

Descendants of Jonathan WHITING

Generation 1

- Jonathan WHITING-1 was born on 26 Sep 1805 in Yalding, Kent, England^[1]. He died on 10 Dec 1856 in Benevolent Asylum, Camperdown, Sydney^[2]. He married Ellen BRADSHAW on 13 Aug 1838 in Hobart, Tasmania, Australia^[3], daughter of Thomas BRADSHAW and Sarah DAVENPORT. She was born on 1820 in Manchester, Lancs, England^[4]. She died on 01 Dec 1893 in 139 West Street, Petersham, Sydney^[5].

Notes for Jonathan WHITING:

Jonathan's death cert shows his age at death of 53 years which would put his birth at c1803 whereas other records indicate his birth in 1805.

This man lived a very eventful and interesting life and I have tried to record as much as possible on a website dedicated to him: www.whitings.id.au

From Tasmanian Archives Office - Census of 1843 has him, Ellen and five others in a house at Warwick Street, Hobart (indistinct). In the Census of 1848, he, Ellen and three others reside at 105 Argyle Street, Hobart.

The event which eventually claimed Jonathan's life was a brutal bashing by a revengeful Irishman and is fully covered on the website: . MJC 08/2012

Notes for Ellen BRADSHAW:

Lynda Bennett's notes 02/07: Unsure of birth date 1820 or 1824.

Ellen had 9 children with Jonathan Whiting and lost 5 of them as children. Jonathan died in 1856, before her youngest son Rowland was born. (not so, 1855 mjc)

In about 1858 she gave birth to a son, Edward.

Ellen died in 1893 of apoplexy. She was buried in the Church of England section of Rookwood Cemetery (BBB2254).

On Edwards birth certificate she says she is 35 in 1858 =1823

My note 02/07: It is unlikely she married Edward McCabe

Children of Jonathan WHITING and Ellen BRADSHAW are:

- Mary Ann WHITING, B: 12 Dec 1838 in Hobart, Tasmania^[6], D: 23 Dec 1838 in Hobart, Tasmania^[7].
Notes for Mary Ann WHITING:

She died on 27 Jul 1876 in Australia Street, Kingston (Newtown)^[67].

Notes for Walter Thomas WHITING:

Birth confirmed in Archives Office of Tasmania's Colonial Tasmanian Family Links pages.

When his daughter, Gertrude Louisa provided details of her father's death in 1923, she advised the registry that Walter Thomas' father was "Thomas Whiting, Bootmaker", his mother was "Elizabeth" and his place of birth was "England and lived in Aust about 60 years". None of these are correct and may have been deliberately provided to avoid the convict connection to Walter's father, Jonathan Whiting.

Children of Walter Thomas WHITING and Louisa Eliza TYE are:

Florence changed her middle name from Jessie to Rebecca before her marriage. Was this her Catholic name.

10th January, 1908 Florence gave birth to a girl, Vera Louisa, in a buggy at Petersham, on the way to the hospital. It is believed that the father was Frank Doyle.

Notes for William George RIDDING:

Lynda Bennett's notes 02/07: William was a coal miner for 3 years and also a builder. His marriage certificate in 1911 has his occupation as a labourer, and they lived at 32 Grove St. Camperdown.

He enlisted with the Army at Liverpool 5th October 1915 at 28 years of age. He was in D Company, 20th Battalion 3rd December 1915 to 20th January 1916.

He embarked from Sydney on the "Beltana" 13th May 1916 as No.166 Private William George Ridding in the 36th Australian Infantry Battalion, 9th Brigade, Australian Imperial Expeditionary Force. He arrived at Davenport 9th July 1916.

He was under Corporal Cook, A Company 36th Battalion from 1st March 1916 onwards. We believe he was a cook for the army.

He was very ill with pneumonia in Fargo Military Hospital 6th October 1916 coming from 28 Camp Lask Hill. 15th November 1916 he was discharged from hospital to duty. 22nd November 1916 the 36th Battalion marched out to details but William remained at Camp 26 and was 'struck off the strength of the battalion'. He marched into 9th Tng Btn Durrington from 3rd Division details 12th December 1916.

4th February 1917 he went from Number 11 Camp Durrington to Number 3 E Group. Medical reports dating 20th February 1917 state he was very ill with hepatitis.

7th March 1917 he marched out from 9th Tng Btn Durrington to Number 2 Camp Weymouth. He Embarked from Plymouth 8th April 1917. He spent 2 days on the ships hospital with ?scabies.

He arrived back in Sydney via Melbourne 9th June 1917 and disembarked from the "Barambah", a troop ship. Medical tests at Randwick Military Hospital 25th June 1917 revealed he had a Hydatid Cyst of the liver. He was discharged 31st July 1917 as medically unfit. He received a British War Medal and a Victory Medal. In 1918 he was living at 49 Fowler St. Camperdown.

The family was told he was "blown up" in the war and gassed and that he lost most of his bowel and it was replaced by that of a pig. He suffered from the effects of the war and finally swallowed his tongue. Nan remembers him being taken away in an ambulance. He died when he was only 36. He is reported to have told his sons Claude and Roy "If another war comes, stay out of the army and sell flags on the docks as the troop ships are leaving".

The birth certificate of William George David states that his father's occupation was a "pensioner".

He died on 07 Jan 1987 in Woronora, New South Wales, Australia^[110].

Notes for Eva May WHITING:

In February 2011, Chanta Bock wrote:

"Here are some details about Eva May Whiting.

Eva was married to James Neville Popple 1905 - 1987. What was most interesting was that the Popples were also part of the convict heritage. James's grandfather was John Popple also known as Pople who was convicted at the age of 21 for stealing a waistcoat and sentenced for 7 years. He was transported on the Royal Sovereign 2.

John Popple married Euphemia Parker was the daughter of James Parker, James was Irish, also a convict (I believe was court marshalled and give a life sentence) and Ann Young a convict from Scotland who was convicted with her sister also known as Euphemia for stealing cloth.

James's father, Joesph Hiho married Amelia Ann Adams, Amelia's grandfather was William Adams who was transported on the ship Susan in 1836.

Willams Adams made a love token for his sister (The convicts made love tokens for their families) which is at the Victorian Museum.

With such a convict history it is no wonder that my late in-laws didn't want to talked about their families. I guess it was still considered a shame, which I personally think is such a pity.

Back to Eva, Eva and James had four children. Bruce James Popple, still living, Ken Popple, still living, Keith John (my late husband) 1940 - 1997, Carol Thessman nee Popple still living.

It was Keith who was close to the Whiting family which is a pity that he is gone as he would have been so fascinated on the Whitings history.

Please let me know if you would like any further information and will be only too happy to supply.

Thank you and Best Regards,
Chanta"
