Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

More About Sarah Hanson:

Baptism: 12 July 1810, Age 1 yr. (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.)

Notes for James N. Waldron:

The James N Waldron who married Sarah Hanson appears to have married first, Sarah, d/o Stephen Hanson and Sarah Libby. This Sarah was baptized in 1810 at the age of 1 yr. born 1808-1809. The second Sarah Hanson who married James Waldron on 17 Mar. 1829, eloped, lived in Maine. This Sarah was the d/o Daniel Hanson and Mary Haley. Ages of children in 1840 census are consistent with the marriage year of 1829.

Parker Families

The following census information may not be for the correct James N. Waldron but the birth location of the wife fits that of Sarah Hanson. However, her age does not fit with the one born 1814 as she is 39 yrs old in 1850. Will track this family to see if the age changes.

Ref:

1840 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p51, frame 17/17, 1 male 20- <30, Next house is an Abraham Waldron, age 60-70, look like it might be the father of James.

1850 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p209/105A, frame 9/40, taken 21 Aug. 1850, age 45

1860 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p24-25, frame 24-25/960, taken 11 June 1860, age 56

1870 Census, Buckfield, Oxford Co., ME, p22/81B, frame 22/39, taken 22 June 1870, age 63. This looks strange as it might be a different James Waldron. Middle name does not look like a "N" in al previous census.

 - 69 vii. Alice Libby, born 22 November 1815 in St. Stephen, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.); died Unknown.

Notes for Alice Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

Buried in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery. Tombstone unreadable for dates(see page 215. Died age 69. This must be a grave that was moved from an original location to the Rural Cemetery and the Internment records must be searched to find his date of death.

From an analysis of entries in "Early New Brunswick Probate Records 1785-1835", the name of William Andrews of St. Stephen Parish appears 12 times in the time range of 1807-1829 but not as a Probate record which indicates that his estate was missed or he died after 1835.

The following email segment was received from Shirley Cloar, 11 May 2009:

William Turner bought 400 acres between the 5th and 6th concession, now hwy #7, the 5th is now Whitevale Road. The land was considered in the 5th concession because it was on the north side of the road. I have a 1877 map of Pickering Twp., up on the NE corner is where Isaac Turner & Ann Vardon are living on 25 acres. There is a C. Lott on another 25 acres beside Isaac, I don't know who Lott is. The land near Whitevale hasn't changed much in the last 30 years or so, the Ontario government bought up thousands of acres for a new Toronto airport, the people fought it and won, some of the houses are rented or torn down (ours) and a lot of the land sits empty. But Whitevale was accepted as a historical hamlet so no matter what they do with the land it will not change.

PICKERING NEWS

December 13, 1889

Mr. Turner whose death was mentioned last week, was born in the year 1800 in New Brunswick near the city of St. Johns, in about 1840 with his wife and family the oldest boy being about 12 years, he moved to Pickering. He bought the two hundred acres on which he lived until he died. This he cleared by hard work and thrift, became wealthy, and divided his property equally among his ten children, all of whom are well to do and much respected members of society. Seven of these five sons and two daughters are all in Ontario while three are in Dakota. Mr. Turner was intellectual and well read and in his prime at times ably occupied the pulpit, where his good advise was profitable to all, and among the very foremost of temperance advocates in our township. He was a very intimate friend of our aged and much respected citizen Mr. Hector Beaton, who is now the oldest representative in our midst of those long ago days. In reviewing the past we find that as boys of eight to fourteen they listened to the recent triumphs of Napoleon Bonaparte, of Wellington and Waterloo, of the horrors of the war of 1812, of the battles of Lundy's Lane; as men in their prime at nearly forty they participated in the joys of Queen Victoria's coronation day, and the anxieties of the Papineau and Mckenzie Rebellion of '37 and as men ready to retire in life, read the accounts of the Storming of Sabastopol, and the lamentations of the United States slave war. Mr. Turner's remains were followed to their last resting place in the Methodist cemetery by a large concourse of friends and relatives, who all extend their sincerest sympathy to the bereaved wife and mother who has been his helpmate so many years. The pall bearers consisted of his five sons and a grandson. After the funeral the people drove to the Baptist chapel where a impressive service was conducted by Rev. Messrs. Trotter and Real.

You mght want this too from Past Years in Pickering. One of 2 Pickering history books. Only some of the children are mentioned, none from ND

TURNER. — William Turner was of U. E. L. stock and was born in 1801 in the parish of St. Patrick, New Brunswick. In 1828 he married Abigail Hanson and in 1841 they came to Upper Canada. In 1842 the family settled permanently on Lot 29, Con. 5. Mr. Turner had been licensed as a Baptist preacher in 1834, and when he came to Pickering conducted services for a time in his own house, then for a time in the school on the fifth concession and afterward for the Bible Christians until the organization of the Baptist Church in Whitevale. His family were: William Burpy, John Hanson and David Sylvester.

William's family are: John, (Markham), Abigail (Mrs. Richardson), William J. (Lot 31, Con. 7), Isabella (Mrs. J. Holden), Ezra, Sarah (Mrs. J. Michell), Albert E., Mary (Mrs. Coyne), Anthony Orvis, Helen and David Francis. John's family are: Naomi (Mrs. Albert White), Ada, Garfield and Florence. David's family are: Howard (married Minnie Beaton) and Alice.

He was born 10 January 1802 in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB (Source: Kirk McColl Church Records, Roll #27.), and died 21 May 1886 (Source: TI: Tombstone Inscriptions.).

Notes for Mary A. Hanson:

NOTE!! It appears that the Tombstone date of birth is in error by one year or this Mary Hanson is not the correct one that married Stephen Libby. However, the location of these people all fit with this being the correct family as Elizabeth Ann Hanson that married Jones Dyer Jackson lived just a short distance away from the Libby family in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB.

The other reason for the discrepancy in dates might possibly be from an error in the Kirk McColl Church records that show Mary as age 2 and Sarah as age 1 in 1810 when it should have been shown as Sarah age 2 and Mary age 1. This would be more consistent with the fact that Sarah was married in 1824.

The 1871 census shows an Emma Nash, age 15(b 1855-1856 USA), living with the Jones Jackson Family.

There is also a Nash at the Archibald Johnston residence on page 74. The name looks similiar to Emma, more like Erminia, age 16(b 1854-1855 USA). Both Nash girls are listed as of English origin and of the W.

Methodist Relgion.

68. Ellis¹⁰ Libby (Jacob⁹, Unity⁸ Parker, Jonathan⁷, John⁶, Samuel⁵, James⁴, ?-01³, Branch-One², (00Root-Parker)¹) was born 1815 in St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., New Brunswick, and died 1884. He married Abigail Kendall Tuttle 15 April 1842 in Calais, Washington Co., ME (Source: VRCM: Vital Records of Calais, ME, p6, 94.). She was born 1811 in of Calais, Washington Co., ME, and died 1904.

Notes for Ellis Libby:

It appears that the Kirk McColl Church Records have a major error in the sex of the child baptized. They should have stated son of Jacob Libby rather than daughter of Jacob Libby. Both names are being included in the children of Jacob Libby. Ellis Libby b 1815 is being added as a son of Jacob based on the 1851 census where he is living beside William Libby a known son of Jacob. Other researchers only show Ellis Libby as the son of Jacob and not Alice.

According to the "John Lovell's 1871 Directory" both Ellis and William were farmers who lived at Mohannas, St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB. The 1865-66 and 1867-68 versions of the Hutchinson Directory show Charles, Ellis, and William as farmers at Mohannas.

Notes for Caroline Young:

Conflicting evidence: The birth date for Caroline and George R. Young clearly shows that there is an error in one of the dates. Since the date of death for Caroline is known and she died at age 3 months then her date of birth is assumed as correct. The date of birth for George R. Young is from his death document and appears to be incorrectly given as 1837 when it should have been 1836 as George was 14 in 1851 and 24 in 1861 which gives his year of birth as 1836-1837. Notes for George Young show the following ages from census:

Ref:

Mrs. Etta McCallum - Dies in 90th Year September 16, 1954

Many border residents regret the death of Mrs. Etta McCallum, formerly a resident of Calais avenue whose death occurred in St. Stephen last weekend at the home of her niece, Mrs. Marie Bartlett in her

Parker Families

90th year. Mrs. McCallum, who was a resident of Calais from 1926 to 1944 was born March 20, 1865, daughter of Angus and Margaret Pratt Turner in Digdeguash.

As a young woman she married Peter H. McCallum, who predeceased her in 1912. Mrs. McCallum's sister and husband also died at an early age, leaving two daughters, Mrs. Alden Murray, Oak Bay and Mrs. John Ross of St. Andrews, whom Mrs. McCallum cared for. In early life she joined the Digdeguash Methodist Church and while a resident of Calais was a member of Knight Memorial Methodist Church. She was a teacher in the church school at Digdeguash.

During failing health the past five months, Mrs. McCallum was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Bartlett, 16 Church Street.

Prayers for Mrs. McCallum were said at the home of Mrs. John Ross in St. Andrews last Sunday followed by services at the church, Rev. R.H. Barker officiating. The hymn, The Lord Is My Shepherd was sung by the choir of the Elmsville church during the service. Bearers were four nephews, Kenneth H. Murray, Rudolph A. Murray, Lawson Murray and Prescott Smith.

Due to inclement weather, Mr. Edgar Finlay, of Sarnia, Ontario, arrived Sunday evening too late for the service. Surviving members of the family who attended the service are Mrs. Alden Murray of Oak Bay, Mrs. John Ross, St. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Smith; Mr. and Mrs. John Murchie, Mrs. Don J. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Laurie, Wilbur McKee, Mrs. Edward MacKay and Mrs. Edward Carson. Several people from Calais, St. Stephen, The Ledge, Bocabec and surrounding communities attended the service. Many floral tributes attested to the esteem in which friends held Mrs. McCallum. Mrs. Harry Baxter of Hampton, PEI, a niece was unable to attend.

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

Sometime between 8 Dec 1864 and 10 Feb 1868 Jane Ann married Alfred Howard Hatch. St. Croix Courier for Friday Feb 14, 1868 p2, col.2 is a story about Alfred Howard Hatch's first wife, Sarah Ann charging him with bigamy. Problem was Judge Rose found out that Sarah Ann was still married to HER first husband when she married Hatch. He advised her to deal with it in Maine; my research shows that she did not pursue this in Machias.

Howard and Jane Ann had a son, Stephen Richardson Dec 8, 1868 in Union Mills (St. Stephen) according to Project Preservation roll #27 Kirk McColl

They also had a son, Jas. Hd. when they were living in Union Mills b. 11th Mar 1871 bap. 14 Apr 1871 by Richard Smith according to Project Preservation roll #15 Records of Baptisms by the Wesleyan Minister in the Milltown Circuit.

They also had Mary Ann – known as Annie 18 December 1875

My great grandfather Ellis LeRoy 16 June 1877

and Laura Gertrude 11 February 1881

I have yet to find any written proof of these births in Union Mills/Milltown. However, the family consistently says they immigrated in 1886-which is surprising because any document associate with this family is rife with inaccuracies.

Before they immigrated, Maria Jane Douglass, Milltown, St. Stephen files intentions on July 7th and 12th to marry T. Franklin Butler. I find no marriage record. I did find a record for City of Calais Mayor's Address and Annual report 1891-1892 p.24 Frank Butler Insane Hospital $181.71 – don't know if this is the same man. 12 April 1880 Maria Jane does marry Alexander H. McDougall and it is announced in the Daily News, Weekly Telegraph, D.T., St. Croix Courier and the Sun. Five newspapers! Makes me think that the first marriage didn't take place or that there was some anxiety because she was four months pregnant. Their first child John Gilbert MacDougall says he was born in Massachusetts (Oct 1880) – their only child born there. Alexander was from Prince Edward Island, so they weren't visiting his folks.

1881 census for Milltown L p. 50 line 1 Howard Hatch and Jane A. have Maria 21, living with them, as well as John Douglass, 19; Stephen Hatch, 11; Mary A, 7; Ellis, 2 ½; Howard, 10; Laura, 2/12. As you can see – Maria is not Maria MacDougall, Alexander is not there, and their son, John Gilbert MacDougall is not listed. I did take these notes 15 years ago and would want to go back and look at this entry again.

27 November 1882 John Gilbert Douglass married Annie E. Hanson by Rev James S. Day, Methodist, in Calais. Augusta Maine microfilm for Calais Marriage/Marriage Intentions 1881-1891. There was an announcement in the D.T. 10 Oct 1883- 7 Feb 1884 Annie Douglass and her baby died in childbirth. I have not been able to find this and pin down a date yet. (So much work, so little time)

8 Oct 1884 John Gilbert Douglass married Nellie McLain (aka Ellen McLean) by Rev. J.F. Haley, Methodist, Calais. Announcement 24 Oct 1884 in D.T.

3 Oct 1892 Annie Hatch married Nathaniel McWakefield Jr. by S.R. Byram, Justice of Peace, Eastport NOTE: this is the only place his last name is McWakefield. Usually his name is Nathaniel M. Wakefield, Jr. Maine Archives

30 June 1897 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Sophia S(affrona) Beaney (Beney) by S.A. Bender/Bendex clergyman, Calais Maine Archives

17 February 1900 Laura Gertrude Hatch married Henry Oscar Tompkins. I am not finding my notes for this, but they are on the 1900 Calais City census Enumeration district 197 p6A family 126

1 Aug 1903 James Howard Hatch married Ada Tompkins by Willard Luce, clergyman, Milltown, Calais. Ada is sister to Henry Oscar Tompkins – see above marriage and St. Croix Courier 6 Aug 1903 p.1 Also some time around 1903 James Howard Hatch had (can't recall what off the top of my head, but it involved a fever) and went blind.

All is not wedded bliss in the family – Superior Judicial Court Vol. 36 p. 314 Annie Wakefield vs. Nathaniel Wakefield. She got a divorce 15 Oct 1906

And remarried 2 Jan 1907 to Clarence Bert Lermond (also divorced – 2nd marriage) by Rev John Tinling, Milltown (ME) Methodist as announced 9 Jan 1907 Calais Advertiser.

20 June 1907 Ellis LeRoy Hatch's wife Sophia died of heart disease at Reed Plantation

15 April 1908 Clarence Bert Lermond, Annie's husband, died of acute indigestion in Calais

Between 23 April 1910 (1910 census) and 28 May 1911 Ellis LeRoy Hatch married Lillian Irene Scott

She was possibly previously married to George Thurston – father to her daughter Thelma. I find no evidence of either marriage.

Somehow in my page flipping I missed the marriage of Annie Hatch Wakefield Lermond to Oscar R Wilson 28 November 1911. I believe this record is Maine Archives, but not sure.

1 Jan 1914 Ellis LeRoy Hatch was found not guilty of assaulting her brother/his brother-in-law Henry O Tompkins – Twice! Criminal Docket – City of Calais (Municipal Court) vol. 10 #4980 & #4981

28 Dec 1914 James Howard Hatch married his first cousin, once removed Annie Elizabeth Libby by MW Corliss? In Calais Maine Archives

Estella is NOT James Howard's first wife – she is his only (known) child – by Annie. Estella May was born in 1916 in Baileyville. Baileyville Record book. I have her birthdate but no verification that she is dead. She was married twice – my nana kept in touch with her. A month after Stella's birth, Jane Ann Libby Douglass Hatch's estate was finally settled.

James Howard Hatch's wife, Annie, died 18 Nov 1918 of influenza (part of the epidemic of 1918) Maine Archives; Scholl Funeral Home Record, Calais Free Library

1920 census Annie Hatch Wilson and her husband have Earl R. son age 3 9/12. He was adopted. Believe he was born Earl R. Mingo, but not verified. Do not know if they legally adopted him or they did the old fashioned took him in and brought him up adoption.

11 June 1923 Annie Hatch Wilson got legal guardianship of niece Stella Hatch Probate Court Washington County, Maine Archives. States that James Howard Hatch is totally blind. There is property involved.

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 27 May 2012:

To go off on a tangent – my documents are in order by the calendar - James Douglass – Jane Ann's 1st husband died 7 Dec 1864 of diphtheria. Death notices in Religious Intelligencer (16 Dec) and New Brunswick Courier (17 Dec) both available at St. Croix Library. He is interred in St. Stephen Rural Cemetery per their burial records entry 366. However his grave is unmarked and the last person who knew where he was buried, has died. His name is on a marker in Calais Cemetery, but there is no record on his interment.

When James Douglass died, Jane Ann was pregnant. St. Croix Courier 2 June 1870 this child, James C. also died of diphtheria. He was 5 years, 3 mos. Therefore born about February 1865. Because he died within one year of the 1871 census, he is listed on the mortality schedule – as James Clarke Hatch. It says he died of croup.

Note: Death Certificate shows that Howard was born at Chamcook, NB. He had lived in Calais, ME, for 34 years and previous to that lived at Chamcook, NB (this looks a bit suspicious as the Census records show he was in St. Stephen, NB for the 1871 and 1881 census)

The following was received from Colleen Congdon, 1 Feb 2013:
Calais Advertiser Wednesday, September 22nd 1920

Died Calais, Sept 14th, Howard H. Hatch, aged [unreadable] years, 6 months, and 14 days.

Howard A. Hatch, a well-known resident of Milltown, Me., passed away Tuesday, Sept. 14th at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tompkins, where he has made his home for the last seven years. He was in his 81st year, and has been a resident of Milltown for some 34 years. He was a native of Bocabec, N.B. That Mr. Hatch had many friends in the community was attested by the many floral tributes to his memory. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, Howard H. Jr., Ellis Leroy, and Mrs. Annie Willison (sic), all of Woodland, and Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Milltown. He is also survived by a brother and three sisters.

The above are two different entries in the newspaper. Obviously his daughter Alma R. doesn't count as a surviving child. It would be hard to imagine that people didn't know that she was his daughter because her mother, Sarah Ann usually told the census taker that she was married. I didn't get the feeling that they "just let it go."

This would indicate that she was born in 1850 at a time before the census date and not 1851 as shown in other references. However, this could be caused by the age at next birthday. Other provinces of Canada use the age at next birthday for the 1851 census. In some cases, the 1851 census was actually taken in 1852 which makes it even more complicated.

Hanson Family Holds Reunion

Nearly 100 members of the Hanson Family Association, descendants of Thomas Hanson who came from England and settled in Dover about the year 1652, gathered at the home of the secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, on the Rochester Hill Road last Thursday for their 26th reunion.

During the day piano solos were contributed by Miss Estelle Hanson of Beverly, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey of South Berwick, Me., well known organist of the first Congregational Church in Dover and Clarence D. Mooney, pianist and organist of Laconia.

At one o'clock in a veritable hall of flags, a beautiful lunch was served one table being 60 feet long, decorated with flowers from the gardens of Mrs. Clarence C. Hanson. After lunch came the business meeting, when the following officers were elected; President, Herbert N. Hanson, Boston, vice-president, Bert Hanson, New York City, Mrs. Eunice L. Wiggin and C. Herbert Canney of Dover, secretary, Miss Martha N. Hanson, Rochester, treasurer, Mrs. Carrie E. Varney, Dover, historians, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam, Brooklyn, NY. trustees for three years, dr. George W. Nutter, salmon falls, Rev. Harold L.

Hanson, Claremont, Charles W. Hanson, Cliftondale, Mass., Arthur E. Muzzey, So. Berwick, Me., Mrs. C. Herbert Canney, Dover, and Dr. William T. Hanson, Bridgewater, Mass.

The principal speakers of the afternoon were the Rev. Harold L. Hanson, Mrs. Mary S. Burnham, Portland, Me., and Harry E. Stam of 624 Macon street, Brooklyn, NY., who is compiling a history of the family. Mr. Stam is seeking data for his genealogy and members were urged to send to him any information they be able to contribute. Others who spoke briefly were C.H. Canney, Dr. William T. Hanson, and Ex-President Willard Hanson and Charles Wm. Hanson. A recitation by Mrs. Charrie E. Varney who was heartily applauded, closed the exercises of the day.

Notes for Conflicting evidence from Caroline Young vs George Young:

Conflicting evidence: The birth date for Caroline and George R. Young clearly shows that there is an error in one of the dates. Since the date of death for Caroline is known and she died at age 3 months then her date of birth is assumed as correct. The date of birth for George R. Young is from his death document and appears to be incorrectly given as 1837 when it should have been 1836 as George was 14 in 1851 and 24 in 1861 which gives his year of birth as 1836-1837. Notes for George Young show the following ages from census:

Ref:

1851 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p 9 , house #122, age 14

1861 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p16, age 24

1871 Census, Campobello Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist 175L, p 40, family#146, frame 21/29, age 33, widower

1880 Census, Eastport, Washington Co., ME, ED#177, p27/232C, family#219, frame 27/41, taken 14 June 1880, age 44
1900 Census, Lubec, Washington Co., ME, ED#211, p1A/250A, family#9, frame 1/61, taken 2 June 1900, age 62(Aug 1837)

As a result of the information from the census, it would appear that George was born in 1836 and not 1837.

Notes for Thomas 'Edgar' Hanson:

The two adopted children, Thomas Edgar Hanson and Mary Elizabeth Somers were raised by Thomas and Mary (Haymen) Bonness as they did not have any children of their own. See full notes under Thomas Edgar Hanson and Mary Elizabeth Somers for proof found to date.

This child may have been adopted out and became known as Charles Edgar Bonness as the dates of birth of the two are exactly the same and Charles Edgar Bonness was adopted. Only by using Y-Chromosome DNA testing can this hypothesis be proven or disproved!!

However, the finding of Thomas 'Edgar' Hanson in the 1881 census refutes this hypothesis!!!! When one looks at this even closer, it may still be possible if Thomas Edgar Hanson lived at both homes and lived this way with the name Charles Edgar Bonnes when in the home of his adoptive parents and as Thomas Edgar Hanson when in the home of his birth parents. When he married, he took the name of Charles Edgar Bonness and that is the name he use till his death. No further information on Thomas Edgar Hanson has been found after the 1881 census which seems to make this plausible.

This connection is being made until proven otherwise

The following information points to Charles Edgar Bonnes as being adopted and being the same person as Thomas Edgar Hanson. These two persons were born on the same date. Thomas Edgar Hanson date of birth from the Kirk McCall Church Records and Charles Edgar Bonnes from his tombstone inscription. The adoption hypothesis may be correct based on info in an email from Ivane Corbett that states "Dad and Uncle Earl. Dad had always said that his father was adopted and years later Uncle Earl also told me this. According to Earl his father's grandmother came from Ireland to work as a servant in the household and than later married his grandfather who was a son in that household." This is shown at the end of the email shown below.

The question with this is: why does Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson state in the 1900 census that she has had 8 children and 3 are living? Does this include the child that she gave up for adoption that is living or does she consider him as dead!!!!

On way of proving this would be to use Y-Chromosome DNA analysis to see if the DNA profile of a living male descendant of Charles Edgar Bonness has a DNA profile that matches the Hanson line but not the Bonness line. The genetic distance should be less then two for a close match. More research required on this.(AEK-2010)

The following is an email received from Ian Chisholm, 9 June 2010:

I have several Emails that I will be forwarding to you. I think that he was adopted.

Best,

Ian

Subject: MORE on Charles Edgar Bonness

I HAD WRITTEN AND PRESENTED THE FOLLOWING AT A BONNESS REUNION AT THE ALGONQUIN HOTEL IN ST. ANDREWS, N.B.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION:

It is herewith submitted to you that ample evidence indicates that Charles Edgar Bonness, the designated patriarch of this celebrated occasion, was not originally a member of the Bonness family and we begin investigation of that premise by noting that he had been born on Wednesday, March 29, 1865, the accepted and recorded date of birth that had always been used by himself and his family.

A search of the local St. Croix Courier newspaper and governmental records of the Provincial Archives of New Brunswick report no births for Wednesday, March 29, 1865. However, birth records maintained by the Kirk McColl Church* for such date indicate that there is one for a Thomas Edgar Hanson born to John and Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson.

* Kirk McColl records cover the following Parishes or areas: St. Stephen, St. David, St. James, St. Patrick, Dufferin, St. Andrews, Calais/Washington Co., ME. and were copied from the microfilm, tape #27, of the Kirk McColl church in St. Stephen, NB.

Some six years later, the 1871 Canadian Census for the Lower Parish of St. Stephen, Charlotte County, New Brunswick, lists family # 286, lines 1-8, Division 2, page 78, dwelling # 238 as John and Mary Ann (Ham) Hanson, ages 35 and 32, and their children Gilman, age 11; Edward, age 8; and Dora, age 4. There was no listing for any Thomas Edgar, age 6 (born March 29, 1865) but also in the same crowded household, were Mary Hanson, age 70 (born in Ireland) and Parker and Sarah Hanson, married, ages 30 and 26.

But wait, the next-door neighbors do not appear to be as crowded. In family # 285, lines 18-20, Division 2, page 77, dwelling # 237 it lists Thomas Marten and Mary Ann (Hayman) Bonness, both 47 and a Edgar Bonness, age 6 (born March 29, 1865).

Coincidence ?

It has been established that Charles Edgar Bonness was reared by Thomas Marten Bonness and Mary Ann Hayman who had married on Sunday, July 2, 1848. Thereafter, they remained childless for almost 17 years - until (in 1865) when they each would be @ 42/43 years old , and were awarded -- not an "Oscar" or an "Emmy" or a "Tony" -- BUT an "Edgar" from just down the road ??

Reared ? Yes ! Awarded ? Yes ! - Birthed ? NO !

So, it is submitted that it is very possible and also highly probable that Charles Edgar Bonness and Thomas Edgar Hanson were one in the same person and that Thomas and Mary Ann Bonness adopted Thomas Edgar and renamed him Charles Edgar.

Historical evidence indicates that, as a general rule, prior to the early to mid-1900s when provincial authorities became involved in adoptions, children were placed with family, friends or neighbors without documentation by government authorities.

Additionally, prior to such period there were additional Bonness/ Hanson connections (i.e. Henrietta Hanson Bonness who had married John Mathew Bonness {Bowness} on August 11, 1861).

So, it would appear that the final result here (Believe It or Not ®) is the probability that Thomas Edgar Hanson, born Wednesday, March 29, 1865 had become Charles Edgar Bonness, born Wednesday, March 29, 1865 and had acquired a father named Thomas instead of a John having a son named Thomas. His old but younger mother named Mary Ann Ham Hanson was replaced by his new but older mother named Mary Ann Hayman Bonness and he became part of such family in the house next-door -- (by the numbers) from his old family # 286 in dwelling # 238 into his new family #285 in dwelling #237. It's a "moving" story. Go figure.

On October 19, 2006 IVANE CORBETT wrote GUYLENE HAMILTON :
Subject: Bonness adoption

"Decided I should put in writing what I learned years ago from Dad and Uncle Earl. Dad had always said that his father was adopted and years later Uncle Earl also told me this. According to Earl his father's grandmother came from Ireland to work as a servant in the household and than later married his grandfather who was a son in that household.

If it were true that Charles Edgar Bonness is actually Thomas Edgar Hanson this information would follow in that line as on Ancestry.com Thomas Hanson's grandmother did indeed come from Ireland. His parents would be John Hanson and Mary Ann Ham and grandparents would be Jacob Hanson and Mary McNamara. Thomas Hanson was born in the same church on the same day as Charles Bonness and there is no info on Thomas Hanson after that date. Please send this on to any interested cousins. thanks. Love, Ivane

Mrs. Charles Edgar Bonness

On Tuesday evening, June 30, 1931, at Chipman Memorial Hospital, surrounded by her family, Mrs. Charles Edgar Bonness of Heathland, entered into the heavenly rest.

Ivane Eloise Doten, daughter of Alvah and Louise Doten, was born at Cooper, Maine, in 1870. At the age of 16 she was united in marriage to Charles Edgar Bonness of Heathland. Eleven children were the issue of this marriage; all but one of whom survive; Ethel, the eldest of the family died twenty-three years ago.

The funeral service was held Friday, July 3, conducted by Rev. Dr. Goucher and Rev. A.S. Bishop.

Two favorite hymns "Some Day We'll Understand", and " My Saviour First Of All," were rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. Bert Faloon, Mrs. Hayman, Walter Dewolfe and Bert Hyslop.

The pallbearers were Harry Rodgers, Walter Howland, George Elkington, and Fred Elkington. Interment took place in the beautiful St. Stephen Cemetery.

Among those mourners beside the bereaved husband were the seven daughters and three sons; Mrs. Thomas McLeod, Kellyland; Mrs. Rutherford Weatherby, Grand lake Stream; Mrs. Alvin McLeod, Oak Bay; Mrs. Joseph Pierce, St. Stephen; Mrs. Paul Lee, St. Stephen; Mrs. Herbert Chisholm and Mrs. Carl Tolin, both of Sommerville, Mass.; Guy of Princeton, Maine; Earl of Grand Lake Stream; and Edgar, living at home.

Mrs. Bonness is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Herbert hall of Milltown, N.B.; Mrs. Nettie Hall of Calais, and one brother, Roscoe Doten, of Milltown, Maine. There are also twenty grandchildren to cherish the memory of a lovable grandparent. Of Mrs. Bonness it can truthfully be said: In her tongue was the law of kindness. She looked well to the ways of her household. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Obituary - Lindsay Turner

Residents of Old Ridge and surrounding districts were saddened of the death of G. Lindsay Turner, who passed away in the early hours of that morning.

Mr. Turner, one of Charlotte county's best known and most highly respected citizens, was born at Greenock, March 7, 1872, but moved to Old Ridge with his family when a young man. On September 4, 1901 he was united in marriage with Clara Mae Libby of Heathland.

Besides his widow four daughters, Mrs. J. Mitchell Lindsay, Mrs. Louise F. Allen, Mrs. Frederick Gordon and Mrs. W.G. Scott; one son, George and five grandchildren who are left to mourn the loss of loving husband and father and who was always happiest when they were all at home with him.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. E.A. Gunn, was held at his home Tuesday November 15, and was attended by numerous friends from all walks of life. A profusion of flowers and many sympathetic messages attested to the esteem in which he was held. The family were all at home with their mother.

A quartet from St. Stephen sang two selections. The pallbearers were C.W. Hanley, Cleveland Tyler, Milton Maxwell, and Rufus Stewart, close friends of the family. Interment took place in the St. Stephen Rural Cemetery.

Notes for Helen Muriel Gillespie:

Obituary - Helen Muriel Baldwin

The death of Helen Muriel Baldwin occurred at Lincourt Manor, St. Stephen on Nov. 10, 1992, where she had been a resident.

Word of her death came as a sense of shock by her family, relatives and friends.

She was born Aug. 27, 1906, a daughter of the late Charles and Margaret (Hanson) Gillespie of Pennfield, where she attended the Grade School. Later she attended the Toronto Conservatory of Music for two years. A talented musician she served as organist, for a time, of Christ Anglican Church, Pennfield, and of St. Mark's Anglican Church, St. George, of which she was a member.

On Sept. 12, 1934, she was united in marriage with the late Edgar L. Baldwin of St. George. The wedding was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Saint John. Over the years they resided in Fredericton, Chatham, N.B. and in Halifax, Middleton and in Cape Breton, N.S. where Edgar's work took them, as an inspector of Central Mortgage and Housing. When he retired they returned to their home on Riverview Ave., St. George.

Helen held membership in the IODE while in Chatham in the ACWs of the Anglican churches and local Granite Town Club for seniors. Her hobbies included needlecraft on variety, and in oil paintings excelling in both; she also enjoyed curling.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Glendyne Callison of Eureka, Calif.; three grandsons, Ronald, Timothy and Thomas of Eureka; a number of cousins, nephews and nieces.

The funeral service was held here in St. Mark's Anglican Church with the Rector Rev. Charles Smart and Rev. Canon David Genge, Rector of Christ Anglican Church, Pennfield, officiating. Two hymns "Softly and Tenderly" and "How Great Thou Art" were sung by the congregation. The pallbearers were all relatives - Charles Gillespie, Harold Gillespie, James and Dwight Gillespie, John Baldwin and Michael Whitford. Interment was in the St. George Rural Cemetery.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Baldwin, Riverview Avenue. Beautiful floral tributes were received and a number of donations made to the memorial funds.

Those attending the service were from Eureka, California; Halifax, N.S.; Fredericton; Old Ridge; Pennfield; L'Etete and Beaver Harbour.

75 Years a Mason

Brougham Union Lodge Honouring Their Own and Celebrating Their History

Kenneth Beaton Turner will be celebrating his 100th birthday on Feb. 8, 2010. He still has his driver's license, lives alone in his condo in Hamilton and does volunteer work at the local senior's centers. His maternal grandfather, W. Bro. Forrester A. Beaton was W.M. of Brougham Union in 1891; his grandfather's brother, W. Bro. Donald R. Beaton was W.M. in 1905 and his father, W. Bro. Howard E. Turner was W.M. in 1934. In 1943 it would have been Ken's year to be Master but he was in the Air Force so his father Howard was elected W.M. again. In 1946, Ken was asked if he would be Master. He was by this time a Major in the Air Force, stuck in a desk job in Ottawa. After a conversation with his (very understanding) superior, he was given permission to commute to Claremont to fulfill his commitment as Master. Ken would jump on the train in Ottawa, which 'just happened' to go through Claremont and stopped to let him off. He would have dinner with his good friend the station master, go to Lodge, and then pick up the train at 11:30 pm. and report for work the next morning. Claremont was not a stop for that train. This man did this for a year. Talk about commitment and devotion. Brougham Union is obviously very proud of this fine gentleman.

The following email segment was received from Colleen Congdon, 19 June 2012:

That said it is not clear what the relationship was between Ellis LeRoy Hatch and Ruel Manzer Scott (Hatch). There was enough time between the death of Sophia Saffrona Beney Hatch and Ruel's birth for Roy to be his father. After Sophia d. Roy took Alfred to his in-laws, who raised Alfred. The girls, Annie, Eva, and Esther spent summers with the Beney's too. It is possible that Roy was having sex with Lillian Irene Scott and got her pregnant. Ruel was born (no father listed) 8 April 1908 (Calais Record Book, City Hall) In 1967 Eva by personal affidavit swore that Ruel was Roy's son. However, Ruel was not named in Roy's will.

Notes for Glenys 'Pat' Hargest:

Glenys "Pat" Lee

March 28, 1926 - December 04, 2015

At the Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, NB., Glenys Lee, better known as Pat, passed away on December 4, 2015. The daughter of the late Rowland and Rachel (Powell) Hargest, she was born in London, England on March 28, 1926. Her parents emigrated from Wales when she was a child and the family bought a farm just outside Woodstock, NB.

When she was eighteen, she moved to St. Stephen to work at the cotton mill. She often travelled to work in a taxi operated by Paul Lee, who told her that when his son, Doug, came home from the war, they should meet. They did meet, and as the saying goes, the rest is history.

After her children were born, Pat was a stay at home mom for a few years. She decided to return to work and worked in several businesses in St. Stephen - Garcelon's Stamp Company, The Hat Box, The Tally-Ho and Sears, from where she retired as manager.

Over the years, she belonged to the Any Night Club, a group of friends who met to play 63's. She bowled, curled, played darts and golf. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion, having served as president; she was a member of the Eastern Star, having served as Worthy Matron and she was a member of the former District 23 School Board. In recent years, she enjoyed playing bridge. Family gatherings were a special time for her and she was very proud of her grandchildren and loved every opportunity to see her great granddaughters.

Pat was predeceased by her husband, Doug, her daughter, Lorna, her brother, Ronald Hargest and her sister, Lorna (Hargest) Tompkins. She is survived by her son Bob and his wife Mary Ellen, her grandson Ian Lee (Sarah), granddaughter Erin MacLean (Andrew), four great granddaughters, Maeve Lee, Blythe Lee, Rowyn MacLean and Stella MacLean. She is also survived by her sister, Mabel McLellan (Bob) of Woodstock, sisters-in law, Vera Hargest, Lois Henry and Eileen Lee, several nieces and a nephew, as well as several cousins in the UK.

Funeral Service will be held at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Wednesday, December 9, 2015 at 2 PM. Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home on Tuesday, December 8, 2015 from 2-4 and 7-9 PM give up during her many years of trying to manage with her mobility problems, her continuing health problems, her numerous hospital stays, and her many operations. But she was a fighter and maintained her sense of humour and her ability to laugh throughout the difficult times.

Lorna attended school in Milltown, graduated from St. Stephen High School and St. Thomas University. She also attended the Atlantic School of Theology in Halifax.

After university, she did ministry work at the Crane Valley United Church in Saskatchewan. She even drove there in her specially equipped hand controlled car. She also worked for several years as an Income Assistance Officer with the Department of Social Development, but had to stop because of her health problems.

Lorna was a people person. She made friends with many, many people and was an expert at continuing these relationships. She communicated with many via cards, letters and especially through the Internet. It enabled her to reach out to her friends and connections at home and around the world, and she always kept a large supply of cards to send to her friends on their special occasions.

She will be sadly missed by her mother, Pat; her brother, Bob and his wife, Mary Ellen; her nephew, Ian Lee and wife, Sarah; her niece, Erin MacLean and husband, Andrew; and by her three grand nieces, Maeve Lee, Rowyn MacLean and Blythe Lee, who were a constant joy to her; also four aunts, one uncle, several cousins and by her numerous friends and care givers who helped her in so many ways.

Her funeral service will be held from The S.O Mehan & Son Funeral Home, St Stephen, N.B. on Monday, February 25, 2013 at 2 PM.

Visitation will be held at the funeral home on Sunday, February 24, 2013 from 2-4 and 7-9 PM.

Remembrances can be made to the donor's choice.

Volunteer, councillor was hero to her daughter
Telegraph-Journal
Published Thursday November 22nd, 2007

ST. GEORGE - In the days since the death of former town councillor Connie White on Nov. 9, daughter and caregiver Davina Cooke has had plenty of time to reflect on the life of the compassionate volunteer, church organist and family woman who always found the good in everyone.

In fact, at times, the words of the "loving, caring and amazing woman" she calls her "hero" still echo in Cooke's ears.

"One time when I was just young and did something foolish," Cook recalled Wednesday, "my mother said, 'Always live your life in such a way that, if someone writes your obituary, that those words aren't false. That they can actually say good words about you and mean it.'"

"And I believe that's the way she lived her life."

People are certainly having good things to say about White, who waged a courageous five-year-battle with cancer before dying peacefully at Cooke's home in Utopia, with family at her side. She was 64.

White was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Former St. George mayor Vance Craig, who served with White during her years (1987-95) on town council, and local funeral director Fred Brennan, with whom she worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the St. George Funeral Home from 1997 until she was diagnosed with cancer, both remember her as a caring and co-operative person who was good listener.

"She was a people person who had a great concern for her community," said Craig.

Friend and eulogist Melba Anderson of Oak Bay said White found her "niche in life" at the funeral home.

"She excelled (there)," she said. "She touched the lives of many people with her kindness, compassion and helpful ways . . . Connie's ways expressed, 'We care.' "

Born Constance Marie Eastman in St. Stephen on Sept. 7, 1943, she was a daughter of the late Mary Jane (Seeley) and A. Earle Eastman, the border town's longtime fire chief.

Besides Cooke, her survivors include a second daughter, Katrina Lovett of Porter's Lake, N.S., and son Larry McLaughlin of Lawrence Station; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren..

White was a 1961 graduate of St. Stephen High School and a 1972 graduate of the New Brunswick Community College, St. Andrews. She worked for Scotiabank in St. Stephen, St. George and St. Andrews, became a licensed insurance agent and set up her own bookkeeping/income tax preparation business.

She was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 40 in St. George and former president of its Ladies Auxiliary, delivered Meals on Wheels and played the organ at St. Mark's Anglican Church in St. George and the Baptist Church in Baring, Me. She was also a lifelong lover of animals.

But Cooke says it was the "joy of family" that was paramount to her mother.

"In her final days, her words were that she was prepared to go, but she didn't want to leave her family."

A loving husband, father and grandfather, in addition to his wife, Myrtle, he is survived by four daughters: Sandra (Richard) Fiander, of Bocabec, N.B., Paula (John) Gilman, of Lambertville, N.B., Velma (Stanley) Lord, of Lambert's Cove, N.B., and Brenda (Colin) Mitchell, of Stuart Town, N.B.; seven grandchildren: Andrew Lord (Stephanie Stewart), Betsy (Jay) Jones, Tony Gilman (Katie Brennan), Leanne (Michael) Silvaggio, Shawn Lord (Sabrina) and Jody and Gavin Mitchell; five great-grandchildren: Ryan, Isabella, Julianna, Kiera and Keaton; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Stanford was a fisherman for many years and, prior to his retirement, he became a highway supervisor for the NB Department of Transportation, where he worked for 18 years.

He enjoyed gardening and spending time at his cottage at Birney Lake, N.B., and prior to his brothers passing, he could be seen touring the island with his brother Decosta Young, which was one of his favourite things to do. He was a member of the Leonardville Church of Christ and the Abanaki Lodge No. 55 where he was a member for 60 years, as well as a Shriner.

Rested at the Leonardville Church of Christ, Deer Island, N.B., from where the service was held on Saturday, Dec. 27, 2008 at 2 p.m., with Rev. Murray Spencer officiating, followed by interment at the Fairhaven Community Cemetery at Calder's Head, N.B.

Visiting was held at the church on Friday.

A Masonic tribute was held at the church just prior to the service on Saturday.

Marriage Notes for Rosemarie Hanson and Stephen Mulholland:

Marriage - Hanson - Mulholland

The United Church Milltown was the scene of a pretty wedding of wide interest, July 4, when Rose Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Windsor Hanson, became the bride of Stephen H. Mulholland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mulholland of Princeton, Maine. Rev. D.C. MacKenzie officiated at the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and peonies and the guest pews were marked with nosegays of pansies tied with white satin ribbon. John Peterson, organist rendered traditional wedding music and the guest soloist was Darrell MacPherson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin with lace panel inserts and full train, which also had panels of lace. The tight bodice had a yoke of seed pearls and rhinestones, round neckline of Chantilly lace and long sleeves which extended to points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses with garlands of baby breath. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Wilfred McFarlane who wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta with net overskirt and matching shoulder veil and lace mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Little Barbara Ann Ross was flower girl.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white silk dress with blue and white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore an aqua blue costume with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Arthur Mulholland, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Ronald Hanson, cousin of the bride and Lawrence Merritt of Woodland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Legion Hall, Milltown, with over 85 guests in attendance. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by tall ivory tapers in silver holders. Summer flowers also adorned the table and were used profusely throughout the room. Mrs. Albert Jackson and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson presided over the tea and coffee cups. The bride's table was served by the Misses Barbara Ann and Margaret Mulholland, sisters of the groom. The guests were served by the Misses Theresa Hanson, Ruth Rolls, Jane Boone, Kaye Thompson, Betty Cameron, Julia Mulholland and Eleanor Polter. Miss Edith Irvine had charge of the guest book. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. D.C. Mackenzie and was responded to by the groom.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a wedding trip to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and PEI. For travelling the bride donned a wine gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of white rose buds.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold tie clip set, to the maid of honor a gold compact and to the flower girl a silver locket.

The groom's gift to the bride was a double strand of pearls and billfolds to the best man and ushers.

The bride is a graduate of the Milltown Superior School and from the School of Beauty Culture.

The groom graduated from Princeton High School and from the American Technical Society of Chicago. The popularity of the couple was evidenced in the beautiful array of gifts they received. Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland will reside in Princeton where the groom is employed.

Garcelon, Patricia Ann (Pomeroy) following two years of living life to the fullest despite cancer, it is with great sadness that the family of Pat Garcelon announces her death at the Charlotte County Hospital on November 21, 2013. The daughter of the late Walter and Audrey (Lister) Pomeroy, she was born in St Stephen on April 29, 1939. A graduate of St Stephen High School, she went on to study nursing at the Victoria Public Hospital in Fredericton NB. She returned to St Stephen to work at the Charlotte County Hospital in Obstetrics. Following the birth of her children she dedicated her time to them and their many and varied activities. Having an entrepreneurial spirit she opened the Stationary Stop which she successfully ran for 20 years. During this time, Pat was the first female president of the New Brunswick Office Products Association. She was a big believer of donating her time and giving back to her community. Over the years she has been a supporter or involved with the Girl Guides of Canada, UCW Fidelis Unit, Breast Friends Support Group, Reach to Recovery, Relay for Life, Kirk McColl United Church, Charlotte County Cancer Society, Charlotte County Hospital Foundation, Ganong Nature Park and the Garcelon Civic Centre to name a few.

Family was very important to Pat, especially her sisters, she felt that chance made them sisters and hearts made them friends.

Her greatest talent was her ability to make everyone she met feel important, heard and appreciated. Throughout her life she developed wonderful friendships in St Stephen, Fredericton, St Andrews, Jupiter Florida, and points in between. She took every opportunity to gather friends together for something as simple as a cup of tea, or as involved as a reunion. Her love of travel was not only about the beautiful locations but also about the people that she met.

Jaunita Fitzsimmons

Jaunita Fitzsimmons

FITZSIMMONS:JAUNITA MAY(1933-2017) It is with heavy hearts and sadness that we announce the passing of our dearest mother, on Thursday morning February 9th at the Grand Manan Hospital. She is now safe in the arms of Jesus. Saying goodbye to the constant in our lives, our family matriarch Juanita May Fitzsimmons is proving to be more difficult than we as a family could ever have imagined. Born in Woodward's Cove, Grand Manan, NB on June 13th, 1933, where she resided the rest of her life. She was the daughter of Ernest and Flora (Raymond) Flagg. Juanita was many things to many people: Wife, Mother, Grand Mother, Great Grand Mother, Great Great Grand Mother, Sister, Aunt, loyal friend, Faithful Church Member and Sunday School Teacher. She always knew it was the little things in life that made the most precious memories. She loved spending time with her family and friends, which more often than not included a game of cards. We will all cherish the homemade gifts from the heart (preserves and knitted goods) that she loved sharing with family and friends. Always known for her fearless sense of adventure, she loved hopping on a motorcycle with any handsome man that would take her. Swimming was a passion of mom's which was evident by her challenging anyone to swim across Gibson Lake and the Cove as she had done more than once.. In her late 70's she went for her first sea-doo ride. Her spiritual trips to Beulah Camp were a highlight each year . Everyone who knew Juanita witnessed a life that was embraced and lived to the fullest. An active member of her community, Juanita, along with her special friends, Peggy and Eileen, never missed an opportunity to attend an island event. You name it she was there with her big heart and warm smile. Juanita was a woman of great faith and devotion, our pillar of strength and love, she will be missed by all who knew and loved her. She is survived by Daughters: Debbie (Wayne) Tucker, North Head; Anita (Bruno), Beaver Harbour; Allura (Randy) Truro, NS and Kim (Peter) Cruickshank Grand Harbour. Sons Kenny (Kim) Castalia and Roger Woodwards Cove. Sisters Marie Lord, St. Andrews; Hilda Mott, Saint John and Rose Titus, Montreal. Grand Children Tammy, Tricia, Jessica, Curtis, Cohen, Saul, Michelle, Will, Grace and Eli. Nine great grand children and six great great grand children. PENNFIELD - Well-known lighthouse keeper, wharf agent and air force veteran Raye Brown of Pennfield is being remembered as a "go-getter" who packed a lot of living into his nearly 92 years on this old sod.

"Dad was a great talker, outgoing, and loved to tell stories," Rebecca Anthony, the eldest of his two daughters, said following the funeral of the avid sportsman, outdoorsman and family man last week.

"He was interested in politics, a supporter of all health care, and he liked to know what was going on," she added. "And he liked to get into discussions about it."

Active in Liberal politics, he once offered his name unsuccessfully for the party's provincial nomination.

Brown, who died on Nov. 17, didn't just like to know what was going on. Often, he was part of it.

He was a life member of Branch No. 39 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Blacks Harbour, and district commander of the Legion's St. Croix District, and a former president of both the St. George Curling Club and the Brunswick Curling Club, in Blacks Harbour.

He liked to shoot skeet and curled right into his 80s, but he was never happier than "when he was out fishing and hunting, especially if his (first-born) grandson, Andrew Anthony, was with him."

Brown also liked to cook, garden and, in retirement, enjoyed travels to places like Florida, California and Alaska in the company of his late schoolteacher wife Olive (English), a native of Deer Island, who died in 2003.

Born at Wilsons Beach, Campobello, on Dec. 6, 1915, Edward Raye Brown was a son of the late Willie and Gertrude (Ludlow) Brown.

His survivors include Anthony, of Pennfield, and her sister, Natalie Harris of Blacks Harbour; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

During the Second World War, Brown served with the Royal Air Force's Marine Squadron in Point Doichin, Que., Halifax and Shediac, where he earned tickets as a carpenter, diesel mechanic and stationary engineer.

He was still in uniform when he and Olive were married on Sept. 2, 1945, at the Baptist Church in Lambertville, Deer Island. Anthony recalled her mother, who had gone to Campobello to teach elementary school, telling her how her father was wearing a red wool sweater when she first laid eyes on him on the basketball court.

After starting married life in Shediac, Brown moved to the Blacks Harbour area, where he was to serve as head keeper of the Pea Point Light for 21 years. He and Olive started their family at the light. But once his eldest girl reached school age he purchased a big house at nearby Wallace Cove which, in the 1960s, became the mainland terminal for the Grand Manan ferry service. Brown finished out his working life as the wharf agent for Coastal Transport, the ferry operator, retiring around 1980. Shortly before retirement, the Browns also relocated to 225 Blacks Harbour Rd. in Pennfield.

"When Dad moved there, he became an avid gardener and had a big vegetable garden and raspberry canes and they were right into jam-making and pickling," said Anthony. "When we moved to the (Wallace) Cove and he was still on the lighthouse, he had to cook for himself. He made excellent stews and fish chowders. So, when Mom developed osteoporosis in later years, Dad was the one who made the pickles."

Brown's love of sports of all kinds, especially curling, continued long after his body kept him from taking part.

"It was nothing for him to stay up and watch the Scott Tournament of Hearts on TV until 3 a.m.," Anthony said of the onetime skip. "Dad still liked to call the shots."

Mom remembered for strength of character
Published Thursday October 30th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS
TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

DEER ISLAND - Winnifred Eaton is remembered by her two sons as a strong-willed woman who set her mind to something and worked hard until she accomplished it.

Winnifred Eaton "Strength of character is something she passed on to me," Greg Eaton said. "She was very focused, very strong-willed, stubborn and a good judge of character."

At the age of 92, Winnifred Eaton died at the Passamaquoddy Lodge in St. Andrews on Oct. 27. She was predeceased by her husband, Wesley Eaton. She is survived by two sons, Greg Eaton and Dennis Eaton.

Dennis Eaton said his parents worked tirelessly to put food on the table and clothes on the family's backs. He said his mother was a labeler at H.W. Welch & Son and his father eventually became a captain on a freighter for the same company.

"My dad thought she was God's gift to mankind and he chased her," Dennis said. "She played hard to get but eventually gave in."

Dennis said when his parents were first married, they rented a house but soon after acquired a piece of land. He said they started building a house, room by room and lived in it while building it around them.

"She used to go in the boat with my father. She would fish traps with him," Greg Eaton said.

"There was a week to paint the freighter in the spring and she was always there helping him paint."

Dennis said his mother loved to cook and he has fond memories of the family sitting around the table for meals.

Greg said his mother especially loved making food she knew they loved.

Both Eaton sons said their parents always had great dreams for their children and encouraged them to get a good education and accomplish great things in their lives.

"My mother and father wanted their children to be better off than they were. It was typical of that generation," said Greg Eaton.

Dennis Eaton said his parents saved $10 or $11 every month for 20 years to help pay for his education and sent him a money order for $2.50 every week for spending money. When he graduated from Acadia University in Wolfville, N.S., with a teaching degree, he never saw his parents look so proud.

After retirement, they hooked a trailer on the back of their vehicle and drove across the country twice.

Greg Eaton remembers his parents driving across the county to visit him while he was living in British Columbia. After staying at his house for about six weeks, they decided to stay. They found an apartment where they could do maintenance and stayed for close to two years.

"I think it was for the adventure," he said.

Dennis Eaton said he knows his mother is now in heaven and wonders what her first words would be to her husband when he greeted her there.

"My mother said, 'I've lived a long, good life and I'm not afraid to die,'" Dennis said.

The funeral will be held at Fairhaven United Baptist Church on Deer Island on Monday at 1 p.m.

Notes for Jeanne Lee Hooper:

Jeanne Lee Smith
1955-2019

Jeanne Lee Smith Jeanne Lee Smith of Chamcook died on Tuesday, August 20, 2019 at the Charlotte County Hospital. Born at St. Stephen, she was the daughter of the late Ralph and Ellen (Lee) Hooper.

Our mother was grounded in nature, where she found peace; she enjoyed gardening, and covered her property in bright flowers, always keeping up with the latest varieties. She was an amazing cook, and the smell of her homemade bread would fill her house. She made a wonderful cheesecake, providing desserts for whatever event she was attending, whether a family gathering or at the By the Sea Full Gospel Assembly, where she attended for over 50 years. She loved Christmas, with all the cooking and family around. But more than anything, her main purpose in life was to be the best mother she could be, a legacy that she has passed on to us. We will miss her every day of our lives.

Jeanne is survived by her daughters, Jessica Hatt (Nathan) of Oak Bay, and Kayla Doak (Geordie) of St. Andrews; her granddaughter, Zoey; a sister, Norma Haughn (R. Calvert) of Chamcook; the father of her daughters, Perry Smith; and special nieces and nephew Natalie Sode, Kelly Scott, and Scott Haughn, along with several other nieces, nephews, and cousins. Jeanne was predeceased by brothers Leonard and Paul Hooper.

Although there will be no visitation time, relatives and friends are invited to join us on Saturday, August 24, 2019 at 2:00 PM at St. John the Baptist Anglican Cemetery, Chamcook, to celebrate our mother's life.

For those who wish, remembrances to the Charlotte County Cancer Society would be appreciated by the family. Arrangements by Humphreys Funeral Home, 20 Marks Street, St. Stephen. Online condolences and remembrances may be placed at www.humphreysfh.com.

He married Deborah Lee Perkins, daughter of Leo Perkins and Madeline Dean. She was born 1950 in Woodland, Washington Co., ME, and died 28 June 2007 in St. Stephen, Charlotte Co., NB.

Notes for Randall 'Randy' Stephen White:

Randall Stephen White

January 26, 1951 - July 23, 2019

Randall S. White was born on January 26, 1951 to Kenneth and Jacqueline (Clarke) White in St. Stephen, NB. He was predeceased by his parents, his wife, Deborah (Perkins) White, his brother, Ronald White, his sister Barbara Penny, and father-in-law, Leo Perkins.

Randy is survived by his two daughters, Melissa Brown (Chuck) and Krista White (Jeff McShane), both from St. Stephen, his two granddaughters, Jessica Brown and Emma Brown, one grandson, Ben McShane, his brother-in-law, Doug Penny, along with his nephews, Jeff Penny (Katelyn) and Stephen Penny (Jennifer), his nephew, Ken Perry (Prince Edward Island), his mother-in-law, Madeline Perkins (Baileyville, Maine), and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Donna and David Brown (Baileyville, Maine), and several other nieces and nephews.

Randy grew up in St. Stephen, NB, and, like his mother, Jackie, and older brother, Ron, was a Spartan basketball player, alongside lifelong friend Jeff McLeod. He was proud of his time on the court and would fondly recall the Class "L" Provincial Championship win in 1969, his team coached by Al Casey.

Randy met Debbie when he was a 16-year-old basketball player from St. Stephen and she was a cheerleader from Woodland High School. Randy wasn't often allowed to use the family car, so he spent many weekends hitchhiking to Woodland to visit her. They married and were together for 40 years. He later attended St. Thomas University in the early 1970's, earning a Bachelor of Arts with a major in Economics, then continued his studies at the University of New Brunswick graduating from the Faculty of Law in 1978.

Randy began his career in Newfoundland with the firm Parsons, Learmonth, Dunne, which sent him to Labrador City where he became a partner of the firm Parsons, Learmonth, Dunne and White. During his practicing years, Randy also worked as a Crown Prosecutor in Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, for a short time before returning to New Brunswick. He practised in Fredericton for a short time then returned to his hometown of St. Stephen where he would become a partner in the firm Nicholson, Turner, Walker and White. Along with his private practice, Randy also worked as a Crown Prosecutor in Charlotte County before retiring from law at the age of 52.

Randy loved playing and watching basketball, bridge, golf, reading historical autobiographies, building his cottage (his first carpentry project, which he completed by getting the directions from a book) with his father-in-law, Leo, and brother-in-law, Doug. His greatest delight, however, came from becoming a grandfather. He would have loved to have been able to cheer each of his grandchildren from the sidelines – with Jessica on the rugby field, Emma on stage and Ben on the basketball court, like his grandfather.

Thanks to his excellent caregivers over the last 11 years, Randy has been able to live life to the fullest possible through each stage of his disease. From the many people at Charlotte County Home Support who helped him when he was still at home, to the wonderful care he received from Pro-Team in Moncton and finally, the incredible staff at Lincourt Manor, your kindness has been overwhelming. Our family cannot express how grateful we have been.

The family will receive friends at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB on Thursday, July 25th, 2019 from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 PM.

A small family graveside service will be held at the St Stephen Cemetery, St. Stephen, NB. on Monday, July 29th, 2019 at 10:30 AM.

For those who wish, donations in memory of Randy may be made to the SSSHS Alumni Scholarship facilitated by Fundy Community Foundation or to the Alzheimer Society of New Brunswick.

Notes for Barbara Jean White:

Barbara Jean Penny

December 18, 1957 - October 13, 2017

Barbara Jean Penny (White) passed away on Friday, October 13, 2017 at the Charlotte County Hospital.

Barb grew up on Duke Street in St. Stephen where she was loved and adored (and sometimes teased and tormented) by her older brothers, Randy and Ron. Those closest to her lovingly referred to Barb as "Babs" or "Barbaloo." She was well known for her lovely disposition and her sweet and heartfelt giggle.

Barb is predeceased by: parents Kenneth White and Jackie White (Clarke); brother Ron White, sister-in-law, Debbie White; and niece Karen Penny Proulx. Barb is survived by her husband, Douglas Penny, sons Jeffrey (Katelyn) Penny, Stephen (Jennifer) Penny, grandchildren Leo and Carter, brother Randy White, brothers-in-law Jack (Elizabeth) Penny, Dave (Lisa) Penny and nephews and nieces Krista White, Melissa Brown, Ken Perry, Kiersten, Taylor and Michael Penny, Nancy Andre, Heather Floris and Mandy Harron and great nieces and nephews.

Barb graduated from the Sydney City Hospital School of Nursing in Cape Breton in 1983 - the same year she and Doug were married. Barb and Doug lived in North Sydney where she practiced as a nurse in Sydney for several years before the family moved back to St. Stephen where Barb worked at the Charlotte County Hospital.

Other nurses, especially younger ones, liked to share a shift with Barb. She was easy going but also very helpful and willing to answer questions and pass along information.

Barb was also an animal lover and was most content with a few cats and a dog as part of the family. She would have had a houseful of pets if she could!

She was an avid reader and was excellent at crossword puzzles. She was a dedicated hockey mother who attended all of Jeff and Steve's games when they played for the St. Stephen High School Spartans.

The family will receive friends at The S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, 23 Main Street, St. Stephen, NB. on Sunday, October 15, 2017 from 2-4 and 7-9 pm with a family graveside service at a later date.

Notes for William George Davis:

Obituary - William George (Billy Joe) Davis

A single vehicle accident on slushy roads early Friday morning has claimed the life of 26 year old St. Stephen man.

William George Davis was the driver of the 1992 Dodge Caravan, which was north bound from St. Andrews on Highway 127. Following the accident he was rushed to Charlotte County Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

Nate Anderson of St. Stephen who was a passenger in the vehicle suffered cracked vertebrae and is still in hospital where his condition has improved and is listed as stable.

The RCMP say roads were covered with a slush and snow mixture at the time of the accident and it was snowing and raining that night. They said the road was very slippery.

An RCMP accident reconstructionist attended the scene and the cause of the accident is under investigation as there are several witness statements still to be taken.

Sgt. John Fraser of District 1 RCMP in St. George said speed was a factor and there is evidence to indicate that Davis passed another vehicle before the accident occurred. He said they don't know if alcohol was a factor as toxicology test were conducted but they won't have the results for two or three months.

Family came first for Higgins

Published Friday December 5th, 2008

MARY-ELLEN SAUNDERS

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

ST. STEPHEN - Walter Higgins was a man who was always there for his family. Walter Higgins And that included taking his grandchildren to their hockey games, standing at the side of a racetrack cheering on his family, sitting in so his daughter could have a nap and getting on the floor to play dinky cars with his great-grandson.

"He was the greatest," daughter Judy Fahey said. "Everybody thinks their father is. But he was really kind and gentle and family was really important to him."

On Nov. 30, Walter Harold Higgins, of St. Stephen, died at the age of 75, at the Charlotte County Hospital with his family by his side.

He is survived by his wife, Edna Higgin; his children, Judy Fahey, Douglas Higgins and Danny Higgins; 10 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and his siblings, Joseph Higgins, Steve Higgins and Aldena Morrisy. He was predeceased by siblings Leslie Higgins, Bernard Higgins, Donald Higgins and Richard Higgins, and a grandson Jeffrey Higgins.

Fahey said her dad was a quiet man who was not the centre of attention at family get-togethers or the outspoken voice among the many. But he was always present, listening and supporting his family.

"My mother was the dominant one, she was the enforcer," Fahey said. "Anything I wanted, I went to my father and he always gave it to me. I was the only girl, so I was really spoiled."

Although Walter Higgins was quiet, he was also funny.

Fahey said he was always playing funny little pranks on people, such as when her friends used to come over to their house when she was in high school and her father sometimes filled their purses with rocks so they would be shocked when they picked them up to leave.

Fahey said her father was a mechanic by trade and was always a "Mr. Fix-It."

"He could fix anything," Fahey said. "Anytime I wanted something fixed, I would call him and he would do it. He was always there for all of us. We could call him in the middle of the night and he would come."

Fahey said when her father was in the nursing home, one of the nurses gave him a chair to fix and despite his illness he spent hours fixing that chair until it was as good as new.

In his home he was the housekeeper, cleaning and doing the chores and he was the family gardener, always making sure the lawn was immaculate and there was not a rock to be found.

Douglas Higgins said his dad was a hard worker who put in countless hours every week and did everything he could for the sake of his family.

Douglas Higgins said his father taught him the difference between right and wrong, and to be the kind of man who earns everything he has.

"He taught me what life was about," Douglas Higgins said. "You don't give up, you struggle, and sooner or later you will come out of it."

Fahey said it is her father's caring heart, which wanted to help people and make life better for his family, that she carries in her own heart.

"You always knew he was going to be there. You may not have heard him, but you knew he was there," Fahey said. "He lived mostly for his family and his main goal in life was to make our lives better."

The funeral for Walter Higgins was held on Thursday.

Notes for Marilyn Jean Cummings:

Marilyn Jean Parker

April 01, 1947 - December 07, 2017

The passing of Marilyn Jean Parker (nee Cummings) occurred peacefully with her family by her side at the Charlotte County Hospital on Thursday, December 7, 2017. Born in Chamcook, New Brunswick on April 1, 1947, she was the daughter of the late Robert (Ancil) and Murielle (nee Benson) Cummings.

Marilyn spent her childhood at Pearl's Corner in Chamcook surrounded by a happy-go-lucky group of entrepreneurs, business owners, and hospitality staffers who worked in her grandmother's store and her mother's restaurant where she learned many lessons - both about business and about interacting with people from all walks of life. These skills served her well after her graduation from St Stephen Business College when she began a nearly 30 year career in the field of banking and personal finance at various institutions within Charlotte County.

Whether it was during her years of camping and RVing, her devotion and hard work as a cofounder of Island View Campground, her inaugural and long time membership in the International Riders Association, or on a treasured vacation south with husband Les, Marilyn made friends wherever she went. Some friendships, though - the ones based on a lifetime of shared experiences and memories, she held closest to her heart. For her, these relationships, along with her cherished family, were what gave her the greatest joy and deepest comfort.

Marilyn is survived by her husband and constant companion of nearly 53 years, Les of St. Andrews, NB, son Robb (Margot) of Fredericton, NB, daughter Dawn of St Catherines, ON., sister Donna Cummings of Fredericton, NB, grandchildren Corben, Austin, Liam, and Courtney, sisters-in-law Madeline (Herbie) Doughty of Saint John, NB, Joan (Bill) Carmont of Bayside, NB, Karen (Frank) Ferguson of St Stephen, NB, and brother-in-law Ken (Paulette) Parker of St Stephen.

A sincere and heartfelt thank you is extended on behalf of Marilyn and her family for the care and kindness provided to her by the health care professionals of Extra Mural over these last few years and, more recently, by those at the Charlotte County Hospital, First Floor and Palliative Care.

A Celebration of Life will be held for Marilyn on Wednesday, December 13, 2017 at 2 PM at The S. O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home Ltd., 23 Main Street, St Stephen, NB.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made to Charlotte County Cancer or a charity of one's choice would be appreciated. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mehanfuneralhome.ca

He is survived by his parents Larry Jackson, Holly Hewko of High River, AB; stepmother Cherie Jackson; surrogate parents Frank and Brenda Rooney; sister Ashlie; brothers David and Cole; lifelong friends Sheldon, Patrick, and Ryan; and his dog Tank, predeceased by his dog Turbo. He is also survived by his grandparents Don and Loretta Hewko of High Prairie, AB, and was predeceased by grandparents Fred and Phyllis Jackson of St. Stephen, NB.

Brett also leaves behind his uncle and aunt Dale and Laurie Cox of Peace River, AB; uncle and aunt Kevin and Mickey Cox of High Prairie, AB; uncle and aunt Doug and Cathy Hewko of High Prairie, AB; uncle Donny Hewko of High Prairie, AB; aunt Carol Mason of Rothesay, NB; uncle and aunt Jeff and Susan Irving of St. Stephen, NB; uncle Darren Jackson of London, ON; uncle and aunt Shawn and Vanessa Bower of Sherwood Park, AB; and cousins Kimberly, Clinton, Dustin, Ryan, Kelly, Jackie, Tyler, Karleen, Adrienne, D.J., Megan, Becky, Lindsay, Mallory, Greg, Scott, Brooklyn and Beau; as well as numerous other extended family and friends.

Born February 19, 1993, Brett lived between High Prairie and Edmonton, with numerous stays in New Brunswick in between. In his younger years he enjoyed playing hockey, soccer, ball hockey, swimming and karate. As he grew older and moved out to the yard, it was dirt bikes, quads, sleds, then turbo sleds, trucks, then bigger trucks, then Big Sexy. He was an active member of Western Canadian Powerstrokes. He was a journeyman B-pressure welder, with numerous inspector tickets. Throughout his life, his biggest asset was his beautiful smile and the twinkle in his eye. He thrived on being the go-to guy – anybody who needed anything knew to call Brett. His biggest passion was being a big brother, a great son, an awesome friend, and tire shine. He will be sorely missed by all.

The family welcomed anyone wishing to celebrate Brett's life to join them at the Howard & McBride Chapel of Chimes Funeral Home for visitation on Monday, April 10, 2017 from 6 – 9 p.m., and on Tuesday April 11, 2017 from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. The service will be held on Tuesday April 11, 2017 at 2 p.m., with a reception to follow. Upon his retirement, he moved back to Maine where he started his own boat building business, and later worked as a clerk of the works for a variety of architects on many large scale school projects throughout the state. He was a member of the V.F.W. in Eastport and served as a city Councilman in Eastport.

In addition to his great grandmother, great aunt and uncle and his beloved wife Dorothy, Norman was predeceased by sisters-in-law Ruby, Florence "Blondie", Mary, Pansy, Connie and Patty; and brothers-in-law Rod, Wally and Arthur. Notes for Dorothy Helena Townsend:

Dorothy H Townsend Young

Birth: Sep. 18, 1932

Death: May 10, 2007

East Machias – Dorothy H. Young, 74, loving wife of Norman L. Young, passed away May 10, 2007 at her home with family by her side. She was born September 18, 1932 in Marion, the daughter of Clarence W. and Jeanette (Rice) Townsend. Dorothy was raised in Marion and Eastport, where she graduated from Shead Memorial High School. She married her childhood sweetheart in 1951 and together they embarked on an exciting life. They lived all over the United States as well as in the Philippines. Their greatest adventure, however, was raising their four children. She was devoted to her family and raised her family in a very loving home. Dorothy was a member of the Bridge Club for many years in Eastport and enjoyed the Gardening Club as well. She fully believed in and practiced her phrase "Go while you can", having fun with her sisters. She had a "green thumb", being able to grow anything and in the warmer months could be found outside in her flower and vegetable gardens. Along with her husband, she is survived by her sons, Michael N. Young and his wife Sally of Herman, and Larry L. Young and his wife Karen of East Machias; two daughters, Karen Ann Hallowell and her husband Keith of Edmunds, and Lois Jean Young of East Machias; as well as eleven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; three brothers, Wallace, Arthur and Joseph; and four sisters, Alice, Pansy, Connie and Patricia.

Connie was always a very creative person and her passion for this creativity finally found its home in her jewelry business, "Echoes of Erin" with a store, Water Street Fine Crafts, located in St. Andrews. On her path to that business, which she poured herself into, she operated a wedding cake business, a porcelain doll business and worked in a flower shop. Her line of jewelry was unique with many Celtic influences. Connie loved all things Celtic; books, music, history, etc. She was well loved, well known, was kind, compassionate and loving, yet she was a very private person and kept a lot of her life private. She loved her fur babies, "the Newfs", Morgan, Rachel and Travis. Connie was also a very active member of the St. George Church of Christ where her father has pastored for many years. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.

The family would like to thank the doctors and nurses at the Saint John Regional Hospital for all their care and compassion shown to Connie over these last few months.

Resting at the St.George Funeral Home & Crematorium Limited, 26 Portage Street St. George NB with visiting at the funeral home on Wednesday from 6-9 pm. The service will be held on Thursday at 2 pm from the Church of Christ St. George with Lou Outhouse officiating.
