

The Decatur Review
Saturday Evening, December 20, 1919

Louis Joubert

---

LOUIS JOUBERT.

The funeral of Louis Joubert was held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles McCormick, 1042 West Decatur street. The services were conducted by Rev. Elisha Safford, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church. There was a large attendance, members of Dunham post, 141, G. A. R., being present in a body and conducting their ritualistic exercises.

The music was furnished by Mrs. Corydon C. Nicholson and Mrs. Homer Bateman.

The active pallbearers were J. B. Stocks, Roy Phillips, Samuel Phillips, C. E. Hildreth, W. Lihurst and T. J. Wright.

The honorary pallbearers were Jacob Hanes, Henry Barnhart, L. W. Nichols, J. T. Belden, Samuel S. Welley and J. T. Francis. The interment was in Greenwood cemetery.