When people give classes or teach about how to do genealogy, they only talk about the ideal situations and not the real life ones that we as practicing genealogists have to put up with. The St. Stephen Rural Cemetery Book is one of my main sources as well as Church records for the maiden name and date of marriage of Lydia Pomeroy and Jacob Williams. Jacob is dead before the 1851 census, Lydia is alive but that region of the St. Stephen Parish, Charlotte Co., NB Census was heads of family only so she is not reported. Have not found her in the 1861 census because she must have been in either St. James Parish or St. David Parish. The only reference that I have is the information from the SSRCB (see attached page) By association, since she is buried in the same lot as John Williams and h/w Sallie which is the line you are descended from. When people only copy and don't verify the information it leads to many problems. The contents of this email are now part of the notes for Jacob Williams and Lydia Pomeroy. (AEK-1 July 2021)
