Editor's Message

Well, here we go again!

This April issue has been interesting to write. It was literally during the end of the month of May that I decided a number of things: 1) Now is the time to restart the newsletter, and thus a vigorous subscription drive, 2) To visit the Family History Library in Salt Lake City during the first of July and gather more generic Franklin information which doesn't relate to my line, rather to all lines. I'll report on this visit in the July Issue!

Past issues of the newsletter are also available:

Volume	Pages	Cost
Charter	97	$ 7.50
Ancestral Lineage Cross Reference (1993)	14	2.00
Pedigree Volume (1993)	211	15.00
First 5 years Index (Vols 1-20)	56	5.00
1 - 22, 24	53 (avg)	5.00 ea
23	145	10.00
Andrea Papers (6 parts and index)	173	12.50
Entire Collection through volume 23	1642	140.00

The prices listed above include postage in the continental US and are in US Dollars.

Please note: These have been reformatted slightly by the software that I use, and re-indexed. A comprehensive index will also be available when I have reformatted all of these. I have called my version the "2nd Edition". If you have the originals, which Elaine published, I would not recommend purchasing a copy of the 2nd Edition. For many of these, if you want a copy of the original, you may get it directly from Elaine - she still has some back issues.

Like many of you, I have been responding to queries for free for many years. I have been corresponding with a number of you and already have over 800 recent E-mail messages about FFRU. This is really chewing up the time that I have committed to YOU, my subscribers, to work on this newsletter. Starting in July, 1999, queries regarding my personal lines will still be free. All searches for FFRU subscribers will continue to be free. Searches for non-subscribers will be $5.00 each. This is in keeping with the policies that Elaine used and is in harmony with the fact that these queries are using up more and more of my time, which reduces the time I can devote to the interests of FFRU.

FFRU Charter

Ben Franklin, Editor
5847 Sandstone Drive
Durham, NC 27713-1925

Dedicated to the research and preservation of the surname

Franklin

Organized January 1991

Purpose:

- To unite & assist those researching the Surname of Franklin
- To publish a quarterly consisting of Franklin Research in January, April, July & October.
- To maintain a computer database of the Franklin Surname and allied lines for the assistance of Franklin Family Researchers United members.
- To provide focus reports, pedigree charts & family group sheets of computer databases (which consists of 200,000 Franklin & allied names) free of charge to FFRU members. These reports are provided for nonmembers for $5.00 per search plus 10¢ per hardcopy page. All search fees will be used to purchase source materials for the benefit of all FFRU members.
- To encourage all members to submit any well-documented Franklin research for publication.
- To encourage all members to submit pedigree charts, family group sheets and any other materials that will assist us in maintaining and updating our computer database.
- To solicit unlimited queries from members as well as non- members. These queries will be published, at the discretion of the editors, free of charge and must have a Franklin connection.
- To encourage members to submit family publications (or any other books deemed of interest to other members) for review in our quarterlies. Books submitted for review become a part of FFRU Library after being reviewed.

Regarding conflicting information, I will be unable to arbitrate disputes. The single best way to resolve them is by collaboration and sharing of source documents. Researchers can then weigh the facts and present their reasoning and conclusions. This is a very important function of this group.

She lived in a efficiency apartment in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for about the last 10 years of her life as I knew of it. I have in my possession 2 of her paintings. It is my belief that she died in December not in March and it was later than 1971, but this I will see what I can dig up as sources. She was unmarried at the time of death. All her possessions went to her sister Juliet except what my mother kept behind and I have with me. I know my mom had more paintings, but I believe Juliet took them to Mississippi with her after my mom died (Mary), and from there they could have been stolen like so many of Juliet's things were after she started to lose her mental awareness, or they are lost in her son's house and still to be found. In Memoriam

"God's finger touched him and he slept."

"It is enough, my child, come home!"

Gently, lovingly, came the call from the Great All Father and the tired worn body succumbed and the loving, hopeful ambitious spirit obeyed. The anxious ones standing round could not mourn the change for with it surely came a wealth of peace, and infinite joy to the dear one. "Strong son of God, immortal love."

Whom we, that have not seen Thy face

By faith and action do love embrace

Believing where we cannot prove

Thou madest Life

Thou madest Death

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust

Thou art just!

It was one hour after noon on the ninth of March eighteen hundred ninty [sic] seven when the summons came to George Gatch Shigley, son of George and Olivet Shigley. He had on January 17 passed his 71st year, having been born in 1826. His parents were early settlers in Ohio, near Jamestown, where he and four brothers and seven sisters were born and spent their youth. Of this large family, the two youngest brothers and one sister are still living.

The subject of this sketch married Mary Ann M. Boots in 1848 and they trod the path of life together for 28 years when she was called to 'come up higher.' At the time of her death, of the eight children who had come to their home, the two oldest daughters were married and the oldest son had begun the battle of life away from home. Those who remained, though with bleeding hearts, heroically tried and to a great extent succeeded in keeping up their happy home for many years. The younger ones will always feel a boundless gratitude toward the kind father and the older ones, who as far as possible supplied them with mother love and care in those years.

Mr. Shigley was a kind wise father. He was a great reader and an intelligent citizen, never fearing to talk and act for what he deemed to be right. He strongly, and sometimes bitterly, opposed the liquor traffic and often and in many ways aided "slaves to drink" in their efforts to reform. For 12 years previous to his death he stood on the platform of total legal prohibition for the State, the Nation, and the World. For this he was often severely censured by many of his friends, but he never swerved from it, feeling strongly that he was on the right side. He was a member of the M.E. Church from his youth. His favorite religious maxim was, "Deal justly, love mercy and walk humbly before thy God." In 1883 he married Mrs. E.A. Green who still lives. During his last illness he was confined to his room three weeks, two of which he suffered much pain supposed to come from the stomach, liver and bowels, of coughing and being short of breath, which prevented his lying down thus it was impossible for him to sleep but very little. All this time he was most patient and easily waited upon. All that a skillful physician and kind friends could do was done for him. Finally the pain became less and for the last week he lay and slept much. He frequently asked for Scripture and hymns and evinced calm trust in God as his Father and Jesus as his Savior. Dr. Stevenson, his last pastor often visited him, and preached his funeral sermon from 1 John 3:1-3. The services were held at the M.E. Church in Jamestown, on Thursday, the eleventh and when the sun was sinking to rest his body was borne lovingly to the beautiful "City of the Dead" there to await its Creator's will. He "lives in God, That God, which ever lives and loves, One God, one law, one element,

And one far-off divine event,
To which the whole creation moves.”

Correction to Andrea Papers

by Diane Franklin <diane_franklin@hotmail.com>

On Page 18 it lists Hiram Terry Fant Franklin m. Minnie Boyd. It should be Hiram Perry Franklin m. Minnie Boyd Shealy. (These is my husband's parents). Also when he mentions Benjamin Franklin (father of Charley Herbert Franklin) his first name is William.

End of the Line?

I'd like to throw out a few generalities. I think I'm aware of at least a few contradictions and exceptions to all of the statements that I'm about to make, but here goes... Ninety percent of the lines that researchers trace in the United States can be extended to the generation who were adults in 1850, but quite a few of us are "stuck" when it comes to extending the lines beyond this by a generation or two. Why is this?

What takes us to this point is a rich variety of records. For those who have died in the United States since approximately 1910, there are death certificates which can be very helpful. The US Census, after 1850, is a wonderful resource. By 1850, many counties were keeping quite a few types of records, including probate (Wills), marriages, births deeds, etc.

The Civil War was catastrophic from a the standpoint of record-keeping. Many, many records were irretrievably lost. Don't lose heart, however. Even when the courthouse was burned to the ground, many records have been reconstructed, found and otherwise preserved.

So how do you extend it back into the 18th century? Here are a few guidelines: Remember that county lines and jurisdictions changed over the years. The first place I look to familiarize myself with these changes is Everton's Handybook For Genealogists. I should mention that the latest edition of this is about twice as thick as the previous edition. They have added references for many foreign countries. The Canadian section is particularly good. If you do not have a copy of this, you'd best get one. You can probably borrow a copy at your local library.

Remember that when you get back this far, researchers have probably been this way ahead of you and many have published their attempts. This can save you years of searching for records, in that they may have already identified many documents which can give you a headstart in understanding what is missing. The best place to go for this type of information is the Family History Library Catalog. You can view this on-line at www.familysearch.org or at your locale Family History Center. For the Franklin surname, you can download a copy of the references to the 130 + books about Franklins from the FFRU website. I have been publishing a series of reviews of these books in FFRU, starting in Volume 26.

Some of the records to look for: Probate, church, family bibles, county histories and deeds to land. Although I look for vital records, I don't expect them to be there, because most counties didn't keep them. In the late 1800's and early 1900's, many counties were celebrating their centennials and sesquicentennials. Many counties published books about their history. Even if your ancestor was not mentioned, by studying these you can learn about the events which had profound effects on their lives.

Does the documentation exist to prove your ancestry one more generation? Maybe not. It might actually not be possible, no matter how much time and money you pour into the project. On the other hand, new documents are brought to light every day. Perhaps the earlier researchers did not have access to some newly-unearthed document. My recommendation: get copies of all the the documents that previous researchers have used, and keep on the lookout for new source material. As you persist, you will always be able to find people who have guesses about the parentage of you ancestor. Ask for sources and use these to form your own conclusions.

Good Luck!

James Franklin born 3 Jan 1770, died 11 Jul 1825 Remsen NY, married Dolly (Gilbert?) (born about 1774, died 11 Apr 1813). James Franklin is believed to be the son of Asa and Sarah (Paine) Franklin of Providence RI. Asa, born 28 Jan 1740, died 26 June 1801, was the son of Gideon Franklin and Mary (Chaffee) Franklin. Sarah Paine was born about 1743, died 20 Dec 1827. Asa and Sarah's other children were: Sarah, born 1 July 1762, married John Olney Waterman 1 Jan 1784; Benjamin, born 8 Apr 1766, married _____ and had a son (probably George B) by 1790; and (probably) Henry P(aine?) of Providence born 20 Nov 1777, married Hannah Allen Sep 1801 and had sons Daniel B and Edward C, and daughter Eliza.

Would be interested in confirmation of this family, as well as additional data on Asa's descendants.
