

"In March, 1836, four individuals, members of this society, namely, John Clark, Amos Chase, Benja. Chase, and Stephen Chase, engaged to sustain one twenty-fifth part of the "Herald of Freedom," which was issued at a very low price to subscribers, and distributed gratuitously to some extent, and upon the settlement of the accounts were assessed in the sum of fifty dollars, or twelve dollars and twenty-five cents each, which has been paid.

"In January, 1837, when the Rev. Mr. Root lectured in this place, a collection was taken up in behalf of the A. A. S. S., amounting to ten dollars and seventy-five cents, which was paid over to Mr. Root. Two other individuals gave him one dollar each.

"One hundred of the A. S. Almanack for 1838 has been purchased by Mr. Wm. B. Paine, which are in a course of distribution."

July 4th, 1837, the Rev. T. H. Miller, of Portsmouth, delivered an address on slavery in the Baptist meeting-house.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE MILITARY HISTORY OF CHESTER.

The first military law passed in New Hampshire was in 1718. All the means of knowing about the military organization in Chester is the titles prefixed to the names of the inhabitants. The first found on our records was in 1731. Samuel Ingalls has the title of captain; Ebenezer Dearborn of lieutenant; and Jacob Sargent of ensign; which is probably nearly as early as there was any military organization. Thomas Smith is lieutenant in 1732; John Tolford is captain, and Thomas Wells lieutenant, in 1744; Abel Morse is captain in 1746, and Thomas Wells in 1748; Thomas Craige is lieutenant, James Varnum is ensign, and Robert Calfe sergeant, in 1749; Enoch Colby is also ensign, and Eben Dearborn, Jr., sergeant, in 1749; Silvanus Smith lieutenant, in 1752; Samuel Robie in 1753; and Benaiah Colby in 1756; and Jonathan Blunt captain the same year. John Lane was appointed cornet of the ninth troop of the first regiment of cavalry, commanded by Col. John Downing, September 17th, 1754, by Benning Wentworth; John Tolford is major, and Andrew Jack lieutenant, in 1757; James Shirley is captain, and James Quantan ensign, in 1759. Henry Hall is ensign in 1761; Sam. Robie captain in 1764; Robert Wilson lieutenant in 1765; Captain Underhill, Lieutenant Joseph Basford, and Ensign Joseph True, in 1765; Oliver Morse and Henry Moore lieutenants, and Samuel Hazelton cornet, in 1766; Richard Emery major, in 1769; Andrew Jack captain, in 1770; Joseph True captain, Lieutenant Witherspoon, in 1775; Major French (Jabez), 1774; Hugh Shirley, 1775; David Witherspoon captain, and James Dunlap lieutenant, in 1766. Stephen Dearborn had a commission of captain under the king, May 3, 1767; and under Congress, September 5, 1775; major, March 25, 1785; lieutenant-colonel, April 5, 1793; resigned, September 18, 1800.

A militia law was passed, September 19, 1776, enrolling in train-bands all able-bodied men from sixteen to fifty years of age; exempting nearly all officers, ministers, Quakers, negroes, Indians, and mulattoes; each company to be mustered eight times a year.

Then there was to be an "alarm list," composed of all male persons from sixteen to sixty-five years of age not included in the train-band, with some exceptions, if of sufficient ability, to be inspected twice a year. The captains of the alarm list by custom had a brevet title of colonel. There was to be a military watch kept by those belonging to the train-band and alarm list, under the direction of the commissioned officers of the town.

In looking over the rolls of the men in the French and Indian wars from 1745 to 1760, in the Adjutant-General's Report, vol. II., 1866, I find the following Chester names, although it is not certain that they were all Chester men; and some Chester men may have been overlooked.

In the winter of 1745-6, Captain John Goffe had a company of thirty-seven men scouting the woods on snow-shoes, of which Samuel Brown was a sergeant; under Jeremiah Clough, Henry Ervine; under Andrew Todd scouting at Canterbury, 1746, Archibald Miller, Adam Wilson, William McMaster, John Grimes and James Wilson. Adam Wilson and Archibald Miller afterwards lived in Chester, but probably went from Londonderry.

Captain Daniel Ladd's company, at Canterbury, 1746: Enoch Rowel, Zebedee Berry, Paul Healey, Samuel Moore, and John Nutt; William Presson and Henry Ervine, July to December, 1746; Samuel Moore again in 1747. Daniel Foster (lived near Martin's Ferry) was in Eastman's company. Under Moses Foster at Suncook, John Moore, John Carr. John Webster was lieutenant in John Goffe's scouting party in 1748; he might have been Col. Webster of Chester. He was afterwards captain and raised a scout of twenty men, and none of them Chester men; it is probable that he was not the man. In what way the men composing these scouts were raised, whether by voluntary enlistment or impressment, or both, I do not know.

It has been seen that in 1747 the town voted to petition the Governor and Council "to stop, and save any more men being sent out of the town into the service, and to have a suitable number of men kept in the service in our own town." In 1748 there were petitions sent from different parts of the town to the captains, and by John Tolford and Thomas Wells to the Governor and Council for men; but probably Chester never had any direct aid. (See 1747 and 1748 in the history.)

In the expedition against the French Forts, DuQuense, Niagara and Crown Point, in the winter of 1755, New Hampshire furnished a regiment of six hundred men, under Col. Joseph Blanchard, in which the following Chester names appear: Joseph Morril, Daniel Martin, Caleb Dalton, Robert Gordon, John Shackford, Nathan Morse, Saml. Towle, Samuel Emerson (son of Saml. Emerson, Esq., died at Albany, Nov. 17, 1755), Robert Kennedy, John Rowe, John Craig, Saml. Dudley, James Eaton, John Hall, clerk, (might have been the first town clerk of Derryfield,) Ithiel Gordon, James Fulerton, Sam'l Daulton, Reuben Towl, Curtis Bean, John Dalton, Jonas Clay, William Aiken, Robert Witherspoon, William Wilson, Daniel Wilson, James Aiken, John Gage, Nathaniel Etherage.

For the expedition against Crown Point in 1756, New Hampshire raised a regiment of seven hundred men, under the command of Col. Nathaniel Meserve, of Portsmouth, in the roll of which the following Chester names appear: Jesse McFarland, William McMaster, John Nutt, Robert Gordon, Francis Towle, Joseph Dudley, John McClellan, Benja. Fuller, William Baker, Gideon Rowel, Ben. Bachelder, James Shirley.

In 1757 New Hampshire furnished a regiment of five hundred men for the Crown Point expedition. Chester names: Robert Kennedy, Hugh Quinton, John Carr, Samuel Towle, sergeant, Paul Healey, corporal, Benj. Bachelder, Edmund Elliott, Ebenezer Eaton, Samuel Hazelton, Amos Merril, Jonathan Towle, Stephen Dearborn.

The sixth company was commanded by Richard Emery. Richard Emery, of Chester, married Mary Blunt, 1765, and is styled major in Chester records in 1767. The Kennedys might have been Goffstown men, and the Chester Daltons did not spell their names Daulton.

In August, 1757, a reinforcement was sent to Charlestown No. 4, which served until November. Timothy Foss, David Webster, David Hill, Samuel Dalton, Isaiah Rowe, Benja. Fuller and Samuel Brown are Chester names.

There was a company sent in 1757 to garrison Fort William and Henry. Chester names: Benjamin Libley, Stephen Marden and Nathl. Rand.

In 1758 another regiment was sent to Crown Point, in which Samuel Towle is second lieutenant, and several Chester names before mentioned; and James Clay, Benja. Currier, Nath'l Wood, Hugh Quinton, Thomas Wason, John Mills, Joseph Linn, Mathew Templeton, Hugh Shirley, Robert McKinley, Oliver Morse, second lieutenant of the eighth company, Joshua Prescott, Ezekiel Morse and John Quimby.

In 1760 a regiment was raised to invade Canada. John Goffe was colonel, and Richard Emery, probably of Chester, major. Hugh Quinton, David Weatherspoon, James Graham, Archibald McDuffee, Robert McKinley, James Quinton, Hugh Shirley, Robert Wasson, James Weatherspoon, Samuel Haseltine, David Webster, Jacob Basford (died), Ebenezer Basford, Jonas Clay, David Craige, Jonathan Emerson, (son of Samuel Emerson, Esq., died at Crown Point, November 7th, 1760,) John Gage, Samuel Ingalls, John Karr, John Seavey, Titus Wells, Jacob Griffin, Stephen Webster, John Mills, Jacob Quimby, Nathaniel Maxfield and Nathaniel Rand were from Chester.

Besides the foregoing found on the rolls, it is said that Matthew, son of Samuel Gault, was an officer, and died at Cape Breton, 1759. His will was proved August, 1759. William Otterson, the grandfather of the Hooksett Ottersons, is said to have been in the army and drowned in crossing Lake Champlain in 1760. It has also been said that Abraham Morse was in the French war, and that Elijah Pillsbury was before Quebec when Wolfe was killed. He probably enlisted at Newbury. Wells Chase went from Newbury a campaign under Governor Shirley to Norridgewock in 1754, and was in the battle of Ticonderoga in 1758. Archibald McDuffee was in the French war. The king issued a proclamation, dated Feb. 19, 1754, offering certain bounties in land to such officers and soldiers as should enter his service against the French; and another proclamation, dated Oct. 7, 1763, ordering the land for the New England states to be laid off in the state of Virginia, about one hundred miles above the mouth of the Ohio river. In 1816, James Miltimore, of Windham, came along and procured powers of attorney from the Chester soldiers, among whom were Wells Chase, Robert McKinley, Matthew Templeton and Archibald McDuffee, empowering him to recover and sell the lands, and gave bonds back to pay them one half of all that he should receive. I think nothing further was heard about it.

The news of the battle at Lexington spread with amazing rapidity. Nathaniel Emerson received the news at midnight at Candia, and aroused the people, and drummer David Hill beat up for recruits, and Moses Dustin is said to have been the first to fall in, and he served through the war. They soon raised a squad, which soon started for the scene of the war. Probably more than half the able-bodied men started, with such arms as they had and with such conveyance as was at hand, and went to Cambridge, the headquarters of the army.* A portion of the men enlisted, and the rest returned home. So far as the action of the town of Chester is concerned, by votes in town-meeting, it has been given in the history of those years. The army rolls, and other papers relating to the war, are contained in eleven large volumes in the Adjutant-General's office. The matter is very voluminous and difficult to arrange, and I know of no better way than to give the rolls containing Chester men, always including Candia and Raymond, designating the respective towns, Chester A, Candia B, and Raymond C, so far as practicable. I will also supply any seeming deficiencies by documents or tradition.

According to the Report of the Adjutant-General, 1866, vol. 2, New Hampshire had three regiments in 1775; the first commanded by John Stark; the second by Enoch Poor; the third by James Reid. Stark's and Reid's were stationed at Medford, and were at Bunker Hill; and Col. Poor remained on duty at home. The tenth company of the third regiment was commanded by Hezekiah Hutchins, and Amos Emerson of Chester was lieutenant; and the names of David Currier, Josiah Morse, Peter Severance, Thomas Wilson and Samuel Moore appear on the roll. Capt. David Shaw says that William Gross, his mother's half brother, was in the Bunker Hill battle, under Emerson. There were two other men known to be in the battle whose names I have not found,—Caleb Hall, who went down at the time of Lexington battle and enlisted, and Dea. John Hills of Candia, who, while lying behind the rail fence stuffed with hay, had a ball strike his foot, which he picked up, and not fitting his gun, he brought it home. There is a letter from Parker Morse to Dea. Hills extant, directed to him as belonging to Hutchins' company at Mystic. Some of the men who went down at that time and staid, might have enlisted in Massachusetts regiments, before the New Hampshire ones were organized.

Chester and Londonderry probably belonged to one regiment up to 1775.

In Raymond records, June 15, 1775,

“Voted, to impower John Dudley, Esq., with some other persons, to nominate suitable persons for field-officers for the regiment that did belong to Col. Thornton’s regiment.

“Voted unanimously that they are willing that the said regiment should be divided into two regiments.”

Pay-roll of Capt. Stephen Dearborn’s company, Thomas Stickney’s regiment, in Gen. Stark’s brigade, which company marched from Chester, in the State of New Hampshire, and joined the Northern Continental army, 1777, from July 19 to September 18 :

In James Aiken's company for Rhode Island, 1778, Thomas Shirley, James Otterson, Samuel Davis; and Benj. True went to Rhode Island in Capt. Marston's company, 1777.

In the early part of the war the soldiers were mainly citizens, and enlisted for short terms, and many of them appear on several rolls, and with a degree of accuracy can be assigned to their respective towns; but later many strangers were enlisted, who, when their names appear on a roll, cannot be assigned to any town with any certainty. There are recruits credited to the towns, some without any mention of what companies they were assigned to, or what service engaged in.

There is a history of the First New Hampshire Regiment, by Frederic Kidder, 1868, containing a roll of the enlisted men who served between January, 1777, and January, 1782, which contains the names of John Knook and David Shirley of Chester, and of Thomas Capron of Candia, not on the foregoing list.

The foregoing is a list of the soldiers furnished by Chester, as correct as can be conveniently made from the army-rolls; but those cover so much ground, and so many strange names occur, which are not assigned to any particular town, that it is probably very incomplete. There are names of men on the town accounts to whom bounties were paid, and the names of others to whom notes were paid, probably for bounties, without being so designated, which mostly, if not all, are included in the foregoing rolls, so that it was not thought best to spend the time in collecting, and space in the History to print it.

Great exertion had to be used to raise men. The town was divided into classes, according to the number of men to be raised, and one or more men assigned to each class, which they were required to raise. The town was also classed to raise beef and corn for the army, and also to support the soldiers' families.

The following specimen of the requisitions was found among the papers of Col. Stephen Dearborn :

To Capt. Stephen Dearborn and Robert Rowe : Agreeably to an act of the General Court and a vote of the town, the following persons who are named, with the amount of their ratable estate, are to procure an able-bodied, effective man for the Continental service three years, or during the war, to be ready to be mustered in on or before the 10th day of May next, or pay the fine agreeable to law and vote of the town. You are desired to notify each one in this list to meet and prescribe such method as they shall think proper in order to procure s^d man.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE TOWN OF CHESTER IN REGARD TO SOLDIERS.

At a meeting held the 16th of May, 1861, the following preâmbles and resolutions were passed:

"Whereas, there exists open rebellion against the Government of this country, threatening the destruction of our glorious Union, and requiring the prompt action of every loyal citizen, therefore

"Resolved, that the town of Chester pay each man, citizen of the town, who may enlist or has enlisted into the government, the sum of eleven dollars a month, and three dollars additional to such of said men as have families, during such enlistment, and also provide to said men one rubber and one woolen blanket, fit for military service, provided they do not receive extra pay from any other state or town. Said sum of money to be paid on their return
