Dear Alex Calzareth:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) request received in this office August 4, 2006, regarding the subject: Frank Calzareth.

We have completed the review of all documents responsive to your request and have identified seven pages which are responsive to your request. Enclosed are six pages released in their entirety, and one page released in part pursuant to (b)(2) and (b)(7)(C). The basis for the redactions taken is as follows:

Exemption (b)(2) provides protection for records that are related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld under this exemption may relate to internal matters of a relatively trivial nature, such as internal personnel rules and practices which could consist of employee identification codes, computer login codes, policies regarding the use of parking facilities and breakrooms, employee leave policies and dress codes or internal matters of a more substantial nature, the disclosure of which would risk circumvention of a legal requirement, such as operating rules, guidelines and manuals of procedures for examiners or adjudicators.

Exempt (b)(7)(C) provides protection for personal information in law enforcement records, which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. We have withheld various information relating to third-party individuals. The types of documents and/or information withheld could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents that are considered personal.

The enclosed record consists of the best reproducible copies available. Old documents/records such as these are maintained on microfilm and the quality of the image is dependent on the condition of the original document when it was filmed.

In the event you wish to appeal this determination, you may write to the USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, 111 Massachusetts Ave., NW, 4th Floor, Washington, DC 20529, within 60 days of receipt of this letter. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Please be advised that the National Records Center does not process petitions, applications or any other type of benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. If you have questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a matter pending with the bureau, you must address these issues with your nearest District Office.

If you should have any additional questions about your request, please direct your inquiries to this office at the above address. You may also call us at 816-350-5570 or fax any correspondence to 816-350-5785.

Sincerely,

NOTICE OF DEED OF 1746

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

FLORA CALZADILLA
7000 South Wood Street

It is a well-known fact that the majority of the world's population is concentrated in the tropical and subtropical zones. These zones are rich in natural resources, but they are also the most vulnerable to environmental degradation. The United States, as a leading industrialized nation, has a significant impact on the environment, particularly in the tropical and subtropical zones. This impact is primarily due to the large amount of resources consumed by the United States, which are often sourced from these zones. The United States also exports a large amount of goods and services to these zones, which can lead to environmental degradation. Therefore, it is important for the United States to take steps to reduce its impact on the environment, particularly in the tropical and subtropical zones. This can be done by reducing consumption, improving resource management, and supporting sustainable development in these zones.
