

In the name of God, Amen. I Samuel Gilliland of the County of Shelby and State and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare, this to be my last will and testament

That is to say, First after all my lawful debts are paid, and discharged, the residue of my estate, real and personal I give, bequeath and dispose of as follows, To wit, To my beloved wife, all my real and personal property to have and to hold, and to have full power to Contract, to buy or to sell any portion thereof either real or personal, and to make a legal and warranted title to any portion or all forever

And that my beloved wife (Elizabeth Gilliland) shall give to each one of my children at the age of twenty one years, or when they are lawfully married, one thousand dollars in money or property to that amount as she may decide, and if my beloved wife wishes to do so, she may give to each one of my children as they arrive to the age of twenty-one years or are lawfully ^{married} fifteen hundred dollars either in money or property at a fair valuation

And at the death of my wife the residue of my property to be equally divided among all my children, after deducting the amount that each or any of my children may have received so as to make them all equal sharers of my property. And furthermore, that my wife shall give a Bond without Security for the faithful execution of this my last will and testament, and that she has full liberty to remove any portion of my property from this county or state at her will and pleasure, annual settlements with the courts.
