

Charles Jay Booth

Charles Jay Booth, age 75, passed away quietly at his home in Aguanga, Calif., on Aug. 5, 2011, after battling multiple illnesses.

Born Nov. 24, 1935 in Tooele, Utah to James and Alice Booth. He attended Central Elementary and Tooele High School. He had many fond memories about friends and family in Tooele.

Charles joined the military at age 17 and served in the South Pacific; at this time he met and married Julieta Zamudio. They have been married for 56 years.

Charles worked for the Civil Service at Tooele Army Depot and later in San Diego, Calif. He considered San Diego his home.

He was a very quiet, private man who loved his family. He gave of himself without asking for anything in return.

Charles is survived by his wife, Julieta Zamudio; children Ana and Jose Marzan of Utah,

Julie Cairo of Utah, Bernice and Peter Iglesias of California, Charles and Sylvia Booth of Utah, and Alicia and Norman of California; brothers and sisters Janice (Vern), John (Pat), Tim (Sandy), Linda (Kim), Robert (Joanne). Preceded in death by his daughter Jaymie Anderson, parents James and Alice Booth, and brothers Dennis Booth and James Booth, Jr.

Viewing will be held Aug. 11 from 6-9 p.m. at Greenwood Memorial Park, 4300 Imperial Ave., San Diego Calif. Celebration of Life service will be held on Aug. 12, viewing from 9-11:30 a.m., services from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 3737 Valley Vista Way, Bonita, California 91902.