Final Version

Preface

The purpose of this book is to make available to those researching the descendants of the Thurtle families from Durham Co., Ontario, a history of the families as known at the present time.

The book is divided into chapters. Each chapter is for a family of the earliest immigrant from England to Durham Co., Ontario.

Special thanks to the following persons for their assistance and data contributions:

Susan Miller,
Dick Bayerl, and Ruth Waite.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

Since this is a work in progress, there is a lot of missing data and anyone with information that will add to the completeness or accuracy of the book is asked to contact me at the address shown below:

Foreword

To aid those trying to read the contents of the genealogy reports shown in this book, the following aids are suggested.

1) Look for your name in the index found at the end of the book. If there is more than one page number indicated then the first one is where you are shown as a child of your parents, the second one would be the page where you are a parent, and the remaining pages is where you are shown on the page where one of your childrens families are being given and you are shown as their parent. Additional pages may be present from special reports that are included in the book

Notes for Benjamin Thurtle:

Data from WFT Vol 4, #231.

Email received from Connie (Rapson) Eyl

Benjamin Thurtle is indeed my great grandfather. His 2nd wife, Margaret Osborn is my great grandmother.

They were the parents of William Thurtle who was the father of my mother, Velma (Thurtle) Rapson.

You might not know, but Benjamin Thurtle is buried in Tisdale, Saskatchewan. He left his family in Battle Creek, Michigan after his children were young adults. Mom never did explain why, but he returned to Canada and settled in Tisdale. He died October 30, 1932. Two sons of Benjamin and Margaret (Osborn) Thurtle died in their early twenties. Son Benjamin took his own life and is buried in Battle Creek, Michigan. We don't know why their son, Cecil, died, but think he is buried near Bad Axe, Michigan. Their daughter, Grace, we are told, died during childbirth and is also buried in the Bad Axe area.

Thank you again for verifying what I have and keep in touch if you find anything else.

I have included a wedding picture for you to see William Thurtle and Theresa Matilda Bell on their wedding day.

It is priceless to have a picture of your grandparents in such wonderful outfits!

Sincerely, Connie (Rapson) Eyl

Notes for Paul Frederick Sapergia:

Paul Sapergia

October 24, 1951 – April 12, 2019

Paul Frederick Sapergia was born October 24, 1951 in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, to loving parents Alexander (Alec) and Jean (nee McIntyre) Sapergia. He grew up on the family's cattle ranch southwest of Moose Jaw with three older siblings, Doris, Vernon, and Sandra. Paul contracted polio just three months before his second birthday during the epidemic of 1953. After this he spent about a third of his childhood in the hospital undergoing well over a dozen surgeries on his leg, an experience that would profoundly shape the rest of his life.

However, surrounded by a supportive and tight-knit family, Paul still enjoyed many aspects of growing up on the ranch, learning to ride horses and work with the cattle. The family was also very musical, providing a perfect environment for a budding musician. Paul had an exceptional ear and quickly taught himself to play every instrument he could get his hands on, especially enjoying the guitar.

As a young adult, Paul joined his father as a partner on the ranch. In his mid-twenties he struck out on a big adventure that would change his life forever, moving to Los Angeles, California in 1977. There, he met a nurse from Germany, Elfriede Frenzel, and they married in LA in August 1978. Not long after returning to Moose Jaw, the young couple decided to buy a small farm near Fleet, Alberta. Soon they were joined by their two daughters, Sophie and Sarah.

Paul became an active contributor to the Castor and Fleet communities, especially through creative pursuits. He participated in Castor Little Theatre and Castor Winterfest variety shows for many years both as a performer and behind the scenes. He taught himself to read music later in life so he could play trumpet in the Castor Band. He also enjoyed writing and performing his own songs. He learned to tune pianos and kept many of the pianos in the region sounding their best.

He also explored his talents as a visual artist, becoming an accomplished bronze sculptor and woodcarver. He enjoyed western and nature motifs and showed his works in a number of galleries and venues such as the Calgary Stampede and Spruce Meadows.

Rooted in his childhood experiences, Paul was also motivated to explore alternative health practices, completing a diploma in homeopathy. He was able to help many members of the community with this training.

In recent years, Paul very much enjoyed the company of friends, especially playing cards and music together. He was a dedicated volunteer musician at local long-term care centres and seniors' lodges. He also recorded the Sapergia family's experiences as Romanian immigrants in rural Saskatchewan in his book, The Wealth of the Double Triangle, the title referring to the cattle brand of the Sapergia ranch. He enjoyed spending time outdoors in his canoe.

Paul developed an aggressive form of leukaemia in spring of this year. After being admitted to the Our Lady of the Rosary Hospital in Castor, he was transferred to the hematology unit of the Peter Lougheed Centre in Calgary. He passed away there on April 12, 2019.

Paul is lovingly remembered by his wife and daughters as an exceptionally devoted husband and father. Paul and Elfriede celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on August 21, 2018. When asked before he passed what he was most proud of in his life, he said, "Being a good dad. That's the most important."

Paul is mourned by wife Elfriede; daughters Sophie (Alberto) and Sarah; siblings Doris (Ray), Vernon (Sandra Stagl) and Sandra Wiebe (Harold); and a large extended family from the Sapergia and McIntyre clans. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

A Celebration of Life was held on April 18, 2019 at the Fleet Hall. Rita Prince, a close friend of Elfriede and Paul, led the service. Another dear friend of Paul, musician Jaron Rovensky, performed "Bobby McGee", "The Tennessee Walz", and "Over the Rainbow/What a Wonderful World". Eulogies were by daughters Sophie and Sarah.

The family are extremely grateful to the staff and physicians of both the Peter Lougheed Centre hematology unit and Our Lady of the Rosary Hospital. Paul received outstanding care in both locations.

A special thank you to Paul's close friend Rod Willis and wife Dorothy for their support with organizing the Celebration of Life.

Thank you also to members of the Castor and Fleet communities for your many kind words and prayers over the past weeks, as well as to those who attended the Celebration of Life, made charitable donations, brought food and sent beautiful cards and flowers.

Donations in memory of Paul may be made to the Our Lady of the Rosary Hospital Foundation – specify Long-term Care. Address: Box 329, Castor AB, T0C 0X0.

Descendants of William Thurtle, Sr.

Generation No. 1

1. William¹ Thurtle, Sr. (?^A, Br-02^B, (00Root-Thurtle)^C) was born Bet. 1815 - 1816 in England, and died 04 March 1899 in Lot 12, Con 9, Clarke Twp., Durham Co., ON (Source: ODR - Ontario Death Registers, #018397.). He married (1) Salina Hall Bef. 1850. She was born Abt. 1827 in England, and died Bet. 1861 - 1864 in Clarke Twp., Durham Co., ON. He married (2) Mary Hoy (Source: ODR - Ontario Death Registers, #022721.) Bef. 1865, daughter of Thomas Hoy and Margaret ????. She was born Abt. 1826 in County Antrim, Ireland, and died Bet. 1881 - 1891.

Notes for William Thurtle, Sr.:

This William Thurtle may not be a brother to Robert Thurtle. However, he is a brother to Priscilla (Thurtle) Train. The assumption that he is a brother to Robert is being made on the basis that the 1861 Census for Clarke Twp., Durham Co., ON, a Robert Thurtle is located at Concession 9, Lot 18. In the 1871 census for the same area, a William Thurtle is located in the same area according to the 1878 Illustrated Atlas of Clarke Twp., Durham Co., p 12. This assumption is being made until proven otherwise.

NOTE: In the 1861 Census for Clarke Twp., Durham Co., ON, Robert Thurtle is in Division 4, page 62, and William is also in Division 4, page 82; both in close proximity to each other. Other families that have Thurtle wives are also being included here as they were also in Durham Co., ON.

Still need proof of the connections. A new and modern way of determining the connection would be to use DNA testing. the Family Finder DNA test by FTDNA is the one that I would suggest. This test costs about $100.00 USD plus $5.00 shipping. By testing at least one person from each line it should be possible to determine if they are n-th cousins or not.
