Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

Newspapers.*). He married Ann Flynn. She was born Bet. 1797 - 1798 in NB, and died Unknown.

Notes for Joshua 'John' Thomas:

See 1831 Tax list for St. Patrick Parish, Charlotte Co., NB for the name of John Thomas as a tax payer. No other tax entries for any Thomas in 1841 or 1846. Someone needs to do a search of the Land Titles Records to see when John obtained this property and from whom. Also when it was disposed of and to whom.

Place of birth shown as Wales as the children, Elizabeth, William, Walter, and Joshua all show that as the place of birth of their father?????. Sarah Ann shows the place of birth of her father as England.

Note: The following may not be the husband of Ann but all indications are that he is the one as no more children are born after 1837 and he is from Bocabec, St. Patrick Parish and this is where this Thomas family are found in the 1851 and subsequent census!!!!

On Monday last, a sober industrious man named John THOMAS belonging to Bocabec came to Town in his boat with a load of shingles for Thomas SIME. He expressed himself as being unwell, but set out with his son, a young boy, on his return. Next day as Marshall ANDREWS, Esq. of Chamcook[Ministers] Island (Charlotte Co.) was on his way to attend the Grand Jury, he was accosted by the lad, who informed him that his father was lying in his boat on the beach and unable to move. Mr. ANDREWS had him immediately conveyed to his house where every attention was paid to him, but all their efforts proved unavailing as the poor man expired in the afternoon.

1851 Census, St. Patrick Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p4, age 45, widow, Servant, in home of Catherine Lowden

1861 Census, St. Patrick Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, p12, age 63

1871 Census, St. Patrick Parish, Charlotte Co., NB, Dist 175, p23, Family#81, age 75 [should be 65 if 45 is correct in 1851!!!!]

NOTE: The age that Ann is reported to have had for the three census as shown above makes one question which ones are more correct. Was she born 1805-1806 or 1795-1796. If she was born 1805-1806 then it might be possible that the person by the name of John, age 7, in the 1871 census is her son but the father would not be John as he had died in 1837. See the notes for John for more explanation.

Children of Joshua Thomas and Ann Flynn are:

- 26            i. Jane<sup>5</sup> Thomas, born Bet. 1820 - 1821 in NB; died Unknown.

Walter THOMAS, age 52, left the home of his brother, Wm THOMAS at Bocabec (Charlotte Co.) 1st August and said that he was going to St. George. As none of his friends have heard anything from or about him since, they fear some mishap has befallen him. Thomas is a man of about 5 feet 4 inches in height, sandy complexion and cross-eyed. He wears his hair long and turns his toes out very markedly when walking.

From some time immemorial it has been a custom of some Bocabec youths to make sport of a family named Thomas. The family consist of John THOMAS and Walter THOMAS and a sister. They are well advanced in years and live in a little cabin on the road leading to the Bocabec marsh. More than once the inhabitants of the building have had occasion to resort to fire-arms to chase away the tormentors. ... Two youths, James TAGGART and CREIGHTON were wounded. (see original 'Nearly A Tragedy')

The following email segment was received from George MacLeod, 1 Sept 2009:

According to my mother (granddaughter of Sarah Ann) there was another daughter who lived next to my grandmother and across the road from Sarah Ann and Israel. The house burned down in the early 1900s but i saw the foundation and heard the story of her. I have not found any connection to the family on her as yet so have not added her to the history but think i should on "family verbal grounds". I feel the information is fact, her headstone names her as a Thomas (maiden name) and the age fits in for her to be a sister. I can't find her in any New Brunswick census but the Maine census does show her birth in Canada. I can fill you in on the information i have if you are interested. I'm seriously considering adding her to my history.

Email segment received from George MacLeod, 5 Sept 2009:

Sarah Ann's sister was Mary Ann Thomas who married George C. Pomroy. He is also shown as George W. somewhere. I mention this because I have that noted in my notes. The reason is my notes in the computer for George C. is that my mother had said George's mother was Mary Tufts. I noted that George W. showed Mary Tufts as his mother (possible brothers?). The headstone for George is George C. died 26 May 1902 (Bancroft, Me.) 81 years 9 mos. 4 days. Mary A. Thomas is buried with him in Trout Brook Ridge Cemetary, Bancroft. Dates for Mary are 1827-1912. George's mother (Mary Ann Tufts). Her headstone in the same cemetary reads "Mary Ann Wife of Richard Pomroy died june 16 1869 AE 79 8Mos." They are in the 1880 census of Bancroft and Israel and Sarah are listed right above them. They lived across the road from each other as I mentioned earlier. George and Mary are also in the 1900 census for the same place. Israel is listed but Sarah has died and he has a house helper. Israel later marreid Esther Scott Wright born ca 1846. Mary immigrated in 1843 when about 16 according to the 1900 census.

They are all consistent that it is not New Brunswick which would have to be the place of birth if Sarah Ann was a daughter of William Thomas and Ann Taylor.

The following email segment was received from George MacLeod, 2 Sept 2009:

To answer your question on Sarah Ann's lineage--I put a note in my history that I have a paper somewhere with information I found in Bancroft, Me. showing the death of Sarah Ann Thomas and Sally Thomas both occurring on the same day and both in Bancroft. Kind of odd being Sally is a nickname for Sarah. The 1851 census shows a Sally as the daughter of William and Elizabeth (Taylor) born ca 1831. Based on what I found Sarah and Sally are presumably the same person and if you check the dates you show for Sally and Sarah in your file you will see the same dates listed for both as others also show. I have been to Seldon Cemetery several times and Sarah Ann's death date is correct as recorded and as is recorded in the family bible. I have cemetery listings for the area cemeteries and been to them. I cannot find Sally buried or listed in any of them. Sarah Ann started the family bible and is the first birth recorded--"in her own hand writing". Everyone has it listed as 29 Jul 1835. However she has it recorded in the bible as 29 Jul 1834. I have left Sally in my family history in case someone finds otherwise. I have added Sarah Ann to my history based on the facts I found and I think you will agree with---at least for now.

The following email segment was received from George MacLeod, 4 Sept. 2009:

My wife (Nita) and I dug thru files and found a second folder for notes on the Thomas family. It was in with the Lees and explains why I couldn't find it earlier and didn't alter or question additionally on Sarah Ann. Both Nita and I think we remember Granville saying John and my grandmother were cousins. My mother mentions that they were. Anita Greensen spoke to Granville on my behalf and wrote me in March of 1984 saying that John was his father and that he had a sister Sarah and two brothers "Walter and Bill[William]". He also confirmed to her John's wife was Amy (Amy Wilson). William and Sarah are not shown in the 1851 census. Strange. Granville said to us he (Granville) never met Walter or Bill. He told Mrs. Greensen the roof blew off the home on the Bocabec River in the Saxby Gale of 4 Oct 1869 and was never seen again. That was all she mentioned on the Thomas family but provided info on the Lee family as well. I have not found a death date for William. Have you ? This is not to say that this is my Sarah Ann but makes me wonder. Nita and I discussed this and think possibly John called Walter and William "brothers" because he lived with them in the 1871 and 1881 census'. As I said yesterday he may have been born out of wedlock. Also possible he was adopted or taken in by Ann and given the Thomas name or even raised another Thomas family son for a family on hard times. The age difference between John and the other children is the reason for our thinking. There is a whole generation gap between young John and the other children and we could be missing those people if it were so. Sarah Ann on the other hand would fit in with the others based on age. Of the children living in other homes in 1851 Joshua was born around the time of death of Ann's husband John. Ann was past chld bearing age when young John was born (1864).

More fuel for the fire. Ann's son Jushua born ca1837 was in St. Patrick in the 1861 and 1871 census'. He and family (wife Martha A. and 6 children) must have moved to Calais after that (I haven't checked the Maine census). He died in Calais 19 Jun 1897 per St. Croix Courier dated 1 July. Someone told me years ago (Granville, Mother or Grandmother??) the family used to stop off in Calais to see family when traveling back and forth. I've written to the Thomas Oil Co. in Calais a couple of times but no response. I have a couple of Wedding notifications for two of Joshua's children. One probably sent to my grandmother for Ella Bertha Thomas who Married Edgar Dyer Bonney 18 Jan 1898 a year after Sarah Ann died and one probably sent Sarah Ann for John W. Thomas who married Mamie E. Tarbell 5 Aug 1890 in Providence, Rhode Island. The notification said they would be back home I think it said the 24th. Makes me think they settled in Calais but I haven't checked that out. I got these from my aunt years ago who had some of my grandmother's things. She knew I was working on family history. Also have post cards personal cards from Lee and Thomas family members going back 100 years and more. The 1881 census names Joshua's children and ages. I'm beginning to think like you that Sarah Ann is probably the sister of young John (Granville's father) even though not proven. Strong family ties at least for some which is usually the case.

There is a Harmon family history that mentions Granville's father John. Lilia Amy (Thomas) Harmon was his daughter.

Marriage Notes for Joshua Thomas and Martha Flinn:

The maiden name of Martha A. is shown as Flinn. This may not be correct but all information points in this direction as Joshua Thomas was in the home of Joshua Flinn in the 1851 census and Joshua Flinn's daughter, Martha A is in the same home. This connection is being assumed until proven otherwise. (AEK). NOTE: Proof found with the death of Cogswell and Thomas boys who were cousins.

There are only 5 different persons by the name of Martha in the 1851 census for St. Patrick Parish and only one of these is a Martha A. Flinn and that is the main reason for assuming that this is the one that Joshua married.

Proof that Martha A. is a Flynn/Flinn is found at the following link. <a target=" blank"

Walter Flynn, a native of Pennsylvania, and a sergeant in one of the disbanded Loyalist corps, received a grant of the land now occupied by his grandson of the same name. After coming to Digdeguash he married Anne Brown, a niece of the wife of Esquire Curry. Ten children were born to them, one of whom, also named Walter Flynn, was the father of the present owner of the place. He was drowned by the upsetting of a boat in St. Andrews Bay. Sergt. Flynn died at about ninety years of age, and his wife when nearly one hundred. They were buried on their own farm.

The above facts relating to Sergt. Flynn are given chiefly on the authority of the late Mrs. Brown, of Summerside, P.E.I., his last surviving daughter, who was born on the 25th of December, 1792, and reached the age of one hundred years on last Christmas day.(2) Mrs. Brown remembered as neighbours the McIlroys, Fishers, Stewarts and Campbells; and could recollect the building of the mills afterwards known as the Allanshaw & McMaster mills.

Joel Bonney left the house referred to above; but, after living for a time on Grand Manan, took up a new place at the mouth of the Digdeguash. Maj. McDonald has left the following report on the settlement of this tract:-

McIlroy and Stewart Settled on the tract in 1788 and say they applied with Moses Sprage for 100 acres each that they expected a front of 40 Rods on the Shore, and with a mariner's compas set the courses of their side lines at N.E. & by N. that they lived and improved in a kind of partnership together on the Shore, but since Stewart's marriage that they separated Houses, and occupied the land nearly as laid down in this plan. Sprague settled on the tract in 1789, made some improvements as on the plan, and left in 1796. Joel Boney Senior Settled on the Head in 1790 which he cleared all up and then moved back in the rear of the other Settlers on the County Road in 1796 where he now resides. John Jameson Settled on the tract in 1793 at a little Marsh on the Shore in opposition to Stewart & McIlroy who had fenced in the marsh, and conveyed his claim to Joel Boney Junr. when he left it in 1797. Joel Boney Junr. has since been Settled on the tract till this year (1804) when he went to the United States.

(1)Article liii.

(2) They are corroborated by Capt. Joshua Thomas and his wife, of Calais, who are descendants of Sergt. Flynn. We are indebted to Mrs. Thomas for the story of the raid as given above.

Mrs. Brown departed this life on the 6th of May last, at the residence of her son, Mr. Patrick Brown, in Summerside.

Notes for John Thomas:

NOTE: The lineage of John is unknown but he is shown in the home of Ann Thomas in 1871. John could be an illegitimate son of either Jane or Elizabeth or another daughter that is not in the 1851 census. Could also be a grand-son of one of the sons of John & Ann Thomas!!!! More recent information from PANB that contains the parents in the Marriage documents shows that the parents of John Thomas are: Elizabeth Thomas

NOTE: The age that Ann is reported to have had for the three census makes one question which ones are more correct. Was she born 1805-1806 or 1795-1796. If she was born 1805-1806 then it might be possible that the person by the name of John, age 7, in the 1871 census is her son but the father would not be John as he had died in 1837. An email from George MacLeod has a section that shows how Granville Thomas viewed the relationship of John to his siblings. " Anita Greensen spoke to Granville on my behalf and wrote me in March of 1984 saying that John was his father and that he had a sister Sarah and two brothers "Walter and Bill[William]". He also confirmed to her John's wife was Amy (Amy Wilson)." As can be seen from this, John was treated as a brother and not a nephew of Walter and William.

We are informed that the schooner "Mary Jane" of and for Grand Manan (Charlotte Co.) from Halifax was driven ashore the night of Friday 17th inst. in a snow storm at Long Island Bay, Grand Manan a short distance from the residence of the master Capt. Daniel GATCOMB and all on board were drowned. It is supposed the crew consisted of three persons, one of whom was Sidney BANCROFT of Grand Manan and as some female wearing apparel had been found it was conjectured that there was a woman passenger on board. The wreck of the schooner was discovered the next morning, broken in two, and sundry articles belonging to the deceased were picked up. Capt. GATCOMB's body was found on Monday. Both men left families.

'Fisher' Green lived up to his nickname

Published Wednesday September 10th, 2008

MIKE MULLEN

TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

GRAND MANAN - Not everyone carries a nickname that so well reflects their life's work as veteran Seal Cove fisherman, family man, sportsman and community activist Theodore (Fisher) Green, to whom islanders gathered to pay their final respects on Tuesday.

Theodore Green To them, he was Fisher long before he embarked on six decades of hard work in various branches of the Bay of Fundy fishery, including lobster fishing, weir fishing and running herring scales to the Mearl Corporation in Eastport, Maine.

The story behind how young Theodore got his nickname dates from his early school days.

"When his teacher asked him what he wanted to be when he grew up, he said he wanted to be a fisher," his son, Capt. Lloyd Green, a senior master of the ferry boat Grand Manan V, said prior to his father's funeral.

"Other kids made a joke of it, and like a lot of nicknames on the island, that one stuck," said Lloyd. "Until this day, a lot of people didn't know his name was Theodore. They called him Fisher and thought that was his real name."

Green, who was diagnosed with stomach cancer in July, died in hospital here last Friday. He was 82.

He was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

"He was devoted to his family and his church (Seal Cove Baptist), where he served as a deacon," said Lloyd. "The big thing, I think, one he expressed later in life, was he was going to look after his grandchildren while he was alive, not after passing.

"My father was quite humorous," he added. "He loved to tease his grandchildren and enjoyed being around people, and talking to them. He never had a foul word to say about anybody." That is quite a legacy to leave."

Born on Sept. 19, 1925, at Seal Cove, Theodore Rosevelt Green was a son of the late Coleman (Coke, to many) and Ruby (Benson) Green.

Besides his wife of 59 years, Eleanor M. Green (Hatt) of Seal Cove, and son Lloyd, of Deep Cove, Green's survivors include two daughters, Lois Beechin of Seal Cove and Julie Russell of Grand Harbour; seven grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was predeceased by two granddaughters, Bridgett and Destiny; three sisters, Molly Laffoley, Betty Ingersoll and Margaret Guthrie; and one brother, Morton, who drowned as young child.

"When father first started fishing, he fished with Deverne Green (of Seal Cove)," said Lloyd. "But after his father came off Outer Wood Island, where he was the lighthouse keeper, they fished together."

Over a lifetime, Green owned a number of boats, the first being the Lloyd & Rudy, named for his son and a nephew, Rudy Laffoley. He also skippered the Last Straw, the Julie Lucinda and, late in his career, the Mearl Maid, and owned a herring carrier, the FBI, built in 1968.

When not on the water, he most often could be found working on his lobster traps at the "Fisher Shed" next to General Marine, in Seal Cove, where locals would drop by to shoot the breeze.

"That's the life he wanted - always to be a fisher," said Lloyd. "But once he retired in 2001 " he was glad to be out of fishing."

An avid hunter, Green had owned shares in a camp at Big Pond since 1951.

"If he really wanted to escape, that's where he would go," said Lloyd. "He loved hunting and the whole camp atmosphere."

As president of the Grand Manan Curling Club for 10 years, where he and Eleanor were active members, Green developed shots nobody else saw before inspiring the term "Fisher Shots" for a fluke-like takeout.

He also worked locally on behalf of the Liberal Party, was a past board member of the N.B. Fishermen's Loan Board, and served on the board of directors of the Grand Manan Historical Society, Grand Manan Museum and the Grand Manan Wildlife Association.

The five weeks and two days between his diagnosis and his passing, said Lloyd, gave his father time to get his worldly affairs in order.

"Once he did that, he was glad," said Lloyd. "Then he could move on. He was ready to go and be with the Lord."

Obituary - Lt. Russell Ganong

News of the death in Italy of Lt. Russell Ganong was received on Tuesday morning by his wife, Mrs. Mary Ganong, in a message from official sources which stated only that he had died of wounds on March 18 1944.

Other information indicated that he had only recently rejoined his unit, the Carleton & York Regiment after enjoying a rest period away from the front. The special leave was granted Lt. Ganong and members of a patrol of which he was the leader as a reward for their good work last month in capturing the first prisoners taken on the Tollo sector of the Canadian Corps front. Their rest period would have concluded on March 14, and it would therefore appear that Lt. Ganong was wounded within a very few days after returning to the front.

The elder son of Major General and Mrs. Hardy nelson Ganong, Lt. Ganong was born in St. Stephen in 1920. He enlisted in the R.C.A.F. on the outbreak of war in 1929 and proceeded overseas, where he transferred to the Army and served for some time in the ranks. Recommended for a commission he returned to Canada and trained at Brockville and Camp utopia, returning to duty overseas, just too late to get in on the invasion of Sicily last July. Later, however, he was sent to the Mediterranean zone as a reinforcement officer with the Carleton & York Regiment.

In Italy he had seen considerable action. The work of the patrol which he led in capturing prisoners resulted in a special message of commendation to the Canadian troops and on Christmas Day he was one of the fortunate officers in a group which was severely shot up by German aircraft. On that occasion a small group of officers was bombed and machine gunned; one was killed, another, Lt. Lorne Groom of St. Stephen was wounded in the back, legs and one arm and close to the hip. Lt. Ganong was slightly injured when he fell over

Besides his wife, who at one time of her marriage, was section officer Mary MacKenzie, R.C.A.F., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. MacKenzie of St. Stephen, he is survived by an infant son, hardy, jr. born since his father's return to overseas duty; his parents., now in Prince George, BC; a sister, Miss Constance Ganong, a student at Acadia University; a brother Billy, also in Prince George and his grandmother, Mrs. E.M. Ganong, St. Stephen.

Marriage Notes for Russell Ganong and Mary MacKenzie:

Marriage - MacKenzie - Ganong

The Presbyterian Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Sherbrooke Street, Montreal, was the scene of a wedding of interest to friends in New Brunswick at 11 a.m. Friday September 11, 1942, when Mary Helena MacKenzie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robert MacKenzie of St. Stephen, became the bride of Cadet Russell Edward Ganong, son of Major General and Mrs. Hardy N. Ganong of St. Stephen. Rev. Dr. George H. Donald, the minister, officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Constance Margaret Ganong, sister of the groom, and F.F. Moar, of the Officers Training Centre at Brockville, was the groomsman. The ushers were James MacKenzie, brother of the bride, and James Clark, her brother-in-law.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing the uniform of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) to which she is attached at Moncton, with the rank of corporal. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in the blue Room of the Windsor Hotel. The following in addition to the bridal couple were present: Mr. and Mrs. AR. MacKenzie, Mrs. Hardy N. Ganong, Miss Constance Ganong and Mrs. Melville Deacon, all of St. Stephen; Dean C.J. MacKenzie, President of the Research Council of Canada and Mrs. MacKenzie, Ottawa; PO and Mrs. William Erly, St. John's Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Montreal, the latter a sister of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. James MacKenzie of Montreal, the former a brother of the bride. Later Cadet and Mrs. Ganong left for Brockville.

The groom recently returned from overseas, where he spent two years and is at present taking an officers course at Brockville. The bride prior to her enlistment in the R.C.A.F. was a member of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada in St. Stephen. Following their honeymoon the bride and groom will return to their respective duties.

Notes for Colby John Hatt:

Uplifting day at SJDA

By BARB RAYNER

barbrayn@nbnet.nb.ca

ST. ANDREWS – Wednesday was a very special day for 16-year-old Coby Hatt, because the Sir James Dunn Academy student finally got a chance to venture beyond the school’s lobby now that an elevator has been installed.

The Grade 9 student is confined to a wheelchair and, until this week, the school, which was built in 1966, was not wheelchair accessible, so he has been doing all his lessons in the school lobby, since this and the gym are the only areas of the building he was able to access.

That all changed Wednesday when Hatt, with his family and classmates looking on, cut a red ribbon to officially open the elevator which has finally been installed in the school giving him access to the whole building just like all the other students.

Bob Price, facilities manager for School District 10, who was among those who took part in the celebration, said they applied for the $200,000 funding for the elevator in 2004 under capital improvements and their application was approved for 2005.

Unfortunately the elevator has been a long time coming, said principal Tim Stuart, although work began on the necessary alterations to the school building last summer.

“They started doing the construction work in July but this has been a very elusive elevator. It finally started coming in bits and pieces before Christmas and they did the final test last Friday. Coby will be the first one to use it today.”

Price said they are trying to make all the schools in the district wheelchair accessible and they have elevators now in most of them. He said a lot of the schools are split level, and it is expensive to install elevators.

“This is really going to benefit him and anyone else who comes to the school in a wheelchair as well as the public," he said.

Stuart said Hatt has been at SJDA for a little over a year, moving there from Vincent Massey Elementary School, and they have been teaching him in the lobby because he could not access the rest of the building.

Now, he will finally be able to join his classmates and have the run of the school.

During the short ceremony in the front lobby, Stuart said this was a very, very special occasion for Hatt and if there was an award for patience he would have to get it, since he has spent 99 per cent of his time at SJDA in the lobby.

"We all know it's a nice lobby but this is really a testament to his patience."

Stuart welcomed the special guests who included Price, Western Charlotte MLA Tony Huntjens, as well as Coby's parents, Tammy Barrio and John Hatt, together with his little sister.

Hatt was then joined by his teaching assistant, Angela McFarlane, as he cut the ribbon to officially open the elevator, then he and Stuart took the first ride in it before everyone was invited to enjoy a piece of the celebration cake.

Although the man of the moment was a little shy about being the centre of attention, McFarlane said having the elevator at the school will make a world of difference to his life. She said this will enable him to join his classmates for science class, social studies and in the kitchen when they do cooking.

"This is going to change his life socially, give him confidence. This is going to be so good for him. I cannot wait for him to see what a classroom is like because he has never been in one. He has also never been part of a discussion group before - and he will finally have a locker as well."
