Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Notes for John Pinkerton Haste

The Passengers Are Famous

Cpl. John P. Haste

When a corporal of the Canadian army tells you easily that Field Marshal Sir John Dill is an exceptionally tall man that I come up only to the Field's Marshal Decorations-or mentions some little characteristics of Anthony Eden. Sir Andrew Cunningham, General George C. Marshall and a number of other world-known figure-it sounds like boasting.

That is why Corporal John Haste

Nevertheless if you can win his confidence Cpl. Haste

Take the Quebec Conference last month, for instance. With the Chateau Laurier filled to capacity with leaders in government, top navy, army and air force men of three nations, and hundreds of experts in various branches of each service, there developed a shortage of cars for transportation during the meetings. Brigadier Anglin offered his car and driver, and Cpl. John Haste

While at the conference he also drove Mrs. Churchill, wife of Britain's Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Britain's Foreign Secretary, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Andrew Cunningham, First Sea Lord; Sir Charles Portal, Chief of Air Staff, R.A.F., General George C. Marshall, U.S. Army Chief of Staff and General H.H. Arnold, U.S. Air Chief of Staff.

Cpl. Haste

The Quebec Conference assignment put the really big names on Corporal Haste's list of notables he has driven as passengers but previous to that his list could still be the envy of any motor transport driver in this or any war of the past.

As driver for the district Officer Commanding M.D. No. 7 he has been at the wheel when Brigadier Anglin was host to many visiting military officials among whom Cpl. Hasteley recalls Col. J.L. Ralston, minister of national defense, Lt. Gen. J.C. Murchie, Chief of the General staff Canadian Army; Major General Staff Canadian Army; Major General H.F.G. Letson adjutant general; Major General T.L. Tremblay, inspector general; Major General F.R. Phelan, director general Reserve army and his predecessor, Major General B.W. Browne, Lieutenant General Kenneth Stuart, former Chief of the General Staff, N.D.H.Q., now C>g.S. of the Canadian Army overseas.

Corporal Hasteley, whose home is in St. Stephen, enlisted for active service in November, 1940. Because he had driven commercial buses in civilian life, and had an excellent record of efficiency, he was given his choice of serving with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. The following June he was assigned as driver to the district Officer Commanding.

Although not superstitious Cpl. Hasteley has become affectionately attached to the number "7". He points out he enlisted and is serving in M.D. No. 7, is posted to No. 7 Company R.C.A.S.C. and when the cars were numbered at the Quebec conference he was given inevitably No. 7. As a civilian he drove bus No. 7 for the firm with whom he was employed.

Marriage Notes for John Hasteley and Virginia MacVay:

MARRIAGE - Hasteley - McVay

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening, January 2, 1941, at 8 o'clock at the Kirk United Manse, when Rev. B.D. Earle united in marriage Virginia Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank McVay and John Pinkerton, son of John Hasteley and the late Mrs. Hasteley, both of St. Stephen. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride was becomingly attired in dusty brown crepe with gold sequin trimmings and matching accessories. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Pettie.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate family and friends.

The bride's table was very attractive with a lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of cut flowers. Those who assisted Mrs. McVay were Mrs. Florence Larkin, Mrs. John F. Moore and Miss Marjorie McVay. The bride is a graduate of St. Stephen High School class of 38 and prior to her marriage was employed at Crawford's Drug Store. The groom is a member of the Army Service Corps, stationed in Saint John. Immediately following the reception the happy couple left for Saint John, where they will reside at 36 Sydney Street.

Verna (Mills) Cole

June 09, 1921 - July 28, 2018

On Saturday, July 28, 2018 Verna (Mills) Cole passed away at the Robbinston Bridge Home, Robbinston, ME. surrounded by loving family members.

Born on June 9, 1921, Verna was the daughter of the late Byron and Ina (Getchell) Marshall. She was predeceased by one son, Wayne (Ruth), three sisters: Madeline, Alma and Doris, two brothers: Leo (Betty) and Gilbert.

She is survived by her three sons: Dale (Patty), Ron (Jean) and Gary (Joanne), one daughter, Elaine (Ken) and sister, Irene Porteous, ten grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, step-children, step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Verna married Frank Mills of St. Stephen in 1942. They enjoyed a loving marriage until his untimely death in 1967. In 1973, she married Donnie Cole of Calais, Maine, who, sadly, passed away only four years later in 1977. Several years later, she met Gilbert Hanson of Machias, Maine, they formed a loving partnership and enjoyed going to local dance halls, listening to music and traveling throughout the US and Caribbean. One only has to look at the early photos of Verna on a motorcycle, standing in front of a Jimmy Carter campaign office or sitting with puppies on her lap to know she was a woman of strength and character. Verna had a strong-minded and kind-hearted personality, traits that she instilled in her children.

Four dead in Mother's Day accident

By KATHY BOCKUS

kathy@stcroixcourier.ca

ST. STEPHEN – Four St. Stephen area men, including a prominent local retired businessman, are dead and one man is recovering from his injuries after a head on collision early Sunday afternoon on Highway 1 near Kerr's Ridge.

Dead are businessman Alan Halstead, 67, former owner of Halstead Electric, who was alone in his Nissan car driving west from Saint John.

Also pronounced dead at the scene were Peter Gardner, 43 and Corey Kent, 22, who were traveling east on the highway in a 1986 Ford Bronco. Ronnie Johnson, 25, died Monday afternoon at the Saint John Regional Hospital from injuries he sustained in the accident. Matthew Stewart, 18, has been identified as the fourth man in the truck. He sustained non-life threatening injuries. The accident occurred around 1:15 p.m. on Mother's Day.

A spokesman for the RCMP said Kent was the driver of the full-sized Ford Bronco.

Stewart was a passenger in the front seat, while Gardner and Johnson were sitting in the rear seats. The officer said all four men were ejected from the vehicle during the accident.

He said it is not known at this time whether they were wearing seatbelts.

The RCMP spokesman said road conditions were not a factor in the accident.

He said the highway surface was damp and the weather was overcast at the time of the accident.

The officer confirmed that Halstead's vehicle crossed over the centre line of the highway, and struck the other vehicle.

Autopsies have been performed on Halstead, Kent and Gardner, but the causes of death have not yet been released. An autopsy is expected to be performed on Johnson.

The investigation is continuing.

The portion of the highway between the two exits into St. Andrews was closed for over five hours while RCMP investigators conducted a collision analysis and tow truck personnel cleaned the highway and removed the crushed vehicles.

Gardner's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday, with a service at 10 a.m.

A memorial service for Halstead will be held at the Kirk McColl United Church on Thursday at 3 p.m.

Kent's funeral will be held at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home Thursday at 2 p.m.

Johnson's funeral will be held Friday at S. O. Mehan and Son Funeral Home at 2 p.m.
