Smith

BYRON, Mich. -- Herbert R. "Jolly" Smith, 72, of Byron, formerly of Fenton, Mich., died Saturday, Aug. 7, at his residence.

Born at Black Oak, he had lived in Fenton before moving to Byron in 2002 and worked 20 years as a press operator for Fisher Body, General Motors. He retired in 1981 and was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Otisville, Mich., the Elf Khurafeh Shrine and United Auto Workers.

Survivors include a son, Barton Smith of Byron; four sisters, Margie Lucille Skinner of Flint, Mich., Bessie Leona Nall and Mabel Beatrice Adams, both of Lake City, and Lillian Corene Robbins of Jacksonville, Fla.; a brother, Huston Smith of Paragould; and two grandsons, Zachary Smith and Spencer Smith.

A memorial service is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sept. 11 at Pine Log Cemetery near Brookland.

Streeter Funeral Home of Byron is in charge of arrangements.
