

The Pain Family of Lambeth

descendants of George Pain of Portsea

First Generation

1. George Pain was christened on 14 Mar 1830 in Portsea, Hampshire. He died in Dec 1882 in Lambeth Registration District.

1841 Census - Cherry Garden Row, Kingston and Landport, Borough of Portsmouth. Age 10, living with mother, step-father John Warder and siblings.

1851 Census - not found. No suitable match in 1851 surname index for Portsmouth, Portsea or Alverstoke. Was not living with his mother, step-father and siblings. Could have moved to Lambeth or nearby? If George moved to London in search of work it could have been connected with the railway expansion???? In 1848 the London and Southampton Railway was both extended to Portsmouth and at London was extended from Nine Elms at Battersea to Waterloo. George lived very near to Waterloo Station and worked as a caman for many years. Camen were often employed to transport goods to and from railway stations.

1861 Census - 16 Vine Terrace, Lambeth, age 32, occupation: labourer, born Hampshire, Kingston

Living with wife Harriet Pain, and 3 young sons: George, Charles and Thomas

They were sharing the house with two other couples and two lodgers (including William 'Hawse', age 23 - a brother of Harriet?)

3 June 1861 - On son Lewis' birth certificate: occupation: Horsekeeper at a Builder's, residence: 16 Vine Terrace, Waterloo Road, Lambeth. Lewis' mother recorded as Harriett Paine, formerly Hawes.

26 January 1862 - Marriage certificate: Occupation & abode: labourer; 8 Union St, Borough Road, Southwark. George and Harriet were married at the St George the Martyr Church and the witnesses were Thomas Hawes and Harriet Purkis. When they married they already had 4 sons - why had they not married sooner?

George was aged 32 when he married Harriet - was he already married when he met Harriet???

A search of possible marriage and death entries produced:

George Payne married a Nancy / Sophia / Mary Ann in Mar Qtr 1850 (aged 20 if ours) in Portsea. A Mary Payne died in Dec Qtr 1859 in Portsea.

George Payne married in Dec Qtr 1850 in Portsea - possible spouse names unknown.

Several George Pain/e/Paynes married in south London in the late 1840s and early 1850s.

Alternatively, perhaps Harriet could not obtain her father's permission to marry and had to wait until she was 21? (see notes on Harriet)

1871 Census - ? Little Vine Street, Lambeth, age 41, occupation: labourer, born Hampshire, Portsmouth. Living with wife Harriet Pain, and 6 sons: George, Charles, Thomas, Lewis, John and

Frederick and baby daughter Minnie

1881 Census ref 0586/116/2 - 14 College, St, Lambeth, occupation: caman, residing with wife Harriet and children. The three eldest sons (Lewis, Thomas and Frederick) were also recorded as carmen.

1891 Census - Harriet is recorded as a widow.

Deaths indexes:

George Pain - age 52 (1830) - Lambeth Reg. District - Dec Qtr 1882.

George married Harriet Hawes daughter of John Hawes and Ann on 26 Jan 1862 in Southwark, Surrey (London). Harriet was born in 1833 in Lambeth, London. She died in Dec 1896 in Lambeth Registration District.

1841 Census - Vine Street Bown Square, Waterloo 2nd, Lambeth, age 8 (1833), with (parents) John and Ann, and 2 younger siblings.

1861 Census - 16 Vine Terrace, Lambeth, age 27 (1834), born Westminster, York Street (I think this refers to nearby Westminster Bridge Road in Lambeth rather than the Westminster area - the enumerator seems to have been quite specific about birthplaces in his returns)

1871 Census - ? Little Vine Street, Lambeth, age 35 (1836), born Lambeth.

1881 Census ref 0586/116/2 - 14 College, St, Lambeth, age 44 (1837), born Lambeth.

1891 Census - 7 College Street, Lambeth, widow, age 51 (1840), born Lambeth.

1901 Census - not found

Birth/christening records - not found - note that national registration of births did not begin until September 1837 and even then an estimated 10% of births were not registered until fines were introduced some years later. No suitable baptism has been found on the IGI - her father's and his siblings' baptisms in Bushey are listed so it may be that she was baptised but that the records of that particular church have not yet been entered on the IGI.

Death indexes:

Harriet Elizabeth Pain, age 64 (b1835), Sep Qtr 1899, Camberwell Reg. District

1871 Census - ? Little Vine Street, Lambeth, age 13 (1858), born Lambeth.
1881 Census - Thos. age 18 (1863) ? This does not tie in with the earlier records, perhaps the name is actually John? Note that John born 1863 appears in 1871 but not with his parents in 1881 - was he Thos? or living away from his parents, or had he died? Also, a Thos. Kitchen, also age 18, was recorded as a boarder with the family - perhaps the enumerator confused the names?
