

The Waterville Times,
SUPPLEMENT.
WATERVILLE, NOVEMBER 24.

LITERARY.

We received this week the first number of the November Post, a new paper published by JOHN B. BLAIR and GEO. A. THOMAS. In politics, it will be Republican, and at the same time independent. Taking the copy received as a specimen the paper is unusually readable and interesting. It is splendidly printed and deserves, as it will undoubtedly receive, a large support. We extend the ink hand of fellowship.

The Union Herald recently passed its thirty-fourth birthday. As the Herald grows older the legs of its readers in Central and Northern New York grow constantly larger, and that journal was never so prosperous as now. With Editors of the highest ability, money and enterprise enough to get all the news, for news and dispatches it is devoted to print it as it is, our extended contemporary lacks none of those qualities which go to make up a clean and high-toned journal. It never panders to the low-minded and vicious, but to the best people it is the best paper.

One of the gems of our literary table this week is the Ladies Floral Album, published by Adams & Bishop, 46 Beekman street, New York. It is devoted to plants, flowers, home decorations and the thousand and one good things of interest to the ladies. It supplies a want long felt by ladies, as it contains an ably-illustrated and unvarying series of pictures in relation to the best varieties to grow, etc., which in itself is worth more than the price of the magazine.

Peterson's Magazine, for December, more than maintains its unrivaled character. There are two beautiful steel engravings: one of them a lovely little scene, representing children, singing a Christmas hymn; beside a superb steel fashion-plate, the latter exquisitely colored. In addition, there is a magnificent strip of cloth, in cross-stitch embroidery, printed in colors, which, at retail would cost fifty cents; this is presented to the subscribers of "Peterson's" as a Christmas gift. A charming story, "My Cousin Maud," is charmingly illustrated. The number contains a supplement with a full-sized dress pattern, alone worth more than the price of the number. Then there are some fifty other engravings. The price is but two dollars a year, six copies for nine dollars, with an extra copy to the person getting up the club. Address: Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to one of the greatest newspapers of the age—one that secures the best writers in this country and Europe, regardless of expense; has the best and fullest book reviews of any paper in the country; has able articles upon financial subjects; has departments edited by specialists and devoted to Fine Arts, Music, Science, Religious Intelligence, Mission, School and College, News of the Week, Human Notes, the Sunday School, Legal and Sanitary questions, Biblical Research (something that can not be found in any other newspaper in the United States), Farm and Garden, Insurance, Weekly Market Reports, etc.—in fact, a newspaper fully suited to the requirements of every family, containing a mass of information which can not be had in any other shape, and having a wide circulation all over the country and in Europe. We refer to THE FORERUNNER, of New York. "The largest, the ablest, the best." See advertisement in another column, and send a postal card for free specimen copy.

Commercial Paper. Last week we spoke of the Foreign Advertising and Collector's Agency Company, of Utica, and of their having appointed a local agent in Waterville. This week we have received the "Commercial Paper" and "The Advertiser and Collector's Chart," a monthly publication for the purpose of advertising the business of trade-men, manufacturers and professional men generally throughout the United States and other countries. It is also designed as a medium in which to advertise for sale, such bills, notes, demands or other claims, due subscribers, as are not paid at maturity, and from which they wish to realize immediately. This furnishes a valuable means of converting "old bills" into ready money, where the papers are "good for a little show," by selling them "for what they will fetch." And what is of the most importance in an honest community, it shows with unerring certainty and without any chance for fraud, those claims that are worthless, and thus exposes those persons who are not worthy of trust, by their obligations standing advertised for sale from month to month without being redeemed or finding a purchaser. No claim is advertised until ten days after a notice is mailed to the payer at the last address known to the agent, and all claims are withdrawn when settled, as the lists are revised every month. Particular pains is taken to preserve the credit and make reasonable terms to every person who shows a desire to pay, and every means will be used to enforce payment from those who are indifferent or try to evade, whether the claims are held by the original creditors or their assigns.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Eat hearty. —The early closing movement works well so far. Keep it up.—Camden Journal.

—Place a lighted lamp in your front window these dark nights. It will help pedestrians to follow their noses.

—Mrs. Carrie F. Jones, who claims to have had her birthplace in Brookfield, is under arrest in Rochester for setting fire to an inhabited block. It is supposed she is partially insane, and sometime prior to 1887, she spent four years in the Utica Asylum on this account.

—She had got fooled on Thanksgiving turkey too many times. So she told the market man her boarders were very heavy eaters, and out of a dozen geese displayed, asked him to select the nine toughest ones, then, after they were selected, she calmly picked up the three tender ones and said she would have those.

—Waterville puts on style and wants a cross-walk sweeper.—Camden Journal. We did want a sweeper, but nothing short of a horse and scoop will fill the bill now.

—The General Term has affirmed the decision of the State Assessors sustaining the appeal taken by the city of Utica and town of New Hartford from the equalization made by the Board of Supervisors in 1879.

DEANSTVILLE. Nov. 17.—At the adjourned school meeting held last night the report of the committee was rejected. Another committee was appointed and the meeting adjourned to December 2. Some of the school teachers of this vicinity will occupy their time this winter as follows:

Hart; Heath District, Miss Eva Cody; McMillan's Corners, Mr. Dorr; Randall District, A. L. Brooks; Hanover, Thomas McElhenny; Forge Hollow, Thomas C. Doherty; Hatheway District, E. J. Rockord.

Say I would rather walk, and not, I had rather walk. I doubt not that I shall, and not, but I shall.

For you and me, and not, for you and I. Whether I be present, or not, and not, or no. Not that I know, and not, that I know of.

Return it to me, and not, return it back to me. I seldom see him, and not, seldom or ever see him.

If I mistake not, and not, if I am not mistaken. Game is plentiful, and not, is plenty. I am weak in comparison with you, and not, to you.

It rains very fast, and not, very hard. In its primitive sense, and not, primary sense. He was noted for his violence, and not, he was a man notorious for violence.

Thus much is true, and not, this much is true. I lifted it, and not, I lifted it up.

New Jersey Industries.

New Jersey is becoming famous for her Cabinet Organs and Pianofortes. Within her borders lies Washington, a thriving young city whose rise in the world is directly attributable to one man and his enormous manufactory which stands in full view of all trains passing that place. This man is the Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, Mayor of Washington, well known to our readers from his frequent advertisements. His factory is a mammoth affair having a space of three acres within its walls and using an adjoining space of eleven acres for storage of lumber, etc. Mayor Beatty has won his way to the front rank by stalwart merit, in every detail of manufacture, keeping steadily in view the fact that people cannot afford to pay exorbitant middlemen's profits on Pianos and Organs.

He is one of the most responsible men and all who deal with him can depend upon obtaining not only superior instruments, but those lowest in price. Ten years ago Mr. Beatty was poor, obscure and pining before the hills of Hibernia Co., N. J. To-day he stands a brilliant example of what honesty, industry and thrift will do. Read his great offer in this issue. Send him your order early, or write at once for his latest illustrated catalogue. (Holiday edition.)

Colonel Higginson has been writing "Common Sense About Women." This is a very difficult thing for a man to do, isn't it ladies?
