James Walter Franklin, son of Thomas Franklin and Sarah Jane Davis, was born on 31 Jul 1874 in Fentress County, Tennessee. "Big Jim," as he was called, lived in the Boatland area of Fentress County, Tennessee all his life. He married Charlotte Lottie Jane Beaty, daughter of Richard Beaty and Lydia Ann Stephens, on 8 Sep 1893 in Jamestown, Tennessee.

Jim and Lottie made their living by farming and working in timber. Jim was good at log rafting down the Obey River. He was a good carpenter. He also made axe and pick handles to sell to the miners. According to the 1938 Fentress County Tax list they owned a 40 acre farm valued at two hundred dollars. This property was located between the Smith property to the north, the Smith property to the south, the Bowden property to the east and the Wright property to the west. They raised ten children on this farm. After Jim's death, Lottie Jane moved to Crossville, Cumberland County, Tennessee where she resided in the Homesteads.

Jim was known to smoke a big Owl Pipe that caught everyone's eye. One day he had been out hunting and had put some bullets in the same pocket that he kept his pipe tobacco in. He was lighting his pipe and pulled some tobacco out of his pocket and put it in his pipe. He also had a bullet in this tobacco. Jim was leaning back in his chair, lighting his pipe, when the bullet exploded. Lottie and Jim went running for the front door, neither one knowing what had happened.

Jim died on 14 Jul 1941 in Fentress County, Tennessee and was buried in Dempsey Bowden Cemetery.

Letter from the Editor

As with the previous volume, this volume contains Federal Census abstracts, specifically Alabama, 1830, 1840, and 1850. If I had checked carefully, I would have noticed that much of this Alabama data has already been published in previous issues of FFRU and other places, and I might have chosen a different state to do - one that had not been done already. I am sensitive to the observation that one [non-subscribing] person made that it seemed like the majority of the information was about "southern" Franklins. I have tried to be sensitive to this, so I will be doing a New England state in the next volume. How does Pennsylvania sound?

Anyway, I have annotated the 1850 Census with references to other materials, primarily previous issues of FFRU, Franklin Fireplace and Ancestry.com Ancestry World Tree entries. For the census itself, I'm mostly using the Ancestry.com images. Please note that the 1820 Alabama census is missing from the Ancestry.com website...

You will note that there are wide variations in the way the various birth states are recorded in my census transcripts. I have tried to match the original whenever possible.

Another thing you may notice is that although Volume 36 was shorter than usual, this one is longer than usual. I have finally taken the time to calculate postage, based on the number of pages. If I alternate between 45 pages one issue and 55 pages the next, I can still publish an average of 50 pages, but I can save between $30-50 per year in postage (depending on the number of subscribers).

Unfortunately, there is no room left in this volume for a book review, nor is there space for a "Famous Franklin," but don't despair, these shall return as soon as I have space to publish them. I still have plenty of them left (both books and Famous Franklins).

A new subscriber, Jill Franklin Hicks, who donated the cover photo, and submitted an article, has also generously donated copies of Indian Applications related to native american Franklins, which will appear in future issues of FFRU. Some have already been published in previous volumes, but Jill has sent some new ones, too.

Please note a new FFRU policy: The Barter System. Acutally there's nothing new about bartering, it's just that I have made a new policy of accepting Franklin-related genealogy materials in exchange for subscriptions. About 100 pages of material that I don't already have will get a one-year subscription - about 200 pages of FFRU.

1850 Federal Census of Alabama

An index of the heads of household for the 1850 Alabama Census is found in FFRU Volume 4. This article is an expansion of that information, with a complete abstract of all the persons in the census. In a few places, I've included references to other records, so this should perhaps more properly be called an "annotated census." The Ancestry.com index has been compared with the index published in Volume 4 mentioned above, plus information found in Franklin Fireplace version of the 1850 found on pages 1352-1359. Ed

3. This looked somewhat like "Isom," but after comparing the third letter to the formation of letters in "James", the third letter resembles "a" more than the "o" as rendered by the enumerator in the name "John."
4. Very difficult to read and indistinct. Might be "Josiah." There seems to be a dot over the "o" and the supposed "n" if this were "Jonah" does not resemble other nearby n's....

21. From Franklin Fireplace, p. 293: "John N. Franklin held following offices in DeKalb County, Alabama: Justice of Peace, Sheriff, Probate Judge, Secession Delegate and Member of House of Representatives of Alabama Legislature, Montgomery, Alabama.

"When my uncle Jim told me about his great grandfather sailing from Ireland, I was not interested in genealogy and so asked no questions. Maybe they went from England to take a boat from Ireland."

"Many Franklin men were baptist preachers, Grandfather John N. and Uncle James Bird Franklin were 'hard shell' Baptists. I went to many family reunions in Dekalb County where they sang and preached all day long. Everyone brought lunch. 40. From Franklin Fireplace, p. 661: "Barnett Franklin and wife Martha Brunson were married 20 (or 22) Mar 1821 in Clarke County, Alabama. Joe Franklin at Glenwood had a paper that had been put together on this family. William Barnett Franklin was the son of Henry and Margaret Baggs Franklin of Sumter County, South Carolina. Martha was the daughter of David and Sarah Johnson Brunson of the same place. Each went with their families to Clarke County and there they were married. Martha had a brother named Josiah Brunson and it is written in those papers that Barnett and family and Josiah Brunson came to Pike County about 1828 and did a lot of land surveying, receiving their pay in land in the area of Rutledge, then in Pike, now Crenshaw. William Barnett Franklin born 2 Feb 1797, wife Martha born 29 Nov 1804.

8. Martha Haseltine Franklin, born 21 Mar 1833, married John Newton Holland

10. Joseph Jasper Franklin, born 22 Sep 1839, married Ann Tisdale
11. Benjamin Newton Franklin, born 22 Sep 1839, never married, was in Civil War. He and twin brother are buried near Glenwood).
12. Mariah A. Franklin, born 20 Mar 1842, married Ashley Lassister
13. Nancy V. Franklin, born 5 Jan 1843, married Jim Wade
14. William Penn Franklin, born 27 May 1846, married Alice Walding

1830 Census index of Clarke County includes Josiah Brunson next to Thomas B. Franklin. I would believe this was Barnett Franklin and his brother-in-law only the papers Joe Franklin has said they came to Pike about 1828. Anyway they have his name as William Barnett. I would have to search through the land entries to see exactly when they entered land to get the most accurate time of their coming.

Feeeman W. Franklin, born in the township of Caneadea, Allegany County, New York 20 Feb 1824, died at Lakeside, Michigan, 31 Dec 1903, aged 79 years, 10 months and 11 days. At the age of 25 he was married to Lucinda Daniels of the same township, and a family of four children were born to them, three of whom are now living and were present at the funeral: J. B. Franklin, of Decatur, Michigan; Mrs. Mary D. Munroe, until recently a resident of Three Oaks, and M. D. Franklin of Lakeside, in whose home the father died. In Sep 1863, Mr. Franklin moved with his family from the state of New York to Michigan, and in the spring of 1864 settled near Decatur, living on the same farm until the death of his wife, 29 May 1890. Since that time he has lived with his children. His ancestors were all New England people coming from the states of Vermont and Massachusetts.

The funeral services were held at the home of Mr. M. D. Franklin, one mile east of Lakeside, on Sunday afternoon, 3 Jan [1904], at 12 o'clock, being conducted by the Rev. W. H. Parsons of New Buffalo, and the remains were taken to Decatur on Monday and laid to rest in the Anderson cemetery south of that village.

Descendants of Jacob Jake Franklin

Submitted by Jill Franklin Hicks, 1107 N. Balsam Dr., Muncie, IN 47304-9640 <mzkitey1@aol.com>. Jill has also generously donated copies of Indian Applications related to native american Franklins, which will appear in future issues of FFRU. Some have already been published herein, but Jill has sent some new ones, too.

First Generation

1. Jacob Jake Franklin was born about 1751 in Indian Territory, North Carolina, and died in North Carolina.

According to Sylvester Franklin's Cherokee Indian Application, his grandparents' names were Jacob and Caroline Franklin. The story has been passed down in the family that Isaac Franklin's father was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, and that he married a white woman and took her maiden name of Franklin. I have run across the following names: John Franklin, Patton Franklin, Jacob Franklin and Lucy Franklin, all of whom are supposed to be full-blooded Cherokee Indians. All of the Cherokee Indian Applications that I have found were submitted under the Garnder Grene line and were rejected. I believe that if they had applied through their own Franklin name instead of through their tribal leader's name, they might have been accepted, but this is just my own opinion.

Jacob married Caroline Franklin.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 2 M i. Henry J. Franklin, died in North Carolina.
- 3 M ii. John Franklin was born in Cherokee County, North Carolina.
- + 4 M iii. William Franklin was born between 1780 and 1790 in Cherokee County, North Carolina and died in North Carolina.
- 5 M iv. Abraham Franklin was born in 1786 in North Carolina and died in 1867 in Cherokee County, North Carolina.
- + 6 M v. Isaac Franklin was born in 1787 in Indian Territory, North Carolina and died in Fentress County, Tennessee.

- + 7 M vi. Jacob Franklin was born in 1792 in North Carolina, died about 1851 in Franklin Mountain, North Carolina, and was buried in Tomotla Cemetery, Cherokee County, North Carolina.
- + 8 F vii. Lucy Franklin was born in 1797 in Cherokee County, North Carolina.
- 9 M viii. Tom Franklin was born in 1798.

Second Generation

2. Henry J. Franklin died in North Carolina.

In the Cherokee Indian Application of Overton Early Franklin, O. Early is the grandson of Henry Franklin (he thinks). Henry is a full-blooded Cherokee Indian and the cousin of John Tucker. The said John Tucker's name appears on the rolls of 1839, 1848, 1851 and 1852. This was stated by Chuuuluska (name hard to read) in a signed affidavit dated 25 Aug 1896.

Another affidavit dated and signed by John Ross states that Jacob Franklin and Lucy Franklin were brother and sister. That Lucy is the aunt of O. Early Franklin who is the son of Jacob "Jake" Franklin, he also states that Jacob Franklin is a cousin to John Tucker, John Tucker being near or a full-blooded Cherokee Indian.

The name John Tucker does appear on the Chapman Roll of 1851: Gilmer County, Georgia

- John Tucker age 50 (423)
- Ruby Tucker age 45, wife
- Rebecca Tucker age 22, daughter
- Anna Tucker age 15, daughter
- Jane Tucker age 13, daughter
- James Tucker age 11, son
- Minerva Tucker age 9, daughter
- John Tucker age 5, son
- Sutiza Tucker age 2, daughter (not paid)
- Lucretia Tucker age 1, daughter

The "not paid" notation beside Sutiza Tucker's name was put there by Chapman. Apparently for some reason she did not receive the payment that the roll was created for.

- Nancy Tucker, age 23 (43403)
- Elbert Lafayette Tucker, age 1, son
- Lieuellen Tucker, age 26, Male, (1540)
- Martha Elizabeth Tucker, age 1, daughter

The Chapman Rolls were taken in 1851 by Alfred Chapman, this roll followed the Siler Roll. Guion Miller used the Chapman Rolls in determining who was eligible to be admitted to the Miller Roll. The numbers noted on the right are the Miller Application Number.

The name John Tucker also appears on the 1835 Cherokee County Indian Families Census, preparatory to the Removal of 1838. His residence is located on Shooting Creek. There is also an Isaac Tucker residing on Shooting Creek.

Henry married Betsy Ann Gibbs on 24 Jan 1797 in Rutherford County, North Carolina. Bondsman was John Franklin and R. Lewis was a witness

Children from this marriage were:

- + 10 M i. Overton Early Franklin was born in 1845 in North Carolina.
4. William Franklin was born between 1780 and 1790 in Cherokee County, North Carolina and died in North Carolina. William married Elizabeth _____ .

Children from this marriage were:

- 11 M i. Washington Franklin was born in 1811.
 - 12 M ii. Wesley Franklin was born in 1815.
 - 13 F iii. Eliza Franklin was born in 1820.
 - 14 F iv. Polly Franklin was born in 1822.
 - 15 F v. Susan Franklin was born in 1825.
- + 16 M vi. John Franklin was born in 1831 in Cherokee County, North Carolina.
 - 17 M vii. William Franklin, Jr. was born in 1833.
 - 18 M viii. Lewis Franklin was born in 1836.
6. Isaac Franklin was born in 1787 in Indian Territory, North Carolina and died in Fentress County, Tennessee.

A story has been handed down about Isaac and his wife Nancy. Supposedly, Nancy was Isaac's sister-in-law, married to his brother, Jake (Jacob). Isaac and Nancy ran away together they headed for Tennessee with his brother Jake right behind them. Whatever happened afterwards has never been told, but Isaac and Nancy lived in Tennessee raising a large family, and his brother Jake lived in North Carolina and raised a large family.

Isaac liked to kid around with people. Once, Isaac ran into the indigo salesman that was in town. Isaac told him he needed a quarter because his wife was dying. Later he ran into the salesman again in the saloon. The salesman said, "I thought you said your wife was dying." Isaac said, "She is, dyeing blue." Another story told about Isaac happened during the Civil War. The Rebels were after him so he jumped over a bluff into some grapevines and wasn't hurt. He took some men back to where he had jumped and they didn't believe him. He jumped again and this time he broke his leg.

Isaac had an entry in Fentress County on 8 Oct 1824 located on the East Fork of the Obey River. Isaac lived in Morgan, Overton and Fentress County all his life. He may be buried in Buffalo Cove in Fentress County, Tennessee. Although he lived in three different counties, the locations were in the same general area. He is listed on the Fentress County Tax List in 1833. He is listed on the 1850 Morgan County Census, living at the mouth of Mills Creek which flows into the Obed River.⁴⁴ In 1852, Jesse Adkins, Sr. and Jr., witnessed a Franklin deed of land to Emanuel Robertson. This land was located on the Obed River. At one time Isaac lived near what is known as the Sweet Gum about sixteen miles west of Jamestown, Tennessee.

Isaac is listed in the 1820 Census of Overton County. He is listed again in the 1840 Overton County Census. His son John Franklin is living next door to him. Isaac and Nancy Turner Franklin last appear in the 1860 Fentress County Census. Isaac is age 72 and Nancy is age 69. They are living next door to their sons Nathan and James M. Franklin.

44. Note that both the Obey and Obed Rivers are mentioned in this article. Both are found in Tennessee, as described above.

Isaac married Nancy Turner.

Children from this marriage were:

 - + 22 M iv. David Franklin was born in 1823 in Fentress County, Tennessee.

Jacob married Margaret Swinney, daughter of James and Rebecca Swinney. She is listed on the 1860 Census of Cherokee County, North Carolina as a widow. She is living next door to her son, John J. Abe had a big reputation for such a small man, he was only 5'6" and weighed only 110 pounds, he wore a size 28 x 28 pants, and a size 5 shoe. Abe and his brother Tom owned the land that the family lived on in Morgan County, Tennessee in 1850. They sold this land in 1852 for $100.00. It was estimated to be around 300 acres. It is thirty years before Abe is listed again in any Census Record, in 1880 he shows up in the Fentress County Census and he is 50 years old.

It is not known if Abraham served with either side during the Civil War, but he was supposed to have been associated with the Jesse James Gang, who were apparently for the Confederates. Abe was a sheep farmer, breeder of fast race horses and a licensed whiskey maker. He was also involved in many land deals and usually had plenty of money, but people are unsure how he got his money. He would not allow anyone to take his picture, because as he said "the wrong people might see it." Abe was often away from home, even in his later years and no one knew where he was. These trips would sometimes last several days.

A woman named Harriet Brown lost her husband during the Civil War, she had two sons after his death, they were born in 1870 and in 1872. Harriet Brown's father, John Taylor, always claimed that Abe was the father of those two boys.

His first wife was killed by a man from Kentucky during the Civil War, when Hedley returned and found out, he went to Kentucky to the man's house, he called him out then killed him. Hedley had a reputation just like his brothers, his temper was short and he would fly off mad at the drop of a hat. He carried a very large pistol in a holster that he kept greased so he could draw quickly. It is not known how many men he killed with his pistol.

Just before Hedley died he was living in Glenobey, Fentress County, Tennessee, his neighbors said that they heard gunfire that went on for a long time, like two men in a gunfight. It is thought that Hedley had lost his mind and was shooting everything in sight, thinking that someone was after him.

During the Civil War, the Yankees were moving through the mountains of North Carolina when they came upon Franklin Mountain, they were taking food and stealing all they could find. They went to the Franklin home and wanted all the food that had just been put on the table, well the lady of the house, picked up the meat and through it on the ground, she told the Yanks to eat it like the dogs they were. One of the Yankees was going to shoot her when a Officer stepped in to stop him. After they left, she picked up the meat, and that was all they had for the next several days.

In the April 1999 FFRU I speculated that James Franklin of Remsen, New York (1770-1825) was the son of Asa and Sarah (Paine) Franklin of Providence, Rhode Island. I now have a competing hypothesis for his ancestry, revealed in an 1896 Oneida County, New York history, giving a biography of James' grandson James H. Franklin: "David Franklin, great-grandfather of James in the Revolutionary war, was born in England, emigrated to America prior to the Revolution, and there died, leaving a widow and 3 children: James, Wait and Mary Franklin. The grandfather, James, came from Connecticut to Herkimer County, thence to Remsen, Oneida County where he died in 1825..."

The DAR Patriot Index lists Connecticut soldier David Franklin 1734-1782 married Mary Hubbard. The Connecticut Military Records 1775-1848 reveals two candidates: David Franklin of the Connecticut Line enlisted 20 Jul 1780 discharged 10 Dec 1780 in the 4th Connecticut Regional Levies (recruited mostly from Windham and New London counties), and David Franklin of Captain Rogers' Company from Cornwall, Connecticut, in the Second Battalion, Wadsworth's Brigade of Connecticut Militia, served on Long Island and in White Plains the summer of 1776. Can anyone confirm or amplify this line? Any known descendants? I can establish no connection with other Connecticut Franklin families.
