James A. Franklin was born at Athens in Limestone County, Alabama on 22 Feb 1828. His father was probably of Riley Franklin. He died at Sparta, Christian County, Missouri on 28 May 1911 and is buried Linden Cemetery in that county.

On 21 Feb 1907, James A. Franklin filed a Declaration for Pension for service with the Union forces during the Civil War. He declared his age to be 78 and was resident of Stark, Kansas. He further states that he enrolled at Rolla, Missouri on 27 Nov 1861 as a private with Company H; Phelps Regiment of Missouri Volunteers.

He was discharged at Springfield, Missouri, 12 May 1862. He gave his physical description as follows: 5 feet 7 1/2 inches in height; dark complexion, dark hair and blue eyes.

He gives several places of residence since leaving the service. They were: Taney County, Missouri for 16 years; Neosho County, Kansas in March 1879 for 15 years; at town of Washburn in Barry County, Missouri in Fall of 1899 for 6 years; Miami District in the Indian Territory, Oklahoma in Fall 1900 for 3 years; McDonald County, Missouri in 1903 for 1 year; Stark County, Kansas in 1904. His claim was attested to by D. D. Clements and D. G. Smith of Stark, Kansas. Mr. Clements stated that he was familiar with Mr. Franklin for 47 years. Mr. Smith had known him 25 years. It should be noted that on the 1870 census for Taney County, Missouri in the Jasper Twp was a David D. Clements, age 29 born in Ohio. His wife, Susan P. 26 born Tennessee. Children were Francis A., (male) age 3; Amanda J., age 1.

Many years prior to James A. Franklin's application for pension, he had filed papers for injuries he suffered while serving with Missouri Volunteers. According to documents supplied by the National Archives, James submitted a series of supporting documentation for his injury claim. On 18 Jun 1880 while living in Neosho, and resident of Chard, James (age 52) claimed that during his service at the time of the Civil War and while in the process of moving a heating stove he received severe burns to his hand, which apparently were serious enough to cause permanent damage.

A statement made by William Abbot Sr. confirmed that he, "waited on him while he had said Catarrh." A separate form was supplied by a John Roberston who testified that he served with James A. Franklin and was an eye-witness to the incident.

According to Roberston the injury incurred, "in his left hand by helping to adjust a heating stove in a hospital at Cassville, Missouri which injury resulted in what is commonly called a catarrh of a very malignant nature, which incapacitated him from duty from that time until he was discharged...I have known him the said James A. Franklin ever since about 1860."

It is curious that despite the serious nature of his injury while with the Army, James A. Franklin seemed to manage quite well during the period from the 1860 census to the 1870 census. According to the 1860 enumeration, James' estate was valued at $321. In 1870, his real and personal property were valued at $1800. Unfortunately, the record is silent on his financial goings-on for this period. It may be that he was given an estate settlement, or he prospered through a more lucrative industry. Some family descendants claim James ran and sold horses in the Indian Territory.

James A. Franklin was married three times. His first wife, Lou Ann Park, died of illness while living in Neosho County, Kansas. James stated that he married Lou Ann Park at Johnson County, Arkansas in 1849. James remarried Mahala Ball, a widow whom he was neighbors with while living in Taney County, Missouri prior to his move to Kansas. Mahala's first husband was killed by bushwhackers during the war years. James married for a third time late in life to Alice Sullivan. She died in Christian County, Missouri. Examination of her estate records produced no worthwhile genealogical information. There was no mention of kin in the immediate vicinity, though descendants seem to remember her with fondness. This was not the case with Mahala Ball. Mahala and James A. Franklin had a bitter divorce and she filed papers charging him with abandonment.

Letter from the Editor

Well, It looks like we all survived the “millennium bug!” Looking back from our perspective now, it seems that the various disaster scenarios are completely ridiculous, but at the time the concern was quite real.

Thus we begin a new year of the Franklin Family Researchers United newsletter. I hope you all have a prosperous and productive year!

I have finally gotten around to importing a few databases into The Master Genealogist, which is one of the genealogy programs that I use. I now have about 3 million names, which I am in the process of evaluating. There are still quite a few to be added to my database. I would be happy to add your GEDCOMs to this database. I use this primarily to answer queries and to help researchers get in touch with one another.

I maintain a database of researchers and subscribers. I use this for mailing lists and to help you get in touch with one another. I have over 600 Franklin researchers in this database, and I have quite a few more to add.

The FFRU Library has received the long-term loan of the Social Security Death Index. I know that it comes with several genealogy programs, so many of you have a copy of it, and it's available on-line.

In this issue, I will stop publishing a page of policies and subscription information. If you are receiving this, you are probably a subscriber already. The policies and subscriber information, in addition to the year's financial report, will be published in the last volume of the year.

This volume also contains the first biography of a famous Franklin, North Carolina's Governor Jesse Franklin. I hope to continue this as an ongoing feature. There are other famous Franklins (in addition to the obvious one), including General William Buel Franklin (1823-1903) of Civil War fame, Governor Jesse Franklin's brother Meshack Franklin (1772-1839) North Carolina legislator and U.S. Congressman, and Sir John Franklin the famous explorer.

I had too much data for the former website, so I have found a new, larger home for the web presence of FFRU. The new URL is:

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~ffru/>

At the beginning of this message, I wished you a productive year. I hope each of you meets relatives you didn't know before, finds the documents which have eluded you, collaborates with other researchers and takes the opportunity to share your findings this year.

I look forward to a great year for Franklin research with you!

Notes on Easom DeKalb Franklin

In the previous issue of FFRU, Volume 27, there was an article about Easom DeKalb Franklin. One of the contributors to that article has come upon a document that has his name as Easom Davenport Franklin. In an E-mail from 24 Nov 1999, Leatha Betts <jlabetts@burgoyne.com> states:

By the way, in Lydia Franklin's [War of]1812 [Pension] ... application in 1887, she states that Easom's middle name was not DeKalb, but Davenport... his name was Easom Davenport Franklin...husband of Martha Talbert.

And from a later E-mail:

I believe it was because Georgia had a DeKalb County, a famous person named for it... Easom did name some of his sons with the DeKalb middle name...

This is an interesting theory. There are quite a few researchers who think his middle name is "DeKalb". Easom was born circa 1780. DeKalb County was named in 1812, so he certainly couldn't have been named after the county, however it is correct that there was a very famous DeKalb, who, incidentally, died the same year that Easom was born. From the DeKalb County Historical Society's web page:

<<http://www.dekalbhistory.org/>>

Baron Johann De Kalb, the French army officer for whom DeKalb County is named, was neither French nor a Baron. The son of a German peasant, De Kalb left home at the age of sixteen to become a French soldier of fortune. There he found that only noblemen could become officers, so he gave himself the title of "baron". De Kalb was one of several foreign soldiers to offer their services gallantly in the Battle of Camden, S.C. on August 16, 1780 and died there after being wounded eleven times. He was the only general in the American Revolution to die on the battlefield, fighting next to the average foot soldier. Six counties in the United States are named for De Kalb, making it the third most popular name for counties in the nation.

Notes about "Davenport:" Several facts stand out about the possibility that his correct name was "Easom Davenport Franklin". There definitely is another person named "Eason[sic] Davenport Franklin", born ca 1870¹ (i.e. about 90 years after Easom DeKalb Franklin). The Davenport name does otherwise figure into this line. One of Easom DeKalb Franklin's daughters has the middle name of Davenport. In addition, although there is no known connection between this line and the lineage of the famous Statesman, Benjamin Franklin's sister, Sarah (1699 - 1731), married a James Davenport (married 3 May 1722).

Remember that the affidavit for the widow's pension application was given in 1887, almost 50 years after Easom died (died 1841). Although his own wife should know his name, this is still a rather remote, secondary source. The question remains: Why do so many researchers think his middle name is DeKalb? What do the records of his probate say? What does his tombstone say? All of the original records that I have in my possession (marriage, and census) have just a "D." as the middle name. If anyone can shed light on this, please do so. - Editor.

More information about this line from Leatha Betts, about Easom's second wife, Lydia:

...she was originally Lydia Stafford, she married Edward Lemuel Howard 19 Feb 1827 in Leon County Florida...he died by drowning on the Ociella River in Florida 8 Jun 1832. She then remarried Easom D. Franklin in Thomas County Ga. in 1834.

FHL Call Number: US/Can Book Area 929.273; W754wp

Author: Wise, P. Franklin (Paul Franklin), 1954-

Title: James Franklin and Hannah Virginia Wise, their ancestors and descendants, from 1735 to 1984: with information on related lines, including Barnes, Gregg, and Aikens families / compiled by P. Franklin Wise.

Contents: Henry Wise (died 1811) married Elizabeth Young in 1784, and moved from Culpepper County, Virginia to Gallatin County, Kentucky. Descendants and relatives lived in Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Louisiana, Wyoming, California and elsewhere.

Includes Franklin, Logue, Thompson and related families.

Earliest Franklin Progenitor: Claude H. Franklin, born 28 Feb 1897, Boulder, Boulder County, Colorado, married Anna Laura Wise. He died 26 Dec 1964 in Casper, Wyoming.

My Observations: Despite the fact that from the title this appears to be a book about "James Franklin," it is actually a book about "James Franklin Wise". Nonetheless, it does coincidentally contain a little information about Franklins. The book is a photocopy of reproduction of dot-matrix printout. It contains four family group sheets that include the above-mentioned Franklins as parents and a one page narrative about Franklins.

Book Review - History of the Foster - Franklin branch of our Simmons family tree

Call Number: US/Can Book Area 929.273; A1; no. 1472

Author: Simmons, Howard Franklin, 1919-

Title: History of the Foster - Franklin branch of our Simmons family tree / compiled by Howard Franklin Simmons.

Publication Information: [Austin, Minnesota: H.F. Simmons, 1988].

Contents: Isaac Foster (1737-1821) settled on land in the Wyoming Valley in what is now Luzerne and Bradford Counties, Pennsylvania, probably moving from Connecticut. He married twice, and his second wife was Abigail Franklin. His son, Rufus (1767-1832), also married a Franklin, as did his grandson, Alfred (1801-1837/1840). Descendants and relatives lived in Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana, Illinois and elsewhere.

Additional Formats: Also on microfilm. Salt Lake City: Filmed by the Genealogical Society of Utah, 1994. on 1 microfilm reel; 35 mm. US/Can Film Area; 1698059; item 123 Earliest Franklin Progenitor: Jonathan Franklin, born 1715, married Elizabeth Blackman (daughter of Elisha Blackman and Susanna (--?--) Blackman, died 3 July 1778. This Jonathan was brother to Roswell Franklin, Sr.

Roswell Franklin, Sr., son of John Franklin and Hulda Arnel _____, born 26 August 1739, Middlesex County, Connecticut, married 1) 22 September 1760 Jerusha Hicock at Southbury, Litchfield County, Connecticut. Roswell married 2) 22 June 1783, Mrs. Elizabeth Lester. He died in the spring of 1792.

My Observations: Contains some generalizations about Franklin immigrations, particularly from Connecticut to Bradford County, Pennsylvania and Luzerne County, Pennsylvania. Book is a typewritten manuscript, including a few photocopies from county histories, and photocopies of some original documents.

Jesse Franklin, Governor of North Carolina (1820-1821)

Ben Franklin, Editor FFRU. Upon review, although Governor Jesse Franklin has been mentioned in several articles in previous volumes of FFRU, there are no biographies of him found here, so I decided to write one.

Jesse Franklin was born in Orange County, Virginia,² 24 Mar 1760, son of Bernard Franklin and Mary (Cleveland) Franklin (daughter of Colonel Benjamin Cleveland). Jesse married Meeky Perkins (daughter of Hardy Perkins of Rockbridge County, Virginia)³. He was largely self educated, having left school before the age of 12. He served in the Revolutionary War, first joining in Virginia in 1777. His parents' family moved to the Mitchell River area of Surry County, North Carolina in 1778, when Jesse was 18. He served in the Militia in North Carolina under his maternal Uncle, Colonel Benjamin Cleveland and was promoted to Major.

One incident of the conflict is described thusly:

“Those of the old Regulators, now Tories, that got home betook themselves to the woods like outlaws (I mean their leaders), and continued to commit depredations on the lives and properties of those who had been active against them. I myself was the first who fell a victim to their malice as to property. In a few days after the battle of the Bridge, a party assembled in the night at my residence, then in the midst of them, and set fire to my houses and burned them down. One of these was a well-finished dwelling house; another a storehouse, with about $3, 000 worth of goods and upwards of $1, 000 in cash, and all my books and papers for upwards of seven years' dealing. This stroke threw me into a complete state of bankruptcy. But Colonel Cleveland from the mountains came down with a party of men, scoured the country, picked up some of the outlaws, and hung several of them to trees in the woods. One of them - a Captain Jackson as he called himself - was hung within a half a mile of the place on which my houses had stood that he caused to be burnt. I do not recollect to have heard much more of those wretches after Cleveland had done with them.” (from an account written by Colonel Ransom Sutherland, in a letter written 10 April 1821, quoted in Biographical History of North Carolina, Vol IV, page 134)

Jesse fought in the battles of King's Mountain (7 October 1780) and Guilford Courthouse. He was active in guerilla warfare and was captured by the Tories who hung him...

2. This article in FFRU originally stated that he was born in North Carolina, however, he was born in Virginia, and did not come to North Carolina until 1777 (as pointed out in the article).
 3. I have been unable to locate a record of this marriage. In the IGI, it is listed as “circa 1781”, which seems to be a good guess. It is also listed as “circa 1761”, which is just plain wrong (Jesse was definitely only one year old at the time...) One of the biographies lists says “before 1790”. Their oldest child, Bernard, according to the census, was born in circa 1782, so a marriage circa 1781 (when Jesse was 21) seems like a good approximation.

“On one occasion a Tory party under Jo Lasefield captured him and had him ready to swing off, when he said, “You have me completely in your power! But if you hang me, it will prove the dearest day’s work you ever performed, for Uncle Ben Cleveland will pursue you like a bloodhound and he will never cease the chase while a solitary one of you survives!” (written by Lyman C. Draper, Ibid.)

Fortunately, when they hung him, they used his own bridle. It broke, dropping him back into his own saddle, allowing him to escape.

His political career began when he moved to Wilkes County and served as Justice of the Peace there in 1785. He was elected to the North Carolina State House of Commons 1784-1785, 1787, 1790-1793 from Wilkes County. He moved back to Surry county and served in the House of Commons from 1793-1795.

He served various terms as a U. S. Senator between 1798 and 1813.

From 1805 and 1817 he served as a trustee of The University of North Carolina, which is interesting in light of his own lack of formal education.

At age 60, weighing over 200 pounds and in poor health, on 5 December 1820 he was elected by a majority vote of the General Assembly and he was inaugurated two days later. He only served a one year term and declined to run again in 1821 due to declining health.

After nine months confinement due to dropsy or edema, he died on 31 August 1823 in at his home in Surry County and he was buried there. Later, in 1906, his body was reburied in the Guilford Court House National Military Park in Greensboro, North Carolina. His widow survived him and died 20 February 1834.

Due to his convictions regarding democracy, he would not allow his portrait to be painted. Once, when he was attending the legislature in Hillsborough⁴, he needed some shirts and ordered them from a seamstress, who adorned them in the latest style with ruffles and frills. He thought that such adornments did not become the representative of a plain people like his constituents and he removed them with his pocket knife.

Governor Jesse Franklin in Previous FFRU Articles

There is mention of Jesse Franklin in Volume 11 of FFRU, in a query from the standpoint of the Cleveland connection.

In Volume 3, in an article entitled “Bits and Pieces,” Jesse is listed in the Bernard Franklin estate settlement.

Another article in Volume 3, entitled, “Meshack & Mildred (Edwards) Franklin” contains a family group sheet for Meshack & Mildred (Edwards) Franklin, married 2 Feb 1802, researched by Bruce Cheeseman. Meshack Franklin was Jesse Franklin’s brother and was also actively involved in North Carolina politics.

Yet a third article in Volume 3, entitled, “Laurence Franklin”, includes Jesse as a possible descendant of the Laurence Franklin line. There are several anecdotes about Jesse’s service and life found in the body of this article. Editors Note: Although Jesse Franklin’s connection to his father, Bernard (aka Barnett) is well-doc-

4. During the latter portion of the revolutionary period, from 1776 to 1794, there was no fixed state capital in North Carolina. Much of the business of governing North Carolina took place in Hillsborough. The state capital nominally became Raleigh in 1792, and in 1794 it was made official.

umented, there is no known evidence which includes the identity of Bernard Franklin's father. One of the guesses is that it was Laurence because he was in the right place at the right time. On the other hand, several other Franklin families were also in the same area at the same time. Please refer to "The Riddle of the Henrys" by Eva L. Franklin, in Franklin Fireplace Vol 1, No. 4, Feb 1969, Pgs 106 - 110. for a more complete treatment of Franklin in early Virginia.

In Volume 26 there is a brief mention of Governor Jesse Franklin in the article entitled, "Book Review: The Cleveland Line."

Genealogical Standards

Standards For Sound Genealogical Research

Recommended by the National Genealogical Society

Remembering always that they are engaged in a quest for truth, family history researchers consistently—

- record the source for each item of information they collect.
- test every hypothesis or theory against credible evidence, and reject those that are not supported by the evidence.
- seek original records, or reproduced images of them when there is reasonable assurance they have not been altered, as the basis for their research conclusions.
- use compilations, communications and published works, whether paper or electronic, primarily for their value as guides to locating the original records.
- state something as a fact only when it is supported by convincing evidence, and identify the evidence when communicating the fact to others.
- limit with words like “probable” or “possible” any statement that is based on less than convincing evidence, and state the reasons for concluding that it is probable or possible.
- avoid misleading other researchers by either intentionally or carelessly distributing or publishing inaccurate information.
- state carefully and honestly the results of their own research, and acknowledge all use of other researchers’ work.
- recognize the collegial nature of genealogical research by making their work available to others through publication, or by placing copies in appropriate libraries or repositories, and by welcoming critical comment.
- consider with open minds new evidence or the comments of others on their work and the conclusions they have reached.

Standards For Using Records Repositories And Libraries

Recommended by the National Genealogical Society

Recognizing that how they use unique original records and fragile publications will affect other users, both current and future, family history researchers habitually—

- are courteous to research facility personnel and other researchers, and respect the staff’s other daily tasks, not expecting the records custodian to listen to their family histories nor provide constant or immediate attention.
- dress appropriately, converse with others in a low voice, and supervise children appropriately.
- do their homework in advance, know what is available and what they need, and avoid ever asking for “everything” on their ancestors.
- use only designated work space areas, respect off-limits areas, and request permission before using photocopy or microform equipment, asking for assistance if needed.
- treat original records at all times with great respect and work with only a few records at a time, recognizing that they are irreplaceable and that each user must help preserve them for future use.
- treat books with care, never forcing their spines, and handle photographs properly, preferably wearing archival gloves.
- never mark, mutilate, rearrange, relocate, or remove from the repository any original, printed, microform, or electronic document or artifact.
- use only procedures prescribed by the repository for noting corrections to any errors or omis-

- sions found in published works, never marking the work itself.
- keep note-taking paper or other objects from covering records or books, and avoid placing any pressure upon them, particularly with a pencil or pen.
- use only the method specifically designated for identifying records for duplication, avoiding use of paper clips, adhesive notes, or other means not approved by the facility, unless instructed otherwise, replace volumes and files in their proper locations, before departure, thank the records custodians for their courtesy in making the materials available.
- follow the rules of the records repository without protest, even if they have changed since a previous visit or differ from those of another facility.

Standards For Use Of Technology In Genealogical Research

Recommended by the National Genealogical Society

Mindful that computers are tools, genealogists take full responsibility for their work, and therefore they—

- learn the capabilities and limits of their equipment and software, and use them only when they are the most appropriate tools for a purpose.
- refuse to let computer software automatically embellish their work.
- treat compiled information from on-line sources or digital data bases like that from other published sources, useful primarily as a guide to locating original records, but not as evidence for a conclusion or assertion.
- accept digital images or enhancements of an original record as a satisfactory substitute for the original only when there is reasonable assurance that the image accurately reproduces the unaltered original.
- cite sources for data obtained on-line or from digital media with the same care that is appropriate for sources on paper and other traditional media, and enter data into a digital database only when its source can remain associated with it.
- always cite the sources for information or data posted on-line or sent to others, naming the author of a digital file as its immediate source, while crediting original sources cited within the file.
- preserve the integrity of their own data bases by evaluating the reliability of downloaded data before incorporating it into their own files.
- provide, whenever they alter data received in digital form, a description of the change that will accompany the altered data whenever it is shared with others.
- actively oppose the proliferation of error, rumor and fraud by personally verifying or correcting information, or noting it as unverified, before passing it on to others.
- treat people on-line as courteously and civilly as they would treat them face-to-face, not separated by networks and anonymity.
- accept that technology has not changed the principles of genealogical research, only some of the procedures.

Benjamin C. Franklin, born 1799 in South Carolina

Submitted by : Dan Nelson, 925 Southwood Drive, Highland Village, 75067 <BoomerNels@aol.com> Donor of the Andrea papers to FFRU.

I have been frustrated for many years searching my Franklin line. I don't know that I'll necessarily ever connect the dots but I do know that the next piece to be discovered will come from South Carolina records. Here's the line that I am stuck on:

Benjamin C. Franklin was born around 1799 in South Carolina per the 1850 census. He married Mahala, probably in Mississippi. She was born around 1806 in Mississippi, per the 1850 census. Per some confusing notes left by a descendant she may have descended from Jones County, Mississippi southern aristocrats (named ?Qualisand) or maybe Webster (her grandson Byron's middle name, possibly a tribute to Daniel Webster). There is a Jones County about 50 miles southeast of Jackson.

Their son, Santarelli, lists his mother's birthplace as Alabama in the 1880 census, which since he identified his own concurrently as Mississippi, there may have been a family history of them moving from Alabama to Mississippi.

They lived in Mississippi, in 1829 (when their son Santarelli was born per the 1850 census). Since the only Mississippi Franklins in 1820, were the Rankin County family, and they came from South Carolina, it makes sense that they could have descended from the Thomas Baker Franklin family. However, I've found no supporting evidence of this and the Thomas Baker Franklin family is fairly well documented.

By the 1830 census they had moved to Clark Township, Clinton County, Ohio. Benjamin had died in Clinton by 1854 when his will was executed. Mahala was living with her son-in-law and daughter in the 1860 Clinton County census. Per the 1850 census both Benjamin and Mahala were illiterate.

Benjamin and Mahala's children:

1. Santarelli Franklin, see below.
2. Minerva Franklin was born 8 Oct 1838, she married 6 Nov 1856, Henry C. Moore, from the farm next door, they lived in Clinton, she died in Batavia, Clermont County, Ohio, 27 Oct 1922, no death certificate available.

Santarelli Sydenham Galitzin Franklin

Benjamin and Mahala's son Santarelli was born in Mississippi in February of 1829. The Galitzin in his name was for Prince Galitzin of Russia or Poland, whom a friend of Dr. Benjamin Franklin taught music to. Sydenham was a member of the House of Lords in England, and Santarelli was an Italian count.

All of these were acquaintances of Dr. Benjamin Franklin while he was serving as ambassador to Europe. On 29 May 1853, in Warren County, Ohio, Santarelli married Artemecia Fugate. They appear in the 1870 census in Blanchester, Marion Township, Clinton County as Samuel Franklin.

After 1870 they moved to Randolph County, Indiana. As of the 1880 census they were living in Civil District #6 in Rhea. Artemecia passed away in Rhea on 22 Nov 1909, at the age of 82. Santarelli passed away in Rhea on 25 Apr 1912, at the age of 83.

Santarelli and Artemecia's children:

1. Mary Della Franklin was born around 1854, she married Lawson Moon and lived in Colorado (as of 1905), Clinton County, Ohio (as of 1912), and Randolph County, Indiana (as of 1920), they had a son Charlie who lived in Canton, Ohio.
2. Byron B. (Benjamin?) Webster Franklin, see below.
3. Francis Franklin was born in 1860, he died before his parents.

Byron B. (Benjamin?) Webster Franklin

Santarelli and Artemecia's son Byron B. (Benjamin?) Webster Franklin was born on 16 Dec 1856, in Blanchester, Clinton County, Ohio. The 1900 census lists him as Byron B. W. Franklin. Maybe the B. was for Benjamin. On 19 Jun 1886, he married Emma Glass in Clinton County, Ohio.

He died in Pensacola, Florida on 8 Aug 1914, at age 56. She died 28 May 1928, of heart failure.

Byron and Emma's children (all born in Wilmington):

1. Mary Artemecia Franklin was born 1 Mar 1887, she married on 20 Jun 1915, Joseph Hayden Kershner, they first moved to Kansas and then later to Whittier, California, she died 24 Apr 1975, had issue.
2. Benjamin Santarelli Franklin was born 4 Jul 1888, he worked as a helmsman on the Ohio River and then joined the Navy and lived in the D.C. area, where he worked as Adjutant General in the War Dept., he married in July 1919, Josephine Carroll. He died 7 Jan 1970, she died in Jan 1973, had issue.
3. Samuel Glass Franklin was born 16 Mar 1890, he attended George Washington University. He later joined the navy, he was wounded by an airplane propeller during the war, and always had stomach troubles, he was a lifelong bachelor and lived in Whittier, he died 26 Oct 1981, no issue.
4. Philip W. Franklin was born 6 Oct 1892, he died a young boy at age 5.
5. Lucy Franklin, see below.
6. Constance Franklin was born 21 Dec 1895, she died an infant (see above), 23 Jul 1896.
7. Lawrence Haworth Franklin was born 24 Dec 1896, he served in the Navy as a baker, later resided in Detroit, and owned several donut shops, he married Helen Catherine Krashmer, he died from a heart attack on 26 Sep 1941, had issue.
8. Stacy Byron Franklin was born 31 May 1899, he served in the Navy as a baker and later moved to San Francisco, Florida, Whittier and then Hemet, California where he married several times, one wife being named Grace, another named Dorothy, and another named Lola. He opened several donut shops and invented a donut making machine that he sold to Winchell, who made a fortune from it, he died in October 1977, had issue. Note: Stacy is a name that shows up in another South Carolina Franklin family.
9. Richard Byron Franklin was born 31 May 1902, in Wilmington. He attended the famous Corcoran Art School, moving to the D.C. area at age 17, he barely got by as an artist, often working as a self-employed sign painter. He married around 1922, Emma Lee Sullivan. He died of a brain tumor on 18 May 1970, she died in Apr 1985, had issue. Their children and grandchildren were very educated, sons and daughters both sought college degrees. Most of the Franklins were blonde haired and blue eyed.

Lucy Maria (Mariah) Alice Franklin

Byron and Emma's daughter Lucy was born on 17 Jul 1894, in Wilmington, Clinton County, Ohio. She was named for her cousin Lucy Maria Harlan Thorn. She attended the Fowler Friends Academy where she met her future husband Glen Harvey. She may have taught school at some point.

Here's my wild theory (not at all accepted by the Franklin Institute):

Where would the illiterate Benjamin C. in 1829 Mississippi get the information to name his son after all of "Old Ben's" European buddies? I haven't found any references to any of them in any published BF books or even with the periodical index. What if Benjamin C. is another illegitimate child of his grandson and secretary William Temple Franklin? I understand that Temple spent time in the Georgia, Carolina (Abbeville District, South Carolina) area having inherited land down south from Old Ben. Certainly Temple would have been able to relay the stories of Old Ben and his European buddies to his son. Interesting yet fanciful!

Why, I am writing is that I don't think I'll be fortunate enough to have some other distant cousin dig up info (even though supposedly Josephine Carroll Franklin did so at the Library of Congress, but all of it has been lost). With Benjamin C. and Santarelli each having only two children, the descendants are limited. Only one cousin has limited interest. Can you recommend a researcher on the South Carolina area that might be able to shed some light?

Tips

Here are a few easy steps that you should do first before trying more complex, or expensive measures:

Work backward from what you know. This fundamental precept is profound, yet so frequently ignored. I get queries daily from people who are trying to work forward from some kin of the Statesman, or from some other line. Similarly, I see queries like “All I know is that his name is John Franklin. I don’t know where he was born, lived or died.” If that is all the person knows about him, perhaps they should not be asking about him. It is obvious that the person knows or at suspects that this “John Franklin” is the father of an ancestor. Perhaps they should instead be trying to find out more about the child of the person in the query. If they were to find out where the child was born, then perhaps they have a good idea of at least one of the residences of the parents. The mother is always there for the birth and the father is usually at least nearby...

If you are looking for someone who died after around 1910 in the United States, and haven’t tried to get a death certificate, do it. Don’t send out a query until you have done this most basic of steps. Again, I get queries daily where people tell me that they have “hit a brick wall” in their research and the dates are all in the 20th century. As far as vital records go, death certificates are considered the least reliable for birth and parentage information, but they can be a wonderful resource to carry you back into the records of the 19th century, the U.S. Census, etc.

If you are looking for someone who died after 1963 in the United States, check the Social Security Death Master Index.

If you are looking for someone from 1850 - 1910 in the United States, become familiar with the records which were kept in the counties in which they resided. Look in the U.S. Census. There is a lot of information to be found there.

Keep good notes. You may be surprised at how many times you can find additional information in the records you have, if you know where the information came from in the first place. For instance, you find out that your “John Franklin” married a “Mary Smith”. Look back at the census that you found John in as a child. See if any of the neighbor families were Smiths... It makes it tremendously more difficult to go back to the census where you found “John Franklin” as a child, if you do not keep records about where you found the information in the first place. You will find that genealogy is an iterative process even within the records that you already have copied. I recently went through a collection of a few hundred documents on a family that I was researching, extracting everything I could on the people whom I had identified. This allowed me to identify more people, whom I had not previously known, so I went back through all of the documents from the beginning, and found references and information about the people that I had just identified toward the end of the first time through. The first time through the records, I hadn’t known who they were, so I ignored them. The second time through, I found more information that I had overlooked the first time because I didn’t know that, for instance the “James Smith” who was a witness on the will was actually the brother-in-law of “John Franklin”. Now that I knew who he was, I found him as a witness to the will of “John Franklin”, I knew then, that “James Smith” had lived at least that long... The third time through, I was still finding yet more information.

Queries

It appears that a lot of new people are thinking about starting genealogy. There are quite a few beginners, or people who have not made much progress on their own, who are submitting queries in this issue.

Please note: If I know the snail-mail address, it is listed, otherwise I have listed the Email address of the author of the query. If you want to get in touch with someone and can’t, contact me - Ed.

The LDS International Genealogical Index shows that she was married to George W. Purvis about 1843 in Alabama (I don't know if this is the same George W. who married Mary Ann Patrick in Rankin County, Mississippi in 1838). George and Martha had a daughter named Emily Miranda Purvis born 14 Jan 1859 in Smith County, Mississippi.

Supposedly, Martha was a descendant of Sophia Pitchlynn, a Choctaw Indian. I have a picture of Martha, Emily, and probably one of Sophia's daughters who should be Martha's mother.

Thanks in advance for any help!

I am looking for any information on James Franklin son of John "Jack" Franklin and Jane Hand of the Barnwell District of South Carolina. Both John & Jane were born in 1818. James siblings were Mary Franklin born 1843, William Franklin born 1847, Jessie Franklin born 1849, Martin Franklin born 1850, and Joshua Franklin born 1854. Thanks for any help you can give me.

Albert T. Franklin <albert@digitalex.com>

I am searching for the father of my great great great grandmother. Her maiden name was Annareta Franklin and she married John Byars. Annareta was born 18 or (28) Mar 1823 in Rising Sun, Switzerland County, Indiana and died 2 May 1897 Norwalk, California. She is buried with her husband in Artesia Cemetery, Cerritos, California. Here is a link to her obituary on-line:

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~iamadiso/obitsb.html>

She was married to John Byars on 3 Nov 1841 Switzerland County, Indiana

I am trying to find out what her parents names were... I think they might be Father: Benjamin Franklin (1780-?) Mother: Zipporah (~1799-?)

Can anyone confirm this?

Thanks!

Glen Frank <glennfrank@earthlink.net>

Gerusha Franklin, born 20 Sep 1790, married Aaron Ingalls. They resided in Steuben County, New York. Died Dec 1870 in Dover Illinois. Children: Julia Marie Ingalls, married Gilbert Webb, Horace Franklin Ingalls, Simeon Lester Ingalls, Jonathon Ingalls, Solon Eaton Ingalls, Isaih Ingalls, Charles Currier Ingalls, Henry Martyn Ingalls, Mary Elizabeth Adeline Ingalls, and Lewis Weld Ingalls. Marion Webb Van Liew said her grandmother was a cousin of Benjamin Franklin. (which Benjamin?).

Andrew Franklin, born about 1795 in Duchy of Baden, now Germany, near Stuttgart, immigrated to USA before 1830-40, died after 1870, probably in Coffey County, Kansas. Andrew had at least two wives: (1) before 1840 married Elizabeth Rader, born 1815 in Ohio, died about 1865 in Kansas; (2) March 1870 married Sarah ?, born about 1823 in Kentucky. Children of Andrew Franklin and Elizabeth Rader include: Fanny Ann Franklin born about 1839 in Iowa, John M. Franklin born before 1840, Andrew J. Franklin born 1841 in Iowa, Daniel W. Franklin born 1845 in Iowa, Mary J. Franklin born about 1847 in Iowa, Frederick H. Franklin born about 1852 in Iowa, Elizabeth E. Franklin born about 1855 in Iowa, James B. Franklin born 1858 in Iowa. This family was living in Coffey County, Kansas for the 1860 and 1870 census enumerations. Any information on immigrant Andrew Franklin and his family would be appreciated.

My most wanted Franklin's are:

James Franklin, Sr. Will dated 9 Dec 1736. In 1750 he owned land in Henrico County, Virginia

Known children:

James Franklin, Jr.

Loveday Franklin born 1696 married Charles Burton, Sr. born about 1696, died about 1774
Swift Creek, Henrico County, Virginia (according to Ancestral file)

James Franklin, Sr. was my 6 great grandfather and Loveday was my 5 great grandmother

I also have a Mary "Polly" Franklin of Chesterfield County, Virginia daughter of Joel Franklin married Jesse Washington Burton in 1810

<IrishAuges@aol.com>

My Franklin ancestry is as follows;

Father: Cletus Q. Franklin born 15 May 1929 Daviess County, Indiana

Grandfather: James Nolan Franklin 11 Nov 1900 married Dovie Marie Christy

Great grandfather: Benjamin E. Franklin born 6 Sep 1870 married Margaret Callahan.

Great Great grandfather: Enoch Franklin born abt 1810 married Susan Chestnut

This is as far as I can go. I am not sure of the birthplace of Benjamin or Enoch. Could be Indiana, North Carolina, or Pennsylvania. My father told me that his family came from Pennsylvania originally.

Thank You

Elizabeth Willard <businessfirst@gbso.net>

I would like to find the father of Hiram Franklin, Sr. who married Elizabeth Phelps born about 1809 in Benton County, Missouri in 1846. Catherine Franklin born about 1825 in Indiana might be Hiram's sister.

Catherine married Issac Evan Smith in New Franklin, Missouri.

Editor's Response: There is an article and query in FFRU Vol 4 submitted by Edna Averbeck, 420 Wilkerson, Sedalia, MO 65301

I am interested in Isaac and Nancy (Loving?) Franklin. They are listed in the 1850 Census and 1860 Census in Burke County, North Carolina. In the 1870 Census they were in Carter County, Tennessee. In the 1880 Census they were in Greene County, Arkansas, living with their son Lenoir and his wife.

Based on the ages listed in the various census, Isaac would be born circa 1810 (Age 40 in 1850) or born circa 1807 (Age 73 in 1880).

I am a descendant of Issac and Nancy's son Eli Franklin who fought in the Civil War from Burke County, North Carolina. If you have anything of interest, please e-mail me.

Audie Franklin <afrank8579@aol.com>

Editor's response: In the IGI: Lenoir Franklin, born 1844 Burke County, North Carolina. No parents or birthdate given (Batch #: 8931404, Sheet #: 59, Source Call #: 1553613)

One possibility is Isaac, the son of Samuel Franklin and Dorcus Burns, but none of my records show his birth year. The wife of this Isaac, however is not listed as Nancy... In Volume 1 of FFRU, I found another Isaac (with a Nancy!!!), but he doesn't match your data:

Your Isaac was in a different census/place in 1850...

There is another Isaac Franklin of Burke County, son of David Franklin and Rebecca Schell. Although there is little detail about Isaac, this is found in FFRU Volume 2. Volume 2 is one of the backissues that can be downloaded from the site listed below.

There is a long article in Volume 6 on Burke County Franklins, which mentions an Isaac thusly:

...which is obviously wrong, or at least if it is not wrong, it's the first time I've ever seen someone who died at age seven with 1 or perhaps 2 wives... (If I had to guess, I would assume that the “1817” was a transposed “1871”) Anyway, I think there's some useful Burke County information in the article, whether or not this is the same Isaac

In Volume 8, Isaac is listed in Burke County in the 1850 Census as noted in the query.

I'm searching for parents of George Earl Franklin born 27 May 1895 Marshalltown, Marshall County, Iowa died 21 May 1945 Muskogee, Oklahoma. Married to Anna Florentina Anderson. His parents may be George Franklin and Idabelle Stubbs. Idabelle is reported to have been Native American possibly of the Meskwaki (Sac & Fox) Tribe located in Iowa. George Earl may have had one sister named Golden Angel Franklin who may have moved to California. Any and all information concerning the parents/siblings of George Earl Franklin will be greatly appreciated.

Looking for the parents of Louis Franklin born 21 Aug 1925 in Hickman, Kentucky. Married Annie Amos in 1947. Annie Amos was born on 10 Nov 1929/30 in Mississippi. My research thus far shows that Louis is the son of Benjamin Franklin and Tinnie May Cobb.

Louis Franklin, Jr.

Flossie Franklin was born in 1948.

May Franklin.

Henry Franklin.

Vivian Franklin.

Rose Franklin.

Steve Franklin.

Charles Edward Franklin. Died as a baby.
Any info at all would be appreciated!
Thanks!

I'm seeking for more information about James Franklin born before 1880 who was married to a Susan Warner / Warner also born before 1880. James and Susan may have been born in Russell County, Kentucky (where their last three children were born).

Children:

Herschel Franklin is thought to still be living in Kentucky, possibly around Jamestown or Russell?
Gobel Franklin died sometime before 7 Aug 1975. According to his brother's obituary. His wife, Adele was thought to be still living in Illinois.

Mary Franklin died between 1975 and 1989 (going by brothers' obituaries). She married _____ Knight.

Kathleen Franklin died somewhere between 1975 and 1989. She married _____ Kennett. another child- data unknown

Lawrence Franklin born 17 Feb 1895 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky. Died 7 Aug 1975 in Greenbrier Nursing Home; Champaign, Illinois. Buried Bellflower Cemetery, Mclean County, Illinois. He married Vorda Alice Polson 13 Jan 1915 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky.

Vernon Franklin born 19 Sep 1897 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky. Died 26 Jul 1989 Potomac, Illinois. Buried in Bellflower Cemetery, Mclean County, Illinois. He married Bettie Marie Blair on 22 Feb 1917 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky.

Roy Franklin born 4 Sep 1909 in Kentucky. Currently living in Ford County Nursing Home, Illinois. His wife, Mary W. Grider, was born 4 Jul 1914 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky. Roy and Mary were married 19 Jul 1931 in Jamestown, Russell County, Kentucky. Mary died 17 Jul 1988 in Urbana, Champaign County, Illinois. Buried Bellflower Twp. Cemetery, Mclean County, Illinois.

Do you recognize any of these Franklins? I'm trying to trace back further on the parents: James and his wife Susan lineage. I would appreciate any information you can share.

Beverly Franklin (male) was born about 1812, probably in Tennessee. He had a brother Martin. By his first wife he had three known children: William, Louisa, George. In 1848 in Lauderdale County, TN, he married Ann Maria (Amanda) Nevels. By 1850 they were in Stone County, Arkansas where the following children were born: Elixha, Martha, Emiline, Sintha, Abby, Kansas or Arkansas, and Susan. Beverly died sometime between 1862 and 1870.

Who were Beverly's parents & other siblings? Exactly when and where was he born? Who was his first wife? Any help greatly appreciated.

Dolores V. Thurman; P. O. Box 8173; Jacksonville, TX 75766 <dvthurman@tyler.net>

Editor's notes: Beverly is a pretty unusual name (obviously!) Is yours the one who married Luvicy McKey on 26 Oct 1835 in Todd County, KY ?

In the Charter Volume of FFRU there is a Beverly Franklin listed as head of household in the 1845 Mississippi Census Index, Tippah County, sheet 36.

In Volume 16 there is a Beverly Franklin listed as marrying a Ann Maria Nevels on 26 May 1848 in Lauderdale County, TN. (also found in the IGI, Batch #: M519431, Source Call #: 1008552)
