

Bess Nall

(January 23, 1919 - October 9, 2007)

Bess Nall, 88, of Lake City, died Wednesday morning at Lakeside Nursing Center in Lake City.

Born in the Mangrum community near Black Oak, Bess lived in Caraway before moving to Lake City 56 years ago. She was a L.P.N. and worked several years for George W. Jackson Center and St. Bernards Medical Center. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Lake City and an active member of the Lake City Senior Citizens.

Bess was a 1962 gradate of Jonesboro School of Nursing and was preceded in death by her husband, Len Nall; a daughter: Rachel Lou Nall; and by 2 brothers and 5 sisters.

Survivors include: 2 Daughters and Sons-in-law: Mary and Jim Robertson of Lake City, and Linda and Leonard Nelson of Paragould;

1 Son and Daughter-in-law: Larry and Sandra Nall of Lake City;

1 Sister: Lillian Robbins of Jacksonville, Florida;

1 Brother: Huston Smith of Paragould;

6 Grandchildren: Cindy Burton of Paragould, Brad Nelson of Jonesboro, and Laurie Talley, Len B. Nall, Blake Robertson and Heather Smith, all of Lake City;

9 Great Grandchildren, and 2 Great, Great Grandchildren.

Graveside funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10:00 at Pine Log Cemetery with Rev. Ron Langston officiating.

Pallbearers include: Brad Nelson, Len B. Nall, Blake Robertson, Randel Talley, Larry Burton, Bruce Smith, Patrick Lenderman and Cory Burton.

Visitation will be held Thursday evening, 5-8, at Emerson Funeral Home in Lake City.

For lasting memorials, the family asks that consideration be given to the Pine Log Cemetery Association, 11656 Hwy. 49, Brookland, AR 72417.