Note From the Editor

Thank you for all your newsy letters and contributions to our publication! I sincerely appreciate your good wishes for our family.

Most of the our published information comes from you! You may have a family group sheet with a long list of offspring. While only one of them would be your direct ancestor, another might be the "gr gr" of another Hawkins Heritage subscriber. Group sheets often help me connect other lines with yours, especially since my 1990/91 correspondence is now indexed (tho't I'd never get that done)! With some of us, there may be gaps leaving some siblings unaccounted for. If they died young, or if you simply do not know all of them, having those given names would be invaluable for other connections. Someone else's family sheet might provide the clue. When you send material from library research or elsewhere, please cite the complete source (title, publisher, address if given, copyright, & page).

This issue will begin a segment on Matthew Hawkins, b. ca. 1740, and contributed by Joyce Colleen Libes, descendant. Her information is extremely well done, and documentations are frequently provided. I especially like Joyce's comments, as her group sheets progress. The April issue included a brief outline of Matthew Hawkins' family.

While we suggest a deadline for mailing material, sometimes more is received than can be used the following issue. If you have sent something for publication, and think that enough time has passed without seeing it in print, please drop me a note. It could have been omitted in error.

NOTE: Mrs. Farmer generously allows us to print segments of her book. The only editing done by this editor is to occasionally omit some 20th century information. We will continue it until completed.

A Hawkins couple who deserves recognition is William Hawkins and his wife, Mary who lived in Stephens CO., Texas. It is said that they have had nineteen children of their own and raised some of their grandchildren.

In the Stephens CO., TX 1880 census William is shown to have been b. in Tennessee and was 64 years of age. Mary was b. in Alabama. Their children at home at the time were Peter Thomas, 16, and Lewis McK. 10. Both were born in Texas. Also living with them were grandchildren, Delita Jane, 14, James 12, and Sarah C. 10.

"Sarah married 18. June 1891 Marion Wesley Martin at Vernon, TX. Their first two children were b. at Stephenville, TX. They moved to Floydada Floyd, Texas and this was the last time she saw her Grandpa and Grandma Hawkins. I don't know when they died."

George Hawkins a cooper, lived in Lower Norfolk CO., VA in 1647-1655.. In 1654 he was a debtor and in 1659 he was paid from the County levy. In 1653 he was a constable of Lower Norfolk and was also convicted of a theft the same year. For a crime unknown, he was arrested, 1655 and 1657. He was fined in 1653, 1655 and 1656. He was a plaintiff in 1655 and judgement is listed in 1650 and 1659. Payment was ordered to him in 1658. He was a defendant in 1656 and payment was ordered from him in 1656 and 1657 when he is listed as having petitioned the court. He was involved in a court case both years and probate of an estate was granted to him in 1660. His earliest known listing in a court case was in 1652.

wounded in the side and right hand at Bull's Gap. He surrendered with Gen. Taylor in Mississippi on Apr. 15, 1865. He returned to Woodford County and opened a general store and raised cattle. His wife was Dolly Reed of Jessamine CO. He was a Presbyterian. Information from Biographical Sketches in Kentucky A History Of The State by Perrin, Battle and Kniffin.

John Hawkins b. 1750-60 mar. ca 1770 to Elizabeth-----. Their children were: Delila, John, Elender, Joseph, Milly, Elizabeth, Nancy, all born in Kentucky. In 1790 he was in Nelson, CO. KY and in 1791 a daughter was born. In 1815, he deeded one and one third acre of his property for a Baptist Church meeting house and burial ground. It is now called Lincoln Memorial Cemetery on Fort Knox near Mill Creek. In 1820, he was in Harden CO. and died 1830-31.

Mrs. Willie Shearer wrote a family history on her Hawkins line in 1976. A copy was made for me at the Spotsylvania Historical Society in July, 1983. She wrote: "The foregoing family history was given to Mr. Mays or Judge Edward Mays by a--- in a letter bearing the date of Oct. 30, 1893, she being then 72 years old, and having gathered the same from family letters and family conversations." All attempts at contacting Mrs. Shearer were in vain and the identity of "she" remains a mystery.

The "foregoing" information given to Mr. Mays is this: "John Hawkins left his wife, Mary (Waller) Hawkins the following children: 1. John Hawkins, 2. Hardress (Hardy) Hawkins, 3. Elizabeth Hawkins, married John Dick, who died in a year, leaving a daughter Mary Hawkins Dick, who subsequently became the mother of Mrs. Mary Hawkins Jackson of Nashville, TN. Elizabeth Hawkins Dick married Thomas Crowder and left several children, one of whom married a Mr. Nash. 4. Mary Hawkins, born Sept. 9, 1771, married Emsley Parke on Oct. 16, 1794. Children: 1. Pleasant S. Park, 2. Alfred W. Parke, 3. Frances Eliza Park. 5. Frances M. Hawkins married a Mr. Duggar. Children: 1. Elizabeth Duggar, married a Dr. Williams. 2. Caroline Duggar, married a Dr. Battle. Dr. Williams and Dr. Battle were from LaGrange, GA."

Who was this John Hawkins? The Tennessee D.A.R. State Records show that Captain John Hawkins born February 14, 1733, died on Dec. 19, 1786. He was married to Mary Waller and was in the 5th Maryland Battalion 1771-1781. Ref. Heitman's Official Register Pg. 214.

Mrs. Shearer uses Marriages of North and South Carolina by Clemmons, Pg. 120 as her reference for the following: "John Hawkins, oldest son of John and Mary Waller Hawkins went to Rowan County, North Carolina. John married Mary (Polly) Goodman, daughter of John Goodman, on December 27, 1796 in Rowan CO."

The Randolph CO. Deed Book 13, Pg. 354 shows John was married to Elizabeth Varner, dau. of Jacob Varner. Elizabeth Varner of Randolph CO., NC married Benjamin, son of John and Polly Goodman in April, 1831. It is not clear if this is his sister-in-law or another Elizabeth Varner.

Orange CO. NC Deed Bk. 8, Pg. 360 shows that John and Hardress Hawkins, brothers and heirs of John Hawkins came to an agreement on the division of land owned by their deceased father, John. "John agrees to: One tract whereon my father lived, adjoining John Lin, George Fogleman, and the Orange CO., line, 640 acres and one other tract adjoining Robert Fields, Jeremiah Fields, 641 acres," and was witnessed by J. Scott and Isaac Holt. Pro. May, 1800.

Mrs. Shearer shows that a John Hawkins was a Sheriff and Hardrip Hawkins was a Deputy Sheriff in Orange CO., NC. In Sept. 1786, he had a license to keep a tavern or "Ordinary" at his dwelling home. In 1787, she shows that John Hawkins drowned accidentally in the Haw River.

Benjamin Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Polly Goodman was b. June 3, 1803 in Randolph CO., NC. He purchased 250 acres from his father, John in 1825. His wife was Elizabeth Kindley whom he mar. on Feb. 28, 1825 in Randolph CO. They had children: John b. Nov. 25, 18--. He mar. Louisa Smith in Smith CO., MS. Martha (Patsy) was b. May 1, 1827 in Randolph CO. and mar. Anguish Gunn in 1848 in Smith CO., MS. Pleasant C. Hawkins was b. June 9, 1829 and mar. Polly Westbrook.

After Elizabeth Kindley's death in January 1830, Benjamin mar. Elizabeth Varner on Apr. 3, 1831. Their children were: William b. Sept. 16, 1832 in Randolph CO., NC. William mar. Mary Quinn on Jan. 24, 1855 in Smith CO., MS. Anderson b. in Randolph CO. mar. Martha E. McQuinn, Sept. 20, 1855 in Smith CO. Jesse Dobson b. 1838 in Randolph CO. mar. Catherine Johnson on Apr. 16, 1867. Charles (Brim) b. 1840, Mary Ann b. Dec. 12, 1842 mar. Moses Lingle on Aug. 2, 1861. Nancy b. 1844, probably in MS, Thomas b. 1847 mar. Lucy Shirley of Smith CO., MS. Before moving to Mississippi, Benjamin was a member of the Assembly (House of Representatives) from Randolph in 1833/34. He owned over 1,100 acres in Randolph County. He is said to be a descendant of Sir John Hawkins.

Another interesting fact that Mrs. Shearer discovered is that Elizabeth Kindly Hawkins was a descendant of John and Ursula Briles who came from Germany in 1717 to Germanna, VA. Germanna was located on the Rapidan River in Orange, CO., VA. This was the location where Gov. Spotswood established his community of German workers. Remains of living area and place of worship is still there. The location is on the Orange County side of the Rapidan River to the left of the bridge to Culpeper CO. on Hiway 3. from Fredericksburg. The pictures below on this page were taken there. It is still a woodsy and beautiful place. Flat Run is near this area. William Hawkins of Orange CO. left property on Flat Run to his sons, Reuben and Elisha in 1799.

HAWKINS NOTES

by Wanita Lucas

In General John Parker Hawkins' books on his family, he refers to Maryland Hawkins families, which he believes are connected to his family because of the reference to the name Philemon. He says that the name has been carried down through his family -- descendants of John and Mary Hawkins of VA, and descendants of Philemon and Anne Howard Hawkins, who was an immigrant to VA. They then moved to NC.

In a book, Founders of Anne Arundel Co., MD, by Warwick, I find some references to these early Hawkins families, and to the Lloyds. He says that the Bennett, Lloyd, and Meers families were closely allied to the early Hawkins families who settled on the Magothy River, and in the Nansemond area.

We find Ralph Hawkins living on the Magotly River as early as 1657, with wife Margaret. In his will of 19-9-1668, he mentions wife, and sons, Ralph, Jr. and William.

The will of Thomas Meers, of Severn River, leaves personality to Eliza Hawkins, wife of William.

The will of Thomas Hawkins, probated 7-Apr-1677, names his brother John, wife Hannah, and eldest daughter, Eliza, and also Margaret, daughter of Edward Hall.

The will of John Hawkins, probated 17-Mar-1676, leaves his entire estate to wife Mary (or Martha?).

The will of Giles Cole, of Charles Co., MD, dated 7-10-1675, leaves personality to John Hawkins, Jr., and his brother, Henry, and their sister, Eliza Hawkins, and also a bequest to Thomas Hawkins. Henry Hawkins is the executor.

In the will of Henry Hawkins, probated 15-8-1673, leaves his property to Richard Woolman, Alis, his wife, and children; to his brother Philemon Lloyd, his wife; to Edward Lloyd, son of Philemon Lloyd, 4 patents of land; to Susanna Maria Bennett and Edward Lloyd, residue of estate. Ex: brother Philemon Lloyd. It is believed that Henry Hawkins was the stepbrother of Philemon Lloyd, and there were some references to the Lloyd family in England, connected with Hawkins.

Edward Lloyd was made commander of Providence, a position similar to Lt. Gov. One of his commissioners was Mathew Hawkins, who also owned land on the Magothy River. Ralph Hawkins was a neighbor to Mathew Hawkins and Edward Lloyd.

It is believed all these Hawkins families were connected, but it is difficult to determine the exact relationships. In 1651, Col. Cornelius Lloyd was made guardian of Samuel Hawkins, an orphan, and he also acted as agent for Henry Hawkins.

RALPH HAWKINS

Ralph is a given name that hasn't come to my attention very much, via Hawkins correspondence. My first thought is that if you have a Ralph in your ancestry, he might connect with this family.

According to Baltimore County Families, 1659-1759, Ralph Hawkins died in A.A. CO cSept 1699. His wife's name was Margaret, who "may have m. as her 2nd husband James Kyle". Ralph had a son, William Hawkins, of Balt. CO. His will of 1688 listed sons Wm. and Ralph.

William Hawkins, probably son of Ralph, d. there by 1711. His wife was Ann, widow of Stephen White. The article states that John Rockhold of A.A. CO, in his will of 1698, "left property to his 'cousins' (i.e. nephews) Stephen White and William Hawkins, Jr. It was signed by Thomas Hawkins and Elizabeth Slade as kin. "Wm. and Ann had issue: Wm. Jr; possibly Thomas, Elizabeth, m. ? Slade; dau. m. ? White". The article states that there is a study of Hawkins family in William N. Wilkins Gen. Collection at MD Historical Society.

William Hawkins, s/o William and Ann, died in Balt. CO by 1722. He married Ann, who later m. Robert Emory.

To Quote Or Not To Quote

In the May 1991 issue of "Writer's Digest", Art Spikol has some interesting comments on the subject of quoting published material. After making the statement, "Okay. Now that we've established that using someone else's words is not necessarily plagiarism, how far can we go before it is?" He says that if we read a factual statement in a newspaper - "something about the latest census, for instance - you have no obligation to quote the author of the article." "Nobody owns facts. . . . but a collection can be copyrighted." We probably already know that some things are in public domain. The copyright might be outdated, not renewed, or the material was published before copyright laws.

Mr. Spikol says. . . . "you are not allowed to lift a body of information that would tend to devalue in any way, the work in question." That requires some thought. To me, whenever someone has submitted for publication, information concerning their ancestry, with the hope of hearing from an "unknown cousin", they surely wouldn't mind having it reprinted in another genealogical publication. Afterall, they are requesting correspondence. You might want to locate this issue: "Writer's Digest", May, 1991, Pub. by F&W Publications, Inc., 1507 Dana Ave., Cincinnati 45207, p65. . . . Olyve

SAMUEL HAWKINS

COL. SAMUEL HAWKINS, b. Nov 1762, just east of the present day Village of Hawkinstown, Shenandoah County, Virginia, d. 2 July 1814, in Preble County, Ohio (formerly Hardin Township, Hamilton Co., Ohio); son of Joseph Hawkins (d. 1770) and Sarah (Marlin) Hawkins; m. ca. 1783, Ohio County, Virginia, (now WV), Catharine "Christina" Worthington (1759-1813), dau. of Thomas and Ann Worthington, of near Wheeling, Ohio Co., WV. See will of Thomas Worthington (d. 1781) in Ohio Co., WV, Will Book 1, page 3, wherein he willed his plantation to daus. Catharine and Mary Ann Worthington; and Ohio Co., WV, Deed Book 7, page 461, wherein Samuel Hawkins and wife Catharine Worthington Hawkins of Preble, Co., Ohio, sold the land which Catharine had inherited from her father.

In 1770, when Samuel was but seven years of age, his father, Joseph, died. Five years later, upon the request of their mother, Sarah Hawkins, "Samuel and Elizabeth, youngest children of Sarah" were, on the 5th day of the 6th month 1775, received as members of the Quaker, Hopewell Monthly Meeting. They remained Quakers until 1783 in which year both were dismissed--he for having become a Revolutionary War soldier. See Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, by William Wade Hinshaw, pages 399 and 597.

Family tradition has it that Samuel Hawkins joined the army at age 16, served throughout the Revolution with the rank of private; was discharged in 1783 at Wheeling, West Virginia, and there married Christina Worthington; and without returning home, joined with a party of settlers and went to Kentucky.

In the winter of 1784, Samuel and his wife Catharine returned to Shenandoah County, Virginia, for the purpose of selling his land, it being his divided part of the 420 acre Joseph Denham tract, located west of the Town of Mt. Jackson, which had been devised to Benjamin and Samuel Hawkins by the terms of their father's will. By deed dated 20 Feb 1784 (D.B. D, p. 387), Samuel and Catharine Hawkins from Lincoln County in the Commonwealth of Virginia (now Kentucky), for the sum of 350 pounds, sold to his sister, Rebecca Campbell, widow of Lt. Col. Richard Campbell, 200 acres and 100 perches of land. This deed was also signed by Samuel's mother, Sarah Hawkins, as she was executrix of the estate of Joseph Hawkins, deceased.

Then aged 22 and reasonably wealthy from the sale of his inherited land, Samuel and Catharine returned to Kentucky and took up land in Bourbon County joining John Byrd, Capt. William Byrd and not far from Capt. Abraham Byrd. See Bourbon Co., KY, Deed Book X, p. 313, dated 8 March 1830. There are some Bourbon County records that indicate Samuel's older brother, Benjamin and his wife Magdalene (Byrd) Hawkins, may also have settled in that neighborhood.

Magdalene Byrd Hawkins, Pvt. John Byrd, Capt. Abraham Byrd and Capt. William Byrd were all four children of Mounce and Clara (Ruddell) Byrd. From 1762 to 1772 Mounce and Clara Byrd lived at the Red Banks plantation just north of and joining the Hawkins plantation at Hawkinstown. The Hawkins and Byrd families were neighbors in Shenandoah County, VA, and Bourbon County, KY.

In the Bourbon Co, KY, Circuit Court File Box 23-26 is found two documents: The first, dated 18 March 1790, sets forth charges by James Hall and Daniel Workman against Benjamin Hawkins and Samuel Hawkins for non-payment of 10 pounds or a horse of equivalent value. The second, dated 19 Nov 1790, is an order to the Bourbon County sheriff to bring Benjamin and Samuel Hawkins before the court on the third Tuesday in February 1791, to answer charges brought by Hall and Workman. Apparently Benjamin Hawkins had died in 1790, before this suit was prosecuted, for his widow, Magdalene Byrd Hawkins, married John Taylor, in Shenandoah County, Virginia, in April 1791.

Also in Bourbon Co., KY, Circuit Court File Box 100-105 is Samuel Hawkins' bond with Abr. Byrd as security. Hawkins and Byrd agree to pay should Elizabeth Caril win her Judgment against Samuel Hawkins. This undated document is signed in their own handwriting by Samuel Hawkins and Abr. Byrd. In Shenandoah County, Virginia, Deed Book I, page 187, dated 22 June 1793, is a deed whereby "Abraham Bird & Mary his wife of the State of Caintucka", released unto his brothers, William Byrd and Mounce Byrd, "All Our Rights and Title of in and to the Personal or Moveable Estate of Mounce Bird deceased late of the County of Shenandoah in the State of Virginia." A comparison of Abr. Byrd's original signature on this Shenandoah County deed with his original signature on the Samuel Hawkins bond in Kentucky, shows that both signatures are identical, thus providing positive proof that Mounce Byrd's son, Abraham, was the same Abraham Byrd that signed Samuel Hawkins' Bourbon County, Kentucky bond.

Much of the information regarding the places Col. Hawkins lived and data on his children is recorded in the History of Preble County, Ohio, by Collins on pages 100, 145 and 146. Collins states his source for the facts (on pages 145-6) about Col. Samuel Hawkins as taken from a clear, concise manuscript written by Joseph C. Hawkins, when Mr. Hawkins was in his ninety-seventh year. His age being 97 is obviously incorrect as Joseph C. Hawkins (1785-1849) died at age 65 and is buried in Mound Hill Cemetery, Eaton, Ohio. In this manuscript Joseph C. Hawkins lists his brothers and sisters as John J., Benjamin W., Samuel, Byrd, Sarah, Rebecca and Eleanor. No mention was made of a sister Lydia.

In Bourbon County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 2, on page 1, is recorded the marriage, in 1799, of Lydia Hawkins to George Worthington. Collins, on page 100 of his History of Preble County, Ohio, states that Colonel Samuel Hawkins, with his sons Joseph C., John J., Benjamin F., Samuel, and Bird Hawkins were, in 1806, among the first settlers at Eaton, Ohio. On the same page Collins states that a little after 1808, "George Worthington, whose wife was a daughter of Colonel Samuel Hawkins" came to Eaton, Ohio. Possibly George Worthington was a relative of the wife of Colonel Hawkins, rather than son-in-law.

According to a note furnished by Mrs. Marion H. Gray of Columbus, Indiana, Mrs. Grey quotes the following from: Fountain Co. (Ind.) Centennial Book--DAR, 1926--

"In 1824 came a boat load of settlers from Maysville, Ky, bringing with them materials for a community house which they built on the Wabash River bank, 1824. The Town of Maysville was later platted, grew to considerable prominence and disappeared. The men who came were Morrison, Henryman, Dunkin, Hemphill, George Worthington and his father-in-law, Hawkins and Isaac Coleman."

As Col. Samuel Hawkins had died on 2 July 1814, at Preble Co., Ohio, there are some doubts as to whether he was the father of Lydia Hawkins who married, in 1799, George Worthington, in Bourbon County, Kentucky. Col. Samuel Hawkins was living in Ohio, when Lydia married George Worthington. This, coupled with the fact that Joseph C. Hawkins did not name Lydia as his sister, makes it doubtful that George Worthington was a son-in-law of Col. Hawkins. Possibly George Worthington married Lydia, a daughter of some other Hawkins.

Col. Hawkins, a soldier in the Revolutionary War and War of 1812, attained the rank of Colonel in the Kentucky Militia company that took part in the Indian Wars in Ohio under the command of General Wayne. After his victory at the Battle of Fallen Timbers, Gen. Anthony Wayne, in 1795, signed the Treaty of Greenville, thus making a large portion of Ohio safe for settlers. Shortly after the Treaty was signed, Col. Hawkins removed from Kentucky and settled north of Cincinnati on the Great Miami River, in Butler County, Ohio. In 1799 he removed from that locality and became a resident of the spot on which the Town of Germantown, in Montgomery County, Ohio, was later built. There his son, Byrd Hawkins, was born in 1802. In 1806 he sold out and moved to and was among the first settlers at Eaton, Preble County, Ohio. He built a home and tavern and it was in the Hawkins Tavern that the first Court for Preble County was held.

Children of Samuel and Catharine "Christina" Worthington Hawkins

III. Esther Carol Watkins, b. 21 May 1897; d. 25 May See following notes about Jane S. Hawkins Watkins. She furnished these records.

- (4) BENJAMIN WORTHINGTON HAWKINS, b. c 1792 in Bourbon Co., Ky; d. c 1867, at about age 75 in Putnam Co., Ind.; son of Samuel and Catharine; m. Ruth Sellers; moved to Putnam Co., Ind., about 1833
- (5) SAMUEL HAWKINS, b. _____, in Bourbon Co., Ky; d. c 1871, in St. Louis, Missouri; son of Samuel and Catharine; m. Elizabeth Colvin.
- (6) BYRD HAWKINS, b. 1802, in Montgomery Co., Ohio; d. 11 Oct 1854 in Eaton, Ohio; son of Samuel and Catharine; m. Diana Heath. He was a hotel keeper in Columbus, Ohio.
- (7) SARAH HAWKINS, dau. of Samuel and Catharine; m. 25 July 1805, Andrew Foutz. Andrew and Sarah Hawkins Foutz had a son named Andrew Byrd Foutz. She d. in Terre Haute, Indiana, aged about 80.
- (8) ELEANOR HAWKINS, b. _____; d. 1896 in Eaton, Ohio; dau. of Samuel and Catharine; m. William Smith. They had a son named Samuel Hawkins Smith, who is mentioned in the will of Eleanor's father, Samuel Hawkins.

Some sources list Lydia Hawkins; who m. in 1799, George Worthington, in Bourbon Co., Ky; as a daughter of Samuel and Catharine "Christina" Worthington Hawkins.

Much of the information regarding the descendants of Col. Samuel Hawkins is from a handwritten genealogy compiled in 1932, by Jane S. Hawkins Watkins, when she was age 75. Her father was Joseph Campbell Hawkins, son of John Jones Hawkins, son of Col. Samuel. With a letter written from Portland, Indiana, dated 21 Feb 1932, addressed to Mrs. Marion H. Gray of Terre Haute, Indiana, Jane Hawkins Watkins enclosed her genealogy of the Hawkins family. In her letter she wrote--"I have been a long time sending you this genealogy but I know you will forgive my delay when I tell you that I am 75 years old and have to work every day for my living. It is restaurant work and hard for me. So I only have about 2 1/2 hours a day to do other things."

HAWKINS FAMILY REPORT

To Rudelle Davis

Peggy did an excellent job of collecting what little that has been published pertaining to my Hawkins family and their relationship to Davy Crockett. Although much of what has been published in Notable Southern Families is incorrect, it does provide some helpful information. What is basically correct in these reports is that Joseph Hawkins (d. 1770) and wife Sarah Marlin of Hawkinstown did have three sons--Joseph, Jr., Benjamin, Samuel and a daughter Sarah, wife of Tennessee Governor John Sevier. It is also correct that Joseph's youngest son was Col. Samuel Hawkins, who had married Catharine "Christina" Worthington and they were the parents of Joseph Campbell, John Jones, Benjamin Worthington, Samuel, Byrd, Sarah and Eleanor Hawkins. Although Lydia is also reported as a daughter of Col. Samuel there are some reasons to believe she was not

About four years after Col. Hawkins had removed from Bourbon County, Ky., in Bourbon County, Ky., in the year 1799, a Lydia Hawkins was married to George Worthington. A correspondent writes that in 1824--twelve years after Col. Hawkins had died--"George Worthington and his father-in-law Hawkins," from Maysville, Ky., moved up the Wabash River and established a new town called Maysville. She gave her source: Fountain Co. (Ind.) Centennial Book--DAR 1926.

The following is proof that Samuel Hawkins, b. 1762 at Hawkinstown, Shenandoah Co., Va.; son of Joseph Hawkins (d. 1770) and wife Sarah Marlin; was the same person as Col. Samuel Hawkins, b. 1762 in Va.; d. 1814 in the Town of Eaton, Preble Co., Ohio.

1--By Deed dated 20 Feb 1784, Samuel Hawkins and Catharine his wife of Lincoln County, Virginia (now Ky.) signed in Shenandoah Co., Va., a deed whereby they sold to his sister, Rebecca Campbell, 200 acres of land west of Mt. Jackson, it being the same land devised to Samuel by will from his father Joseph Hawkins (d. 1770). Ref: Shen. Co. Deed Book D, p. 387.

2--Joseph Campbell Hawkins (1785-1849), son of Col. Samuel Hawkins, provided the information on his family which is recorded on page 146 of Willims, History of Preble County, Ohio. Joseph C. reported he was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, in 1785 and came with his father's family to Eaton, Ohio. He does not mention having a sister Lydia.

3--In his will recorded in Ohio County, West Virginia, Will Book 1, page 3, Thomas Worthington (d. 1781) devised his land located along the Ohio River near Wheeling, Ohio County, Virginia, jointly to his daughters, Catharine and Mary Ann Worthington.

4--The second daughter, Mary Ann Worthington, applied for and in 1784 obtained from the Commonwealth of Virginia, two patents, one for 400 acres and the other for 320 acres of land, it being land along the Ohio River near Wheeling that Thomas Worthington had made settlement upon in 1773. These two patents, made out in the name of Mary Ann and Catharine Worthington (Legatees of Thomas Worthington), are recorded in the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia, in Grants L, p. 445 and Grants 10, p. 100.

5--The University of West Virginia Library at Morgantown, West Virginia, has the original suit documents pertaining to the Court division in 1808 of Thomas Worthington's 320 acre tract along the Ohio River that had been patented to his daughters Catharine and Mary Ann Worthington. Among the suit papers is a plat and survey description whereby on 4 Nov 1808, Court appointed Commissioners divided Mary Ann and Catharine Worthington's 320 acres into two separate tracts, one containing 168 acres and the other containing 132 acres.

6--By a Deed dated 13 April 1813, recorded in Ohio County, West Virginia, Deed Book 7, p. 461, "in compliance with a partition made by the Court of Ohio County," Samuel Hawkins and wife Catharine (also referred to in the deed as Christain) of the Town of Eaton, Preble Co., Ohio, for the sum of 225 pounds sold the same identical 132 acre tract of land partitioned by the Court, on 4 Nov 1808, from a larger tract of 320 acres jointly owned by Mary Ann and Catharine Worthington.

Assistance in identifying Col. Samuel Hawkins as the son of Joseph Hawkins of Hawkinstown, Virginia, was provided in the many old letters and documents zeroxed and sent to me by Mrs. Marion H. Gray of Columbus, Indiana. Mrs. Gray, now in her 80's and partially blind, began research on her ancestor Samuel Hawkins back in 1922. After her 51 year search, it has been my pleasure to have recently located and provided her with the above data on her Hawkins ancestors.

Dear Olyve,

This added info that I Had requested from the Clerks of Court, Lawrenceburg, KY came about two weeks after I sent the material on our Samuel K. Hawkins to you.

This is a letter received from correspondence with Mary Jane Wilson in 1988 (descendant of Michael and Agness (Eaton?) Hawkins.) She contributed much material to Reginald A. Smith that is contained in his Hawkins genealogy.

There might be a little more info contained in her letter and I have deleted the casual conservation. Thought it might be of interest to some members.

HAWKINS GENEALOGY

by

Mary Jane Hawkins Wilson

Dear Dustin,

I no longer have an address for Mr. Smith. I doubt he is still alive. The last time I wrote him I had no reply. He wasn't well. A lot of his data was speculation I guess, he told me.

I have,

Joshua Hawkins b. July 25 - 1725 a son of Michael and Agness (Eaton?) Hawkins. He had brothers and sisters...

John	7 Jan	1721
Jane	7 Aug	1723
David	3 June	1727	May be others.
Elizabeth	7 June	1731

The above Mr. Smith told me was documented in Bristol parish, Prince George Co., VA. (We know our Hawkins came from VA to So. Carolina)

Michael and Agness son Joshua md. Sarah Cook. Sarah b. 25 July 1725. Sarah, dau. of Richard and Elizabeth Cook. Sarah b. 18 Dec 1729 and had cousins Richard, Henry, Fredrick, John, Nicholas and Elizabeth. Richard Cook had brothers Robert, Winfred, John and Dinah.

Joshua Hawkins will probated 1801, Greenville, S.C.. His son Eaton Hawkins will probated 1812.

Joshua immigrated from VA about 1780. By 1801 at least they lived near Greenville, S.C.. Joshua had a son Joshua who was a Rev. War hero b. 1750 - d. 1812. This Joshua was probably a brother of W.E. Hawkins?

Mine Eaton had at least 16 children & probably more than one wife! He married Catherine _____ Hawkins.

Isham Smith m. a cousin Sally Hawkins (1st cousin) and moved to Barren Co., KY.

Ichabod also m. a 1st cousin, Haley Hawkins and they had several deaf and dumb children.

May have lived to 90-91 yrs..... Ezekiel md. a 1st cousin, Polly Hawkins (Mary).

Mine..... Berryman Hawkins, who was my CG/GF md. Martha Salmon, after she died about 1849 - later listed 1860 census a second wife, Fanny Bridges age 49 - Berryman age 55.

Martha Salmon was a dau. of Walker & Polly (Young) Salmon of VA. Luther Preston Hawkins 1835 - a son of Berryman was 14 or 15 when his mother died. A son of uncle Luther told me his dad never talked about his family, so he knew very little, but probably didn't like his stepmother.

Submitted by Dustin O. Hawkins, PO Box 23067, Columbus, OH 43223
(With permission from the author)

Ralph said the Bridges family was not highly thought of like the Hawkins's.

I have no idea who you are descended from? I don't know how much history you have. But I haven't worked on it for so long I've forgotten lots of it.

Son of Berryman..... Richard Hawkins m. _____ DeShago she was French. He died during the C.W. of pneumonia, bro. of Luther Preston Hawkins. Son of Berryman. Richard suffered wounds was a prisoner C.W.

Uncle Luther apparently had a young brother (b. 12 Sept. 1838 in the Bible). No one knew anything about him, but on the 1860 census is (Franklin Salmon.) found a Franklin Salmon Hawkins with Henry & Hannah Hawkins. I don't know who this Henry & Hannah were. Uncle Luther had an uncle Henry who m. Lucy Salmon, an aunt of Martha Salmon.

These Hawkins had so many kids and so many of the same name it's hard to separate them. Like looking for Smiths and Wilsons by the dozen.

From Mrs. Forrester of Greenville, S.C., photo copy 1972 in dept. N.C. archives & history. Rutherford, a N.C. tax list 1782 p. 3a:

" Eaton Hawkins - same tax list living near Eaton is Fredrick Hawkins indicating our Eaton & Catherine Hawkins lived in Rutherford Co., N.C. sometime before coming to S.C.. Could also indicate that Levina Hawkins Martin, b. in N.C. & data found in our Hawkins bible, may have been a G/ niece of Eaton - a grandchild - daughter of one of Eaton's sons, of whom we last trace - to name - Henry Hawkins.

Uncle Luther had a sister Elizabeth who m. Jesse Poole who died in C.W. in Alabama. Jesse & Elizabeth had three children who never married. (Nephew of Luther P. above)

1. Jefferson Davis Poole
2. Jesse P. Poole (had a hardware store in S.C.)(Maybe Travelers Rest)
3. Mattei E. Poole

The wife of Richard received a nice letter about her husband saying he was a fine man & honest. I'm wrong, Uncle Luther received the letter from Richard's brother-in-law & was signed _____ DeShazo.

As for the data you sent - Joshua Hawkins & Sarah Cook Hawkins, will 1801, Greenville, S.C. was father of my Eaton Hawkins & GF of my Berryman!

You will also note the Joshua Hawkins you mention, Rev W. hero, was apparently a son of the above Joshua & Sarah.

There is Jesse Hawkins buried Bushy Creek cem, S.C.

b. 25 Dec 1774 d. 1853. He was 79.

1st wife P. Hawkins 1775 - 1814 He outlived 2 wives.
2nd wife E. Hawkins 1775 - 1848

There were several Berryman Hawkins (Berry for short) also lots of Eatons.

Jesse above will 26 June 1848/ probated 10 May 1853, $\frac{1}{4}$ acre set aside for cemetery & rock wall to be built around it.

Catherine, wife of Eaton d. ca 1829. We had no trace of Henry then.

On page 317 RMC office, Greenville, S.C. 8 Nov 1816

Henry Hawkins was moving in 1816 or earlier (where?)

We lost tract of Henry after 1816. So Henry might have moved to N.C.? Levina Hawkins Martin b. in N.C., could have been dau. of Henry. All her kids b. in Missouri, 1846 or later. Levina b. Aug 1827 and in the census in N.C.. Her and Georges children were:

Isabelle, b. 1846. Elizabeth, b. 1848. Polly, b. 1849. John, b. 1851. William, b. 1853. Sealy, b. 1854. James H., b. 1856. George A., b. 1859. Phillip, b. 1861. All in Missouri.

Riley B. Hawkins, bro. of my GM Elizabeth Jane Hawkins Wells, b. 1856 and d. 1940. I guess he m. 1877 to Mary C. _____, b. 1858.

Children of this family: Alfred Lenoard, b. 1878 and d. at age 20 of pneumonia. Fana W., b. 1881. Nancy E., b. 1884. I think this one md. an old man — had twins and died from it according to a story my aunt told me many years ago. John J., b. 1888.

He md. 2nd a part Indian woman, Elizabeth Ellen Denton in 1891.
2nd family: 1. William Riley md. Effie Jones of MO.

2. Elizabeth Jane md. Otto Evans. Otto served in WW 1 and had one leg shot away. Took his knife and finished cutting it off.

There were Pinkneys (Pink) in the Hawkins, too.
Ezekiel Hawkins md. Mary Hawkins, a cousin (1st) and from a story a descendant of mine sent me; a wagon train came and camped in the Reedy River Church (Greenville, S.C.) ground. They were md. (I guess she came with the train) and spent their first night in the church. Mary lived to be 90 yrs. old.

I have a copy of an old letter dated Sept 3, 1837 written by Ichabod Hawkins to bro. "Fredric". Fredric may have been a bro. in law, brother of Mahalia his wife. Parents of Mahalia were William and Sarah Hawkins.

Ichabod speaks of his daughter " Mary can't hear or speak." Neither could Jerry. He speaks of Uncle Pink.

In Sept. 1838, he mentions "Street" that was Salomon. Ichabod speaks of moving to wherever Fredric lived. In April 1837, he mentions brother Bayliss and sister Martha and Henry.

Jerry Hawkins talked with his hands. I had letters from a woman in Charlotte, N.C. in the 60's. Ichabod came to Hendersonville, N.C. to see his dad, William Henry Hawkins. He brought his brother Jerry and she saw him "talk".

Alford Hawkins was killed in the church house by a son of a woman he had stepped out with in Hendersonville, N.C.. Katie Hawkins (Ezekial) md. James Gudger. He was a congressman from Ashville, N.C.. Katie wrote that Alvin Hawkins, Gov. of Tennessee, was related to our Hawkins. But I never learned how. She wrote this in about 1916.

Katie Gudger's dau. Katie md. a Senator Langley, congressman from KY. Katie Langley had a dau. Katie Hinton.

A sister of Henry, Ichabod, Berryman married John Ragland of KY and her name was Polly (Mary). Sarah, the eldest m. Alexander West.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Wilson

10 Since Hawkins Heritage was originated with the hope of iden-
 11 tifying the ancestry of James and Margaret Hawkins, born ca.
 12 1765 and 1768, we are including this family group sheet.
 That original idea has grown into many different Hawkins lines, and we anticipate correspondence from all Hawkins do-scendants! We hope that in your own researching, you will keep a corner of your thoughts open for this particular family. We now know that Sarah Barnett, w/o John R., is from the same Hawkins line as many of our HH members. Perhaps James is also.

Sources for information about Matthew Hawkins are: Culpeper Co. Deedbook U page 191; Will Book H pages 196-7, 27 May 1820 and proved 19 June 1820; estate appraisal 21 June 1820, recorded 20 Aug. 1821; military record of service in Culpeper Co. Continental Army, Recruit Class # 53 for Jan 1781; LDS records, various other land records for his sons and father-in-law, and Fredericksburg's Chancery Court Suit File #124 which names heirs and establishes relationships. Account of sale of property 13 November 1820, Inventory in Book H pp.340-9. Some of the people making purchases were:

1. Job Hawkins and James Hawkins, two of Matthew's sons.
2. David Hudson, a neighbor with descendants related to Matthew's family.
3. Aaron House, also a neighbor. The Hawkins and House families shared a cemetery seen on the Scheel historical map of Madison County.
4. Matthew Hawkins Jr's. purchases are found on page 445 of WB H, November 14, 1820 and November 15th 1820. He purchased a wheat fan and other items amounting to $19.62.

There has been no proof so far of a relationship between the two Matthews of Culpeper County, but many feel that Matthew Sr. was Matthew Jr.'s uncle, a brother of his father, Benjamin Hawkins. There's been much speculation by some that this family's progenitor is the famous Sir John Hawkins; but convincing proof is lacking. Although much of the evidence is only circumstantial, it's more likely the Culpeper County Hawkins were related to the MD Hawkins family many of whom bore the same given names as the Culpeper Co. family: Benjamin, Matthew, and Augustin. There were frequent moves between the two states in the 1600's and 1700's for economic as well as religious reasons. Records exist for Hawkins named Matthew, Benjamin, and Augustin in Virginia (Essex and York) and Maryland. Although it IS possible the sea captain was Matthew's ancestor, it SEEMS more likely the Maryland Hawkins were the progenitors. So far the first Culpeper Co. record for Matthew is in the county Court Order Book 1763-4, page 333: Matthew Hawkins vs. James Hawkins. Judgement for plaintiff. It concerned a horse in the possession of James Gaines Jr. and Daniel Dulaney.

The birth order and years of her children are estimated from their marriage dates when known. They may be older or younger. Hannah's birth year is also a guess based on the approximate marriage date of her parents. The year she died is estimated by using the approximate year of Matthew's second marriage to Betty Pitcher and the birth of their child Rebecca.

Proof that there were two wives is established by the Fredericksburg City Chancery Court Suit, File #124, initiated to settle Job's estate and divide land Matthew left to Job and James. This suit proves the correct relationships and shows that all but the youngest child (Rebecca) were born of his marriage to Hannah Maxwell. The documents name the wives and the children born to each. They belonged to the Raggedy Mountain Baptist Church, which was later known as the F. T. Baptist Church. Today it is located on the road between the towns of Madison and Sperryville in Rappahannock County.

James was residing in Meade Co. before 1822 when his uncle Job Hawkins died in Culpeper Co. Virginia and was still there in February 1828 when he along with his brothers and sister sold their share of the land they had inherited (which was the share of their mother, Phebe Hawkins Popham) to Armistead Brown. The LOS IGI records show the marriage of James Popham, Hardin Co. KY, June 1, 1838 to Sally Richardson and birth of a child, Elizabeth, 1839. It may not be him, or he was much younger than thought, or it's a later (2nd) marriage for him.

Her parents moved to Scott Co. KY around 1792 or just before, so it's possible Phoebe could have been born there instead of in Virginia.

Welcome to The Hawkins Family Organization

We like to hear from each other in Hawkins Heritage, our newsletter, and we hope that you will contribute something - every issue, once a year, or whenever you like.

Be your own editor and proofreader. We organize and print our material as is, or with minimal changes. Please follow these guidelines for anything to be put into the newsletter, so that it will make a good, readable copy.

1. Use standard 8 1/2 x 11 white paper.
2. Leave a one inch margin on the top and sides and 1 1/2 inches on the bottom of the paper. The frame on this page is a guide.
3. Type, print, or write legibly. Dark, black ink copies the best.
4. Use one side of your paper only.
5. If an item is larger than 8 1/2 by 11 and you are unable to reduce it, then send it as is to the editor to handle.
6. Your submission may be written as a letter to the members, an article with title and author, a question or an answer to the members, or copies of documents, maps, etc. Include proper credit for sources of information.
7. All submissions become property of the Hawkins Family Organization and will not be returned.

Material for the newsletter should be mailed:

by February 28 for the April issue, by June 30 for the August issue, by October 15 for the December issue.

Blank copies of pedigree charts and family group sheets are available from the publisher by request.
