Final Version

Preface

This eBooks contains information on the family name shown in the title.

This is a final version of the eBooks that have been available from my website as the genealogy program that I have used to produce these books has reached a limit and can no longer be extended or corrected. However, I still keep doing genealogy but have to use a different version of the software but it does not have the capability to produce eBooks. In the future, I may have to change to a different genealogy program that can produce eBooks but I cannot depend on that happening.

All I ask is that you point out the errors and send updates and corrections to the following address:

John WILSON whose death was announced in the last 'Advocate' was a native of Stromness, Orkney Islands, Scotland and came to this country between 60 and 70 years ago. He was a man of fair education, a good navigator and was so considered in his early days and before coming out here made several whaling voyages. For a great many years he ran the ferry between Beaubair's or Wilson's Point (so called after the deceased) and the Island and the north and south sides of the river. He was very generous in this capacity, for no passenger was ever refused a trip for lack of fare. Many years ago he was a keeper of the County goal and was at the time of his decease, Crier in the Courts which position he held over 40 years.

Immigration: 1817, as per 1851 census

Notes for Euphemia Clouston:

Probably a sister to the Magnus Clouston shown on page 3 of 1851 Census, Nelson Parish, Northumberland Co., NB. Both entered Colonies in 1817 and both born Scotland, Another possible brother might be Henry Clouston who was in the same area and applied for land grants in 1819 and 1821. Both Magnus and Henry applied for land in Gloucester Co., NB, in 1821

43. Margaret Ann⁵ Vye (Mary 'Margaret'⁴ Wilson, ?³, Branch-Three², (00Root-Wilson)¹) was born 24 April 1834 in Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (Source: 1901 Census, NB, Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., p17.), and died 12 January 1922 in Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic."). She married Joseph Albert Sturgeon, Sr. 29 March 1855 in Newcastle Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (Source: Daniel Fred Johnson, VSNB: Vital Statistics from N.B. Newspapers.), son of James Sturgeon and Catherine Walker. He was born 1832 in Upper Nelson, Northumberland Co., NB, and died 03 November 1891 in Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB (Source: Provincial Archives of New Brunswick, PANB, "Electronic.").

Notes for Margaret Ann Vye:

According to information obtained from a family bible, the name was Margaret Ann Cyr. This bible was lost in a fire when the Thompson home burned. More research required to determine if the name is Vye or Cyr for Margaret Ann. In the summer of 1998, this discrepancy was cleared up and the name is VYE.

The 1861 census for Blackville Parish, Northumberland Co., NB shows Joseph and Margaret Ann Sturgeon and living with them is the mother-in-law and brother-in-laws all with the surname Vye

Some other researchers have indicated the name is Nye. Upon searching the writing styles of the person doing the census, it is evident that the first letter is NOT an "N" but rather a "V".

The 1851 Census for Nelson Parish, Northumberland Co., NB, p22, shows a Margaret Vye, age 18, servant, at the home of:

Philip King, age 28, Husband

Ellen King, age 26, Wife

Francis King, age 5

Thomas King, age 4 weeks.

The person in the Newcastle Parish (Middle District), Northumberland Co., NB, p38 shows the following:

Margaret Vye, age 44, widow

Mary Vye, age 18,

James Vye, age 10,

Alexander Vye, age 4.

The question that needs to be answered is this Mary the same as Margaret or is this a TWIN????

Obit:

Walter Robinson - 1950

Friends were grieved by the death of Walter W. Robinson, for many years a grocer and feed dealer on King Street, which occurred at his home Tuesday afternoon, November 21, in his 78th year. A citizen of sterling character, he had been an elder of the Kirk McColl Church for many years and a regular attendant as long as health permitted and was also a member of the Knights of Pythias for more than 50 years.

Mr. Robinson was born at Oak Hill, a son of Joseph and Katherine McDermott) Robinson, and as a young man went to Marysville where he was employed for some years in the Gibson Mill of Canadian Cottons Ltd. Returning to St. Stephen he entered the employ of his brother, the late Joseph B.

Robinson, who was then conducting a grocery and feed business and later took it over. He had been in business himself upwards of 20 years.

While in Marysville he was married to Miss Jennie Voye[Vye], of Devon, who predeceased him by 19 years.

He is survived by two brothers, two sisters, Mrs. Jennie McFarlane and Mrs. Grace Smith, both of Nashwaakis. Another brother Duncan of Milltown, predeceased him by a few years.

The funeral was held at his late home Friday afternoon, Rev. B.D. Earle officiating. The large attendance of friends and numerous floral tributes reflected the regard in which he was held. Two favorite selections, "The Old Rugged Cross," and "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me," were sung by a male quartet. Pallbearers were Roy Speedy, John T. Weatherby, D.A. Nesbitt, James Gallant, and William C. Hamilton. Floral tributes were received from a number of organizations and business firms including Kirk McColl Church. Interment took place in the Rural Cemetery.

Obituary:

The Commercial, Chatham, NB, 15 June 1909

Death removed a well known citizen Thursday morning when James M. Cassady died quite suddenly at his home in Lower Water Street. Though ailing for some time he was not considered seriously ill and he ate a hearty meal on Wednesday evening. He felt as well as usual Thursday morning and asked for his breakfast. While his wife was preparing something, however, she heard a gasp and going in found her husband breathing his last. Mr. Cassady had conducted a grocery store in Water street for some years. He leaves his wife and five children. His mother and two brothers, Dr. David, of Salt Lake City, and William, of Arizona; and a half-brother, George, of Vancouver, also survive. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Orange Order. About fifty members of True Blue Lodge L. O. L. No. 90 of which deceased was a member, marched in the procession which was headed by the 73rd regimental band. Rev. Geo. Wood conducted the services at the house and at the grave. County Chaplain J. W. S. Babkirk, of Loggieville, took charge of the services of the Order. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery.

Notes for William Alexander Vye:

Donna Dempsey of the MSA Museum and Archives has kindly provided a copy of the short biography of William Alexander Vye that appeared in the local history publication, "One Foot on the Border", researched, and written by Daphne Sleight. The biography reads:

"Alex Vye was a settler who only lived in the district for a year or so, yet had both a road and an inter-urban station named after him. During his transient stay from 1893 to 1894, Alex lived near the Hungtingdon end of what is now Vye Road. At that time it was only a trail, which was used by Alex Vye and William Porter to get to their respective homes. It was known as the Vye and Porter Road. But before long, other interests in Victoria took priority with Alex and he hastened back there, leaving little impression behind him. The Porters, on the other hand, became permanent settlers, whose descendents still farm the same land, yet...the road kept the name of Vye and dropped the name of Porter. Alex Vye was a single man at the time he lived in Upper Sumas, but married Edith Hedley in Victoria in 1907. He died prematurely in 1913 at the age of 28."

Obituary:

The Commercial, Chatham, NB, 15 June 1909

Death removed a well known citizen Thursday morning when James M. Cassady died quite suddenly at his home in Lower Water Street. Though ailing for some time he was not considered seriously ill and he ate a hearty meal on Wednesday evening. He felt as well as usual Thursday morning and asked for his breakfast. While his wife was preparing something, however, she heard a gasp and going in found her husband breathing his last. Mr. Cassady had conducted a grocery store in Water street for some years. He leaves his wife and five children. His mother and two brothers, Dr. David, of Salt Lake City, and William, of Arizona; and a half-brother, George, of Vancouver, also survive. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Orange Order. About fifty members of True Blue Lodge L. O. L. No. 90 of which deceased was a member, marched in the procession which was headed by the 73rd regimental band. Rev. Geo. Wood conducted the services at the house and at the grave. County Chaplain J. W. S. Babkirk, of Loggieville, took charge of the services of the Order. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery.

The following was received from Linda Poepoe on 19 Apr 2011:

I was looking at some old newspaper clippings that were saved by my Father. He worked at Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica, California during WWII. The newspaper article I have shows how the factory was camouflaged during the war. Next to the picture is an article about the death of Lloyd L. Vye in 1945.

You may already have this information. However, I thought I would share it with you just in case you only had the dates and not the particulars. Yve was a railroad switchman employed by the Los Angeles Harbor. He fell to his death beneath the wheels of a Harbor Belt Line railroad car as he worked at Berth 232C at the harbor (San Pedro). He was switching cars when he slipped and fell. In 1944 Vye filed his intention to run for Democratic congressman from the Seventeenth Congressional District but his petition was filed too late so that disqualified him.
