Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Branch-one is an attempt to find the descendants of William Nesbitt, Loyalist, Port Matoon Association, Jones Division. This group is Scottish.

Branch-Two is an Irish group.

He married Sarah A. Ragon, daughter of Richard Ragon and Mary ???. She was born Bet. 1801 - 1802 in Petitcodiac, NB/NS, and died 27 August 1884 in Milltown, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Daniel Fred Johnson, VSNB: Vital Statistics from N.B. Newspapers.).

Notes for Capt. John Nesbitt:

Ref:

1851 Census, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p17, age 51

Schuyler MAY NOT be a son of John. Both are from Tower Hill area of St. David Parish. POOR proof, much more work required(AEK)

John Nesbitt/Nisbett is on the 1823, 1831, and 1844 Tax List for St. David Parish. Not on the 1843 Tax List.

NOTE:: Death record at PANB shows Jellison's mother as Sarah Ragon when it should have been Sarah Hall.

Sarah Ragon was his grand-mother which is the proof that was need to show that John Nesbitt was the father of Schuyler Nesbitt.(26 July 2017)AEK

More About Capt. John Nesbitt:

Burial: Unknown, Heritage Cemetery, St. David Ridge, St. David Parish, Charlotte Co., NB

Immigration: 1817, as per 1851 census

Notes for Sarah A. Ragon:

1870 Census, Calais, Washington Co., ME, Ward 1, p38A/9 house #70, frame 9/26, taken 6 June 1870, age 68

1880 Census, Calais, Washington Co., ME, Ward 1, ED#168, p60A, frame 5/59, taken 4 June 1880, age 78, widow. In the same dwelling as a Margaret Blake/Black, age 53, b NB, widow(w/o David Black as per 1870 census)

The 1851 census for St. David Parish and the 1870 and 1880 census both show a Sarah A. ??? (Nesbitt) wife of John Nesbitt in the 1851 census and no husband in the 1870 or 1880 census. This person is the only Sarah Nesbitt that fits the birth date of 1801-1802. Poor proof but better than nothing. St. Croix Courier Vol XIX has information on the death as per info from Eric Nesbitt. Sarah is not listed in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery Tombstone Inscriptions Book but is shown in the Nesbitt lot according to information received from Eric Nesbitt of St. Stephen. Must check this out. If she is buried in the same area as the Schuyler Nesbitt family then it looks like the connection is gaining some proof.(AEK)

Sarah shows the same profile as John Ragon for place of birth NS and NB.

1870 No findings in Census, died or moved away from Calais. More Research required.

No proof has been found that Elizabeth is the daughter of William Nesbitt of St. Stephen. Her marriage document shows that she is from St. Stephen and from her year of birth it would tend to indicate she was the daughter of William.

Autosomal (Family Finder DNA) testing should be done on descendants of this family line to prove they are related.

Thirza Maria Milberry

The death of Thirza Maria wife of Fletcher Milberry of Old Ridge and the Ledge occurred at the latter place June 2, at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Milberry was born at Old ridge the daughter of Thomas Nesbitt and Maria Mitchell, and with the exception of a few years in the United States spent her entire life in Charlotte County. She was for a great many years superintendent of the United Church Sunday School at Old Ridge and a very active worker in al phases of church life. In late years she with her husband moved to the Ledge, where she continued her activities as a faithful church member. Both at Old Ridge and the Ledge she made many warm friends by whom she was highly esteemed for her many fine personal qualities.

The widespread regret occasioned by her passing was manifest in the large number who attended the funeral from her home on Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the absence of Rev. W. N. Byers the funeral was conducted by Rev. A.G. Christopher, of Calais. Interment was made in the cemetery at Old Ridge. Besides her husband she is survived by one nephew living in the United States.

Obituary - Mr. Alward T. Scott - 1970

Alward T. Scott, 74 years of age, well known retired florist died unexpectedly shortly after he arrived at the Charlotte County Hospital Sunday morning, April 12, 1970.

He was born at Tower Hill, N.B. on July 21, 1895, the son of Samuel and Agnes (Harned) Scott. Early in life he was a telegraph operator for a number of years with the then Western Union Telegraph Co., serving in several offices in the Maritimes. In 1935 he moved to Sherbrooke, Quebec, where he joined the news staff of the Sherbrooke Daily Record newspaper.

In 1933 he moved back to St. Stephen to join the Scott Greenhouse business with his father and brother where he remained until retirement in 1966. During his 33 years with Scott Greenhouse he became very well known and respected florist and horticulturist, always ready to help or advise in this connection to the best of his knowledge.

His death occurred very suddenly after a brief illness and his passing will be felt by many over a wide area. The many and beautiful flowers and donations to societies testify if the esteem in which he was held.

He is survived by his wife Ruth (Woodard) Scott and one brother Elmer C. of St. Stephen and several cousins.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. April 14, at he chapel, S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home with the Rev. Lyman Harding conducting the services.

Pallbearers were Torrance Stevens, Herbert Weatherby, Frank MacEachern, Ernest Laming, William C. McCartney and Leo Fletcher.

Notes for John Mansfield Moody:

John Moody -

John Moody said he never fired a shot during the Second World War.

"I was a mechanic," he said with a chuckle.

He remembers being shot at though.

"I hid. That's why I'm still here," he said teasing.

Joking aside, Moody who enlisted in 1942 with the Eighth Hussars and served in the army until 1945, said he'll be remembering old friends this Remembrance Day, like he has in the past.

I think about them. I remember things that happened when we were overseas, the times we got shelled a lot," said Moody who turned 90 years old on September 17 this year.

He sat on his couch in front of a crackling fire in the fireplace in the livingroom of his home on the Ledge Road and remembered.

"This is the tam I wore all through Italy," he said, popping up from the couch and gabbing a dark tam with a gleaming Eighth Hussars badge.

"It's getting a little worn," he said running his finger slowly around the binding on the edge.

Moody said he tried to remember the good times from the period in his life overseas.

Moody was born in 1914.

"I started the First World War," he joked.

Born in the very House where he now lives, in the room he now claims as his bedroom, John Moody was the son of Berton and Blanche Moody. His dad was a sea captain whose homeport was Portland, Maine. His mother was a schoolteacher who raised two other children besides John.

His elder brother Charles is dead and buried near Boston.

His sister, Virginia Faloon, still lives in Quebec, where she moved with her husband, Ken, now deceased about 40 years ago, when the Cotton Mill in St. Stephen closed. Virginia is 93 years old.

"I talk to her quite often," said Moody.

"I want her to come home and live here. There's plenty of room. But she's a serious bridge nut; loves to play bridge where she is," he added with a laugh.

You can tell family is important to Moody. He has family photos on just about every available surface in his living room. He has a large metal plate engraving of himself and his wife, the former Jean Frye, who died several years ago.

They were married for 53 years. "she must have been a saint," exclaims Moody with a laugh.

The couple had three children. Two daughters, Dianne and Barbara are both dead now but their son, John Frederick or Ted as he is called lives in Barter Settlement.

Moody worked as a mechanic at the local Government Garage for 24 years and a half years following his return from overseas.

He liked being a mechanic, even in the army. He said he was responsible for keeping the vehicles moving. When you ask him what rank he held in the army, he replies, "super duper trooper," and laughs heartily.

"They wanted to give me a stripe, but I said no," he said, explaining that mechanics made 75 cents more per day than sergeants who only received 60 cents more a day.

Moody began his overseas tour with six months and two weeks of training in an English town called Chatham.

"They taught every trade in England there," he said.

Moody was then sent to Algiers in North Africa, then to Italy. He went into Naples.

"They had gondolas there," he said.

After his division was pulled out of Italy, Moody was sent to France, Belgium "a corner of Germany" and ended up in Holland.

While in Italy Moody who said he could "jibber jabber" in Italian, often helped the locals in the village in which they stayed with their community oven.

I'd help them build the fire and one woman would give me a loaf of bread, he recalled.

Moody remembers almost ending up behind enemy lines.

He said he and the other mechanics had a truck they called "the fitters truck."

"I had a bunk and made a stove to keep warm out of a five gallon can," said Moody.

He remembers the men getting into the back of the truck and the driver heading out.

The fella driving the truck game up to a sign that said front line 100 yards. He drove right by our tanks firing, said Moody.

I said stop this thing, but he said that's an old sign. I told him that sign was new to me. Moody said laughing.

It was no laughing matter, however, when the men piled out and discovered they were indeed only a short distance from enemy territory. They jumped into a ditch for cover when small arms fire opened up around them.

Moody said the truck driver was yelling at then to help him turn the truck around.

We just told him you got us in here, you can back it around yourself. Said Moody, with another laugh. They did manage to get back on the truck and to safety away from the enemy line.

Moody was in England in VJ Day as he calls it. He remembers being told at 4 p.m. on a particular day that he would be shipping out for England at 6 p.m. on the same day.

Moody was in England for two weeks after the end of the war and then came home to St. Stephen.

Moody said he will place a wreath this year at the Cenotaph in memory of the Eight Hussars who died in the War.

I don't parade anymore, he said. I just hide behind the monument until its time to lay the wreath, he added with a mischievous chuckle.

He said he enjoyed the recent turkey supper offered by the St. Stephen Legion and enjoys visiting with his Legion friends.

This Remembrance Day he said he would think about other friends.

I'll think about them, he said solemn for once as he stared into the flames of his living room fire.

I kind of miss the people, but thank goodness we didn't lose too many."

Marriage Notes for Allan Whirty and Annie Hatt:

Happily married - For 70 years

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Whirty celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary on August 13, 2004 at the Calais Motor Inn.

Annie Whirty received many gifts and said that the entire celebration was very organized thanks to their family and especially one of their daughters, Yvonne McInning, of Calais.

The Whirty's were presented with two plaques at their anniversary party. One, from the City of Calais, was presented by Mayor Judy Alexander and one from the Town of St. Stephen, which was presented by St. Stephen Deputy Mayor Robert Tinker.

Tinker said that it was an honour to be there and that it's not very often that you get to go to a 70th wedding anniversary. They also received a plaque in the mail from St. Croix-Belleisle MP, Greg Thompson. Mrs. Whirty said that Rev. Gordon Cooke of Back Bay was also at their anniversary celebration and that he said a wonderful prayer for them.

She said, "as he went on it was just beautiful."

Mrs. Whirty also added excitedly, "We never had a party like that before."

The Whirty's said that even their neighbor Dorothy Feeney wrote a poem telling what kind of neighbors they are.

When asked what their secret was they both agreed that it was simply "living right."

When asked what "living right" meant, Mrs. Whirty said, "not running around on your husband and I don't allow any alcohol or smoke in this house."

The Whirty's met in DeWolfe Corner and were married a couple of years later in 1934 in the Baptist Parsonage in St. Stephen. They have three daughters, Beatrice Jones of Alberta, Marylou MacDonald of Moncton and Yvonne McIningh of Calais.

Mr. Whirty will be turning 90 in December and still splits and piles the wood. He also has a garden he works in.

Mrs. Whirty will be turning 90 in March and she still does all her own work and chores and her own washing. She also knits and cooks. Both Mr. and Mrs. Whirty agreed that continuing to work is how they get their exercise.

Mrs. Whirty worked for 52 years and said that she did various jobs, including working at the candy factory, doing laundry and cleaning people's houses.

Mr. Whirty said that he used to make $25 a month, "just enough to keep us from starving."

He used to look after cattle and a garden and he also worked with pulpwood.

Mr. Whirty was raised in DeWolfe Corner in a family of five. Mrs. Whirty was raised in L'Etang in a family of 21, one parent and 20 children. Mrs. Whirty's father who raised all 20 children was Samuel Hatt.

Mrs. Whirty explained that her parents and Mr. Whirty's parents were always helping people and that is the way they live, trying to help everyone.

Mrs. Whirty also suggested that perhaps that is why they have lasted so long.

Notes for Jerome 'Jerry' Manuel:

Jerome "Jerry" Manuel

March 12, 1940 - August 29, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Jerome "Jerry" Manuel announces his passing on Wednesday, August 29, 2018 at the Saint John Regional Hospital at the age of 78 years. Jerry will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 54 years Joan (Francis), his children, Beth Blanchard (Marc) and Ron (Lisa), his precious grandchildren: Meghan, Connor, Sophie and Kate, and his brother and best friend Al (Janet).

Jerry truly loved his profession as a biology teacher at SSHS for over 30 years. Sitting on his front porch in his "B" cap listening to the Red Sox was where Jerry could be found on nice evenings, always with a wave or a chat to passersby. Most of all, Jerry loved his family, especially his grandchildren who were the light of his life and he will live in their hearts forever.

In keeping with Jerry's wishes, there will be no funeral service. Family, friends, former students and others whose lives Jerry touched are invited to The S.O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Sunday September 2, 2018 from 1-5 pm to drop in and share stories and memories.

For those who wish, remembrances to the IWK or a charity of one's choice would be appreciated. In recognition of the altruistic manner by which Jerry lived his life, the family requests performances of random acts of kindness for those in need.

Edith M. Chamberlain

Edith M. Chamberlain

CHAMBERLAIN, Edith Mary (nee Barter)... 97, passed away on Sunday, July 30, 2017, at her home on Garden Court at Parkstone Enhanced Care, Halifax, Nova Scotia. Born in St. Stephen, New Brunswick on May 1, 1920, she was the youngest daughter of Susie Amelia (Elkington) Barter and John Franklin Barter. Edith was pre-deceased by her parents; her siblings, Basil (Agnes), Max (Marion), Elsie (Robert Webber), Rita (Bert Hilton), Phyllis (Wilfred Darrell "Duke" Cumberland), Kenneth (Margaret); and her husband, George William "Chum" Chamberlain.

As a young woman, during WWII, Edith worked at Crawford's Drug Store in St. Stephen handling the register, restocking shelves, ordering supplies, and her personal favorite: "RUNNING the SODA BAR."

Edith and Chum met during a softball game when Chum was playing for Saint John, and they were married in August of 1940 in St. Stephen. During WWII, Edith and her daughter Mary resided at the Barter home in St. Stephen until Chum, who fought for the Canadian Special Forces Anti-tank Battery, the Special Forces Unit under British Command and the British 8th Army as a paratrooper, returned to Canada at the end of the war. After the war, Edith and Chum moved to Saint John. Edith worked in retail at Scovil Brothers before launching her career at Baxter Dairies, where she began by collecting money from the drivers and quickly rose through the ranks to become the first Personnel Officer for the company. Edith spent time in Nova Scotia in 1974, responsible for hiring all of the staff for the new Baxter Dairies branch in Dartmouth. As a life-long learner, while working full-time for Baxter's, she received her Certificate in Business Management while also taking computer courses. Edith was truly ahead of her time as a "career woman." Her dedication and commitment to her career was a great inspiration for her family, especially for her grandchildren.

Family was very important to Edith, and most Saturdays after work she headed to St. Stephen to visit her mother and extended family.

Upon retirement in 1985, Edith moved to Halifax to be near her two daughters and their families.

Edith loved to dance; write "ditties" and rhymes about family and friends for special occasions. One of her favourite sayings was, "Too soon we get old, too late we get wise," (penned originally by Benjamin Franklin). Edith liked to travel near and far; listen to music; and go shopping - especially on Friday nights with Roberta. Edith also participated in Bridge games, as well as bowling, curling and softball games. She also loved watching sports of any kind and could often be found rooting for the underdog in any sport from cricket to football to baseball.

Edith was very involved in the community and was an active church member. She enjoyed participating in the Business Women of Saint John organization; the Young at Heart group in Halifax; and Bridge groups in both Halifax and Saint John.

Edith is survived by her daughters Mary Helene (John A.) Morash of Halifax, and Gillian Sue (Don) Maling of Halifax, as well as her grandchildren Carolyn Sue (James) Phillips; John James George (Beverly) Morash; Gillian Anne (Mark) Lamey; Adrienne Alicia (Travis) Pringle; Krista Joanne (Patrick) Gleason; and great grandchildren, Jeremy and Peter Phillips, Bailey and Alec Pringle and Liam Lamey. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

The family wishes to express sincere gratitude and thanks to the doctors, nurses and staff of Parkstone Enhanced Care for the wonderful care that Edith received during her five years living on Garden Court ... you were her extended family and she loved you all very much.

A Memorial Service will be held on September 30, 2017 at 1:00 PM at Humphreys' Funeral Home located at 20 Marks Street, St. Stephen, NB (506-466-3110) followed by a Committal Service at St. Stephen Rural Cemetery located on Hayman Avenue, St. Stephen, NB. Reception to follow at Humphreys' Funeral Home.

Arrangements entrusted to JA Snow Funeral Home in Halifax, NS and Humphreys' Funeral Home in St.

Marriage Notes for Hilda Vail and Robert Nichols:

MARRIAGE - Nicholas - Vail

A very pretty wedding took place in Brockway at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brockway, Wednesday, October 1, 1941, at 3:30, when Hilda Mae Vail, daughter of Mrs. Brockway, and the late Carleton Vail, became the bride of Pte. Robert McLeod Nichols of the R.C.A.S.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, Brockway. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of cedar and autumn leaves on the broad verandah, which was effectively decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers and small flags. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W.E. Armstrong.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Ernest Vail, looked charming in a floor length dress of white brocaded satin made on princess lines, with long fitted sleeves, and sweetheart neck. A floor length veil of net falling from a coronet of white flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli, tied with long streamers of white satin. She wore a gold bracelet with cameo clasp, the gift of the groom.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Percy M. Clark, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of Dulce blue taffeta made with a fitted bodice and full skirt, and wore a small hat of matching material and white gloves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli, tied with long streamers of pink satin.

David Brockway, half brother of the bride, was groomsman.

The Wedding March from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Harold Langley, who also played suitable music during the signing of the register, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and their attendants returned to the verandah, where they received congratulations of the guests. Mrs. Brockway, mother of the bride, wore a gown of skyline blue with gold trimmings, Mrs. Nichols the groom's mother, wore a gown of dusty rose printed crepe.

A wedding supper was served in the dining room which was effectively decorated with pink and white streamers hung from a white wedding bell in the centre of the ceiling, and pink, blue, and white flowers. The table had silver candlesticks with ivory candles, and was centred with a three tier bride's cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Byrd Boone invited the guests in the dining room and the Misses Barbara Vail, Joyce Langley, and Myra McLeod served. Others assisting were Mrs. T.N. Vail, Mrs. H.V. Symonds, Mrs. A.W. Vail, and Miss Susie Vail.

Many gifts were received by the young couple. The bride's gift to the matron of honour was a silver necklace. The groomsman received a billfold.

Later in the evening other friends gathered to offer their congratulations and later all went to the hall where dancing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols afterwards motored to a camp on the Maguadavic River to spend some time before leaving for Gaspé, Que., where the groom is now stationed. For travelling the bride wore an ensemble of navy blue pinstripe wool, with lighter blue hat and accessories.

The out of town guest were Stillman Smith, grandfather of the bride, of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Symonds of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Smith of Milltown, Maine, Mrs. Fulton Sinclair of Baring, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Brown and daughter, Nancy of Moores Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McLeod of Dewolfe Corner, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawthorn, Calais, Me., Miss Verna Marshall, Moores Mills, Billy Purdy of Dufferin, Miss Margaret Brockway, Miss Barbara Vail of St. Stephen, and Mrs. Carl Byers of McAdam.

Volunteer, councillor was hero to her daughter
Telegraph-Journal
Published Thursday November 22nd, 2007

ST. GEORGE - In the days since the death of former town councillor Connie White on Nov. 9, daughter and caregiver Davina Cooke has had plenty of time to reflect on the life of the compassionate volunteer, church organist and family woman who always found the good in everyone.

In fact, at times, the words of the "loving, caring and amazing woman" she calls her "hero" still echo in Cooke's ears.

"One time when I was just young and did something foolish," Cook recalled Wednesday, "my mother said, 'Always live your life in such a way that, if someone writes your obituary, that those words aren't false. That they can actually say good words about you and mean it.'

"And I believe that's the way she lived her life."

People are certainly having good things to say about White, who waged a courageous five-year-battle with cancer before dying peacefully at Cooke's home in Utopia, with family at her side. She was 64.

White was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Former St. George mayor Vance Craig, who served with White during her years (1987-95) on town council, and local funeral director Fred Brennan, with whom she worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the St. George Funeral Home from 1997 until she was diagnosed with cancer, both remember her as a caring and co-operative person who was good listener.

"She was a people person who had a great concern for her community," said Craig.

Friend and eulogist Melba Anderson of Oak Bay said White found her "niche in life" at the funeral home.

"She excelled (there)," she said. "She touched the lives of many people with her kindness, compassion and helpful ways . . . Connie's ways expressed, 'We care.' "

Born Constance Marie Eastman in St. Stephen on Sept. 7, 1943, she was a daughter of the late Mary Jane (Seeley) and A. Earle Eastman, the border town's longtime fire chief.

Besides Cooke, her survivors include a second daughter, Katrina Lovett of Porter's Lake, N.S., and son Larry McLaughlin of Lawrence Station; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren..

White was a 1961 graduate of St. Stephen High School and a 1972 graduate of the New Brunswick Community College, St. Andrews. She worked for Scotiabank in St. Stephen, St. George and St. Andrews, became a licensed insurance agent and set up her own bookkeeping/income tax preparation business.

She was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 40 in St. George and former president of its Ladies Auxiliary, delivered Meals on Wheels and played the organ at St. Mark's Anglican Church in St. George and the Baptist Church in Baring, Me. She was also a lifelong lover of animals.

But Cooke says it was the "joy of family" that was paramount to her mother.

"In her final days, her words were that she was prepared to go, but she didn't want to leave her family."

McLay enjoyed time at Manor

Published Monday January 19th, 2009 Telegraph-Journal

ST. STEPHEN - Florence Elaine McLay was a popular person in the city's uptown, says the director of the residence where she lived.

"She was a well-liked person (and) had many friends," said Mike Monaghan, director of the Cozy Manor Special Care Home, where McLay lived for the past 14 years.

She was "known by everyone in the uptown area," he said, adding that she enjoyed living at the manor.

McLay was a St. Stephen native, the daughter of the late Lloyd and Gertrude (Gillis) McLay. She died Dec. 26 at the Saint John Regional Hospital at the age of 60.

She worked several years at a government-sponsored workshop at Centracare, and belonged to the Open Door Club walk-in centre in Saint John. She enjoyed walking Drew, a cocker spaniel mix who makes his home at Cozy Manor. McLay would "regularly every morning walk the dog," Monaghan said.

She coped with mental health challenges for most of her life, said her older brother, Norman McLay of Moores Mills.

There were five McLay children. The death of Florence leaves only Norman and his sister Patsy in B.C.

Florence's son, John, grew up in St. Stephen.
