Note from the Editor

Several of our Hawkins Heritage members have discovered their family connections through the few years that we have been in publication. When you write that you have connected with another member's ancestry, it's a really happy feeling for this researcher. It is also our hope that we can connect your other allied lines as well as that of Hawkins. Continue to send your material for publication. Do give me the complete information concerning author, publisher, and dates, so that proper credit can be given. Also, if several pages are sent concerning the same subject, please number the pages, and put either your name or initials on the back of each page that you send.

My thanks to many of you who have generously sent in information for publication. This extra effort on your part helps make research easier for those who do not have access to some of the same material. Michael John Neill provides us with excellent data on Orange, Rappahannock, and Culpeper VA. Joyce Libes sends much material, especially on Indiana Hawkins. It seems that Dustin O. Hawkins has unending sources. Harry Long has sent information which will be begun next issue, probably being continued in following issues. Wanita Lucas may have a byline for "Hawkins Notes", since she delves in many counties everywhere. My point is, all of you who send in your findings are the greatest help towards creating an informative publication. If I have not printed something that you have wanted in Hawkins Heritage, please don't hesitate to let me know.

. . . . If you see errors in our past issues that have been that of the Editor, of the printer, or even material quoted from other research sources, do let me know and it will be corrected the next time. Following is a correction that you may want to make note of:

Vol. IV, August 1990, page 19:

- (1) The heading should read: "The Family of ELISHA & ELIZABETH HAWKINS."
- (2) Elizabeth Guthrie was born c1800 in UNION (not Cherokee) County, South Carolina.

Nancy Buell apologizes for making the error, but I couldn't bring myself to quote her! Most of us often re-do our notes.

Please note the membership renewal application which is inserted in this issue. With postage and printing costs' having gone up, we need all our membership dues in, so please check your records.

QUERIES

HAWKINS/WITHERS/FOSSAKER/FOWKE/THOROWGOOD/HAWES - Several of our members research Stafford CO, VA. Since it was a burned county, many valuable records are not available. Four years ago, in the VSL in Richmond, I found an index with many familiar names in it. The bad news was that the book for which it was an index had been destroyed. Judith H. Dixon, Tony Stump, and I descend from the Withers family of Stafford CO. Since my (and other members') James and Margaret Hawkins lived in Stafford CO from at least as early as 1791 until 1825, would you check your notes to see if you have notations on any Hawkins at all who connect with these surnames listed above? There were early Hawkins in Stafford, but there is also a lapse of time before James Hawkins showed up in my Stafford CO research. I would like to connect James to the earlier Stafford Hawkins families. - Olyve Abbott

JOHN HAWKINS/ELIZABETH COIL - John Hawkins, probable s/o John, was married to Elizabeth Coil. Elizabeth Coil is the gr grandmother of Monica Kelly of Australia. She knows that John Hawkins was in CA during the gold rush days. He was actually a ship's captain and probably trained in America. Mrs. Kelly says that it has taken her years to trace them to the Cooma Church in Australia.

In hearing from the Parish Secretary of St. Patrick's Parish in Cooma, N.S.W., Mrs. Kelly learned that her gf, John Washington Hawkins, s/o John and Elizabeth, who lived in Kiandra, was b. 3-11-1862. His Godparents were James Martin and Mary Quinn. The Hawkins family was associated with the Methodist Church, although another Hawkins family member was Peter Hawkins (m. to Eliza Jane Elliott), who lived in Holt's Flat, Mount Cooper. After Peter's death, Eliza, at the age of 64, m. John Dunn. "Government Regulations requiring the compulsory civil registration of marriages in New South Wales did not come into force until 1856". Since marriage records were not available in N.S.W. prior to that time, it isn't known if John Hawkins and Elizabeth Coil were married there or in America.

The Parish Secretary also mentioned to Mrs. Kelly that John Hawkins, a bachelor, age 55, m. Catherine Grimes in St. Patrick's. He was born in Ireland, the s/o Edward Hawkins and Mary Duggan.

Thank you, Monica, for your interest and your informative letter. Although my files do not have connecting material at this time, perhaps a reader of Hawkins Heritage will contact you.

Re: Queries For Publication

As per your suggestion, I am editing my previous questions in a form suitable for publication as queries. Please publish them at the earliest possible time.

1.) Thomas FAULCONER was the husband of Elizabeth "Betty" HAWKINS, daughter of Thomas HAWKINS and Ann COVINGTON. Note from the corresponding pedigree charts that both Thomas and Elizabeth were descended from people named MOSELEY. Is there a connection between these two MOSELEY families?

2.) Does anyone have information on the surname COVINGTON, ancestors of Elizabeth "Betty" HAWKINS?

3.) William MOSELEY, husband of Susannah BURNET, was born in the city of Rotterdam. Was his surname of Dutch origins, or was William MOSELEY simply embarking from the port of Rotterdam when he emigrated from Europe?

4.) In reading excerpts from Millie S. Farmer's book, I was confused as to her explanation of the ancestral progression which included Admiral HAWKINS, as well as the famous Captain William HAWKINS, and so forth. I tried unsuccessfully to add these names to the pedigree chart of Thomas HAWKINS, Sr. Will anyone share with me a pedigree chart that extends the lineage from Thomas HAWKINS, Sr. back to the so called famous Captain William HAWKINS? And, why was he so famous? I found an entry in another book made brief mention of "the famous Captain William HAWKINS, who captained the ship Griffin against the Spanish Armada in 1589." Were they one in the same?

5.) My wife, Karen, has a direct line ancestor named Beulah Ann HAWKINS, grand-daughter of a Nicholas HAWKINS, wife of Elizabeth JONES (see the enclosed pedigree chart). Is anyone able to help determine which Nicholas HAWKINS this was? Who were his ancestors? And, who were his wife's ancestors?

EDITOR'S note: Re #5's pedigree chart - Nicholas & Elizabeth Jones Hawkins were parents of Elijah Hawkins, who m. Elizabeth SCOTT, d/o Ruben Scott and Margaret COPE. Their dau., Beulah Ann, b. 14-Oct-1807 OR CO. VA; m. 22-Jun-1831 to Level PERRY. Beulah d. 1882 Cabell CO, WV. This is the information on the chart sent by Marty Cook.

His wife was ----Cleary and they had several children incl. son Marcus (Mark) and dau. Gladys.

There were Hawkins families in early North Carolina and it was Philomon Hawkins' widow who moved her family there. Philomon Hawkins was born in England in 1590. He married Anne Eleanor Howard there and emigrated in 1619 to Charles River CO., VA. Two patents were granted to him in 1619 and two in 1625 for land near Todds Bridge which is now in King and Queen CO., VA. At the time that he lived there Todds Bridge was in King William County. The bridge spanned the Matapony River near where his relative possibly a brother, John Hawkins lived. Philomon died at the age of 35, leaving his widow and sons Philomon and John and a daughter Anne. In 1735, Anne Eleanor moved with her children to North Carolina.

Philomon Hawkins II, b. 1717 in VA, d. 1801 in Bute CO. (Now called Warren CO.) NC. He was the son of Philomon, the Immigrant and Anne Eleanor Howard. He married Delia Martin in 1743 and they had six children. Their sons were: Col. John Hawkins, Col. Philomon Jr., Col. Benjamin b. 1754 and Col. Joseph. Their daughters were: Delia who mar. L. Bullock and Ann who mar. Micaja Thomas. Both girls died young with no living children. Col. John mar. Mary - and four of their five sons served for many years in the North Carolina legislature. John's daughter Mary mar. Aug. 12, 1760 in Granville, NC. Nathaniel Bullock son of Richard Bullock and Anne Henley. Mary died in Oglethorpe, GA in 1833.

Col. Philomon Hawkins Jr. son of Philomon and Delia built Pleasant Hill, near Middleburg, N.C. and with his father he fought at Alamance but both became patriots and both fought in the American Revolution on the side of the Americans. His son William was the Governor of North Carolina in 1814 and Speaker of the House in 1810 and 1811.

Col. Philomon Jr. was a member of Provincial Congress and in 1789 the Convention that ratified the Federal Constitution. His Dau. Mary, mar. John Downey.

Col. Benjamin was a senator from Warner CO. N.C. and served in the War of Independence. He was b. Aug. 15, 1754 and d. June 6, 1818.

Maryland had its Philomon Hawkins too. Philomon Lloyd Hawkins came with Edward Lloyd to Charles City CO., MD in 1650 from Wales. He had a brother Henry living in St. Marks CO., MD who d. in 1673 leaving a will in which he mentioned his nephew Edward son of Philomon Lloyd, who was executor.

There was a Ralph Hawkins in Charles CO. in 1650 who died in Anne Arundel CO., in 1675. He was the ancestor of Capt. John Hawkins, 3rd Regiment, (VA) Continental Line. No connection has been established with Ralph and Philomon. The fact that he came to this country from Wales does not necessarily mean that he was a native of that place. It indicates the place where his ship left for the New World.

Philonon Hawkins, Gent. son of John Hawkins and Mary Long of King WM, CO., VA was born in the early part of the 18th Century. The Virginia Colonial Militia by Crozier show that he was a soldier in a Regiment commanded by Col. William Byrd in the French Colonial War. He was a Capt. of a company of Foot, taking his oath Feb. 5, 1750 in Spotsylvania Co. and was commissioned a Captain on July 21, 1755. Later, he became a Col. as did his son John.

Philonon owned various properties in Caroline, Spotsylvania, King William and Orange Counties. Some of his property was inherited from his father and a part was purchased from his sister Mary Craig.

This Philomon Hawkins was the ancestor of Gen. John Hawkins who wrote a book Gen. JOHN P. HAWKINS REMINISCENCES written in the 19th Century.

Gen. Hawkins claims that John Hawkins of Hanover CO., VA who mar. Mary Langsford is related to him. His cousins, descendants of John of Hanover used to visit his home when they were children. They were children of Littlebury Hawkins who was in Texas at the time. His sister brought Littlebury's sons Antoine Domineuil and Ross Hawkins home with her.

Gen. Hawkins tells a story on pg. 74 of his book: "Capt. John Hawkins had a son, Martin, concerning whom the following adventure is related: That he was fishing in the James River and having caught a large sturgeon and having him near shore, he jumped into the water and thrust his hands into his gills to land him, but the fish closed his gills on his hands and made for the deep water, where for some time there was a lively struggle for the mastery. Finally Martin landed the fish on the opposite shore. I have heard this story all my life as the wonderful performance of a relative. It is known among all of the Hawkins name having relationship to him."

Gen. Hawkins also speaks of the relationship between Sir John Hawkins and John Hawkins of Hanover CO. He quotes from a part of Sir John's will this:

"To my servant, Roger Langford, an annuity of twenty pounds during such term as he shall be employed in going through my accounts with Her Majesty, which accounts I willed to follow by the direction of my wife and of my son, Richard Hawkins" In another part of the will he leaves his cousin, Sir Francis Drake, "whom he had educated": "My Best jewel, which is a cross of emeralds."

Dr. James Russell Hawkins who gave information on his Hawkins ancestors, including Martin the fisherman his uncle was a native of Spotsylvania, CO., VA. He was b. Jan. 30, 1805 to Maj. Joseph L. Hawkins and Ann P. Robinson Hawkins. In Kentucky A History Of The State by Perrin, Battle and Kniffen we find that his grandfather John Hawkins of Hanover CO who married Mary Langford, died of smallpox while serving as a major in the Revolutionary War.

Dr. J. Russell was reared on a farm in Virginia where his father was prosperous and hired private teachers for him. He married Sarah A. Boles of Henrico CO. and they had eight children: Joseph, Betsey Ann, Mary Eliza, J. Russell Jr. Julia L., Mildred J., William B. and Hamilton Pope. His wife died in 1878.

The family moved to Kentucky in 1838 and settled in Franklin, CO. after practicing medicine in Boone CO. for eleven years. He was also active in politics and was secretary of the State Senate in 1851 and served for 25 years in that position. He was one of the three commissioners who selected Hopkinsville as the site for the Western Lunatic Asylum in 1848. He received his education to become a physician at Transylvania College.

Another James Hawkins who lived in the same area in Kentucky is listed in Perrin, Battle and Kniffen's book as James S., the son of Senat A. and Mary Dodd Hawkins. He was born in Woodford, CO., KY on Feb. 19, 1810. He was a merchant, farmer, justice of the peace and constable.

During the Civil War he served under Gen. Morgan in Company E. Second KY Cavalry and was wounded in the shoulder at Cynthiana in 1863 and in the side and right hand at the Battle of Bull's Gap. After he surrendered with Gen. Taylor in Mississippi he opened a store, raised stock and was a farmer. He married Dolly Reed. They were Presbyterians.

The usual pattern of migration from the east to west is reversed in the case of the following family: Ambrose Lee Hawkins was b. on Oct. 18, 1841 in Gainsborough, Jackson County, Tennessee. He married Mildred Frances Faulkner in Blacksburg, Montgomery County, VA on Nov. 15, 1870. His parents were William K. Hawkins b. in 1798 in North Carolina and Elizabeth --- of NC in 1802. Mildred's parents were Fielding Jones and Sarah Jane Smith. She was b. Feb. 27, 1847 in Montgomery CO., VA.

Ambrose Lee and Mildred had the following children, all born in Blacksburg, Montgomery CO., VA. Sarah Elizabeth b. Sept. 26, 1871. She mar. Watson Edwin Camper on Sept. 1, 1897. She d. Oct. 5, 1957.

Bertie Mildred b. Sept. 10, 1873 died on Feb. 5, 1902. She was never mar.

Edgar Lee was b. Oct. 25, 1875 and mar. Hallie Kath. Price on May 30, 1900. He died on July 26, 1951.

Joseph Fielding was b. Jul. 16, 1877 and mar. Bessie Martin on Jan. 2, 1901. He died on Oct. 21, 1962.

Hugh Lawrence was b. Dec. 20, 1879 and mar. Nannie Jane Price on May 30, 1900. He died on Apr. 19, 1968.

Olive Lucy was b. June 18, 1881 and d. June 22, 1945. She was not married.

William Thomas was b. Aug. 25, 1883 and mar. Isobel G. Harrek on Dec. 20, 1911. He d. on Sept. 29, 1948.

Benjamin James was b. May 27, 1888 and mar. Bessie Keffer on June 1, 1910. He died on Mar. 8, 1965.

Virginia M. Hawkins, dau. of Hugh Lawrence and Nannie Jane Price mar. David Paul James. They reside in Petersburg, VA.

Mrs. Olyve Hallmark Abbott

Fort Worth, TX 76109

Dear Mrs. Abbott:

One of my correspondents, Dustin Hawkins of Columbus, Ohio, sent a copy of the April 1990 issue of Hawkins Heritage to me with the recommendation that I apply for membership. By copy of this letter to Mrs. George, I am sending her a check to cover my dues.

I descend from John Hawkins, who died about 1740 in King William County, Virginia, and his wife Mary, through their daughter Mary and her husband Taliaferro Craig:

John Hawkins	= Mary (Long?)
Mary Hawkins	= Taliaferro Craig
Joyce Craig	= John Faulconer
Sally Faulconer	= Daniel Wilcoxson
Jane Wilcoxson	= William Bonannon
Patela Bonannon	= Benjamin Scrogin
William Samuel Scrogins	= Mary Edna Wade
William Benjamin Scroggins	= Sciota Rebecca Young
Garnett Franklin Scroggins	= Mary Emeline Martin
William Gilbert Scroggins	= Patricia Ann Jones

I will be happy to submit the details of my lineage if someone will advise me of the desired format.

The purpose of my letter to you is to inquire about the source of the identity of John Hawkins' wife Mary as the daughter of John Long (page 24, April 1990 issue, Hawkins Heritage). I will be grateful if you will share this proof with me.

Regarding the parentage of John Hawkins, I doubt that he was the son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe. I am aware of the Mayes material in which he is identified as their son, but Judge Mayes gives his source as The Dictionary of National Biography, Volume 25, page 230, which pertains to William Hawkins. I found the article about William Hawkins in Volume IX, page 230, of The Dictionary of National Biography, but it does not identify John Hawkins of Virginia as being a brother of William. That article, of which I have a xerox copy, refers to Burke's Commoners, Volume II, page 215. I have a set of A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Commoners of Great Britain and Ireland (John Burke, Esquire, London, 1834-1838, reprinted Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, 1977), and the article on page 215 in Volume II refers to the family of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe. Among other things it states that their son John Hawkins married a Miss Wainwright and had a son William who married Sarah Grant, who had a son Samuel who married Sarah Collins, who had issue unidentified. There is no reference to emigration to Virginia, so this seems to eliminate John Hawkins of King William County as their son.

Since John Hawkins of King William County named his first son Philemon, I have assumed that he was a brother of his contemporary Virginia colonist Philemon Hawkins. According to a descendant, Philemon, who died young in Charles City County, Virginia, in 1725, was a son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe, but no proof was given. Since Philemon is not mentioned in the Commoners article, he may not have been a son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe either. Nevertheless, it still seems likely that Philemon and John Hawkins of Virginia were brothers.

It also is doubtful that John Hawkins of Great Milton, who married Mary Dewe, was the son of John Hawkins of Slapton and his wife Hester Richards. I have Plymouth Armada Heroes, The Hawkins Family, (Mary W. S. Hawkins, William Brendon and Sons, Plymouth, 1888, authorized facsimile copy produced by University Microfilms International, Ann Arbor, MI, 1976) and it states that John Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Hester Richards, was born on 21 September 1643, lived with his parents, died in 1670 and was buried at Slapton. His sister Hester Hawkins was granted administration of his small estate which consisted of his personal effects and the furnishings of his room. Judge Mayes did not comment on this contradiction in developing his lineage, but it surely bothers me.

I hate to rain on anybody's parade but I trust that all of us are seeking the truth. I was very disappointed to find that these sources contradict the long presumed ancestry of John Hawkins. I was looking for substantiation in them, rather than denial, and I will be delighted if someone can rebut these facts and prove that John Hawkins was who he has been claimed to be.

Sincerely,

William G. Scroggins

Dear Olyve,

Sorry, but Caza/Dusiah Wilcoxson Hawkins does not fit into my line and she does not appear in the index of Wilcoxson and Allied Families (Dorothy Ford Wulfeck, Naugatuck, CT, 1958).

I descend from Daniel Wilcoxson who came to Kentucky in 1776 from Rowan County, North Carolina, and settled first at Boonesborough with his uncle Daniel Boone. Daniel Wilcoxson was a son of John Willcockson and Sarah Boone who moved to North Carolina from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (The Boone Family, Hazel Atterbury Spraker, Rutland, VT, 1922, reprinted Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, 1974).

I would be pleased for you to print my analysis of the suggested parentage of John Hawkins in a future issue. You may print the letter complete or edit it to suit your purposes. If you would like for me to revise it within the parameters of your publishing guide, I will be happy to resubmit it as an article.

The parents of John Hawkins, who died in King William County, Virginia, about 1740, have not been determined. The maiden name of his wife Mary has been considered generally to have been Long and she was identified as the daughter of John Long (Hawkins Heritage, Hawkins Family Association, Fort Worth, TX, page 24, April 1990.), without source citation. She also has been identified in family records as Mary Hall and as Mary Bateman, without proof.

Traditionally, John Hawkins of King William County has been described as a great-grandson of Admiral Sir Richard Hawkins (Hawkins), the British naval hero, but his descent from the famous Hawkins family of sailors from Devonshire, England, is unsubstantiated. It has been claimed that he was a younger son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe of Great Milton in Oxfordshire, England, and a brother of William Hawkins, the eminent serjeant-at-law. (Genealogy of Mayes, Rigg, Lamar, Longstreet and Related Families, Judge Edward Mayes, Hederman Brothers, Jackson, MS, 1929, citing The Dictionary of National Biography, Volume 25, page 230, see Hawkins, William, and Introduction to Hakluyt's Voyages, page 1.)

The biography of William Hawkins (1678-1748), serjeant-at-law, describes him as the second son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe, who was a daughter of Edward Dewe of Islip, Oxfordshire, but it does not identify his siblings. (The Dictionary of National Biography, Volume IX, page 230, citing Burke's Commoners, Volume II, page 215.) John Hawkins and Mary Dewe did have a son John but he married a Miss Wainwright and had a son William who married Sarah Grant, who had a son Samuel who married Sarah Collins, who had issue unidentified. (A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Commoners of Great Britain and Ireland, John Burke, London, 1834-1838, Volume II, page 215, reprinted Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, 1977.) There is no reference to emigration to Virginia, so this seems to eliminate John Hawkins of King William County as their son.

William Hawkins, serjeant-at-law, was described as a descendant Sir John Hawkins (Hawkins) in his biography but the connection was not explained. The parentage of his father John Hawkins was not stated. (The Dictionary of National Biography.) The lineage that claimed that John Hawkins of King William County was a son of John Hawkins and Mary Dewe of Great Milton identified John Hawkins of Great Milton as the son of John Hawkins and Hester Richards of Slapton but that is disputable also. John Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Hester Richards, was born on 21 September 1643, lived with his parents, died in 1670 and was buried at Slapton. His sister Hester Hawkins was granted administration of his small estate which consisted of his personal effects and the furnishings of his room. (Plymouth Armada Heroes, The Hawkins Family, Mary W. S. Hawkins, William Brendon and Sons, Plymouth, 1888, authorized facsimile copy produced by University Microfilms International, Ann Arbor, MI, 1976.) This suggests that John Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Hester Richards, died unmarried and without issue.

JOHN HAWKINS - MARY DEWE

In 1991's December issue, Hawkins Heritage requested sources for the parentage of John Hawkins who married Mary Dewe, and of John Hawkins, husband of Mary Long. Several years ago I ordered a booklet, "Hawkins Family Records", by J. Montgomery Seaver, and printed in 1929 by the American Historical-Genealogical Society in Philadelphia. In 1971 it was republished by the American Genealogical Research Institute, 20 "E" Street, Northwest, Washington, DC 20001. This may be of interest to you, if only for comparison. Many sources are listed for the booklet information, but not specific sources for the following.

The first "Pedigree A" began with William Amadas Hawkins, Sergeant-at-Arms to Henry VIII; m. Margaret Hawkins, d/o ?. Their daughter, Joan, m. John Hawkins, Esq, and lived in Travistock, ENG. He d. in 1490. Their son, Capt. Wm. Hawkins was a sea captain, b. probably at Plymouth, Devonshire; & m. Joan Towne Trelawney, an only child.

A son of Wm. and Joan was Capt. William, who commanded the "Griffin" against the Spanish Armada. (Seven Ch: Richard, Nicholas, b. 1582, Francis, William, Elizabeth, Frances (m. John Newton), and William. A 2nd son was Adm. Sir John, b. 1532, m. #1 Katherine Gonson, #2 Margaret Vaugh, d. at sea 12-Nov-1595. Adm. Sir Richard, s/o Sir John, m. Judith Hele. Richard & Judith's son, John, b. 1604, m. Hester Richards. Seaver further states that John & Hester's son, John, b. 1643, m. Mary Dewe. (Their ch: Wm., b. 1673, author of "Treatise of the Pleas of the Crown"; and John, b. 1680 who settled in St. Anne's Parish, Essex CO, VA, 1705; d, before 7-Oct-1740. John Hawkins & Mary Dewe's children listed as Joseph, b. ca 1707, living in Hanover CO, VA 1740; m. Jane ?; d. ca. 1770. #2 was John, b. ca 1735, living in Hanover and later in Guilford CO, NC; drowned in the Haw River after the Revolution. Richard Hawkins was another son listed for Admiral Sir Richard Hawkins and Judith Hele.

Pedigree "B" begins with Zacharia Hawkins, b. in Eng, and was one of the original proprietors of Brookhamen Town, Suffolk CO, L.I., NY, His children were Zacharia, Joseph, Eleazer, Martha and Hannah.

I believe that Wanita Lucas is the only member who has mentioned the Seaver source to me, so perhaps the 36 page booklet isn't readily available, nor still in print, so I listed excerpts from it.

Wanita Lucas, member from Pana, IL, likes to take Hawkins notes the way many of us do - take a lot of them, and figure it out later! In Seaver's notation, Wanita suggests that John, father of Joseph b 1708 Essex CO VA, and John who lived in Hanover CO, and later moved to Guilford CO, NC, does not seem to be the same John Hawkins who lived in King William CO, VA, and who Virkus says married Mary Long. She mentions that it is obvious that many researchers have confused the John Hawkins. Also, "'The Sevier Family History' has indicated that the Joseph Hawkins, b. 1708, s/o John was the father of Sarah Hawkins Sevier. However when I wrote to Mrs. Madden, the writer of the Sevier book, she replied that she had no documentary proof of that, but only assumed it, and felt it needed further study." . . . . the next day I was discharged from service on account of my inability to serve. I returned home and as soon as I was able I returned and joined the army near Page Town and served out the balance of my time and was honorably discharged on the last of Oct or first of Nov 1781 having served in this tour two months and I returned home and in the same county and in the month of Feb 1782 I volunteered in Capt John Carter's company for two months and we marched to Fredericksburg for the purpose of guarding some British prisoners and was stationed there sometime and we then marched the prisoners up to Winchester where I was discharged having served the time of two months, - having served 8 months and eighteen days, of actual service in the Revolutionary war. I am now a citizen of Mercer Co Ky where I have resided since 1794 when I first removed to this state

-- one Martin C Duncan a clergyman residing in Mercer Co, Ky and James Holman and Robert McAfee also residing in said county do certify that we are well acquainted with Nathan Hawkins and believe him to be age 70

- 10 Since Hawkins Heritage was originated with the hope of identifying the ancestry of James and Margaret Hawkins, born ca.
 1765 and 1768, we are including this family group sheet.
 11 That original idea has grown into many different Hawkins lines, and we anticipate correspondence from all Hawkins descendants! We hope that in your own researching, you will keep a corner of your thoughts open for this particular family. We now know that Sarah Barnett, w/o John R., is from 12 the same Hawkins line as many of our HH members. Perhaps James is also.

These Hawkins family pictures are continued from an article in the December issue, which submitted by Dustin O. Hawkins. Please refer to it for further identification. Dustin descends from Samuel Kilby Hawkins and Elizabeth Barnes.

Welcome to The Hawkins Family Organization

We like to hear from each other in Hawkins Heritage, our newsletter, and we hope that you will contribute something - every issue, once a year, or whenever you like.

Be your own editor and proofreader. We organize and print our material as is, or with minimal changes. Please follow these guidelines for anything to be put into the newsletter, so that it will make a good, readable copy.

1. Use standard 8 1/2 x 11 white paper.
2. Leave a one inch margin on the top and sides and 1 1/2 inches on the bottom of the paper. The frame on this page is a guide.
3. Type, print, or write legibly. Dark, black ink copies the best.
4. Use one side of your paper only.
5. If an item is larger than 8 1/2 by 11 and you are unable to reduce it, then send it as is to the editor to handle.
6. Your submission may be written as a letter to the members, an article with title and author, a question or an answer to the members, or copies of documents, maps, etc. Include proper credit for sources of information.
7. All submissions become property of the Hawkins Family Organization and will not be returned.

Material for the newsletter should be mailed:

by February 28 for the April issue,

by June 30 for the August issue, by October 15 for the December issue.

Blank copies of pedigree charts and family group sheets are available from the publisher by request.
