Notes for Ignatz Wiessinger:

By Mary DeGayner, great-great-granddaughter

According to a Holy Rosary Church history about 50 families had settled here by 1880, almost all of them from the diocese of St. Poeltin in Purbach-Schrems, Lower Austria. Most bought their land from Yankee settlers who had not yet cleared it.

The Wiessingers left Lower Austria for America on the steamship Berlin, departing from Bremen, Germany. They arrived in Baltimore on May 3, 1870. They were among the first Austrians to arrive in Lima, WI. The ship's register, below, lists Ignatz and Theresa, their six children and spouses of the two married children, and three grandchildren. I added info in brackets to clarify relationships.

OLD SETTLER PASSES AWAY

The death of Ignatz Weissinger, one of the oldest men in this County, took place at the residence of his daughter Mrs. Ab. Gilmore in the town of Waterville - on the 3rd instant from paralysis. Mr. Weissinger was born at Schrems Austria July 15, 1820, and emigrated with his family to America in 1870 and settled in the town of Lima in this county where he engaged in farming until the death of his wife some eleven years ago when he was disposed of his farm and retired from active life. A man of industrious habits and genial disposition he was respected by his friends and loved by his relatives.

Since he sold his farm he made his home with his daughter Thersia and for the past year was in feeble health. He had attained a ripe old age and went down to the grave like a shock of ripened corn ready for the harvest. He leaves two sons, John of this city and Anton of Lima and three daughters Thersia Mrs. Ab Gilmore of Waterville, Barbara, Mrs. John Brunner and Mary, Mrs. John Spindler* of the town of Lima to mourn the death of a kind father who was always anxious for their welfare.

The funeral was held at the Catholic church in Lima yesterday morning, Rev. Nouver officiating. A large number of his friends and relatives were present at that time to pay their last token of respect to a departed friend. The remains were laid at rest in the cemetery near that church by the side of those of his departed wife.
