

"Tump, one word of unquestionably Algonkin derivation, seems to have been overlooked (in Chamberlain's List of Indian loan-words in English). The compound word "tump-line", a pack-strap or portage strap. It is given in the Century Dictionary as probably derived from French "tempe", temple, on account of the strap being worn across the forehead and temple when in use. The Abenaki word "ma-dum-bi", which might, I think, with equal accuracy be written "na-tum-pi" (as the D partakes in a marked degree of the sound of "t", as the "b" equally of the sound of "p", is, I believe, its true source of derivation; and it has the same meaning, that is, "pack-strap or burden strap".

"My authority is an Abenaki Indian, Elijah Tahamont." —DeCosta Smith, New York, NY.

Dr. Frank G. Speck (who was the authority on New England ethnology) probably did not visit Pembroke and its vicinity. In his "Territorial Subdivisions and Boundaries of the Wampanoag, Massachusetts and Nauset Indians", (which was no. 44 of the Indian Notes and Monographs of the Museum of the American Indian, New York, 1928 page 8) he refers to "a small band of 5 families and 25 souls at Mamatakeset Pond in Pembroke township (which were the Mattakesets —ET) and a few stragglers under the name of Tumpums at Tumpum Pond. (Actually, most of those so enumerated were in Lynn — ET).

Apparently the neglect of the work of Dr. Speck led to this rather careless work of his, otherwise timely. He must have supposed that if there were a pond at Mattakeset there must have been a pond at Tumpum also. Apparently there never was a Tumpum Pond. Dr. Huden, in "Place-Names of New England", speaks of one but does not locate it. He probably got the idea from Dr. Speck. There is a signboard labeled "Tumpum" near the old Indian Meetinghouse at Mashpee in Barnstable County and there is a little moisture near it, but no sign of a pond.

Two other possible derivations exist.

My friend, Mr. Russell Gardner, who claims Cape Cod Indian ancestry, has supposed that Tumpum was derived from Mashantampaine, a sachem of the Yarmouth Indians (near Mashpee) whose descendants might have made their home there; and abbreviated the name. We do not think that is the answer; although something like that may have happened.

From the life of one "Eleanor Eldridge" (an individual of Indian and Negro blood, we have seen only the second edition of her life, Providence, 1842) we learn that she was born in Warwick, R.I., March 26, 1785. Her maternal grandmother, Mary Fuller, was a native Indian belonging to a small tribe or clan called the Fuller Family.

What seems more probable is the following: The name Tumpum is doubtless an abbreviation of the name Natompam. Such abbreviations were not rare.

It seemed as if the name "TUNK" might have been an abbreviation of Wecektu(n)ket, the local Indian name of Kingston, Mass., if that name were, as supposed, nasal. From its location it might be Wampanoag, as Dr. Speck supposes the Tumpums to have been. The "—et" is very like the English "at"; and dropping the first two syllables (and Indian names often lost syllables somewhere as Titicut for Kehtehticut and Saughtuckdt for Massuaghtuckrt, you have Tunk. The Indians of Kingston are not otherwise known to survive, so this hypothesis by no means seems impossible.

As published, the legends of the Mattakeset Indians speak of their hostility to the Tunks of the next valley, but, I fear that the legend is manufactured and not genuine. Mr. William Bryant in 1914 considered these legends hopelessly corrupt; he seems to have been our one reliable authority upon the subject.

The greatest authority upon New England folklore we suppose to have been Clifton Johnson of Springfield, Mass. If he had been interested in Indians, he might have solved our problem for us. When the writer taught school in Vermont, we were loaned a book on folklore from the Vermont Library Loan; which book contained a very old story on one Farmer Tump and oxen. Tump might represent Tunk, but old as it was, the story did not mention Indians. Further, we have lost track of it.

In "David Harum", a popular novel of the last century, we find the Indian loanword "netop", meaning friend, and derived from some Algonquin dialect. The authority on New England Indian language, Roger Williams' Key Into the Language of America gives the plural "netompaog", which indicated that the second vowel was nasal. In Col. Benjamin Church's History of King Philip's War, published by his son, "Netop" is used for Friend Indians; and looks akin to Tump or Tumpum.

There are two other suggestions from "Tump".

First, from Sylvester Judd in his History of Hadley, chapter 31:

"Muskrats have been plenty in some parts of Hampden (County) for two centuries and they are still hunted, perhaps more for sport than for the skin. When a flood covers most of the meadows and lowlands; and muskrats are driven from their habitations, boats may be seen in Northhampton and elsewhere, carrying men with guns and a dog; and now and then is located the peculiar clicking noise made by the discharge of a gun near the water; and the dog leaps into the water and brings to the boat a musquash if one has been killed. They are hunted in other ways. The animal was called tump in Northhampton 100 years ago and still is; perhaps an Indian name."

There was also a word "tump" for a carrying strap, completely called "tump-line". We quote the "Journal of American Folklore", April to June 1903; Vol. 16, Number 61:

Two children: Robert Ames, Blanch.
Blanch married Dr. Hughes. Four children: Bennet, Clara, Margaret, Eleanor.

Robert Ames Bennet 1870-1954. Born and died in Denver, Colorado. Married Susie Honsley. One child, Harold Honsley Bennet.

Harold Honsley Bennet 1896-1974. Born in Denver, Colorado. Married Edith Carr. One child, Geoffrey Carr Bennet.

Geoffrey Carr Bennet Born 1925. Married Mona Bennet.

Grover Bennett of Middleborough, Massachusetts was a descendant of Elisha Bennet, 1758-1819. He spelled his name with two "T's". He said his teacher always spelled Bennet with two "T's" and he stopped correcting her. He did not accompany his father to Maine, but remained in Middleborough. He had three daughters: Carrie, Jane and Nellie. They were the last owners of the "Bennet Farm". Sold in 1948, it went out of the Bennet family after 261 years.

THE BENNET HOUSE

Built between 1687 and 1681. Standing on the step is Grover Bennett. The second house to be built on the Bennet Farm, it was burned in 1907 by sparks from a railroad train. Another house was built on the same location which still stands and is the house occupied by Grover Bennett and his family, the last of the Bennets to live on the old "Bennet Farm."

In Volume XLX, No. 3, page 14 of the Middleborough Antiquarian, Edward W. Toole of Bridgewater authored an article entitled "A New England Mystery: Who Are the Tumpums?" Following is more about the Tumpums by Mr. Toole.

WHO ARE THE TUMPUMS?

by Edward W. Toole

According to the 1861 Report of John Milton Earle, Indian Commissioner of the State of Massachusetts in 1861 (his predecessors seem not to have mentioned them):

"TUMPUM Tribe: The Tumpums are supposed to have been a local tribe or subdivision of a tribe, whose former residence was in Pembroke and vicinity. Traces of them have been found in other places where they have intermarried, and the name is still found in Marshpee. The number (then) remaining, who are not included in other tribes, is fifteen.

"Those over 70 are abigail Christopher, aged 75, and David Fuller, aged 71.

"The members of this tribe appear to be capable, intelligent and moral. One aged person has received some public assistance. They are understood to be in enjoyment of their civil rights, as citizens of the State".

Incidentally, in this Report the State reported very few Indians of pure blood, none of whom can have been Tumpums; nor were they in possession, as far as we know, of any real estate.

The very first reference we have found in reference to the Tumpums is in the files of the Commissioner, in preparation for the above mentioned report: "Mrs. Christopher probably daughter of Sambo Fuller, Negro, and an Indian woman, name not known. I should like to know the significance of the word Tumpum which appears in [illegible]".

The date of the note was about 1859; and we do not know that he ever found out. It is true that he did try to trace the family to Mashpee (where the last name had persisted but its origin was forgotten). Outside of the above, the first reference in public print seems to occur in the Plymouth County Directory by Dr. F. Collamore, M.D.:

"David Fuller was descended from the Tumpum Tribe. This was probably a family or patriarchal name."

When a people appears from nowhere, it would be logical to search for a people who had disappeared in the immediate vicinity. There had been mention of a tribe of "Tunks" near the town of Hanson. While the locality of Tunk (altho Dr. Huden, an authority on New England place-names suggests the name English, which is unlikely) is certain enough, that group seems to have left no known record; and there is no record of their selling or owning a foot of land.

THE BENNET FAMILY

Mrs. Harold H. Bennet of Denver, Colorado, a member of the Middleborough Historical Association for many years, responded to our appeal for genealogical material by sending a history of the Bennet family. Her late husband, Harold Honsley Bennet, was deeply interested in his family's genealogy, which includes Middleboro ancestors, and in 1964 went to Bristol, England to consult family records there, but was told all was destroyed when Bristol was bombed in World War II. Mr. Bennet had devoted years to compiling a history of the Bennet family, but died before his work was completed. In an issue of the Middleborough Antiquarian of October, 1970, was published an article by Mr. Bennet, "The Bennet Houses of Middleborough."

Peter Bennet Father to three sons who sailed from Bristol, England, for Jamestown, Virginia Colony, America, in 1664. One brother (name unknown) remained in the Virginia Colony; one brother (name unknown) settled in the New York Colony.

John Bennet The third brother. Settled in the Massachusetts Colony and is the ancestor of Harold H. Bennet's branch of the family. He was born in England in 1641. At the age of 23 left for America, arriving in Jamestown in 1664. He married Deborah Grover. He died at the "Bennet Farm" in Middleboro in 1717. Buried in the old cemetery at the Green, Middleboro. He was active in the church there and purchased the John Nelson homestead on March 5, 1687. It then became the "Bennet Farm".

John Bennet. (son of John Bennet (1641-1717).) Born at the "Bennet Farm", Middleboro, Mass., 1671-1761. Married Patience Cobb.

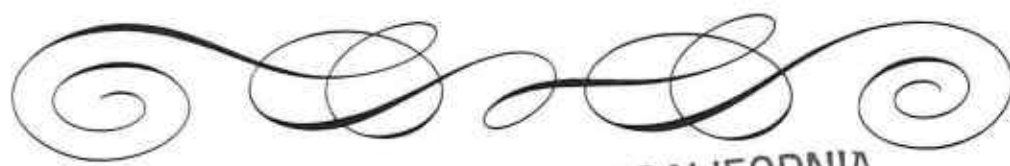

Nehemiah Bennet. 1705-1769. Born on the "Bennet Farm". Married Mercy Thompson.

Jacob Bennet 1725-1799. Born on the "Bennet Farm". Married Hope Nelson. Relative of John Nelson, former owner of the "Bennet Farm". Purchased from him in 1687.

Elisha Bennet 1758-1819. Born on the "Bennet Farm". Married Lucy Raymond. In 1794 moved to Fairhaven, Mass. In 1809 moved to Chesterville, Maine. Bennet families too large for the "Bennet Farm" to support. Elisha Bennet is buried in Chesterville, Maine.

Elisha Bennet 1794-1844. Married Maria Bradbury. Moved from the "Bennet Farm" in 1809 to Chesterville and Carthage, Maine. Moved in 1831 to Ohio. In 1839 moved to Andrew County, Missouri. Buried in "The Bennet Lane Cemetery" near Savannah, Missouri. When passing the Great Lake in their covered wagon they could see the tops of the masts on Perry's ship, sunk during the fight. Their children were Isaiah, John, Elisha, Joseph, Hiram Pitt

Hiram Pitt Bennet (Judge) 1826-1914. Born in Carthage, Maine. Died in Denver, Colorado. Pioneered in Maine, Ohio, Missouri, Nebraska, Washington, D.C., where he was the first Territorial Delegate in Congress from the Colorado Territory. Married Sarah McCabe in 1852, Fremont County, Iowa. Died in Denver, Colorado. Four children: Hiram, Jr., John, Alexander, Sarah. Married Clara Ames in 1868 in Denver, Colorado. Buried in Denver.

sending me to law school beginning this September. He figures I will be much more useful to him as a lawyer than I am doing genealogy! At any rate I won't be able to do any, except during the summer for the several years until I pass my bar exam. So I won't be able to help you very much until next summer. My upstairs neighbor, who also happens to be a lawyer, Kenneth Dobyns, is compiling a directory of genealogical researchers who are for hire worldwide. He has several thousand replies already! It will be published around January 1st, and you will find it easy to hire a researcher in the fields you want. It looks like a very good book! If you want I can ask him to sell you one when it is ready. I have never needed a researcher yet, because my husband good naturedly sends me off on data collecting trips to visit my mother in Rhode Island and work on my Bennetts, but Ken's book makes it tempting!

If you have any more data on either of your early William Bennetts or Martha Whitehouse, I would like to see it; and especially if you figure out where you connect up to the Rhode Island families I'd like to hear it. Even if I am in the middle of law school exams, it will cheer me up!

Dear Mrs Wintz,

I'm sorry it has taken me so long to reply to your letter. We have had house guests or been out of town ever since Memorial Day and my genealogy is suffering!

I looked around a little for your Bennetts at the library of Congress, but didn't find anything substantial. The Boston Transcript - genealogy column for 22 December 1930, #1082 had a query about Charles & Acsah Bennett. It gave the married names of their children and the children of Charles Jr who m Eliz Sanders, but didn't help working backwards. It did say Charles was born in Rhode Island in 1761, and died 27 June 1855 in North River New York.

I also checked the genealogies:

The Greaves of R.I. by George Greene CS 71 . G8 1903
The Rhodes Family in America by Howard J. Rhodes CS 71 . R475 1959

and did not find Acsah.

Since Charles was born in Rhode Island in 1761, son of William, then he had to be

II descended from one of the 3 Bennett families in Rhode Island.

- ① I think he was probably descended from Edward Bennett the emigrant ancestor, whose son Samuel² of Providence & E Greenwich 1611-1684 married Anna —

I don't have very complete data from generation 3 on, and the only William I can find who's dates are anywhere near right is Jonathan & Benjamin, neither of whom I trace further.

Both were born by 1753 when William³ mentioned them in his will. No Elizabeth was mentioned, ~~which~~ ~~would seem to make~~ The chances are very small this is the right William, but it's the only one I have that sounds right.

- ② He could possibly be descended from the Bennett family whose genealogy I'm compiling. John¹ of Strington Conn - John² m Elizabeth Park - Thomas³ of Preston Ct & Foster R.I married Jemima Harrington. I don't think he is, because I have almost the whole family at that period, and I'm not missing a William, although he could be.

- ③ He could possibly be descended from John Bennett¹ and Deborah Grover of Middleboro Mass. The sons of Joseph² & Juanna (Perry) Bennett all settled in Smithfield & Cumberland R.I. But I have the children of 3/4 of the sons & no William that fits. I do not have the

Dear Sirs:

There is enclosed an envelope and two dollars in hope that you may help me in my search for verification of the births, marriage and deaths of my great grandparents. These are my missing links in my effort to establish my second Revolutionary war ancestor. I just received a ¹cue in answer to an advertisement that in the D.A.R. Lineage books, Volume 81, page 335 would be able to prove the information I need on Arminia Bennett and Nathan Bennett. They had the same surnames. Since we live a great way from a good library I am hoping that I may secure this information thro this office. If I have not sent enough money please advise..

I have also enclosed a rough copy of the pedigree chart so you will understand my problem. I have proof of all information other than Arminia & Nathan Bennett. I am quite sure they spent their entire lives in various places in the State of New York.

Thank you so very much for this service.

Very Sincerely,

- (1). There are 12 pages of notes copied from French's Gazetteer for the State of New York dated 1860. All the notes herein are for dates prior to 1858. This is a rare book to find and it would be advisable to locate this book in your local area if it is possible. It is worth reading. And again, you may already have read this book. That I do not know but am in the hopes you will give answers so that I may not repeat myself. In addition, if you have information of this kind, it would be a welcome additive to my already large 4x6 index card file.???
- (2). There is no doubt that many of these surnames herein will NOT fit your line. Again, I do not know but it would be interesting to hear from you if any one of these items has struck a happy chord. ???
- (3). Also, it would be a welcome bit of information if you were to tell me if Mrs. Wintz and Mrs. Harding had ever corresponded prior to this memorandum.???
- (4). I have been searching through a book titled:- East Hampton History of Long Island, New York and it includes Genealogies of Early Families. Written by Jeannette Edwards Rattray. 1953 619pp. It covers the Bennett family back to the first record of a ~~James~~ Bennett dated 12.27.1659. Richard Bennett made a sworn statement with David Gardiner of Gardiner's Island. This book might throw some light on your questing. Many of these Bennetts left Long Island for Conn. & Mass. and up state New York. If this book can be located in YOUR STATE Library, it might be worth a look through.
- (5). Do not pass up the Dimmick items as they are all tied into the Bennett lines. Let me know if any of these items on Dimmick are relevant??
- (6). Stephens or Stevens are inter-married into the Bennetts as are the Wheelers/Kidneys/Baldwins and the Titus families. Again let me have some answers on these, please?
- (7). The research on the Stephens Towns and Villages were taken from French's. And they are authentic as of 1858.
- (8). Sodus, New York was the home of the Eastwoods and the Gilmans and these families tie into the Bennetts and the Wordens.
- (9). On my OWN Pedigree Chart you will note a Philip Bennett married a Nancy Bennet. They were not cousins. Philip spoke English and could read and write. His wife Nangy could NOT read or write, could not sign her name, chewed snuff and spoke very little English as she was as French as they came in those days. The spelling of these names between the French (Benna) and the English Bennett has been a stumbling block to seeking the correct spelling which is quite twisted in the 1790 Census for New York State. There are Bennetts who should be Benna and Bennays who should be Bennetts. Some of these I have untangled and am sure of the record but it has been a task which has taken many years and more to come.

Dear Mr. Gale:

Thank you so very much for your card containing references and information about my family history. You provided help in my "missing link" namely Nathan & Arminia Bennett. Altho I am now a member of DAR on a paternal line, I have known for years that my great great grandfather, Charles was in the Rev. war. I have been unable to find Nathan & Arminia Bennett. Achsah Ann Bennett was my grandmother, mother of my mother. (I usually place all ad. etc in my husband's name as it is easier for the genealogical magazines!) On a separate sheet I will enter what information I have but it is very little beyond the fathers of Charles and Achsah and when I found they were both named William I decided on simply trying to prove Nathan & Arminia's births, marriage and death dates but hve so much conflicting information. During the past two years I have worked a little at the Mormon Library which is in our nearest small city and began searching the New England Antiquarian which started around 1850. I have many Bennett references but these notes are not in order.. As soon as possible I hope to return to work on this history. The past year I've had a major health problem, back surgery and now a brace- plus the fact I'm trying to conquer an electric typewriter.

My husband and I took a trip around the U.S. in 1969 trying to gather family history. We were in upper N.Y. around Glenn Falls and I found two distant cousins who are also directly related to Charles Bennett but they could not give me any information that was of value. We did try to locate the burial place of Charles both at Fort Edwards and North River but failed.

My grandmother and her husband, Ransom Varney, came to California about 1886 or 7. If you want the recent family information of (that is the last three generations I will be happy to chart them for you)

Since we are so far from large libraries I shall send to National DAR with you reference and see if they will send me copies of the information I need. I do have copies of Charles Rev. war records and his pension record..

I have had three different names for Charle's wife Achsah's surname. My grandmother gave me Greene, the relatives at Glenn Falls gave me another which I cannot locate right now and you gave me Rhodes.

I have enclosed a stamped envelope for your convenience in replying. I am wondering if you are a professional genealogist and perhaps can do this for me or whether you are simply working on your family history as I am doing.

Anyway you have really given me a lift- and THANK YOU!

Very sincerely,

This about covers the entire book. It was thoroughly read during the month of March after getting it from the State Library at Albany, NY.

The relationship of the various surnames are not authentic in all instances but a study of the various co-lateral names in the Huffman/Hoffman lines shows a distinct link which has to be investigated as the future time will allow.

Wells are very definitely tied to the Baldwins and Kidneys. The Wheeler line is part of the Kidney line and along the way the Lansing line is tied to it in Dutchess County.

The Eastwood ties in through Sardenia French (Huffman) Eastwood and again we have a family surname of Ellsworth which goes back into the Kidney line. Also, in the Eastwood line we have a dominating name of Randolph being used as given name.

Titus is a bit harder to pin down and not too much is known at this time.

We have been concentrating on the Bennett/Bennet lines as they seem to be a KEY to all of the lines.

Also, the Bennetts are tied to Wordens and the Eastwoods.

All these notes require a careful study, even though many of them may NOT be directly connected, THEY MUST certainly can not be ignored if one is to compile a complete history.

The Huffman spelling with a 'U' is not original. I have definitely proved that it was spelled with an 'O' by tomb stone records as well as church records.

There are other names which have been copied because they are names attached to Pedigrees of some of my correspondents around the country and curiously some of these names are part of the Bennett/Bennet/ Kidney lines. How they tie in is not readily apparent at this time but analysis will show a more definite connection as time passes.

Memos on Nathan Bennett & Charles Bennett.

- (1). Enclosed are 2 pages for Nathan Bennett from 16, 4x6 file cards.
- (2). Enclosed is 1 page for Charles Bennett from 11, 4x6 file cards.
- (3). By way of explanation:- When ever I get, or run across an ITEM, it is entered on a 4x6 card in it's entirety and some times covers both sides of one card and runs over into a second card.

The file is NEVER checked before typeing a new item and this makes for duplicate cards BUT it brings to light many things of interest when the cards are carefully filed.

This makes extra work??? Not at all, it makes for accuracy and amounts to several thousand Bennett/Bennet cards.

- (4). For example:- Card #4 on Nathan Bennett. In cross filing on this name alone the number of 4x6 cards amounts to 5 cards (one for each Bennett).

Card #3. on Nathan Bennett has 6 cross filed cards.

Card #5. on Nathan Bennett has 6 cards.

- (5). I think this makes the picture clear, I hope.
- (6). Now, all the items you sent me on YOUR line will be entered on 4x6 cards and cross filed.
- (7). I still have not sent to you all items on Nathan & Charles Bennett because I am BEHIND on my 4x6 filing from other sources and I still have several hundred 8 1/2 by 11 FAMILY Data sheets to check through and send you data on.
- (8). I HAVE NOT checked any thing which is enclosed herewith, with any of the data you sent, BUT will check it to see if any thing COMES close.
- (9). If you are still interested, keep in touch and send me data that I can pin DOWN to some thing tangible.

Bennett, Charles
1739- 1855
Bennett, Nathan ?
Bennett, Arminia
1807-1880

Dear Mr. Huffman

Your name was given me by the Surname Index as one who is searching the Bennett line. I have been unable to locate records of my great grandparents, Nathan and Arminia Bennett. Arminia was Charles daughter and she married a cousin who also was a Bennett. In searching the 1790 census I find both Charles and his father, William. They were then at Argyle, Washington County, N.Y. I wondered if they could have travelled north from Dutchess Co. There was a Nathan Bennett in the Town of Beekman, Dutchess Co., N.Y. and Nathan is a family name.

In reading the 1790 census I find almost two columns of Bennetts. I do not know where they originated but the name could be English. A brief family sketch follows:

Charles Bennett m. Achsah Green 1785 both born N.Y.
children were: Abigail, Charles Jr., Sabra, Achsah, William Lovina & Arminia. All born near Argyle Arminia Bennett married Nathan Bennett 1826 children were: Nathan, Charles, Mary Jane, William H.
Myron, John, George, Achsah Ann
Achsah Ann Bennett married Benson Varney 21 March 1864
children were: Sir Edmund, George Hanson, Lewis J.
Winna (Vinnie) Albert, Jennie & Myrtle.

My Mother Vinnie Varney m. Lloyd "M" Gregg 1897 children are: Helen, Hazel, Lloyd Jr., Patricia, Peggy.
I have proof of all except Arminia & Nathan Bennett. If you wish I can send more data.

There is enclosed an envelope for your convenience.
Thank you.

Very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Huffman:

Certainly I owe you an explanation and apology for not replying to your letters and thanking you for your information. We have had a few health problems and then the flu and I might as well admit to procrastination! I did make out a set of the form I have included and thought I would have them typed and then copied for mailing but I really do not like this form and thought I would set up something different. I did not include much inf. on the lines other than Bennett.

In Oct & Nov. last year we did go to the Mormon Library in our nearest town. It is open one day a week and its 35 miles away. I was able to trace the Varney line back to William who arrived Mass. 1649. There are Bennetts listed as far back as 1628. There is a William Bennett listed as one of a group forming a town in 1640.

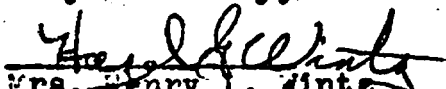

The Bennetts listed in the 1790 census I feel establishes my two Bennett families as William, Henry & Charles are all in Argyle Town and William, John, Israel and Ezra are all from Stephentown. These families must have been related as my grandmother always stated that her parents were distant cousins.

I have the military, pension and bounty land papers for Charles and I know that two women have belonged to DAR on Charles record. I also have found two distant cousins still living at Glens Falls but they have not been able to locate my missing link, Arminia who was Charles youngest child and Nathan Bennett. I do know the names of their children due to the excellent memory of my grandmother. However so far I have not found them on a census record. I still have to write to various towns as I find that New York State is very helpful. In looking at the map we found Bennetville last May when we visited N.Y. trying to trace my New York families. However the town historian there could not help me.

My 1893 atlas states that Stephentown is now listed as Stephens Mill. Since this is close to the area also of Bennet creek or Bennett Corners I feel that I must find some trace. According to the Civil war pension papers (widow) she lists her birthplace as Alton, Wayne Co. The Bennett relatives whom we visited near Glens Falls state that Nathan & Arminia lived atodus, also I realize that Bennett is spelled several ways.

When I have the material printed that I have secured I will send you a copy. One of my reasons for procrastinating is because I'm always hoping to get more information and I want my history to be as complete as possible for our six grandchildren. The Greggs arrived with Wm Penn's colony from Ireland about 1693. The Hargreaves arrived 1760 from England, The Varneys arrived 1649. Both the Greggs and Varneys were Quakers.

Very Sincerely,

Mrs. Henry L. Winters

Dear Mrs. Nintz

Since your one and only letter to me dated 10.1.69 and my several memos to you the last dated 10.12.69, I have been looking daily for a letter or memo from you.

I have absolutely no way of knowing if any thing I sent was any help or supplied any clue.

I have been writing to about 30 Bennett Hunters and any one of them might be able to help find your answer.

A complete Pelagie Chart on your line would certainly supply more information than contained in your letter of 10.1.69.

Please let me hear from you and don't send me stamped envelopes.

Sincerely

Wm. J. Huffman

Dear Mrs. Florence K. Grisham:

Your letter of 5-21-71 received and I have tried to give you as much inf. as possible in a short length of time. I am neither a typist nor a genealogist except for the joy of trying to find my own family! We leave in about two weeks for a slow trip but I am hoping to stop by the Salt Lake City (Mormon Temple) Genealogical Library to see what we can find first..

I have enclosed a handwritten copy of the family of Bennett. It is done in red.. The Bennetts are as hard to find as the Smiths and Browns, and believe me, I have both! On my handwritten copy of my Bennett record I have used red ink.. There are many spellings of Bennetts but I am following through on the the Bennett line for all of my records are in this line.. However this does not exclude the other spellings!

At the end of this letter I will give you the names of two genealogists who have given me much help-- but they are overwhelmed with their requests.. They will receive cc of this letter.

At this point I cannot help you either in names or dates.. On the ancestor chart I have given the Bennett line as it pertains to me. But remember that Bennett was spelled in many different ways. I am following the BENNETT spelling as that is the way I have found it in my ancestors records.. I could be wrong! Even in the DAR record for the same ancestor I find a discrepancy in the surnames!

At this point I have two different surnames for the wife of Charles Bennett, our Rev. war ancestor! There is a DAR record of 1925 that her surname was Green and this is the name my grandfather gave. Now I find there is another surname (Rhodes) and I am not sure where this information came from!

I hope I have not confused you further-- but the more I learn the more stupid I become!

All I can say is "Happy Hunting". When we return I will let you know if I have any more information.

The East Coast people who have helped me most are:

Mary (Bennett) Terwilliger ETC:

Terwilliger Family in Ulster & Greene Counties were very close to Kidney, Bennett & Huffman Families in early 1900's.

Terwilliger Family killed in 1909 on way home after burial of the mother of William L. Huffman, Sr.

While I do have some back (very early) history of the Terwilliger surname, I have never researched that name on other than cursory manner.

This page from DAR #80918 sounds very interesting.

Also SANDERS in Dutchess County were inter-married with Hoffmans and the Hoffmans are as much HUFFMAN as you can get.

RHODES: Do not loose sight of this family surname, it runs all through Madison, & Chenango, & Delaware, & Greene Counties.

Further information from me will give as much Rhodes as I can find.

It is an elusive LINE of another one of my correspondents from the past.

Memorandum concerning previous letters from 10.8.1969 to present date.

(1). On 10.12.1969, enclosure sent 2 pages on Nathan Bennetts items. This was similar to 4 pages enclosed today (9.9.1971).

(2). Same date. Same enclosure was 1 page on Charles Bennett.

(3). All files to be checked as of 9.9.1971 on (a). Charles Bennett or Charles Henry Bennett

(b). Henry Bennett

(c). William Bennett

William L. Huffman

Sayville, N. Y. 11782

Research to be forwarded under another separate cover.

(4). On 3.30.1970. 12 pages from French's Gazetteer of the State of New York. This was addressed to both Mrs. Wintz and Mrs. Harding. Enclosed memo with the 12 pages had 9 itemized numbered paragraphs.

(5). Letter from Mrs. Wintz dated 3.4.1970 in 4th. paragraph mentions having military, pension & bounty land papers for Charles Bennett.

(6). Fifth paragraph mentions Stephentown as Stephens Mills. Bennetts Creek and Bennetts Corners were all explained in French's Gazetteer.

(7). Sodus, NY has been very close to my Bennetts & relatives on the collateral lines.

(8). Stephens or Stevens (both spellings are correct in all old records and are for the same families). They were completely inter-married with EARLY Bennetts & in business partnerships.

(9). Mrs. Wintz's letter dated 8.18.1971 third paragraph states that Mrs. Gale submitted material as clue to proof of Nathan & Armina (Bennett) Bennett? Would like to check sources from Fairfield, Conn.

(10). Mrs. Wintz's letter dated 9.1.1971 raises question of whether these Bennetts were from New Hampshire VIA of Conn and NOT directly from Conn, thereby indicating a NEW line of Bennetts to be traced back THROUGH New Hampshire to Conn & Rhode Island. Files to be checked in that order.

CARD

- (1). Dated 1926. Nathan Bennett b. 1755, d. 4.8.1831. ae. 76. He is buried Elbridge Cemetery. Big Flats. Steuben County, New York.
- (2). Nathan Bennett b. 1746 Fairfield, Conn. d. 1822 in Saratoga County, NY. He was married to Huldah Barton.
Daniel Bennett s/o Nathan & Huldah (Barton) Bennett married Hannah Crawford.
Harriet Bennett d/o Daniel & Hannah (Crawford) Bennett was born 1822 and died 1904. Harriet Bennett married Frederick P. Brown.
Nathan Bennett served in the Rev. War. NOTE: D. A. R. #11668 says that Nathan Bennett 1746-1822 served at the Lexington Alarm and was taken prisoner at Fort Washington. He was born in Fairfield, Conn and died in Saratoga County, NY.
There is a question as to which state he served from in the RW. But, Mr. Huffman thinks it was Conn.
The Grave Marker in the Elbridge Cemetery, Big Flats (note another compiler) says Chemung County, NY) The grave stone is inscribed: Nathan Bennett d. 4.8.1831 ae. 76. Other stone says 'Huldah BARLOW, his wife'.
All the information on this card #2 is dated 1969. Note the discrepancies of dates and name from the DAR records. I have always questioned DAR records.
- (3). Nathan Bennett b. 1746 Fairfield, Conn. married Huldah Barlow.
Daniel Bennett s/o Nathan & Huldah (Barlow) Bennett married Hannah Crawford.
Mary Bennett was a daughter of Daniel & Hannah (Crawford) Bennett and Mary Bennett married B. Campbell Hoff.
DAR record #14020 says that Nathan Bennett served at the Lexington Alarm and was taken prisoner at Fort Washington and AT THE AGE OF ~~##~~ 76 in the year 1822 he was placed on the Saratoga County, NY Pension roles.
The three cards on this man (in the 4x6 card file) are undoubtedly the same man despite the conflicting statements in the DAR records. Vital is presumed to be from the DAR Lineage Books.
Grave marker in the Elbridge Cemetery, Big Flats in Chemung County, NY says that: 'Nathan Bennett d. 4.8.1831 ae. 76 (means he was born in the year 1755 and not in the year 1746).
Wife's marker says Huldah Barlow, his wife. No dates on her marker.
This card was dated 1967 and each one of these cards contains the information from as many different sources (correspondents to be exact).
- (4). Ensign Nathan Bennett b. 1746 married Huldah Barlow.
Daniel Bennett s/o Nathan & Huldah (Barlow) Bennett married Hannah Crawford.
Harriet Bennett d/o Daniel & Huldah (Barlow) Bennett married Frederick P. Brown and moved out to Geneseo, Illinois.
DAR record #35818 says that Nathan Bennett served as an Ensign in the Regiment of the Guards raised to defend the State (what state?) in 1777.
(Mr. Huffman thinks Conn)
Grave Marker in the Elbridge Cemetery in Big Flats, Chemung County NY says that Nathan Bennett d. 4.8.1831 ae. 76.
Huldah Bennett, his wife.
This card dated 1965 from party now deceased.

DAVID HARTFIELD,

General Insurance.

Probably no one insurance agency in Henderson county is better or more favorably known than is the agency conducted by David Hartfield, who has offices number 9 in the Rainin building, corner Main and First streets; telephones, Cumberland 162, Home 152.

David Hartfield writes fire, tornado, accident, plate glass, employers' liability and surety bonds of every description, and represents some of the largest and strongest companies known, among them the Germania Fire Insurance Co., of New York; Glens Falls Fire Insurance Co., of Glens Falls, N. Y.; Boston Insurance Co., of Boston; Rhode Island Insurance Co., of Providence, R. I.; Old Colony Insurance Co., of Boston; Eastern Underwriters, of New Jersey; Employers' Liability Assurance Corporation, of London, England; Citizens' Trust & Guaranty Co., of West Virginia; all of whom are entrenched behind ample capital and resources, and have a reputation for prompt adjustment of claims.

It is the duty of everybody to insure their property, whether it be large or small. It is not only a duty but a good business asset, and when you are thinking about insurance it would be well to remember David Hartfield and the splendid companies he represents.

No kidding to chop if you cook with gas.

Henderson County

Medical Society

We are indebted to Doctor James H. Letcher for the following interesting article:

The Henderson County Medical Society, an organization for the scientific improvement of its members by an interchange of ideas, in presenting essays, delivering addresses, exhibiting clinical cases, and discussing same, was organized in May, 1887. A preliminary meeting was held at the office of Dr. John T. Berry, May 11, and the organization was perfected May 27th by electing Dr. J. H. Hodge president, Dr. J. N. Powell vice president, and Dr. P. G. Valentine secretary and treasurer.

The first address was by Dr. John T. Berry, upon "The Unity of the Medical Profession," and at this first meeting the society recognized itself as auxiliary to the State Medical Society, and adopted the code of ethics of the American Medical Association, this code having since that time been adhered to by its members.

So earnest were these physicians that at a subsequent meeting a resolution was passed that any member who, without good excuse, was fifteen minutes late at a meeting should be fined 50 cents, and if absent the entire session, should pay a fine of not less than 50 cents nor more than $5.00.

It was in this Association that the McDowell Medical Society, an organization embracing this congressional district, and named for the greatest Kentucky surgeon, Dr. Ephriam McDowell, had its birth, and was instrumental in having the State Society recognize his achievements by appointing a committee of five physicians—one a member of this Society—to solicit funds with which to erect a monument to Dr. McDowell's memory in his home town, Danville. So far as the writer knows this was the first step of any importance taken to establish McDowell's claim for priority in a surgical procedure which has saved MANY, MANY thousands of years of life to women, and spread his name and his operation over the civilized world.

Credit is due this Society also for the creation of the "Kentucky State Board of Health, two of its members going to Frankfort during the sitting of our Legislature and making personal appeals to our representatives and senators to enact the law establishing the Board. When the law was passed, and the Board organized, it at once elected one of our members—Dr. Pinckney Thompson—its first president, who continued in office for many years.

Three other members of this County Society have served on the State Board.

As an evidence of how members of this Society are esteemed by the profession at large, I will mention that Henderson has furnished five presidents—two of whom, Drs. J. A. Hodge and Pinckney Thompson, have long since passed to their reward—for the State Medical Society, a greater number than any other city in the state—Louisville and possibly Lexington excepted.

Of three living, one has been president of Mississippi Valley Medical Society, another vice president of the International Association of Railway Surgeons. Two other of our members have been presidents of the Ohio Valley Medical Society, and another is Kentucky's representative on the Health Bureau of the American Medical Association.

Time and space forbid speaking of some distinguished attainments and traits of many of our departed members, but will mention, anyway, the name of Dr. John L. Cook, who, whilst not yet in the prime of life leaving here a wife and two small children, went down to Hickman, Ky., where the epidemic of yellow fever in 1878 was so fatal to many of her citizenship—several of the few number of her doctors being victims—and battled, both night and day, with the disease, until the dread poison entered his system, and he fell asleep and was buried there beside the new-made graves of his brother practitioners whose place he went to fill. Many months elapsed before his remains were allowed to be exhumed and brought back to Kentucky. Dr. Cook, like so many of our profession, was a martyr to his conception of a physician's duty.

Below are the names of the living members of the County Medical Society:

Thos. W. Taylor, Sam. C. Smith, J. N. Powell, T. Y. Howard, T. C. McCarty, Jas. W. Cooper, Jas. H. Letcher, Archibald Dixon, J. R. Sigler, L. O. Jones, J. W. Stone, Wm. A. Quinn, Elijah Branson, H. The featured Certificate of Death and Burial for John Archibald Bennett was found in the Society's Bennett Family File. As was the fantastic picture of William Evans Bennett children featured on Page 16. The child missing from the picture is Lucy Bennett Negley.

Contributions such as these items makes research as much fun as eating a whole pan of brownies with nuts. I'd like to thank everyone who has contributed to our family files and request to those who haven't to please send in anything you'd like to share. Bio of William Evans Bennett

Starling's History of Henderson, Page 722

WILLIAM EVANS BENNETT ~ was born on 27 January 1814, on the place he spent his life. He was a son of Evans Bennett and Elizabeth Morris, natives of Virginia and North Carolina. Mr. Bennett was educated at the country schools of his neighborhood. The school house where he was taught was a rude log hut with one door and a large dirt chimney. I have often heard him say that when his teacher, for any cause, proposed to apply the rod to him, his first object was to get between him and the chimney, and then make his escape by that outlet, which was almost as easy as going out of the door. Mr. Bennett was all his life a farmer, and, by close application and hard work, possessed himself of a competency sufficient to raise a large family of children and keep him and those who lived with him in his old age in comfortable circumstances. For many years he served his county as magistrate and was one of the most highly respected upon the bench. He was a plain, unassuming, Christian gentleman, full of life and humor, honest and temperate in all things. He bore no man malice; was a kind, congenial neighbor, and as greatly respected as any man who has lived in the county. Mr. Bennett died several years since, leaving a large family of children.

Bennett; Henry Bennett, the oldest; and three others. Mr. Bennett stated that his father came to Texas first by boat to New Orleans and then to Texas. He stayed for a time then went back to Alabama and the second and final trip to Texas was by wagon train.

The Bennett ancestor was WILLIAM BENNETT who came with at least one brother, they came from Ireland. William Bennett became a Baptist preacher in South Carolina, and a Chaplain in the South Carolina Militia during the Revolutionary War (according to research done by Cannie Bennett West). The family owned one-half interest in a large plantation and over 100 slaves. But, every-thing was lost during the Civil War, property, possessions of all kinds, and their Confederate money was worthless, so her father, David Alexander Bennett went to Texas to make a new start. From Bell County, Texas, they moved to a ranch in Dickens County, Texas, and in 1892, came to Berwyn, Indian Territory (later called Gene Autry), finally coming to the Hird Community in 1896.

m. Lynn Francis Ables

In Opal Lee Ables family bible, she wrote that her father, Henry Lee, died in 1922 in Waskom, Texas, yet the State of Texas has no record of death for Henry Lee between the years 1920-1930. His youngest child was born in Texas, in 1922, and his wife, Mary Bryant, had remarried by 1930. She is listed on the 1930 Oklahoma Census (McCurtain County) with her second husband and three children. Since there is also no record of his death in the State of Oklahoma, the year and location of Henry Lee's death has not been verified.

One of Opal Lee Ables' earliest memories was of the time her and her family came to Oklahoma from Texas in a covered wagon. This would have been between 1922 and 1925.

Opal Lee married Roy Carl Bennett on 7 October 1925 in Millerton, Oklahoma. A daughter, Dorothy Lee Bennett, was born 23 December 1926 in Wright City, Oklahoma. On 23 September 1928, Carl Bennett was electrocuted while working on a telephone line in Frederick, Oklahoma.
