anderson of Oak Bay said White found her "niche in life" at the funeral home.

"She excelled (there)," she said. "She touched the lives of many people with her kindness, compassion and helpful ways . . . Connie's ways expressed, 'We care.' "

Born Constance Marie Eastman in St. Stephen on Sept. 7, 1943, she was a daughter of the late Mary Jane (Seeley) and A. Earle Eastman, the border town's longtime fire chief.

Besides Cooke, her survivors include a second daughter, Katrina Lovett of Porter's Lake, N.S., and son Larry McLaughlin of Lawrence Station; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren..

White was a 1961 graduate of St. Stephen High School and a 1972 graduate of the New Brunswick Community College, St. Andrews. She worked for Scotiabank in St. Stephen, St. George and St. Andrews, became a licensed insurance agent and set up her own bookkeeping/income tax preparation business.

She was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 40 in St. George and former president of its Ladies Auxiliary, delivered Meals on Wheels and played the organ at St. Mark's Anglican Church in St. George and the Baptist Church in Baring, Me. She was also a lifelong lover of animals.

But Cooke says it was the "joy of family" that was paramount to her mother.

"In her final days, her words were that she was prepared to go, but she didn't want to leave her family."

Notes for James 'Jim' Arno Day:
James "Jim" Arno Day
October 22, 1949 - May 25, 2017

James Arno Day, 67, passed away peacefully at his home in St Andrews on May 25, 2017. Jim was born and raised by his loving family in Brooklin, Maine. After graduating from Brooklin High School and his service in the US Navy, Jim followed in the footsteps of his ancestors to become a 5th generation boat builder. In 1982 he came to set up and run the Boat Building School at NBCC, St Andrews. He shared his many skills with men and women who took this specialized trade to other parts of Canada, the US and beyond. Many have remained his strong friends.

After leaving the college in 1998, Jim ran his own boat shop and indulged in his second passion, antique vehicles. Jim's shop in Chamcook was the 'go to' spot for boat work, car work, and sometimes just good conversation and fun. Jim was a fabulous neighbour and loved to help whenever he could. His great sense of humour, balanced with sound carefully considered advice, will be very missed by many of us.

Jim is survived by his wife, Bertha (Taylor) Day, his loving daughters, Elizabeth Day Nangle and husband, Tim of Windham, Me and Judith Johnston James and husband, Gary of Bayside, NB; grandchildren, Sydney Elise Nangle, Gemma Elizabeth James and Jacob Ryan Johnston. Jim had great hope that the futures for these young people will be fulfilling and peaceful. He is also survived by siblings Lois Day Washburn and her husband, John; Stephen Day and his wife, Deborah; and brother-in-law, Tom Colcord. He also left behind many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Jim was predeceased by his loving parents, Arno and Dorothy Day and his dear sister, Mary Day Colcord, Uncle Frank "June" Day, Aunt Margaret Johnson and Aunt Mary Day Hawkins.

A celebration of Jim's life will be held at the Bayside Community Hall, 3049 Route 127, Bayside, NB. on Saturday, August 26, 2017 from 2:00- 4:00 pm.

For those who wish, in lieu of flowers, remembrance donations can be made to the ALS Society of New Brunswick & Nova Scotia: <http://alsnbns.ca/en> or to the Dorothy and Arno Day Memorial Fund, at the Maine Community Foundation, 245 Main St., Ellsworth, ME 04605.

Notes for John Melvin Russell:
John Melvin Russell
September 15, 1919 - June 14, 2016

It is with great sadness the family of John Melvin Russell "Mel" announces his peaceful passing at the Upper River Valley Hospital in Waterville, NB on Tuesday June 14, 2016 just 3 months shy of his 97th year.

Mel was born in Oak Hill, NB, September 15, 1919, the son of Frederick and Winnifed (Nolan) Russell and resided there on the family farm for most of his life. In the last few years of their lives, he and Ina had moved to Carleton County due to declining health.

Mel was married 67 years to the love of his life, Ina (Vail) and they raised two children: Sheila Lloyd (Douglas) , and Brian Russell (Gail). He is survived by his children, six grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren, siblings in law, nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents, his sister Elva (Walter) Hanson, and his granddaughter Amy Lloyd.

Mel was a quiet thoughtful man with a reputation of being a hardworking, down to earth man of integrity, manners, and kindness. He would do anything to help anyone out. He loved his family and the land and animals. Mel was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion, The OddFellows, and Oak Hill United Church. He worked as a dairy farmer on the family farm. His hobby was a passion - Mel raised and raced horses for harness racing - he had many horses including Misty Peg, Paynter's Pride, Winnie R, Shemar Lorna, and Nibble Tag to name a few. Several had set records in their day. He enjoyed his church, his family and in later years also worked maintenance at Oak Bay and the St Stephen Tourism Center.

His smile was contagious, his word his bond, and he was loved and respected by any who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His gentle nature, endless patience, and thoughtful kindness made him a loving proud father, grandfather, and great grandfather and a favourite of all of his nurses while in hospital. He was loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Funeral Service for Mel will be held at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd. , 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B., Friday June 17, 2016 at 2 pm with Rev. Toben Steeves of Holmesville Free Will Baptist Church officiating. Visitation will be held just prior to the service from 1-2 PM. St. Croix Legion Branch #9 will hold a tribute service immediately following the funeral service. Interment will take place at Oak Hill Cemetery, Oak Hill, N.B.

For those who wish, remembrances may be made in his honour to the Oak Hill Cemetery Fund or a charity of one's choice. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

Notes for Edna Jean Weeks:

Obit:

Johnston, Edna Jean

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Edna Jean (Weeks) Johnston, at the home of Randy and Melinda Johnston, in Moores Mills, N.B., on Jan. 13, 2009. Mommy joins her childhood sweetheart and husband of 57 years, Kenneth Milton Johnston, who died Dec. 8, 2007.

Born Feb. 22, 1931, her loving memory will live on in her seven children: daughters, Brenda Sansom (David), in Fredericton, N.B., Terry Dickerson (Bobby), St. Stephen, N.B., and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, N.B.; son, Marshall (Syreena), in New Germany, N.S., and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, N.B., Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya).

Mommy is also survived by grandchildren: Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley and twins, Brandan and Brandi; and great-grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan.

Mommy lived her entire life in Charlotte County, having been raised in Old Ridge, where she met Daddy while tobogganing. The oldest girl in a family of seven children, she was predeceased by her adoring father, Burton, her mother, Myrtle, and her special older brother, Douglas.

She is survived by sisters, Louise Cleghorn (Kenny), Donna Libby (Stephen), Grace Cook (Kenny), and Doris Stewart (Roger); and brother, Kenny (Fran).

Mommy was the epitome of the saying, "big surprises come in small packages." She graduated from St. Stephen High School, where she enjoyed such nicknames as "Spark Plug," "Squirt" and "Pint Size".

In the last chapter of her life, Mommy delighted in the new name of "Rocket", given to her by her son, Randal. Jeannie never let her size discourage her from attempting any challenge or engaging any challenger. Her family often lovingly called her the "Little Banty Rooster".

Mommy was born a natural mother, homemaker, seamstress, nurse, gardener and handy woman. A newlywed at 19, she moved to Moore's Mills with Daddy's grandparents, Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston, where she became chief cook and bottle washer. Within three years she had her first three children. During those early years, she quickly mobilized her many talents as she pumped water, chopped wood, stoked fires, gardened, canned vegetables, preserved fruits and pickles, and mastered a large and uncooperative wringer washer. Our home was most often graced by a long, carefully hung wash, where the largest sheets were first and the smallest socks last. After the birth of the triplets, her excitement peaked when Buchanan Brothers' truck arrived with three new highchairs and an automatic washer and dryer.

Christmas church pageants and school concerts would find her girls in carefully sewn matching dresses. Mommy could lug pails of berries and stack heavy boxes matching any man and outdoing many at the family-owned blueberry fields in Tower Hill.

At the family business, Causeway Motors in Oak Bay, Mommy operated the canteen, making world famous fried clams and lobster rolls, as well as acting as part-time service manager, accountant and gas pump attendant. As a young woman she most likely honed her waitress and cooking skills when she worked for Phil McCarroll at Phil's Restaurant.

When the family purchased the Milltown Garage from long-time friend, Norman Holmes, Mommy continued her business duties, as well as managing an apartment building. She modeled a work ethic and illustrated that it is not the size or gender that determines your ability but your personal determination and will to succeed.

Even though osteoporosis and emphysema left this most capable woman bedridden, she would delight us with her wit, humour and dear sweet smile. She had a determined desire to spend her final days in Moore's Mills, and that she did. Our family is forever indebted to, and blessed to have a dedicated and loving son, Randy, and his wonderful wife, Melinda, who, together with Mommy's self-proclaimed guard dog, Champ, provided a most caring and loving home in Moore's Mills.

We express our gratitude to Kindred Home Care and Pam Thibeault, Carolyn Fagan, Lori Greenier and Nancy Richard, for their loving care. Dr. Kay, the staff at Extra-Mural, Charlotte County Hospital and Hospice of Charlotte have provided immeasurable care and compassion. The support from family and friends will be remembered forever. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

The family will receive friends at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, N.B., on Saturday, Jan. 17, 2009 from 12 - 2 p.m., followed by a funeral service at 2 p.m.

Interment at Moores Mills Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Kenneth Milton Johnston:

Kenneth Milton "Kenny" Johnston

1930-2007

It is with great sadness the family announces the passing of Kenneth Milton Johnston "Kenny" at Charlotte County Regional Hospital on December 8, 2007. Kenny leaves behind his wife, Jean (Weeks) of fifty-seven years, his childhood sweetheart whom he met while toboggan sliding in Old Ridge.

His loving memory will live on in his seven children; daughters Brenda Sansom (David) in Fredericton, Terry Dickerson (Bobby) St. Stephen and Marlene Moore (Dean) in Penniac, son Marshall (Syreena) in New Germany, Nova Scotia and triplet sons who all reside in Moore's Mills, Robert (Pam), Randal (Melinda) and Rodney (Tanya). He is also survived by grandchildren Teena, Tricia, Jami, Samantha, Timmy, Trevor, Kristan, Wesley, and twins, Brandan and Brandi and great grandchildren, Hannah, Emma, Ethan, Madison, Logan, Jenna, Reese and Rylan. Daddy loved white cats and leaves Momma to care for his snow white "Sparky".

Daddy was born in Dewolfe Corner, December 10, 1930 and lost a twenty dollar bet when his first child Brenda was born two days before his twentieth birthday. Daddy was the third of seventeen children of the late George and Vivian (Foote) Johnston. He was predeceased by his most special friend, Bob McBride and his brothers Marvin (Gooley), Earl and Sam. He is survived by siblings Albert, Florence Crosby, Clarence, Gerald, Sharon Needle, Raymond, Hazen and Roger.

Daddy was raised by his grandparents, the late Willard and Mildred (Moore) Johnston in the small community of Moore's Mills where he attended school and began his life as a fun loving, joke playing imp.

Daddy spent his entire life in Charlotte County living as well in Milltown and The Ledge and a brief time in Fredericton. Daddy worked his entire life. After a life dedicated to the principals of honest, hard work and a spinal chord injury in 1994 he finally retired in 1997. He peeled pulp and worked for Gerald Gilman at Gilman's Garage in Moore's Mills when he left school but later became a very capable licensed mechanic and a licensed electrician. He was also a plumber and finished carpenter. He outfitted a complete carpentry workshop in his basement to accommodate him working from a wheelchair. He worked for Bert Linton selling Volkswagens and later had his own business, Causeway Motors at Oak Bay where he continued to sell Volkswagens and Used Cars. Causeway Motors later moved to Milltown when he bought the facility operated by one of his childhood mentors, Norman Holmes. Daddy never got rich at anything because his kind and generous heart ruled his fee schedule, if he managed to even charge you for the work he did. When his garage was not open, customers, friends and strangers simply came to the house anytime of the day and night to get their cars fixed. Once cell phones came into popular use he is known to have listened to the car engines over the phone so as to diagnose the problem. Daddy could fix anything - anything that is except cancer. He will be lovingly remembered as the eternal optimist who always had a smile, a laugh and a solution - if you had a problem. He is renowned for his ability to solve mechanical problems when others could not. He will be treasured by the respect he instilled in others when never gave up when he was told he would not walk again. He built a pulley in his garage at The Ledge so that he could exercise his legs and back.

Daddy's legacy is four sons, all of whom have his mechanical talents and three daughters who can jump start a car. Daddy taught by example the importance of doing a job to the best of your ability, working hard and being honest and fair. His determination to walk and live independently has been an inspiration to everyone around him. Quite simply, our dad was amazing.

As cancer slowing took its final toll, our dad, the perfect patient continued to bless us with moments of precious memories reflective of the good, kind and generous man he had always been.

There are no words to express our immense gratitude for the professional love, care and compassion from Kindred Home Care, Hospice of Charlotte and the Charlotte County Hospital Palliative Care Staff.

Remembrances may be made to Hospice of Charlotte or charity of donor's choice.

The family will receive friends at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB on Monday, December 10, 2007 from 2 to 4 pm, followed by a Memorial Service at 4 pm.

Interment will be at the Moores Mills Cemetery at a later date.

Condolences can be made to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 19 June 2012:

That said it is not clear what the relationship was between Ellis LeRoy Hatch and Ruel Manzer Scott (Hatch). There was enough time between the death of Sophia Saffrona Beney Hatch and Ruel's birth for Roy to be his father. After Sophia d. Roy took Alfred to his in-laws, who raised Alfred. The girls, Annie, Eva, and Esther spent summers with the Beney's too. It is possible that Roy was having sex with Lillian Irene Scott and got her pregnant. Ruel was born (no father listed) 8 April 1908 (Calais Record Book, City Hall) In 1967 Eva by personal affidavit swore that Ruel was Roy's son. However, Ruel was not named in Roy's will.

Addie Mae Fairweather

On March 7, 2007, mom went home to be with Dad in the Lord's arms. Mom will be deeply missed, but always remembered by her loving family. Our memories of her are so wonderful.

Mom was born June, 1928 at her grandparent's home in Honeydale, N.B. She was the second child of Douglas and Bessie (McLaughlin) Blair. She resided in McAdam through her childhood years.

When she was grown, she worked for Ganong's chocolate factory. She boarded with her mother's sister Winifred McKenzie, through the week, and on the weekends she would travel to McAdam on the train to see her parents. On one of these trips, she stopped at Watt Junction to see some of her relatives and that is when she met her husband to be, Archie Fairweather. They were married on August 14, 1950. They lived a simple but happy life together for 43 years at which time dad left us to be with the Lord. Through these 43 years together they had nine children, of which two died in infancy.

Seven children have survived her. They are Douglas , wife Patty and family; David Wife Nancy and family; Albert wife Delia and family; Norma, husband Larry and family; Charles, wife Connie and family; Peter and daughter Tarra; and Frederick wife Caroline and family. Mom is also survived by 20 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren. She is also survived by brother Frank Blair and wife Jean of McAdam, N.B.; sister Florence Colwell and husband David of Martinon, N.B.; sister Dena Camp and husband Greg of Fredericton; sister Doris Lustig and husband Allan of Fredericton, N.B.; brother George Blair and wife Jeannette of Saint John; sister in law Annette Blair of Vanceboro; sister in law Marie Cizek and husband derrick of Riverview, N.B.; sister in law Muriel Fairweather of Lawrence Station and sister in law Glendeen Fairweather of Clairville, N.B.

Mom was predeceased by her father in 1982 and her mother in 1986. She was also predeceased by her sisters, Mary; Margaret; and Dorren and be her brothers Milford, Ralph and Halson.

Mom resided at Lincourt Manor the last four years of her life where she told us (her children) that she loved it.

Volunteer, councillor was hero to her daughter
Telegraph-Journal
Published Thursday November 22nd, 2007

ST. GEORGE - In the days since the death of former town councillor Connie White on Nov. 9, daughter and caregiver Davina Cooke has had plenty of time to reflect on the life of the compassionate volunteer, church organist and family woman who always found the good in everyone.

In fact, at times, the words of the "loving, caring and amazing woman" she calls her "hero" still echo in Cooke's ears.

"One time when I was just young and did something foolish," Cook recalled Wednesday, "my mother said, 'Always live your life in such a way that, if someone writes your obituary, that those words aren't false. That they can actually say good words about you and mean it.'

"And I believe that's the way she lived her life."

People are certainly having good things to say about White, who waged a courageous five-year-battle with cancer before dying peacefully at Cooke's home in Utopia, with family at her side. She was 64.

White was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Former St. George mayor Vance Craig, who served with White during her years (1987-95) on town council, and local funeral director Fred Brennan, with whom she worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the St. George Funeral Home from 1997 until she was diagnosed with cancer, both remember her as a caring and co-operative person who was good listener.

"She was a people person who had a great concern for her community," said Craig.

Friend and eulogist Melba Anderson of Oak Bay said White found her "niche in life" at the funeral home.

"She excelled (there)," she said. "She touched the lives of many people with her kindness, compassion and helpful ways . . . Connie's ways expressed, 'We care.' "

Born Constance Marie Eastman in St. Stephen on Sept. 7, 1943, she was a daughter of the late Mary Jane (Seeley) and A. Earle Eastman, the border town's longtime fire chief.

Besides Cooke, her survivors include a second daughter, Katrina Lovett of Porter's Lake, N.S., and son Larry McLaughlin of Lawrence Station; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren..

White was a 1961 graduate of St. Stephen High School and a 1972 graduate of the New Brunswick Community College, St. Andrews. She worked for Scotiabank in St. Stephen, St. George and St. Andrews, became a licensed insurance agent and set up her own bookkeeping/income tax preparation business.

She was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 40 in St. George and former president of its Ladies Auxiliary, delivered Meals on Wheels and played the organ at St. Mark's Anglican Church in St. George and the Baptist Church in Baring, Me. She was also a lifelong lover of animals.

But Cooke says it was the "joy of family" that was paramount to her mother.

"In her final days, her words were that she was prepared to go, but she didn't want to leave her family."

Obituary - Norman Preston Smith

At the Charlotte County Hospital March 20, 2000, following a period of failing health, Norman Preston Smith went to be with the Lord.

He is the son of (Ivy (Porter) Smith, of Lincourt Manor and the late Laurence Smith, husband of Charlotte (McDougall) Smith; father of Angela Tozer (Tim) and Norma Copeland (rev. Duane) of Springfield, NB, loving "Grampy" to Jonathan and Naomi Copeland and Jamie Tozer.

He is also survived by brother Gerald Smith (Elizabeth), sisters, Joyce Jackson (Bob) and Peggy Lister (Paul), all of St. Stephen, his mother in law Mina McDougall, Lawrence station and many brothers in law, sister in law, cousins, nieces, nephews and his aunt Doris Chambers of Calais, Maine.

Norman was born in Hayman Hill, October 15, 1933 in the home he lived in until the time of his death. He was employed over the years with Georgia pacific and the Flakeboard Co. Ltd. from which he retired in 1995 due to ill health.

Norman always enjoyed the woods and was in great demand for his firewood and fir tips until illness forced him to retire from these activities in the fall of 1999.

Norman believed in hard work and enjoyed life. He was a very kind person, always willing to help anyone who needed it. A doting and proud father and grandfather, his "girls" and later his grandchidlren have many fond memories of holidays, especially Christmas, raking blueberries, walking the do, and of sharing rides in his truck over wood roads. A devoted husband, he was seen often taking Charlotte to Church or shopping. As noted in the eulogy offered by son in law Rev. Duane Copeland, "Norman got more miles out of those old trucks than anyone else ever could."

The widely attended funeral was held March 23 at Mehan's Funeral Home. Norman's daughters, Angela and Norma greeted mourners prior to the service. The service was conducted by Rev. James Higgins, Gateway Cathedral assisted by Norman's son in law, Rev. Duane Copeland, Springfield Pentecostal Church.

Favorite hymns How Great Thou Art, sung by Rev. Carlos Conception and The Anchor Holds by Rev. Duane Copeland

Pallbearers were nephews, Peter Smith, Robbie Smith, Marc Lister, Darren Jackson, brother in law Donald McDougall and Charles Smith.

Many floral tributes and donations to various charities were given in Norman's honor.

Cremation followed with interment of ashes at the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery, May 10, 2000.

Following the funeral, a reception was held at the family home on Hayman Hill, providing mourners with an opportunity to share memories of Norman.

Norman will be greatly missed by family and friends.

Norman will always be remembered with love.

Notes for Elinor 'Elley' May Jones:
Elinor (Elley) May Getchell
May 10, 1942 - April 13, 2018

GETCHELL It is with great sorrow that the family of Elinor (Elley) May Getchell announces her peaceful passing at Charlotte County Hospital on April 13, 2018.

Elley was born in Southern Ontario, the daughter of Lloyd and Hilda Jones. She met her husband Wayne and moved to St. Stephen to begin their young lives together in what would become her forever home. To many, Elley will be remembered as the kind-hearted owner of Elleys Antiques on King Street, her business and passion for almost 20 years. Elley was active in the community, starting or contributing to several groups in support of Fibromyalgia and Arthritis sufferers.

Elley enjoyed a great many pursuits during her life, including toll painting, clogging, alpine skiing, riding the open road on her motorcycle with her husband, bike rallies, and listening to Wayne as he played his guitar whether he was with a band, or when they were along together. She truly was, and will always be, his greatest fan. Elley is survived by her loving husband of almost 38 years, Wayne Hazen Getchell, step children, David (Melanie) Getchell, Debbie Getchell (John Plouffe), sister Debbie (Bruce) Symington (all of Ontario), beloved grandchildren, Michelle (Joey) Anderson of Tower Hill, NB, Cassandra-Lynn Brannan of Thunder Bay, Ontario, Zack (Bekah) Getchell, Julia and Amanda Getchell, Jesse Getchell-Plouffe, all of Ontario, cherished great-grandchildren, Tanner Anderson of Tower Hill, Brady and Calista Brannan of Thunder Bay, and Cameron Getchell of Ontario and numerous nieces and nephews. Elley was pre-deceased by her brothers, Donald and George Jones and her daughter, Alley Neumann (Rick), and is with her now and forever.

The family would like to send special thanks to the Extra Mural Nurses, Home Support, and the staff of CCH Emergency Department, CCU and palliative care unit for all of their support with Elley.

Always kiss me goodnight

At Elleys request, there will be no funeral service or visitation

Marriage Notes for Rosemarie Hanson and Stephen Mulholland:

Marriage - Hanson - Mulholland

The United Church Milltown was the scene of a pretty wedding of wide interest, July 4, when Rose Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Windsor Hanson, became the bride of Stephen H. Mulholland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mulholland of Princeton, Maine. Rev. D.C. MacKenzie officiated at the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and peonies and the guest pews were marked with nosegays of pansies tied with white satin ribbon. John Peterson, organist rendered traditional wedding music and the guest soloist was Darrell MacPherson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin with lace panel inserts and full train, which also had panels of lace. The tight bodice had a yoke of seed pearls and rhinestones, round neckline of Chantilly lace and long sleeves which extended to points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses with garlands of baby breath. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Wilfred McFarlane who wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta with net overskirt and matching shoulder veil and lace mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Little Barbara Ann Ross was flower girl.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white silk dress with blue and white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore an aqua blue costume with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Arthur Mulholland, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Ronald Hanson, cousin of the bride and Lawrence Merritt of Woodland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Legion Hall, Milltown, with over 85 guests in attendance. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by tall ivory tapers in silver holders. Summer flowers also adorned the table and were used profusely throughout the room. Mrs. Albert Jackson and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson presided over the tea and coffee cups. The bride's table was served by the Misses Barbara Ann and Margaret Mulholland, sisters of the groom. The guests were served by the Misses Theresa Hanson, Ruth Rolls, Jane Boone, Kaye Thompson, Betty Cameron, Julia Mulholland and Eleanor Polter. Miss Edith Irvine had charge of the guest book. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. D.C. Mackenzie and was responded to by the groom.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a wedding trip to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and PEI. For travelling the bride donned a wine gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of white rose buds.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold tie clip set, to the maid of honor a gold compact and to the flower girl a silver locket.

The groom's gift to the bride was a double strand of pearls and billfolds to the best man and ushers.

The bride is a graduate of the Milltown Superior School and from the School of Beauty Culture.

The groom graduated from Princeton High School and from the American Technical Society of Chicago. The popularity of the couple was evidenced in the beautiful array of gifts they received. Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland will reside in Princeton where the groom is employed.

Eric Smith

1957-2017

Eric Smith

It is with heavy hearts and an appreciation for a life well lived that the family of Eric Wayne Smith of Bathurst announces his death on Friday, December 1, 2017, which occurred at home in Pictou, NS at the age of 60, following a brief illness.

Born in Harvey Station, NB, Eric was the son of the late Ralph and Kathleen (Scott) Smith of McAdam, NB.

Eric held a Bachelor of Arts, Honours and Bachelor of Education from Mount Allison University and a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of New Brunswick. He also held a NB Principal's Certificate and advanced training in English as Another Language instruction, Threat Assessment, Guidance, and Autism and Non-Violent Intervention Training.

From the time he was a young boy, the only thing Eric ever wanted to be was a teacher. Over his 35-year career in education, Eric taught in New Brunswick public schools in McAdam, Belledune, Bathurst, and Dalhousie and worked as a Learning Specialist in Student Services in Anglophone School District North. Eric completed his career working in international education as a Superintendent of Off-Shore Schools and a Consultant for Off-Shore Project Development with Atlantic Education International, supporting schools in China, Bangladesh, Turkey and Brazil.

Eric performed in concerts and theatrical productions for over three decades and pursued advanced studies in voice at the Banff School of Fine Arts and the Boston Conservatory of Music. He actively contributed to the arts community in Bathurst by planning, producing and performing in thirteen annual Christmas Concerts, from which all proceeds went to charities such as the Canadian Cancer Society, the Alzheimer Society of New Brunswick, Diabetes Canada and First United Church, of which he was a member. As well, with North Shore Players, he directed and produced several Broadway musicals, which included cast members from 5 to 75 years of age. Eric was also a lifelong member of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity.

Eric was compassionate and generous in his relationships and was dedicated and meticulous in his work and artistic endeavours. He will be sadly missed by his wife of 34 years, Heather (MacLaggan) Smith, and his three children, Joshua Smith (Tiara Folkes) of Ottawa, Erika Smith (Jordan Wilson) of New Glasgow, NS and Torey Smith of Fredericton.

Eric is also survived by his siblings, Harold Smith (Shirley) of Peel, NB, Tammy Smith (Frank Lofstrom) of Upper Kingsclear, NB, Kelly Smith Lunn (Troy Lunn) and Andrea Smith of McAdam, as well as many close nieces and nephews and a large extended family in Canada and the New England states.

Visitation will be Wednesday, December 6, 2017 from 2-4pm and 7-9pm at Elhatton's Funeral Home (www.elhatton.com). Funeral service will be held at First United Church on Thursday, December 7, 2017 at 4pm followed by committal. Internment will be at the West Bathurst Cemetery. Information about a recording of Eric's funeral will be found on the First United Church website.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Eric's memory can be made to the Canadian Cancer Society, the Alzheimer Society of New Brunswick, First United Church or a charity of the donor's choice.

The family also wishes to express gratitude to the palliative doctors and staff at Aberdeen Hospital, New Glasgow, NS and the many VON nurses and family members whose care and attention allowed Eric to stay in their summer home with a view of the Northumberland Strait.

Notes for Peter John Gardner:

Four dead in Mother's Day accident

By KATHY BOCKUS

kathy@stcroixcourier.ca

ST. STEPHEN – Four St. Stephen area men, including a prominent local retired businessman, are dead and one man is recovering from his injuries after a head on collision early Sunday afternoon on Highway 1 near Kerr's Ridge.

Dead are businessman Alan Halstead, 67, former owner of Halstead Electric, who was alone in his Nissan car driving west from Saint John.

Also pronounced dead at the scene were Peter Gardner, 43 and Corey Kent, 22, who were traveling east on the highway in a 1986 Ford Bronco. Ronnie Johnson, 25, died Monday afternoon at the Saint John Regional Hospital from injuries he sustained in the accident. Matthew Stewart, 18, has been identified as the fourth man in the truck. He sustained non-life threatening injuries. The accident occurred around 1:15 p.m. on Mother's Day.

A spokesman for the RCMP said Kent was the driver of the full-sized Ford Bronco.

Stewart was a passenger in the front seat, while Gardner and Johnson were sitting in the rear seats. The officer said all four men were ejected from the vehicle during the accident.

He said it is not known at this time whether they were wearing seatbelts.

The RCMP spokesman said road conditions were not a factor in the accident.

He said the highway surface was damp and the weather was overcast at the time of the accident.

The officer confirmed that Halstead's vehicle crossed over the centre line of the highway, and struck the other vehicle.

Autopsies have been performed on Halstead, Kent and Gardner, but the causes of death have not yet been released. An autopsy is expected to be performed on Johnson.

The investigation is continuing.

The portion of the highway between the two exits into St. Andrews was closed for over five hours while RCMP investigators conducted a collision analysis and tow truck personnel cleaned the highway and removed the crushed vehicles.

Gardner's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday, with a service at 10 a.m.

A memorial service for Halstead will be held at the Kirk McColl United Church on Thursday at 3 p.m.

Kent's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday at 2 p.m.

Johnson's funeral will be held Friday at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home at 2 p.m.
