HAWKINS HERITAGE

Published by The Hawkins Family Organization
Olyve Hallmark Abbott, Editor

PURPOSE: The Hawkins Family Organization began in 1985. It is conducted by mail and has no scheduled meetings. The purposes are: To promote genealogical research on Hawkins families and related lines; to promote and share family history; and to strengthen extended family ties.

NEWSLETTERS: HAWKINS HERITAGE is published three times a year in April, August, and December. All members are encouraged to contribute letters and material to the editor. It is preferable if you type your material, but if not convenient, please share it anyway.

QUERIES: Members are also encouraged to send queries to the editor.

MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS: HAWKINS HERITAGE was begun with the hope of identifying the parents of James and Margaret ? Hawkins, b. c1765 and 1768, probably in Virginia. Taxation records show that they lived in Stafford CO Virginia from 1793 until 1825, when they migrated to Clark CO Kentucky. One son, John R., married into the Hawkins/Bourne line, which may be a connecting branch of the above James. Because of an apparent need for "group" research, our publication is now open to descendants of all Hawkins lines.

Individual membership and subscription is $12 per year. Contributing Membership and subscription is $20 per year (may vote).

Subscriptions begin with the April issue. Subscribers during the membership year may receive back issues of the current year or begin with the next year and pay for any single back issues, which are $4 each. The 1st issue was December 1986; 2nd, April 1987; 3rd, 1988; continuing with August and December from then on.

PEDIGREE SERVICE: You are welcome to send your Hawkins pedigree chart to be checked with our collection. You will be given any additional information which we might have on file, that would match up with your own. Your chart will be filed for possible future contact. Our Hawkins ancestor files deal mostly with Hawkins of the south and southwest, although not entirely. Cost of this service is $1 to cover search and photocopies, plus an SASE.

MARTHA "PATSY" HAWKINS - RAYMOND BEDFORD

Submitted by Frances Killian Schartman, 9142 900 Ave. E, Oak Harbor, WA 98277

Martha "Patsy" Hawkins, was born c1762. She married Raymond Bedford, Rutherford CO, NC, in 1781. Martha died after 1830 in Rutherford CO.

(The following extracted by your editor from printed material sent by Mrs. Schartman.)

Raymond Bedford was born 1758, probably born in Essex CO, NJ., his family moving to Cumberland CO PA, and then to Mecklenburg, NC. He died 15 May 1820 in Rutherford CO.

Martha and Raymond had six children: James, b1786; Nancy c1788; Massa (f) c1790; Noah Peter c1794; Joseph Hawkins c1800 and Jonas c1804.

A source for some of the above taken from The Ancestors of Glen Johnson of Texas. According to this book, parents of Raymond Bedford were Jonas Bedford, Sr., 1735-1823, and Mercy Travis, 1740-1822.

According to Colonial Granville County And Its People, edited by Worth S. Ray: "Grant to Philemon Hawkins, 70 A on N side Main Broad River, adj. William Hawkins land that he bought of Jonas Bedford & below on Peter Dills, on Richardsons Creek . . . 20 Oct 1784. Alex Martin."

Frances Schartman would like to know if William Hawkins born c1742 in Halifax CO VA was "Patsy's" father, and did Patsy have a brother named Philemon? Since we have members who descend from the same line as General John Parker Hawkins (with "Philemons" in his line,) perhaps someone can add to Frances' family history.

Frances also sent a generation descent chart of her surname of "Killian." (The first was Andreas Killiam 1702-1788, born in Germany, and died in Catawba CO NC.)

THE STORY OF THE BRASS CANDLESTICK

Submitted by Gail Hawkins, 11615 Sagevale Lane,
Houston, TX 77089

On Oct. 12, 1812, three young couples were married in the same church ceremony in Culpeper Co., Va. One of these couples was John B. Hawkins, my Gr-Grandfather and his bride, Ann Foard. (A copy of their marriage contract is in the documented data in the Family Lineage Book.) Since Ann was an orphan, her uncle, William Foard signed for her. her own father's name was James Foard.

(Note: Gail corrects the father's name to "William," and mother was Ann Moore.)

Outside the church waited six riding horses, and after saying farewells to their families and friends, the six young people mounted and left on a long and hazardous honeymoon. They were bound for "Kentucky Territory," where there was land offered for homesteading. The brides' saddle-bags held their wedding gifts, linens, bed clothes, and other homemaking items. The men carried tools to build the cabins' farm implements, and seeds for planting. One of Ann's gifts from home, was this pair of candlesticks, which had been in her family, probably for several generations, since they were made in England. (Authority-Curator of Wichita Art Museum, where this one was displayed in 1965.)

Several evenings later as they approached the "Cumberland Gap" in what is now central Tennessee--a deep narrow valley between the mountains, Ann's horse lost a shoe, and John and Ann had to stop while the shoe was replaced. The two other couples rode ahead to make camp, but by the time John and Ann were ready to travel, it was too dark to see the narrow road, and they decided to wait until the next morning.

When they reached the campsite of their friends, they found that Indians had attacked, stolen the horses, and saddlebags and left only the scalped bodies of the four young people lying beside the road.

After burying the bodies of their friends, John and Ann had the courage to continue their journey and came into what is now Mason Co., Ky., where they built their cabin, and reared their family. The fourth child, James Foard Hawkins was my grandfather, born in 1823.

The pair of candlesticks was divided when one was given to my mother and the other to her brother, and each gave them to their daughters. This one came to Kansas with me in 1921 and the other is, I suppose, still in Daviess Co., Ind., where James and his wife, Hannah Ann Hixson lived at the time of their deaths.

NOTE: The above letter was written by and mailed to Gail Hawkins from Julia (Boyd) Eckelman, May 1975.

BARNETT HAWKINS

Barnett Hawkins settled in Newton County, Indiana, his family having previously lived in New York for generations.

Barnett Hawkins died in Kentland on July 9, 1903. He was born in Poughkeepsie, NY in 1834. His parents were Edgar and Lydia Ward Hawkins. Lydia belonged to an old Quaker family. This couple had six children, two of whom were George and Frank. The family settled first in Michigan City, IN, then moved to Laporte. Edgar settled on a farm, of 230 acres. His death occurred through an accident at a mill which he owned in Brook.

They were active in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Barnett attended a log schoolhouse, later teaching school and attending college at Greencastle. He was also a carpenter and served as county surveyor.

In 1857, Barnett married Anna V. Jones, daughter of Cornelia and Mathilda Minchell Jones. Her parents came to Brook, remaining there until their deaths. They had eleven children.

WILLIAM D. HAWKINS - JULIA BLACKWELL

Submitted January 19, 1996 by Helen Hawkins Jones

WILLIAM D. HAWKINS, my gr-gf, was born in North Carolina. I think his father may have been Robert of Rhode Island, but I'm not certain. His wife was AMY ALDRICH. He and his wife had three sons, John, born 1821, Stephen born 1827, and William, 1829. My gr-gf married JULIA BLACKWELL, maybe his 2nd wife, but she was my gr-gm.

William D. was a Confederate soldier. He was b1829. He was in Company D, 65th Infantry. Enlisted May 6, 1862 and was promoted to 2nd Sgt. Aug. 15, 1864. In his application for a pension filed in June, 1910, he stated he was at the Battle of Nashville; separated from his command in the retreat and did not reunite with the Army until after Hood's surrender. I found him living in what is now Rome, GA, at 1022 Watters in 1860.

This could have been Cherokee County which extended from NC through a part of AL. I went there last year and they are very close along the northern area of these three states. He probably had a brother named James, who was lists as a private in the Cherokee Rangers on Aug. 17, 1861. They all lived in the same area of Rome, GA at this time. I think he also had a brother named J. N. B. Hawkins, since he and his wife, Sarah Melton, are buried in Van Zandt County, TX.

I will be happy to share my information with anyone who is interested and will also research records available to me in this area. Thanks again,

Helen Hawkins Jones

A WORD OF WARNING

Gail Hawkins of Houston sent me a copy of an article from The Virginia Genealogist, Sept-Oct, 1995. We have all heard of publications of various surnames, when in reality, they are nothing but a little information concerning the history of the surname, plus those surnames listed in telephone books throughout the country. We can to our own libraries and get the same listings for ourselves.

I am not saying they are frauds. Just think about it. The informative article by Helen Hinchcliff, National Genealogical Society Ethics Committee is helpful.

The name involved is HALBERT. They issue six book titles leading possible customers to believe they contain information about their own family name. Apparently not so! Should you receive advertising mail from HALBERT'S, you can ignore it! Even their "clan reunion tours" of Scotland seem to be standard tours and not a route where you can see where your own Scottish ancestors lived.

HALBERT'S has been investigated by the Postal Service before. Helen Hinchcliff suggests if you have comments and complaints about HALBERT'S, write to Jennifer Angelo, Chief Counsel, Office of Consumer Protection, U.S. Postal Service, 475 L'Enfant Plaza, Washington, DC 20260-1100.

Also, for years various companies have solicited business through the mails, concerning surnames. They all lead you to believe their publications give you much material on your ancestry. And WE will even have our names in their books! Yep, so does our telephone book. As soon as the Postal Service fines them, they seem to change their business name and start over.

PERMELIA NICKELL HAWKINS - LETTER

(From the letter collection passed down to her great-granddaughter, Olyve H. Abbott.)

From Permelia:

George's Creek, Texas
March 19, 1889

My dear children,

Mr. Hix just came over from Granbury and told us you were ailing, John. We are so sorry to hear that. I am uneasy about you. Now Willie, be sure to write often so we will know and won't have to worry. Take care of each other.

We enjoyed the visit so much, and we got home all right, even though it had been raining hard. I thought it would let up and stop, but it had already been pouring. We crossed at Rock Crossing. We met a man that said the water would run over the wagon bed at the Marline Crossing, and indeed it did. I was not scared at all, and we got home before night. Later when I thought on it, the water was a bit fierce.

When I came home Rosa Atchison and her baby Annie Ester were sick and I had to go there. The babe is only five months old and real sweet. Then my friend Mrs. Hodges sent for me and I was up with her all night. She had a big boy, weighing thirteen pounds and they are both well.

I got a letter from Ella Story and got the nicest present Sunday evening. And yesterday a brown flowered dress came in the mail. We can't think where it came from. I am going up to Uncle Wright's and cut out and make him a pair of pants.

Now I hope all the sick there is better. We are all well. I fear you will not have enough money. Do you have? Be sure to let me know.

From mama to her dear children,

P. F. Hawkins

Permelia's Journal:

John and Willie have taken work in Granbury, over in Hood Country. I just left from there and now John is sick. Andrew could sure use their help, but our friends there need them more, and the boys can use some extra money too. Poor Mr. Scarbro passed away and his wife couldn't get the work done. We'll just have to ride back over and take some things, and of course, see our boys again. -- Permelia.

From John Robert:

Hood County, Tex.
March 28, 1889

Dear folks at home,

Your letter just came to us and we are glad you didn't have real trouble in getting back. I am feeling well now and have been eating all the time to make up for what I missed when I was sick. It's hard to know when I have had enough.

Now sit down since this is going to be a long story if I can get it all told. Up in Colorado there were these two physicians that had been wanting to do some kind of experiment with hanged criminals, to see if they could bring them back to life. Well, they made arrangements with the vigilante committee to get this man sent over to the hotel after he was hung. So after the hanging, a boy came over to the doc's office to fetch them to this hotel.

They went right to the hotel room where the clerk sent them, and sure enough there he was laying out still as could be. One of the doctors put a piece of metal in each of the man's hands. This metal was on wires somehow on a battery and then they turned on the switch. Well, that man jumped out of bed and was screaming and hollering so much to the hotel clerk that they thought they'd brought him back to life. The clerk said, "You brought him back to life nothin'. He sent for you to lance a boil!"

So you know Ma, the doctors went to the wrong room. I tell you Ma, that man grabbed his gun and chased those doctors until they couldn't run any more. Can't you just see it happening?

You probably think I'm joking you for an April fool's joke Ma, but that's what was told to me.

We're about getting this work done. It's been a real wet week though, more than usual so it's just get as much done in the mud as possible.

Pa, it was real good to see you. We like to see you all so well and it won't be too long before we'll be coming back. I suspect you could use our help. Take good care of yourselves and write when you can.

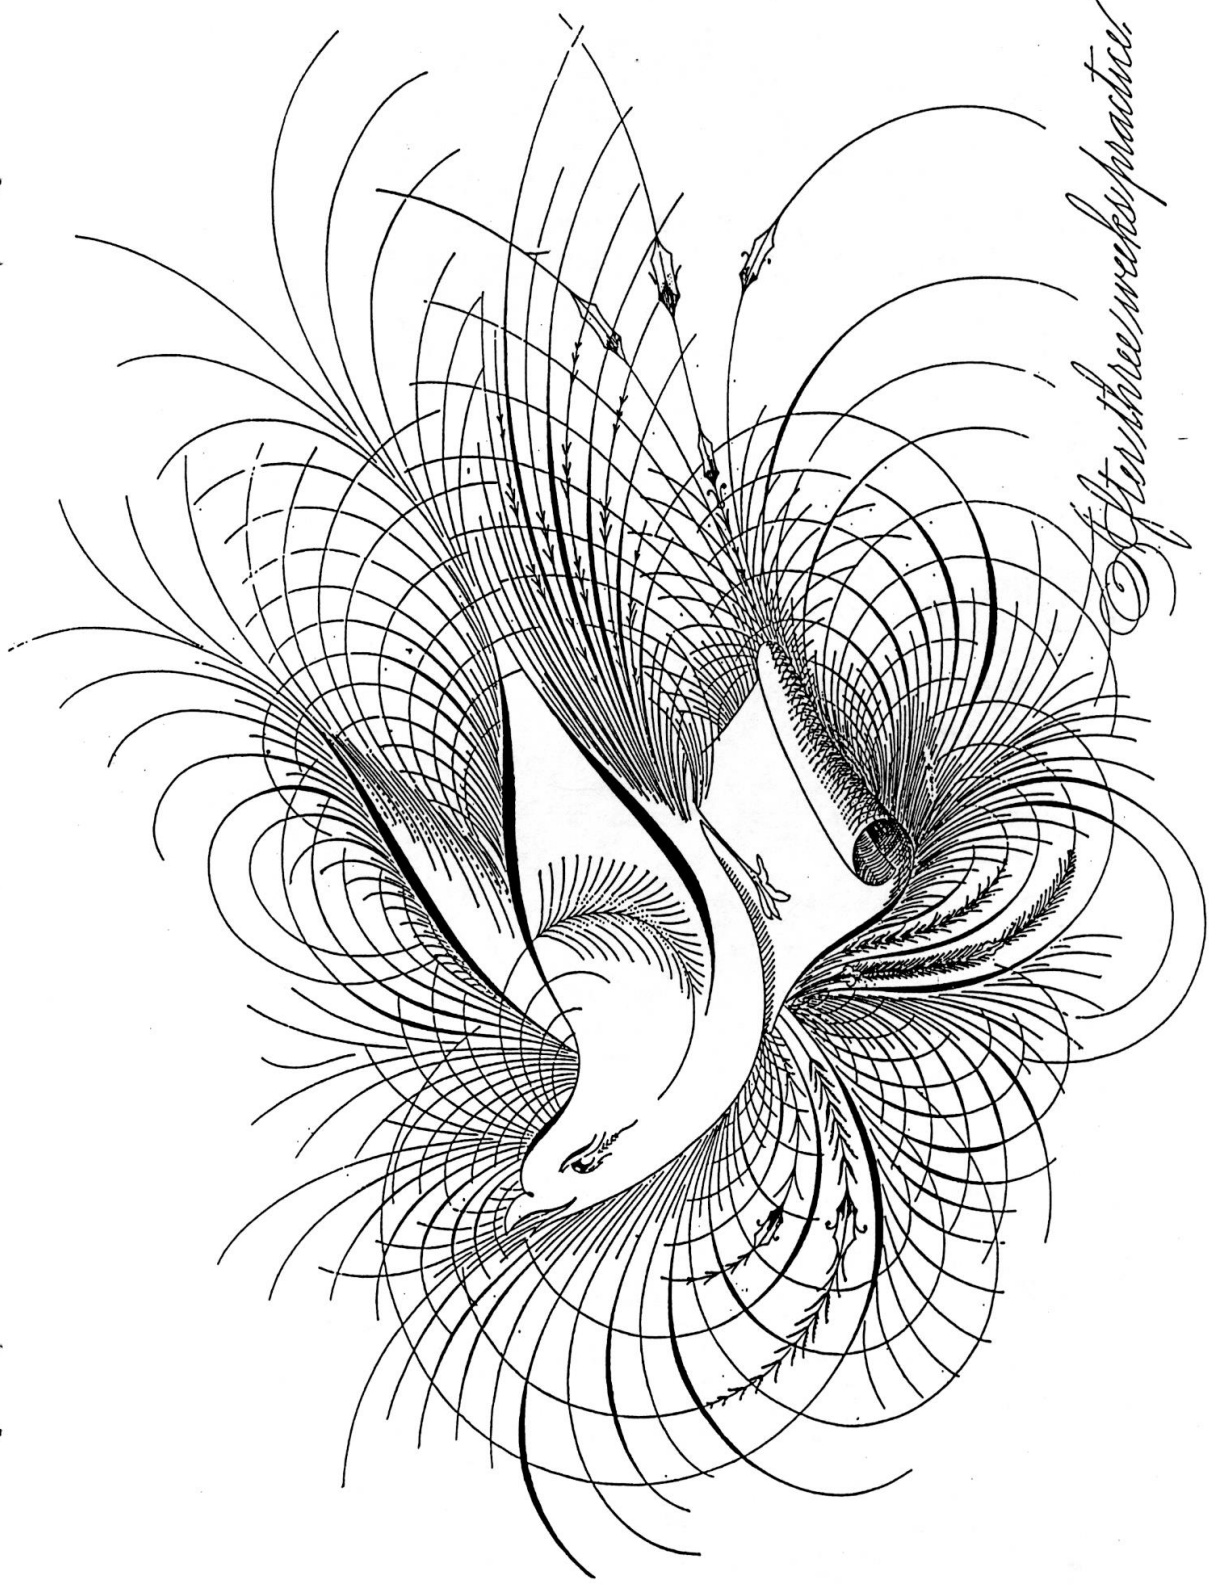

Your sons,
John and Willie

NOTE: My great-grandparents, Andrew Jackson and Permelia Nickell Hawkins came to Texas from Morehead, KY in 1880. As some of you know, I've written a manuscript based on their lives, and included most of the 150 letters in Permelia's collection. I thought the above might be interesting to you.

Remember to send your queries. This is a new year! Our publication is flexible.

Also, please either write your name, or initials on each page you send. I remove the material from the envelopes, and don't keep material and letters together. Identification helps give you credit for the submission plus it helps to connect your line with someone else's. Part of it's my fault for not identifying everything as soon as it arrives. Somehow, I just don't do it, so hel-up me!

LETTER FROM JAMES M. BOURNE

The following are letters from the collection of General John Parker Hawkins, who researched his family history in the late 19th century and into the 20th. The original letters are in the Kentucky Historical Society Library in Frankfort, KY. Copies are available for patrons' viewing.

Louisville, June 10, 1892

M. Paxton, Esq.
Platte City, MO

Dear Sir:

I am just in receipt of the information that in your history of "The Marshall Family" you claim that "Maria Love Hawkins, who married John A. Washington Smith was a daughter of Capt. John Hawkins, Adjutant of Col. Thomas Marshall's Third Virginia Regiment. - and that the Adjutant was descended from Ralph Hawkins who settled in Charles County, MD about 1650."

Will you please inform me upon what records or other evidence you base the statement?

The descendants of two other John Hawkins claim descent from the Adjutant of that Regiment. Please give me as complete a history of the one mentioned by you as you can - his residence, brothers and sisters and parents.

Very Respectfully
(signed) James M. Bourne
1400 Third Avenue

Researching back then was confusing/complicated as now, right?

Platte City, Mo.
June 13/92

Mr. Bourne:

I cannot now mention with certainty my authority for the passage to which you refer, but am convinced that it was either, Hon. Marshall J. Smith of New Orleans (No. 492 of my Chart) or Miss Margaret V. Smith (1202 of my Chart) of Alexandria, Va. I think the former was my informant, but both are well informed in genealogical matters, and will courteously reply to your letter.

On page 147 I find "Anna G. Strother=John Hawkins. So that I have a note."

J.R. Darnall of Wichita Falls, Texas, writes his lineage as follows:

Anna G. Strother = John Hawkins - Their son
Wm. Strother Hawkins = _____ Keith
Isham Keith Hawkins = _____
Kate Hawkins = _____ Darnall
J.R. Darnall of Wichita Falls, Texas -
He will answer your letter.

You will find a good deal on the Hawkins family in the "Historic families of Kentucky and Virginia" by Col. Thomas M. Green of Danville, Ky.

Yours cordially
(sigd.) W.M. Paxton.

NOTE: General John P. Hawkins' handwritten notation at the top of James Bourne's letter, says "Mr. Paxton is correct. The descendant of Ralph Hawkins was the Adjutant." - Olyve

April 11, 1996

Dear Hawkins Cousins,

I want to report on the surgery of Bill George, Hawkins descendant, and husband of Joan George, our treasurer and membership chairman. On January 21st, Bill had a liver and kidney transplant. Joan wrote that although the organs are working beautifully, Bill is still in intensive care. We are thinking of the George family and offer our prayers for Bill's quick recovery.

Kathleen Briglio has recently undergone surgery, and needs our positive thoughts and prayers. So few of us have met our Hawkins Heritage cousins, but I had the pleasure of visiting once with Kathleen when she visited her father in Texas. Ten years ago, after several of us corresponded through a round-robin newsletter, it was Kathleen who suggested we turn it into a publication which would reach many more people.

Bill George and Kathleen Briglio mean a great deal to us all. Our prayers and best wishes every day, for them both.

Welcome to The Hawkins Family Organization

We hope you will contribute to the publication of HAWKINS HERITAGE - every issue, once a year, or whenever you like. It is from your submissions that our issues can maintain a large amount of information. Be your own editor and proofreader. We organize and print the material as is, or with minimal changes. Please follow these guidelines for your submission.

1. Use standard 8 1/2 inch paper.
2. Try to leave a one inch margin on the top and sides and 1 1/2 inches on the bottom.
3. Type, print, or write legibly. Dark black ink copies the best.
4. Use one side of your paper only.
5. If an item is larger than 8 1/2 x 11, and you are unable to reduce it, then send it as is to the editor to reduce.
6. Your submission may be written as a letter to the members, the editor, an article with title and author, a question or an answer to the members, or copies of documents, maps, etc.
7. If you are sending copyrighted material, we cannot use it without the complete source. Please give the title, author, publisher, copyright date, and page. If it is not copyrighted, please cite the source so that credit may still be given.
8. If you want your submissions returned, please provide return postage.
9. If you send family group sheets, number each sheet in the order that it is to be interpreted. This is extremely important especially if it is used in our publication, but also for my indexed files.
10. Put your name or initials on every page you send.
11. Please put the date on your letters as well as on the material you submit. It is helpful if you use an inside address on your letters. I file your letters but not the envelopes in my notebooks.
12. If you are a new member, it is hoped that you will send a family group sheet or pedigree chart.
13. We urge our members to take advantage of submitting queries. You may do this once a year, and they can be in "standard" form or in letter form. Since we have new members all the time, your query will still be new to them.
14. Suggestions welcomed.

Dates of submission: The following dates are approximate. Sometimes I receive too much for the next issue, and at other times, I might need a little more.

By February 28 for the April issue.

By June 30 for the August issue.

By October 15 for the December issue.
